Joseph Hooper, of Port Hope, father of J. R. Hooper, St. Vincent de Paul convict, had a lengthy interview with the Minister of Justice to-day. The case of the prisoner was gone into thoroughly, and Sir Charles promised to give his most careful consideration to the statements set forth in the petition for pardon or a new trial.

Hon. T. M. Daly will not reach home until to-morrow morning. He should have been in Ottawa this evening, but the Winnipeg train was 12 hours late.

Dr. J. G. Adams of Toronto attempted recently at the instance of the National Association of Women to examine the teeth of the Public School children, but was stopped by Inspector Glashan until such time as he had secured permission of the School Management Committee.

Every "case" in the Government Printing Bureau is now occupied, and work is being rushed ahead for the opening of the expected early session as fast as can be done with the day gang.

There was a row at the Trades and Labor Council here between delegates Smith and St. Pierre, who came to blows during a discussion on the question of boycotting Chinese laundries because of the non-employment of union labor. The delegates had to be separated by the president and other members of the council. The motion to boycott the laundries was carried.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN MANITOBA.

It is Believed Greenway Will Go to the Country at Once.

Winnipeg, Sept. 26.—Rumors were in circulation last night that it is the intention of the Manitoba Government to at once appeal to the people on the School question, the election taking place in November.

Premier Greenway said he knew nothing whatever of the report. He had just returned from his farm, and perhaps the balance of the Cabinet had decided to bring on an election.

However, he thought he would know if such a step had been taken.

The rumor probably arose from the fact that the voters' lists for the Lansdowne bye-elections were being prepared

Prominent Conservatives believe, however, despite the Premier's denial, that the elections will take place this year, and state that the Liberal candidates have received private notice from the Government to prepare for the fray.

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

A Farmer Tied Up in the Bush and Slashed With a Razor.

Brantford, Sept. 25.—One of the most extraordinary crimes ever recorded in Brant County occurred yesterday, near the village of Calnsville. Dufferin Cole, the 19-year-old son of a well-known farmer, was the victim, and it was thought for some time his hurts would prove fatal. Young Cole, between 2 and 3 o'oclock, went into the bush on his father's farm to scrape a pond out, and while engaged at the work he states that he was suddenly seised from behind by two men. He is a well-built young man and struggled hard, but without result, and his assailants succeeded in strapping his arms and legs. Then he was thrown on the ground, while one of the men sat on his prostrate form, and the other commenced to slash and mutilate him with a razor. After they had done this they disappeared in the bush, leaving their victim to crawl back to the house, where he was seen to be in a very precarious condition from loss of blood.

Cole says that he does not know his mysterious assailants. He describes them as both young men of medium size, each fairly stout, and wearing moustaches. He also states that both wore light suits. Not the slightest cause is known for the deed, as the victim bears an excellent character. Detective Adams is now at work at the scene of the assault.

THE SECRET OUT!

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from nine prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	Per Cent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.63	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 23, Annual Premium $177.

SCOLLIE MURDER TRIAL

Began To-Day and is Now in Full Swing.

THE HUSBAND AND WIFE NOT TRIED CONJOINTLY.

Mrs. Gray is Placed in the Box Alone to Stand Her Trial on the Charge of Murdering David Scollie on February 23rd, 1894—Trouble in Selecting a Jury—Address to the Jury by R. C. Clute, Q. C.

The Grand Jury concluded deliberating on the evidence before it in the various criminal cases on the docket at about five o'clock, last evening, and after leaving their decisions in a sealed envelope, adjourned until this morning.

It was soon noised abroad that a true bill had been found against Thomas and Hessie Gray and as the case was known to be the first on the docket, every seat in the court room had an occupant this morning an hour before the Judge ascended the dias. Of ladies there was a goodly sprinkling, although no special seats were reserved for them.

The members of the Grand Jury filed into their seats at twenty minutes to twelve o'clock and the clerk read the indictments as follows:

AGAINST THOMAS AND HESSIE GRAY FOR ARSON—TRUE BILL.

AGAINST THOMAS AND HESSIE GRAY FOR MURDER—TRUE BILL.

AGAINST FRANK SOMERS, FREDERICK MCDERMOTT AND DUNCAN MCRAE FOR HOUSE-BREAKING AND LARCENY—TRUE BILL.

AGAINST JAMES SAMPSON AND CLARISSA SAMPSON—FORCIBLE ENTRY—TRUE BILL.

The prisoner's, Thomas and Hessie Gray, appeared in the box, and in answer to the question "Guilty or not guilty?" both answered "Not guilty."

The two prisoners were perfectly self-possessed, and Mrs. Gray held in her arms her youngest child.

When the indictment was about being read to the two prisoners, Mr. R. C. Clute, Q.C., Crown Prosecutor, stated that only the female prisoner would be tried at present, and Gray was accordingly taken back to his cell.

On being asked if she was ready for her trial, Mrs. Gray answered in a clear voice: "Yes, sir! I am ready to go on."

Mr. W. A. Stratton appeared for the defence.

SELECTING A JURY.

Considerable difficulty was experienced in selecting a jury, as a large number was told to stand aside by the crown. The first twenty of the panel were called and exhausted, and another lot had to be called.

Wm. Rutherford, Otonabee.

George Milburn was challenged by the defense, and the panel was finally sifted down to the following jury:

Allan Gilchrist, Asphodel.
J. B. Powell, Otonabee.
J. S. McKee, Smith.
Donald H. Booth, Norwood.
J. A. McIntyre, Otonabee.
Richard Chown, Peterborough.
William Clark, North Monaghan.
Stewart Scott, Asphodel.
Edward M. Elliott, Smith.
Moses Fisher, Lakefield.
Wm. Wilson, Anstruther.
Wm. Shearer, Keene.

THE CROWN PROSECUTOR SPEAKS.

Mr. Clute, in his address to the jury, opened by explaining the importance of the duties devolving upon them. In a case of this kind, it rests with you, said he, to see to the proper administration of justice. The trial by jury, he continued, is very ancient, and one which the people of this country will long retain, provided that, as in the past, the jury will discharge their duty fearlessly. He was aware of the sympathy which a woman excited whilst in the box. The fact that the prisoner had a baby in her arms, and was the mother of other children, also demanded sympathy. The Crown fully realized this and would not unduly press certain points. He hoped the jury would look calmly into the evidence, and be able to feel afterwards that they had done their duty, without taking into consideration the fact that it was a woman whom they were judging.

The Crown prosecutor then ran briefly over the chief points of the case. Threats, he stated, of the most definite character had been made by the prisoner at the bar against the dead man. On the night in question the prisoner had been at home.

The location of the house in connection with the adjoining houses to the jury by means of a map.

WAS THEN ILLUSTRATED

Afterwards, he continued to state, a fire took place on the morning of Feb. 23. The first intimation of it was received by the neighbours when the McGregors were aroused by the children rapping on the windows. McGregor went over to the scene. He met Mrs. Gray and she told him that Scollie was in the fire. Mr. Clute then dwelt strongly on the point of Mrs. Gray not going directly to the Burnham residence instead of wandering off to a distance to secure aid.

The remark, alleged to have been uttered by Mrs. Gray, when she wanted to know why McGregor wished to get Scollie out at all, was enlarged upon by the Crown Prosecutor, who then went on to relate the circumstances connected with the finding of the body.

The contention of the Crown, he stated, was that if the man had been burned to death some traces of the head would have been found. The fact that the hair was not even singed on Scollie's breast was pointed out and the jury informed that medical testimony to show that, if the head was burnt off, this hair would necessarily have been also consumed.

Another of the points, Mr. Clute stated, on which the crown depends on to win its case is the interest which these people had in making away with Scollie and the fact that the body could not have assumed the position which it did if the old man had been burned alive.

He concluded by stating that perhaps the motive might not be considered quite sufficient for the crime, but that it was an acknowledged fact that by brooding over a fancied wrong, the idea of righting it often takes such complete possession of a person's mind as to assume precedence over every other thought and almost make it the object of life.

THE EVIDENCE TAKEN.

THE FIRST WITNESS.

W. L. INNIS, land surveyor, was the first witness called for the Crown. He had made a plan of the premises and of the residences in the immediate vicinity. He explained the measurements and the relative distances on the plan.

THE SECOND WITNESS.

MARK BURNHAM, sworn, testified that he lived with his father, about 100 yards from the Gray residence, across the road. The first intimation he had of the fire was when he was awakened on February 23rd, 1894, at about two o'clock in the morning, by McGregor. He dressed and was over at the fire in about seven or eight minutes. The bottom story was all on fire and the eaves smoking when he arrived. Smoke was coming out of the north windows. He could not enter as the interior was on fire downstairs. It was a very cold stormy night. McGregor was there when he arrived. His father was next on the scene. He saw the body of Scollie removed. He visited the scene twice that morning. The second time was at 6 a.m. when the house was entirely consumed. The first he saw of the body was when it was dug out by Mr. Weir and others. He saw no trench dug around it. He was within 15 or 20 feet of it and saw it

WAS COVERED WITH BLANKETS.

He did not see the blankets removed.

Cross examined by Mr. Stratton, the witness stated that he understood McGregor to call out that Scollie had been burned alive. It would take McGregor about a minute to run over to the house. He was not sure whether Scollie was inside or not when he first arrived. He made no effort to awaken Scollie as he thought if he was inside he must be dead.

THE THIRD WITNESS.

Zaccheus Burnham, sworn, testified that he lived just across from the Gray residence. He knew Scollie to be a stout, healthy old man. He didn't remember when he last saw Scollie. He was alarmed at the same time as the last witness. When he arrived the house was pretty well burnt at the east side. The west was not so far gone. The roof had not altogether fallen in. He heard Scollie was burnt. The fire was too hot to allow any one to enter at this time. He called the Scrimgers up and afterwards went home. He went back again at about 11 o'clock, and saw the body when it was taken out. Scollie lay on his back. His hands were crossed in front of him. He saw the clothing taken off the body. Hair covered his breast up to his neck and was not burnt at all. He did not see any head on the body when he helped to lift it out. He did not see how the fire could have been tempered differently at the head than any other part of the body, which was uniformly covered with plaster and debris. He thought he might have been of some assistance if he had been called as soon as the fire was discovered—that is, if Mrs. Gray had called him instead of looking for aid further off. He thought the body discovered was that of Scollie. It was of the same size. He identified the plans drawn by Mr. Innes as being correct. The Grays had lived across from him for five or six years. He was with all of them. There was nothing to prevent him being called upon in case of fire. He had given the Grays a stove when the children were ill.

Cross-examined by Mr. Stratton, the witness stated that, though good friends, his family was not at all on intimate terms with the Grays. He arrived on the scene of the fire just after his son. McGregor told him the old man was in the house. He did not attempt to arouse Scollie. He might have thrown a rail through the window, but the fire was too far advanced for such a thing to be of any use. He knew Scollie was in the south-west room up-stairs. He could have saved him if called ten minutes sooner. The west end was not all burnt when he arrived. He could not tell if the floor of Scollie's room had fallen when he arrived.

THE FOURTH WITNESS.

JOHN GRAHAM WEIR, sworn, testified that he lived about a mile and a half south of the burned building. He had known David Scollie for many years. He was a stout, heavy set man, weighing about 180 pounds. He was a vigorous healthy man about 60 or 64 years of age. He saw him about a week before the fire. Witness heard of the fire at about 7 o'clock in the morning and drove over to the place. The walls were all down and the debris was burning up, being piled about as high as his head. Mr. Burnham had pointed out where he thought the body was and they had thrown water on the spot. He then dug a trench around the spot till he struck the floor. He thought it was the floor of the house. He did not think there was any cellar under this portion. When the body was removed, plaster, laths and bits of board were removed to the depth of about eight inches. There was as much covering over the spot where the head should have been as over the rest of the body. The body was on a straw stick. The straw was not consumed under the body. He understood that Scollie slept on the lower floor of the house and had not fallen from above. When the body was taken out it was complete with the exception of the head which was missing. One foot, too, was burnt off as far as the instep. He had woollen socks on. The clothes were tucked in around him as though he had drawn them in on account of the chilly weather. The arms were folded across the breast beneath the clothes. The hair on the breast was uninjured; it grew up to a point within three inches of where

THE HEAD WAS SEVERED.

The neck seemed to have been left longer behind than in front. When he saw the neck he at once felt convinced that the man's head had been cut off. He did not see the body afterwards.

In cross-examination Mr. Stratton asked the witness if he had not gone to Mr. Armstrong and asked him how his son-in-law, Mr. Smithson, one of the jurymen, felt on this question. The witness admitted that he had done so, also that he had accompanied Detective Murray, when that official was searching for evidence. He had gone with Mr. Murray to McGregor's, where Mrs. McGregor was interrogated, and had also

THE MILLINERY DISPLAY

This season surpasses all our former efforts. The styles, of course, are the latest, and, judging by the large number of orders taken, our effort to save our customers the wholesale man's profit is appreciated by all. Being the only firm that buy these goods direct from the manufacturers, we are in a position to sell at the same price as our competitors buy. It is quite true that every house, however small, even though all their stock could be put in one packing case, declare in their exaggerated statements that they buy direct from makers.

We know whereof we speak, when we tell you that if it were not for our connection with The Canadian Dry Goods Syndicate, we individually could not buy from the large manufacturers—and we think we can buy about as many goods as most houses.

True, any house can buy from such manufacturer's as sell to the retail trade only, but in many cases the wholesale house is preferable. Large European Manufacturers do not take orders from individual retail stores—buying through Canadian agents who are responsible for the account and who have added their profits to the prices, though the goods are shipped from the maker, we claim is not buying direct. Therefore as members of the great Syndicate,

WE LEAD THE TRADE

And our fast growing trade is a proof that our values are right.

THE DISPLAY OF JACKETS

Is equal to that shown by any city house from the cheapest to the very highest-priced garments. Everyone should see our range before purchasing.

DRESS GOODS.

Every Lady that visited our store will tell you that she never saw such a lot of beautiful, yet reasonable priced Goods at any opening display. Our Dress Goods trade is one of the largest in the Eastern part of the province.

LADIES' UNDERWEAR.

This Department has scored a grand success. We show such a variety and having the HEALTH BRAND confined to us this season, has increased our sales very much. Already we have sent several repeat orders for these goods which is proof that they are selling.

MEN'S SUITINGS, OVERCOATINGS AND MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

Are acknowledged to be the best value in the trade. Seeing is believing. Call and see. No charge to show the goods.

CARPETS AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS.

This display was admired by everyone. The Bedroom furnished complete with Carpets, Curtains, Bed Spreads and everything in blue to match evoked the greatest praise. The immense stock in this department enables us to make such a display.

THE INCREASE IN OUR TRADE makes us firmer believers in SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS. Ours is the People's Popular Cash Store.

CANADIAN ORDER OF WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

A Local Camp is Organized—Degrees Conferred Last Night.

The Canadian Order of Woodmen of the World have established a camp in town within the last few weeks and last evening Grand Sovereign Hawthorne, of Brantford, was present to confer the degrees on the officers selected. The local branch is known as Sherwood Forest Camp, No. 50, and though so recently organized has acquired a membership of which to feel proud.

The following officers have been elected:
Council Commander—Bert. Wallace.
Advisory Lieutenant—R. M. Roy.
Clerk—Jas. Snyder.
Banker—W. H. Meldrum.
Escort—E Atchinson.
Watchman—E. A. Runnals.
Sentinel—C Gunsolus.
Managers—F. B. Clementi, Chas. Wynn, A. E. Kingscotte.

After the conferring of the degrees had taken place, the members of the Camp adjourned to the Grand Central Hotel, where a banquet had been prepared and to which ample justice was done. The chair was taken by Mr. Wm. Hayden and the menu was one which reflected great credit upon Mine Host Gobial.

A somewhat elaborate toast list had been prepared for the occasion, but on account of the lateness of the hour it was dispensed with, but the Grand Sovereign made a few remarks explaining the origin of the beneficiary order and the nature of the lines upon which it worked. Besides providing a cheap and sure scheme of insurance, the order does not allow the memory of a member to pass away with his life, but makes provision for the tending of his grave and the fortnightly visiting of his widow and family. The teachings of Woodcraft are all of a nature to benefit and enable the minds of the members. The death rate of the Canadian jurisdiction during the last five years has only been 3½ in the thousand, and as no risks are placed in the Southern States where the death rate is so high, the order recommends itself as a substantial organization with which to be connected. It is very strong in Western Ontario.

Kicked in the Face.

Mr. Chas. Lewis, a farm hand, of North Monaghan, is in the Nicholl's Hospital suffering from a broken palate bone. He was attending a horse in town on Monday afternoon, when the animal became unmanageable, and kicked the young man in the face, breaking the palate bone and cutting and bruising his face.

At A. Clegg's.

Bedroom furniture, a larger stock than ever. Dining tables, cheaper than ever. Sideboards, a full line. Parlour furniture, in three or six piece suites. Fancy chairs and rockers, the largest line of centre and fancy tables ever offered in Peterborough. Chairs, 33c and upwards. Cheap bedsteads, mattresses, springs, etc., etc. A. Clegg's, 427 George street.

A Trio of Accidents.

A young man named Moore, employed in the Canadian General Electric Works, was severely injured yesterday afternoon. He was engaged in operating a riveting machine, when his sleeve caught in the machinery, and the flesh on his arm torn clean to the bone as far as the elbow. Dr. Boucher attended the injured man, who will be laid up for some weeks.

Miss McCabe, employed in the wire department of the same works, had her hand drawn into a spooling machine yesterday afternoon, and a couple of fingers were bruised and lacerated.

An employee of the armature department named Morgan, yesterday suffered an injury to three fingers by an armature falling on his hand. Dr. Boucher dressed the wounded digits.

ORDINATION SERVICE AT GRAFTON.

Rev. M. J. Calnan, Raised to the Priesthood—Ceremony Performed by His Lordship Bishop O'Connor—Large Congregation Present—Eloquent Sermon by Ven. Arch-Deacon Casey.

The pretty little Roman Catholic church at Grafton was the scene on Tuesday of a special ordination service, when Rev. Michael Jos. Calnan was raised to the dignity of a priest, the ceremony being performed by His Lordship Bishop O'Connor.

THE ORDINATION SERVICE took place at 9 o'clock, and among the clergy present were Archdeacon Casey, Fathers Lynch, Port Hope; Murray, Cobourg; Kielty, Douro; McCloskey, Campbellford; O'Connell, Burnley; and McColl, Eamismore.

At the altar His Lordship was assisted by Archdeacon Casey as high priest, Father Murray as deacon, and Father Kielty as sub-deacon. Rev. Father McColl assisted the young priest during the service.

The congregation present was a large one, and the altar decorations for the occasion are worthy of special mention. Mrs. Goode, a sister of the resident pastor, Rev. Father Larkin, presided at the organ and the singing of the choir was excellent.

After mass had been celebrated, Ven. Archdeacon Casey on the power granted to the priesthood. His remarks were prefaced by a reference to the joy felt on this occasion by the pastor and people of Grafton. A young man who had grown up among them and who had endeared himself to all by his estimable qualities was that day seeing the accomplishment of his most cherished desires, and he had long looked forward to the day when he would put on the sweet yoke of Christ and bear it till his death. The Archdeacon then referred to the sublime power vested in the priesthood:

PREACHED A FORCIBLE SERMON

THE POWER TO FORGIVE SINS,

"Whose sins you shall forgive they are forgiven." He referred to the case of a poor shipwrecked sinner who regretted his past sins and who longed to be counted once more among the children of God. In such a case, he said, even the angelic hosts were powerless to give him aid Even the Mother of God, all powerful as she is, could not free him from his sins. Then comes forward the priest of God and by the power vested in him on the day of his ordination he says to the sinner, "I absolve thee from thy sins, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Immediately, the speaker said, that

SENTENCE IS RATIFIED IN HEAVEN,

and the poor sinner rejoices in the fact that such wonderful power has been given by Christ to man. The speaker next referred to the power given to the priest at ordination, in which the bread and wine are changed into the body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ. On the night before Christ died, in the presence of His apostles, He said, "This is my body, this is my blood." The power which He exercised on this occasion by changing bread and wine into His own body and blood, this power He communicated to the priesthood. Then He said to the apostles: "Do ye this in commemoration of Me, and as often as ye do this in commemoration of Me you shall show forth the death of the Son of Man until He comes."

He then went on to say that the young priest ordained in the Grafton church this blessed day would, use the two-fold power imparted to him on this the day of his ordination, and the result would be many souls saved; many souls hereafter in heaven to stand around the throne of God and give glory to Him for ever more.

FROM NOW TILL HIS DEATH,

This is but a brief synopsis of Venerable Archdeacon Casey's eloquent sermon on this occasion. Before he concluded, however, he stated that His Lordship, who is always proud in his zeal to further the interests of Almighty God, and to edify as far as possible, his people, had come to Grafton that the Catholics of that Parish might have an opportunity of witnessing the ordination of one of their number to the HIGH DIGNITY OF THE PRIESTHOOD.

His Lordship ascended the altar steps and in a few well chosen remarks congratulated the parish on seeing the young man of such excellent qualities raised to the order of the priesthood. He expressed a wish that the young priest might live long to do service in the vineyard of the Lord. He further expressed the wish that the young men of the parish

MIGHT GO AND DO LIKEWISE.

His Lordship then announced that special spiritual favours attended the blessings of a newly-ordained priest. He said the relatives of the young priest would come to the altar first and then the members of the congregation.

During the afternoon the Bishop and clergy visited the school, and all were pleased with the condition of affairs.

During the stay at Grafton the Bishop and clergy were right royally entertained by Rev. Father Larkin, the popular priest of Grafton.

SCOLLIE MURDER TRIAL.

brought her into town. He had gone with the detective to a number of places showing him where to find his witnesses. His time was valuable to him yet he had gone willingly with the detective. He had no object in this. He was not assisting to hound the woman down. The body had over it two quilts and a blanket. It was enveloped in two shirts. The blankets were tucked right around the shoulder. He did not wonder that the body had not been burnt. When asked if he was surprised when he saw the head was gone, the witness was so vague in his answers that the council for the defense gave up trying to bind him down to any statement. The witness did not notice whether there was any blood on the floor or not. When confronted with his previous evidence, the witness admitted that he had stated that the floor beneath the body was perfectly clean. He stated that when he saw the headless trunk he thought the head had been cut off, but admitted not having examined the neck at all closely—not even closely enough to know whether any bone projected; yet he stated that from its appearance he thought the neck had been cut. When he arrived on the scene Mr. Burnham was not doing anything in particular. Notwithstanding the fact that the body had been in this intense conflagration for four hours he did not think that the body, if uncovered, would have been consumed. The witness then admitted that if the head had been entirely unprotected it might have been consumed. He then modified his words by saying that he thought the floor was a protection.

ACCUSING WITNESS OF QUIBBLING,

The prisoner denied ever having given Mr. Scollie a note, and afterwards being accused of forgery for changing the figures. He was not searching for Mr. Scollie's tin box when poking around with a shovel. He had with the Grays over a flour deal, and had never been taunted by Gray with getting all his timber for a new barn and then burning the old one for the insurance. He was not pursuing the prisoners. He had a sister who was murdered. He was not a monomaniac on the murder question. He never told Mr. Labelle that when Scollie made his contract with the Grays he put a nail in his coffin.

Re-examined by Mr. Clute, the witness stated that the kindliest feelings always existed between himself and Gray.

In reply to a question by the judge witness was unable to state whether the top of the shoulders was even with the tick or whether the head would have hung over the edge of it.

Mr. Weir's examination concluded at 4 o'clock, when our report closed for press.

"Satisfactory Results."

So says Dr. Curlett, an old and honored practitioner, in Belleville, Ontario, who writes: "For wasting diseases and scrofula I have used Scott's Emulsion with the most satisfactory results."

The Electrical Storm.

The electrical storm, shortly after midnight last night, was a corker while it lasted and the peels of thunder fairly shook the earth. The downpour of rain was a heavy one, and lasted for some time. Lightning paid a visit to the C. P. R. semaphore in Ashburnham and after manœuvering around the posts of the structure and splitting them badly, executed a serpentine dance through the floor. Happily the switchman in attendance escaped uninjured.

The Man of Mystery.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.

Report of the Secretary Shows a Marvelous Growth.

Brantford, Ont., Sept. 26.—The Christian Endeavor sunrise prayer meeting in Brant-avenue Methodist Church was largely attended. Mrs. Coleman of Boston conducted a question drawer. At 9 o'clock the regular session opened in Zion Church with devotional exercises by Rev. Radcliff of St. Catharines.

The secretary's annual report shows the number of societies 1653, active members 48,558, associate members 28,731, church membership 49,380, money pledged for provincial work $312.29. Of the above the Methodist denomination shows 711 societies, active members 22,264, associate members 14,394, church membership 23,453, money pledged for provincial work $71.68. The Presbyterians show 523 societies, active members 15,404, associate members 9497, church membership 15,886, money pledged for provincial work $140.25. Then follow the Union Baptists, Congregationalists, Church of England and other denominations. There have been added this year 156 new societies. The treasurer's report shewed receipts for the year $562.76, expenditure $517.96.

In the afternoon there was a grand rally of the Junior Endeavorers in the Drill Hall. In the evening Christian Endeavor Societies were held in all the city churches on the subject "The Relation of Chrustian Endeavor to the Local Church."

ENGLAND WINS ONCE MORE.

Spruce IV Defeats Ethelwynn Off Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, L.I., Sept. 25.—Spruce IV. today captured the second of the Seawanhaka Club's challenge series for small boats, defeating Ethelwynn, the defender, by 2½ seconds in a 12-mile race over a triangular course of two miles a side.

The contest was fought out in a wind varying from nothing up to eight miles an hour, which shifted to nearly all points of the compass.

The work on the several stages of the course as officially recorded follows:

First leg—A reach and a short series of tacks to windward:

	Start, 1st mark.	Elap.
Ethelwynn	12.30.00	1.15.15
Spruce IV.	12.30.00	1.18.33

Ethelwynn's gain for twi miles, 3 min. 17 sec.

Second leg—A close starboard reach:

	1st mark.	2nd mark.	Elap.
Ethelwynn	1.15.15	1.36.37	21.22
Spruce IV.	1.18.32	1.40.41	22.09

Ethelwynn's gain on the leg, 47 sec.; total gain 4min. 4sec.

Third leg—A starboard reach:

	2nd mark.	3rd mark.	Elap.
Ethelwynn	1.36.37	2.02.55	26.18
Spruce IV.	1.40.41	2.06.53	26.12

Spruce IV.'s gain for the leg, 6 seconds. Ethelwynn's net gain since start, 5min. 58sec.

Fourth leg began with windward work and changed to a reach.

	3rd mark.	4th mark.	Elap.
Ethelwynn	2.02.55	2.39.38	36.43

Spruce's gain for the leg, 3 min. 48 sec. Ethelwynn's net advantage, 10 sec.

Fifth leg, beginning close-hauled, a run before wind followed, and the ending was a close reach.

	4th mark.	5th mark.	Elap.
Ethelwynn	2.39.38	3.26.59	47.21
Spruce IV.	2.39.48	3.27.39	47.51

Ethelwynn's gain on the leg, 30 sec.; total advantage at end of 10 miles 40 sec.

Finishing leg, windward work against an ebb-tide:

Ethelwynn	3.26.59	4.26.07	59.08

Spruce's gain for the leg, 1 min. 3sec.; less Ethelwynn's advantage at fifth mark of 40 sec., nets victory by 23 sec.

DOINGS IN MONTREAL.

Alleged Attempt to Derail Mr. Laurier's Train—Crown Case Against Demers Closed.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 25.—This morning the city was startled by the Liberal organ here publishing a despatch from Quebec stating that the train upon which Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was proceeding to Lake St. John had narrowly escaped destruction and the Liberal leader from a terrible death. The story went that rocks had been placed on the track for the purpose of bringing about the death of the party in question. Now it happened that Hon. Mr. Wilfrid Laurier was in the city to-day and as soon as he recovered from his amazement at seeing such trash the hon. gentleman went at once to the newspaper office and declared that the story was a pure invention made out of whole cloth. The yarn was in fact on a par with the deep sea serpent story that the same paper caught at the Back River.

The famous Demers murder trial entered upon a new phase to-day when the Crown terminated its case. In fact the prosecution have simply been fishing for evidence for some days past, and no direct evidence against the accused was forthcoming. All the reports as to further damaging evidence against Napoleon Demers have amounted to nothing, and the Crown has been obliged to admit that nothing but circumstantial evidence can be brought against the strongly-suspected accused. It now remains to be seen to what use Mr. Desmarais, the lawyer for the prisoner, will put the vast array of witnesses called to help the man in the box.

Shortis and Gauthier, the Valleyfield and Montreal murderers appear to have become quite intimate in the jail and the officials state that it has been decided between the two accused that whichever gets out of prison first will treat the less fortunate partner. Both are cruel murders, and the probability is that neither Shortis or Gauthier will ever be free again in this world.

HER MAGNECTIC EYES

LONDON PLAYGOERS CAPTIVATED BY THEIR BRILLIANCY.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell and Her Magnificent Irish Eyes—They Make Her the Woman of the Moment in London—Some Particulars About the New Star.

The woman of the moment in London is Mrs. Patrick Campbell. Painters paint her; poets rhyme her; critics praise her, and all London is talking of her and has been ever since she burst upon a waiting world in the difficult and unpleasant role of "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." As she was wont to say in "The Notorious Mrs. Ebbsmith," which she so recently and vigorously interpreted, "Every woman has her hour. Mine has come."

Mrs. Campbell owes a very respectable share of her handsome success to her really magnificent Irish eyes, that are large, brilliant, and burn with a magnetic light.

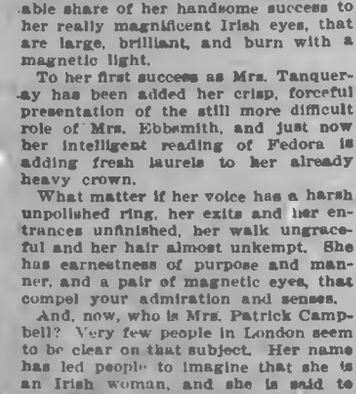
To her first success as Mrs. Tanqueray has been added her crisp, forceful presentation of the still more difficult role of Mrs. Ebbsmith, and just now her intelligent reading of Fedora is adding fresh laurels to her already heavy crown.

What matter if her voice has a harsh unpolished ring, her exits and her entrances unfinished, her walk ungraceful and her hair almost unkempt. She has earnestness of purpose and manner, and a pair of magnetic eyes, that compel your admiration and senses.

And, now, who is Mrs. Patrick Campbell? Very few people in London seem to be clear on that subject. Her name has led people to imagine that she is an Irish woman, and she is said to have had a romantic and unfortunate past. Other than that, little is known of her. However, according to a recent interview, when asked as to her romantic marriage, she said: "Yes, it may be called so, for the match was a runaway one. I was married before I was 18 years of age, and you will see my choice of the stage as a profession was a pretty mature one, when I say I was the mother of two children before I was 20. At one time my tastes strongly impelled me to the choice of music as a profession, for I have been devoted to music all my life—a taste inherited, I believe, from my mother, who is of Italian birth, though my father is an Englishman."

Mrs. Campbell's first appearance on the stage dates back to 1883, when she essayed the small roles at the Alexander Theatre, Liverpool.

It is said that when Mr. George Alexander, London's first leading man, had the reading of Pinero's new play, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," he acknowledged the play to be "great." "But where," said he in despair, "can we get Mrs. Tanqueray? Miss Millard cannot play it, in fact, I know of no London actress that can."



MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL.

The situation seemed desperate. Just at this time it happened that Mrs. Alexander went one night to witness the melodrama at the Adelphi, and at once, upon the appearance of Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Alexander said to herself, "Here is Mrs. Tanqueray."

Such confidence does Mr. Alexander repose in the opinion of his wife—for she is acknowledged to be his helpmate in every sense of the word—that a summons was sent the next day to Mrs. Campbell to come to him. In turn she was brought before Mr. Pinero, who said, "Yes, this is the woman I had in mind. Now, if she can act!"

That she could act almost the first rehearsal and of a certainty the "first night" of Mrs. Tanqueray proved.

This creation has been further supplemented by her skillful rendering of the unpleasant truisms of the unfortunately-environed and misunderstood Mrs. Ebbsmith, such a powerful rendering as has hardly left room for the very intelligent, but opposed, interpretation of the gifted Miss Nethersole, who has followed her in this part.

Of the difficult social problems set by the lines along which Mr. Pinero's later plays are cast, and of her opinion of the class of parts with which she has been lately identified, Mrs. Campbell says:

"I scarcely think it fair to ask me my opinion. It is sufficient for me that the parts have afforded me great opportunities, and I certainly have no desire to be drawn into any controversy in the matter. I may tell you that I have received hundreds of letters dealing with Mr. Pinero's play, and my share in them as an interpreter. I gather from these not only that I have made very many very kind and sincere friends, whom I have never seen, but also that Mr. Pinero's handling of certain problems has excited the admiration of the most divergent callings and stations of life. Mr. Pinero has himself, I believe, been inundated with such letters."

Mrs. Campbell's conceptions of her late unusual roles, while apparently simple, are daringly original, and she is free to confess that she had no particular model in actual existence from which to build such conceptions. Having become letter perfect in her part, she then frames in her own mind, and often very quickly, a distinct notion of the woman she wishes to present. Many details are added at rehearsal, and sometimes in actual performance.

Mrs. Campbell, who is possibly a woman of 30, is strikingly tall, lithe and slender, has a mobile mouth and forceful chin, set in a face of unusual palor, which is, in turn, framed in masses of dark hair worn in an artistically dishevelled manner. Marvelously striking and becoming gowns have well earned her the title of "Past Grand Mistress of the Art of Gowning." She is strongly of the opinion that beautiful frocks are calculated to aid an actress and assist the picture represented, when they are appropriate to the situation; but that, on the other hand, they accentuate, rather than assist, an inferior performance.

Queen Victoria's Hands.

The latest photograph of Queen Victoria shows her hands resting upon a book in her lap. They are very pudgy hands; but with the asistance of the lion's paw, they still hold the reins in Great Britain.

Temperance Mansion.

"I see you are building a new house, Mr. Bung."

"Yes, you are right."

"Made the money out of whiskey, I suppose?"

"No."

"Why, you are a liquor dealer, are you not?"

"Oh, yes! But the money I'm putting into this house was made out of the water I put into the whiskey. Every farthing was made out of the water, sir."—Tit-Bits.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

A Constantly Growing Force.

Every Day Gives Momentum to the Success of South American Nervine.

Canadian Citizens from Every Quarter Tell of the Extraordinary Results Following the Use of This Wonderful Remedy.

MR. C. G. CHAPIN, OF BURK'S FALLS, ONT.

There is encouragement in the knowledge that even after the skill of eminent physicians has failed, and many medicines have been used, a certain cure for the diseases of life is to be found in South American Nervine. This is a remarkable medicine, especially when the trouble is nervous debility, indigestion, dyspepsia, sick headache, or a general breaking-up of the system. It has made thousands of cures of Canadian citizens all over this beautiful Dominion, and they have not been slow to sing its praises.

The strength of South American Nervine rests in its being something more than a mere tonic. A tonic will give temporary benefit, but if disease is in the system something more is needed to remove it. South American Nervine possesses all the virtues of a tonic, but more than that, it is a disease-healer. It has been discovered that certain nerves have entire control over the stomach, liver, heart, lungs and indeed all internal organs. When disease comes upon the individual, if a careful analysis is made of the trouble, and things are not gone about in haphazard fashion, it will be shown that the disease has its origin in a derangement of these nerve centers. South American Nervine goes at once to the nerve centers and removes the disease. Then strong, rich, pure blood runs through the veins and gives health and exhilaration to all parts of the system. This is one secret of the power of South American Nervine. But it does not stop here. There is no medicine that is so great a nerve-builder, nor flesh-producer as Nervine. It purifies the system. It imparts to it health and vigor, and builds up the constitution.

Now, this is exactly what was done in the case of Mr. C. G. Chapin, a well-known jeweller, of Burk's Falls, Ont. He says: For years I had been much troubled with nervous debility, and believe I had tried all proprietary medicines, but none seemed to relieve me, until I used South American Nervine. To my surprise the first bottle gave me great relief. I am still taking this great remedy and must say I have not felt so well in years. I highly recommend it to all suffering from nervous disease, for it has made a great change in me."

THE CLOSING OF THE FAIR.

A General Resume of the Exhibition.

THE EFFORTS OF THE DIRECTORS CROWNED WITH SUCCESS.

An Unprecedented Success—Over 10,000 Visitors Attended the Exhibition, and the Result is Most Gratifying to the Directorate—The Receipts Amounted to Nearly $2,000—The Results of the Judging Quite Satisfactory to the Exhibitors.

The Peterborough Central Exhibition was brought to a close Wednesday afternoon, and the directors are to be congratulated on the splendid success which has attended their efforts to make the fair the best between Toronto and Ottawa. The President, Mr. Geo. E. Elliott, and the Secretary, Mr. W. J. Green, were indefatigable in their efforts to present attractions which would meet with the approval and endorsation of the public, and in this, as in everything else pertaining to the exhibition, they were eminently successful. They were ably supported by a board of directors, who did their utmost to make the exhibition worthy of the County, and as a proof of the gratifying results which attended their combined efforts it is a pleasure to be able to state that the receipts this year are in excess of those of the year in which the amalgamated exhibitions of Port Hope, Cobourg, Lindsay and Peterborough were held here.

ON THAT OCCASION

the receipts were about $1,800, which was thought to be a magnificent showing—this year almost $2,000 was acquired through subscriptions, gate receipts, entry moneys etc. Over ten thousand visitors were on the grounds during the two days of the Exhibition of 1895, but in order to attract so large a crowd great expense had to be incurred. Considerable outlays of money were necessary to secure attractions, such as the Mossom Boyd & Co's exhibit of animals, the skirt dancer, the acrobats, the musicians, the band and the many other specialties, including the magnificent display of fireworks by Prof. Hand of Hamilton, on Tuesday evening.

The attendance on Tuesday averaged about seven thousand in the afternoon and evening, and about three thousand were admitted to the grounds on Wednesday. There were fully two thousand children's tickets sold, and, of course, the exhibitors and their assistants were admitted free, so that the attendance of ten thousand does not represent $2,500, but, in round figures, about $1,500. The indebtedness, which has clogged the movements of the directorate for so many years, has been finally wiped off, of $385.00 being now liquidated, leaving the management clear of debt. Though a clean slate is left on the debit side of the ledger, the figures on the credit side have been reduced to a very small sum by the payment of this claim, but the management are thoroughly satisfied with the result, and will face the problem of getting up an even more elaborate Exposition next year, with energies renewed by the thought of the success which crowned their efforts this year.

It would be unjust in giving this resume of the Fair, if mention was not made of the admirable work performed by the judges. They devoted themselves to their duties in a most painstaking manner, and no complaint of injustice or partiality can be truthfully laid at their door. Those selected to perform the not altogether pleasant duties involved in judging were chosen only after careful deliberation and due consideration, and it is well within the mark to observe that better satisfaction could not possibly have been given.

The money spent by the management in the improvement of the grounds was

MONEY WELL SPENT

and was fully appreciated by the public, and no doubt next season the track will be put in more perfect condition, and the idea of using the half-mile track in the Driving Park is one which commends itself.

It is not to be expected that the best horses in the country will come to a third of a mile track, as the horse which is fortunate enough to draw the pole secures too palpable an advantage over the outside horses to make such a track a favorite with horsemen.

"Always Good At Gough's."

GOUGH BROS.,
375 and 379 George Street.

As Ever the Leading, Largest Clothiers.

The Electric Light Company illuminated the grounds on Tuesday evening in a splendid manner, and the management is to be again congratulated on the success attending their effort to make the grounds in the evening worthy of the patronage of the public.

The street car service also helped materially to bring the crowd to the grounds, and the great convenience of the efficient service added considerable to the gate receipts. The voluminous notices of the press and the prominence given to the exhibition for the past two or three weeks was a strong factor in giving that publicity so necessary to draw a crowd.

Next year the merchants should do their part more thoroughly in decorating their premises for the occasion, in order to lend to the town a more gala and attractive appearance on the occasion of the visit to town of so many strangers.

THE HORSE RACES.

The principal attraction, Wednesday, of course, was the horse races and one event, the open trot, was a pretty race to behold.

The judges for the occasion were Messrs. Wm. Croft and Dr. Beatty, V. S., and Mr. H.C. Winch with Mr. Gus. Sawers as timekeeper.

In the free-for-all race, mile heats, best 3 in 5, three horses faced the wire,—Phillips' Furioso (Colbourne); Madoc Boy (Madoc), and St. John's Fortune (Sutherland). This was indeed a very interesting race, and a pretty exhibition of trotting was given. Owing to the fact that the drivers of the animals entered failed to hear the announcement of the judges that it would be necessary to go four times around each heat, the time made in the first heat was not taken. However, the two other heats were well worth witnessing. The following is the summary of the race:

Fortune	2 3 2
Madoc Boy	3 2 3

Time, 3.01, 3.02.

The running race proved a very interesting one, but considerable time was lost in starting the horses. This race was also run off in mile heats, best two in three, with the following result:

Jessie B (T MacWilliams)	1 1
Nettie Wood (F Jones	2 2
Black Mack (Lane, of Grafton)	3 3
Minnie Star	4 4

Time, 1.36 1.36.

The track was not in the best condition for racing, being somewhat soft, and regret was expressed among the spectators that the driving park track was not secured for the racing events.

THE DRAWING CONTESTS.

Considerable interest was centered in the drawing contests by the spectators. In the contest open to all teams under 2,500 lbs., three teams entered, owned by Messrs. John Deyell, Otonabee, W. H. Crough, Eanismore, and A. Archer, Otonabee. A stone boat was heavily laden with pig iron, and the first prize was awarded to the team drawing it the greatest distance in five minutes time. Following is the result:

	Feet.	Min.
W H Crough	68	4
John Deyell	36
A Archer	12

In the contest open to all teams over 2,500 lbs., the following gentlemen entered their teams: Messrs. John Dean, Hope; Archer Bros., Smith; A. Corkery, Eanismore; John Read, Westwood. The same rules governed this event as in the previous contest. Following was the result:

	Feet	Min.
John Dean	137	5
Archer Bros.	133	10
A Crough	113	2
John Read	163	2

This event concluded the day's programme, and the Central Fair was brought to a successful close.

NOTES.

Secretary Green was kept busy yesterday.

A large number of exhibitors took their exhibits to Lindsay to-day.

The Bobcaygeon buffalo was a great attraction.

The Fire Brigade Band discoursed splendid music yesterday.

We are perfectly satisfied with the result."—President Elliott.

The judges in the ladies work and domestic manufactures, in awarding the prizes, failed to enter the numbers of the exhibits, so that ladies were awarded prizes who did not exhibit. The mistake was the fault of the judges, not the press.

Miss Lillian Cassidy took first prize in oil painting landscape in place of Miss Doherty, as stated in last night's paper.

The first prize for a collection of peas was awarded Mr. Robert Fife, whose name was inadvertendely omitted from the prize list yesterday.

Owing to the complicated and intricate manner in which the translations of the numbers in connection with a prize has to be worked out, Mrs. John Crane was not credited yesterday with the large number of prizes to which she was justly entitled. Mrs. Crane was successful in taking first prize for exhibits of the following studies, viz: figure, figure and landscape, marine, marine and figure, animals and landscape, painting on silk and painting on belting cloths. She also received second for a painting of any description and second for crochet work.

In the EXAMINER'S description of the Page Wire Fence which appeared among our Special Exhibits yesterday the price of this fence was placed 85c. It should have been 75c.

The reference made yesterday to the large new piano factory recently put up by R. S. Williams & Son, piano manufacturers, gave Toronto the credit for having the factory. This is not correct as the factory is situated in Oshawa.

In to-morrow's issue we will continue to give interesting descriptions of quite a number more of the exhibits which deserve special mention.

Prominent among the many interesting sights seen at the fair was the gaily-decorated tandem team consisting of the ponies of Miss Rudkins and Mr. Alex. Elliott. This pretty little team presented a fine appearance in their decorations, and the beasts were admired on all sides. It was indeed a novel advertisement.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

THE ASHBURNHAM WOOLLEN MILL EXHIBIT.

Mr. William Faint, proprietor of the Ashburnham Woollen Mill, near the iron bridge, occupied a prominent corner upstairs in the main building, with a very fine and comprehensive display of the products of his mill. It consisted of a general assortment of stocking yarns in various colours, white and gray bed blankets unknapped, light weight cotton and woollen blankets, woollen and cotton sheeting in gray and white, one or two yards wide, fine navy blue flannels for shirting, clear wool batting in wide sheets for filling between comforters, quilts, etc.; horse blankets, trimmed and made up and by the yard; Halifax tweed, heavy woollen checked shirting for farmers, and rolled cards all ready for custom spinning. Judging by the conversations of many farmers and townspeople who took particular stock of this splendid exhibit of our own local mill, it was evident that many of our citizens are entirely unaware of the extent and variety of the different classes of goods manufactured by Mr. Faint. It cannot help being a special advantage to families and storekeepers in this neighborhood to have a woollen mill of this description so near their doors, where so many excellent lines of domestic cloths and woollen manufactures can be so conveniently obtained. Mr. Faint's make of blankets are a much superior article for family use than the general run of factory-made blankets. They are white without being bleached, and are without the long hairy uncomfortable fluffy knapping which soon fills up and hardens. These blankets are made for farmers and others who want something durable, and all should know the advantage of buying this class of goods. Mr. Faint does a large business in these blankets as well as in flannel goods for shirting, and holds some excellent contracts for retail, supplying firms throughout the country. The cotton batting in sheets, used in making comforters, which was shown, has a ready sale among the wholesale houses, who buy large quantities for quilt making. It is so warm that a spread weighing only 3 lbs. must have eyeletted holes inserted for ventilation and to allow the extra heat to pass off. Mr. Faint has recently put in a new roll carding machine in his mill and is prepared to promptly execute all orders for carding on the premises.

THE JONES LOCKED WIRE FENCE.

Mr. Walter J. Paterson, of Ashburnham, the special agent for the above wire fence, made a good practical exhibit of the various uses to which it can be put. Four pens, 12 feet square, were erected, in each of which animals were enclosed to show the convenience and utility of the fencing. In one enclosure a portion of the Boyd exhibit were penned, showing the long-horned western cattle to advantage. In another section sheep were enclosed, and if the judges at the fair could have thought of it in time and used these pens for judging the stock, their task would have been much easier, and certainly more satisfactory. The handy attachments, fitted into each corner of the pens, to form the squares, are Mr. Paterson's own invention, and is an improvement which the company will no doubt adopt as a valuable addition to the patent for stock-proof pens on the farm. This is the handsomest design of wire fence in the market. But that is not all. Mr. Patterson and his company claim that it is the BEST fence, for reasons which are apparent at a glance. One of the best things that can be said about it is that it is NOT a woven wire fence. It don't sag, because it can't. The crimp in the wire in combination with steel clasps when locked acts as a spring, adjusting the fence to the action of heat and cold. The corrugated stays make its impossible for the wires to sag, move out of position either way. As Mr. Paterson emphatically puts it—"It's as solid as the rock of Gibraltar." Light and easily built, its costs less than boards, or any other fence that can be put up. Full instructions for building these fences around farms, gardens, lawns, dwellings, railroads, cemeteries, etc., can be obtained from Mr. Patterson at his residence in Ashburnham. In addition to those erected for farmers and others in this vicinity quite a number have been built around handsome residences in town, which are admired by all who have seen them.

"Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work," writes Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis. "I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time, I always keep them in the house." They are easy to take.

A PHENOMENAL OPENING AND A BANNER MONTH

Is our September Record.

We thank our friends for the cordial interest shown during the month and especially those visitors to the exhibition who found time to call and see our display.

Our Millinery and Mantle Opening pleased every one who called. It could hardly fail to do so. The rich and varied display equalled that of any Metropolitan Opening.

We have had a successful month, thanks to our friends. Millinery and Mantles especially large. Our opening has been accompanied by more solid business than we ever received on a similar occasion. In Carpets and Housefurnishings we have had liberal orders and we know that the values and qualities have gained us favourable opinions.

With thanks for patronage and promising that we shall leave nothing undone to please and satisfy October buyers.

HESSIE GRAY NOT GUILTY!

The Judge and Jury Say So Without Leaving the Court Room.

THE EVIDENCE FOR DEFENCE NOT ALL REQUIRED.

Many Tears in the Court—The Applause Prolonged—Straight Testimony of the Prisoner's Little Children—Scollie Was Alive and Well the Night Before the Fire and Retired Before Mrs. Gray and Her Son Thomas.

Yesterday's report ended with the conclusion of Mr. J. Graham Weir's examination-in-chief.

Mr. Stratton then began Mr. Weir's cross-examination:

Q.—Since the trial commenced did not you go to Mr. Armstrong, of Ashburnham, and ask him how his son-in-law, Mr. Smithson, felt on this question? Mr. Smithson is one of the jurymen.

A.—I was talking to Mr. Armstrong I think up here; we were in a room together.

Q.—Did you ask him how his son-in-law felt, knowing he was a juryman?

A.—I might have asked him how he felt.

Q.—Did you swear you did not?

A.—No.

Q.—Ever since this fire you have been active, have you not, in trying to ferret out whether there has been wrong done?

A.—No, I have not.

Q.—Have you not?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you not go with Detective Murray to McGregor's?

A.—I did.

Q.—On more than one occasion?

A.—Just once; yes, twice; I called there with him when we were going up to Armstrong's.

Q.—Did you not go with Mr. Murray, one day, when he was interrogating her as to what she was to say?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And she was alone?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you and Murray were there almost one afternoon interrogating her as to what she was going to say?

A.—No! I do not think we were there 20 minutes.

Q.—Did you not go for her next day and you and Murray take her to town. That little woman, Mrs. McGregor?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—She swore so.

A.—Not the next day.

Q.—Very shortly afterwards? Come now, within a couple of days, did you not?

A.—No, it was more than that, when the county constable came down and served me.

Q.—Did you go to her place with Murray and bring her to town?

A.—I rode up in the buggy with them.

Q.—Did you go with the detective and bring her to town?

A.—When we were subpœnased we had vehicles to bring us up.

Q.—Did you or did you not?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did you not go with the detective to Mr. Lahey's?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And to Scriver's?

A.—Yes.

Q.—To Mitchell's?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And to Johnston's and to MacMahon's?

A.—No, I did not go to Johnston's?

Q.—To MacMahon's?

A.—No.

R. C. CLUTE, Q.C., CROWN PROSECUTOR.

Q.—You went to some of the other neighbours with him?

A.—Mr. Murray came to my place ——

Q.—I am asking the question?

A.—I am going to tell you who I went in with.

Q.—Did you not go with him to Gervin's?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you not go with him to Dave Johnston's to aid them at the threshing?

A.—I never was at Dave Johnston's. I don't know the man.

Q.—Dave Johnston?

A.—When he was raising then I went.

Q.—With this detective?

A.—Yes, I went along where his witnesses lived.

Q.—You have made yourself very active in the prosecution of this woman, have you not?

A.—I would not say no.

Q.—You would not say that?

A.—No, I showed him where witnesses lived.

Q.—Did you go with him to Andrew Fawcett's?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Your time is worth money?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you were willing to sacrifice it for this gentleman's benefit?

A.—You won't give one a chance to tell you. I tell you he requested me to show him where the parties on the list lived.

Q.—As I understand when you got there you found the body was covered first with a layer of coal cinders, embers, burning wood and ashes. Now you were examined once before?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You were asked this question. Now you say that when you first saw the body there were embers of fire about it and you answered "Oh yes, entirely covered with burning embers," and then you were asked "Entirely covered over with burning boards and embers?" and you answered, "Oh, there were not any boards, there were pieces of stuff." It was entirely covered with pieces of burning sticks. "O, yes," you said, "burnt cinders, lathes,

W. A. STRATTON, COUNCIL FOR DEFENCE.

Q.—The whole debris of the building had apparently fallen in on it?

A.—No, I would not think the whole of it.

Q.—Well, a considerable portion?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You said that under that debris there were two quilts?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you also said that there was plaster? You said "Yes, it appears to me the ceiling had fallen on the body before the fire got to it?"

A.—Yes, that is right.

Q.—So that the outer covering was plaster, ashes, cinders and refuse, and below all that there were two quilts.

A.—Two thin cotton quilts.

Q.—And under that again there were two pair of blankets?

A.—No sir, there was not.

Q.—What was there under it?

A.—There was a thin old blanket.

Q.—And what did you say the other was? a cotton quilt?

A.—Yes, some such material, wincey or cotton.

Q.—You said in your last examination when I asked the question "were they cotton or wool," then you thought they were cotton and you say you only saw the blanket?

A.—That is all on top of him.

Q.—So that over the blanket there were two quilts and above that there was plaster, and all this other refuse?

Q.—Now what was under the plaster, etc.

A.—His body.

Q.—Were there not two sheets.

A.—Yes.

Q.—So that above the two sheets there were blankets, quilts and refuse.

A.—Yes.

Q.—And then came the body and you went further and said that the quilts were tucked right up to the shoulders.

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you said that the blankets were tucked right around both shoulders.

A.—I did.

Q.—And you wondered that this lady was not blamed, Did you not?

A.—No I did not wonder that the lady was not blamed

Q.—You wondered that the head was burned? You were not surprised that the body was not burned?

A.—Because the fire had not got to it.

Q.—You were not surprised that the body was not burned when you saw the covering.

A.—Of course I was not surprised it was not burned, because the fire had not got to it.

Q.—And you said in your examination that when you got him out first that you were not surprised that the head was not there. Do you remember that?

A.—No, I do not.

Q.—You were very much surprised that the head could not be found?

Q.—No, I did not feel surprised when we got him out first.

Q.—You did not feel surprised when the body came out first that the head was not there?

A.—Not when it came out first—no.

Q.—Can you explain why you were not surprised?

A.—Because the neck seemed sawed off.

Q.—And you were not surprised. How did you expect it to be?

A.—I was not thinking about the head when we got him out.

Q.—I am asking you as to your state of mind at that time. Did you feel surprised when you saw the headless body come out?

A.—When I examined the neck I did.

Q.—I am asking you if you were surprised?

A.—When we first got him out?

Q.—When you first got him out didn't it strike you as the most natural thing that you would not get the head?

A.—Do you mean the moment we got him out?

Q.—I will quibble with you no further—You observed the garments closely?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You observed the sheets, blankets and clothing around the body, and saw no traces of blood?

A.—No.

Q.—And you said that the floor under him was clean?

A.—It was clean from ashes or debris or anything of that nature.

Q.—You said it was clean?

A.—Well that means a great deal.

Q.—You wished to create the impression that the body rested on a clean white floor. Now we will take advantage of that to show that there was no blood on it. You overstepped yourself.

A.—No, I did not mean a clean white floor.

Q.—You were asked in your examination "Was there anything between the tick and the boards under it?" A.—"No, the straw tick lay on the boards where we lifted it. Before the ashes and debris poured in we could see the boards smooth and clean."

A.—That is right.

Q.—Was there any blood on the floor?

A.—I was not looking for blood. I did not expect anything of the sort. I was not suspecting it.

Q.—You said in your examination that you did not observe the neck closely?

A.—At first I was not examining the neck. I was looking at the position.

Q.—Did you examine the neck closely?

A.—I did not make a close examination of the bone of the neck.

Q.—Did you make so close an examination of the bone of the neck so as to say whether there was any flesh on it or not?

A.—I did not see the bone.

Q.—And you come and tell the jury it was cut square off?

A.—I did not see the bone directly.

Q.—Do you mean to say that you examined that neck so closely as to say it was cut square off, as if it had been severed with an axe, for instance.

A—It did.

Q.—And you say you did not examine the neck so closely as to know if there was flesh on it or not.

A.—I did not examine it; I did not see the bone by itself.

Q.—You noticed the neck in general, but not the bone in particular?

A.—I did not.

Q.—And you supposed that part of the neck went with the head. Did not you hear Mr. Belleghem in this court room describe that the bone projected away from the flesh about three inches?

A.—I did not.

Q.—Were you not present?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you read it in the paper?

A.—Yes, I read that it projected six inches.

Q.—Three or six inches?

A.—I recollect six inches.

Q.—Is that your recollection of the bone of the neck—that the bone projected several inches?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you ever speak to Mr. Lavelle and ask him as to that?

A.—Not particularly. I expressed my opinion at the time and Mr. Lavelle may have heard it.

Q.—When I asked you the question as to who was at the fire when you got there, do you remember answering that you did not know?

A.—I remember some of them.

Q.—Although you went to this fire this morning and although a man had been consumed and although you were in a neighbourhood where there are only seven or eight neighbours, you could not tell who was there?

A.—Oh! I did tell you. I think Mr. Burnham was there. Mr. Lavelle was there, but I could not say as to all who were there.

Q.—I asked you when you got there who was there and you said you did not know.

A.—I did not say that I said I remembered all the time Burnham was there and it was he I spoke to.

Q.—You quibble with me?

A.—No, not about Burnham.

Q.—The only man you were positive about was Burnham?

A.—Oh, well Johnston was there. At least he came with me.

Q.—I am speaking at that time when you were giving this evidence.

A.—That answer was correct. I remember Burnham was there, because I asked him those questions.

Q.—As I understand your proceeding when you got to the fire you were dressed up in that two or three hundred dollar fur coat, and you threw it off and prepared for work, and Mr. Burnham had been there four or five hours before you. Was Zack or Mark Burnham doing anything when you got there?

A.—No, I didn't see him. He thought it was impossible to do anything towards taking out the body, the fire seemed so strong and burned so rapidly.

Q.—Did you have any talk with McGregor? Did he tell you there was no insurance?

A.—I did not talk with him, and did not see him that or the next day.

Q.—When you got there you could not see the body at all?

A.—No.

Q.—You heard the old man was in the fire?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And that the old man was burned to death, and you saw the indistinct figure in the flames? Was that about the size of it?

A.—No; I asked Burnham if he had any idea of where the body was, and he said, 'Just about there,' reaching over with a shovel, and I did not see any form. It seemed to be a little higher where it was, and that is all.

Q.—And the whole building had fallen into the cellar, and everything was a mass of flames?

A.—No, not the whole of it.

Q.—Whatever had escaped being [illegible] had fallen in, and all the debris was burning fiercely below?

A.—Yes.

Mr. Jacob Wilcox of St. Thomas, Ontario, is one of the best known men in that vicinity. He is now, he says, an old man, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has made him feel young again.

"About a year ago I had a very severe attack of the grip, which resulted in my not having a well day for several months afterwards. I was completely run down and my system was in a Terrible Condition.

I lost flesh and became depressed in spirits. Finally a friend who had been benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla advised me to try it and I did so. I continued taking it until I used twelve bottles and today I can honestly say Hood's Sarsaparilla has restored me to my former health." JACOB WILCOX, St. Thomas, Ontario.

CENTRAL EXHIBITION

What Helped to Make the Show a Success.

SPECIFIC REFERENCE TO SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

What our Manufacturers and Breeders Showed—Detailed Reference to These Fine Products.

Below will be found a detailed description of several special exhibits, which we were unable to notice in extension in previous reports.

MR. WM. REDMOND'S DURHAM EXHIBIT.

The names of Redmond and "Durhams" have very significant associations, through Mr. Joseph Redmond, of Elm Grove stock farm, the beautiful home of many a beautiful herd of this superior breed. The splendid display at the Central of Durhams made by Mr. Wm. Redmond, of Thornhill Farm, a handsome stock farm near Millbrook, was worthy of the special admiration they attracted. Mr Redmond is an enthusiastic lover of the majestic Durham, which is conspicuous for its all-round excellence, good breeding qualities, good milking qualities, and good beefing qualities. He is extremely fond of his stock and gives them the closest attention, for successful stock breeding is merely successful development. With a good strain like Mr. Redmond's to start with, intelligent care produces the highest degree of development. Mr. Redmond's stock, in their sleek beauty, are living evidence of this. At the head of his grand herd of eight on exhibition, selected from his herd of 39 on the "farm," is a magnificent thoroughbred Shorthorn bull, which, in condition, turns the scales at 2,450. This enormous animal has all the points indicative of pure blood, particularly well developed, and he can easily claim to be by odds the best of his kind in Ontario. That this claim is well founded is shown by the fact that he has won three gold medals and diplomas, and always wins the instant admiration of all who see him. Fitting consorts for a bull of such imperial proportions and qualities were three aged cows with beautiful markings of red and white, with well emphasized points. His herd on exhibition comprised besides, two splendid three-year-old heifers and two equally fine two-year-olds. The most unfamiliar spectator was at once struck by the superior merit of these fine animals, as evidenced at a glance, and critics were loud in their praise. Mr. Redmond is justly proud of his cows, and a marked cheque for $500 would not tempt him to pass the halter of any one of them into the hands of a purchaser at that figure. Any person wishing to see one of the finest herds of thoroughbred Durhams in Ontario has only to visit Thornhill Farm.

THE CONDON IRON PUMP.

Mr. James Galvin had on exhibition three different patterns of the Condon iron pump, patented February, 1894, the manufacture of which he now controls. With its latest improvements, this iron pump has become a favorite wherever used. The three different styles shown had each their peculiar advantage. The force pump, for filling tanks on the top storeys of stables or cow barns, for mixing feed, or for filling baths or any similar reservoir supply, must prove a handy labor-saving convenience. It is guaranteed to throw water on top of a two-storey building, and can be put to many other uses of a like description. The other two pumps are specially recommended for wells and cisterns. The patent valves with which they are supplied are claimed to be a long-felt want in the pump business, as by their peculiar operation the annoyance and trouble of having your pump freeze is overcome. These pumps make efficient force pumps, and can be used for cleaning buggies, windows, etc., watering lawns, spraying, and for fire protection. They are made entirely of iron pipe, without any wood about their construction, and are guaranteed to "last a lifetime."

ELCOME, THE TAXIDERMIST.

Among the local exhibits appearing in the main building one of the most interesting and instructive was Mr. Edwin Elcome's specimens of taxidermy. The collection was a very extensive and valuable one. The skillful work of his dexterous hand was exposed in cases and glass shades, and lovers of our Canadian animals, birds, reptiles, moths, etc., lingered round this exhibit to admire the perfection of the taxidermist's work and the characteristics and beauty of his many different subjects. "Is this all your own work, Mr. Elcome?" enquired an inquisitive admirer. "Yes, no one else's; and that's only a small portion of what you could see at my house. I get orders from all over, including Toronto and other big places, where you would think they could do this work better than I can." A "freak of nature" in a deer's head was shown, stuffed and mounted, in which the ears were specially treated, giving them a full spread and not left in the shrivelled condition so often found in many examples of the kind. Four cases were filled with a collection of small birds, numbering three hundred specimens, all found in Ontario and principally in the locality around Peterborough, and secured by Mr. Elcome in the best plumage. A lynx and wildcat were shown in adjoining cases, the pose and ferocious appearance of each animal being very natural and life-like. There was also a beautiful collection of imported birds from different parts of the world. In this connection Mr. Elcome wishes it stated that he is in a position to procure rare birds from any part of the world and have them mounted to order. The lovers of entymology had a rare treat. A large case with varied curious and handsome specimens of moths, butterflies, beetles and insects was shown and proved an interesting sight. Mr. Elcome has a very large collection of specimens of natural history, including bears, lynx, fishes, wildcats, seals, squirrels, deers' heads, etc., at his residence, 176 Harvey street.

JAMES HEAD, FLORIST, &c.

The first thing that caught the eye of the visitor as he ascended the stairs in the north end of the building was the flower exhibit of Mr. James Head, head gardener for the Nicholls Hospital. He was a large and successful exhibitor at the Fair, and if he had exhibited himself as an industrious, jovial fellow he might have carried off the red ribbon as well as his flowers and other exhibits. Following is a list of prizes won by Mr. Head:—

Cut Flowers	1st	Potatoes	2nd
Silver Geranium	2nd	Cucumber	1st
Coxcombs	1st	Squash	1st
Fuschies	2nd	Cauliflower	2nd
Col. Flowers	2nd	Tomatoes	1st
China Aster	1st	Beets	1st
10 week stock	2nd	Fat Cows	3rd
Col. Potted Plants	2nd	Grade Calf	2nd
Lop-eared Rabbits	1st

The flowers and vegetables were grown and cultivated on the fine garden belonging to the Nicholls Hospital, the result showing not only a very successful but a very skillful handling of the ground by Mr. Head. A large greenhouse is being erected on the Hospital grounds for Mr. Head's use, which will materially assist him in the work in hich he takes so much pride.

WASHING MACHINES AND WRINGERS.

Mr. J. W. Crosby exhibited the Double Action Pressure and Sinclair Washer and the Stone Wringer. The section where these machines were shown upstairs in the southeast corner of the main building was a favorite stopping place for the ladies, and consequently this exhibit of domestic labor-saving machinery came in for a good deal of talk and inspection. Between 4000 and 5000 of the washing machines have been manufactured already, which is a strong evidence of its utility. It has the hand principle with leverage power. The old way of washing is very destructive to clothes, but by the new finest fabrics can be washed without the least injury to the goods. There is no rubbing—it does its work by pressure and suction. It washes very rapidly and is easy to operate—a child of 14 can do it all. The Stone Wringer is a very simple, compact and durable little machine, made of malleable iron and galvanized, so that it cannot rust. The spring is composed of the best crucible steel, and the rolls are solid white rubber vulcanized direct to the shaft. One of the most valuable points about this wringer is that when removed from the tint or washing machine the rolls part from each other about half an inch, instead of remaining a continual pressure upon them from week to week. Any information respecting prices and directions for operating both these useful machines may be obtained at Mr. J. W. Crosby's Music Store, 342 Water Street.

In to-morrow's issue we will continue to give interesting descriptions of quite a number more of the exhibits which deserve special mention.

Weak and Nervous

Describes the condition of thousands of people at this season. They have no appetite, cannot sleep, and complain of the prostrating effect of warmer weather. MANITOBA WHEAT STANDARDS.

The Board Deems it Inadvisable to Mix Scoured Wheat With No. 1 Hard—The Grain Exchange Differs.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 27.—Last night the members of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange held a meeting at the request of Mr. Miall, Assistant Commissioner of Inland Revenue, for the purpose of discussing certain questions affecting the grain trade. The members of the Standards Board were present as guests. The principal subject discussed was the mixing of scoured wheat with No. 1 hard. Various arguments were advanced pro and con, which brought out a great deal of useful information, but the representatives of the different interests were so hopelessly divided that anything like a mutual agreement on the point would have been utterly impossible. After debating the point for about two hours and a half the meeting adjourned without taking action.

A resolution to the effect that scoured wheat should be a grade by itself found no supporters.

Subsequent to the adjournment of the Exchange meeting the Standards Board held a closing session, when, after considerable consideration, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

"That in the opinion of this Standards Board it is not advisable to mix scoured wheat in No. 1 hard grade."

The board last night also passed the following resolution on a standing vote: "That the statement made in an Eastern paper to-day that this board had cast a reflection on Comptroller Wood or other officers of the Inland Revenue Department is without foundation and absolutely false and untrue."

A resolution was also passed previous to adjournment giving hearty thanks to Mr. Miall for his presence and assistance in selecting the Manitoba grain standards.

The grain standards fixed are as follows:

No. 1 Manitoba hard, good plump Berry, 63 pounds to the bushel, and with about 75 per cent. of hard red wheat.

No. 2 hard, plump berry, weighing not less than 61 3-4 to 62 pounds to the bushel and with 75 per cent. of hard red fyfe wheat.

No. 1 Northern, a well-filled berry, weighing 62 pounds to the bushel and containing 60 per cent. of hard wheat.

No. 2 Northern, a grain weighing 60 1-2 to 61 pounds, reasonably clean and of good milling qualities.

A No. 3 hard wheat grade was made, consisting of wheat unaffected by frost or smut and yet not fit for No. 2.

RAIN QUENCHES THE RIVER FIRES.

Hundreds of Quebec Families Homeless on the Roadside—A Fight to Save a Village.

Arthabaska Station, Que., Sept. 27.—The forest fires continued unabated all night and until an early hour this morning, when a merciful rain set in and all danger is now thought to be at an end. The flames had crept up in uncomfortable proximity to the village of Arthabaska. It raged fiercely beyond Bulstrode, and two hundred men had to work unceasingly to save that village from destruction. Thousands of cords of valuable pulp wood and wood of other kinds were piled there and were nearly all destroyed.

At St. Valiere the fire did great damage, the following being some of the sufferers thereby: Alf. Baril, barn and dwelling; E. Cloutier, house and barn; L. Tavergne, dwelling; V. Pratte, house; A. Bouvet, mill; F. Blanchet, house; Joseph Provencher, dwelling; Laurent G. Gosselin, barns and contents; Alf. Gosselin, house and contents; Joseph Morinville, barn and contents. That village also reports that tre rain is expected to put out the fires.

Hundreds of Families Destitute.

Three Rivers, Que., Sept. 26.—Beneficial effects of the heavy rain last night in extinguishing the forest fires has relieved all minds from apprehension of further attending danger which today's high wind would have caused. As reports come in from time to time the extent of the calamity is felt—hundreds of families are left on the roadside without shelter or sustenance. The clergy and others are doing what they can to relieve the distress, but the local government must interpose in their behalf or much suffering will be encountered before winter. The needy ones are seeking relief in the villages which have escaped the devouring element. It is hoped the worst is past and that further devastation need not be feared.

Honest Help.

Thousands of men are suffering because they lack the courage to make known their early errors and to endeavor to remedy them. Nervous weakness, loss of manhood and the many ills due to early discretions, excesses or overwork can be quickly, successfully and permanently cured if you will only let the right people know what ails you. Write to me in confidence and I will tell you free of charge how to get cured. I have nothing to sell, but am desirous of honestly helping you. Perfect secrecy assured. MY LADY'S WRITING-TABLE.

The Charming Fittings That Are Needed for It Now-a-days.

To the uninitiated the furnishings of a writing desk would seem to be few and simple, but the modern woman requires a number of novel and expensive articles in that line that her ancestors could not have dreamed of. A desk blotter, for instance, whose edges are bound in silver, is considered a necessity, likewise a hand blotter with silver back and handle, a wax taper holder, an alcohol lamp for melting her sealing wax, a pen tray and stamp box, all in silver, and a cut glass inkwell set in a silver stand. A queer-shaped mucilage pot, so much bigger at the bottom than at the top that it can't be set in a silver stand, but must have the silver applied to the glass, is another luxury; and there are pen staffs and pencils in the same design, to say nothing of a large smelling-salts bottle and a frame for the picture of her best-beloved decorated in like pattern. A tiny clock with silver mountings, is also included.

My lady's writing table, with its inlaid cover and richly carved legs, is no longer one of the luxuries in boudoir, but has become its most necessary appointment. It must be borne in mind, however, that no matter how luxurious the furnishings of the desk may be, it is the stationery adopted which betrays the owner's culture and refinement.

The authority in charge of the invitation cards, etc., in a large stationery shop answers every day many questions asked relative to correct form in the matter of correspondence.

"Is sealing wax much used?" asks a would-be up-to-date customer.

"Yes, indeed," is the reply. "The custom of closing the envelope with colored sealing wax is considered absolutely proper by the fastidious."

"Red wax is used?" comes the query.

"Red wax should never be used under any circumstances. It savors too much of legal documents. Delicate shades of grey, green, dull blue and black for mourning are the colors most in vogue. Care should also be taken that the letter be daintily sealed, and that the seal impression be sharp and neat. This requires no small degree of practice, but it is in matters of this kind that the line is drawn between good and doubtful form."

"What does fashion dictate about writing paper?" asks a girl who is about to invest in that necessary article.

"Heavy white or cream unruled paper, octave size, with a square envelope to match the paper, is the choice of stationery beyond criticism. Ruled paper should never be used, of course. Though strictly good form does not recognise any other style as possible, still, for friendly notes there is no reason why tinted paper, in the delicate shades of green, grey and lilac should not be used if the writer's fancy dictates. It comes in assorted sizes, and is a useful and convenient addition to any desk.

"At present a tint that has found favor in the eyes of the fashionable world is the Prince of Wales blue, a lovely shade of azure, with a sort of imperceptible feathery marking of a darker blue. For short notes correspondence cards are used in tints to match the paper, the day of the week in my lady's own writing being stamped diagonally across the side. Black monograms are exclusively for mourning paper. As a rule, on other kinds of paper the monogram or address is stamped in silver at the top of the paper in the middle."

As regards mourning paper, the broad black border is considered ostentatious, and is no longer in good taste. The narrowest black edge is all that is necessary. It has been truthfully said that half the difficulties of letter writing fade away before a well-equipped desk. Beauty and harmony should prevail its every nook and corner, and quaint and curious trifles in gold, silver, brass and leather are made to meet the needs and fancies of all tastes in the furnishings.—New York Tribune.

TORONTO WATERWORKS.

An Outbreak of Disease Feared and Great Precautions Recommended.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 16.—The accident which recently occurred to the Toronto waterworks conduit has created a great deal of consternation, and an outbreak of disease is possible. Doctors are prescribing the various precautions to be taken, and among them it is strongly recommended that the kidneys should be kept in a state of perfect regularity by means of Dodd's Kidney Pills, a remedy which experience has shown to be equally efficacious in the latest as well as in the earliest stages of kidney trouble. It is also stated by the physicians that this season is one in which the kidneys are peculiarly susceptible to disorder.

THE SECRET OUT!

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from various prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story :—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	PerCent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.63	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 28, Annual Premium $177.

Total Cost for 6 years.....1,062 Dollars

Sir Mackenzie Bowell's Long Life.

Madame de Ovies laughingly examined the Premier's hand at his reception at the Huffman House last evening. She told him he would live over ninety, had had an accident by horses, and had yet in store, to receive a great political honour—shown by a triangle and star on Jupiter—as did Napoleon and Tallerand. The Premier said—"I had an escape by a four-in-hand running away with my wife, sister and self a few years ago. My father lived over ninety." Id

Q.—Do you believe that if the body had not been protected as it was it would have got out of there unconsumed? Do you not think if the body had not been protected by the blankets, quilts, etc., that it would not have been totally consumed?

A.—No, I do not think so.

Q.—Why not? that would be the most natural thing to suppose.

A.—No, I do not think so.

Q.—And Mr. Lavelle tell you the state of the fire at 3 o'clock?

A.—No sir.

Q.—Then you have not the data to work on?

A.—I don't remember speaking to Lavelle or he to me. I was busy at the time.

Q.—And you think and believe, and give it as your honest opinion to these jurymen that any human body can stay in an intense fire from 3 till 7 or 8 and be unconsumed?

A.—I will tell you my opinion if you want it. I believe in a little bit the fire would have burned through the debris and burned the body.

Q.—You are not answering my question.

A.—I thought I was.

Q.—If this body had not been protected at all do you believe it would have been unconsumed.

A.—Had the clothing not been on the body I do not think it would have been burned, because the fire had not got to it.

Q.—If the head were unprotected would you be surprised that the head has been found? Putting the hypothetical case do you believe it was possible for the head to burn if it had not been unprotected?

A.—If the head had not been protected with something it would have been burned.

Q.—It would have been consumed entirely?

A.—I believe if the head had been lying on the floor it would not have been burned.

Q.—If it were unprotected would it not be entirely consumed?

A.—I believe anything exposed to the fire unprotected would be consumed.

Q.—Give me your opinion straight and fair whether it assists this woman or nails her coffin. Why do you not answer this question?

A.—I think I have. I think anything unprotected and exposed to fire would be burned, but the fire had not yet got to it.

Q.—And you say that all the time that you were working at the fire you were smothering for breath or air?

A.—I said when I would be smothering for breath or air I would come out in the snow and go back.

Q.—You would come out in the snow and go back; these are your words?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And all this time the smoke was arising in the air and filling your eyes—the time you were poking around in the debris.

A.—There was a strong north-west wind and some times it would clear it away.

Q.—You said the smoke was arising in clouds?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you were smothering for breath or air while you were observing whether the floor was clean or not.

A.—I said when I was smothering I would go out.

Q.—When you were examining the floor for blood?

A.—I was not looking for blood?

Q.—While you were examining whether there was anything under the body or not, with the tears streaming out of your eyes?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you mean the jury to understand that everything was so clear that you were observing particularly what was under the man?

A.—No, I would not want the jury to understand that, because I said I could feel the floor with the shovel.

Q.—Then you swear you did not see the floor?

A.—No, I do not swear that. When we lifted the tick we saw the floor.

Q.—Under the body was apparently the floor of the kitchen.

A.—Yes.

Q.—And the floor of the kitchen rested on posts?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did not you give old man Scoilie, in the month of August, a note for $500, bearing 5 per cent, interest and payable six months after date.

A.—No. I never owed him money in my life.

Q.—And did not you strike out the six months and substitute the twelve months.

A.—No.

Q.—And did not Scollie say that was forgery.

A.—Not a word of it.

Q.—When you were anxiously shoveling around were not you searching for his tin box.

A.—I never owed him a dollar in my life.

Q.—Is it not so that you gave him a note for $200 at six months time, and had the 6 changed into 12?

A.—I never gave him a note. Never owed him a dollar. I am surprised you are allowed to make such false suggestions.

Q.—You and Gray have been on bad terms for some considerable time.

A.—No, I never quarreled with him.

Q.—You and the Greys and McGregors had a very bitter fight one time about flour.

A.—That is not true. I never had a quarrel with them.

Q.—Had your wife?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you mean to say your family and this family had been on good terms?

A.—We never had a dispute in our lives.

Q.—You swear that?

A.—I do. We had a good many dealings but no quarrel.

Q.—Did not he since this fire accuse you of burning your barn?

A.—Never in the world.

Q.—Did he not accuse you of burning your own barn.

A.—Not at all.

Q.—Did not he tell you it was strange you should get all the material for a new barn and that your barn should burn as soon as you got it ready.

A.—No, I do not think I spoke a dozen words to Grey for months before that.

Q.—It was not reported to you that he had said so?

A.—No, sir, never heard of it.

Q.—Why all this bitterness—pursuing him as you have been pursuing him since the night of the fire?

A.—I was not pursuing him. I told you what my opinions were when I took Scollie out, and I thought the man had been murdered, and I thought there would be a fair trial about it.

Q.—Do you remember Brewer's fire?

A.—No, I never heard of it?

Q.—Do you remember telling Lavelle six or eight years ago, right after the agreement had been entered into, that the old man had put a nail in his coffin?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—You had a sister claimed to be murdered?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You are a monomaniac on the question?

A.—No, I do not consider I am. I never told Lavelle that. That is an expression I never used in my life.

Q.—I mean to convey the idea that when the old man made that arrangement he had done something which was going to bring death upon himself?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Put it your way.

A.—I never so expressed myself to Lavelle or any one else, and I have no doubt the neighbours from the surrounding country will contradict my statements if they were not correct. I never stated such a thing to any one.

Mr. Stratton—that will do.

THE FIFTH WITNESS.

JAMES E. HENDERSON, sworn, testified that he saw the body taken out of the house. He did not observe any difference in the debris which covered the body and the spot where the head should be. The floor was beneath the straw tick. There were no cinders between the tick and the floor. The straw in the tick was unburnt.

Cross-examined by Mr. Stratton, the witness said that the body presented a ghastly sight. He was not sure how far the bone projected. He did not observe that the flesh was burnt at the elbows or that the ribs were burnt out. They might have been so burnt without him noticing it.

THE SIXTH WITNESS.

WALTER JOHNSTON, sworn, testified that he saw the body taken out of the ruins. He corroborated the evidence of the previous witness as to the position in which the body was found and the unburnt condition of the hair on the breast. The bone of the neck stuck out about two inches. The flesh was drawn down from the bone and appeared to be scorched down for a couple of inches. The body was covered by debris. That over the head was no different from the rest. There was a clean floor under the body that was not burned. He saw no tick. He did not think the straw was taken out with the body. Mr. Weir and Mr. Burnham were there at the time. Scollie's head was gone, his arms were folded and one leg was drawn up. The hair on the breast was unhurt. It grew to within four or five inches of the neck. The bedclothing was tucked in under the body. He did not think the body could have fallen from the room above.

Cross-examined by Mr. Stratton, the witness stated that though the straw which was under the body was not burnt there was none left on either side. The neck was charred black.

THE SEVENTH WITNESS.

DAVID LAWRENCE, sworn, testified that he also saw the body removed. The straw was burnt around it up to the edge of the body. He saw the shirt removed. The hair was unburnt. He did not see the trench dug around the body, being away looking for a shovel. The body lay with the feet toward the north and the head towards the southwest.

Cross-examined, the witness said the neck had a charred appearance as though it had been burned. There was nothing to suggest that the head had been cut off. No mention of such a thing was made amongst those present at the time.

THE EIGHTH WITNESS.

HENRY GIBVEN, sworn, testified that when he arrived the body had not been taken out. He helped to pull out the board on which it lay. He could not say what was under the body. The hair was unburnt on the breast and came up pretty close to the base of the neck. He did not notice the position in which the hands reposed. The underclothing apparently was uninjured. He did not know in what room the old man usually slept.

Cross-examined, he stated he did not observe where the belly was burnt through, and the knees and arms burnt. He noticed that the underwear was not injured on the breast. He could not say it was not burnt through on the arms and legs.

THE NINTH WITNESS.

DANIEL BELLEGHEM, sworn, testified that he saw the body when it was in the barn. McGregor, was there. The head of the body was missing, and the hands drawn up. The feet were partly burned off. The toes were drawn under, but the bones were there though the toes were missing. The hair was unburnt on the breast. The shirt collar was burnt off. The neck was badly charred. After burying the body he disinterred it in June, 1895. Dr. John Caven, Dr. Primrose, Dr. Boucher, Dr. Halliday and several others were present on this occasion. The body disinterred was the same one that had been buried. He had looked for the head in the ruins, but he could find no trace of it. The body was buried in the underwear.

Cross-examined, the witness stated that he only expected to find a part of the head, not the whole of it, when hunting in the ruins. He had left the body unprotected for several hours in the barn. He had thought at first that the head was burnt off, but on not being able to find the teeth or jaw bone he thought it strange. He had handled the neck. There was no blood of any kind on the garments. The shirts were buttoned very closely around the neck.

THE TENTH WITNESS.

DR. CAVEN, sworn, testified that he was the Professor of Pathology in the University of Toronto. He demonstrated to the students the diseased condition of dead bodies. He had followed the profession of pathology for about six years, and had examined probably 600 bodies in that time. He then submitted the following report of the post mortem held in the Little Lake Cemetery:

REPORT OF THE EXAMINATION ON THE BODY OF DAVID SCOLLIE:

The examination was made in Little Lake Cemetery enclosure, Peterborough, on the 1st June, '95, by Drs. Jno. Caven and Alexander Primrose, in the presence of Drs. Boucher and Halliday, of Peterborough, Dr. Bell, coroner, of Peterborough, Detective Murray, Crown Attorney Wood and Undertaker Belleghem were also present. The grave, casket and body were identified as those of David Scollie by the undertaker, Belleghem.

Report:

The casket, having been removed to the morgue, was opened and the remains of the headless body exposed. The clothes covering the body, and consisting of a woollen undershirt and drawers and a pair of socks, were covered with mould and adhered closely to the body. The shirt showed marks of burning about the neck, shoulders and back. The drawers and socks were practically undamaged. After removing the clothing, the following facts were observed:—The head was absent; the chest, pubes, axillæ and backs of the forearms were thickly covered with hair, which was preserved and gave no evidence of having been damaged by fire. The left hand was flexed at the wrist and the fingers were also markedly flexed. Both knees were slightly flexed. The back of the left hand and the knuckles were charred and blackened, as if by fire. On taking hold of the neck above and attempting to raise the body thereby, a section of the spinal column came off in the hands. This was the uppermost remaining portion of the neck and was preserved for future examination. Both the right and left humeri were completely burned through high up near the shoulder joint, and more or less of the bones destroyed. A considerable portion of the spinal column in the neck and back was then removed and preserved for examination. At front of the windpipe was seen a small tuft of fibrous, rope-like material, which on further examination was shown to be muscle acted upon by heat. About two and a half inches of the inner end of the left collar bone were present, the outer end of this fragment being charred and blackened. The right collar bone was similarly charred, but an inch and a half of it remaining. The ribs of the left side were completely burned through and separated from the spinal column. The ribs on the right side were all intact. A three inch nail was found sticking in the muscle of the right chest wall, but had not penetrated the chest. The front aspect of the body from below the clavicles and the lower limbs presented no evidence of having been exposed to fire, but were extensively denuded of their soft parts by the processes of decomposition. With slight traction both feet came away from the legs, their ligamentous connections having perished. The lower limbs were similarly separated with ease from the body at the hip joints. The left shoulder blade was not to be found. The right shoulder blade was slightly damaged, apparently by fire, and was preserved for examination. The liver was the only abdominal viscera recognizable. Portions of the lungs were recognized in the thoracic cavity, the heart was destroyed.

The soft parts of the body, skin, muscles, etc., were softened and friable, and readily torn asunder by the hands. The bony fragments which had been spoken of as coming off in the hand on attempting to raise the body by the hand, have been examined further, and the following is a description of them:

1. The seventh cervical vertebra, i. e., the lowermost bone of the neck part of the spinal column: The right half of the vertebra is uninjured; the lateral processes are entirely absent on the left side, and the surface left by fracture (?) is darkened as though by fire; the left side of the body of the vertebra is gone and the fractured (?) surface presented an appearance similar to that described for the lateral processes. A portion of the left side of the spine of the vertebra has also been chipped (or burnt?) off.

2. The sixth cervical vertebra. The right side of this bone is entire save a small portion of the body. The lateral processes of the left side are absent, and a portion of the lateral part of the arch, so that the spinal canal is opened up on this side. The left side of the body exhibits a broken (?) surface. The damaged surfaces in this case are, as in the preceeding case (No. 1) darkened apparently by fire.

3. The fifth cervical vertebra. The upper parts of the cervical processes on the right side are broken off; the spine of the vertebra is absent. The greater part of the body is absent, namely the entire upper surface and the left portion of the body. The damaged surface is bevelled and looks obliquely upwards, forward and to the left. The lateral processes of the vertebra are absent on the left side, as also the left portion of the arch, so that the spinal canal is opened up. The fractured (?) surfaces have the appearance of charring, spoken of in Nos. 1 and 2.

JOHN CAVEN,
ALEXANDER PRIMROSE.

Toronto, June 14th, 1895.

By the superfinal appearance he would say that the state of the neck indicated that it had been charred after the head was removed. He could not say how the head was removed.

If the man was alive at the time of the fire he would not have expected to find the hands in the position in which they were found. Suffocation would cause him to struggle and the hands could not be expected to be found in repose, unless the suffocation had come on so very gradually as to be almost imperceptible. He could not say that the hands had been placed in the position in which they were found after death, but could only say that he would not expect to find them in such a position under the circumstances.

He would not have expected to have found the head burnt to such an extent under the circumstances, as to have been completely destroyed. The hair, too, on the chest he would have expected to have been burnt, though it certainly was greatly protected by the woollen underclothing and plaster. If the head had been removed before being burnt, and the clothing had been unchanged, there certainly would have been so much blood upon the shirt as would have been apparent to him. If a narcotic had been administered prior to the removal of the head the blood would not have spurted, but still he had seen by the evidence that the floor beneath the body was clean and the blood would naturally be supposed to have left some trace there.

Another portion of bone was shown the witness, who said he had found it beside the charred neck. He believed it to be a portion of the larnyx. It bore traces of fracture, but still was undoubtedly burnt.

Cross-examined, Dr. Caven stated to Mr. Stratton that the collar bone was three-quarters destroyed and the left shoulder blade missing entirely. The right shoulder blade was also burnt. The arms were also badly charred, one being burnt through. The ribs were burned through at the point of their attachment to the spine. A fire which was so intense as to leave the rest of the body in this fashion would consume the head if applied for a sufficient length of time. The condition of the bones were not indicative that violence had been shown the old man. If heat was being continually applied it would not take any great effort to remove the head. The witness admitted that when carbonic acid gas was administered the passage from life to death was almost imperceptible. Carbonic acid gas was given off from burning wood. It might have caused death in this particular case.

DR. PRIMROSE confirmed Dr. Caven's testimony in every particular, and on being cross-examined stated that if he had examined the body immediately after death he could have determined whether death had occurred before or after the fire. He deemed it impossible that a woman such as Mrs. Gray could have severed the head so cleverly as to leave no traces of the blood.

DR. HALLIDAY'S testimony was confirmatory of that of the two previous witnesses.

DR. BOUCHER also concurred in Dr. Caven's report, and the further inferences drawn from him in regard to the position in which the body was found, and in the conclusions from him in cross-examination.

MICHAEL FITZGERALD, sworn, testified that he had purchased the Gray property for one thousand dollars from Thomas Gray when the family moved to the south.

THE FOURTEENTH WITNESS.

FREDERICK DIXON, sworn, testified that he was a clerk in W. H. Hill's Insurance office. He identified the policy in which Gray had insured the residence and contents for $500. The claim had been settled when the house was burnt.

THE FIFTEENTH WITNESS.

When WILLIAM J. MCGREGOR was called a hum of interest swept over the court on account of his relationship to prisoner and on account of his evidence being expected to be somewhat exciting. The prisoner, too, who had lost all interest in the trial, braced up to listen to the

THE BEST IN TOWN!

Is What Hundreds of Ladies Remarked as they Viewed the Magnificent Display of Millinery, Mantles, Dress Goods, Underwear, Carpets, Etc., at

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'S

Without wishing to seem to be egotistic, we assure the public that this is the verdict that we expected, as no house is in a position to show you the assortment and certainly no one can quote you such low prices.

THE MILLINERY DISPLAY

This season surpasses all our former efforts. The styles, of course, are the latest, and, judging by the large number of orders taken, our effort to save our customers the wholesale man's profit is appreciated by all. Being the only firm that buy these goods direct from the manufacturers, we are in a position to sell at the same price as our competitors buy. It is quite true that every house, however small, even though all their stock could be put in one packing case, declare in their exaggerated statements that they buy direct from makers.

We know whereof we speak, when we tell you that if it were not for our connection with The Canadian Dry Goods Syndicate, we individually could not buy from the large manufacturers—and we think we can buy about as many goods as most houses.

True, any house can buy from such manufacturer's as sell to the retail trade only, but in many cases the wholesale house is preferable. Large European Manufacturers do not take orders from individual retail stores—buying through Canadian agents who are responsible for the account and who have added their profits to the prices, though the goods are shipped from the maker, we claim is not buying direct. Therefore as members of the great Syndicate,

WE LEAD THE TRADE

And our fast growing trade is a proof that our values are right.

THE DISPLAY OF JACKETS

Is equal to that shown by any city house from the cheapest to the very highest-priced garments. Everyone should see our range before purchasing.

DRESS GOODS.

Every Lady that visited our store will tell you that she never saw such a lot of beautiful, yet reasonable priced Goods at any opening display. Our Dress Goods trade is one of the largest in the Eastern part of the province.

LADIES' UNDERWEAR.

This Department has scored a grand success. We show such a variety and having the HEALTH BRAND confined to us this season, has increased our sales very much. Already we have sent several repeat orders for these goods which is proof that they are selling.

MEN'S SUITINGS, OVERCOATINGS AND MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

Are acknowledged to be the best value in the trade. Seeing is believing. Call and see. No charge to show the goods.

CARPETS AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS.

This display was admired by everyone. The Bedroom furnished complete with Carpets, Curtains, Bed Spreads and everything in blue to match evoked the greatest praise. The immense stock in this department enables us to make such a display.

THE INCREASE IN OUR TRADE makes us firmer believers in SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS. Ours is the People's Popular Cash Store.

SIR MACKENZIE BOWELL'S VISIT.

A Quiet Reception of the Premier.

Yesterday afternoon intelligence was received in town that Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Premier of the Dominion, on his return from opening the Lindsay exhibition, would arrive here by the nine o'clock train. Though the notice was short, the Premier was accorded an informal reception. A reception committee consisting of Mr. C. W. Sawers and Mr. Wesley Miller, preceded by the Fire Brigade band, met the train at the station. The committee entered the private coach and escorted the Premier and Mr. James Stevenson, who had been at Lindsay during the day, to the carriage in waiting. As the party alighted from the coach a call was made for three cheers for the Premier, which was responded to with very little of enthusiasm, and was scarcely equal in volume and vim to the three cheers that were called and given for Mr. Dalton McCarthy, showing that that gentleman's friends were largely represented in the small company that had assembled at the station, and the Premier was several times reminded by persons in the crowd of the Government's policy on the Manitoba school question. The party then repaired to the Huffman house, where an informal reception was held, among those received being: Messrs. John Carnegie, C. W. Sawers, Thos. Crooks, J. G. Weir, James Stevenson, M.P., Wesley Miller, Rev. W. R. Young, W. H. Moore, A. P. Poussette, W. H. Maldrum, Chas. Stapleton, Robert Fair, Thos. Bradburn, and Rev. J. C. Davidson.

Shortly after ten o'clock several members of the Town Council, who had been attending a committee meeting, called upon the Premier, in company with Mayor Hendry. The reception lasted until after eleven o'clock, when the Premier left for Ottawa on the midnight C. P. R. express in his special car.

A BLAZE AT THE BRIDGE WORKS.

The Roof of the Blacksmith Shop Badly Damaged.

Last night about 9.30 o'clock smoke was seen issuing from the glass cupola on the blacksmith shop of the Central Iron and Bridge Works. The fire had been burning for some time before it was noticed, and the brigade was promptly on the scene, and soon had two streams playing on the roof. Fortunately no wind was blowing at the time and it was not long until the fireman had the flames under control.

The roof is considerably damaged, and the loss together with the damage to the material in the blacksmith shop will amount to several hundred dollars.

Strength for the Aged.

As age advances the recuperative power of the body decreases. Fatigue clings like a burr to the already depleted store of energy, still further wasting and dissipating it, and, in consequence, the elderly find it very hard to keep their spirits up to the "doing" point. An anchor of hope and safety is found in the energising action of Maltine with Coca Wine, which imparts, almost magically, strength and vigor to the failing powers, and through its nutritive and tonic properties renews those functional activities upon which depend health of body and mind. Maltine with Coca Wine rapidly restores appetite, improves digestion, imparts tone and vigor to the nervous system; in a word is a strength giver of unequalled excellence. Maltine with Coca Wine is prescribed and recommended by physicians. All druggists sell it.

U.S. Preparing to Teach Great Britain What the Monroe Doctrine Means.

Buffalo, Sept. 27.—The Evening News prints the following sensational Washington despatch to-day:

"We expect to have trouble with Great Britain within 90 days, and are preparing to get into shape for it." This startling statement which at first seems to have a ring of sensationalism in it, was made by a high official of the Government. It was an answer to an enquiry why work upon Government vessels nearing completion, and in Government gun shops and navy yards is being pushed to such an unusual degree. It has been known for the past two weeds to a few officials outside the immediate circles of the President and his Cabinet that the relations between this Government and Great Britain over the Venezuelan matter are reaching an acute stage. It is now known that between this time and the assembling of Congress the United States will call an abrupt halt to British encroachment upon Venesuelan territory. This will be done for the double purpose of enforcing the Monroe doctrine and to protect American interests.

A syndicate of Americans from Faribault, Minn., has been granted a concession from Venezuela within the territory disputed by Great Britain. The syndicate will take possession of its concession within a month and begin its operations. If Great Britain objects Venezuela will insist that the concession is within her own territory and will protect the syndicate. At this point our Government will demand that England submit the boundary dispute to arbitration or else the United States will act on its own view of this dispute and carry out the Monroe doctrine. It is known that instructions have already been sent to Ambassador Bayard to this effect.

JAPS IN FORMOSA.

Two Towns Taken From the Rebels After a Hard Fight.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 27.—The Novoe Vremya has received advices by way of Vladivostock that the Japanese captured Changhua and Taiwan-Fu in Formosa at the end of August. The rebels made a desperate resistance, and the two towns were taken only after severe fighting. Subsequently the Japanese marched on Anipin, where the rebel forces are concentrated. There are 60,000 Japanese troops in Formosa, but 3000 are sick in the hospitals, and all the troops are exhausted from the arduous campaign in which they have been engaged. The Japanese Government will send reinforcements to the island.

THE GRAY MURDER TRIAL.

The case which has attracted so much public attention for the past few months as will be observed in the enlarged report in this issue has come to a rather sudden conclusion. After the crown case had been presented, and after four or five witnesses for the defence had been heard his Lordship practically took the case from the jury, a circumstance equivalent to the discharge of the prisoners, and a declaration of their innocence of the crimes charged. The evidence generally presented on behalf of the Crown was weak, and what evidence seemed strongest failed to impress either the judge or the jury as worthy of credence. It is indeed unfortunate that the Gray's should have been brought to the dock on evidence that has proven utterly insufficient to support the most commonplace charge, not to speak of the grave crimes of arson and murder. It must be admitted that, in view of the numerous and suspicious circumstances connected with the burning of the residence of the Gray's and the death of David Scollie, the Crown was perfectly justified in ordering an investigation. But there, as subsequent events show, the matter should have rested, for there was no evidence of sufficient weight to warrant the formulating of two such serious charges as arson and murder and dragging back the Grays with their family of six children, all the way from Florida, which they had made their permanent home, and where they had their means of livelihood. To a just mind it would at once be suggested that some substantial compensation should be provided for the Grays and their family. Of course nothing can remove the stain which their imprisonment, even on an unfounded charge of murder brings, but it would seem that the law ignores the idea of justice when it fails to provide some compensation in a case like that of the unfortunate family in question.

THE TOWN AND THE CARBON COMPANY.

The special meeting of the Council to-night is to consider the proposition of the Peterborough Carbon and Porcelain Company. It is well known that the latter company, under its present management, was not a success, and that a large amount of money has been lost—about $90,000—between bank advances and the paid up stock of shareholders. Now the Carbon and Porcelain Company proposes disposing of the plant and buildings to the Canadian General Electric Company, the proceeds of the sale—$15,000—to be devoted as far as they will go to the liquidating of the endebtedness of the Carbon Company. The town has a second mortgage on the property of $6,000, of which $2,000 has been met by the conditions of the bonus, leaving the town with an interest of $4,000, which is practically of little value on account of the priority of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company's first mortgage for $10,000.

The proposition referred to is that the town forego its claim—$4,000—and exempt the property (which is already exempt) from taxation for ten years, the Canadian General Electric Company to operate the Carbon Works and in turn forego its claim of $5,000 on the town on account of removing the Glass Works to Peterborough. It seems that this is a proposition by which the town stands to gain something and can lose nothing. In the matter of value, the town's second mortgage and the Electric Company's claim for $5,000 seem to be on about a par. The town, therefore, cannot suffer much and by granting the exemption it will stand to be a gainer by having dormant works in operation, which will give work to citizens now unemployed.

BRING THE CORONER

Wrote Alvin Jenks to an Undertaker.

BEFORE HE COMMITTED SUICIDE.

The Manager of a Toronto Paper Box Company Wrote to an Undertaker to Call at His House, and When the Latter Did He Found the Writer Dead.

Toronto, Sept. 27.—"Mr. Ellis, Dear Sir: Come to 112 Brunswick-avenue. You will find door unbolted. Bring Coroner with you."

Such was the wording of an unsigned missive received by Undertaker Harry Ellis, College-street, with his mail yesterday morning. The undertaker was, of course, very much puzzled on reading the strange note, and immediately notified Coroner Young. The Coroner thought the matter was probably a joke, but advised investigation. Mr. Ellis, accompanied by one of his assistants, then went to the address given and found the door unlocked, as the note had said. There were no signs of anyone astir in the house, but a strong smell of gas was very noticeable.

After searching several of the rooms the undertaker visited the bathroom, the window and door of which were both closed, and the gas jet turned on. Sitting on the edge of the bath with the head resting on the hand and the elbow on the wash-stand, was the body of Alvin Jenks, proprietor of the Toronto Paper Box Company. On the lapel of the dead man's coat a small piece of paper was pinned bearing this brief inscription: "Ill-health. A. J." The features were in no way discolored or distorted and death had apparently been very easy.

Undertaker Ellis notified Coroner Young of his find. Death had apparently resulted from asphyxiation. A letter was found by the Coroner addressed to Mr. Charles Elliott, barrister, who soon afterwards arrived in company with Mr. G. Madden, deceased's brother-in-law. The letter to Mr. Elliott contained a wish that all his property and effects go to his wife with the exception of a few trinkets, which he leaves to Mr. William Gardner.

The circumstances surrounding the sad affair point to deliberate suicide. The letter received by Undertaker Ellis had been mailed in a letter box on Spadina-avenue before 9.30 p. m. on Wednesday. Deceased had also sent a bunlle of papers and a letter to his solicitor, Mr. Charles Elliott, 63 Yonge-street apparently at the same time, as they were received by the lawyer on his arrival at his office yesterday morning. From the tone of the letter Mr. Elliott knew that something must be amiss and accordingly telephoned to Mr. Jenks' residence, but was unable to get any reply. Positive that there was some mystery surrounding the matter he notified the deceased's brother-in-law, G. F. Madden of the Incandescent Light Company, the two gentlemen then proceeded to the home of deceased, 112 Brunswick-avenue, to find Coroner Young and Undertaker Ellis already there.

The dead man is Alvin Jenks, proprietor of the Toronto Paper Box Company. He is about 34 years of age and came here from Pawtucket.

FRIGHTENED TO DEATH.

Dropped Dead on Learning That Burglars Were in the House.

Port Dover, Sept. 27.—Yesterday about 2 o'clock the house of Miss Brown was broken into by burglars. An old aunt, Miss Lonsboro, who was sleeping down stairs, got up and called for help to Miss Brown and threatened the burglars.

She almost immediately afterwards fell over and expired, the fright being too much for her. She had been in rather feeble health for some time. Burglaries have been very numerous here lately.

Dashing Ahead!

FALL comes dashing along. We must get out of the rut of Summer. House-cleaning or rather house-decorating season has swung around again. The majority of homes are repapered and decorated during the early FALL month, and and if you did not paper in the spring decide to do it now. Make the home more cozy, more cheerful, more comfortable, to serve as a pleasing contrast to the chilling blasts of winter, now hurrying along the track.

Special Exhibition Sale.

During September you are always entitled to ten per cent. off all Wall Paper purchased at the Peterborough Bookstore. But, for the next TEN DAYS we're going to do better inducements still. For example—

—Papers worth 7c, go for 5c.
—Papers worth 10 and 12½c, go for 7c.
—Papers 20c and 25c, go for 10c.

We want everybody—townspeople and people in the country—to come and see our bargains in Wall Papers during the next ten days.

CHRYSLER'S FARM MONUMENT.

The Granite Shaft Unveiled Which Celebrates a Canadian Victory.

Cornwall, Sept. 26.—Yesterday a monument was dedicated to the memory of those who fell at the battle of Chrysler's Farm in 1813.

Hon. John Haggart and Sir Mackenzie Bowell delivered addresses. Following were the local committee: Messrs. J. H. Melville, local chairman; G. Dillon secretary; A. Johnston, A. Broder, H. H. Ross, M.P., J. P. Whitney, M.L.A., Guy Hoacks, A. Van Allan, S. Crysler, C. T. Whittaker, M.D., Willard F. Tyrrell, H. Montgomery, R. Beckstead, W. W. Davey, Dr. Hickey, Dr. Chamberlain, J. Barry, sr., S. Fell, Thomas McDonald, L. W. Howard and H. G. Merkley.

About 500 of the sons and grandsons of the old heroes of 1813 who fought at the battle were present at the unveiling.

The steamer Bohemian took six or seven hundred excursionists to the farm, with Camp Aberdeen, Sons of Scotland, and their pipers, and the Citizens' Band. The G.T.R. trains stopped at the farm, and a large concourse of spectators were gathered.

The first suggestion of a monument was made by Rev. James Croil, in his history of the county in 1861. For about 30 years the project slumbered, until on March 12, 1890, Mr. Craig, M.P. for Welland, moved a resolution regarding a monument at Lundy's Lane. In 1892 grants were finally made for the erection of these several monuments at Niagara, Stony Creek, etc.

The monument is of Stanstead granite, rough finish, 38 feet high, with "1813" in bronze. A wreath of maple leaves encircles two crossed swords with the inscription, "In Honor of the brave men who fought and fell at the victory of Chrysler's Farm, on the 11th November, 1813." This memorial was erected by the Canadian Parliament in 1895."

The shaft is the workmanship of McIntosh & Co., Toronto.

QUEBEC BUSH FIRES.

A Scene of Utter Desolation—Impossible to Check the Flames.

Aston, Que., Sept. 25.—The forest fires which have brought so much destruction in this district, still cause much apprehension. They continue to rage on all sides of us, and the inhabitants have done nothing for days but watch its progress, which, it seems impossible to check. Nothing short of a heavy downpour of rain will save the timber and cut wood and bark, which is the main source of revenue hereabouts.

The damage in this parish is not quite so great as in those adjacent. A rough estimate places the total loss in this parish at $15,000.

The scene at Brault's Mills is one of utter desolation. The village was made up of about a dozen houses, with their outbuildings and many well-stocked barns, as harvesting was just about completed; a lumber mill, etc. There were also piles of bark, pulp wood, railway ties and telegraph poles, while two loaded and one empty car stood on the Grand Trunk siding. The fire took a threatening aspect about 2 p.m., and by 11 o'clock that night every combustible thing which lay in its path was consumed. The people escaped to the river side and were obliged to remain there in the open air till the next day. The fires showed themselves in nearly every range.

The reports from St. Eulalia say that seven building and 14 barns full of crops were totally destroyed.

NO PATRON COALITION.

Leader Haycock Denies That He Has Been Approached.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 25.—J. L. Haycock, patron leader, was spoken to in regard to a statement in a Toronto paper that overtures had been made to him in regard to a coalition of patrons and Conservatives, and his reply was: "You can deny the story. No overtures have been made to me by any party. I deny further that I favored the reform party in the Legislature last session. The records of the last session show that there were 18 party divisions on which the yeas and nays were taken. On nine I voted with the Conservative party, six times we voted against the united forces of both Tories and Grits. With this record, it is pretty hard to prove that I favored one party more than another."

"For years," says Capt. C. Mueller, "I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than anything else in the medicine chest, to regulate my bowels and those of the ship's crew. These pills are not severe in their action but do their work thoroughly."

HALL CAINE ARRIVES.

Declines to Discuss His Mission With New York Reporters.

New York, Sept. 25.—Hall Caine, the English author, arrived here to-day on the White Star line steamer Teutonic. With him were his wife and his little son.

"I shall be in New York for a few days," said the author. "Probably not more than two days at the limit. I shall go from here to Boston and from there to Canada."

"My mission in the Dominion is of a diplomatic character, on the subject of copyright, a subject in which English writers are considerably interested just now.

"I expect a favorable hearing, but further than that I could hardly go with propriety in making predictions at this time.

"I shall return to New York from Canada and make a more leisurely stay. I shall be Mr. Appleton's guest and my time will be taken up pleasantly and profitably, I expect, in filling engagements made by him."

"Will you deliver any lectures before returning to Europe?"

"No, not a lecture."

Mr. Caine chatted in an affable fashion with several people introduced to him on the dock. He couldn't quite understand, though, why to-morrow wouldn't do as well as to-day for an interview with reporters.

"Everything is to-day and now over here," he laughed.

Mr. Caine brings letters from the Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, in connection with his copyright mission.

CAPTURED A WILD WOMAN.

A Demented Creature Who Says She Comes From Petrolea Caught in Michigan.

Alpena, Mich., Sept. 26.—Officers yesterday captured a wild woman in the woods 15 miles west. She had been seen a number of times by farmers and others, but always ran away and hid at the sight of any person. She had been in the vicinity for several months. When captured she was in a pitiful condition, with tangled hair and clad only in an old wrapper torn almost to shreds. She was watched, and when found was in her nest in the roots of an old stump, where she had burrowed. Her only food was berries and wild fruit, and she was reduced to a mere skeleton. She made desperate resistance, but when overpowered lay panting like a wild animal. She gives the name of McDonald, and says her parents live in Petrolea, Ont. She is in a demented condition, and will be sent to the Poor House.

Scott's Sarsaparilla

A CURE Inflammatory Rheumatism is produced by an excess of uric acid in the blood. Paralysis is merely a dead circulation produced by impure and impoverished blood. So-called neuralgia of the thigh is usually rheumatism; scrofulitic rheumatism is hereditary; syphilitic results from syphilis; gout is caused by high living; sluggish circulation affects the heart.

"THE KIND THAT CURES"

Thus the whole line of rheumatic diseases owe their being to an affected circulation of impure blood. No person can suffer a rheumatic pain that has a free and equal circulation of pure blood, and this accounts for Scott's Sarsaparilla curing the supposed incurable cases. It eradicates all rheumatic poisons and acids from the blood and equalizes the circulation.

PARADISE OF WOMEN.

A COUNTRY WHERE MEN ARE SUBSERVIENT TO THEIR WIVES

Strange Customs That Prevail in the Land of the Zadakhs—Women of Exquisite Symmetry and Grace—Men Who Have Been Shabbily Treated by Nature.

How surprised many new women of the civilized nations would be if told that far from being in advance of all her sisters in the world she is lamentably behind in many vital points.

There exists in a far off, out-of-the-way place on this globe a community where women have supreme, unquestioned and imperious sway over man. A celebrated Russian traveler, Count Nicolas Notovitch, tells of some strange things from the land of the Ladakhs. These people inhabit a territory covering an area of 30,000 square miles known as Middle Tibet, and the count estimates the population at 140,000 souls. Metaphorically speaking, they can be classed among the most elevated tribes in the world, their homes being on an average 29,000 feet above the level of the sea.

The women of the Ladakh tribe, says Mr. Notovitch, are far in advance, both in physical graces as well as intelligence, of their semi-civilized sisters of other tribes and nations. While as a rule they are below medium height, their figures are of exquisite symmetry and grace. The rareness of the mountain air gives them an exceedingly clear complexion, of which they are very proud. They have eloquent mouths, with excellent teeth, and their faces are continually wreathed with smiles. Their disposition matches this make-up, being sunny and amiable. They are extremely neat and fond of prinking. Though on account of the altitude the climate is very rigorous, they spend a great deal of the time in bathing. In their costumes they show a charming inclination for the picturesquely bizarre. They will often combine flimsy laces and many hued fabrics with handsome though somber colored furs in the most bewildering fashion. They know how to show off and heighten their personal charms to the best advantage, and are inordinately proud of their dazzling white necks.

One would think that with such an example the men would be the personification of gallantry and rich in physical favors, but the very opposite is the case. Never was there a tribe of men whom nature has treated more shabbily than the Ladakhs. She has evidently used up all her nice material on the women, and what odds and ends there were left have been utilized for making the most absurd caricatures of men. Not a shadow of an Apollo is found among them. They are thin, stunted, often hunchbacked, and have very small heads badly set on sloping shoulders. Their wearied ...que, with the high cheek bones, low, retreating forehead, flat nose, emphasized by an enormous mouth with thin lips. In the matter of dress they affect a painful indifference, their general make-up suggesting a dilapidated crazy quilt. If one meets a Ladakh wearing a shirt he may be at once set down as an ultra swell, as this useful garment is totally unknown save among the very rich. The care bestowed on their persons may be better imagined than described, as Notovitch says they never wash except by compulsion. There is a severe law subjecting a man to heavy fines if he does not wash himself at least once a year.

The men in this place are totally subservient to the rule of the gentler sex. The womn dictate the laws which govern the community through the priests, who, almost without exception, are appointed by themselves. They decide any questions that arise from disputes regarding taxes or other tributary measures enforced by law. All this self-assertiveness on the part of womankind among the Ladakhs reaches its culminative point in polyandry (plurality of husbands), which is practised to the fullest extent among these people. The men have little or no voice in the mater of courtship. The young woman makes inquiries about the standing of the family of which her prospective husband is a member. If satisfactory, she signifies to the mother of her choice that she wishes him for a "jing-tuk" (lover), consent is always readily obtained and the marriage feast prepared. The man is in duty bound to provide to the best of his ability for the family support. A wife has the unquestioned prerogative to take unto herself as many husbands as she pleases.

Jealousy is something totally unknown among these curious people, and love in its general acceptance is to them incomprehensible. The husbands, far from resenting an addition to their circle, greet a newcomer with unalloyed joy. The most curious rites are observed when a new husband has been chosen. At early dawn the happy groom, accompanied by his respective fellow-husbands, repairs to a place in the mountains, set aside for these ceremonies. As many horses as there are husbands are then killed by the officiating priest. The hides of these animals are then stuck upon poles and turned toward the west. Not a word is spoken until the last horse-hide is in position, when all present break out in a loud chant which is kept up for some time. A small bit of the hoof of each horse is then put into a little bag and hung around the neck of the rank husband, who has the additional pleasure of paying for all the horses killed. The bride is never present at this ceremony, from which as soon as ended the husbands return to their home, where a jolly feast is in waiting.

The family is as a matter of course full of bewildering complications in regard to relationship. The children only recognize the mother, and have apparently no affection whatever for the multiple father.

The Ladakhs live a sort of Arcadian life. Stealing, murder or other crimes are totally unknown and this happy state of affairs must be attributed to the benign influence of women, whose power here is supreme.

Woman's Carelessness With Her Purse.

Little sympathy is aroused in the average man when he hears that a woman of the day has been a victim of pickpockets, and, as a rule, if he is at all outspoken, his comment will be: "served her right." Most men think, and there is reason in their idea, that the dress of a woman to-day is an invitation to the light-handed gentry. She wears her watch dangling from a fragile chatelaine, the other end of which is attaced insecurely to her belt or pinned to the dress waist, or she may reverse the order of things, and put the watch in her belt, while from it a light chain depends, and on that she wears a charm frequently as heavy practice of carrying the pocketbook in a deft thief could disengage the entire outfit without much effort. The practice of carrying the pocketbook in one hand is a careless one and women who lose their purses have only themselves to blame. The man or woman who would make a name for himself or herself should devise a safe and convenient pocket for a woman's dress. —New York Sun.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

"SUN" LIFE Assurance Co'y of Canada.

The Rev. J. L. Murray, of Kincardine, Ontario, assured in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, in December, 1874, under Policy No. 1406, on the Twenty Year Endowment plan, paying an annual premium of $69.90 for ten years. He paid into the Company in all $699. In December, 1894, his Endowment matured, and he received a cheque from the Company for $1,364,70, being a return of all the premiums paid, and in addition, $665.70. That is to say Mr. Murray got back all the money he invested, with about 4½ PER CENT. COMPOUND INTEREST, and had his life assured for $1.000 for twenty years free of charge.

It is needless to say that Mr. Murray was much pleased. You may gather that fact from the persual of his letter hereto appended. QUERY:—How many of the people of Peterborough invests their money to better advantage?

N. B.—This is an example of profits paid under our Five Year Distribution plan. The results under our Reserve Dividend (or Semi-Tontine) policies may reasonably be expected to greatly exceed that realized under the above plan.

KINCARDINE, JAN. 6th, 1895.

The Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, Montreal.

GENTLEMEN:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your cheque in full settlement of claim under my Ten Payment Twenty Year Endowment policy, No. 1406, and I desire to express my satisfaction with the result of my investment. I paid to the Company an annual premium of $69.90 for ten years, making a total of $699, for which I now receive a cheque for $1,364,70, being a return of all I have paid the Company, and in addition, $665.70, besides having had my life assured for $1,000 during the twenty years. This I consider very good indeed, and I have pleasure in giving my testimonial to that effect.

Yours sincerely,
(Signed,) REV. J. L. MURRAY.

testimony. He married the prisoner's sister. On the occasion of the fire he lived in the dwelling he still occupied. On the night of the fire, the first intimation he had of it was at two o'clock in the morning when five of the Gray children at the window awoke him. The oldest girl had on a coat and cap. He did not notice any dress. She had boots on. She was carrying the youngest child. The little girl called out that the house was all on fire. He looked over and said "No, there is no fire." He could see the roof. The little girl said that the whole side of the house had been burnt out. He was dressed in about three minutes and ran to the house. He met Mrs. Gray on the way. She was carrying a bundle in her arms. He thought at first it was the old man (smiles) but she said Scollie was in the house. He ran on and kicked the door in, when the flames burst out. The stairs were burned away. He turned to run over to Mr. Burnham's and met Mrs. Gray at the gate. He said he was going to Burnham's, but she said, "Don't go there," but he answered that it was the nearest house and went on. He heard his wife running down the road shrieking, "save Scollie! save Scollie!" and he told Burnham to hurry up to get the old man out. Mrs. Gray was still at the house when he returned. He remained there nearly an hour. He saw

HESSIE GRAY.

NO SIGNS OF SCOLLIE.

Mr. Gray was away at the time. He was not there when the body was taken out. He remembered going to Gray's a year after the new house was built and discussed the fire. He heard some loud talking inside and on going in Gray said that he was going to separate from Scollie. Gray said he would take twelve hundred dollars and leave the place.

[His Lordship interfered here and said any of these conversations about the separation were not to be brought up, being too remote from the date of the occurrence.

He had heard Mrs. Gray often say in referring to Scollie, that she would poison the damned old brute.

On being cross-examined by Mr. Stratton the witness acknowledged that Scollie was a very stout old man. He was very kind and affectionate to Gray children. He was little or no trouble to anyone and was very reticent. As far as anything he ever said Scollie might be judged to have been most comfortable. When he got over to the house on the occasion of the fire, the stairway and partition alone were on fire. The other rooms were not burning. He did not desire to convey the impression that Mrs. Gray had run away from a small fire. She told him old man Scollie was in the house. He went off to the house knowing that Scollie was there.

HE MADE NO EFFORT to save the old man. He did not go to get a ladder or get a rail to break in the window. He thought he could do nothing himself and went for aid. He could give no reason for saying that he "didn't want to be around the fire alone." He was not hurrying Mrs. Gray when he said the fire was not very far advanced. It only took about four minutes to go over to Burnham's and back, yet when he got back the house was entirely enveloped. It was too hot then to do anything. He had not asked for a ladder at Burnham's.

THE SIXTEENTH WITNESS.

MRS. MCGREGOR, sister of the prisoner, was then called, and testified that her husband was coming from Mr. Burnham's when she arrived at the fire. She cried "Save Scollie!" and Mrs. Gray said "What do you want Scollie saved for?" She only remained about three minutes. Her husband her home. Saw nothing in the house. She saw Scollie on Wednesday. The fire was early Friday morning at about 2 o'clock. She had no conversation with him at the time. On the second Saturday in November her sister said Scollie and she had some words. She seemed to be vexed about it and said she would try and get rid of him during the winter. She asked how she intended doing it and was told that she "would watch for a chance some dark night and shoot him in Fitzgerald's lane." Mrs. McGregor told her that "she would never get to heaven if she shot him, and, besides, she would get some neighbour in trouble." Mrs. Gray said she wouldn't get Tom (her husband) into trouble, anyway. Mrs. McGregor told her that she would surely be found out, and Mrs. Gray answered that before she would be bothered with Scollie another winter she would "chop his head off and set fire to the house so that no one would know

HOW HE HAD DIED.

Witness said she then told prisoner that murder never lied and she would be found out no matter how she did it. Mrs. Gray wanted to know "How the hell it would be known."

After the fire Mrs. Gray had told her that Bellegham had questioned her about Scollie and that he would question Annie (the daughter) but that Annie knew nothing about it. Scollie had sleeping drops of his own. She knew of no clothes that Mrs. Gray saved but what she wore. The bundle was nothing but robes. Mrs. Gray had never written to her after going South.

The prisoner had said that if any trouble came she hoped she would not swear against her, and she had answered that she wouldn't like to do that.

To Mr. Stratton, the witness stated that the prisoner was in a delicate condition at the time of the fire, and gave birth to a child a short time afterwards. She was not a strong woman. She had at first told Detective Murray that her sister had never spoke of poisoning Scollie. Murray then said "why you just told me so," and she said "No, she hadn't," and left it to

MR. GRAHAM WEIR TO DECIDE, and he said "Mrs. McGregor, you know Scollie and the Grays were never friends." She knew Murray was a detective. Mr. Weir said that "Tom was always a mean scoundrel, but that William James (her husband) was an honest upright man."

She could not understand how Tom was guilty, as he was away in Madoc, but Detective Murray said one was as guilty as the other. She had told her little girl that Mrs. Gray was going to chop Scollie's head off. She didn't tell her husband at the time. She was not well at the time that Murray tried to make her say that Mrs. Gray had threatened to poison Scollie. They had brought her to town and got her to sign her evidence to this effect. Mr. Lahey saw her the night her sister came back from Florida, and said Mrs. Gray wanted to see her. She said "No, it would do no good."

On being asked by Mr. Stratton if she said her husband would kill her if she came up to the gaol, she would not swear that she did not say so. Both Gray and herself had said that McGregor if he had chosen. The families quarrelled very bitterly, and McGregor would not allow the children to associate. He would not let her speak to Mrs. Gray even, and had thrashed Gray.

COULD HAVE SAVED SCOLLIE'S LIFE

On going to the fire she had called out, "get a ladder and save Scollie," and her husband had asked her how could they save Scollie.

She never threw it up to Mrs. Gray about the threats concerning Scollie. She had never mentioned the threats to any one, except her little girl, until taken in hand by Detective Murray.

The counsel for the defence then showed by the witness that although she remembered almost every word said on all occasions respecting Scollie, yet she could recall no other conversation on other subjects that occurred on these dates. Before leaving the box she admitted there were no blood stains on any of Mrs. Gray's clothes.

FRIDAY, Sept. 27th.

At the opening of the Court this morning the room was again crowded to suffocation, as it was yesterday. Mrs. Gray, when she was placed in the dock looked a trifle worn from yesterday's long session.

When the court opened Mr. Clute stated that at this point the crown would rest its case.

The Chancellor asked Mr. Stratton, counsel for the defence, if he wished to call any witnesses, and William Leahy was called. He testified that he got to the fire at about 7:30. When he arrived there were Mr. Weir, Mr. Scriver, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Burnham already there. He knew Mr. Scollie well. He was a heavy set man. He saw him the Tuesday before the fire. He saw the body in the ruins. He told how the body was placed on a board and drawn out of the ruins. The neck was burnt off, being tapered off to a point. The shoulders, too, were burnt. He observed the underwear of the man, and there was no blood on it. After the body was placed on the snow there was some blood dripped out of it. The position in which the body was found was not thought to be remarkable at the time. There was no comment at the time. After the Grays returned from Florida he met Mrs. McGregor on the road and told her Mrs. Gray had returned and she ought to go and see her. Mrs. McGregor said if "he" found that she was up at the gaol "he" would take her life. Mrs. McGregor complained that everyone blamed her husband and herself for the whole affair. Mr. Lahey had said, "Well, who else was there to blame," but she had said that there would have been nothing done as he had been at the house night and day.

IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR GRAHAM WEIR,

Cross-examined, the witness stated that there was no floor under the body. It had been burned away. He examined the place where the body lay about ten minutes after it was removed. He and Mr. Lavelle shovelled under the body looking for the head and saw no floor. They shovelled down to the ground. He saw the hair on Scollie's breast unsinged. It grew up to a point six or eight inches from the neck. Mrs. Gray had told witness about starting off to alarm Lavelle and returning to drag away a couple of pillows which she had thrown out of the window. She told him she had broken a window and escaped. She did not say how she had broken it. She said the children were not dressed before they got out. She said she had thrown out what clothes she could lay her hands on and dressed herself and the children outside. Mrs. Gray never suggested to him why she had not called at Burnham's.

A hum of excitement ran through the the court room when Annie Gray,

DAUGHTER OF THE PRISONER,

was called. She stated that she was 13 years of age. She remembered the night of the fire. She saw Scollie just before she went to bed. He was sitting at the stove with the baby in his arms. The family returned between 10 and 11. All were at home but father who had gone away Tuesday morning. There was Tommy, aged 11; Hessie, Mary and George. She slept with Hessie and Mary that night. They slept downstairs. Tom and George slept with their mother in another bed in the same room. A bed was up against one door. There were two stoves in the house, one in the kitchen and one in the bedroom. Scollie slept upstairs in the room over her mother's bed. The down stairs bedroom was large. Upstairs the room was divided by a partition. Scollie's bed was up against the partition. The head of Scollie's bed was to the window. It lay lengthwise against the partition. In describing the fire the witness said, "When I awoke the room was full of smoke. I called my mother and said 'the house must be on fire, the room is full of smoke.' She ran to the door and opened it and the flames burst in. Mother shut the door, and tried to open the windows, but they were frozen over. Tom told mother that father's axe was behind the door, and she got it and broke the window and in the snow. We were all crying. I just got on my dress. Tommy had on a pair of pants. I don't remember what the others had on. Mother had just her chemise and stockings. It was very, very cold. We all called Mr. Scollie from outside.

THREW US ALL OUT

To the Judge—None of us thought how the fire had started. We all went to the closet and dressed. My mother only had on a chemise. She was in her bare feet.

Mr. Stratton, I thought you said she had on her stockings?

Witness.—No, she had them on when she got out of the window, but Hessie had none and was crying with the cold, and mother took her's off and gave them to her.

To the Judge—I was asleep that night when my mother came to bed.

On Sunday she had gone to waken Scollie and had found him asleep with a newspaper over his breast and a lamp burning beside him.

Cross-examined by Mr. Clute—She said she was in the fourth book. She had been at school the day before the fire. She could not say what she wore. She was in bed that night before her mother went to the barn. She went to bed before the others. Scollie was nursing her youngest sister before the fire. Her mother was there too. Both stoves were going that night. She was asleep when the other children came to bed. Her first intimation of the fire was when she woke and found the room full of smoke. She CALLED HER MOTHER SEVERAL TIMES.

Her mother jumped up and said, "What! what!" and said the house must be on fire, as the room was full of smoke. She then lit the lamp; the room was pretty full of smoke; could see no fire; did not hear it; mother fell over a stick and the glass fell off the lamp; It went out and was not lighted again; it was only lit for a minute; we could not see what we were doing at all; it was quite dark. Her mother opened the door leading into the kitchen; the fire came right into the room. She closed the door; my clothes were on the bedpost. I just put on my dress. I did not button it. I got on my stockings and one boot before I walked up to my uncle's. The window was broken with an axe. Her father always kept his best axe in the bedroom. He would not allow the others to use it. She knew where Burnham's lived, but being only partly dressed, she did not like to go there first, as he was a rich man. She went to her uncle's. She never told this to anyone before. She had spoken of the fire to Mr. Stratton, but not to her mother. Before they went into the closet to dress, they shouted to Mr. Scollie. She had the baby. It had on it's nightgown. She and then went to the closet and put on whatever she could find. Some of the others went there first. George and May were there, too. She didn't remember who else was there at the time. She then put a blanket on the baby and went to alarm her uncle. The baby was about a year and a half old. She never saw any of her mother's dresses after the fire.

SHOUTED FOR SEVERAL MINUTES

To the Judge—"I don't know whether Mr. Scollie took anything to make him sleep.

THE EIGHTEENTH WITNESS.

THOMAS GRAY, a son of the prisoner, was, the next witness. Being sworn, he testified that he was "eleven past." He remembered the fire. He didn't remember what time he went to bed. Annie went to bed first. He was in the kitchen when she went to bed. Mr. Scollie, May and himself were in the kitchen. He went to bed after he did the chores. He and his mother fed the cattle. When he went out Scollie was sitting at the stove. When they came back the light was in the bedroom. Mr. Scollie had gone to bed. He never saw him alive again. His mother and Annie woke him the night of the fire. They were screaming that they would be burned. He ran to the door and opened it and the flames ran over his head. He ran back to his mother and put his arms round her and cried that they would all be burned. His mother asked him if his father's good axe was in and he told her he thought it was behind the bureau. His mother got it and broke the window. They then all got out. They had very little on. He had on his pants. Nothing was said of Mr. Scollie before they got out. When they were in the snow they yelled to him. He had found bones in the building after the fire. He took the bone and climbed in a sleigh, in which he left it when he got off

Mr. Stratton to the Judge—We will trace that bone presently.

Cross-examined by Mr. Clute, the witness said there was that night. After he went to bed he heard no sound. He went to the barn at eleven o'clock to feed the horses. He didn't know where his mother got the buffalo robes. When he awakened his mother was not in bed. She was up. It was he who had gone to the door. He did not remember whether the stair door was open or shut. He did not put on anything before he got out. His mother brought out the clothes. He dressed in the closet. He got his pants and socks. When he was in the closet his mother was calling Scollie. His mother told them to go to Lavelle's or McGregor's. All the children were in their bare feet. His mother had her stockings on. He carried George to McGregor's. He stopped and rested a couple of times. They left their mother at the house. He never heard his mother say she had gone down towards Lavelle's. He did not know where his father kept his top boots. He never saw the buffalo robes after the fire.

A GOOD FIRE IN THE KITCHEN STOVE

Mr. Lavelle being called, His Lordship asked the Crown prosecutor if there was any necessity of proceeding further.

Mr. Clute expressed his willingness to drop the case and his Lordship, in commenting upon it, said that the case was a weak one indeed and it was quite evident that there had been no murder that evening. Granting that there was a stong prejudice against the prisoner,

THERE WAS NOT MUCH EVIDENCE for the Crown to proceed upon, and the testimony which had just been taken from the two children removed all doubt in the matter, and in his opinion there was not the slightest use in taking any more evidence. It struck him most forcibly, as he supposed it struck the jury, that the children had told a true story in the witness box. He instructed the jury that their verdict would be "not guilty." Mr. Clute, he stated, was present not as a counsel to secure a conviction if possible, but as a representative of the government, to see that justice was administered in a manner as impartial as himself. Unless they were going to assume matters very strongly against the prisoner there was nothing whatever to proceed further upon. The old man being found without his head naturally gave rise to inquiries, and the unwise and foolish remarks made had given rise to the investigation. Although the head was missing there were no marks of violence perceivable—no marks of wounds or of blood. The old man was strong and vigourous and was well thought of by all the family. The prisoner was alone in the house and had given birth to a baby in less than two months, and that she could do violence without having left any trace of it. This is as far as the Crown went, and now we have the little girl going to bed that night and the boy and her mother following her. Then the violent fire and the attempts to awaken Scollie by shouting. It can easily be imagined, said he, that they could not stay long in the cold doing this. It would also be easily understood why they did not go to Burnham's, not being on intimate terms. It was reasonable for them to go to the nearest neighbour who was friendly. So, gentlemen, said he, turning to the jury, with your concurrence I will direct the clerk to enter a verdict of "Not Guilty."

IT SEEMED INCREDIBLE

The jury assented to this and instantly the court room was in an uproar. All present seemed to be satisfied with the finding, as testified by the handclapping and cheers which broke forth. Even the jurymen on the case joined in the applause.

For the first time since the trial began, Mrs. Gray's self-possession deserted her, and breaking down, she bowed her head and wept freely, and was led back to the prison with the tears streaming down her face. She will be still held, as will be her husband, until the Crown Prosecutor can communicate with the Attorney-General's Department to receive instructions in regard to the further prosecution of the charges against Thomas Gray for murder, and against both him and his wife for arson.

The Grays are practically free.

A PHENOMENAL OPENING AND A BANNER MONTH

Is our September Record.

We thank our friends for the cordial interest shown during the month and especially those visitors to the exhibition who found time to call and see our display.

Our Millinery and Mantle Opening pleased every one who called. It could hardly fail to do so. The rich and varied display equalled that of any Metropolitan Opening.

We have had a successful month, thanks to our friends. Millinery and Mantles especially large. Our opening has been accompanied by more solid business than we ever received on a similar occasion. In Carpets and Housefurnishings we have had liberal orders and we know that the values and qualities have gained us favourable opinions.

With thanks for patronage and promising that we shall leave nothing undone to please and satisfy October buyers.

JUDGE GIROUARD.

Appointed at the First Recess Meeting of the Cabinet.

THIS THE ONLY BUSINESS DONE

Scotch Distillers Pronounce Canadian Barley Best For Whisky Making Sealers Ask a Session of the Court of Arbitration at Victoria.

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—The Cabinet was in session for two hours yesterday, all the Ministers being present with the exception of Donald Ferguson of Prince Edward Island. More than ordinary interest is attached to to-day's meeting of the Cabinet in view of the fact that it was the first gathering of all the Ministers since Parliament prorogued. It is stated that a large accumulation of departmental matters was disposed of, but that the question of calling Parliament together was not considered. Your corespondent was the first to mention the name of Girouard, M.P., for Jacques Cartier, as the prospective judge of the Supreme Court in succession to Judge Fournier and the Cabinet to-day made the appointment. The new judge will take his seat on the bench on Tuesday next. Another meeting of the Cabinet will be held Saturday, Sir Frank Smith remaining over to attend it.

Representations were received by the Government to-day from the sealers of British Columbia, asking that the arbitrators who are to be appointed under the Paris award to assess the damages to which sealers are entitled on account of the Behring Sea seizures should sit at Victoria in November or December, when the entire sealing fleet will be home and witnesses readily available. At the suggestion of the Government the sealers were prepared without prejudice to accept $425,000 in full settlement of their claims, but inasmuch as Congress declined to approve of the agreement made by Secretary Gresham with the British Government the matter reverted to its former position. Accordingly the sealers are now pressing for the full amount of the claim, amounting to $750,000 for the five years preceding the coming into force of the modus vivendi.

The Canada Gazette of Saturday will contain the text of the Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Act, 1895. In transmitting it to the Governor-General, Colonial Secretary Chamberlain says: 'In framing this act Her Majesty's Government endeavored, as far as possible, to meet the objections urged by your Ministers to the act of 1893, which were conveniently summarized in the draft bill which accompanied the minute of Council of 21st of February. You will observe that the act continues in force for the present under an Order-in-Council of 1894, issued under the act of 1893, but a new Order-in-Council, embodying the necessary changes, is under consideration, and copies will be forwarded to you as soon as it has been passed.

Asthe outcome of the consolidation and revision of the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act of last year, an interesting problem has arisen in the Dominion, the Ministerial decision in regard to which is of importance to shipping men, while at the same time it involves the adjustment of certain rather intricate points in connection with Imperial and Canadian legislation. By Imperial Merchant Shipping Act of 1854, shipping masters were authorised to collect fees from captains of vessels when engaging or discharging crews in any port of the United Kingdom or its dependencies. In the act of 1894 this provision is done away with, so that fees are no longer chargeable under that act. The question has now been raised by the Allan S.S Co. and other concerns owning vessels registered in Great Britain, but sailing to and from ports in the Dominion that fees can therefore no longer be collected in Canadian harbors, even under the Canadian Act. The Imperial enactment is plain enough, but it is not so clear that fees may not be imposed under the Canadian statute.

Col. White, deputy Postmaster-General, mentioned some interesting facts to your correspondent in connection with mail subsidies paid in the past. "People," he remarked, "make a great ado about the expense of carrying mails across the Atlantic and seem to think that a subsidy of half a million dollars is an unwarranted tax upon the Treasury. Now as long ago as 1862 the old province of Canada paid a mail subvention of $416,000 a year. In 1872 the payment was $218,000 and besides this, the Imperial Government contributed $39,500 for a mail service between Liverpool and Halifax. If then, 30 years ago, the two provinces of Canada could afford to pay the subsidy I have mentioned, the Dominion should at present not consider half a million dollars an exorbitant payment for an immensely increased mail service."

The Deputy Postmaster-General went on to explain that the department really controlled the trans-Atlantic mail routes to but a very limited degree. For instance, he said, it was generally speaking, the sender of a letter who really designated the route by which it should be transported. A letter mailed in Toronto and addressed to London, marked "via New York," would have to be sent that way; while in regard to other routes the choice lay with the sender in the same way. Apart from this, the general rule of the department was to forward European mail by the first steamer sailing for the Old Country, whether she took her departure from New York or Rimouski.

Armstrong & Elliott of Toronto give notice of application to Parliament for incorporation of a company to construct a railway and operate the same by steam, electricity or other motive power from a point on the northern division of the Grand Trunk Railway between King and Newmarket, to the village of Schomberg.

An enquiry was in progress at the court house to-day in regard to the action of several lawyers who are said to be practising law without acknowledging the authority of the Law Society. Complaint has been made that although they paid their fees to the society they did not receive in return the protection which was their due. In one or two cases it is said that gentlemen who were not entitled to any recognition as lawyers took cases into court, in direct competition with those who paid their fees. This is alleged to have been going on to a very glaring extent and the inquiry now instituted is the result of the protest.

The Department of Agriculture has received a report from the High Commissioner stating that Canadian barley is attracting considerable attention from the distillers of Great Britain. One leading Scotch distiller, whose experience with the Canadian article has been most satisfactory, states his belief that Scotland would prove a good market for Canadian barley for whisky distillation. He was so pleased with it, he said, that he would be willing to buy it by the ship load. It surprised him that Canadian barley is not now for sale in Scotland in the ordinary way of business.

Reports received by the Commissioner of the Dominion Police show that a large quantity of counterfeit silver is at present in circulation in Ontario. Inspector O'Leary is at Wiarton prosecuting a case of counterfeiting coin on behalf of the Government, and another prosecution is to be made at the Lindsay assizes on Tuesday.

Employes of the Rockland branch of the Central Counties Railway who were unable to obtain their wages, having appealed to the Ontario Legislative authorities for redress, have received word that as soon as Sir Oliver Mowat returns to his duties payment of their arrears will be provided for. Meanwhile a notice has been posted calling upon them to put in their claims, certified to by the foreman and time-keeper.

The Riessler brothers, arrested in Toronto for embezzlement and whose extradition has been granted by the Dominion Government, will be forwarded to Germany by the steamer Canada of the Belgian line from Montreal Saturday.

A. W. Murdock of Toronto was here to-day and saw the officers of the Department of Trade and Commerce in reference to his proposed South African steamship venture. Mr. Murdock has already chartered a steamer to proceed direct from Montreal to Cape Town, and during the next few weeks he will be busy interviewing manufacturers, urging them to send trial shipments of goods to Cape Colony. Mr. Murdock is receiving hearty encouragement from the Department of Trade and Commerce.

The position of superintendent of the Government cartridge factory at Quebec made vacant by the death of Col. Prevost, has been filled by the appointment thereto of Capt F. M. Gaudet of A Battery, Kingston.

FOR MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE.

South Ontario Thinks William Smith, M.P. the Man For the Office.

Whitby, Ont., Sept. 28.—The Executive of the Liberal-Conservative Association of South Ontario met at the Royal Hotel in regard to the appointment of a Minister of Agriculture for Canada in the place of the Hon. A R. Angers. It was unanimously resolved that a practical farmer should hold this portfolio in the Dominion Cabinet and further action was taken towards directing the attention of Sir Mackenize Bowell to the widely recognized suitability of Mr. William Smith, M.P. as a thoroughly representative farmer and experienced legislator, for the office, by choosing an influential deputation to wait upon the Premier at Ottawa.

THE GRAYS AT LIBERTY.

THE END OF THIS CELEBRATED CASE.

The Charge of Murder Against the Husband is Dropped.

Both Thomas and Hessie Gray have been liberated, as in reply to a telegram sent the Attorney General's Department, yesterday Detective Murray was instructed not to push the murder charges against the husband. When Gray was arraigned, therefore, the Crown offered no evidence and he was discharged. Concerning the charges of arson preferred against both Mr. and Mrs. Gray, they have been traversed to the next assizes, and the prisoners released on bail in two securities of $500 each. Messrs. James Lavella and James Gray went on the bonds, and Mr. and Mrs. Gray walked out from the prison practically free, as in the opinion of many the arson charges will be dropped in compliance with the expressed wish of the Chancellor.

The family dined at the Morgan House and after tea drove over into Otonabee, and it is understood will for the present take up their residence with Mr. James Gray, a brother of the husband's.

The Crown Prosecutor won golden opinions from those present at the trial by the consideration he showed the two children in his cross-examination of them. He made no effort to browbeat them into contradiction, but in a fatherly way talked quietly to them in his endeavour to ascertain the truthfulness of their statements.

Mr. W. A. Stratton, in his cross-examination of the Crown witnesses, lost no opportunity of bringing to light every point which would tell in favour of the prisoner, and handed the case from its inception in a most masterly manner.

OBITUARY.

The Late Mrs. Jos. Dixon.

This morning one of the best known and most highly respected of the older residents of Peterborough, passed away in the person of Mrs. Margaret Brown Dixon, relict of the late Jos. Dixon, who died at the family residence, "The Evergreens," Communication Road, Peterborough, this morning at 11.20 o'clock. The cause of death was paralysis, with which Miss Dixon was seized on September 16th, while driving home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Taylor, of Bobcaygeon. The right side was paralyzed She was unconscious from the beginning of the attack, though there were intervals of consciousness. Last midnight coma set in and remained up to the time of death, this morning. Mrs. Dixon was a native of Cumberland County, England, and came to this country at the age of ten years. In 1835 she was united in marriage to the late Mr. Jos. Dixon, who died many years ago, and they took up residence on the Communication Road, where Mrs. Dixon has always since resided. To this union were born eight children, six sons and two daughters; of the daughters one died in infancy and the other, Mrs. (Dr.) McCamus, of Bobcaygeon, died about 24 years ago. The sons are Messrs. William, Joseph, John and Isaac Dixon, (who carry on an extensive ranching and mercantile business at Maple Creek, N. W. T.), Mr. Jonathan Dixon, of Boston, and Mr. A. E. Dixon, town, of the firm of Edmison & Dixon, barristers. Mrs. Dixon also leaves behind her two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Brown, of Toronto, and Mrs. Taylor, of Bobcaygeon. Mrs. Dixon was a member of the Methodist church worshipping at George street church and in the days of her health she took an active interest in the promotion of its welfare. Mrs. Dixon was held in very high esteem for her many estimable qualities, and the family will have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, "The Evergreens," Communication road, Peterborough, on Monday at 3 o'clock p.m., to the Little Lake cemetery.

An Interesting Career.

Peterborough will be visited at an early date by Monsieur Jehin Prume, the eminent Belgian violinist, who travelled through Germany, Poland and Russia, and in the latter country had the honour of playing repeatedly before the Emperor. On his return to Belgium after these brilliant successes, he received the title of violinist to H. M. the King of Belgium, a title which, until then, had never been granted except to Vieuxtemps and DeBeriot. He will be heard at Mr. Hoover's coming grand concert, assisted by other eminent artists.

Nervous Prostration

It is now a well established fact in medical science that nervousness is due to impure blood. Therefore the true way to cure nervousness is by purifying and enriching the blood. The great blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this letter:

"For the last two years I have been a great sufferer with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. I was weak in my limbs and had smothered sensations. At last my physician advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did, and I am happy to say that I am now strong and well. I am still using Hood's Sarsaparilla and would not be without it. I recommend it to all who are suffering with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart." MRS. DALTON, 58 Alice St., Toronto, Ontario. Get Hood's, because

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB COLUMN.

The Poetry of Tennyson.

I.—THE IDYLLS OF THE KING.

"This old imperfect tale,
New, old and shadowing sense at war with soul."

"Whatever withdraws us from the power of the senses; whatever makes the past, the distant, and the future predominate over the present advances us in the scale of human beings."

To render us this service is the peculiar privilege of poetry, and in the Idylls of the King, to the production of which Tennyson devoted his highest talents, this service has been rendered as rarely before to the English-speaking world.

We enter a wondrous picture gallery, where we are dazzled with the display of beauty and brilliance. The land is fairy land.

"Camelot, a city of shadowy palaces
And stately, rich in emblem, and the work
Of ancient kings who did their days in stone,
Which Merlin's hand had touched,

Where out of bower and casement shyly glanced Eyes of pure women, wholesome stars of love."

And through whose gates
"Under groves that looked a Paradise
Of blossom, o'er sheets of hyacinth,
That seemed the heavens upbreaking through the earth there pass
"The goodliest fellowship of famous knights Whereof the world hath record."

The poet has taken "this old imperfect tale" of King Arthur and his Round Table, in which legend and myth and allegory have quite hidden the real Arthur, if indeed such ever was, and out of this old story has produced this wondrous gallery of pictures, "The Idylls of the King."

The centre figure of the whole is Arthur, the blameless king—

'Thro' all this tract of years
Wearing the white flower of a blameless life,"

The ideal king as well as the ideal man, who comes before us in the first idyll which tells of his coming, the institution of the famous order of the Knights of the Round Table, who are sworn

"To reverence their conscience as their king,
To ride about redressing human wrongs,
To speak no slander, no, nor listen to it,
To honour his own word as if his God's,
To lead sweet lives in purest chastity;

his marriage with Guinevere, when

"Far shone the fields of May thro' open door
The sacred altar blossomed white with May,
The sun of May descended on their king,
They gazed on all earth's beauty on their queen,
When the two
Sware at the shrine of Christ a deathless love."

And when Arthur in joyful anticipation, says,

"joined with her
Then might we live together as one life
And reigning with one will in everything
Have power on this dark world to lighten it
And power on this dead world to make it live."

* * *

The brightness and joyousness of springtime and youth shine through this idyll, which seems to be summed up in the marriage hymn of the Knights in which the poet's wonderful command over the language is strikingly brought out:

"Blow trumpet, for the world is white with May;
Blow trumpet, the long night has passed away!

The king will follow Christ and we the king
In whom high God hath breathed a secret thing
Fall battle axe and flash brand! Let the King reign!

The second idyll represents the golden age of Arthur's reign, when as yet there is no hint of coming shadow, a picture of the enthusiasm and energy and life of youth with a touch of youthful sauciness in the maiden with—

"The slender nose
Tip-tilted like the petal of a flower."

* * *

In "Geraint and Enid" the poet presents the tender, loving faithful wife overcoming by constancy and self-devotion all suspicion. We can glance at this exquisite picture:

"Never yet since high in Paradise,
O'er the four rivers the first rose blew
Came purer pleasure unto mortal kind
Than lived through her who in that perilous hour
Put hand to hand beneath her husband's heart
And felt him hers again. He did not weep
But o'er her meek eyes came a happy mist
Like that which kept the heart of Eden green
Before the useful trouble of the rain."

Here as a dark background to this sweet picture of faithfulness on a wife, we first see the approaching shadow of that unfaith of the Queen:

"The little rift within the lute
That by and by will make the music mute
And ever widening slowly silence all."

Tennyson ever looked upon the loosening of the marriage tie and the growth of indifference to purity as the worst evil that can afflict society, and in the next idyll he draws a terrible picture of ruin, wrought by the false love of Vivien.

* * *

What shall we say of the next idyll. Surely one of the loveliest pictures poet ever drew.

"Elaine the fair, Elaine the loveable, Elaine the lily, Maid of Astolat."

When boys at school we fell in love with her, and now when "grey hairs are here and there upon us" we feel her sweet influence still as did the guilty Lancelot, who in remorseful pain cries

"For what am I? What profits me my name
Of greatest knight? I fought for it and have it
Pleasure to have it none; to lose it, pain;
Now grown a part of me; but what use in it?
To make men worse by making my sin known?
Or sin seem less the sinner seeming great?
Alas! for Arthur's greatest knight, a man
Not after Arthur's heart.

In the idyll "Guinevere" the poem reaches its crisis. The guilty love of Lancelot and the queen has been disclosed to the world and the result is the breaking up of the whole fabric of the Round Table, and the ruin of almost all concerned. The queen has fled the court and has taken refuge in the convent at Almsbury, where she is found by the king. Some of the finest passages in the poetry of any language are here. Nothing nobler or more tender has ever been written than the passage in Arthur's farewell, beginning

But how to take last leave of all I love."

The true prophetic voice rings through these idylls—not of warning and denunciation only, though mainly that. No prophet of the olden time has drawn a more striking picture of the evils which the sin of congenial unfaith, especially when indulged in by those in high places, brings in its train. Like the old Seer at Horeb who saw nothing in Israel but sin triumphant and prayed for death because he only was left to honour God. Tennyson, in his last idyll, makes the king speak almost in the language of despair:

'I found Him in the shining of His stars,
I marked Him in the flowering of His fields,
But in His ways with men I find Him not.
O, me! for why is all around us here
As if some lesser God had made the world,
And had not force to shape it as he would.
I have but stricken with the sword in vain;
And all whereon I leaned in wife and friend
Is traitor to my place, and all my realm
Reels back into the blast, and is no more,
My God, thou hast forgotten me in death."

but through the gloom and darkness this ray of brightness:

"Nay, God, my Christ, I pass but shall not die.
God fulfills himself in many ways,
Lest one good custom should corrupt the world."

And is this not the crowning lesson of the whole, Reformation through love; love abounding beyond all sin, love to the unworthy—the very Gospel of Redemption—and repentance and new life through a consciousness of sin forgiven. It is when the guilty queen realizes that in spite of her grievous sin the king loves her still and she is conscious that he "forgives her as Eternal God forgives" that true repentance comes to her and she is able to cherish the hope.

"That in her own heart she can live down sin
And be his mate hereafter in the heavens.

TORONTO WATERWORKS.

An Outbreak of Disease Feared and Great Precautions Recommended.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 16.—The accident which recently occurred to the Toronto waterworks conduit has created a great deal of consternation, and an outbreak of disease is possible. Doctors are prescribing the various precautions to be taken, and among them it is strongly recommended that the kidneys should be kept in a state of perfect regularity by means of Dodd's Kidney Pills, a remedy which experience has shown to be equally efficacious in the latest as well as in the earliest stages of kidney trouble. It is also stated by the physicians that this season is one in which the kidneys are peculiarly susceptible to disorder.

Threats to Kill Mr. Chamberlain.

London, Sept. 27.—The Daily News says that the name of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Colonial Secretary, will probably soon be submitted to a ballot for membership in the Carlton Club, and that the proposal has evoked signs of revolt among the older members of the club. This opposition, according to The News, may be overcome and in any event the gentlemen who desire to propose Mr. Chamberlain for membership will not risk his being blackballed and will not present his name if the opposition to him continues.

British and U.S Vessels Collide.

New York, Sept. 26.—A special to The Times from Guayaquil, Ecuador, says: The bowsprit of the United States naval vessel Alert, Franklin Hanford commander, was broken by collision with the British steamer Condor from the South yesterday. Considerable damage to the forepart of the Alert was done. The accident occurred while the Condor was coming to anchorage in the river at a turn in the tide.

"For years," says Capt. C. Mueller, "I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than anything else in the medicine chest, to regulate my bowels and those of the ship's crew. These pills are not severe in their action but do their work thoroughly."

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The brickwork of Mr. Morrison's new dwelling is about completed.

The carpenters are hard at work on Mr. Kingston's outbuildings.

Mr. Train has completed the painting of Mr. Scott's stables and sheds. With the completion of these fine outbuildings Mr. Scott can furnish first-class accommodation to the travelling public.

Mr. Mansfield has about twenty men employed at his new brick block. The stonework for the foundation is now completed, and to-day the long tamarac poles for the scaffolding were put in position, so that with the strong force engaged the massive and durable structure will soon be completed.

Mr. Cummings, principal of our Public schools, has resigned and is going to attend college. We understand Mr. A. E. Bryson, of Cameron, has been engaged to fill the vacancy.

The Foresters' picnic, held in Scott's grove last week, was a financial success as well as socially, notwithing the cool weather.

OUR LAWLESS SEALERS.

Charges of Using Firearms in Behring Sea Made by American Captains.

New York, Sept. 27.—A Tribune special from San Francisco says: The Federal officials here have learned that the British sealing vessels in the Behring Sea are carrying arms in open violation of the regulations adopted. The matter will be brought to the attention of the State Department and complaints will be lodged with the British Government. If the stories are to be believed, Canadian schooners are violating every clause of the regulations. It is said that the Attorney-General will take steps to obtain evidence to lay before the English officials. The latest story is told by Captain Folger of the schooner Edward D. Webster, now here. He says he visited many British vessels in Behring Sea, and saw on every one arms and ammunition ready to use. He reports that the English sealers said they would use arms without fear of the consequences. Captain Folger will make affidavit to this effect and his charges will be specific against the Canadian vessels Marvin. Carlotta, E. Cox and Anna E. Pint.

THE STRANDED MARIPOSA.

She Has Twenty-six Passengers and a Cargo Valued at $150,000.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 28.—It is now certain that the steamship which is reported ashore in the Straits of Belle Isle is the Dominion Liner Mariposa, which sailed from this port on the morning of the 21st for Liverpool with 26 first cabin passengers and a general cargo. The Allan line steamship Austrian was standing by the stranded ship when sighted by the Dunmore Head. Forteau Point, on which the vessel is lying, is one of the two necks of land enclosing Forteau Bay, and is one of the most prominent features of Belle Isle.

The cargo is estimated to be worth in the neighborhood of $160,000, and is divided as follows: 20,281 bushels of wheat, $13,163; 2546 bales of hay, $2509; 62,346 pieces of lumber, $22,000; 473 packages of meat, $23,900; 175 barrels of apples, $525; 4261 boxes of cheese, $25,566; 2665 sheep, $19,730; 20 cattle, $1500; 6875 sacks and barrels of flour, $27,900; 750 sacks of oatmeal, $2600; 644 sacks peas, $2000; 60 cases eggs, $1500; 58 crates of pulleys, $1200; 1363 tierces of lard, $6,000; 1850 cases of salmon, $11,100; 816 pieces maple planks, $600.

THE CUBAN CAMPAIGN.

Baracoa City in a State of Siege and Threatened With Extinction.

Santiago de Cuba, Sept. 18, via Key West, Sept. 27.—Official reports from Guantanamo say that on Monday the 16th, a Spanish column attacked the rebel camp Piedra betwen the Felicidad and Rio Seco, occupied by 300 insurgents under Leader Gil, and killed eight rebels before driving them from their position. Three Spanish soldiers were wounded. When the Spaniards took possession of the rebel camp they found several explosive shells buried, but they were dug up before any damage occurred.

It is reported here that the Santonio Maceo is moving toward the Villas with 6000 cavalrymen.

Another rumor is to the effect that Jos Maceo is dead of heart disease, but the report is not credited.

The recent recruits from Spain are not likely to be of any material benefit to the authorities. Of those who arrived a few days ago, many have died and numerous others are in the hospitals. Six succumbed to yellow fever within 24 hours of their landing here.

From Baracoa come reports showing that city to be in a state of siege and threatened with extinction. The insurgents do not allow anything to enter the city from the outlying districts, and if the city is not burned out its inhabitants stand a good chance of being starved out. On the 14th the rebels broke the aqueduct and burned the costly elevators which were recently built. Many business men with their families have left Baracoa and come here to stay. One of them reports a dastardly double murder on the streets of Baracoa a few days ago. A soldier loaded his gun, and without any known cause deliberately fired at a corporal, killing him instantly. Another soldier who was with the corporal was also shot and killed.

ENGLISHMEN SCORE 198 RUNS.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—The third and deciding cricket match to be played in this city between the Oxford-Cambridge team and all-Philadelphia began this morning on the grounds of the Merion Cricket Club at Haverford. When play ceased for the day the Englishmen had scored 198 runs, just 42 more than they made in their first innings last week, against the same eleven. An hour's play remained after the Englishmen had been dismissed. The Philadelphians started their innings with Patterson and Bohlen as their first batsmen, and when stumps were drawn for the night at 5 o'clock this pair were still defending the wicket and had put together 98 runs. MAINE'S WELCOME RAIN.

The Drought Broken and the Bush Fires Arrested.

Bangor, Me., Sept. 27.—The worst drought ever known in this state was broken yesterday by rain. The rain has done much to arrest the progress of fires in the northern part of the state.

Seven Buildings Struck by Lightning.

Biddeford, Me., Sept. 27.—The most severe thunderstorm ever known in this section of the state passed over Biddeford yesterday afternoon, doing much damage to property. After the tempest had passed it was found that lightning had struck not less than a dozen different buildings in the city and many trees and telegraph poles, signs, etc., were shattered. Half a dozen citizens were knocked down by the electric fluid, but no fatalities are reported.

WOULDN'T BE ENOCH TWICE.

On His Second Re-Appearance Sargent Demanded His Wife.

Vanceburgh, Ky., Sept. 27.—William Sargent and Rosa Evans were married a few years ago, and a few months afterwards the young husband left for the west. Two years later word was received that he was dead.

The supposed widow remarried, and a few days afterwards Sargent returned. He acquiesced gracefully in the arrangement to pay court to Mary Evans, a younger sister of Rosa, and soon married her. A few weeks later Sargent left again for parts unknown. After two years' absence he was reported some months ago to have been killed in the Cuban war. Thereupon Mary, regarding herself free, married Charles Simpler, by whom she recently bore a child.

This morning Sargent returned again but he had enough of the Enoch Arden but he had had enough of the Enoch Arden business. He demanded Mary. She was willing; so was Simpler. At noon Simpler left for Ohio, leaving Sargent in full possession.

Makes New Friends all the Time.

And keeps them too. The finest tonic on the market is Wilson's Invalids' Port Wine, which is asked for by all invalid, debilitated nervous people, as it has peculiar properties which make it invaluable to all such. These are: its undoubted blood-making property, being a fine old rich wine, of body and strength, its restorative properties, for it is the testimony of thousands that after use there is a feeling of buoyancy and strength to which the listless body and spirit have been strangers. A fine old wine, which one might drink without a thought of medicinal property, which is in the character of the beverage itself, and is not anything superadded. (From Our Own Correspondent.)

The members of the Presbyterian church here, held their annual harvest dinner September 18th. It was very successful. Rev. Mr. Dickson, of Coe Hill, occupied the chair. An interesting literary programme was rendered in the afternoon, mostly contributed by home talent. Tea was served on the grounds by the ladies of the church.

Some of our young people seam to be very fond of boating on Duck Lake. This is very pleasant, but it does not seem to agree with some of their temperments.

THE SECRET OUT!

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from six prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	PerCent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.68	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

THE CARBON WORKS QUESTION SETTLED.

ASSUMED BY THE CANADIAN GENERAL ELECTRIC COY.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox Solved the Question as to Whether the Works Would Go Into Liquidation or Not—Many Hands to be Employed—Good Management Will Introduce an Era of Prosperity.

At the special meeting of the council last night there were present the Mayor and Messrs. Cahill, Best, Denne, Mills, Phelan, Dawson, Clinkscale, Sawers and Mason.

A communication was read from the Peterborough and Ashburnham Street Railway Coy. as follows:

"Under the contract between the corporation and the company, we are required to extend our track one mile before 1st of January next, and while it is our intention to comply with the conditions of our franchise, it would be of material assistance to us if the town would extend the time for laying down the mile of track required this year until next year, and we therefore beg to request that you will grant such extension, on the understanding that next year we will extend our track by one mile and a half."

On motion of Messrs. Best and Denne the request was granted, Mr. T. E. Bradburn explaining that it would be to the interest of the company to get the track down as early in the summer as possible.

THE FOLLOWING ACCOUNTS were referred to the Finance Committee:

P P Kane	$8 00
Geo Sanderson	2 00

THE SEWERAGE COMMITTEE

through its chairman, Mr. Best, reported that they had considered the matter of the further extension of the sewer this season in Committee of the Whole Council, and recommended as follows:

1. That the Sewerage Committee advertise for tenders for the construction of a sewer from Townsend street to Rink street.
2. That the sewer from Townsend street to Rink street be constructed of brick, and of the same size as that now under construction, namely two feet by three feet.
3. That the Sewerage Committee be empowered to arrange with Messrs. Rutherford and Bogue, the contractors for No. 2 contract, to build that portion of the sewer from Rink street to the bridge of brick the same size as the other portion of their contract.

Adopted on motion of Councillors Best and Denne.

When the Carbon Works question was brought up Mr. Dawson stated that he thought the matter had been left in the hands of the Property Committee. They had no time to meet and he was surprised to see a bylaw in Mr. Cahill's hand dealing with the question before the council had considered the matter at all.

Mr. Cahill stated that the bylaw had been placed in his hands half an hour ago, and had just looked through it with the Town Solicitor, and if the councillors did not think it was in the interests of the town they need not pass it. There was no reflection cast on the Property Committee, but if any action was to be taken in the matter it had to be taken at once.

The bylaw was then read, providing in effect that upon the purchase by the Canadian General Electric Company of the Carbon Works and upon the Electric Company releasing the town from all liability to pay over the disputed $5,000 promised for the concentration of the Works of the Company here, the mortgage held against the Carbon Woeks by the town shall be discharged. In case the Electric Works carries on the Works as agreed by the old Company, exemption from taxation for ten years is to be granted.

On motion of Messrs. Best and Phelan, was heard on the subject. He stated that he could not say any more than was in the bylaw, but was ready to answer any questions. As a ratepayer, he was anxious for the good of the town to see the Carbon Works continue. On coming to town, a couple of weeks ago, he had heard that the Bank of Montreal was pressing for a liquidation of their mortgage. He had called together the Board of the Canadian General Works and had arranged for the company to take over the Carbon Works for $15,000, provided the town relinquished the mortgage it held, thereby fulfilling the agreement giving the Canadian General Electric Company the $5,000 for concentrating their works here. This point was a grievance between the town and the company and its wiping out in this way would satisfy the company and practically cost the town nothing, as the mortgage was not worth anything if the Carbon Works were not carried on. The company had lost about $70,000 of the money put in by the shareholders and also about $30,000 of the Bank of Montreal's money and it was a great pity to see the works go to pieces and be dismantled to build up a competing institution under the man who had so mismanaged the local works. The Electric Company could make the works profitable by avoiding the management and office expenses, having already a staff capable of looking after the business. Then there would be the necessary good management conducive to success. They had agents all over Canada at present, and these agents could handle the output from the Carbon Works to advantage, thereby ensuring a good business under the new management. Altogether he was confident that the Canadian General Company would be able to manage the Carbon Works profitably. He could see no reason why there would be any objection to the carrying out of this project.

MR. GEO. A. COX

Mr. Best asked if it was the intention of the Electric Company to go on with the building of the shops for the manufacture of street cars.

MR. COX SAID

that it was, and that the tenders were already in for the work of erecting the shops, and Mr. Nicholls was anxious to go on. The work was just about to begin when the hitch about the $5,000 occurred and ceased until the point was settled. If the $5,000 was received the work would go on and the discharge of the mortgage in question would be considered the equivalent of the $5,000.

Councillors Mason and Phelan moved that Mr. J. R. Stratton be heard. Mr. Stratton regretted that the Carbon Works was in such a position. He was one of the unfortunate shareholders, and though his stock was now wiped out he was anxious to see the works go on for the good of the town, as a large number of men would be employed. The only way of compassing this end was by the adoption of the proposition now before the council; otherwise it would drop into the hands of the Canada Loan & Savings Co., and stand idle, with the men out of employment. Another advantage in settling the matter in the way proposed was that by so doing the friendly feeling between the Electric Company and the town as the disputed question concerning the grant of $5,000 would be satisfactorily arranged. The town was losing nothing by the transaction as the second mortgage held was practically valueless. The $5,000 claim in fact was being paid by the shareholders in the Carbon Works. If the town saw its way clear to fall in with the scheme, the works would flourish as never before under the skilful management of the Electric Company, which was in a position to handle a great deal of carbon without incurring any additional expense thereby. He was not speaking as a shareholder, his stock had been wiped out, but was urging the council to adopt the proposition as a ratepayer.

Mr. Sawers thought the stockholders would derive some benefit from the deal.

Mr. Cox said he had put in seven or eight thousand dollars, and would take a dollar for his stock. The shareholders could only be called on for the amount of the stock for which they had subscribed, and not for liabilities incurred. His stock was entirely paid up.

The Mayor said he had been a shareholder

TO THE TUNE OF $5,000,

and thought when so much money had been put into the works by the citizens, it would be a calamity to see them go down now, if success was sure if taken up by the Canadian General Electric Company, and the works would have a better standing than ever.

Mr. Poussette stated that the shareholders had lost $46,000 in the concern, the bank $28,000, and the town $6,000, and that there could be no doubt but that the present arrangement was a good one, as the town holding only a second mortgage could never expect to realize on it.

Mr. Cox explained that the conditions regarding the employment of a certain number of men would still hold good.

Councillor Cahill moved that the council go into the second reading of the by-law, and stated that he felt he was acting in the interests of the town in so doing. He thought it fortunate indeed that Mr. Cox in the way he did with a solution of the difficulty.

Mr. Dawson wanted to know if Mr. Cox would sign an agreement to prosecute the work on the car shops if the council passed the bylaw. He claimed that in advertising for tenders for the building of the shops the Company had simply an end to serve and never intended to erect them.

The Mayor stated that two of the Directors of the Company had assured him the work would go on. If conditions were attached to the proposition the arrangement would certainly fall through and the works stand idle.

Mr. Dawson thought that if the Electric Company was honest in its intention it would sign an agreement, but Mr. Cox said the Company would accept no conditions.

The bylaw was then read a third time and passed, after which Mr. Cox thanked the council assuring them that as a ratepayer he was sure they had acted in the interests of the town. He would say now that his interests in the town were far larger than in the Electric Company in whose welfare he was chiefly interested on account of the Works being located in Peterborough. The present arrangement, he was positive, was one in which the council had taken the right step to protect the interests of the municipality, as the works would now be carried on in such a manner as to necessitate the employment of a large number of hands.

IT DOES BOTH.

South American Kidney Cure not Only Relieves Kidney Disease Immediately, But it Also Heals and Removes the Trouble.

Those dragging pains in the loins that are a common symptom of kidney trouble are most distressing, but they are only the forerunner of more acute pain, and will develop rapidly if an effective remedy is not applied. No medicine acts on the kidneys with such speediness as South American Kidney Cure. It gives relief in the most distressing cases in a few hours. But it does not stop here. It is a great healer, and its continuous use for a short time completely banishes the disease. It is a cure for kidney trouble, and only it, but it never fails here. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

We would recommend you to buy from the manufacturer direct, Grafton & Co.

Have You Ever Thought of It?

For four thousand years or more the world groaned, suffered and fumed about its corns, for there was no positive relief—no certain and painless cure until Dr. Scott Putnam gave to the world his great Corn Extractor. If there is suffering now it is a result of carelessness, for the remedy is at hand. Try Putnam's Corn Extractor. It is sure, painless and prompt.

Obituary.

The death of Mr. John W. Moore, occurred this morning at the family residence, Queen Street, from where the funeral will take place, on Monday afternoon next to the Lakefield Cemetery. The deceased was forty-five years of age and leaves a widow and six children, all of whom reside at home, to mourn his death. Mr. Moore has been failing gradually for some time, being subject to lung trouble, but his demise was not looked for at so early a date. He was born in Selwyn and resided for many years in Lakefield, moving into town some four years ago. In the cheese circles of the province he has always been a prominent figure.

Strength for the Aged.

As age advances the recuperative power of the body decreases. Fatigue clings like a burr to the already depleted store of energy, still further wasting and dissipating it, and, in consequence, the elderly find it very hard to keep their spirits up to the "doing" point. An anchor of hope and safety is found in the energizing action of Maltine with Coca Wine, which imparts, almost magically, strength and vigor to the failing powers, and through its nutritive and tonic properties renews those functional activities upon which depend health of body and mind. Maltine with Coca Wine rapidly restores appetite, improves digestion, imparts tone and vigor to the nervous system; in a word is a strength giver of unequalled excellence. Maltine with Coca Wine is prescribed and recommended by physicians. All druggists sell it.

EVILS OF THE BONUS SYSTEM.

The practical result of bonusing manufacturing industries, and of the ratepayers bribing manufacturing concerns to operate industries to their own advantage, is shown in the matter of the Carbon Works. Here we have a concern that has received five years' exemption from taxation, $6,000 of a bonus, and has absorbed in the neighbourhood of $70,000 in cash, besides going to the wall with a crash that has an echo in the pocket of every shareholder who was public-spirited enough to put his faith and hard cash into the concern. That this is not a slight matter is shown by the following list which represents the actual cash loss of the following gentlemen, not taking into consideration the valuable time given by some gentlemen to make the works a success:

Bank advances	$28,000
Ratepayers of Peterborough per Town Council	6,000
W Gross, Montreal	4,000
Wm Clinkton	7,400
T E Bradburn	6,000
Jas Kendry	5,000
Geo A Cox	5,000
Aaron Cox	3,000
A L Davis	2,000
J R Stratton	2,000
H LeBrun	2,000
A Bowman, Berlin	2,000
Alex Elliott	1,500
Adam Hall	1,000
W H Hill	1,000
A P Poussette	1,500
Thos Brooks	4,000
Hilliard Estate	2,000
C H Clement	1,500

This amounts to a total of $83,900, from which has to be deducted $10,000 of bank advances practically secured and $2,000 of the town's second mortgage of $6,000 paid by observance of the terms of the advance.

This is an object lesson, and a pretty dear one to many persons, of the evils of the bonus system, and the experience of Peterborough as represented in this concern is but a type of the disastrous outcome of mushrooming manufactories, which has marked the experience of scores of towns and cities in the Dominion. Given a concern that can't stand on its own bottom, it is generally hopeless to expect that a solid and enduring superstructure can be erected; and no matter how it is shared up with external props in the shape of bonuses and exemptions, it is, generally speaking, preetty certain to collapse, involving the props in the ruin. Manufactures do not show healthy thrift under hot house methods. They are generally the result of steady growth from usually small beginnings. Planting a full grown manufactory in a town is about as expensive and unsatistactory as planting a full-grown forest tree in a town lawn.

We Figured it Just Right

In our determination to meet the exact requirements of the season and have the BEST display of Millinery Goods in Peterborough.

The Ladies with one consent award us the palm.

We invite every one who has not yet visited our rooms to inspect at their leisure. We don't bother you to buy. We leave that to your own good judgment.

THE BEST IN TOWN!

Is What Hundreds of Ladies Remarked as they Viewed the Magnificent Display of Millinery, Mantles, Dress Goods, Underwear, Carpets, Etc., at

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'S

Without wishing to seem to be egotistic, we assure the public that this is the verdict that we expected, as no house is in a position to show you the assortment and certainly no one can quote you such low prices.

THE MILLINERY DISPLAY

This season surpasses all our former efforts. The styles, of course, are the latest, and, judging by the large number of orders taken, our effort to save our customers the wholesale man's profit is appreciated by all. Being the only firm that buy these goods direct from the manufacturers, we are in a position to sell at the same price as our competitors buy. It is quite true that every house, however small, even though all their stock could be put in one packing case, declare in their exaggerated statements that they buy direct from makers.

We know whereof we speak, when we tell you that if it were not for our connection with The Canadian Dry Goods Syndicate, we individually could not buy from the large manufacturers—and we think we can buy about as many goods as most houses.

True, any house can buy from such manufacturer's as sell to the retail trade only, but in many cases the wholesale house is preferable. Large European Manufacturers do not take orders from individual retail stores—buying through Canadian agents who are responsible for the account and who have added their profits to the prices, though the goods are shipped from the maker, we claim is not buying direct. Therefore as members of the great Syndicate,

WE LEAD THE TRADE

And our fast growing trade is a proof that our values are right.

THE DISPLAY OF JACKETS

Is equal to that shown by any city house from the cheapest to the very highest-priced garments. Everyone should see our range before purchasing.

DRESS GOODS.

Every Lady that visited our store will tell you that she never saw such a lot of beautiful, yet reasonable priced Goods at any opening display. Our Dress Goods trade is one of the largest in the Eastern part of the province.

LADIES' UNDERWEAR.

This Department has scored a grand success. We show such a variety and having the HEALTH BRAND confined to us this season, has increased our sales very much. Already we have sent several repeat orders for these goods which is proof that they are selling.

MEN'S SUITINGS, OVERCOATINGS AND MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

Are acknowledged to be the best value in the trade. Seeing is believing. Call and see. No charge to show the goods.

CARPETS AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS.

This display was admired by everyone. The Bedroom furnished complete with Carpets, Curtains, Bed Spreads and everything in blue to match evoked the greatest praise. The immense stock in this department enables us to make such a display.

THE INCREASE IN OUR TRADE makes us firmer believers in SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS. Ours is the People's Popular Cash Store.

CENTRAL EXHIBITION

What Helped to Make the Show a Success.

SPECIFIC REFERENCE TO SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

What our Manufacturers and Breeders Showed—Detailed Reference to These Fine Products.

Below will be found a detailed description of several special exhibits, which we were unable to notice in extension in previous reports:

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

HAIR WORK AND FANCY GOODS.

In the Ladies' Department Mrs. James Byrne made a fine exhibit of Hair Work and Fancy Goods, in which she excells. In Hair Goods, the work shown was greatly admired. Various styles of switches, bangs, waves, curls, wigs, etc., were exhibited in different colours and qualities of hair. To the lady or gentlemen lacking in capillary adornment, Mrs. Byrne can make up genuine artificial hair to suit every desired want. Her experience in this work has brought her numerous orders in which the most expensive hair has to be used, and as she keeps a stock of the best goods obtainable in Paris and New York, her costumers can depend on the latest styles and a correct and becoming fit. Mrs. Byrne also exhibited specimens of her fancy needlework in children's dresses, fancy corn work, drapes, linen and lace work, &c, all executed at her Fancy Goods Store, 452 George street. Orders for hair work, needle work or fancy goods are filled with promptness, a good staff of assistants being constantly engaged in turning out work as rapidly as possible.

PUMPS, WINDMILLS, &c.

The pump business was well represented at the Fair, and no one could fail to notice the many valuable improvements constantly being made in this line. Mr. G. Walter Green, an experienced pump maker of Millbrook, showed some very superior pumps. Those entered were two wooden pumps, the "Combination" and "Eureka," one iron force pump for deep wells, and a fine specimen of the Brantford Steel Windmill "Ideal." The "Combination" pump, with its latest improvements in valves and cylinders, has become a favourite wherever used. Mr. Green claims that it is the only pump that can be easily changed to throw either a light or a heavy stream of water. It gives more inches of stroke from the same amount of leverage of any pump in the Dominion. The "Combination" was exhibited at the Toronto Exhibition in competition with many others, and took more points for efficiency than any pump on the grounds. The "Eureka" is a great pump for watering stock—a regular "gusher." It draws a big stream at every stroke and can be made to fill a large wooden pail in three strokes. It is the farmers' friend. There was also shown a high grade force pump, with patent air chamber and attachments for hose, adapted for deep wells and fire protection. Mr. Green's pump business is growing rapidly, and he contemplates extending his business and will shortly open up a branch factory in Peterborough. Mr. Green also handles the Brantford steel windmill, one of which was in full running order on the grounds. Others may be seen in operation at Mr. Thos. R. Mann's, Bridgenorth; Huton Bros.', Springville; George Campbell's, ex-M.P., Cavan, and elsewhere. This mill is built with roller and ball gearings, same as used in bicycles, and has inclosed internal gearing, fully protected from the weather. These mills are galvanized after completion, rendering them impervious to rust, damp, dirt or wear. As to price, the "Ideal" is claimed to be a cheaper mill than any other make. Mr. Green gave an exhibition of one of his very complete spraying pumps with different size nipple attachments for hose. He keeps a complete line of these spraying pumps always on hand. Farmers would do well to consult Mr. Green and inspect his first-class specialties before winter sets in.

OAK HALL, PETERBOROUGH.

Ten thousand people were greatly interested and taken up with the novel and original exhibitions at the Fair made by Oak Hall, the new clothing firm who have recently opened out in Peterborough on the corner of George and Hunter streets. The wonderful tall damsel on stilts, with her satchel swung over her shoulder and labelled, "See Oak Hall's Clothing," strode majestically over the grounds, twelve feet in the air—the observed of all observers. She was extravagantly dressed in long flowing robes of blue serge reaching to the ground, with the latest cut of full sleeves, lined with fibre chamois, in all the fashionable effect of the day. She wore a jaunty New York pattern hat, trimmed with lace and flowers, and modestly covered her highly-colored beaming countenance with a stylish pattern of net veiling. No one could fail to notice this unique attraction. The woman on stilts was at home on all parts of the grounds, scattering various pretty and useful souvenirs of Oak Hall to the multitude, and conducted herself in a becoming and lady-like manner, in which the skirt-dancer could not excel. Oak Hall's other novel exhibition on the grounds was a genuine Irish jaunting car, which was driven through the crowds and on which was emblazoned the strong popular title of the firm in attractive letters in the rear end of this quaint and curious-looking vehicle. A red flag floated from a masthead in the centre of the car, bearing the insignium of Oak Hall in white lettering, while a representative of an Irish jarvey sat on an elevated coach seat in front and manipulated the reins over a spanking tandem team. Attended with representatives of the firm, who occupied seats in this unique turnout, Oak Hall was introduced in state to the ten thousand visitors on the grounds and "did up" the Fair in grand style, but without any of the hereditary tricks or antics of the genuine Irishman "to the manor born," who never failed to make things lively every time he attended the Donnybrook.

Already, although scarcely two weeks in business, the name of Oak Hall has been heralded all over the country and seems to be known in every township, concession and lot. Mr. Moffatt, the energetic manager of the Peterborough store, is determined that Oall Hall shall become as familiar as a household word in everybody's mouth, and the many new and original advertising schemes brought into requisition to accomplish that end have already been productive of telling effects.

KINGSCOTTE'S TENTS.

Mr. Alf. Kingscotte, the Tent, Sail and Awning Maker of Water street, who had been working like a slave night and day for some time previous to the Fair, made no attempt to give a general display of his various styles of tents, and the other "next-of-kin" goods which he manufactures. The large square tent 22½ ft. by 16 ft. used on the grounds by Grafton & Co. for making their great Clothing display, was one of Mr. Kingscotte's make, and was selected for exhibition purposes because of its open, showy style and convenient spread of canvas. It was supported with a heavy maple pole and two uprights which gave it a commodious appearance. The wide open front furnished an excellent opportunity for conspicuously showing off the goods. This tent will be used by Messrs Grafton & Co. at all the large Fairs in the county for a similar purpose. Mr. Kingscotte has had a busy summer, having in addition to his other business filled several heavy orders for mammoth tents. The last one shipped was made for Mr. John Howrie, of Prescott, for a merry-go-round, and was a 50-footer, with 31 feet pitch. Mr. Kingscotte also makes Waterproof Horse and Wagon Covers, Black Oiled Canvas, Waterproof Covers, Lap Covers, warranted strictly waterproof. He makes a specialty of sail making, flags and bunting for decorations of halls, &c, at 344 Water street, opposite the market.

THE CLERGY AND LAYMEN UNITE.

In Their Praises of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder.

Taking the Bishop of Toronto, Right Rev. A. Sweatman, D.D., D.C.L., three of the leading members of the Faculty of McMaster Hall, and men like the Rev. W. H. Withrow, and others, as representing the Methodist church, all of whom have spoken in high terms of the merits of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and unite with these the warm endorsement of this medicine by the well known Toronto journalist, Mr. W. L. Smith, as representing the laymen, and it must be granted that clergymen and layman are of one mind touching this truly meritorious medicine. The truth is that every one who uses the medicine has a good word to say for it.

One short puff of the breath through the blower, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use. It relieves in 10 minutes and permanently cures catarrh, hay fever, colds, headache, sore throat, tonsilitis and deafness. 60 cents. Sample bottle and blower sent on receipt of two three-cent stamps. S. G. Detchon, 44 Church street, Toronto. Sold by H. S. Macdonald.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH HARVEST FESTIVAL

SERMON BY REV. ARTHUR BALDWIN, OF ALL SAINTS.

The Church Most Beautifully Decorated by the Devoted Labours of the Guild.

The service of praise and thanksgiving for the ingathering of the harvest held in St. Luke's church Thursday night was in every respect worthy of the occasion.

The church had been most beautifully decorated by the devoted labours of Miss Peck, head of the Decoration Chapter of the Guild, the members of the Chapter and other friends. Contributions of grain, fruit and flowers were abundantly made by members of the church and others too numerous to mention, but especial thanks are due to the ladies of St. John's for the donation of the wreathing used in that church last week.

The choir under Mr. Davies rendered the musical portion of the service with great sweetness. The Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis composed by Mr. Davies and sung last night for the first time, and will, we trust, be published. The anthem was Sir John Stainer's "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land," the solo parts being taken by Mr. Webber, of Norwood, and Miss Long. The service concluded with Luther's magnificent hymn, "Now thank we all our God."

ARE EXCELLENT CONTRIBUTIONS

The sermon was preached by Rev. A. H. Baldwin, M.A., rector of All Saints Church Toronto. This was Mr. Baldwin's first visit to Peterborough, and after a long drive through and round the town Thursday afternoon, he was loud in his praises of the beauty of the town. Mr. Baldwin has one of the largest churches in Toronto, with a Sunday School inclusive of Bible Classess, of 1500 pupils, there being no less than 300 members in the infant class. He is a man of very genial temperament, speaking very easily and yet impressively. Throughout his sermon there ran a view of sarcasm relieved by a suspicion of humour from bitterness. The large congregation was very attentive throughout the sermon.

Taking for his text the words "O give thanks unto the Lord for He is gracious, for His mercy endureth forever," Mr. Baldwin said that we cannot but feel the beauty of nature, and recognize the manifold token of God's wisdom which its displays. But the congregation was not assembled that evening to of flowers and other beauteous things but to thank God for this bountiful provision for his children, of which the beautiful decorations were the emblems. It was a grand thing that man should acknowledge God. But it must be with sincerity not hypocrisy of which there is an abundance in our land. Good Friday, which is a public holiday because Jesus Christ died for us on that day, is made the occasion of a variety of festivities. Thanksgiving day was appointed to be observed by Government, but our churches are empty, and the principal token of Thanksgiving is a volunteer review. We cannot expect a blessing on these things. God expects what men demand in their dealings with each other, viz., sincerity. In our dear English church certain days in the spring were set apart for asking a blessing on the seed sown, and now when we have taken in the grain what can be more suitable than to gather together to express our gratitude.

Mr Baldwin then noted the beautiful stucture of the psalm from which his text was taken. It consisted of seven strophes of seven verses, with the refrain, "O give thanks unto the Lord for His mercy endureth forever."

TO GIVE THANKS

is better than to grumble. Some people seemed always to be looking out for occasions of grumbling. Last year it was the oat crop that failed. This year the hay. But how much better to consider the abundance of all our needs. God has laid out our country in rich lands, and thick forests and lovely rivers and lakes. Should we not be thankful for these. How can we show our thanks but by our deeds. Very earnestly did the preacher speaking as a Canadian, appeal in conclusion for a practical Christianity, of sincerity and straightforwardness as against hypocrisy and dishonesty. "I am a Canadian, and I love my country above all other countries; it is the most beautiful country in the world and I want to see it excellent in uprightness, honesty and truth."

The decorations will remain in the church until after Sunday next, the harvest music will be repeated and the rector will dreach a special sermon on "The Witness of Nature to God," at the evening service.

THE TOWN AND THE CARBON WORKS.

As announced in THE EXAMINER, a special meeting of the Town Council was held last night to consider the matter of the proposed purchase of the works of the Peterborough Porcelain and Carbon Company by the Canadian General Electric Company.

It is well known to our citizens that those who invested their money in the Carbon Works have, as shareholders, lost all their investment through the mismanagement that has prevailed in the operating of the works from the beginning. For the past year and a half it was certain that the management would be unable to hold the concern together, and for the past two months the only question that has confronted the directors has been that of protecting the creditors as far as possible, and at the same time keeping the works in operation. A partial solution of the difficulty was brought about by Mr. Geo. A. Cox arranging for the Canadian General Electric Company to take over the concern as it stands, excepting the book debts and unpaid stock, for the sum of $15,000. Ten thousand dollars of this sum will be applied to the paying off of the first mortgage of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company, leaving $5,000, with the balance of the unpaid stock, and the book debts, to be applied pro rata to the payment of the claims of creditors. The town having a second mortgage of $6,000, two thousand of which has been paid by operating the works according to the terms of the advance it became necessary to make some arrangement by which the mortgage balance of $4,000 would be liquidated in some other way. Accordingly the town council last night passed a by-law foregoing their claim $4000 and extending the present exemption of the Carbon Works, five years longer, or ten years from date, with the understanding that the Canadian General Electric Company, will operate the works and forego a certain other claim. It will be remembered that the town council of two years ago passed a resolution, agreeing to give the Canadian General Electric Company $5,000, on condition of the latter removing their glass works from Hamilton to Peterborough. It was pretty generally understood both by the Council, the public and the company, that the Council had no power to make such a grant, but the councillors agreed to assist in procuring legislation to make the resolution of the council legally operative. However, this was not done, and the Edison Company and the Canadian General Electric Company held that the town was morally bound to carry out their part of the agreement, as the company considered that they had carried out their part. And the Canadian General Electric Company have agreed, as part of the arrangment made by the council last night, to waive their claim to the payment of the $5,000. This explanation is made, as the town is a shareholder in the Carbon Works, and ratepayers are entitled to the information. The arrangement made is the best that could be done under the circumstances. The town's claim, under its second mortgage, was valueless except in so far as it would share in the pro rata distribution of the assets available, which would represent a very insignificent percentage, and the bond was of problematical value. Now the town will derive the benefits accruing from the operation of the works, the involved employment of labour, and the removal of the claimed $5,000 liability from the arena of discussion.

HEART DISEASE OF TWENTY YEARS' STANDING RELIEVED IN A DAY.

Mr. Aaron Nichols, Who Has Lived on One Farm for 70 Years, Tells What He Knows of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart.

This is to certify that I have bought two bottles of Dr. Agnew's cure for the Heart for my wife, who has been troubled for the past twenty years with heart disease. The first few doses gave relief, and she has had more benefit from it than from all the doctoring she ever did. The remedy acts like magic on a diseased heart. I am pleased to give this certificate. And it does them good.

Scott's Emulsion is the easiest, most palatable form of Cod-liver Oil, with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda added to nourish the bones and tone up the nervous system. The way children gain flesh and strength on Scott's Emulsion is surprising even to physicians.

All delicate children need it.

MANITOBA'S DELAY.

May Cause the Ottawa Government to Take Action.

WITHOUT RECEIVING ANY REPLY.

The School Question May Come Before the Cabinet in an Informal Manner To-Day—Inland Marine Men Suggest Waterway Improvements.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 26.—Friday morning's trains will bring back to the Capital all the Ministers who are at present absent, and then for the next few days there will be a series of Cabinet meetings, at which important business will be transacted. Sir Francis Smith's genial countenance was observed in the rotunda of the Russell House to-night. The Toronto knight came in on the day train, as he does not care to travel by night. When a man is in his 74th year, although as vigorous as Sir Frank is, he needs to husband his strength.

In some quarters the impression prevails that the school question will come up for consideration Friday, but if it does it will only be in an informal manner. The reply of the Manitoba Government to the order-in-council of July 27 has not yet left Winnipeg. In fact, so far as one can learn here from the best sources possible, the Manitoba Government has not yet decided upon it's reply, although a vast majority of the people in Ottawa who take an interest in politics are pretty well agreed what Mr. Greenway's answer will be. Some people say that the Manitoba Government, which is under no compliment to Federal powers, will be in no hurry to make a statement of its position, as it now exists under the communication of July 27. Two months have elapsed since the second order-in-council went forward to Winnipeg and making due allowance for the summer holidays, surely by this time the local government should be prepared to say if they are prepared "to promote amendments to the acts respecting education in schools in that Province." Of course, if no answer is forthcoming soon the Dominion Government will have to decide upon its policy regardless entirely of the Manitoba Government. Apropos to this question, it may be stated that Lieut.-Gov. Patterson is still in town and has been under the weather for the past day or two.

"I see the newspapers have been poking fun at Wiggins in reference to his storm prophesy," remarked the Minister of the Interior to your correspondent this afternoon, after a pleasant half hour's chat over his recent extended official tour in the great West. "You may say here that Wiggins is a failure as a prophet, but up Port Arthur way they look upon him as a seer. When one passed through there two days ago there was great anxiety about the safety of the C.P.R. steamer Alberta, and everybody was relieved when she came into port safely after passing through a storm, the like of which has not been experienced on Lake Superior for many years." Mr. Daly looks remarkably well after his trip. Two months continuous open air traveling has given him a good healthy color and the Minister does not disguise the fact that he is in fighting trim. During his tour he traveled over 9000 miles. He says that everything is looking well in the West. The Premier and he in their tour visited five Indian agencies in British Columbia and seven in Manitoba, and the territories, these agencies including a large number of reserves. The to al number of Indian schools to which the Government is contributing annual grants visited by the Superintendent-General, was over 24. Mr. Daly was more than satisfied after the careful inspection which he made of the reserves this year, following up his inspections of previous years, that the Government policy towards Indians is the correct one. The good progress which the wards of the Government are making and the contentment everywhere descernible reflects most creditably upon the work of the different agents throughout the country. Mr. Daly says that there has been a fair amount of immigration into Manitoba and territories this year, and he has no doubt that when the reports of this season's splendid harvest reach England they will have a material effect on inducing immigration to Canada.

An influential delegation representing Inland Marine interests visited the city to-day and had an interview with the Minister of Rivers and Canals with reference to the present low water in the canals and Rivers St. Lawrence. The deputation consisted of Messrs. W. A. Geddes, president of the Canadian Marine Association; Capt. Crangle and Capt. Sylvester of Toronto, Capt. Pringrieve and C. Myles, Hamilton; Capt. Gaskin, Kingston; William Stewart, Kingston and Montreal Forwarding Company; C. F. Gildersleeve, general manager R. & O. N. Co., and C. A. Jaques of Montreal. The deputation pointed out to the Minister the several points along the St. Lawrence, at which, by a comparatively small expediture of money, the navigation could be improved for the remainder of this season. The deputation asked for the clearing away of a shoal at the lower entrance of Iroquois lock and also the clearing out of the lock itself. They also asked for the removal of the sills of the guard lock of this canal. It was pointed out that if this were done considerable relief would be afforded tovesel owners. The Minister said he would issue an order to met the wishes of the deputation in regard to this improvement at the very earliest moment. With regard to the Cornwall Canal the deputation urged that two or three hnudred yards of boulders be removed and dredging done to improve that stretch. They also represented that the western entrance to Beauharnois Canal is impeded by a shoal extending for about half a mile, and they asked that this be removed. Another point in the Beauharnois Canal at which improvements are required is at Melocheville, where the entrance will have to be narrowed in order to raise the water. The Minister, while expressing his sympathy with the deputation, and at the manner in which their business had been hampered this year through no fault of their own, or the Government's, promi dsoahevet dra.faw SHRO ET ETA mised to have these latter improvements caried out before the 15th of May next. He recognised that, inasmuch as the Soulanges Canal will not be open for navigation for two years that in the meantime accommodation must be afforded to transportation companies. By improving Beauharnois Canal the deputation, greatly pleased at the manner in which they were met by the Minister, and expressed their thanks for the prompt answer which he gave to their requests.

Miraculous Waters.

St. John's Loch, or the Holy Loch, at Dunnet possesses a mysterious power for the allaying of diseases of divers kinds. Ere the sufferer can be healed he must walk thrice around the water before sunrise. On the surface of a well at Halkirk lies a filmy veil, the colors of which in the sunlight are brilliant and varied as the plumage of a peacock. To the faithful only is it given to see this phenomenon. Many a Caithness peasant believes in the efficacy of "casting the heart' for the cure of sickness. Into water drawn from certain wells and running streams some melted lead is dropped. Portions of the metal form into heart-shaped pieces, and if one of the lead hearts be put into all beverages drunk by the ailing person, health is restored. This cure can, however, be effected on certain days only in each raith, or quarter.

St. Tredwell's Loch, in Papa-Westray, evidently one of the many centres of the ancient hermits of Papa, had of yore a wide fame, in part because its waters turned red as a prognostic of any important event in the royal family, in part because of its marvelous curative powers. A large number of coins, chiefly of the seventeenth century, have been found at the chapel hard by, offerings of gratitude, doubtless, from those who were healed by washing in the loch or by walking silently around the edge.

A typical example of water worship survives in the north. The maiden who, on New Year's morning, first draws a pailful of water from the village well is acounted singularly fortunate. She has, in truth, secured the "flower o' the well," and will be happy for the succeeding year.—Scottish Review.

Companionship in Golf.

The element of companionship enters seriously into golf. It enters considerably into most games, so that the majority of us care more whom we play with than what we play. But one could play tennis with any player whose skill approximated to his own without much thought of his personal idiosyncrasies, for the net yawns and stretches between tennis players, keeping them apart; and while they are playing the action is too lively to permit communication of anything but the ball. But a fit person to play tennis with is one thing and a thoroughly satisfactory person to play golf with is another. Ivan Putter was trifling with a stroke, exulting when he made a good one, grieving when he didn't, and working hard all the time. And when he wasn't attending to his own game he was paying close attention to mine. That was, perhaps, his greatest charm. His interest kept mine always warm, so that I held almost as much of my breath over his stroke as he over mine.—Scribner's.

A LADY OF WATERFORD COMPLETELY CURED.

Suffered for Two Years from Indigestion and General Debility.

Unable at Times to Attend to Her Household Duties.

Treated by Nearly All the Doctors in the Town Without Relief

"Six Bottles of South American Nervine Cured Me," Says Mrs. D. A. Gray, of Waterford, Ont., Over Her Own Signature.

MRS. D. A. GRAY, OF WATERFORD, ONT.

Certain dates are epoch making. They mark transitions in the individual life that are never forgotten. Their impress may be pleasant or sad, or both. As Mrs. D. A. Gray, of Waterford, Ont., an estimable and highly respected resident of that community, goes back in memory to the year 1893, her recollections are not of the most roseate character. Can there be anything rosy to one who is a victim of indigestion? All is sombre and sadness. But there was a silver lining to the cloud, as we shall see. Previous to 1893 Mrs. Gray tells us she had been troubled very much with indigestion and general debility for a period of nearly two years. Hers was no ordinary case. At times she was prevented altogether from attending to her household duties. Waterford has a number of skilled physicians in its midst and their services were called in, but in her own language, "I cannot say that they relieved me in any way." An era of joy was ushered in when her mother read the story of a cure by South American Nervine in a case where the symptoms, as Mrs. Gray says, "seemed to be exactly like her own. I bought a bottle and found much relief. After taking six bottles I was cured." The date was an epoch making date in this lady's life.

What the symptoms of Indigestion are, too many know. What the trouble is in its worst forms thousands know. People lament the spread of insanity in the present day. How far removed from loss of reason is a case of aggravated indigestion? The world to every such victim is blue enough, black enough, so uninviting and depressing that no wonder they are beside themselves. And yet the remedy is within the reach of all. That great discovery, Nervine, will cure the most desperate case of indigestion, debility or nervousness. You ask for evidence. A cloud of witnesses in the Dominion of Canada are saying amen, and amen, to the testimony of Mrs. Gray. Why suffer, fellow-citizens, friends and brethren?

PANTHER AND RATTLER.

Fight a Duel to the Death at West Point, N.Y.

Henry Willet, the telegraph operator at West Point, started an abattoir for rattlesnakes and panthers a few days ago in the mountains behind the Government reservation. He took with him "Joe" Stephens and "Joe" Stamm, all being on their vacation, two tents to live in, and the necessary supplies. They were piloted to the camping place by Sergeant Kiernan, its original discoverer. It is such a hard place to find that the Sergeant in returning lost himself for two days. He declared that in that time he subsisted on wild cats that he slew.

Willet, after a hard day's fishing in Popolopen Lake and a hard evening's telling about his catch, went to bed on Monday night. He awoke to find an enormous rattlesnake coiled up on his breast. The snake looked him in the eye. Willet didn't dare to seem unfriendly, and smiled affably. They exchanged glances for two hours, the telegraph operator being cold with horror, expecting to be bitten every moment.

The snake present left him and crept to the opening in the tent. Suddenly a low growl was heard outside and then a couple of balls of fire were focused on Willet. They were worn by a large panther—in fact they were his eyes—and he began to walk towards the recumbent man in order to eat him up. Suddenly the snake commenced to hiss and rattle his rattles excitedly. Then he made a jump and buried his fangs in the panther's neck—that is, the snake did, not Willet.

Then the panther seized the snake with its claws and, taking his head in his mouth, crushed it to a jelly. After that the panther went into awful convulsions and in a few minutes was dead.

Dr. Saunders arrived at the camp a few hours later and skinned the animals. I. B. Wheeler, an undertaker, has the skins, and is stuffing them. Willet says that it isn't a rare thing for West Point panthers and rattlesnakes to fight duels to the death. Willet was very much prostrated by his awful experience, but his troubles are yielding to treatment.—New York World.

Dusted Insects.

The arc lamp has always had a strange fascination for birds and insects. The public has become quite accustomed to the periodical publication of statistics on the number of birds of passage killed at the various coast lighthouses by dashing against the glass in which the arc lantern was inclosed, drawn by the brightness of the light, and also to the stories of sparrows that have built their nests within the arc globes, and persisted in returning when dislodged. The arc lamp has, moreover, been the means of strengthening many of the best entomological collections in the country by the addition of rare insects that had formerly been most difficult to capture. These insects were almost invariably specimens of land species; but an unusual phenomenon has lately been observed in several towns, the streets of which are lighted by the arc lamp. Immense swarms of water beetles would serge toward the lights, and in the morning the carcasses of these aquatic coleoptera would be found lying by bushels at the base of the lamp posts. The insects would charge in solid columns against the arcs, and fill the interior of the globes until the carbons were choked and the lamp went out. When daylight came the survivors returned to the neighboring ponds and hid themselves in the mud. A singular feature of the recent destruction of elms in New York and the New England States is that the work of the leopard moth seems to be confined to the brilliantly lighted streets and squares. Trees in dimly lighted suburbs have often been comparatively free from the attacks of both moth and beetle, while the trees within the city suffered severely. In some places it is even insisted that before the introduction of the electric arc for street and park lighting the trees were molested by few beetles, and the leopard moth was unknown.—New York Times.

Unique Copenhagen Concerts.

Every midsummer day a unique concert is given in Copenhagen, such as the whole world cannot show the like of. There are kept in the Copenhagen museum a number of ancient Scandinavian horns, more than 2,000 years old, called "Luren." Of this collection fourteen are in good condition. They have an elegant shape, and the flat metal plates at the mouthpiece show good technical perfection, and a developed taste together. They were found buried in moorland, and their good preservation is believed to be due to the turfy water. They are of very thin metal, and generally seven feet long. They were always found in pairs, the one in tune with the other. A few years ago it was found out by Dr. Hammerich that they could still be blown or played upon. Their tones resemble those of the tenor horn, and they have a soft but powerful sound. Some are tuned in C and E sharp; others in D, E or G, and these tones form an accord, but no "scala." The midsummer concert is held as follows: On a balcony in the court of the princely palace in which is kept the Northern Museum two members of the royal 'capella" blow tunes on two of these primeval horns. An enormous crowd fills the court, the streets, the marble bridge, and the neighboring square as far as it is possible to hear the sounds.—London Daily News.

of our tools are home made. A sod-cutter shown at a is desirable. Ours was made from an old pointed shovel, as was the scoop b, for cleaning the bottom of the ditch. By the aid of a blacksmith these were easily converted into very useful implements. To make the cutter, heat and hammer the shovel perfectly flat, then with a cold chisel cut out the desired shape. Sharpen the edge, insert the handle, and it is complete. For the cleaner, turn up the edges and cut off the corners, making it about 5 inches wide. Rivet two quarter-inch rods to the sides. Weld the outer ends and drive them into the handle.—Farm and Home.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

Windmill Irrigation.

In dry seasons it is estimated that more than $10,000,000 are lost in some States through the total or partial loss of crops, and in 1894 the loss of one town on Long Island amounted to $1,000,000, thus the east as well as the west suffer by summer drouth. The loss is apt to come any season and often when farmers are the least prepared for it. The loss on Long Island last year would have erected windmills on a good part of the whole number of farms. The loss of 1894 could be made to form permanent irrigating plants for 200 2,000-acre farms. A small garden of ten acres can yield a market gardener a good living if it is kept in a high state of cultivation. A windmill to irrigate such land, with all necessary material for utilizing the water need not cost more than 500, and in one dry season the crops would more than pay for the outlay. Put farm irrigation down as one subject to be discussed at a winter meeting of your grange or farmers' club.—Farm and Home.

WAS A PATIENT

In St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton, Ont.

The Doctors Said a Surgical Operation was Necessary to Effect a Cure.

THE LADY LEFT HOSPITAL AND DOCTORS.

She Uses Paine's Celery Compound and is Cured.

Another wonderful, almost miraculous, cure to report. As usual, the afflicted one is saved by the use of Paine's Celery Compound.

Mrs. Annie Saunders, the cured lady, lives in Bracondale, a pleasant suburb of Toronto. Her sufferings from a trouble common to many women, were terrible, and the wonder is that she now lives. To her, medical and hospital treatment proved of no avail. At a critical juncture, the doctors deemed an operation imperatively necessary.

Mrs. Saunders would not sanction the proposed operation; she decided to try a medicine that had cured thousands; she had faith in its wondrous powers to make a new woman. Paine's Celery Compound was her chosen agent; she used it, and thanks Providence for the happy change effected. She writes as follows regarding her cure:—

"It is with much pleasure that I testify to the value of your wonderful Paine's Celery Compound. I was a great sufferer from severe attacks of neuralgia in the left ovary. At times the attacks were so acute that I thought I would lose my reason.

"Several doctors treated me, and I was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton. I obtained no relief from medical treatment. The doctors said unless I had the ovary taken away I could not be cured.

"Instead of submitting to the operation, I used Paine's Celery Compound, and I am thankful your valuable medicine cured me. I feel like a new woman, and I would like all sufferers to know just what this great medicine has done for me."

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM AND CIVIC LAW.

"A Matter of Conscience."

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly permit space in your valuable paper for the expression of a few thoughts anent the great question of religious liberty which is now engrossing so much attention on the American continent, not only in our own free Dominion, but also "across the border."

It seems to me that so much imperfection tinges all mundane things, that we may well hesitate and ponder before assuming an attitude which possibly would be untenable, were the substratum of proof and successful precedent required.

Really, how is it about the laws of our country being "founded upon the principles of the Divine Law?"

If we examine that law, precept by precept, I think we may readily see that the first four precepts pertain to man's duty to his Maker, while the last six precepts relate to man's duty to his fellowmen. This being so, it necessarily follows that the laws of our country are founded upon the principles of the Divine Law, as found in those precepts which show what is right between man and man; that is, matters of civility; hence the name, Civil Law. (We admit that a theocratic form of government existed in the Jewish age; but to that age it is relegated.)

THE SAME IDEA,

expressed differently, stands thus: Civil Law attends to the bodies of men and the things of this world, while religion is wholly a matter between each individual soul and his God. When civil law leaves its own legitimate work to enter the realm covered by the first four commandments of God's law, it is plainly and unmistakably the reinstating of a principle which was tested to the world's shame and sorrow through bloody centuries.

The claim that any man or set of men has a right to set up any religious faith, and then compel dissenters to accept that faith, or go to the dungeon, is the very principle which some of our ancestors laid down their lives to disprove. Must the battle of the sixteenth century be fought over again?

The protest of the Diet of Spires declared in substance, "That it is the duty of the state to protect liberty of conscience, but that is the limit of their authority in religious matters." "Majorities have no power in the realm of conscience."

"All attempt to enforce religious faith is un-Christ-like, and therefore anti-Christian. Religious freedom is the right to differ, and that right is sacred."

"Religious legislation leaves religious faith to the decision of a majority; but the majority has no right to bind the conscience of the minority."

"How can we be in harmony with the Golden Rule without giving to others the same rights which we claim for ourselves?" etc., etc.

The name "Protestant" comes from this same protest; are we to abide by its clearly defined principles, or shall we admit that majorities may establish religious faith and bind the conscience of the minority?

Now if we, or any government, under whatever delusive pretext, attempt to enforce religious observance by civil authority we come right into harmony with the Romanist and are no longer Protestants except in name.

Let us admit the principle that human authority can regulate religious faith, compelling obedience to its laws in religious matters, and we concede all that Rome ever contended for. Continue in this path a little way and where are we and what are we doing?

We are departing from the principles set forth in the life and teachings of Christ. Pursuing this course every deep thinker may see where the power of religious majority is entrenched that will hold the reins a step or two hence.

AS NATIONS RISE

and fall our own permanence is assured only through right doing; and it is devoutly desired that our vigourous young Dominion be preserved from the blighting religious despotism which has cursed the nations of the old world. Such despotism is a menace both to the state and the church.

Perhaps to the giddy throng it may seem a little thing that a Christian man lies incarcerated in Chatham jail, because he chooses to accept the Bible rendering of the fourth commandment instead of ecclesiastical interpretations of it. But when the pernicious principle underlying that imprisonment is dissected, we may well start back "amazed to see the plowshare of an enemy."

The mischief of it is not in heeding the exhortation of the Christian Endeavour song: "Dare to be a Daniel," etc., but in practicing a principle which King Darius only illustrated. Now, as then, no fault is found with the victim "save concerning the law of his God;" it is not in matters between man and man, but between man and his Maker. Were there no smack of religious persecution about it, the railroad trains would not go thundering and shrieking on the first day of the week unmolested, while a quiet, unobtrusive farmer who yields implicit obedience to the fourth commandment as it reads, is hated and cast into prison.

Are those expressions which tell of "sect," "new discovery at the end of the nineteenth century," etc., misleading, or do they reveal the true animus of this action in enforcing religious law?

From the standpoint of a candid onlooker I confess inability to see anything very new or verdant in an old record that I stumbled upon in this connection, (Gen. 2:3). Then again it seems that the author of the Christian religion, Jesus Christ, was the principal acter in the great events which this old record tells of, as John 1:3, Heb. 1:2, Isa. 43:1, and many other witnesses state. That truly was six thousand years ago, or thereabout; but the Jew did not exist till thousands of years after that time.

If the real principle of religious freedom which the German princes enunciated in 1529 is now, perhaps unintentionally contravened by the intermeddling of civil law with religion, we can yet be thankful for the liberty of free inquiry and for the freedom of the press—yea, for an who will, we believe, improve and abolish any lingering relics of former dreary ages, as the real character of these relics becomes apparent.

The language of a petition to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario in 1890 should be the language of one and all. It reads,—"Freedom of religious opinion and worship is inherently a vested right of the individual conscience, and not a grant from the state; and in all regards in which the state violates the principles above summarized, it transcends its rightful power and unjustly infringes upon individual rights."

Regard for the fourth commandment is distinctly a religious duty, and the precept enjoins six days of labour as plainly as it prohibits it upon the day in which God placed his presence and blessing (Ex. 20:8—11). These principles and facts being very clear and plain, what necessity exists for becoming bewildered by the fog of sectarianism?

The truth and right is what we want. As the power of government is derived from the people, and as all the people have a right to obey the Ten Commandments, and as the work of protecting the rights of the people is entrusted to the government and its officials, there is ample cause for agitation when a single right of a single person is interfered with in the name of that government.

While it may be true that the darkest stains disgracing the records of the past were made in the name of religion and ostensibly for the glory of things invisible, this fact is not a weapon in the hand of the theological skeptic; for, digging to the root of the matter, is it not all couched in the idea that the Great Ruler of all needs the aid of civil law in compelling men to outwardly honour and obey him, and that, too, according to certain forms?

Consonant with this idea, the fortunate possessors of human authority, whether pagan or professedly Christian, have, in times past, improved opportunities to force upon men their religious dogmas; doubtless believing that they were delegated by high Heaven to do so.

Take a few familiar quotations in the Gospel age, beginning with Jesus of Nazareth, then all the martyrs under pagan Rome. Coming nearer to our time, instance the "waste howling wilderness" of the dark ages, and later, the cruelties enacted by the Puritans of New England. Where was the fault of

ALL THOSE CASES?

Was it with the noble men and women who suffered the penalty of the civil law as criminals, in defence of an undying principle? Or do we see in the clearer light of the closing nineteenth century that the evil thing lay in defective civil law?

What student of history can fail to see that these, and other familiar examples of religious persecution, occurred because the civil law of their land and their time conflicted with a higher law; and those noble martyrs being ahead of the dominant secular power in progress and enlightment, calmly said:—"We have the civil law and uncomplainingly bow before its pains and penalities, but we ought to obey God rather than men."

All that we enjoy of religious freedom is a priceless heritage from those fearless defenders.

What principle was under-lying the defects in the secular governments which spilled their blood? It was the baneful idea that men must be compelled to conform to religious dogma; and as each, successively, claimed to have discovered the whole truth in things religious, a plausible train of reasoning said that it must be the correct thing to enforce it by law.

How unerringly history repeats itself! Human nature is always the same and principles are immortal.

What is the matter to-day? It is the lingering religious element in our civil laws. Shall we, too, have the effrontery to declare that there is no more room for progress? That we have indeed arrived at the very acme of religious knowledge and there is nothing more to learn from that wonderful Book of books—the Bible.

Our only safety as a nation, and our only hope of abiding prosperity, is by fully embracing the benign principles pronounced by Christ,—"Render therefore unto Caesar (civil governments) the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's." Thus doing, civil laws touching matters of religious faith, or duty of man to his God, will be speedily eliminated, leaving the latter wide field where it rightfully belongs—wholly with the church. If the church has not departed from her Lord and Head, she will have no lack of power, for the Maker of Worlds is her mighty Helper. Then, and not before our fair and goodly Ontario will be a land of religious freedom, not in word only, but in deed and in truth.

SAVED MUCH SUFFERING.

REV. FATHER BUTLER'S INTERESTING EXPERIENCE.

Suffered From an Abscess in the side Which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured After Other Medicines Fail.

Caledonia, N. S., Gold Hunter.

Faith leads many to believe, yet when one has experienced anything and has reason to rejoice, it is far stronger proof than faith without reasonable proof. About four miles from Caledonia, along a pleasant road, passing by numerous farms, lives Rev. T. J. Butler, the parish priest of this district. Reports having come to the ears of our reporter about a wonderful cure effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, he called on Mr. Butler to seek information on the subject. Mr. Butler spoke in very high terms of the Pink Pills, and said they had saved him untold suffering, and perhaps saved his life. The reverend gentleman felt a little hesitancy at giving a public testimonial at first, but after our reporter remarked that if one was really grateful for a remarkable cure, he thought it was his duty to give it publicity for humanity's sake, he cheerfuly consented. His story in his own words is as follows:—"I was led to take Pink Pills through reading the testimonals in the papers. I was troubled with an abscess in my side and had tried many different medicines without avail. I took medical advice on the subject, and was told I would have to undergo an operation to cure it which would cost me about $100. At last I determined to try Pink Pills, but without a great feeling of faith of their curing me. One box helped me and I resolved to take a three months' course and give them a fair trial. I did so, and to-day I am completely cured of the abscess in my side through using Pink Pills, and I always recommend friends of mine to use Pink Pills for diseases of the blood. As Father Butler is well known throughout this county his statement is a clincher to the many wonderful testimonials that have appeared in the Gold Hunter from time to time. On enquiring at the stores of J. E. Cushine and N. F. Douglas, it was found that Pink Pills have a sale second to none. Mr. Cushing on being asked if he knew of any cures effected by them, replied that he had heard a great many personally say Pink Pills had helped them wonderfully. If given a fair and thorough trial Pink Pills are a certain cure for all diseases of the blood and nerves such as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration and the tired feeling therefrom, the after effects of la grippe, diseases depending on humours in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of any nature. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. Beware of imitations and substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

A PHENOMENAL OPENING AND A BANNER MONTH

Is our September Record.

We thank our friends for the cordial interest shown during the month and especially those visitors to the exhibition who found time to call and see our display.

Our Millinery and Mantle Opening pleased every one who called. It could hardly fail to do so. The rich and varied display equalled that of any Metropolitan Opening.

We have had a successful month, thanks to our friends. Millinery and Mantles especially large. Our opening has been accompanied by more solid business than we ever received on a similar occasion. In Carpets and Housefurnishings we have had liberal orders and we know that the values and qualities have gained us favourable opinions.

With thanks for patronage and promising that we shall leave nothing undone to please and satisfy October buyers.

BRITISH NAVAL DEMONSTRATIONS.

Warships Gather Near the Dardanelles—Gunboats Proceed Up the Yang-Tse-Kiang—China the Trouble.

London, Sept. 30.—A despatch from Pekin to a local news agency, says the British Government has addressed an ultimatum to China demanding that the Pekin Government issue within two weeks a proclamation degrading the Viceroy of Aze-Chuen; otherwise the British Admiral in Chinese waters will take action.

The Daily News, commenting on the British Government's ultimatum to China, says:

"The Government doubtless has good reasons for its ultimatum, and it will not have cause to complain of a want of support from the country."

The Standard says: "Lord Salisbury has been patient enough. The moment for action has arrived. The British demands must be enforced if necessary by the presence of a fleet in the Yang-Tse-Kiang, if not by the occupation of Nankin."

The Standard predicts a revolution in China and the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty if the Government at Pekin is rash enough to defy the Western powers.

Spat in the Consul's Face.

London, Sept. 29.—A despatch from Shanghai says: The inquiry into the Chinese outrages at Kucheng was abruptly concluded. The Viceroy's deputy, according to the despatch, declared that the investigation had gone far enough, and that ample justice had been done. A soldier insulted Mr. Mansfield, the British consul at Kucheng, and spat in his face. The man was bastinadoed, receiving 50 strokes as punishment for his offence.

Warships in the Yang-Tse-Kiang.

The demonstration of a powerful British squadron proceeding up the Yang-Tse-Kiang is the sequence of the tacit refusal of the Pekin Government to satisfy the demands of the Marquis of Salisbury for the punishment of the late Viceroy of Szechung, whom the British Minister O'Connor reported to be responsible for the outrages beginning in May at the mission stations at Cheng-Tu, which were followed by the massacre at Kucheng. The Viceroy's term of office expiring, he left Cheng-Tu and the Government tried to induce Minister O'Connor to believe that the withdrawal of the Viceroy had been enforced and that this act on the part of China ought to satisfy the British Government. Lord Salisbury, however, instructed the British Minister that nothing would suffice less than a public imperial decree banishing beyond the frontiers of China, with a statement that the crime for which he was punished was neglect to afford protection to the missions. This action of Lord Salisbury appears to have been prompted by the conviction that the Chinese literati abetted by most of the higher officials foment agitation against Europeans generally, and not against the missions alone, and that the degradation of the Viceroy would be a blow to the literati and an effective example to the whole of China. The decisive attitude of England disposes of the report that the Foreign Office entertained a proposal to withdraw the missionaries to treaty ports. It is understood that the United States Government, although not actively co-operating with the British Government, has been informed of and approves the latter's plans to protect the missions which involve the strongest practical measures in the event of the mere squadron demonstration not proving sufficient to wake up the Government at Pekin.

17 Warships in the Bosphorus.

Constantinople, Sept. 28.—Seventeen British warships have arrived off Lemnos, near the entrance to the Dardanelles. Much comment has been caused by the appearance of the fleet and a distinct impression has been made in official circles here.

Skirmish on the Mosquito Coast.

Colon, Colombia, Sept. 29.—Advices have ben received here that the crew of the British cruiser Tartar, stationed on the Mosquito Coast, had a skirmish on shore, in which a number of those engaged were killed. The British warship Partridge is proceeding from Jamaica for the Mosquito Coast. No particulars of the fight are given.

$30,000 Blaze at Scranton.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 28.—A fire at Mt. Pocono last night burned the central hotel, Taylor's general store, badly damaged the Fairview House, and scorched the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Depot. The summer season was ended at the hotel, and the few remaining guests escaped. Loss $30,000.

Destructive Fire at Brampton.

Brampton, Sept. 30.—At about 4 o'clock this morning Mr. Sellum's dwelling and barns in Vodden-street were discovered to be on fire, and were entirely consumed, together with most of the contents. Two horses and a cow were burned. Loss about $2000, covered by insurance in the Norwich.

TO MEND THE LORDS.

Conservative Proposal to Make Peers Elective.

TO STRENGTHEN THE UPPER HOUSE

Unionist Leaders Desire to Make the Upper House Partly Elective, and Conservative Papers Approve and Press the Government to Act.

London, Sept. 30.—Lord Londonderry, in a speech at Ripon Friday evening, confirmed a report which first appeared in The Chronicle, that the Unionist leaders contemplate a drastic change in the constitution of the House of Lords. Lord Londonderry has been Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland and was offered, but declined, a position in the Cabinet, and he can, therefore, be regarded as an authority. He declared in favor of a second chamber with what he termed useless peers excluded. His statement did not include a definite scheme. It is too soon yet to expect a thoroughly defined plan, but it is marvelous to observe how The Chronicle's announcement that the idea of reform accepted by the Unionist chiefs was an Upper House, constituted partly of elective, partly selective elements, has been acclaimed by the Conservative press.

The Pall Mall Gazette and The Graphic comment favorably on the scheme. The Tory Globe holds that the Government ought to undertake the reform, making the Second Chamber as strong as possible. The Radical press reports, and the Radicals themselves eye the proposals askance, as tending to create a Senate, and check the powers of the House of Commons.

All Speculation Up to Date

Harold Frederic in his cable letter says:

There are persistent rumors that Lord Salisbury has decided to push forward a comprehensive scheme for reforming the House of Lords, several different forecasts of his intentions being whispered about, but I believe that the matter has not yet got beyond the stage of speculative discussion. It would be quite possible to rearrange the composition of the House of Peers so that it would be a much more effective Tory force than at present, and still seem to satisfy the principal objections of the Reformers. Very likely some such thing may be attempted before this Parliament dies, but there is no need for hurry about it.

Cecil Rhodes vs. Chamberlain.

London, Sept. 29.—Public interest is concentrated on the prospect of a big fight between Chamberlain and Cecil Rhodes. This ought, by all rules, to be a notable struggle. The last issue of the parliamentary papers reveals a remarkable position of affairs. Though ringing changes on the various provisions of the original bargain with the late Government about the Bechuanaland Railway, Rhodes is discovered now to have secured absolute ownership of the lands and minerals in all the country north of that district for himself and his company, which means the greatest territorial monopoly in history. It is argued that there are enough informalities in the record to justify the Colonial Office in repudiating the arrangement, even leaving out of consideration the issue of public policy, which is clearly against allowing these vast territories to become perpetual possessions of a little group of speculators. It is reported, too, with assurance, that Chamberlain has fully resolved to do so, and, if he does, a duel will ensue which the whole empire is prepared to watch with all its eyes.

Cable Notes.

The outburst of the murder mania in England is attributed to the abnormal heat. No day passes without a record of several murders. In London the mercury has reached 86 degrees in the shade. A man in Hartland, Devonshire, shot dead a fellow-lodger, then ran down the road, shot dead a tramp and then the keeper of a public house and finished by committing suicide. A laborer at Mexborough, Yorkshire, suddenly shot with a revolver six men, wounding all of them seriously.

Oscar Wilde is ill in Wadsworth prison. His friends allege that his sickness is caused by an insufficient diet.

The Duke of York has sold his collection of postage stamps, valued at £5000, to Baron Ferdinand Rothschild.

Shot and Killed a Burglar.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Between 4 and 5 o'clock Saturday morning Dr. Andrew Stewart, residing at 1420 O-street, was awakened by a noise in his room. He discovered a stranger and seizing a Winchester rifle which stood by his bedside, fired two shots at the intruder, one shot going into the burglar's right temple and one through his right arm. The doctor than ran down stairs and fired at two other men who were there, but they escaped from the house and have not been caught. The man who was shot died soon after. Dr. Stewart surrendered himself to the police to await the action of the coroner's jury.

Steamer Burned. Watchman Cremated.

Brooklyn, N.Y., Sept. 30.—The steamlighter David Reeves, which as lying at the pier at the foot of Thirty-second-street, Brooklyn, was destroyed by fire early this morning. Joseph Cook, a watchman on the vessel, is missing, and it is feared that he was burned to death.

$2000 Fire at Comber.

Comber, Ont., Sept. 30.—The Commercial Hotel, a large structure, and two general stores, owned and occupied by Messrs. A. M. Aubin and A. Dupuis, were destroyed by fire Saturday night. The Michigan Central Railway sent a special from Windsor with men to look after their property. The loss will amount to fully $6000.

THANKSGIVING NOV. 21

The Date Decided at Saturday's Cabinet Meeting.

LITTLE OTHER BUSINESS WAS DONE

No Decision Was Reached Touching the Date of Meeting of Parliament—The Premier and Dr Montague to Unveil the Kingston Macdonald Monument.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 30.—Thursday Nov. 21, has been chosen as Thanksgiving Day this year. This is about the same period of the year as last year, although in 1894 the date fell on the fourth Thursday. An order in council was passed Saturday fixing the 21st.

Thanksgiving Day in the States is one week later, viz., Nov. 28.

No decision was reached regarding the date of the meeting of Parliament.

Mr. George Johnson, Dominion Statistican, left for Nova Scotia yesterday for a well-earend vacation. Mr. Johnson and his staff have been hard at work all summer on the Statistical Year Book, which will be put on the press this week, as the last of the proof sheets in page form were read yesterday. The volume for 1894 consists of two parts, the record and the abstract, but it is much fuller than preceding volumes. In the hands of public men the volume will be the means of dispelling a vast amount of ignorance now prevailing about Canada and her resources. In the preface Mr. Johnson fittingly expresses his indebtedness to Messrs. J. Wilkins and J. Skead, of the statistical office, who, as in former issues, have performed the work of completing the tables in the "abstract."

The Marine Department has awarded a silver watch each to four fishermen of Seaside, Inverness County, for the gallant rescue of two neighbors whose fishing boat was capsized in a squall.

Hon. J. C. Patterson, Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, has everything in readiness for his removal to Winnipeg, and will leave in a day or two, provided his health improves.

The French committee of the Separate School Board met Saturday night and appointed the requisite number of teachers to fill the places of the Christian Brothers, 20 in all, who resigned on the 20th. Most of them are from this district, 10 of them having Ontario Normal School certificates. Father Jacques of St. Jean Baptiste parish, in this city, has returned from Ste. Hyacinthe, whither he went to endeavor to secure three Brothers of another order to come to Ottawa as teachers, but was not successful.

ARMY DECIMATED BY DISEASE.

One Section of the French Forces in Madagascar Has Only 200 Men.

London, Sept. 28.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a special dispatch from Tamatamave, Madagascar, which says that news of a serious character has been received in regard to the position of the French on the northwest front. According to these advices Gen. Duchesne has been engaged to fall back upon Mevatanana with dwrawing his advance guards, which had reached Kinaiy, 60 miles from Antanarivo. The retreat of the French has restored the confidence of the Malagassys. A large quantity of arms had reached the capital and in consequence people who formerly were thinking of flight are now volunteering to go to the front. It is reported that the physical condition of the French troops at Mevatananna is such that there are hardly 200 effective men left. The foregoing dispatch bears no date, but is presumed to be sufficiently recent to describe the existing condition of things.

BOOM BRINGS DISASTERS.

Busy Times on the Lakes Puts Coffin Ships in Commission.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Vessels arriving here report a sea on Lake Michigan yesterday and the day before such as many old mariners had never met with before. The remarkable advance in freight rates had called into service during the last ten days every available vessel, and many of these are now being heard from as injured or disabled. The steamer Atlanta of the Goodrich Line, which left Chicago for Grand Haven with 25 passengers and a full cargo, broke her main shaft off Grand Haven, and was left helpless in the heavy sea. Her distress signals were seen by the steamer Sioux City, which towed her into Grand Haven. Wreckage of an unknown steamer was floating into the harbor of Manitsique last night.

Burglar's Enter the Czar's Palace.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 29.—The private chapel of the Peterhof Palace was entered recently by burglars during the night while the Czar was sleeping in an adjacent part of the palace. Similar laxity on the part of the police lately resulted in a fire destroying an apartment called the Silver Salon, in the winter palace at Tzarskoe-Seloe.

A New York Village Ablaze.

Newburg, N.Y., Sept. 28.—At Marlboro, a small village near here, the Exchange Hotel and surrounding buildings are burned, and the whole village is threatened. Help has been sent from here and Kingston.

A Milwaukee Elevator Burned.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 28.—A wheat elevator belonging to Paine Bros. & Co., was burned last night. Loss $30,000; partly insured.

Women, who seem to be all worn out, will find in purified blood, made rich and healthy by Hood's Sarsaparilla, permanent relief and strength. The following is from a well known nurse:

"I have suffered for years with female complaints and kidney troubles and I have had a great deal of medical advice during that time, but have received little or no benefit. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and I began to use it, together with Hood's Pills. I have realised more benefit from these medicines than from anything else I have ever taken. From my personal experience I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be a most complete blood purifier." MRS. C. CROMPTON, 71 Cumberland St., Toronto, Ontario.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1895.

THE immense crop of corn in the South Western States, estimated to be 25,000,000 bushels, will no doubt lower the price of hogs. There is no market for such an immense crop, and it will have to be fed to hogs, cattle and horses. In many districts of the States it is said that the winter's fuel will be corn, the same as ours is coal. The surfeit of corn will naturally bring about a surplus of hogs and also of fat cattle in the western markets of the United States. Anticipating this, prices are already falling. Pork in Chicago has in times past frequently been nearly three times as high as it is now, and the prices was not considered out of the way. Yet, though it is almost down to $7 a barrel, dealers expect it to go still lower.

THE women of Toronto are affected, it appears, with floral kleptomania. Mr. Chambers, the caretaker of the public parks and gardens of the city, says that women take little scissors from their little satchels and snip little sprigs from the middle of his finest flower beds. They are wealthy and educated women who ought to know better. The porcine proclivities with which Hamilton credits Torontonians seems to lurk under silken bodices and pervade garments of fine linen. If it's going to improve the morals of the people, Toronto had better introduce the World's Sunday street cars at once. The people seem to think themselves so good that it is no sin for them to do what would be mortal crimes for anyone outside that highly moral city.

FROM the apparently overwhelming parliamentary majority obtained by the Conservatives in the recent British elections, it is argued that the victorious party is firmly entrenched in power for a long time. But there are circumstances that modify this view. Though the parliamentary majority at the back of the present Conservative Government is large, the popular majority is very small. A statement recently compiled, shows that while the majority in seats is 152, the actual majority by votes is only 10. British popular opinion is by no means a constant quantity, but is subject to rather capricious change, and with only ten of a popular majority, the Salisbury Government may awaken some fine morning to the fact that the electoral wind has veered; and, according to the figures quoted, it would take a very slight change to drive his ship on the sands of opposition. "Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall."

WHAT a change is here my countrymen! If the late W. H. Scott, James F. Dennistoun, W. A. Scott, D. G. Hatton and other Conservative stalwarts of former days were permitted to leave their graves and re-visit Peterborough, they would doubtless be glad to return in haste to the seclusion of their narrow beds, when they beheld the great Conservative party in Peterborough reduced to the necessity of delegating Messrs. C. W. Sawers, Wesley Miller and J. Graham Weir and a band of music and small boys, to welcome the Conservative premier of the Dominion to the premier town of the Confederation. Mr. Miller's presence is perhaps to be accounted for as representing the missing link between the old-time Conservatives and the green "Eye-opener" wing of the party. It has not been made public yet whether Mr. Miller was successful in persuading the Premier to accept a roll of "Eye-openers" as current coin for a comfortable office for Mr. Miller, as a recognition of his heroic work, in conjunction with the bewitching Margaret L. Shepherd, in securing the co-operation of the P.A.A. with the Conservative party in the late local election.

THE Saturday Night comes to the conclusion that the municipal system is defective, one striking instance of which it cites—the inadequacy of the system to deal rightly with the water supply of the city of Toronto. Our ootem. seems to argue that the people are not intelligent enough to be entrusted with the duty of pronouncing upon the expenditure of money for such purposes—"they are led blindfolded into ventures of which they understand nothing." The municipal system is not supposed to find brains and business ability and honesty, specially for Toronto aldermen; and, judging from recent revelations of aldermanic turpitude and incompetency the people should be blamed for selecting the blind leaders who "lead them blindfolded to ventures of which they know nothing." To blame the municipal system, which, it may be admitted, is not without its weak points, is to exonerate the dunderheaded civic administration, that has made such a conspicuous muddle of the Toronto waterworks affairs. Wooden conduits, and woodheaded aldermen, with consciences of gutta percha, explain a good deal more of waterworks shortcomings than defects in the municipal system.

MUST FIGHT TWICE FOR HIS LIFE.

Durant Must Face the Second Charge After This Trial.

San Francisco, Sept. 30.—To the hundreds who daily attend the Durant trial, as well as the hundreds of thousands who read of it, all interest is centred in the mystery of Blanche Lamon's murder, and in the intensity of view, few stop to think of the legal aspect of the Minnie Williams' case. But the attorneys on both sides, busy as they are in unravelling the story of Blanche Lamont's murder, are vigilant day and night in huntig evidence in the Williams' case.

It is not generally known that Durant must stand a second trial for murder at the conclusion of the present dramatic ordeal. Whether found guilty or innocent in the celebrated case at the bar, he will have to make another fight for his life. If found guilty on the charge of murdering Blanche Lamont, the case will go to the Supreme Court, where it may linger for years with doubtful results. Meantime the state does not intend to slumber until the evidence in the Williams' case is dissipated and weakened by time, deaths, the removal of witnesses and other causes. So Durant will be tried again within a reasonable time after the termination of the case now in progress. In other words, the trial for the murder of Minnie Williams, in any event will proceed as if such a thing as the Lamont case had never been heard of.

Should Durant be hanged during the second hearing, his death would be brought to the judicial knowledge of the court, and should he be acquitted, a more desperate attempt would be made to secure a conviction in the Williams' case.

One of the great points in the Williams' case will be the finding of the murdered girl's purse in Durant's clothes. The defence will claim Durant found it at 23rd and Bartlett-streets, and that, had he been guilty of the murder, he would have put it from him.

BRITISH STEAMER FIRED ON.

High-Handed Action of a Spanish Gunboat Off Cuba.

New York, Sept. 30.—A special to The Herald from Kingston, Jamaica, says: The captain of the British steamship Alene of the Atlas Line reported yesterday that his ship was fired upon by a Spanish gunboat Thursday morning at exactly 7 o'clock. The Alene was bound from New York to Kingston, and was off Cape Maysi, when the gunboat appeared in her wake and without warning threw three shots after her. The Alene at once hoisted her colors and turned about on her course. The Spanish war vessel followed in pursuit until she was within a mile of the Alene, when she reversed her course, put on full steam, and, as if disdaining to give an explanation, sailed swiftly away. Many Americans on board the British steamship were extremely indignant over the matter.

Ecuador Generals Charged With Treason.

New York, Sept. 28.—The Herald's special from Panama says: Guayaquil, Ecuador, advices state that Generals Bowen and Trivino will be tried by court martial as traitors for complicity in a plot to overthrow General Alfaro. It is reported that the latest disclosures in regard to the alleged plot show that the conspiracy included a design to assassinate General Alfaro, for which purpose a subordinate officer was chosen by ballot.

The correspondent says that in all probability Bowen and Trivino will be shot or sentenced to life imprisonment. There is great indignation against them in Guayaquil, and press and public cry for their execution.

Trade of the Week.

New York, Sept. 28.—Bradstreet's says: In the Province of Quebec general trade shows improvement since August. Demand is active for sugar, teas and canned goods, and with settled weather it is believed orders for dry goods will be improved. At Toronto wholesale business is comparatively quiet, but prospects are for an active business. Advices from St. John, N.B., are that wholesale trade is quite satisfactory, many customers from a distance being present. The Nova Scotia apple crop will not be as large as last year, but the quality will be good. Bank clearings at Winnipeg, Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal, and Halifax aggregate $19,263,000 this week, a falling off of about 4 per cent. from last week and 2 per cent., as compared with the like week one year ago, but an increase of 10 per cent. as contrasted with the like period in 1893. There are 1336 mercantile failures reported from the Canadian Dominion during the past nine months, 86 fewer than in the like portion of last year. The reduction in the total volume of liabilities of failing traders in the Dominion is even more marked, 37 per cent., and is well distributed throughout the more thickly-settled provinces.

Prof. Williamson of Queen's Dead.

Kingston, Sept. 27.—Rev. Dr. Williamson, professor of astronomy in Queen's University, is dead, after a brief illness, ager 87 years. He joined the staff of Queen's in 1842, and was its oldest professor. His second wife was a sister of the late Sir John Macdonald.

BODICES AND COATS.

Models of the Blouse Jacket Which is Indispensable in the Mountains.

Bodices in these days are collections of trimmings, and are rarely seen matching the skirt in color or fabric. For soft, fluffy bodices there are almost as many textures as there are different designs. In Paris palm leaf silk is used for waists and is the very latest vogue. There is also a new gauze, the tones of which are almost perfect. Of course, they are very brilliant, and often there will be three bright colors, blending from one to the other, requiring quite a study to determine where one leaves off and the other commences. For instance, a beautiful red shades into a green and from that into a brown, the belt and throat ribbon being of any of the desired shades.

Then there comes the blouse jacket, which is indispensible for cool nights and mornings in the mountains, and is very jauty and smart. The first model is a blouse jacket made of blue serge, with a short fluted basque, worn over a white batiste waist. The tailor-made collar and pointed revers are stitched around the edge, as is the waistband, which is fastened with two buttons in the front. Full gigot sleeves, with the cuffs of batiste like the under waist, are turned back from the hands, over the sleeves. This is a very useful garment, available for contingencies.

Another jacket, rather more dainty, is made of white mohair, lined through with silk, either white or a delicate tint. It has side seams only and none in the back, which is like an Eaton jacket. The front is cut in two long tabs and stitched around the edges three or four times. The upper part is ornamented with buttons along the the edge. There are full gigot sleeves stitched in the same manner as the jacket about the wrists. This is worn over a silk blouse waist.

A very girlish model is of brown cloth. The low-neck round collar is edged with a narrow band of white cloth, stitched flat on both sides. It is finished with four white pearl buttons down each side of the front, which opens over a white mull shirt. The sleeves are of the full gigot model and are finished with white cloth cuffs, stitched on the upper edge. A white linen skirt, with stiff front and collar may be worn with this.

The fourth model shown here is a bolero jacket made of Pique. The back and sides are tight-fitting, and are finished with a basque in three flutes, but the front hangs loose to the waist in a double box pleat on either side. A square sailor collar and deep turn-back cuffs ornamented with buttons finish this very dainty jacket.—New York Sun.

FIRE EATING

No Worse Than Fruit Eating When it is Understood.

The so-called fire-eating magicians have long plied their trade in defiance of all explanations of chemists and physicians. A clever prestidigitateur, Mr. De Vere, described recently in La Nature how the trick, for such it is, is done. It is very simple of practice, but it necessitates an apparatus which must be very carefully and neatly constructed. The fire-eaters usually give their performances on a raised platform, which hides the source of the fire, while it seems only to lift the operator a trifle higher from the floor of the scene, and it is ordinarily covered with a handsome red carpet. It contains in the hollow space beneath it bags of rubber filled with ordinary illuminating gas and compressed by weights.

The fire-eater has beneath the sole of his foot an ingenius apparatus ending in a tube which fits exactly into another tube coming up through the platform from underneath, and forming a tight connection when he steps upon it; very fine rubber tubes of the same color of the magician's dress, which is usually a diabolical scarlet red, run up along his body and along the arms to the furthest end of the index fingers; another tube runs around his neck and up under his chin, which is usually covered by a false beard, ending at his nether lip.

When entering upon the stage all the lights are usually turned down to heighten the effect of the performance; the operator steps lightly upon the platform, makes his connection, and, after a sign that he is ready, the gas is turned on from beneath. When he feels that it is beginning to escape from the tube at the end of his finger he lights it by means of a little push button, which is conveniently located near by, and sometimes even within his clothes on the inside of the cloak. The gas once burning he has it entirely under his control, to light or turn out any one of the various jets he has previously arranged about his body. The jets on the fingers are controlled by pressure of the thumb upon the thin rubber tube; the gas jet on his lip is lighted by a motion of the hand, and he always turns up his face, opens his mouth wide and pretends to blow the flame from the mouth. The appearance is very deceptive, indeed, as the breath blown from the lungs give much life to the flame. As the scene is never very light while the fire-eaters are at work, their secret has never before been discovered.

Hope.

We sailed upon the desert sea,
Where for whole days we alone seemed to be,
At last we saw a dim, vague line arise
Between the lonely billows and the skies,
That grew and grew until it wore the shape
Of cove and inlet, promontory and cape;
Then hills and valleys, rivers, fields and woods,
Steeples and roofs and village neighborhoods.
And then I thought, "Some time I shall embark
Upon a sea more desert and more dark
Than ever this was, and between the skies
And lonely billows I shall see arise
Another world out of that waste and lapse,
Like yonder land. Perhaps—perhaps—perhaps."

—William Rean Howells, in Harper's Magazine for September.

is sold on a guarantee, it cures Incipient Consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a dose. 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00. Sold by John Nugent, 289 George street.

Valuable to Know.

Consumption can be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all pulmonary troubles.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Many a boy starts out in life with the firm determination of conquering the world. He means to achieve success and wealth and fame. His intentions are good, and his will is strong. If he has the bodily strength to carry him through, his efforts will be crowned with achievement. Bodily strength and health are his greatest capital. Without them he can hope for nothing. How many young men and young women are cut off just when the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. Consumption has been considered incurable, and the medical profession has never made a greater mistake than this. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections. There is no reason why the child of consumptive parents need ever have consumption if its blood and lungs are strengthened by the proper use of the "Discovery." All who have any reason to fear consumption, should read the chapters on that disease in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great medical work of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, has reached a sale of over 680,000 copies. It will be sent free of charge on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from [illegible] prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story :—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	Per Cent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.63	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

Church Extension.

It is understood that a member of St. John's congregation has presented the church with a valuable building lot on the corner of Barnado avenue and Conger street, opposite the North Ward school. The gift is conditional on the erection of a suitable building for Sunday school and purposes of worship. In compliance with the conditions it is probable that the congregation will take advantage of the generous offer and that a building will be erected this fall or next spring.

Mr. Stothart also took first prize for 2-year old Holstein bull, which was also incorrectly credited to another person.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders, and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

TWO CURLING CLUBS.

Four Rinks Can go in for the Tankard This Year.

A meeting of the members of the Curling Club was called Friday evening to consider the advisability of forming two distinct clubs this year instead of one. There has not been any split in the ranks to cause a division, but if there are two clubs in the town four instead of two rinks can enter the tankard series, and as there are fully two hundred curlers in the town, two very strong clubs can be formed.

After some little discussion the members decided therefore to divide, the respective clubs to be known hereafter as the Thistles and Granites. Each club will control its own finances and each will be charged the same rental and have the privilege of using the rink on alternate evenings. In the day time the ice will be common for any player to use. A reference committee, which will settle any points in dispute, will be composed of three elected members from each club.

The meeting during the evening was occupied by Mr. Geo. Edmison. Mr. R. H. D. Hall acted as secretary. Meetings of the two new clubs will be called immediately for the election of officers. The membership of the two clubs will be arranged as was the divisions in previous years into two sections. A large amount of new blood will be introduced this year.

Constable Moore Identifies the Tramps at Cobourg.

Constable Moore has returned from Cobourg, where he identified the two tramps under arrest there, as being present at the battle of "Heap's Run." The evidence in the case, if the tramps are brought here, will doubtless be interesting. They are at present held at Cobourg, being captured there only after a hard fight.

Presentation at Auburn.

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. Adam Turner, Auburn, last Friday evening, when the workers and their families in the Union Sabbath School met at Mr. Turner's residence, and after enjoying a friendly tea together presented Mr. Turner with a beautifully bound copy of the Psalms of David, and Mrs. Turner with a beautiful Morrocco-bound teacher's reference Bible. This was more fully appreciated as Mr. and Mrs. Turner are about moving away after being permanent residents of Auburn for a number of years, and faithful workers in the Sabbath school.

Fined $25 Each.

Several Americans have been shooting partridge in the north country without a license, under the shelter of a Canadian guide, and information having been supplied Mr. H. K. Smith, game warden, Belleville, he appeared on the scene on Tuesday last at Sandy Point, and imposed two fines of $25 each. Americans must take out a license and pay $25 before they can hunt or shoot game in the Province of Ontario. It is understood that Mr. Smith is after some of the cottagers in the north part of the lake for having game in their possession out of season.

An Interesting Career.

Peterborough will be visited at an early date by Monsieur Jehin Prume, the eminent Belgian violinist, who travelled through Germany, Poland and Russia, and in the latter country had the honour of playing repeatedly before the Emperor. On his return to Belgium after these brilliant successes, he received the title of violinist to H. M. the King of Belgium, a title which, until then, had never been granted except to Vieuxtemps and DeBeriot. This great artist will be assisted by Mr. Harold Jarvis, Tenor, 1st Presbyterian Church, (Detroit), Miss Agnes Dunlop, Contralto, and Mrs. Blight, Accompanist. As the subscriber's list for this Grand Concert is rapidly filling up, those wishing first choice of seats should avail themselves of placing their names upon the list.

Ministerial Association.

The Ministerial Association resumed work, this morning, and reassembled in the Y.M.C.A. parlours for the first time since the summer holidays. Rev. W. R. Young was elected president for the ensuing year, and Rev. J. J. Rae was chosen to perform the duties of secretary. The union services for Thanksgiving Day were discussed, and it was decided to hold them this year in the George street church. Rev. J. J. Rae was requested to deliver the sermon on this occasion. Mr. Smith, the new secretary of the Y.M.C.A., was introduced and asked the assistance of the Ministerial Association. It was resolved to co-operate with him in working in the interests of the Y.M.C.A. At the November meeting of the Association Rev. Mr. Cragg will read a paper on the "Ethics of Holiness." The attendance at this, the first session of the Association, was very large, and the members begin their work this year with renewed interest.

Grand Trunk Annual Western Excursions.

The Grand Trunk Railway will run its annual western excursion to Chicago, Detroit and points west on October 3rd, 4th and 5th, 1895. Return fares from Peterborough, to travel by all regular trains, are as under:

From Peterborough to Port Huron and Detroit, $8.
To Saginaw and Bay City, $9.
To Cleveland, $8.50.
To Grand Rapids, $10.
To Cincinnati and Chicago, $12.
To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (all rail) $35.
To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (via lake route between Sarnia and Sault Ste. Marie), $36.50. All tickets good to return on or before Oct. 21st.

The great attraction of this excursion is that passengers will have the opportunity of passing through the celebrated St. Clair Tunnel, the greatest submarine tunnel in the world. Its total length with approaches is over three miles. Its cost was over three millions of dollars. For tickets and reservation of berths apply to J. P. Hurley, city ticket agent, or Wm. Hawden, station agent. 3d76

BARNARDO HOME SERVICE

Held in St. John's Church Last Evening —Sermon by the Rector.

Last evening, at St. John's church, the rector delivered the first of a series of sermons for the benefit of local institutions. Dr. Barnardo's work was the subject for his inaugural sermon. Between fifty and sixty of the Barnardo children were in attendance, accompanied by the staff of the Home. The little ones were all very warmly dressed and looked most comfortable. Sunday school scholars to the number of seventy-five from the Mission building and St. John's were also in attendance and were seated in a body in the centre of the church.

The service was bright and hearty in the extreme and was adapted to the children, the hymns rendered being those most familiar to the little ones.

The rector, as his text, took the words "Leave thy fatherless children and I will preserve them alive." He choose this text, he stated, because it was an indication of the disposition towards children of Almighty God, of His church and of the great institution in whose behalf the service was being conducted.

In the year 1866, he stated, Dr. Barnardo had brought to his lodgings in London a wretched homeless lad, and touched with the thought of how many other homeless children there were in London, he was led gradually to organize his great work of rescuing, sheltering and defending them. Since that time no less than 26,000 children had been rescued, trained and put out to service, 7,500 had emigrated, and at present in the different Homes there were 4,500 children.

The rector then went on to state the different steps taken with children after they were taken under the care of the agents until they were placed out in homes, where they were regularly visited twice a year. If the child proved a failure it was sent back to England, and if simply unsuitable for the place would be transferred to another. The children always regarded the Toronto and Peterborough centres as homes, indeed, being always treated with the utmost kindness at these places. He thought the great work should have the sympathy of all Canadians, more especially those of the town of Peterborough.

In conclusion, the rector explained that his reasons for bringing the work forward into notice was that as citizens of Peterborough we should know something of a Peterborough institution, which asked for no funds but spent thousands of dollars in our midst, and made the town known all over Canada as well as England. The work, too, showed the possibility which lay before human enterprise when backed by the Almighty's power. He kindly took this opportunity of recognizing the help which was being given to the churches of the town by the staff of the institution who were devoted working members of our congregation.

A special offertory was taken up to assist in defraying the expense of providing an organ for the Home. While there seemed to be considerable interest manifested in the subject, yet the financial car of the congregation was evidently not reached, as the amount raised was not sufficient for the purpose intended.

To those not in sympathy with the movement, as being foreign, Mr. Davidson directed an appeal on behalf of the work of the local Children's Aid Society.

DIOCESAN ITEMS.

Church of England News of Local Interest.

On Saturday last, Archdeacon Allen, of Millbrook, presided at a meeting held at the residence of Rev. J. C. Davidson for the purpose of making arrangements for the holding of the annual Arch-diaconal meeting of the local division of the diocese. The meeting will take place on November 27th and 28th and the programme will embrace several important present day subjects. It is expected that about thirty of the clergy will be present for the two days. Those present at the Saturday preliminary meeting were Archdeacon Allen, of Millbrook; Rural Dean Cooper, of Campbellford; Rev. J. C. Davidson, of Peterborough, and Rev. H. Symonds, of Ashburnham.

Last week at a meeting of the Rural Deanery, of Durham, in Millbrook, Rev. W. C. Allen, son of Archdeacon Allen, of Millbrook, was appointed Rural Dean to succeed Rev. J. Creighton, whose term of office has expired.

Harvest festival services will be held in Lakefield to-morrow evening in St. John's Church to be followed by a Harvest Home dinner on Wednesday.

Archdeacon Allen conducted Harvest Home Festival services in Gore's Landing last week.

APSLEY AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION.

A Most Successful Affair.

Mr. Thomas Blezard, M.P.P., visited the Apsley show on Tuesday last, and reports that the roots and vegetables were excellent, that the grain and butter could not have been improved upon, and that the stock looked as sleek as young deer. The fine appearance of the stock is due to more abundant rains than visited the southern portion of the county. The ladies' work was surprising in its excellence. The large attendance showed the interest taken by the people of the district in a really excellent exhibition.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

The students at the Canadian General Electric Works banquetted Mr. H. T. Hartmann, on Saturday evening at the Oriental.

Mr. Hartmann severs his connection with the works on about the 15th, and the students took this method of demonstrating to him the popularity which he enjoyed amongst them.

The chair was occupied during the evening by Mr. W. H. Moore, and twenty-five students were seated around the festive board as well as a few favoured guests. A formal toast list was proposed and responded to as follows: Our Guest, Mr. H. T. Hartmann; the Electrical Profession, Mr W. J. McKenzie; The Students, Mr. Bell; The Engineering Department, Mr. Williamson; The Ladies, Mr. Hibbard. Songs were contributed to the evening's entertainment by Messrs. Hicks, Robertson, McKenzie and Gordon. Mr. Bell played a brilliant violin solo, and Mr. Burnham gave a tasty selection on the guitar.

The foremen of the Works, it is understood, intend banquetting Mr. Hartman at the Huffman House, prior to his departure.

POLICE COURT ITEMS.

A Whole Grist of Cases From the Magistrate's Mill.

Joseph Graham pleaded guilty before Police Magistrate Dumble this morning to a charge of removing some oats from the premises of Eli Stimlen, his half brother. On account of the relationship between the prisoner and the complainant the magistrate thought that Graham would naturally take more liberties than he would with anyone else, and discharged him on payment of the costs.

Thomas Tully, charged with creating a disturbance week before last in his mother's house, whose case had been enlarged, was given until evening to get out of town by the magistrate. The penalty if caught inside the limits is fixed at six months in the Central prison.

A boy who has been playing truant for some time was walked up to school by P. C. McGinty, this morning, and received due chastisement with the assurance that the dose would be increased on the occasion of each arrest on a similar charge.

P. C. McGinty impounded two cows this morning. A bill of three dollars damages has been made out against their owners by a resident on north Aylmer street, whose garden was destroyed.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Roy and Miss Gladys have returned from a trip east.

Mr. Jas. Taylor, Gilmour street, is home on a visit from Ottawa.

Miss Maud Flemming, is the guest of Mrs. O. Lynn, in Hastings.

Mrs. J. Lancashire and child, Millbrook, are visiting friends in town.

Dr. Fitzgerald has returned to town after spending a couple of days east.

Mrs. Boughton, of Buffalo, daughter of Mr. Cluxton, is in town on a visit.

Mr. A. Marlow returned Friday, to Toronto, after spending a few days with friends in town.

Miss May Richardson has returned from the Northwest, where she has been spending several months.

Mr. Lewis, of the Bank of Montreal, returned home on Saturday evening somewhat improved in health.

Mr. Z. White, of White's Mills, was in town Saturday, also Mr. Burnett, of Burnett's Mills, Crow Bay, Rice Lake.

Rev. E. Stephenson left this afternoon for his home in Cayuga, where he will spend the remainder of the week.

Sir Oliver Mowat is in mid-ocean on the steamer Vancouver on his way home from his summer visit to the Old Country.

Mrs. Folsom, of Chicago, daughter of Mr. Jos. Walton, Lakefield, after visiting friends in Lakefield and Peterborough, has returned home.

Mr. Adam Hall accompanied his daughter, Miss Katie M. Hall, to Toronto, where she enters the Presbyterian Ladies' College, of that city.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox was in town Saturday. This week Mr. Cox will attend the Methodist Mission Board meeting in Montreal, and the next three weeks thereafter he will spend in Manitoba.

The Fenelon Falls Gazette says: Mrs. Jones, is in Peterborough, in consequence of the death in that town of the infant child of her youngest son, Mr. Robt. Jones. She will probably remain in Peterborough for about a fortnight.

Mr. H. V. Smith, of Pictou, Nova Scotia, the newly-appointed general secretary of the local Y.M.C.A., has arrived in town, and will enter upon his duties the first of October. He will be pleased to see all young men at the rooms.

Mr. W. A. Shaw, representative of Octavius Newcome & Co., piano manufacturers, Toronto, was in town on Saturday. Mr. Shaw purposes removing to Peterborough in the interests of the Company and hereafter this town will be his headquarters.

Mr. W. A. Smith, Inspector of the Scottish Union and National Fire Insurance Co'y, of Edinburgh, was in town Saturday in the interests of his Company, and previous to leaving town appointed Mr. H. B. Meharry as local agent for Peterborough.

Rev. Carl Smith will arrive in town on Wednesday next to assume his duties as second assistant in connection with St. John's congregation. By an arrangement between the wardens and assistant wardens a portion of Mr. Smith's stipend will be provided out of the parochial fund and while his pastoral work will be chiefly south of Charlotte street, his services will be at the disposal of the parish generally. Mr. Smith and his family will reside on Rubidge street, nearly opposite the South Ward Mission.

The firm of Kerr & Kerr, barristers and solicitors, have opened an office in Peterborough, which will, we learn, be especially in charge of Mr. Francis D. Kerr, the junior member of the firm, who will reside in Peterborough. We wish the new firm plenty of clients and business, and are sure those entrusting their interests to Mr. Kerr's charge will find that they will be well attended to. Mr. Kerr has been most successful at college and in law, and since he passed his examinations and became a lawyer, has won considerable credit by his management of a number of cases tried here. He is an excellent speaker, and although his political speeches will no doubt be made in favour of the bad, naughty Grits, they will be good speeches and fair. We shall be sorry to have him leave here, where he has always been a great favourite, but prophesy for him success and many friends in Peterborough.—Cobourg Sentinel-Star.

FOUND GUILTY

And Sentenced to One Year in the Central Prison.

Fred Somers, Frank McDermott and Duncan McCrae, the three tramps who were charged with breaking into Notre Dame convent and taking therefrom a watch and various other articles belonging to the caretaker, were sentenced on Friday to a year in the Central Prison. The prisoners had no counsel and Mr. F. D. Kerr, of Kerr & Kerr, being the junior member of the bar present, was called upon by the Chancellor to conduct their defense, which he did most ably. The case of the Crown was taken by R. C. Clute, Q. C., and the jury brought in a verdict of "guilty" after being out forty minutes.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

Mr. Baptiste Odette and Mr. Guerin Meet with Injuries.

Mr. Baptiste Odette, employed at the Peterborough Canoe Company's factory, was severely injured on Friday by a piece of wood, which flew from a fret saw, and striking him on the chest, crushed him to such an extent as to necessitate his removal to his home on Crescent street.

Mr. Guerin, an employee at the Canadian General Electric Works, had the end of one of his fingers taken off at the second knuckle by a tin cutting machine on Friday.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections.

Send 31 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.

Just see Crafton & Co's Double Breasted Men's Suits, in black and blue Serge at $8.50, made-to-order price $14.00.

AID FOR THE GRAY FAMILY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—The most of your readers, I think, will have agreed with your remarks of yesterday's issue in regard to the Gray murder trial. The question now arises "What are we going to do about it?" Here we have, as you say, a man and his wife and six children, after having been kept for several months in prison, thrown out upon the world without one single cent, because, forsooth, certain amateur and professional detectives thought they had an opportunity to add to their already sufficient notoriety. I need not point out that every one connected with these people has been, or will be amply paid for their services, and it does not become any the less aggravating to know that out of the pockets of the ratepayers of the Town and County of Peterborough, the money largely comes to pay these gentlemen. I understand there is no probability of any compensation being made to the accused by the Crown, for all they have suffered and endured, and agree with you that this is one of the cases in which law and justice are not synonymous terms. Do you not think, Mr. Editor, if only as a protest against "Detective Justice," some efforts should be made to help these poor people? I would suggest that joint appeals should be made through the columns of the Review and EXAMINER on their behalf, and shall be only too pleased to hand you my cheque for $5.00, as a small evidence of sincerity in the matter. Meantime I beg to remain;

Yours truly,
ENGLISH JUSTICE.

Peterborough, Sept. 28th, 1895.

That the feeling expressed in the above letter is not merely local, it may be mentioned that the Globe of Saturday had an article on the subject largely on the lines of that issued in THE EXAMINER. While the proposal of "English Justice" to procure a monetary contribution to the finances of the Gray family is worthy of the heartiest practical sympathy, it should not be forgotten that this does not remove the anomalous conditions that permit of persons being put to so much shame, inconvenience and actual loss without the law providing a proper remedy. The law is mighty prompt to come down on a newspaper that in the emergency of daily journalism, and without proper opportunities for investigation, prints a statement respecting a citizen that may be found a little wide of the facts, while the machinery of the law, moving with every possible opportunity for deliberative action, can make what proves to be unfounded charges, with no opportunity for redress. THE EXAMINER will be happy to receive and account for contributions to the Gray family fund, proposed and handsomely headed by "English Justice."

A LINDSAY YOUNG LADY NEARLY KILLED IN OPS.

Hit with a Chair—Kicked and Pounded in a Most Cruel Manner—The Assailant Crazed by Religion.

A terrible assault case, nearly resulting in the death of Miss O'Neill, daughter of Mr. J. R. O'Neill, of Lindsay, took place in Ops township, a few miles from there, on Wednesday last. Miss O'Neil was visiting at the house of a Mr. Roddy, a well-to-do farmer, and during his absence in the field plowing, she was attacked by young Roddy, who is about 20 years of age, and beaten in a severe manner, being almost killed.

Roddy first knocked his victim down with a chair and then kicked and pounded her about the head and body, leaving her insensible. Her head and face were severely cut and bruised, and Dr. Poole, who was called in, found it necessary to put several stitches in the wounds. Young Roddy has been observed to be mentally unbalanced for some days past and was being closely watched. It is a religious craze. He was bound hand and foot by the neighbours, and on Thursday brought to Lindsay by Chief Bell and lodged in jail.

Maltine with Coca Wine Feeds the Nerves.

Are you all run down? Are you tired in body? weary in mind? Does lassitude burden and unfit you for mental or physical labour? Does sleeplessness rob you of mental force? make your days a weariness and night a torment? In brief, is life rapidly becoming a burden to you? Thousands are living in this miserable condition while relief from this worst of mental and physical conditions may be speedily obtained by the use of Maltine with Coca Wine. It is a real tonic, for it builds up the body, gives strength and vigor to the nerves, supplies pure rich blood, restores appetite, and adds wonderfully to the digestive power of the stomach. Maltine with Coca Wine is a builder—builds nerve, builds muscle, builds bone. It gives vim and nerve. It braces, not as a stimulating agent; it braces because it cures. That is what you need. All druggists sell it.

THE BANK OF MONTREAL AND THE CARBON WORKS.

At the council meeting on Friday evening last Mr. Cox is reported to have said that on his arrival from England he found the Bank of Montreal pressing the Carbon Company and desiring to place it in liquidation. It is to be freely accepted that Mr. Cox did not mean to convey the impression that the bank was "pressing its claim" in the sense in which the term is generally understood, as it was with the full knowledge and approval of the directors and shareholders of the Carbon Company that the Bank was taking the only course that could be taken under the circumstances to protect its large interests involved. The board of directors and shareholders are unanimous in the feeling that the Bank of Montreal has been liberal, to the extreme limits of business courtesy, in its dealings with the Carbon Company, and it was only after a man had been placed in possession by another creditor, that the shareholders and directors decided that they should either liquidate or assign, and to that end the bank was consulted, and favoured liquidation in place of assignment. Mr. Cox, it is evident, did not intend to leave the impression, which the published version of his remarks seems to have created, to the effect that the bank forced the Carbon Company into its present position, as the facts, above given, indicate.

NEWS NUGGETS

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—The Board of Education meets to morrow evening.

—Campbellford won a relay race from Cobourg last week.

—The cold nights are raising the hopes of the curlers for an early winter.

—Thursday, November 21st, has been proclaimed Thanksgiving Day.

—The Lady True Blues will give an "at home" in their hall on Simcoe street, on Thursday, Oct. 3rd.

—An enlarged photograph of Dr. Barnardo has been placed on exhibition in G A. Schofield's Drug Store.

—The Children's Aid Society has a fine, healthy, clever boy of six years of age for adoption—parentage unknown.

—The steamers North Star and Beaver arrived in port on Saturday, laden with passengers and market produce.

—Pedro still continues to increase in popularity. It would be a good thing if a tournament was organized to boil down the players.

—The steamer North Star, with a scow load of bridge material for the erection of Rosa's Point bridge, manufactured at the Central Bridge Works, town, arrived at that point Saturday.

—A tramp named Murphy was remanded for a week this morning by the magistrate. The fellow is thought to be one of the gang which has infested the outskirts of the town for some time.

—We have been publishing accounts of big weeds, corn stalks, etc., says the Millbrook reporter, and this week Mr. G. F. Elliott comes forward with a big sunflower with 77 heads, which is certainly a clinker.

—Commodore H. Calcutt has a gang of men engaged in underbrushing and enlarging the Jubilee Point ball grounds at this popular summer resort. He intends enlarging it some two or three acres, thereby enabling all sorts of games, as well as lacrosse, to be played there next season. The trees on the northern section of the park will als be thinned out during the winter months, and no doubt the Commodore will have next season one of the best ball grounds with natural grand stand in the Province.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing kidney and bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN KIDNEY CURE." This new remedy is a great surprise and delight on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by H. S. McDonald.

Like a Swelling Tide.

is the increasing demand for Osh-k-Osh Tea. This is the best forty cent tea on the Canadian market. This is no idle talk boast. It stays at the head of the head of its class, and is being sold at the low figure of twenty-five cents. Like our thirty-five cent tea, it is a leader; but unlike it in this respect—you can always buy our thirty-five cent tea for thirty-five cents, but shortly you will have to pay forty cents for Osh-k-Osh. PALMER RUN DOWN.

Hamilton Absconding Cashier Caught at Jordan.

WAS HEADING FOR THE STATES.

He Had Walked the 26 Miles and Disguised Himself by Shaving His Moustache and Cropping His Hair - $2500 Found in His Pockets.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 28.—W. B. Palmer, the cashier of the Bank of Commerce, who absconded on Wednesday afternoon was cleverly captured yesterday by Detective Reid at Jordan and brought back to the city to-night. He is now securely behind the bars at No. 2 Police Station, and will appear at Saturday morning's police Court to answer the serious charge hanging over him.

The defaulting cashier took rather a peculiar method of getting out, for he footed it to Jordan.

When he left the bank he made for the Mountain and through fields and across sideroads he journeyed eastward in his wild flight for safety, while the bank officials were driving to the different stations to discover what train he had taken.

En route he had his moustache cut off and his hair cropped to his scalp and this was almost sufficient disguise to make him unrecognizable by his friends. He looked more like a T., H. & B. laborer than a bank cashier.

When Detective Reid walked [illegible] and arrested him he said nothing. A search of his pockets was made and about $2500 in bills was found, which was handed over to Manager Roberts of the bank. Besides the money taken it is believed a big deficiency will be discovered. Palmer was heading for the States.

NO OFFER MADE TO MR CALLAWAY.

The Report That He Declined the G.T.R. General Managership Denied—No Changes Looked For.

Montreal, Sept. 28.—The press despatches from Chicago saying that Mr. Callaway had been offered and declined the general managership of the Grand Trunk Railway is an invention pure and simple. Mr. L. J. Seargent, the present popular general manager, is still on deck and will probably remain there for some time to come. In conversation with a high official to-day the opinion was expressed that it was quite uncertain whether any read important changes in the management of the road in Canada would take place, but if so, such changes would not certainly come about until Sir Charles Rivers Wilson had had time to reach London and to go over the whole question of management with his fellow directors.

The first Provincial Council of Bishops was entered upon to-day by the arrival of the Suffragan Bishops in the city. Their lordships reached St. Henri in the morning, when Bishop Eward of Valleyfield preached a sermon, after which Bishop Moreau of St. Hyacinthe, Eward of Valleyfield, Larocque of Sherbrooke, Descelles, coadjutator to the Bishop of St, Hyacinthe and the Montreal Aboott of Oka, accompanied by the Vicar-General and Canon Martin of the Archbishop's palace, entered the city and proceeded to the Cathedral, where their lordships were met by four canons and escorted through the Cathedral to the parlor of the Archbishop's palace, where the visitors paid their respects to His Grace, of Montreal. This concluded the ceremonies of the day, and to-morrow the theologians of the Council will be appointed.

Hon. Michael Hackett, Hon. J. J. Curran and Mr. C. A. McDonnell, the Conservative candidate, addressed a mass meeting in St. Ann's ward this evening.

OYSTER FARMING.

Starting a Large Establishment in Canadian Waters.

Quebec, Sept. 27.—One of the largest oyster farms in the world is being established at Carleton, in the Baie des Chaleurs, by a newly-formed Quebec company. The bay contains 470 acres, or sufficient to permit of the breeding and fattening of 30,000,000 oysters a year. The use of the bay at Carleton has been accorded to the company by the Government, and at its mouth a dam containing a number of sluice gates is being erected.

The Canadian salt oysters, known as Malpecques are now greatly in demand, not only in Canada, but also in England and the United States. The utter lack of protection for the oyster fisheries has resulted in a great diminution in the yield and a large increase in the price of these succulent bivalves. A rapid increase in the number of these Canadian oyster farms is looked for. [illegible] the pioneer company there are a number of American shareholders. The capital is all subscribed.

"SIDEWIPED" BY AN EXPRESS.

Eleven Injured in an Accident Caused by Mistaking a Signal.

Tunnelton, W. Va., Sept. 28.—Last night the New York and St. Louis express westbound on the Baltimore and Ohio Railway was going into the tunnel, 20 miles east of here when it "sidewiped" the eastbound Baltimore passenger train. The latter train was switching to the main track when the engineer of the express mistaking a coal tipple light for the white signal light to enter the tunnel, plunged into the side of the laden coach on the Baltimore train. As the ladies coach upset the steam pipes burst. The sleeper was croweded with passengers. The front sleeper on the Baltimore train was thrown from the track. Two people were fatally injured; nine others seriously hurt by bruises and scalding.

Drowned in a Post Hole.

Hartford, Sept. 27.—John Grogan, a young man, was found dead in Wethersfield this morning, having evidently ben drowned in a post-hole half full of water. The head and the upper part of the body were in the hole. All that could be seen of the body was the legs, which stuck into the air. It is supposed that Grogan while intoxicated stumbled into the hole and was unable to extricate himself.

RETURNING TO FORMOSA.

Dr McKay Returns There to Labor and to Die.

Toronto, Ontario, Sept. 28.—Dr. G. L. McKay, Mrs. McKay and their three children, along with Mr. Koa Kow, a Chinese student, left the Union Station at 12.20 yesterday en route for Vancouver, whence they sail on Oct. 14 per the Empress of India to Formosa. The Doctor came home two years ago chiefly to give his children an opportunity of learning English. This is only the doctor's second visit during 23 years in the foreign mission field and his intention is not to return again. A considerable number of friends assembled at the depot to bid him farewell. He returns to the scene of labor convinced that the Japanese occupation of Formosa will increase the difficulty of mission work, especially as a revival of Bhuddism is now going on in Japan and will doubtless be felt in Formosa.

Preparing for the Czar's Coronation.

London, Sept. 28.—The Standard publishes a letter from its Moscow correspondent saying that great preparations are already being made for the coronation of the Czar in the spring as outdoor work is impossible during the winter. The Government has allotted 6,500,000 roubles and the municipal authorities have voted 500,000 roubles more for a proper observance of the occasion. The competition to secure houses is keen. One embassy has offered 20,000 roubles for the rent of a house for a month during the ceremonies.

Ingersoll Grist Mill Burned.

Ingersoll, Sept. 27.—William Partlo's fine flour mill was burned at 11 o'clock last night, with all its contents. The loss is $20,000 and the insurance about $12,000, dividede among seven companies.

COAL GOES UP.

Advanced Fifty Cents a Ton at the Mines This Week.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—The anthracite coal situation seems to be rapidly working out its own salvation and what the coal presidents failed to accomplish after numerous conferences and fierce and disastrous cutting of prices is being brought about by the increased demand for coal and enforced restriction in production caused by the prolonged drought. Following the advice in this-water prices made on Monday last by some of the larger anthracite companies another advance was made to-day by the Reading, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Hudson, Jersey Central, Lehigh Valley, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and other companies. The new prices went into effect at once but at present indications are but temporary and may be still further advanced next week. The advance is an increase of from 15 to 25 cents per ton over the prices of Monday last and from 25 to 50 cents over the price invogue prior to that time.

Germany Will Quarantine All Hogs.

Berlin, Sept. 27.—The Reichsanzieger publishes a decree setting forth that after Oct, 1, no cattle or hogs shall be imported into Germany from any country without being quarantined. The length of time prescribed for quarantining of animals from Denmark, Sweden and Norway, is 10 days, but the time for quarantining animals from all other countries not wholly excluded from exporting to Germany, will be four weeks.

FORAGE OR CORN FODDER

A Rack by Means of Which Bulky Produce Can be Conveniently Handled.

In handling grain, hay or green corn fodder, a low rack, similar to the one shown in the illustration, is a great saver of time and labor. One man standing on the ground and simply drawing the corn towards himself, can lay it upon the table of the cutting machine without stooping, or raising it up simply to lay it down again. The top of the rack is 7x14 feet with six-foot standards. The stringers are 4x6 inches 19 to twenty feet long. They are hung from the front axle by means of a lengthened king bolt provided with a nut and washer. From the hind axle they are suspended by 3-4-inch rods with nuts and washers below and hooks to go over the axle. The stringers should be 20 inches apart in front and 32 inches behind. A short wrench keeps the hound from tipping up. I find this rack very convenient. As short a turn can be made with this as with a 16-foot rack.—American Agriculturist.

Making Cows Pay.

The Cultivator reports that a noted dairyman calculated that the farmer who neglected his cows in the summer time lost on an average enough to bring down his profits for the whole year to 20 per cent. of what they should be. The loss was in two ways. One in the permanent injury to the cow's health and the other to the unnatural shrinkage of the milk flow. The flies, heat and lack of proper food frequently bring the cows into the fall in a condition that totally unfits them for winter or even fall dairying. They require the cold weather of the fall to recuperate and get back to their normal condition. We can make life pleasant for the cows if we but supply a few shade trees for them to lie under in the middle of the day. If these trees are not in the pasture plant them, and meanwhile erect a cheap shade with poles and grass or straw or any litter. While lying down in the shade the cows remasticate their food. Cool, fresh water in the middle of the day will be a great thing for them. If given shade and cool water in abundance the cows will need less food to make the same quantity of milk and flesh. Hence, the two questions overlap each other. When the pastures begin to fail it is very essential that the animals should have good rations fed regularly to them. Fodder, corn peas, oats, rye or other grain will supplement their grass ration in a way that will make them produce a splendid flow of milk. The extra amount of milk given, and the splendid condition they will be in later, will amply repay one for this feeding. Finally, protect the animals from flies as much as possible. Insects of all kinds make life miserable for the cows. A good deodorizer and disinfectant can be supplied cheaply by mixing one part of chloro-naptholeum to 50 parts of water. Brush this over them about twice or three times a week and the flies will keep away and all insects and bugs. The chloro-naptholeum retails at about 50 cents a quart, and one quart will last a good part of the summer for several cows.

How a Mulch Acts.

The value of a mulch is only partially appreciated and there is a wide field for development in using mulches of all kinds, writes a farmer in the New England Farmer. We obtain our ideas of mulches from the prairies and forests, where nature forms her own mulch. The decaying leaves and stems soon form a mass on the surface which prevents the soil from losing much of its moisture. This leaf mold and accumulation of vegetable matter acts as a protecting covering for the soil, and it will be found around the trees in every forest and around the roots of wild grasses on every meadow. In imitating nature, as she works in the field and forest, we adopted the artificial mulch around our fruit trees, and found that it worked to their advantage. A mulch, besides retaining the moisture in the soil, also secures a more uniform temperature and adds considerable plant food to it. The nature of the mulch is an important part of the work. Flat stones may be used around trees, forming a permanent mulch, but their action is merely mechanical. It retains the moisture and temperature of the soil, but it adds nothing to it. Sawdust is but little better, but straw and new mown lawn grass form rich mulches that add plant food to the soil.

The exact change which takes place in the soil when a covering is placed over the surface is not generally understood. Some chemical change takes place, and the soil is enriched for a time. In some of the gardens of France the benefit derived from shading a portion of the soil is understood and carried out successfully. Tiles cover the strawberry beds, with holes made through them here and there for the vines to grow out of. Flower gardens are likewise covered with tiles or cement, leaving no part of the soil exposed except where the plants come through. Expert horticulturists there find this method of great advantage. In a less expensive way parchment paper can be used for covering the garden soil. Brown paper dipped in sulphuric acid should be used for this purpose, as it is then made tough and waterproof. In times of drought this mulch acts splendidly. It retains the water, accelerates the growth of plants and keeps down the weeds. More experiments with mulches will, in time, make gardening much easier and more profitable. The parchment paper mulch, however, for small places is the simplest, cheapest and most effectual that has yet been experimented with.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

"S N" LIFE

Assurance Co'y of Canada.

The Rev. J. L. Murray, of Kincardine, Ontario, assured in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, in December, 1874, under Policy No. 1406, on the Twenty Year Endowment plan, paying an annual premium of $69.90 for ten years. He paid into the Company in all $699. In December, 1894, his Endowment matured, and he received a cheque from the Company for $1,364,70, being a return of all the premiums paid, and in addition, $665.70. That is to say Mr. Murray got back all the money he invested, with about 4½ PER CENT. COMPOUND INTEREST, and had his life assured for $1,000 for twenty years free of charge.

It is needless to say that Mr. Murray was much pleased. You may gather that fact from the persual of his letter hereto appended. QUERY:—How many of the people of Peterborough invests their money to better advantage?

N. B.—This is an example of profits paid under our Five Year Distribution plan. The results under our Reserve Dividend (or Semi-Tontine) policies may reasonably be expected to greatly exceed that realized under the above plan.

KINCARDINE, JAN. 6th, 1895.

The Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, Montreal.

GENTLEMEN:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your cheque in full settlement of claim under my Ten Payment Twenty Year Endowment policy, No. 1406, and I desire to express my satisfaction with the result of my investment. I paid to the Company an annual premium of $69.90 for ten years, making a total of $699, for which I now receive a cheque for $1,364,70, being a return of all I have paid the Company, and in addition, $665.70, besides having had my life assured for $1,000 during the twenty years. This I consider very good indeed, and I have pleasure in giving my testimonial to that effect.

Yours sincerely,
(Signed,) REV. J. L. MURRAY.

CHURCH CHIMES.

The Young Women's Bible Class of St. John's will re-assemble on Sunday afternoon next.

"The Nicholls Hospital" will be the subject of a special sermon in St. John's church next Sunday.

The visiting Chapter of St. Luke's Guild will meet on Thursday afternoon, at five o'clock, at Mrs. Warde's house.

Rev. H. Symonds conducted the anniversary services of the Riverdale Mission and Sunday school yesterday afternoon.

The contributions of fruit and vegetables so liberally made by members of St. Luke's and others, for decorative purposes have been sent to the Protestant Home.

The week day services of St. Luke's church will be resumed on Friday next, when the rector will commence a series of addresses on the Bible. The public is cordially invited to attend. Service commences at 7.30 p. m.

There was a very large congregation at St. Luke's last night when the harvest festival music was repeated. The Rector preached from the text, "The invisible things of time from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made."

Miss Montgomery took the alto solo in the anthem "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me," in St. Paul's church last evening. The arrangement is by Pflueger and is particularly difficult, but was rendered in a manner especially pleasing. A portion of the anthem was taken by a quartette composed of Miss Montgomery, Miss Mein and Messrs. Dawson and Jones.

Rev. Mr. McDiarmid delivered a sermon in the interests of the Baptist Missions in the Murray street church, yesterday morning. He took the stand that every heathen who died was cast into outer darkness and urged his hearers to their utmost effort to assist in averting this horrible doom, for which he held Christendom was indirectly responsible. A special collection for Missions will be taken up in the church next Sunday.

Yesterday was Rally Sunday in the George street Methodist church Sunday school. The attendance was over 600, and the music was specially prepared for the occasion. A duet by Mrs. Seward and Mr. John Miller was greatly appreciated. The Misses Belleghem and Messrs. Alf. Miller and W. F. Skitch rendered an especially effective quartette, and Messrs. Alf. Miller, W. Squires, John Miller and W. F. Skitch also sang a very fine selection. Papers were read during the afternoon by Miss Winnie Dobbin, Miss Meharry, Miss Gertie Kendry, and Mr. Percy Might.

H.M.S. MARIPOSA A TOTAL WRECK

The Warship Buzzard Reports That It Will Be Impossible to Float Her.

St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 29.—The British warship Buzzard arrived here today from Fortune Labrador coast, where the Furness line steamer Mariposa which left Montreal Sept. 20, for Liverpool, in command of Captain Cates, is ashore, and reports that it will be impossible to float her. The whole forward of the ship is full of water, the hold being 20 feet of water in the engine room. The officers of the Buzzard fear that the Mariposa suffered considerably during the southwest gale which raged last Thursday night, as she is in a very exposed position. The Buzzard came here to ship men and part of the cargo of the steamer, and it is believed that much of it can be taken off.

FOOTBALL.

A most interesting game of football was played on the exhibition grounds on Saturday afternoon between teams from Norwood and Brooklyn and it is regretted that more space cannot be given to a more elaborate report of the many good plays which were made. The silver tankard offered by the management of the Central Exhibition for a football tournament and which was won by Norwood last year, was again put up for competition and the crack Brooklyn team, as well as one from Otonabee, entered against Norwood for the valuable trophy. The Norwood and Brooklyn teams lined up as follows:

Norwood.			Brooklyn.
H Kidd		goal	Chas Morrison
T Finlay	backs		Curtis
J Breckenridge			Burnett
H Andrews	half		Marshall
C Ritchie	backs		Halliday
T Graham			Jones
D Fraser	right wing		C Holliday
F Hendren			Hallett
Clarkson	centre		Bradley
B Hendren	left wing		Stewart
F Rutherford			Gill

Referee—Mr. F. D. Kerr.

For Norwood Rutherford played a grand game and was ably seconded by Finlay, Andrews, Fraser and the two Hendrens.

The first goal was scored by Brooklyn. The ball burst just in front of the Norwood goal and was kicked through by Gill.

The next two goals went to Norwood, being kicked by Hendren and Rutherford respectively.

The Otonabee men then lined up against Norwood and were defeated by two goals to none. Norwood thus won the tankard for the second time.

LOUIS PASTEUR DEAD.

The Eminent Chemist Succumbs to an Attack of Paralysis—A National Funeral Offered by the Government.

Paris, Sept. 29.—Prof. Louis Pasteur, the distinguished chemist and discoverer of the Pasteur treatment of the cure of rabies, is dead. M. Pasteur expired at 5.30 Saturday evening at his residence at Garches, near St. Cloud. His death was caused by paralysis.

Prof. Pasteur's condition became seriously worse on the evening of Friday last. Albuminuria was observed; the heart became very weak and painful and violent spas.s became frequent. About 9 o'clock yesterday morning Prof. Pasteur's wife asked him whether he suffered much pain. The dying man faintly whispered "yes." This was the last word he uttered. Afterwards he was most of the time unconscious. After death Mme. Pasteur closed her husband's eyes and placed a crucifix in his hands.

At l'Etang Park, in a room on the first floor of a ramshackle building above stables where 100 horses are kept for use in connection with the preparation of diptheria serum, lie the remains of the great chemist. The chamber has a low ceiling and the walls are covered with cheap green paper. A small carpet is spread on the deal floor. There are two wicker-seated chairs and an arm chair. The body lies on a simple, curtainless wooden bedstead. M. Poincare, French Minister of Public Instruction, has requested the family to allow the Government to give the dead scientist national obsequies and to inter the body in the Pantheon. It is understood that the family desire to have the interment in the garden of the Pasteur Institute and will request the Government that this be permitted. It is expected the funeral will take place on Tuesday, but as yet the day has not been fixed.

ENGLISHMEN 206 BEHIND.

Philadelphia Secures 404 in the First Innings.

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Perfect weather, a crowd of 10,000 people and a great batting exhibition by the home eleven were the feature Saturday in the International Cricket Club at Havertord. When play ceased last evening the Philadelphias had made 98 without the loss of a wicket, and when their last wicket went down this afternoon they had put together the fine total of 404 runs, 206 more than the Oxford-Cambridge teams' first innings netted them. The Englishmen started their second innings, and when play ceased for the night they had scored 49 for two wickets. The play of the Philadelphians to-day at the wickets was excellent. The crease favored them some, despite the all day's play upon it yesterday, and it held good throughout. They also showed much greater confidence than in the last match and punished the English bowlers unmercifully. As the score mounted the Englishmen's fielding also grew loose, and several times their wild throws to the wicket netted a boundary hit, and a number of chances were missed in the field. Score:

Rey El Santa Anita Easily Beaten in a Two Horse Race.

Gravesend Race Track, Sept. 28.—There were 18 horses originally entered in the Speculation, but only four faced the starter's flag. Arapahoe and Harry Reed ran like a team for a quarter of a mile. Arapahoe took the lead at the stretch and won easily by two lengths. The Second Special for $2000 had in it Clifford and Rey El Santa Anita. Clifford was a prohibitive favorite. The race was nothing more than an exercise gallop for Clifford, who romped over the course, leading from flag fall to finish. He won, eased up by a length. Summaries:

First race, 3-4 mile—Preston, 111 (Griffin), 6 to 1, 1; Harrington, 122 (Simms), 6 to 5, 2; Stonenellie, 108 (Reagan), 15 to 1, 3. Time 1.15 1-2. Integrity, Illusion, The Sage, Pop Gray, Captain T. also ran.

Second race, 1 1-16 miles—Deer Slayer, 107 (Doggett), 7 to 2, 1; April Fool, 109 (Griffin), 1 to 2, 2; Sabilla, 107 (Reiff), 2 to 1, 3. Time 1.52 3-4. Three starters.

Third race, 4 1-2 furlongs—Woodvine, 103, (Griffin), 2 to 5, 1; Cansette, 103 (Reagan), 15 to 1, 2; Annot Lyle, 115 (Reiff), 7 to 1, 3. Time .55 3-4. Wild Violet, Intermission, Lavienta, Medica also ran.

Fourth race, 3-4 mile—Arapahoe, 97 (O'Leary), 20 to 1, 1; Harry Reed, 93 (Koefe), 3 to 5, 2; Jack of Spades, 102 (Griffin), 8 to 5, 3. Time 1.15. Hugh Penny also ran.

Fifth race, 1 1-8 miles—Clifford, 117 (Simms), 1 to 4, 1; Rey El Santa Anita, 122 (Taral), 3 to 1, 2; Time 1.56 1-2. Two starters.

Sixth race, 5-8 mile—Tom Cromwell, 111 (Simms), 4 to 5, 1; Mack Briggs, 108 (Reiff), 4 to 5, 2; Forum, 104 (Pickering), 2 to 1, 3. Time 1.02. Palmerston, Honolulu, Whippany, Royal Gun, Refugee, Tremargo, Bon Amie, King of Bohemia also ran.

Gravesend Races.

Gravesend Race Track, Sept. 28—The weather was decidedly cool at the race track to-day. The card was unusually attractive, however, and more than the usual Saturday crowd was on hand. The features were the Second Special, with a number of cracks in it, and the Speculation Stakes.

There were 18 horses originally entered in the Speculation, but only four faced the starter's flag. Arapahoe and Harry Reed ran like a team for a quarter of a mile. Arapahoe took the lead at the stretch and won easily by two lengths.

The second special for $2000 had in it Clifford and Rey El Santa Anita. Clifford was prohibitive favorite. The race was nothing more than an exercise gallop for Clifford, who romped over the course, leading from flag fall to finish. He won eased up by a length. Summaries:

First race, 3-4 mile—Preston, 111 (Griffin), 6 to 1, 1; Harrington, 122 (Sims), 6 to 5, 2; Stone Nellie, 108 (Reagan), 15 to 1, 3. Time, 1.15 1-2. Integrity, Illusion, The Sage, Pop Gray, Captain T. also ran.

Second race, 1 1-16 mile—Dear Slayer, 107 (Doggett), 7 to 2, 1; April Fool, 109 (Griffin), 1 to 2, 2; Sabilla, 107 (Reiff), 2 to 1, 3. Time, 1.52 3-4. Three starters.

A PHENOMENAL OPENING AND A BANNER MONTH

Is our September Record.

We thank our friends for the cordial interest shown during the month and especially those visitors to the exhibition who found time to call and see our display.

Our Millinery and Mantle Opening pleased every one who called. It could hardly fail to do so. The rich and varied display equalled that of any Metropolitan Opening.

We have had a successful month, thanks to our friends. Millinery and Mantles especially large. Our opening has been accompanied by more solid business than we ever received on a similar occasion. In Carpets and Housefurnishings we have had liberal orders and we know that the values and qualities have gained us favourable opinions.

With thanks for patronage and promising that we shall leave nothing undone to please and satisfy October buyers.

OFFICE FOR CHAPLEAU

Rumor That a Portfolio Has Been Tendered Him.

WILL DECIDE IN A FEW DAYS.

If He Accepts There Will be Other Cabinet Changes—Ontario County Asks Promotion for W. Smith, M.P. Justice Rose May Become a Supreme Court Judge.

Ottawa, Sept. 30. Lieut.-Gov. Chapleau was to have arrived here this afternoon from Winnipeg on his way home to Quebec and Sir A. P. Caron had arranged a nice little dinner party for the Governor. Unfortunately, however, the Winnipeg train was seven hours late and the dinner had to be cancelled. This is all the more regrettable, as it aws expected the outcome of the gathering would be some interesting political announcements.

The current talk in town to-day is that Mr. Chapleau may before long be a member of the Bowell Ministry and that overtures have actually been made to him with a view to his accepting a portfolio. Definite information on this point will be forthcoming in a day or two. To-night the matter is being talked over quietly and the public will soon know the result.

It is said that overtures had previously been made to ex-Governor Masson, but he is reported to be averse to re-entering active political life.

If Mr. Chapleau decides to leave Spencerwood for Ottawa it is said a shuffle of portfolios will take place, Ives going to the Department of Agriculture and Mr. Chapleau to Trade and Commerce.

Meanwhile the farmers of Ontario county are asserting their claim to having a representative farmer in the position of Minister of Agriculture and suggesting the name of Mr. William Smith for the portfolio. If it be conceded that a farmer is needed for this position there are few more representative agriculturists in the House than Mr. Smith, the member for South Ontario. It must not be forgotten, however, that the Department of Agriculture is anything but what its name implies. Indeed, until the experimntal farms were established agriculture barely came within the purview of the Minister. Quarantine, patents, copyrights, statistics, are also subjects with which the Minister has to deal. This is no reason, however, why a Minister of Agriculture should not be appointed with the special object of promoting the interests of the farmers.

The delegation which came down from Ontario to-day was a strong and representative one and met with a cordial reception from the Premier.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell, in reply, recognized all that had been said of Mr. Smith, and stated that if he was forming his Cabinet instead of having only one vacancy there would be no difficulty in providing for Mr. Smith, who was well adapted for a portfolio. The trouble at present was that there was no vacancy in Ontario. Ontario had now her full share of portfolios. The vacancy in the Cabinet had to go to Quebec, but if there was any way in arranging the Cabinet so as to get Mr. Smith into it he would be glad to see him there. The portfolio would be filled before Parliament met.

Sir C. H. Tupper and the Hon. Mr. Dickey were just leaving for the train this afternoon to proceed to New Glasgow to attend the United Counties exhibition which is to be held there on Wednesday, when a telegram reached the Minister of Justice, informing him that Sir Julian Pauncefote had decided after all to visit Ottawa this week, and that he will be here to-morrow. As it is imperative that Sir Julian should meet as many members of the Cabinet as possible, both Ministers were reluctantly compelled to cancel their trip to Nova Scotia.

The published statement that Mr. Justice Ferguson had been offered and refused a Supreme Court Judgeship was telegraphed to Ottawa, and caused considerable talk here. A well-known member of the Ontario bar said to-night he understood the statement to be quite correct. "However," he remarked, "Mr. Justice Gwynne has not yet resigned, so that the position is not at present vacant. I may tell you, however, that, in addition to what The World says, the name of Mr. Justice Rose has been mentioned in connection with the prospective vacancy. So far as I have been able to learn he is likely to accept at no distant date, and he will certainly be a splendid acquisition to the highest court in the land. His legal attainments are of the highest character, and the bar of Ontario, by whom he is so well known, would certainly be glad to see him accept the post. I think you will find that when the time comes to accept Judge Gwynne's resignation, the Government will have some important judicial work for ihm to perform off the bench. Thus his services will not be entirely lost to the country when he retires from the bench."

Although no report has been received from Captain "Gat" Howard of his [illegible] operations among the Labrador coast, the outcome of Howard's action is evidenced by a civil [illegible] against the Government. Captain Joseph Eastman of the schooner "Amazon," 73 tons, register, writing from North Sydney, details the treatment which he alleges Howard meted out to him. On the 18th of August the "Amazon" was boarded by Howard at Old Fort, Straits of Belle Isle, and ordered out of port. Eastman was preparing to proceed to Harrington, Nfld., where he had accepted a charter to convey fish to Halifax. Howard learning this wanted the Amazon to proceed to Blanc Sablon to enter and clear there, necessitating a special trip of several hundred miles. Rather than do this Eastman says he decided to abandon his charter, by which he suffered a net loss of $5000, and this, he claims, the Dominion Government should make good to him. He says that Howard was unjustly abusive and offensive and even refused to allow him to buy food necessary for himself and his crew. Eastman is a Newfoundlander, but his vessel is of Canadian register and he thinks that he should not have been located in such a high-handed manner.

Mr. Kemp, oyster expert of the Fisheries Department, having finished his work in Prince Edward Island, has been instructed to proceed to Annapolis County, with the view of examining the coast and reporting upon its capabilities for oyster culture.

Since the session of Parliament closed collectors of customs in different parts of the country have continued to collect the authors' royalty of 12 1-2 per cent. on British copyright works, although the law authorizing such collections expired with prorogation of Parliament. The question having been raised as to legality of this action the decision has been rendered that the royalty cannot legally be levied and accordingly collectors have been instructed that there is now no authority for collecting this ad valorem duty.

Certain charges having been preferred against William Parker, officer in charge of the Sandwich hatchery, a commission has been issued to take evidence in the matter. The principal charge is that Parker sold fish out of season.

Notice appears in the Canada Gazette that the civil service entrance examinations will be held in Ottawa, Toronto and elsewhere on Nov. 12. Applications must be in not later than the 15th of October.

Constable Shore of the Dominion Police left for Lindsay to-day to give evidence in the prosecution of the Murphy brothers, arrested for counterfeiting silver money. Mr. McGill, assistant Dominion analyst, who analyzed the money, also goes up as a witness. Mr. McGill will prove that the ingredients of "the queer" are the same as the metals found in the house by Constable Shore.

Gen. Gascoigne, the new Commander-in-Chief of the Canadian militia, arrived here to-day.

Angers Gets $2000 For Libel.

Quebec, Oct. 1.—Judgment in the case of Angers v. Pacaud, for libel, was rendered in the Court of Review to-day. The defendant was condemned to pay $2000 damages and costs incurred in Superior Court, which will amount to about $2000 more.

ARSON AND PROBABLE MURDER.

Chicago Building Set on Fire and One Man Supposed to Have Perished.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—E. Marks is believed to have lost his life in a fire which was discovered shortly after 2 o'clock this morning in the building at 149 Halstead-street. Three women, Bertha Meyers, Lizzie Disdey and Lizzie Marks, had narrow escapes from death in the flames. All three were carried to the street by the firemen.

William Wilson lived in the second story with his family, and Mrs. Wilson told the police that her husband had threatened to set fire to the buildings. The officers have been unable to locate Wilson. Marks is also missing, and as he is known to have been in the building shortly before the fire was discovered, it is believed that he was burned to death.

Sealing Schooners Seized

Washington, Sept. 30.—Captain Hooper of the revenue cutter Rush today reported to the Treasury Department that the British schooner E. B. Marvin was captured on Sept. 2 for violation of the regulations of the Paris Tribunal of Arbitration governing seal fishing in Behring Sea. She was sent in charge of a prize crew to Dutch Island Harbor, Alaska, and turned over to the British war vessel Pheasant.

The American schooner Louis Olsen was captured on Sept. 3, and in charge of Lieut. Dunwoody was sent to Astoria, Ore., with directions that she be placed in charge of the United States marshal there. The British schooner had on board firearms and the American schooner had shotguns and had no license. Both were within the limits of the sixty-mile zone about the Pribyloff Islands.

POLICE FIRE ON RIOTERS.

One Killed and Eleven Wounded in Buda Post Riot.

Buda Pesth, Sept. 30.—The arrest of a woman by gendarmes caused a riot at Cyula, a town in Bekes county. A mob tried to rescue the woman, and attacked the gendarmes with stones. Failing to disperse the rioters the gendarmes fired a volley into the crowd, killing one person and wounding eleven.

Serious Earthquake in Mexico.

St. Louis, Sept. 30.—A special from Oaxaca, Mexico, says that word comes from Pinotepa that seismic phenomena continue there. Great drought has accompanied these alarming manifestations and the farmers are nearly ruined. Fishermen dare not go out to sea as earthquakes have been continuous for many days. They say a volcano is forming under the ocean. Priests have ordered that the church bells be rung and prayers offered imploring Divine mercy.

THE ANSWER CAME QUICKLY.

Viceroy Liu Deposed—Responsibility for the Missionary Massacres Placed on Him and He is Deprived of Office, Never to be Re-Employed

London, Sept. 30.—The Government has received information that China has yielded to the pressure of the British ultimatum by degrading the Viceroy of Sze-Chuen, and according in full the other demands of Great Britain.

A despatch from Shanghai says that the British Admiral Buller, commanding the Chinese squadron, arrived at Woo Sung on Saturday, on board the warship Edgar. The other English warships at Woo Sung are the cruisers Caroline, Undaunted and Archer and the despatch boat Alacrity. The war sloop Daphne and the gunboat Firebrand are at Shanghai, and at various ports up the Yang-Tse-Kiang are the cruisers Rainbow, Spartan and Aeolus, and the gunboats Plover and Swift.

A dispatch from Pekin was received at the Foreign Office confirming the statement that China had acted favorably on the demands of the Marquis of Salisbury for the punishment of the Viceroy of Sze-Chuen, who Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British Minister at Pekin, says was responsible for the outrages beginning in May at the mission stations in Cheng-Tu, the capital of Sze-Chuen. The dispatch received at the Foreign Office says that the Chinese official Gazette has published an Imperial edict announcing that the Viceroy of Sze-Chuen has been stripped of his rank for failing to protect the missionaries and will never again be allowed to hold office, so that his case will serve as a warning for all future time to officials who may be disposed to do wrong. The decree also denounces the subordinate officials of the Province who failed to take the proper action for the protection of the missionaries.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that the Tsung-Li-Yamen (the board controlling Chinese foreign affairs) formally communicated its decision to the British Minister, who expressed himself as satisfied with the terms of the edict. "It is now probable," also says the Pall Mall Gazette, "that the British vessels which had entered the Yang-Tse-Kiang River, for the purpose of enforcing the demands of Great Britain, will forthwith descend the river and resume their former stations.

Degradation of the Viceroy Only One Demand

Washington, Sept. 30.—The State Department was advised by Minister Denby that Viceroy Liu had been degraded by an Imperial decree. The abstract of the decree cabled to Mr. Denby shows that the responsibility for the Cheng-Tu riots in the Province of Sze-Chuen rests with the officials and that Viceroy Liu was exceedingly careless and took no notice of the riots and made no attempt to stop the outrages. He is ordered to be deprived of his office and never again to be employed. Other officials are also to be punished.

The degradation of this Viceroy is but one step in the direction of complying with the demands of the powers interested in compelling indemnity for the missionary outrages.

Additional demands are understood to haev been made by the British and American Ministers and if they are complied with a long step in the direction of reform in the Province of Sze-Chuen will have been taken. These Ministers, it is understood, made a demand that all examinations for promotion in and appointment to office shall cease in that province for three years. This is intended as a blow at the office-holding class; from which source emanates al lthe alleged information circulated among the natives for the purpose of inciting them to the commission of outrages.

Sold by Auction by the Trustee in Bankruptcy

London, Oct. 1.—Viscount Hill's most cherished heirlooms have been sold at auction by order of the trustee in bankruptcy. The auction took place at Shrewsbury, and attracted amateur and professional collectors and dealers from all parts of the country. Some lots fetched sensational prices. As much as $9 an ounce was paid for old silver plate. This, to be sure, was an exceptional lot, consisting of a beautiful dish and ewer, but $3 an ounce was quite a common price. So [illegible] the fortunes of this famous [illegible] that even military medals and [illegible]on by hard fighting in the field, [illegible]ghly orders bestowed by royalty [illegible]tished service to the State, have b[illegible]old under the auctioneer's ham[illegible] A hundred pounds were given [illegible] medal won by Gen. Lord Hill [illegible] battle of Aboukir. A gold cross with six clasps, indicating as many battles, fought by the same doughty warrior in the Peninsular war, went for $5000, and his Waterloo medal sold for $375. Eight hundred dollars enabled an unknightly civilian to buy Gen. Hill's insignia of the military order of the Bath, and so on.

Viscount Hill is presently a resident of Toronto, and a few months ago was publisher of the Paris Star-Transcript.

Weak, Tired, Nervous

Women, who seem to be all worn out, will find in purified blood, made rich and healthy by Hood's Sarsaparilla, permanent relief and strength. The following is from a well known nurse:

"I have suffered for years with female complaints and kidney troubles and I have had a great deal of medical advice during that time, but have received little or no benefit. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and I began to use it, together with Hood's Pills. I have realized more benefit from these medicines than from anything else I have ever taken. From my personal experience I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be a most complete blood purifier." MRS. C. CROMPTON, 71 Cumberland St., Toronto, Ontario.

SHOP-LIFTING AND ITS CURE.

Attention has been called by several merchants of late to the prevalence of shop-lifting. On Saturday two ladies, who would be mortally offended at being called anything but respectable and honest, entered a certain shop and appropriated silk handkerchiefs and silk hose without the usual formality of paying for, or having the goods charged. This practice is said to prevail to a much greater extent than is generally supposed, and will probably continue to do so, so long as merchants treat so-called kleptomaniacs differently from ordinary thieves, by accepting hush money, represented by payment for the stolen goods, and refraining from prosecution. Merely calling attention to a case like the above in a newspaper—to show that the guilty parties are known—is utterly useless to stop the practice of shop-lifting. The only way is to put the law in motion and punish the guilty persons as the law provides. Sending a poor starving wretch up for six months for stealing a loaf of bread, and letting the well-dressed lady go scot free for stealing ten times the value of dress goods from a shop, is but a mockery of justice that makes angels weep. Toadyism may not be criminal, but it is responsible for more crimes in the domain of thieving than is punished in our courts of justice. The Divine Source of justice is no respecter of persons. Kleptomania is the rosewater word for the cut-and-thrust Saxon word, stealing, and compounding a felony is very like a proper synonym for the mistaken mercy that "arranges" a shop-lifting case "so that it won't get out, you know"—that construes the vulgar crime of stealing, when clad in purple and fine linen, into a simple exhibition of "unhappy eccentricity."

THE Dominion Parliament will expire on the 25th of April next.

THE bye-elections in Digby County on Saturday, to fill the vacancy in the Legislative Assembly caused by the death of Mr. Tupper (Liberal), resulted in the return of Mr. Angus Gidney, Liberal, over Mr. Frank Jones, Conservative, by 280 majority, a considerable increase over the majority of two years ago.

THE British national debt, which on March 31, 1894, was £669,104,024, was reduced during the succeeding twelve months by £8,943,417. Not a bad record when, if we are to believe the protectionist press of the country, the tight little island has been during the whole time in direst straits from the injurious effects of free trade.

HON. WILFRED LAURIER has made an emphatic denial of the statement—"Thank God, there is not an Orangeman among us, the Liberals," attributed to him by certain newspapers. It is safe to say that these same newspapers, who were so prompt to print the slander, will be proportionately slow in discovering the denial.

The universal prevalence of scrofula is a fact well known to physicians. The only medicine that has hitherto proved a specific for this dreadful complaint is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which expels every germ of poison from the blood. You cannot begin to use it too soon.

Signs of Worms are variable appetite, itching at the nose, etc. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is the best worm expeller.

MUNICIPAL REFORM.

Brantford Board of Trade Discusses the the Mode of Electing Aldermen—Resolution Introduced Favouring the Principle of Election in the Same Manner as Mayors are Elected.

Subjoined is an extract from the Brantford Expositor's report of a meeting of the Board of Trade, in which a resolution was discussed declaring the principle of a bill introduced by Mr. Stratton last session, looking to the election of councillors by the vote of the whole people in the same manner as a Mayor is now elected. The subject is an important one, and the following will be read with interest, especially as it forecasts a change which is pretty certain, in some form, to take place before long:—

Mr. T. H. Preston moved the resolution of which he had given notice, viz.: "That in the opinion of this board, legislation should be had authorizing cities and towns, upon securing the endorsation of the electors in the usual manner, to elect boards of aldermen or councillors, either in whole or in part, from the municipality at large."

In submitting his motion Mr. Preston said that at the last session of the Provincial Legislature a bill had been introduced by Mr. Stratton of West Peterborough, in the direction indicated, but as it was in a rather incomplete condition, it had been withdrawn, on the understanding that it would again be introduced after having been perfected. The subject was, therefore, one which properly came before them for discussion. He intended merely to ask the Board for support to the principle that municipalities should be given a larger measure of home rule than they at present enjoyed, and should be permitted to determine by vote how they would govern themselves. The Board might be expected to do this, though the members might not all endorse the particular system of municipal government which he favoured. While casting no reflection on Brantford aldermen, past or present, he was satisfied the present system of electing aldermen was not calculated to produce the best results. Probably no perfect system could be found, but his idea for a city like Brantford was a council composed of ten members, one-half to be elected by the city at large and the other half by the wards. By the reduction of the number of aldermen the honour of the office would be increased and better men would be had to serve the city. The ward system, since the adoption of the Local Improvement method, was less obnoxious than formerly, and he would modify rather than abolish it altogether. By the plan he proposed no section of the city would be without its special representative, while the general interests would be better served. The plan he suggested was not entirely untried, as he showed by the following letter which he had received from the editor of the St. John (N. B.,) Telegraph:

"By our new system, now in its second year of trial, we have a city council composed of a mayor and fifteen aldermen, elected annually in April. Ten of the fifteen are 'aldermen at large'; the remaining thirteen represent one ward each. 'The aldermen at large' may reside or transact business in any ward; the others must live or do business in the ward they represent. Voters in any part of the city can vote for the full number of fifteen aldermen. It is the total vote, not the ward vote, that elects. It frequently happens that the candidate having the majority in his own ward is in the minority in the city, and so is defeated—and vice versa.

The new scheme was evolved three years ago by an organization called the Tax Reduction Association. They got the necessary legislation against the opposition of the then city council, and when the law came into effect in April, 1894, they elected the mayor and twelve of the fifteen aldermen.

This year there were two tickets in the field, except for mayor, the last year's mayor being allowed to go in by acclamation. In the aldermanic contests there was a great overturn, the so-called Tax Reductionists being badly beaten. The new system is generally liked. Voters prefer to be able to vote for the entire council. It has killed out some objectionable boodling ward politicians, who were strong in their wards, but have less general strength. We think the new council and the new method an improvement on the old. But already we find combinations forming which may defeat in large measure these good results."

The letter also contained the information that in St. John the aldermen are paid $300 per annum each.

Mr. Preston said he did not favour the St. John system in its entirety, because there the entire board of alderman were practically elected en bloc, and there must ever be present the possibility of political and other combinations for the purpose of getting control of the city government. By his plan the danger of such combinations was reduced one-half, while retaining the chief advantages of a scheme calculated to improve the standard of aldermen. This result has been secured in St. John, and would, no doubt, follow elsewhere. There were many able men who could not be returned from their own wards that the city as a whole would be glad to elect, and there were many men who got into the council through the ward system that never would be heard of in that connection if the wards elected but one man each, or the choice had to be made by the city as a whole.

Mr. Preston pointed out some anomalies of the existing franchise. For example, A owning $10,000 of property in one ward could vote for but three alderman, while B, owning $5,000 of property, scattered over five wards had fifteen votes. This was an absolute absurdity, which his plan, if adopted, would almost entirely remove. He next answered the possible objections to his proposal on the ground that there might be want of uniformity throughout the province.

Mr. Heyd seconded Mr. Preston's motion. The scheme proposed by Mr. Preston would reduce the influence of the ward politician and would increase the importance of the aldermanic position. He thought the present number of aldermen was too unwieldy, particularly in committee work. He was in favour of a modified ward system as at present in existence. The purely ward representative could represent many purely local things, but he would not be so influential in a general matter affecting the city.

Ald. Duncan thought that reducing the number of the aldermen would throw the work upon ten men who could not give it the attention it required without serious loss to their own business. Indeed he knew of a man whose wife told him that if he returned to the council next year, she would seek a divorce.

In reply to the president, Mr. Preston said under his scheme the mayor might be elected as now, or they could return to the old system and have him elected by the aldermen.

Mr. Heyd preferred the present system electing mayors. In times past, councillors were largely chosen with a view to the candidate they would support for mayor.

Ex. Ald. C. H. Waterous supported the motion. He thought that ten men could do the work, but he thought that the ward aldermen and the aldermen at large, should be elected for two years.

Mr. John Mann was in favour of the motion, and hoped Mr. Preston would seek to interest the municipalities.

Mr. A. K. Bunnell thought the day was coming when aldermen would be paid, and that a benefit would follow from a reduction of their numbers. This would put more work on the few, and they would expect something from them. He favoured the election every two years. The school trustees had two years.

Mr. Preston briefly replied to the points of Messrs. Waterous, Bunnell and Duncan.

Ald. Raymond moved the adjournment of the debate.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

It's Not the Money nor The Name

It's the Clothing itself that does the business.

If it were like any other Clothing, buyers would'nt be asked to name it, nor would they be so anxious to get it.

There's a Character

In Oak Hall Clothing which distinguishes it from all other Clothing. It very often happens that the good qualities of an Overcoat, like beauty, are but skin deep. But Oak Hall's goes further—we take care that the inside and through-and-through is as satisfactory as the outside.

There was a time when it was necessary for the man who wanted a perfect fitting Suit or Overcoat to go to the Merchant Tailor and leave his measure, and after waiting several days get it home, only to be dissatisfied at finding that he had paid a high price for what he has not received.

But, since our advent into Peterborough, he finds that he can come to us, and for a small part of the former price, get as good a Garment and be satisfied with the material and fit BEFORE HE PAYS OUT A CENT.

Oak Hall Clothing

Has no execrable hump to disfigure the form or annoy the wearer. It is uniquely put together, made up and trimmed from good material.

Therefore, it is not a matter of Dollars—only Sense. Other things being equal, a Suit that will last twice as long as another, is worth twice as much. If one stove would heat a room comfortably no one would think of using two, and the same logic holds in the case of Oak Hall Suits and Overcoats. One Oak Hall Suit or Overcoat will give more satisfactory wear and warmth than two of any other make.

The proof of the pudding is the eating of it.

A MONTH OF DANGER!

October Weather Dreaded by Rheumatic Sufferers.

Sudden Changes in Temperature Bring Agonies and Suffering.

Paine's Celery Compound Should Be Freely Used this Month.

The Only Medicines that Cures Rheumatism and Sciatica.

We have just entered on the month of October, a time fraught with tremendous dangers to all rheumatic sufferers. It is terrible to contemplate the agonies that thousands will have to endure. The victims are many; they are old and young, rich and poor. Some wealthy sufferers will betake themselves to climes with fewer dangerous changes of temperature; but the vast majority are obliged to face and endure the evils that must surely come, unless they seek the help of Paine's Celery Compound, that medicine that never fails in the most terrible cases of rheumatism.

In the complete banishment of rheumatism and sciatica, Paine's Celery Compound has more wonderful cures to its credit than can be shown by all other combined medicines.

It should be remembered that Paine's Celery Compound does not simply relieve for a few days or weeks; this wonderful medicine goes straight to the root of the trouble and takes away the seeds of disease forever. Medical men know well of its value in rheumatism, and endorse its use. It is therefore folly on your part to go on suffering when such a cure is within your reach. If you are a rheumatic sufferer, and wish a complete cure, see that you are not influenced to take SOMETHING ELSE, even if your dealer recommends it; your safety depends entirely on Paine's Celery Compound and its miraculous virtues.

Drought Effects in British Milk Fails.

London, Oct. 1.—The prolonged heat and drought which have prevailed throughout England have inflicted a great deal of hardship and damage upon agriculturists. Pastures are completely destroyed by the burning rays of the sun, and the scarcity of water for cattle threatens a milk famine. The crops of roots are also suffering.

Secured Some Plugged Coin.

Sombra, Ont., Oct. 1—The store of Henry Stokes was burglarised last night and the safe door blown off. All the burglar got was some old plugged coin. Stokes carries a general stock and is a heavy buyer of grain and has at times $4000 or $5000 in the safe.

Burglars Visit Mine Quarterly.

Thamesville, Ont., Oct. 1.—The store of Robert Pye, merchant tailor, here, was broken into last night and about $50 worth of goods taken. This is the second time within the last six months Mr. Pye's establishment has been burglarised.

Robbed a Church Safe of $200.

Menominee, Mich., Sept. 30.—The French Roman Catholic Church was robbed of $200 in cash, besides numerous valuable papers this morning. The burglars blew open the safe with gunpowder. The money had been drawn from the bank Saturday and placed in the safe.

National Record at the Close.

The National League baseball season of 1895 is a thing of the past. The season ended in the West on Sunday, and the final games in this district were played yesterday. The Baltimore team has won the pennant, with Cleveland second, and as these two teams have captured all the honors they will now play for the Temple Cup, the first game for which will be played in Cleveland to-morrow. The Baltimores feel confident of winning the cup this time. They argue that if they can win at least one of the three games to be played at Cleveland they will settle the question beyond doubt when Tebeau's men come to Baltimore for the final games. Hanlon's men expect to have trouble at Cleveland from the crowds, but they intend to play for their lives. McMahon will probably pitch in Wednesday's game, while Cuppy is slated to go in the box for Cleveland. The final standing:

Cambridge Men Out of Form.

New Haven, Sept. 30.—The members of the Cambridge track team left here to-day for Berkeley Oval, and will be quartered at the Berkeley Cottage, at Morris Heights, until Saturday, when they go to Harlem and take part in the games against Yale.

The Cambridge men are badly out of form, but are recovering, and expect to be in good trim by Saturday. They have been making the most of their day at Yale, most of them taking trolley rides to the suburbs and tramps to places of interest. This morning they took a light practice at the Yale Field.

After the games on Saturday the Cambridge men will go to Harvard University for a social visit, and on Oct. 7 they will go to Niagara. They will sail for England on the Lucania Oct. 12.

Before the finished fruit come bud and blossom. Bud grows into blossom and blossom into fruit. And so girlhood merges into womanhood and the woman into motherhood.

The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It turns danger into safety and pain into ease. It is a medicine which has but one object. It is good for but one thing. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, it promotes regularity of the functions, allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural, exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all of the ills of womankind are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." And this generally begins either at the time of puberty or childbirth, or at the "turn of life."

There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure. Thousands of grateful women have been rendered healthy and happy by its use, and the experience and testimony of many of them has been included in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser.

When Dr. Pierce published the first edition of his work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would give away the next half million free. He is now distributing, absolutely free, 500,000 of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, at Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of customs and mailing only, and the book will be sent post-paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. It contains over 1008 pages and more than 300 illustrations. The Free Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are bound in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away. They are going off rapidly, therefore, do not delay sending immediately if you want one.

CANDY

FOR CHILDREN.

The Popular Health Magazine says the desire in a child for candy and sweets is a natural one and should not be stifled. Good candy and sweets in moderation, not only do no harm, but are actually beneficial. Too much sweet upsets the stomach and spoils the appetite, but candy in moderation if it is not taken before a meal, is food which children crave naturally, and among the purest and most wholesome is that manufactured by

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from six prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	Per Cent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.66	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

Coal Advanced to $6.00 a Ton.

On Monday the price of coal at the mines in the United States was advanced eighty-five cents a ton, and in consequence the figures quoted to the consumers have taken a jump. In Canada the retail dealers have nearly all raised their prices fifty cents a ton, and at a meeting of the local dealers held last night it was resolved to advance prices to $6 a ton. Many citizens are now regretting that they did not lay in their supply of bituminous earlier in the season.

Names of parties wishing to join may be left with Mr. Shaw, or the Librarian at the Institute. 1d

Lost Two Fingers.

Mr. Jas. Sanderson, of Smith, met with a severe accident last week, which will lay him up from work for a few weeks. Mr. Sanderson was at Mr. Geo. Johnson's helping him to cut corn, and was engaged in feeding the corn into the cutter when he got his left hand caught between the rollers and it was drawn into the knives. The second and third fingers were severed from the hand just below the first joints. As the cutter was run by power Mr. Sanderson's hand would undoubtedly have been taken off if he had not heriocally held back with the other hand until assistance came and the hand was removed. As it was the back of his hand was badly bruised.

An Equal Surprise and Pleasure.

The poet has sung—"Oh, for a beaker of the warm south, the true, the blushful Hippocrene," and the people have sighed for a good wine too, for the price forbade. For it is not everybody can pay $8 and $10, a dozen for wine, and the masses had to go without. But this is a democratic day, and it is the whole people who are catered for now and not a section of the people. Accordingly, when the Bordeaux Claret Co., introduced their light, pleasant, and thoroughly wholesome wines at the incredible figure of $3 and $4 per doz. quarts there was equal surprise and pleasure among the people. The demand is enormous and orders cannot be filled quick enough. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal.

An Interesting Career.

Peterborough will be visited at an early date by Monsieur Jehin Prume, the eminent Belgian violinist, who travelled through Germany, Poland and Russia, and in the latter country had the honour of playing repeatedly before the Emperor. On his return to Belgium after these brilliant successes, he received the title of violinist to H. M. the King of Belgium, a title which, until then, had never been granted except to Vieuxtemps and DeBeriot. This great artist will be assisted by Mr. Harold Jarvis, Tenor, 1st Presbyterian Church, (Detroit), Miss Agnes Dunlop, Contralto, and Mrs. Blight, Accompanist. As the subscriber's list for this Grand Concert is rapidly filling up, those wishing first choice of seats should avail themselves of placing their names upon the list.

Peterborough's New Law Firm.

The Cobourg World has the following kind words to say of Mr. Kerr who has recently opened a law office here: "Francis Kerr has had a most successful career at college and in law, graduating from Victoria University in 1892 with the gold medal and first class honours in modern languages. He studied law in the office of Messrs. Kerr & Kerr here, and afterwards with Messrs. Laidlaw, Kappele & Bicknell, solicitors for the Toronto Street Railway Company, and passed his examinations at the Law school with credit and distinction, standing high up in the list on the final examinations in May last, when he was called to the bar and admitted to practice as a solicitor. Since then he has been engaged in several criminal and other cases here, and his management of them elicited the warmest approval on all hands, both for his skill in cross examination and clearness and force in argument. He is a good and vigourous speaker, with a strong dash of wit. He will be much missed here be his many friends who appreciate his sterling, social and other qualities, but our loss will be Peterborough's gain. We wish the new Peterborough firm the utmost success."

Grand Trunk Annual Western Excursions.

The Grand Trunk Railway will run its annual western excursion to Chicago, Detroit and points west on October 3rd, 4th and 5th, 1895. Return fares from Peterborough, to travel by all regular trains, are as under:

From Peterborough to Port Huron and Detroit, $6.
To Saginaw and Bay City, $9.
To Cleveland, $8.50.
To Grand Rapids, $10.
To Cincinnati and Chicago, $12.
To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (all rail) $35.
To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (via lake route between Sarnia and Sault Ste. Marie), $36.50. All tickets good to return on or before Oct. 21st.

The great attraction of this excursion is that passengers will have the opportunity of passing through the celebrated St. Clair Tunnel, the greatest submarine tunnel in the world. Its total length with approaches is over three miles. Its cost was over three millions of dollars. For tickets and reservations of berths apply to J. P. Hurley, city ticket agent, or Wm. Hayden, station agent. 5d76

OFF FOR CHICAGO.

Mr. Adam Turner Banqueted Prior to His Departure for the West.

Mr. Adam Turner, who has for many years held the office of chaplain in connection with Otonabee Lodge, I. O. O. F., was accorded a farewell banquet last night in the lodge room, as he intends departing, together with his family, almost immediately for Chicago.

The following address was read during the course of the evening by Mr. F. D. McKay, P.G.:

Dear Bro. Turner:

Understanding that this will be your last lodge night in Peterborough before your departure for Chicago, where you and your family propose to take up residence, we desire to take advantage of the opportunity presented on this occasion to express to you the sincere regret which is felt by the members of Otonabee Lodge at your departure, for in you the Lodge will lose one of its most regular attendants and faithful officers, and Oddfellowship in Peterborough one of its most consistent and enthusiastic brethren. In expressing this regret we feel, and desire you to feel, that these expressions are real, and that you will be missed in the lodge room after your departure. We also would assure you that in going to the Windy City you will carry with you the wishes of every member of this Lodge and of Peterborough Oddfellows generally for a successful and happy residence there. We also are glad to know that while you will be removed from us such a distance, you will retain your connection with the mother lodge. We will appreciate your membership for we know you will well and worthily represent Peterborough Oddfellows in Chicago. We will be glad to welcome you among us as frequently as you can make it convenient to revisit your old home here, where we assure you you have many warm and true friends, especially among Oddfellows. We will close this expression of appreciation of your exemplary character and many good qualities as a citizen and an Oddfellow by again extending the heartiest well-wishes to you and yours.

Signed on behalf of Lodge,

JAS. EDGECOMBE, N.G.,
J. G. GEMMELL, Rec Sec.

After Mr. Turner had made a few remarks in connection with his regret at leaving the brethren of the Lodge, brief addresses were made by Messrs. John Nugent, Thos. Workman, Jas. Edgecombe, N.G., Dr. Bell and Geo. Heap.

SOME STRANGE SIGHTS.

Queer Pets Which the Lumbermen Have in the Back Country.

Mr. S. Clegg has returned from the North Bay district and tells some odd things concerning the pets which some of the men bring down the river on the "cribs" when they bring the drives of logs through. On one raft he saw a tame deer which was quite domesticated. It would suddenly jump up on the table at any time in search of something dainty to eat. Another crowd of lumbermen brought down a swarm of red squirrels, which were so accustomed to the men that they could be freely handled and never thought of leaving the crib at all.

But even a stranger sight than these two cases cited was witnessed when he was introduced to a family of minks living peacefully in the crib. The minks fished off the raft and along the shore, but always returned at intervals and were great pets. While in the woods Mr. Clegg ran across a man who could call any mink up to him by making a twittering noise with his lips in a manner somewhat similar to that made when calling a dog. The trick lies in being able to keep the noise up steadily, for as soon as it breaks the mink scampers off.

A sight which seems almost incredible was witnessed on a raft when Mr. Clegg saw a cat retrieve chips which were thrown into the water.

THE GRAYS WILL REMAIN HERE FOR THE WINTER.

Mr. Lavelle Kindly Sheltering Them for the Present.

Mr. Thomas Gray was in town yesterday and stated to a reporter that at present he and his family were living with Mr. Lavelle, a former neighbour and the one who so kindly cared for the children during the incarceration of the parents. Mr. Gray would like to go back to Florida if he could, as his property there has naturally been greatly neglected in his absence and unless immediately looked after, the orange trees on his ten acres will be destroyed. Unfortunately he has not the means to transport himself and family back to the South again and will doubtless have to relinquish his desire to return there for the present.

Mr. Gray is anxious to find work of any description in order to support his family in town for the winter and despairing of being able to raise a sufficient sum to pay railway fares to Osceola, has written to a neighbour there to try and either rent or sell the property.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections.

Send 31 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.

We would recommend you to buy from the manufacturer direct, Crafton & Co.

ANNUAL MATCHES OF THE RIFLE ASS'N.

GOOD SCORES MADE ON A BAD DAY.

Staff-Sergt. Bartlett Wins the Cox Cup and Pte. C. Curtis Carries off the Bankers' Trophy.

The annual matches of the Rifle Association were held at the range yesterday and although the wind was high and the temperature low still the scores made were good on the whole and in some cases were quite marvellous, as several times during the day "possibles" were made.

Capt. Dennistoun discharged the duties of Range Officer during the day and the various matches were shot off under the appended conditions, the shooting beginning at 8.30 a. m.:

1—Open to Province of Ontario.
2—D.R.A. Rules to govern.
3—Two sighting shots, 10 cents each, allowed at each range.
4—Position 600 yards any; other ranges any position with head to target.
5—In extra series match no man shall be allowed to shoot twice in succession unless target be idle.
6—Challenge shots, if not allowed, 25 cents each.
7—All disputed points to be referred to the Range Officer whose decisions shall be final.
8—The "Bankers' Challenge Cup" (1877) to be held by the winner for one year, and to become his property on winning it twice in succession. Winner must be a resident of the County of Peterborough.
9—The "Cox Cup" to be held by the winner (who must be a resident of the County of Peterborough) for one year, and to become his property on winning it three times, twice of which must be in succession.
10—No entries received after closing of first range in any match, but strangers will be squaded so as to suit trains coming and departing.

COUNTY MATCH AND COX CUP.

Open only to members of the Peterborough Rifle Association, Ranges 400 and 600 yards. First prize, Cox Cup, value $30, and $7 cash; total cash prizes, $50.

In the county match, the Cox cup was won by Staff-Sgt. F. Bartlett, for the second time in the last four years. On two other occasions he came within one point of securing this trophy. Although A. M. Williamson wins the first prize in money in this match, the cup had to revert to Sgt. Bartlett, who was second, as none but a county man can hold it.

In the Bankers' Cup match Mr. C. Curtis scored 68 out of a possible 70 and won the trophy. As this is the second time that he has won the cup, he can now hold it for all time.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE JOTTINGS.

Some Interesting September News—The Annual Sports.

The Fourth Form graduating class of 1895, consisting of those who passed the senior leaving and honour matriculation examinations, has presented to their alma mater a fine group picture of themselves and the faculty. The photo has been hung in the upstairs corridor and is highly spoken of by those who have seen it. This class made a brilliant showing at the recent examinations and some of them will be heard of again.

There are about 230 pupils enrolled at present, and of these over 200 were present on the first day of school. This is a highly satisfactory state of affairs. The number of parents who think that the first days of the term are not as important, or in fact more important, than the days later on, we are glad to say, is growing beautifully less.

The annual sports, which, weather permitting, will be held at the Driving Park next Friday afternoon, are causing more enthusiasm than ever this year. Some of the less interesting events will be decided before Friday. On Friday last the Cross Country run was held. Nine contestants aced the starter, Mr. Drope, the Magister Ludorum, and promptly at 4.15 were sent on their journey before a crowd of 300 or more. Starting at the Collegiate, they directed their course via the Central Park, and Hunter street bridge, to the Ashburnham side of the river. Up the river bank, along the raceway and the G. T. R. they kept pretty well bunched until they crossed the Smith street bridge, whence they directed their course southward to the Collegiate grounds. It was along this leg of the course that the real race took place. After leaving the bridge it was noticed that some were labouring under "that tired feeling," which is so disastrous to fast running, and gradually began to lag behind. Others who had been training more faithfully forged ahead with increasing speed. E. McIlmoyl crossed the line first in 13 minutes and 45 seconds, which is three-quarters of a minute slower than the world's record over the same course. P. Clark closely followed by E. Simpson finished second. S. Hall, one of the light weights, was fourth. Then came McPherson, last year's winner, who, as the time shows, was not in the pink of condition. T. Gerrans was 6th and finished very fresh, probably being better at a longer distance. H. Carleton and P. McIsaac came next in order and P. Kelly brought up the rear. All finished under the time allowance and as there were no fouls and no excursion fleet in the way, no protest were entered.

Some new features in the programme of sports this year will be some bicycle races and a 100 yard dash between the masters of the Collegiate Institute, with the Principal barred.

The names of the pupils who won the local scholarships at the last departmental examinations have not yet been received from the department but will be published as soon as available.

Owing to the increased amount of physics required by the changes in the curriculum, it has been found necessary to equip the teachers' sanctum sanctorum as a physical laboratory.

The Fourth Form Literary Society has organized for the coming year, but we have failed to get the names of the officers. This society was ably conducted last year, and was productive of good results. Owing to lack of accommodation there is no literary society of the whole school.

The reports for September will be in the hands of the pupils about Thursday. Parents should examine them carefully and have them returned without delay.

The football club which organized a week or two ago is practising daily, and will soon make arrangements for a match with an outside club.

Maltine with Coca Wine Feeds the Nerves.

Are you all run down? Are you tired in body? weary in mind? Does lassitude burden and unfit you for mental or physical labour? Does sleeplessness rob you of mental force? make your days a weariness and night a torment? In brief, is life rapidly becoming a burden to you? Thousands are living in this miserable condition while relief from this worst of mental and physical conditions may be speedily obtained by the use of Maltine with Coca Wine. It is a real tonic, for it builds up the body, gives strength and vigor to the nerves, supplies pure rich blood, restores appetite, and adds wonderfully to the digestive power of the stomach. Maltine with Coca Wine is a builder—builds nerve, builds muscle, builds bone. It gives vim and nerve. It braces, not as a stimulating agent; it braces because it cures. That is what you need. All druggists sell it.

DETECTIVE MURRAY AND THE GRAY CASE.

He was not Satisfied With the Jury Selected.

The Mail of Monday says:—"Inspector John Murray, of the provincial detective department, returned on Saturday from Peterborough, where he was attending the trial of the Grays for the murder of David Scollie. Referring to the case, Mr. Murray said:—When I got to Peterborough I found that only 24 out of the 48 extra jurors required for the trial had been served, and that 28 of the whole panel were from Peterborough, where sympathy naturally ran strongly in favour of the Grays. The Attorney-General's Department was communicated with, and it was decided to try the prisoners separately, so as to reduce the challenges of the defence from 40 to 20. This, however, proved fatal to the Crown's case, as 20 or more witnesses who were called had to be dispensed with, because their evidence dealt chiefly with Gray, and not with Mrs. Gray, who was put on trial. I am not sorry at the result, but I cannot see why I should be blamed for extraditing the prisoners. The evidence that brought them back from Florida was carefully examined by the Deputy Attorney-General. When they were brought back the Magistrate considered it sufficient to send them for trial, and, further, the grand jury considered the Crown case strong enough to place accused on trial for their lives. It is a mistake to think that I ever go out of my way to hunt up a case against anyone. I do my duty, and try never to exceed it. In twenty years I have extradited 85 prisoners, and of this number only three failed to be convicted, the two Grays and Phaling, who escaped from Stratford gaol after pleading guilty before the Magistrate. With reference to the Aurora case, concerning which my conduct has been subject to adverse criticism, I have to state that I had nothing to do with it. I received instructions to go to Aurora, and went. On reaching the place I found the local authorities had acted, and I took the very first train back to Toronto, never saying a word about the matter."

[Detective Murray, as he intimates, feels disappointed in the matter of the jury panel, but if he had the local knowledge of the EXAMINER and the people of Peterborough, he would know that it would be most difficult to have empannelled from even 500 jurymen, a more intelligent and honest jury than that in whose hands the life of Mrs. Gray was placed. The jury on the Gray case, as things turned out, was not a matter of vital importance, as they never had a chance of expressing an opinion except at the suggestion of the judge on the bench.

DR. M'KAY OF FORMOSA.

Rev. Dr. G. L. McKay, Mrs. McKay and three children, and Mr. Koakow, the Chinese student, left Toronto on Saturday for Vancouver, where they will take the steamer for the Island of Formosa on the 14th. This is Dr. McKay's second visit to Canada in 24 years, he having gone to Formosa in 1871. During his present stay in Canada his family have been attending school, and have acquired considerable knowledge of the English language, and have made satisfactory progress in such subjects as they were taught in our schools. Unless unforeseen circumstances arise the doctor does not expect to return again to his native land. A large number of friends were present at the station to bid the party farewell, amongst whom were Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Dr. Caven, Dr. McTavish, Rev. J. H. McVicar, Rev. Dr. Burns and Rev. R. P. McKay, Foreign Mission Secretary.

FACTORY INSPECTORS.

The Ontario section of the Executive Committee of the Dominion Trades and Labour Congress, consisting of Messrs. D. J. O'Donoghue, D. A. Carey and Geo. W. Dower, of Toronto, and John Flett of Hamilton, waited upon Hon. Mr. Dryden, on Friday afternoon to ask for a re-arrangement of the work of the factory inspectors. At present the inspectors are allotted to districts, Mr. Jas. Brown of Toronto, having the centre, Mr. A. O. Roque of Orleans, the east end, and Mr. Barber of Georgetown, the west. The deputation asked that this arrangement be changed from time to time, so that the inspectors could change districts, thus, they thought, effecting an improvement. Mr. Dryden promised to consider the suggestion presented to him.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders, and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discolorations and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Ernest Wasson has returned from his holidays.

Mr. F.J. Young, of Selwyn, was in town this morning.

The Mayor went up to Toronto on business last night.

Mrs. Campbell, of Fenelon Falls, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. W. A. Carson, of Belleville, is in town for a day or so.

Mrs. (Dr.) Boucher left last evening to visit friends in the west.

Mr. Alonzo Spooner, of Port Hope, is in town on business for a couple of days.

Mr. Andrew Scott left last night to attend the Toronto Dental College.

Mr. G. H. M. Baker, agent for the Rathbun Company, at Lindsay, is in town.

Mr. Robert Armstrong returns to the Dental College, Toronto, on Thursday.

Mr. Charles Ellis and daughter, of Niagara Falls, are registered at the Grand Central.

Mr. Aaron Cox returned yesterday afternoon after a visit of some week's duration in Ottawa.

Messrs. D. and D. C. Gilmour, Trenton's lumber men, are registered at the Snowden House.

Rev. Dr. Torrance is in Campellford today, assisting at the induction of Rev. Mr. Laird, B.A., into the charge at that place.

Miss M. Swarthfigure, of Lindsay, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. C. Lansing, No. 148 London street, has returned home.

Mrs. Brodie and her little daughter have returned west after a visit of several weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Edmison.

Mr. George Heap left this morning for Chicago. George was a great favourite in "typo" circles in town, and will be missed from the lacrosse field.

Mr. Will Merrill has returned to town, after being in Port Hope for the last couple of weeks assisting Gough Bro's to open their new branch in that town.

Mr. Donald McNaughton, of Montreal, who has many friends in town, is at present a patient at the Nicholl's Hospital as the result of an unexpected attack of illness.

Mr. George Evans, who has done some great work on the bicycle track this season, left yesterday for Toronto, where he has accepted a position. The Toronto bicycle clubs will be glad to acquire a man of his calibre.

The Belleville Intelligencer says,—Mr. John Moffatt, Manager of the Oak Hall, Peterborough, spent Sunday in the city visiting relatives. Mr. Moffatt has gained a reputation in the West as one of the most enterprising and go-ahead managers of a business in which there is much competition. He has lately gone to Peterborough and opened up a business there.

Mr. Wm. Kerr, Q.C., has decided to open a branch office in Peterborough, and for that purpose has entered into a partnership with his son, Mr. Francis D. Kerr, who will take charge of the Peterborough business, Mr. Wm. Kerr, of course, remaining in Cobourg, but will act as counsel for the Peterborough firm. Mr. Francis D. Kerr is a young man of ability, an excellent speaker, and of irreproachable character, and will no doubt do a good business in law in the northern metropolis. We congratulate him upon the start he has made, and from his capital management of cases here we have no doubt of his success.—Cobourg Post.

FOWLER'S CORNERS.

A Young Man Has a Leg Broken.

On Monday, a young man named John Wright was driving a horsepower, owned by Mr. Robert G. Dyell. He was sitting on the top of the horsepower, on a box, with his feet resting on one of the arms. One foot slipped off and, going down, was caught in the machinery of the horsepower with the result that the large bone of the leg was broken below the knee. With a platform such as is usually employed, such an accident would be almost impossible. A platform is much cheaper than a box, which is very liable to cost a leg, if not a life.

THE DREADED ANTHRAX.

Mr. James Flett, of Verulam, has for some time past had a number of cattle grazing on a farm adjoining his own, and Friday morning discovered that one of them, a heifer, was sick. She soon died; another heifer was found dead on Saturday, and on Sunday morning a steer was sick. Mr. Flett then sent to the Falls for Dr. Mason, who, upon examining the steer, which only lived for a short time, said that the disease was anthrax, from which there have been other deaths in this vicinity, although it is by no means common. It is supposed by scientists to be caused by microbes in the soil, and manifests itself in various ways; sometimes by an affection of the lungs; sometimes, as was the case with Mr. Flett's cattle, by passing what look almost like ropes of blood; and sometimes by lameness and swelling of the joints or by tenderness across the loins. How the microbes got into the soil we do not know; but unless there is such a thing as spontaneous generation, which but very few believe, they must either have lain there, awaiting the proper conditions for their developments, for an unknown length of time, or have been carried by the winds from affected cattle possibly hundreds of miles away. Dr. Mason says that the disease is contagious and almost, though not quite, always fatal, generally causing death within twenty-four hours, and sometimes within a few minutes, of the symptoms being noticed. By his orders Mr. Flett took the remainder of his cattle on to his farm, and, as they appear to be in good health, it is to be hoped that all have escaped the deadly microbes except the three above mentioned.—Fenelon Falls Gazette.

JUST LOVELY!

Have you seen the latest stylish kind of Photographs Sproule is taking now?

"Yes, I've had some taken, and I think they're just lovely," so natural, with such exquisite tone and finish to them. He calls them the PLATINO process."

"I know—I had several specimens from England, but did not know Mr. Sproule had introduced them here. He seems to keep in touch with the best artists, don't he? My husband and I sit for PLATINOS to-morrow. You shall have one."

A GREAT MEDICINE.

Cod-liver Oil is useful beyond any praise it has ever won, and yet few are willing or can take it in its natural state. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil is not offensive; it is almost palatable.

Children like it. It is Cod-liver Oil made more effectual, and combined with the Hypophosphites its strengthening and flesh-forming powers are largely increased.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

HOW TO FILL THE SILO.

Directions for Cutting, Filling, Tramping and Covering the Silage.

Corn should be well glazed and nearly ready to be cut for corn fodder before it is fit to put in the silo. If it is cut too green there is a larger unavoidable loss of dry matter than when put in more mature. If it is too ripe the stalk becomes too woody, and too much of the nourishment has been stored in the ear to leave the balance of the plant most palatable.

RATE OF FILLING—It is not a matter of any great importance how rapidly a silo is filled. It may be filled in two days if desirable, or the filling may extend over a period of three weeks if the corn does not get too matured. If the corn is planted so as to ripen at a little different times, two men and a team with a tread power may easily fill an 80-ton silo in three weeks. The idea that corn must be rushed into the silo is wrong, and so is the idea that it must stand and heat for a certain time. It is better to fill slowly, because then the silage has time to settle better and so more can be stored in the same space. Then in the square silos, where the danger from spreading is great, it is much better to fill slowly, as this avoids, in a large measure, the strain on the sides. Four men and two teams can, of course, work to better advantage than two men and one team, and where neighbors are so situated that they can do so it is a good plan to change work, filling one or two days in one place and then in the other.

TRAMPING THE SILAGE WHEN FILLING—The tramping of the silage in square silos during the whole process of filling is a very important matter, especially in the corners, and the need becomes more and more urgent the nearer the top of the silo is reached. In deep, round silos which are more than 18 feet in diameter, the man in the silo may be dispensed with until the silo is half full, it only being necessary to go in and level down occasionally. The upper half of all silos should be thoroughly tramped.

COVERING THE SILO—If feeding is to begin at once after filling no cover is needed and where green corn is being fed to cows in the fall the feeding of silage from the silo may begin from the day the silo is filled. No time is necessary for it to stand before it is ready to feed. If the silo is to stand only a few weeks, then the surface of the silage, during three consecutive days after filling, should be thoroughly tramped, and at the end of this time the surface should be wet with 15 to 20 pounds of water to the square foot. From this to five days later it should be tramped again, and again wet down with about ten pounds of water to the square foot. When this has been done the surface should not again be disturbed until it is proposed to feed the silage. If the silo is to stand until after Christmas before opening, it may be best to provide a cover if something cheaper than 15 pounds of silage to the square foot of surface can be had. In our silo the past year, which stood until the last of March with no other cover than that provided by wetting the surface as described, there was a loss of about two tons of silage on a surface of 177 square feet. If marsh hay can be had, this, cut on and thoroughly wet, makes an excellent cover. Chaff, thoroughly wet also makes a good cover. Two layers of boards with paper between, put on after wetting and thoroughly tramping, will avoid nearly all spoiling. Whatever is provided as a cover, it should rest directly upon the silage and be allowed to settle with it.—American Agriculturist.

Strongest Oxen in the World.

According to the Boston Globe, James D. Avery of Buckland, Mass., owns the largest and strongest pair of oxen in the world. They are thoroughbred Holsteins, are 7 years old and weigh 6,000 pounds. They stand 17 hands high and measure in girth 9 feet 4 inches, and from tip to tip 14 feet 9 inches.

They are so nearly alike in appearance that hundreds of people have asked, "Are they twins?" They have the finest and glossiest of coats and a most magnificent set of horns.

They can easily draw a load weighing 11,000 pounds.

Fibre Structure of Wool.

Wool is made up of a great number of cells, each fibre having a bulbous kind of root from which new cells are constantly being formed. Each lot of cells pushes outward the preceding ones and this constitutes the growth of wool. Wool is not a smooth, hollow sheath, but its outside covering is made up of a number of scales, each of which points outward, but in "matted" fleeces the fibers are very much mixed. The scales interlock and from the wavy nature of the fibers they wrap round each other and so deteriorate from the value of the wool for felting purposes. Wool is softened and the outer scales protected from injury by a quantity of fatty matter taken from the skin called the yolk and the presence of this yolk determines to a great extent the value of the wool. In the Merino it constitutes 33 per cent. of the weight of the fleece. The curves in the wool are largely governed by fineness of fiber and this makes it the more valuable for felting. From the delicate structure of wool, the better sheep are cared for, the better their surroundings, the better will their wool be. The finest wools are obtained on good land where the sheep are kept lean and in a constantly improved state; but even on the worst of land it is possible to turn out good samples of wool by making up for poor land in box feeding, by dipping two or three times a year to get rid of insects and caring for the sheep well in every way. If the sheep suffer, so does the wool and while a temporary break in the condition of the flock can be made up, the weakness in the fiber which it has caused can never be regained.—Farm and Home.

Preparing for the Winter Dairy.

Don't be guilty of the carelessness or unbusiness-like thoughtlessness of having cows served now or during the next three months, so they will come in during the flush of feed and flood of milk. Neither cream nor butter brings so much then, and is really difficult to dispose of. If the cows rest any time let them rest then (while farm work is driving), and calve in July, August or September. Coming in at this time they will give more milk than they would otherwise do when milk and all dairy products are high, and more nearly equalize the work of the year. Some foolishly fear it will be impossible to get the cows with calf if service be delayed, but this is proved to be a falacyl. The cows conditions should be watched and she should be treated patiently while in season, but the time when she is next to calve may be controlled as easily as most things in business life. Nature calls for 90 per cent. of the calves in spring, when even a calf will scarcely sell because there are so many of them. But the sensible farmer does not always let nature dominate. He has the market and other artificial conditions to meet, and must cultivate fresh cows at the periods of greatest profit.

One Leak That May be Stopped.

Losses are going on year after year upon farms that are considered by their owners to be well and economically managed. There is so little account taken of the loss from manure piles, and through stable floors, that very many do not consider it worth while trying to stop it. Remember that loss right here means clean money out, just as much as does a mouse hole in the granery floor; but it is more silent and treacherous. A ton of urine from a horse is worth three times as much as a ton of solid manure, and the urine from cattle is worth twice as much as solid, ton for ton. What we would say is, put a cement floor right after harvest, and stop this silent leak.

Another Steamer Sunk in Hay Lake.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 28.—The steamer Robert L. Fryer, bound up with coal and the steamer Corsica, bound down with iron ore, were in collision at the Dyke, in Hay Lake channel this morning. The Fryer was cut through to the foremast and her bow was almost entirely carried away. She lies with her decks under water. The Fryer was valued at $95,000, and carries insurance of $90,000. The Corsica is badly damaged. Her port bow is stove in, and she was opened up two feet below the water line. Her fore part is full of water.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

Feed the pigs regularly. This is the first thing in feeding for profit.

The farm that does not support a flock of poultry is not managed to the best purpose.

Well bred pigs that are kept growing are ready for the market all the time. Scrub hogs do not begin to get fat until they have got age on them.

The majority of farmers keep too many horses for the work they have to do, too many cows for their dairy product, too many hogs for the pork they have to put in the barrel and too many hens for the value of the eggs and poultry they have to sell. Are not these reasons enough why so many cannot make farming pay? If they can lessen the expense of keeping a large stock and yet get the same product there will be a profit instead of a loss on all their farming operations.

Summer is the time to get hens in condition for fall and winter laying. Most of those that were prolific layers in spring will now want to set, but this should not be allowed. Kill off all the roosters, and begin feeding the hens liberally of the kind of food that makes feathers. Wheat is as good as anything, with some milk every day to drink. If fed thus they will begin to moult early and get through this depressing operation before cold weather. A small quantity of linseed meal will help the hens to shed their coats. Many do not begin to feed extra until cold weather. Then even if the new cat is produced, the hen is too much exhausted to begin laying before spring.

The small Yorkshires are not so very small, and for most eastern farmers are preferred and can be brought to a weight of 400 pounds at a year old, while the large Yorkshires may often be made to weigh 700 or 800 pounds, but require two or three years to make their full growth. There is an advantage in keeping the small Yorkshires pure for use as breeders, crossing with sows of some of the large, coarse breeds. These latter are more prolific and are better milkers, while the small Yorkshire cross, if pure, will impress fineness of bone and easy fattening in their progeny. The crossbred pigs will make the larger growth and be quite as easy to fatten as the pure-bred pigs but they will not serve as breeders. After the first cross there needs to be a return to the full-bread male, or the breed will rapidly deteriorate.

The work on a harvesting machine is more severe on the shoulders of a horse because the tongue of the machine will disturb the collar and make it press on a new place. The best wash for such a sore when it is formed is salt and water in which some alum has been dissolved. On no acount put grease of any kind on the sore. This softens the skin and makes the breast lather. Make two thin but broad pads for the collar, one just above and the other below the sore. This will make the collar press on a different place, but these pads should be watched and replaced if they get out of place or form in bunches. Whenever a horse has been galled the team must be stopped frequently and back so as to allow the collar to ease its pressure on the shoulder. It is much easier to keep a horse from galling than it is to cure him while still continuing to work him. But if the collar is eased several times during each fore and afternoon, and is removed entirely while the horse is eating during the noon hour, a tougher skin can be built up. It would be better though to hire another horse, and let the one whose shoulder is sore have entire rest for a few days, rubbing it frequently with the salt water and alum solution to make the hide tough. It is really a way of tanning the hide.

CONSUMPTION

A Point in Tile Draining.

In using tile drains it is sometimes absolutely necessary to change the pitch of the drain, but in locating the drain in the beginning such a selection should be made as will permit the change of pitch from a slower to a faster current as shown in the lower diagram of our sketch. In this case sediment will not be deposited at the point where change of grade is made, as it would were the grade changed as shown in the upper diagram. Here there is a slackening of the current, and any silt in suspension in the water will in part, at least, be dropped at the point where the water in the drain begins to runs more slowly.

WRONG AND RIGHT WAY OF LAYING TILE.

To Candle Eggs.

Have a room as dark as you can or use a box 12 by 16 inches in size painted black inside. Stand on its end and open one side 8 inches from the bottom. All above 8 inches closed, set the box with this open side toward you and set the light in it. Nail a piece to the bottom, under front edge with the top of box back, this will enable you to see better. This box can be used in any place, though it is better in a dark place. Take such light as you have; the best candlers use common candles. Take two or three eggs in left hand and the eggs you candle in right hand and hold sideways between you and the light, as close to the light as you can and let it rub against one of the eggs in left hand; some are quite particular about this as the eggs reflect the light through each other; turn the egg round until you are satisfied you have tested it. Take a strictly fresh egg as a standard to judge by. If a place like the vacuum in a mason's spirit level appears on the upper side as you turn the egg, it is not strictly fresh; though if this vacuum is small and the egg is all right otherwise it may be comparatively fresh. A dark or black spot indicates a poor egg; the white of a stale egg also looks thin and watery. Remember dark shelled eggs are thicker shelled and do not candle as easy as white ones. You can only learn by breaking suspicious ones and it requires much practice to excel.

To Clean Copper and Brass.

Copper tea kettles and other household articles having polished surfaces should not be allowed to get rusty, as rust will destroy the metal. If the surface be rubbed but a little every day, the labor of keeping them bright will be very light. In case a rust is formed on the surface, apply a solution of oxalic acid, which, well rubbed over tarnished copper or brass, will soon remove the tarnish, rendering the metal bright. The acid must be washed off with water, and the surface rubbed with whiting and soft leather. A mixture of muriatic acid and alum dissolved in water, imparts a golden color to brass articles that are steeped in it a few seconds. To give a finer polish, go over the surface of the metal with rottenstone and sweet oil, then rub off with a piece of cotton or flannel, and polish with a leather.

Shop-Girl's Luncheons.

Shop-girls' luncheons are proverbially poor things to support health and strength on, particularly those that are put up in boarding houses. It isn't a good plan for sales people to eat in the ill-ventilated apartments set apart for lunch-rooms in the basements or shops. They should get into the open air during their whole nooning. The establishment of the cheap and good dairy lunch-rooms in large cities has been a blessing to both men and women working for small salaries; likewise to women who are doing a day's shopping, and are far too apt to consider it economy to get faint from hunger rather than spend the money for a luncheon. A glass of milk and a cheese sandwich, or a bowl of bread and milk, is a much more sensible lunch than a cup of coffee and a doughnut, or a piece of pie and an eclair—favorite lunches, these latter combinations. A bowl of soup is also cheap and good, if it is good soup.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all compaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

Beauty's Commands.

It makes but little difference whether the weather is hot or cold, whether the times are hard or easy, fashion drives rough shod along the great highway of life, and she has a great procession following at her heels. The young and the old are there, and the lords of creation are as anxious to hear her mandate as the weaker sex. It is amusing to hear men laugh at women for following so closely the latest styles, when in reality a new way of tying a neckscarf will give them as much concern as the "hang" of a skirt does the dainty little lady who wants to look just right. We are alike; we all want to look our best and be up to date. It is a duty we owe to ourselves and our friends that we make as pleasing an appearance as possible, and we all make a desperate effort to do it, although we may not acknowledge it even to ourselves. "My tailor" and "my dressmaker" could tales if they chose about the vanity of the world.—Philadelphia Times.

SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE

The Great Health Restorer of the Century.

Sickness Cannot Cope With It—Has Cured the Worst Cases on Record—Cures at the Nerve Centers, and Thus Cures Permanently—A Wonderful Specific in All Cases of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Nervousness and General Debility—Has No Equal as a Spring Medicine.

There is a great deal of uncertainty in the methods adopted to remove disease. Doctors are not free from this kind of thing themselves. The poor patient has to put up with a good deal of experimenting. The discoverer of South American Nervine takes too serious a view of life to play pranks of this kind. He does not think that these human bodies of ours should be fooled with. He has recognized that they are subject to disease, but by scientific methods he has learned that just as the watch is to be put in perfect repair only when the main spring is kept in running order, so with the individual, he remains in perfect health, only when the nerve centers are kept healthful and strong.

What disease is more distressing than indigestion or dyspepsia? Some simple remedy may be given to cause relief for the moment. Nervine is an indisputably successful remedy for the worst cases of indigestion, because it reaches the source of all stomach troubles—the nerve centers. Indigestion exists because the vital forces have become diseased and are weakened. Nervine builds up the nerve centers, from which comes these forces, removes the causes of indigestion, and then builds up the health completely.

How many systems are run down through nervousness. A stimulant may give ease, but it will not cure nervous troubles. Nervine has cured more desperate cases of nervousness than any other medicine anywhere. And it does so for the same reason that it cures indigestion. The nerve centers are deranged, or there would be no victims of nervousness. Nervine rebuilds and strengthens the nerve tissues, and hence its marvellous powers in diseases of this kind.

In the spring of the year the strongest suffer from general debility. The blood, through neglect, has become impoverished and the whole system gets out of order. We speak of it as a spring medicine. Nervine restores the exhausted vital forces that have led to this tired, don't-care, played-out, miserable condition. No one can take a bottle of Nervine at this season of the year without disease quickly giving way to abounding health.

The moral is plain, simple and readily understood. If you would not trifle with disease, then you will take South American Nervine, which will not trifle with you.

OFFERED TO ANGERS

Although Girouard Had Accepted the Judgship.

MR. ANGERS LUCKILY DECLINED.

The Offer Was Made by the Premier, and If the Ex-Minister of Agriculture Had Accepted What Would the Result Be?—Broker Baxter a Happy Man.

Montreal, Oct. 1.—Certain members of Parliament, the Montreal bar and the public generally appear much interested to-day over a statement to the effect that the Hon. Mr. Angers and Mr. D. Girouard, M.P. had been offered the vacant position in the Supreme Court bench about the same time, and the question is, What would the Government have done had both of these gentlemen seen fit to accept?

The matter was looked into by your correspondent last evening, and the facts are about as follows:

The position of judge of the Supreme Court was offered to Mr. D. Girouard, M.P. for Jacques Cartier, by Sir A. P. Caron, Sir Charles Elibbert Tupper and the Hon. J. A. Ouimet, and the learned Q.C., having expressed his willingness to accept, it was agreed that the appointment would be made at the meeting of the Council on Friday. However, the day before the Cabinet assembled, Sir Mackenzie Bowell wrote to his ex-colleague, and on Friday morning the Hon. A. R. Angers left for Ottawa, where he met a member of the Government and that was the Prime Minister.

The correspondent learns upon authority that cannot by any possible means be placed in doubt that there and then the position that had already been accepted by Mr. Girouard was offered by Sir Mackenzie to the Hon. Mr. Angers. Luckily for the Ministers and for Mr. Girouard, the ex-Minister of Agriculture declined to accept the high position that had been tendered him by the leader of the Administration and the honorable gentleman left for Montreal the same evening. The facts related above are of more than ordinary importance, and the correspondent has taken the greatest possible care to verify their correctness.

Mr. James Baxter, the well-known banker and broker of St. James-street, is a happy man to-day, as he got a judgment in review for the handsome sum of $102,000. In 1889, Mr. Baxter bought a one-fifth share of the estate of the late W. C. Phillips from the latter's son, Mr. H. S. Phillips, and later on another share was purchased from a second son, Charles W. Phillips. Some time after, however, Mrs. Bowie, who was a sister of the young Phillipses, claimed her right, through an old French law, to redeem the property, which she was finally allowed to do. Experts declared that Mr. Baxter was entitled to $96,000, but this having been contested by Mrs. Bowie, the case went again before the courts, and Judge Archibald gave decision in Baxter's favor with costs for the above-named sum. The judgment was unanimously confirmed in review by Judges Jette, Davidson and Tellier, who gave Mr. Baxter $102,000.

It is learned to-day that one of the things decided upon by Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson is to raise a half million dollars as soon as he returns to London for the purpose of thoroughly equipping the Chicago & Grand Trunk division of the railway, and that the work of improvement will be entered upon in the very near future.

Demers was placed in the witness box and told a perfectly straight story, saying that he had left his home at St. Henri at an early hour on the morning of the murder, and gone to his work in the city. When he left home his wife was all right. The first he knew of the murder was when a messenger came to the factory and told him of it. Demers persisted in his story, although he was severely cross-examined.

Shortis, the Valleyfield murderer, will be taken to Beauharnois to-morrow, where his trial will be begun under the presidency of Mr. Justice Mathieu.

PILLAGED BY INSURGENTS.

A Cuban Village Looted, Houses Burned and Bridges Blown Up.

La Grande, Cuba, Oct. 1.—In the jurisdiction of Lajas, near Cienfuegos, a new insurgent band numbering about 300 men, led by one Socorro Peres, raided the estate California, belonging to an American syndicate, and burned several houses, sacked the plantation commissary and destroyed all the baker shops. They afterward burned the railway depot, nearby, cut the telegraph lines and drove off all the horses and cattle in the vicinity.

Many farm laborers joined the band, swelling its numbers to 350 or 400. Spanish troops have started in pursuit of the rebels. The magnificent sugar refinery El Indio, in Mata, the property of Count Moret, was destroyed a few nights ago by rebels and the superintendent was carried off a prisoner. The village of Mayazigua has been occupied by rebel troops, who captured and burned the local Spanish volunteer garrison. The invaders tied the Mayor and burned his office after confiscating his official seals and scattering the archives. A detachment of Roloff's rebel troops attempted to blow up Albino Bridge, on the railway between Sito Grande and Cifuenta, but succeeded in effecting only insignificant damage. In Remedios, 26 insurgents voluntarily presented themselves with their arms to the Spanish commander and were all pardoned by order of Gen. Campos. A train was held up by Cuban bandits on the road to Turquino, and a majority of the passengers were relieved of their purses and other valuables.

A CRITICAL POINT REACHED.

Unusual Activity in British Military and Naval Circles.

New York, Sept. 29.—Harold Frederic cables from London to The Times:

Lord Salisbury is still in his Normandy retreat, and the date of his return continues to be spoken of as Oct. 12, but the impression has grown here among men of affairs within the past few days that he is likely to come back earlier. There seems to be something grave on in the far east. It is difficult to get at definite details, but apparently a critical point has been reached in the progress of what may be called in a general way the partition of China. The fact that new developments have arisen is confirmed by implications from numerous sources. The naval and military clubs are suddenly full of surmises. The gossip is based on signs of unusual activity which officers at posts have observed.

When the first of these was reported it was assumed that they referred to the Armenian affairs. The British Mediterranean squadron has been moved round from Salonica, so that it is now within six hours of the Bosphorus, and it is understood that the concert of remonstrating powers has completely broken down. It may be, of course, that the disturbance of the service barometer which has been noted still means nothing more than a demonstration in the force off the Dardanelles, but later rumors all point to China as the quarter really involved. Nobody seems to have any specific news. There is only this mysterious, formless impression, springing from no one knows precisely what or where, which here in London so often precedes actual events.

The Foreign Office itself has never been so absolutely dumb before. In other times it has always been possible to obtain some kind of correcting hints as to what at least was not going on; at one period, indeed, certain city magnates produced on their fellows the effect of knowing more than was quite consistent with the ideal of official reserve, but this time Lord Salisbury succeds in preserving absolute secrecy. Even the politicians who are of importance in his own party and who are on terms of intimacy with the Cabinet ministers, are as completely in the dark as any cab driver. There are doubts, for that matter, if the Cabinet ministers themselves are much wiser.

Englishmen are driven, therefore, to form conclusions from external phenomena. They see an apparent combination against their country, both in the Mediterranean and the Pacific, on the Nile and on the Niger, and are disturbed in their minds about it. They try to take for granted that Lord Salisbury is looking out for these things and safeguarding England against all its enemies, but their hope that he will not be too late grows nervous at times. This is a state of mind peculiarly open to panic and to propagation of false alarms. These rumors alluded to may be the pure product of general uneasiness, but I think that there is something in them.

SERIOUS BLAZE AT MANITOWANIE

A Mill, Storehouse and Dock Burned—Insured at Six Per Cent. for Years, But the Policy Had Expired.

Manitowaning, Oct. 1.—Fire has destroyed the grist mill belonging to J. V. Burns, together with the storehouse and part of the dock belonging to the Indian Department. The mill was valued at about $6000 and has been insured at 6 per cent. premium for 12 or 14 years, but the insurance expired a few days before the fire.

The loss on wharf, storehouse and contents will be about $5000.

Callandar Saw Mill Burned.

North Bay, Oct. 1.—John B. Smith & Son's saw mill at Callandar was burned, and the lumber piles had a narrow escape. The mill was insured and will be re-built.

KILLED BY A LIVE WIRE.

Fatality During Progress of a Fire at Joliette.

Joliette, Que., Oct. 1.—A fire which broke out in the tannery belonging to Mr. Henrichon at an early hour Sunday morning totally destroyed that large establishment, together with the Henrichon residence adjoining, both valuable pieces of property. The loss will be between $15,000 and $17,000; there is some insurance. An electric wire was broken by the firemen and the wires were hanging down into the street. Mr. August Lanctot, unthinkingly grasped the wires to place them out of the way and was instantly killed.

CUT TO PIECES.

James Boyd, a Farmer, Literally Ground Up by a Train.

Britton, Mich., Oct. 1.—Last night Wabash train No. 55 struck a man on a culvert half a mile north of this place and ground him all up. With the exception of the hands and feet there was no resemblance of a man about the remains. The head was entirely gone, only a piece of skull and the skin from one side of the face being found. But the remains were identified as those of James Boyd, a well-known farmer, who lives about three miles northeast of this place, by the clothing.

FELL A THOUSAND FEET.

Awful Death of a Woman Aeronaut in California.

Monrovia, Cal., Sept. 30.—An accident occurred here on Saturday which resulted in the instant death of Nellie W. Hagel, wife of F. G. Hagel, the aeronaut. The couple have been travelling throughout the State, making balloon ascensions and parachute jumps.

Mrs. Hagel made an ascent, and when at the height of 1000 feet she pulled the rope which cut the parachute loose. She shot downward about 100 feet like a flash. The air caught the parachute and it began to open, but suddenly it became apparent that she was falling.

She came down like a cannon-ball and struck head first, crushing her skull to a jelly.

Six Killed by a Blast.

Independence, Mo., Oct. 1.—Six men were killed yesterday by a premature explosion in a rock quarry.

Killed by a Falling Limb.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 1.—A month ago Saturday, Peter Lazon, a young man who resided with his mother on Anglesea-square, went off to the Shanties and told his friends that a month would do him. It did, though not in the way he anticipated. Lazon was at work Saturday when a limb from a falling pine tree struck and killed him.

PASTEUR'S FUNERAL.

The Body Will be Interred in the Pasteur Institute Garden.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The funeral ceremonies of Prof. Louis Pasteur have been fixed for Saturday next. The religious ceremony will take place in the Cathedral of Notre Dame, and the body will be temporarily interred in the family vault at Montmartre. M. Poincarre, Minister of Instruction, will deliver a eulogy on behalf of the Government, and Prof. Bertrand, the distinguished mathematician, will deliver an oration on behalf of the Academie Francaise. The final interment will take place in the garden of the Pasteur Institute on Oct. 30, when Prof. Bertrand will again deliver an oration, and M. Duclaux, the eminent French chemist, will speak in behalf of M. Pasteur's colleagues. Until the body is placed in the coffin it will be exposed to public view in the room in Villeneuve in which M. Pasteur died, which is already filled with wreaths. After the body has been placed in the coffin, which will be done to-morrow, it will be conveyed to the Pasteur Institute, the main doorway of which on the Rue Dutot is draped with black with silver borders and stars, the vestibule being similarly draped. A catafalque has been erected in the centre of the library, upon a dais, supported by four columns. Fourteen candelabra and 50 torches will surround the coffin. Telegrams of sympathy and condolence were received by the family to-day in large numbers, including messages from ex-Premier Dupuy, the Comtesse d'Eu, daughter of the late Emperor Dom Pedro of Brazil; Prince Waldemar and Princess Marie of Denmark, and Princess Mathilde of Orleans.

CHAPLEAU DECLINES.

His Health Precludes His Re-Entering Politics.

TITLE TO A MICA MINE SETTLED

General Gascoigne Enters Upon His Duties —Why the Sealing Schooner Marvin Was Seized—Controller Wallace Returns From the Coast.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 1.—There has been great caucusing amongst politicians here to-day. Governor Chapleau did not reach Ottawa until 4 o'clock this morning and, desiring to see friends here, decided to remain over until the afternoon train. Postmaster Dansereau of Montreal, the Governor's guide, philosopher and friend, had gone as far as Sudbury to meet him, while Mr. Nantel joined the party here. Sir A. P. Caron was early at the station to welcome the Governor and drive him up town. His Honor had a long conference with the Premier.

When asked if there was anything in the rumors about Mr. Chapleau entering the Cabinet, Sir Mackenzie laughingly evaded the question.

An intimate friend of the Governor informed your correspondent that there is no likelihood of Mr. Chapleau re-entering political life until his term at Spencerwood has expired, as his health will not permit his participating in active politics at present.

Gen. Gascoigne, the new commander of the Canadian forces, entered upon his duties this morning. He had a long conference with the Minister of Militia during the day. In the course of an interview, the general said: "It will be my aim to first thoroughly master the composition of the force, of which, I am not ashamed to say, I am absolutely ignorant. After that I will be in a position to decide what can be done for the advancement of the militia. It is only six weeks ago," he added, "I was offered the command of the Canadian militia. I gladly accepted it, because of my love for Canada and the pleasing recollections of my two former visits to this country. I made my entry into the army in Canada. I came out to this country in 1863, and three months afterwards joined the Scots Guards in Montreal. Eighteen months later the guards went home to England and I accompanied them. My second visit to Canada was in 1870, when I was aide-de-camp to Gen. Wolseley, who had command of the Red River expedition." Gen. Gascoigne is the guest of Lieut.-Col. Lake, Quartermaster-General. The general has leased "Earnscliffe," the former home of Gen. Herbert, but the property will undergo some repairs before he takes up his residence there.

The Government has received a report in reference to the seizure of the sailing schooner E. B. Marvin by the United States cruiser Rush. The commander of the revenue cruiser claims to have acted under Article 63 of the Paris Award, this section prohibiting the use of fire arms in Behring Sea. The Marvin was at the time outside the prohibited zone and doing execution with spears among the seal herds. The weather was good and indications were favorable for a thousand-skin catch or better. On the 2nd of Sept. the Rush was sighted and soon after a boarding party from the cutter were making a critical examination of the skins secured. Of the entire lot there was but one the offered any basis of argument as to how it had been taken. It had a spear wound plain and unmistakable, and also a small three-cornered hole in the back, which the boarding officer decided must be a bullet hole. The Marvin's skipper denied that a firearm had been used in Behring Sea, and offered to allow the fullest inspection of his ammunition stores, of which an inventory had been carefully made and certified by officers of H.M.S. Pheasant, before the schooner left Atu to enter Behring Sea. The mark on the skin might have been made, he explained, either by a spear penetrating through or by the gaff used in pulling the seal into the boat. Or it might possibly have been made by a rifle bullet some time in the past, the seal escaping to eventually fall a victim to the Marvin's spearmen. Explanations and denials were alike useless. The verdict of the Rush's commander was that the papers and one seal skin be sealed up and the schooner, in charge of a prize crew, be sent prisoner to Onalaska. There she was in due time turned over to H.M.S. Pheasant, whose commander took the trouble to examine the store of ammunition aboard, finding that not one shell had been used since he had himself checked it before the schooner left for the sea. He could not determine the case, however, and by his direction the schooner came on to Victoria and reported to Collector Milne. The Pheasant reached Victoria last night with the doubtful seal on board. The commander of the Pheasant says the alleged shot hole from its appearance, might easily have been made with a spear. Collector Milne has reported all the facts to the department. In British Columbia public opinion is that the seizure was entirely unwarranted.

Mr. Justice Girouard was sworn in as Supreme Court judge shortly before 11 o'clock this morning. The court was duly opened at the regular hour, the six judges being present. Mr. R. S. Cassels read the new judge's commission and work of the term commenced. The morning sitting was taken up by an argument by Mr. Charbonneau, in an appeal against the corporation of St. Cunegonde for the quashing of a certain by-law. Judgement having been reserved, Ross v. Queen was then argued.

An Order-in-Council has been passed appointing O. M. Gould of Montreal chairman of the Board for selection of standard samples of flour. The following gentlemen will be associated with him: J. L. Spink, William Galbraith, Toronto; R. Noble, representing Dominion Millers' Association; C. R. Smith, Hamilton; J. D. Saunby, London; W. M. Ogilvie, A. E. Gagnon and W. A. Hastings. The Board will meet in Montreal before the 31st inst., at call of chairman.

A decision was given in the Superior Court of Ottawa County this morning by which Mr. J. J. Watters, late acting Commissioner of Customs, was adjudged owner of a mica property on Lot 7 of the 10th range of Hull Township, the value of which is estimated at $50,000. The property was originally owned by Maurice Foley, a farmer, who purchased it from the Crown, and the lands were in 1872 leased by him, subject to a yearly rental and a royalty, for 99 years, to the late T. P. French, Inspector of Postoffices. Mr. Watters purchased the rights under this lease from the heirs of Mr. French. Mr. F. W. Powell acquired his assumed rights from Mr. Pierce Mansfield of New Edinburgh, who claimed to own the mining rights in question by virtue of a lease of the same given in 1874 by Michael Foley, son of Maurice Foley. The Court upheld Mr. Watters' title and condemned the defendant to pay all costs. Previous to the commencement of the suit Mr. Powell had begun work on the mica deposit known to exist on the lot, and had extracted several thousand dollars' worth of mineral during the three or four weeks before he was disturbed. At the end of that time the mica was seized by Mr. Watters and has since remained in charge of a guardian.

The Hon. N. C. Wallace reached Ottawa to-day from the Pacific Coast. This is the first time the Controller has visited British Columbia and needless to say he is delighted with the Province so far the mining district is concerned.

Mr. Wallace says that the work now going on is truly marvelous. Some of the mines make a profit of at least $1000 a day. One smelter, which has been erected by A. B. Hendrix, a Connecticut man, at a cost of $300,000, is smelting 200 tons of ore a day. Other smelters are in process of erection at Nelson, Kaslo and Trail Creek. Mr. Wallace believes there is a great future for mining in British Columbia.

Capt. W. H. Smith reports in regard to the Thomson Line steamship Dracona, wrecked on Fame Point on Aug. 14 last, when on a voyage from Middlesboro-on-Tees to Montreal, that the casualty was caused by the master, Capt. Baxter, sailing too fine a course for a Canadian coast during the prevalence of a dense fog, without any opportunity of verifying the ship's position. Use of the lead was also neglected. Owing to the master's previous good record, Capt. Smith does not recommend any interference with his certificate, but recommends that Baxter be severely reprimanded and cautioned to exercise greater caution in future.

At the request of the United States Government the Department of Railways and Canals will exchange statistics of the amount of traffic passing through the canals on either side of St. Mary's river. An officer of the Canals branch has been detailed to collect statistics at the Canadian Soo.

Sir Julian Pauncefote did not reach Ottawa to-day. He will be here to-morrow.

Evidently Dr. Bourinot's latest work on "How Canada is Governed" is recognized as filling a long-felt want. The Government of British Columbia has adopted it as a text-book in the high schools of the Province, and the feeling is prevalent that the Hon. G. W. Ross should adopt it in like manner for the high schools in Ontario.

FAST TRAIN RUNS IN CANADA.

From St. Thomas to Windsor, 112 Miles, in 106 Minutes

Detroit, Oct. 2.—The Michigan Central Railroad this morning made a very rapid trip from Buffalo to Chicago, covering the 511 miles in the actual running time of 9 hours and 45 minutes. The train was the J. Pierrepont Morgan special, bound for Minneapolis, and consisting of two private sleeping cars and a baggage car. The run from St. Thomas to Windsor, 112 miles, was covered in 106 minutes. The best burst of speed made on this run was between Fargo and Charing Cross, the distance being covered at the rate of 72 1-2 miles an hour.

Nine Lives Lost.

Margaret, Mich., Oct. 1.—News has just reached here of the loss of the schooner Elma with nine hands, on Pictured Rocks, during the frightful gale Saturday night.

The Elma had a crew of seven and a woman and child on board, and that any of her company escaped alive is out of the range of probability. The Elma was owned by William F. Warner, Tonawanda.

The Elma Picked Up.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—The barge Elma which broke loose from her tow during the recent storm on Lake Superior, has been picked up and taken to Grand Island. She will prove a total loss. About 200,000 feet of her cargo of 520,000 feet of lumber, remained on the broken barge. The crew of six men and a woman and child have not been found and are undoubtedly lost.

INSANITY HIS DEFENCE

Shortis Arraigned For the Valleyfield Murders.

HE ENTERS A PLEA OF NOT GUILTY

The Grand Jury Find a True Bill—Shortis Pleads Not Guilty, and His Counsel Set Up a Defence of "Unconsciousness and Unsound Mind"

Beauharnois, Que., Oct. 2.—Shortis, the murderer of John Loy and Maxime Leboeuf, at the Valleyfield cotton mills, on March 2nd, was brought here from Montreal. At 10.30 he was arraigned before Judge Mathieu, presiding at the Court of Queen's Bench. The grand jury, after considering the case, returned a true bill against Shortis for the murder of Loy and Leboeuf, and the attempted murder of Hugh Wilson.

The father and mother of Shortis occupied seats near the prisoner, and took a greater interest in the trial than did their son, who appeared perfectly indifferent to the proceedings.

After the indictments had been read and the usual charge put to the prisoner, he replied "Not guilty" in a loud voice. Mr. Greenshields, for the defence, then added a special plea that at the time of the murders and murderous assault, Shortis was laboring under natural imbecility and disease of the mind to such an extent as rendered him incapable of appreciating the gravity of the act, not knowing the he was doing wrong, that he was in a state of unconsciousness and of unsound mind; that he was mad and insane.

Mr. McMaster, on behalf of the crown, in reply, contended that the plea of the defence should not be allowed, on the ground that it contained unstatutory excuses. He argued that evidence of uncontrollable madness and moral insanity were exemptions in law, and concluded by moving for the exclusion of the latter portions of Mr. Greenshield's plea.

Mr. Greenshields, in answer, called the attention of the court to the Royal Commission's report, which was filed and requested that it be now opened, but Judge Mathieu would not allow this to be done at this stage of the proceedings. The court then adjourned.

MURDERED HIS MOTHER.

He Was Drunk on Alcohol and She Took the Bottle From Him.

Sherwood, N.Y., Oct. 2.—Windsor S. Nye, middle-aged and a laborer, who lived here with his wife and seven children, was lodged in the Cayuga County Jail to-day for killing his mother.

Nye was employed at the Lehigh Valley Railroad until recently, when he lost his job through drunkenness. Lately he has been drinking heavily, and yesterday imbibed freely from a bottle of alcohol. His mother succeeded in getting the bottle away from him.

He charged her with taking it, and upon her refusal to return it he fired two shots at her from a revolver.

One bullet entered the woman's mouth and passed out at the base of the skull. The other pierced her left lung. She died almost instantly.

WRECKED ON THE LAKES.

Schooner Elma Lost and Nine Lives With Her.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 1.—The terrific northwest gale which has raged here for two days continues to do great damage to shipping. It is reported that two large steamers are ashore at Kewenaw Point. The captain of the Schuylkill, which arrived from Duluth yesterday morning, says he could not make out who they were, but thought they were the Matoa and Masaba, belonging to the Minnesota Company, and valued at $200,000 each. They cleared from Two Harbours yesterday, for Cleveland, loaded with iron ore. The point where they are aground is said to be the most dangerous one of any on the whole chain of lakes.

From White Fish Point comes the report that a schooner is flying signals of distress. Two tugs have gone to her rescue.

At Shelldrake the barges Carney and Lillie May, of the Nellie Torrent tow, are ashore and total losses. Twenty boats are anchored between here and Iroquois Point, and above the encampment several large steamers are awaiting an abatement of the gale.

The steamer Birkhead left Barage, loaded with lumber, Saturday, having in tow the schooners Elma and C. B. Jones. When off Whitefish Point the wind shifted to the northeast, with such fury that they were unable to get around the Point, and put back in hopes of getting behind Grand Island. The Jones was lost as soon as she turned back, but reports from the Soo state that she is anchored off Whitefish Point and all the crew saved.

When off Miners' River, which is at the eastern run of the forty-mile run along a range of enormous cliffs, known as the Pictured Rocks, the Elma parted her tow line and disappeared in the darkness. The Birkhead was unable to assist her unfortunate consort, and was compelled to hold on for Grand Island, where she found shelter. Early Sunday morning, as soon as the gale subsided, Capt. Marstero returned down the coast in search of the Elma. Fragments of wreckage were found washing on the lake, which left no doubt that the schooner had been dashed to pieces on the gigantic cliffs.

Tired but Sleepless

Is a condition which gradually wears away the strength. Let the blood be purified and enriched by Hood's Sarsaparilla and this condition will cease.

"For two or three years I was subject to poor spells. I always felt tired, could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not do me any good. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to try it. Before I had finished two bottles I began to feel better and in a short time I felt all right and had gained 21 pounds in weight. I am stronger and healthier than I have ever been in my life." JOHN W. COUGHLIN, Wallaceburg, Ontario.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1895.

THE bye election takes place in Kingston Oct. 15th.

THE Conservative journals report Hon. Mr. Laurier as saying naughty things he didn't say, and then tear their hair because he denies them. They would be delighted to see the future Canadian premier commit political suicide.

THE Chinese may claim that they have been bulldozed by the British. They have, at any rate, been Buller-dozed. Admiral Buller's fleet of British warships has worked the charm.

PREMIER BOWELL has it in his power to make two politicians happy and to make a score disgruntled. There is a vacancy in the Cabinet—Minister of Agriculture—and the chief Justiceship of New Brunswick is also vacant. There's a vacancy in the collectorship of Montreal so old that it comes to be regarded as a bottomless pit. The only way to fill it according to the programme is to make West Huron vacant—but a certain other bye-election makes the Government Antigonishtic to opening up another constituency if it can be avoided.

WHILE the honest farmer is bumping over bad roads in a lumber wagon on his way to market with a load of wheat at 60 cents a bushel, Hon. Mr. Foster, Minister of Finance, down in the Maritime Provinces, seizes a palace sleeper, in which travellers on the Intercolonial Railway have engaged berths, and takes it from its route and uses it for himself and family to travel in luxury to Ottawa. Mr. Foster who pockets about $8,000 a year of the people's money, and justifies his claim to be considered the farmers' friend by taxing almost everything the farmer uses, further shows his sympathy by depriving travellers on a Dominion railway of their rights in order that he may travel in state and luxury. Mr. Foster has grown very high and mighty since he was travelling about the country delivering temperance lectures at $10 a night. Mr. Foster, the farmers friend, will doubtless, as he has done before, vote for the appointment of a lawyer to fill the vacant office of Minister of Agriculture.

THERE is a great deal of moral influence in a British warship with steam up and guns trained. Backed by a British fleet, Britain's ultimatum to China, demanding the degradation of the Viceroy of Szechuen, who was responsible for the recent Chinese atrocities, is promptly acceded to. The Viceroy has been degraded and stripped of his rank for failing to protect the missionaries. This is all very satisfactory, and it is to be hoped that the stern measures taken will be effective in placing the "Heathen Chinee" on his good behaviour in the future. At the same time, suppose a Chinese fleet should invest San Francisco and demand reparation for the wanton slaughter of hundreds of Chinese who have been murdered by United States citizens. It is no wonder that the ignorant Chinese populace should, in view of the manner in which their fellow-countrymen are treated in the Christian United States of America make reprisals, and it is not to be wondered that Chinese officials sympathise with the people when United States politicians are willing, to gain their ends, to pander to and inflame the worst passions of the worst elements of the heterogenous population of that country.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RA

Gathering of the Otonabee Sunday School Association.

On Thursday, Sept. 26th, the Otonabee Sundap School Association held a rally in the Bethel Methodist church, Keene circuit. There was between forty and fifty delegates from the other schools of the township in attendance. Every school was represented with but one exception, the Hiawatha Mission.

The rally consisted of two sessions, one in the afternoon at 2:30, the other in the evening at 7.30.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy, President of the Association, occupied the chair at both sessions.

The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises conducted by Dr. Harrison, of Keene, Mr. McNeil taking the Scriptural lesson.

The pastor of the church, Rev. J. J Liddy, in a short address warmly welcomed the delegates, in the name of the people to their church and to their hospitality.

The Visiting Committee appointed by the Executive then presented their reports. Miss L. Nelson reported for the Keene Methodist, Miss E. Armstrong for Keene Presbyterian, Miss E. McCamus for Villers, Miss Hanbidge for Hiawatha, Mr. J. Lancaster for Bethel, Mr. Geo. Stewart for Coldsprings, Mr. T. Sargeant for River Road, Mr. S. Armstrong for 6th line, Mr. M. Matchett for Lang and Rev. W. C. Beer for Salem. The reports were encouraging and show the Sunday school work of Otonabee to be in a very prosperous condition.

Mr. S. R. Armstrong, Peterborough, very clearly explained the "Home Class" department of the Sunday school. After discussion by the delegates, a resolution recommending the organization of home classes in every school in the township was unanimously carried.

Rev. J. J. Rae followed with an address on normal work. Rev. J. J. Liddy then pronounced the benediction.

The evening session opened with a song service led by Dr. Harrison. After a few opening remarks by the president, Miss L. Kennedy, Primary Superintendent, gave a practical illustration of primary teaching, using familiar objects and blackboard illustrations.

Mr. John Moffatt, of Peterborough, gave an address on "Privileges, Responsibilities and Lesson Preparation." He said it was a great privilege to be a Sunday School worker, a great responsibility to be a Sunday School worker and to be a successful one there was need of thorough lesson preparation.

Rev. J. J. Rae followed with an address on "The Dark and Bright Side of Sunday School Work." He spoke of the difficulties in the way of Sunday School work, and then in contrast the many things that strengthen and encourage the Sunday School worker.

The session was closed with a short consecration service led by Rev. J. J. Liddy, Keene.

The interval between the sessions was profitably spent in social intercourse. The good people of the neighbourhood erected tables on the church lawn and entertained all to supper.

The Association feel they are indebted to the people of Bethel church for the assistance they gave in helping to make this one of the most successful rallies ever held by the Otonabee Sunday School Association.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss Lottie Smith, of town, is visiting at the home of Mr. John A. Fowler.

Mr. John Heslip, who has been visiting friends in this part for some time, has returned to his home in Chesley.

North Monaghan Council of Royal Templars are still in active condition, and adding to their number at almost every meeting. We wish them every success in their excellent work.

The Elmdale Sunday school are making great preparations for a grand tea and concert, to be held in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 15th. Tea will be served from half-past five to half-past seven, after which an excellent programme will be rendered by the best talent that Peterborough can produce, assisted by high-class local talent. Come and enjoy an evening with us and we'll make you happily welcome.

MONTREAL MATRIMONIAL SUIT.

Because Mr. Whitney Liked Miss Burdette Mrs. Whitney Finds Life is Not "a Grand Sweet Song."

Montreal, Oct. 2.—An action was entered to-day in the Superior Court that has created a sensation in Montreal social circles, and is likely to lead to interesting developments. The action is taken by Mrs. A. S. Whitney, a prominent society lady, against her husband for separation.

The lady mentioned in the case is Miss Maud Burdette, a wellknown singer. Miss Burdette was born in Belleville, Ont., and was well known as a singer in Toronto and other western cities. She is a member of Christ Church Cathedral choir in this city and has been a leading figure at concerts.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney were married in 1892. Miss Burdette, who is a most attractive person, was frequently a visitor at the Whitney home, and was very intimate with young Whitney. This led to bad blood between the married couple, and Mrs. Whitney finally left her home and has now taken out an action for separation.

Miss Burdette indignantly denies that there was anything wrong in her relations with Whitney and her friends believe her innocent.

The universal prevalence of scrofula is a fact well known to physicians. The only medicine that has hitherto proved a specific for this dreadful complaint is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which expels every germ of poison from the blood. You cannot begin to use it too soon.

Not a Scar Left.

In scrofulous cases under ordinary treatment scars are left when the sores are healed. The action of Burdock Blood Bitaers is assisted by applying it externally as well as internolly. There is no cutting, no knife, just a natural healing power over abscesses, ulcers, sores, etc., that leaves the flesh as clean and sound as a babe's.

It's Not the Money nor The Name

It's the Clothing itself that does the business.

If it were like any other Clothing, buyers would'nt be asked to name it, nor would they be so anxious to get it.

There's a Character

In Oak Hall Clothing which distinguishes it from all other Clothing. It very often happens that the good qualities of an Overcoat, like beauty, are but skin deep. But Oak Hall's goes further—we take care that the inside and through-and-through is as satisfactory as the outside.

There was a time when it was necessary for the man who wanted a perfect fitting Suit or Overcoat to go to the Merchant Tailor and leave his measure, and after waiting several days get it home, only to be dissatisfied at finding that he had paid a high price for what he has not received.

But, since our advent into Peterborough, he finds that he can come to us, and for a small part of the former price, get as good a Garment and be satisfied with the material and fit BEFORE HE PAYS OUT A CENT.

Oak Hall Clothing

Has no execrable hump to disfigure the form or annoy the wearer. It is uniquely put together, made up and trimmed from good material.

Therefore, it is not a matter of Dollars—only Sense. Other things being equal, a Suit that will last twice as long as another, is worth twice as much. If one stove would heat a room comfortably no one would think of using two, and the same logic holds in the case of Oak Hall Suits and Overcoats. One Oak Hall Suit or Overcoat will give more satisfactory wear and warmth than two of any other make.

The proof of the pudding is the eating of it.

Premier Turner of British Columbia Speaks of the Attempt to Grab Canadian Territory Adjoining Alaska —The New Provincial Loan Floated in London.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 2.—Hon. J. H. Turner, Premier of British Columbia, who went to England in April last, arrived back by the Parisian, and was seen to-day by your correspondent. The western leader will leave to-morrow morning for Ottawa, where he will have an informal talk with Sir Mackenzie Bowell and his colleagues with reference to several questions affecting the Pacific province and the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Turner is of the opinion that steps should be taken at once by the Dominion Government to ascertain the proper boundary between Columbia and Alaska, for if something is not done in the near future this country runs a great risk of losing a heavy block of territory, that was stipulated as being part of British North America at the time of the treaty between Great Britain and Russia in 1825. As it now stands, the British Columbia Premier declares, the Americans have issued maps in which this territory, which in reality belongs to Canada, is represented as forming a part of the district of Alaska, and even some of our own maps have taken it for granted that the American claim is a valid one, and the disputed territory is placed in Alaska. The Premier adds that there are a great many people now living in British Columbia who could give most valuable information on the boundary question, and there would be very little difficulty in making clear the weakness of the American claim.

Hon. Mr. Turner had the good fortune to pass an hour with Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, and the latter is represented as being most desirous that the Canadian Government would make a move in the matter.

"Of course," said Mr. Turner, the Colonial Secretary could not treat with me, but he is extremely interested in the case all the same."

"What are your impressions of the Unionist leader," asked the correspondent.

"He is a very able man," replied Hon. Mr. Turner, "and I think he is determined to do something for Canada. He is not only favorable to the Australian line of steamers, but to the fast Atlantic service and these great projects have certainly a powerful champion in the person of the member for Birmingham.

The Premier of British Columbia was in England in connection with the £420,000 loan, and although he was sick two months and could not get about, he is very well pleased with the result. The loan in question, which was for 50 years, was taken at 95, the rate of interest being 3 per cent, and although the public subscribed for the greater part of the sum required, parties in British Columbia fomented opposition to the deal.

"Upon what grounds did they attempt to defeat the loan ?"

"They pretended that British Columbia was already too deeply in debt and that the present ruling power could not be relied upon. In fact, they insinuated that we were boodlers. Had this opposition not developed itself the loan could have been placed at 96, instead of 95, but this is a splendid success when we remember that in 1886 our 3 per cents sold at 86. Our opponents even went so far as to go on the Stock Exchange and offer British Columbia bonds at a lower rate than they were selling at when I arrived on the other side, thus endeavoring to weaken the credit of the province." Hon. Mr. Turner gets his money for a little more than 3 1-4 per cent., which the Premier looks upon as a very low rate for British Columbia, which paid from 4 1-2 to 6 per cent. for five years.

The Premier is also delighted at the interest now being awakened in financial centres over British Columbia mines. A syndicate has been formed, including such names as the Rothschilds' and Baron Hirsch, to develop the mining industries of the coast province. The sum of $500,000 has already been subscribed, and the Premier believes untold good will be done to British Columbia.

The crase in the South African mines still continues, but Mr. Turner thinks half of the mines will turn out worthless. However, much money is being made, as no less than 200,000 ounces of gold was found in the Randt district during the month of August. Half of the orders to invest in these mines, Mr. Turner states, come from France, the Parisians doing their African mining business through London.

"If the depositors give us time I hope the Banque Du Peuple will resume business. At any rate, the matter will be settled this week." This is what President Grenier told your correspondent to-night. The report as prepared by Chipman and Demartigny is now being discussed.

The defence in the Demers murder case produced some further sensational evidence to-day, putting a merchant, who lives near the Demers house, in the witness box, who swore that on the day of the murder a strange man entered his yard. He had blood on his clothes and acted in a very strange manner. The object of the defence is to convey the impression that the woman was murdered by unknown persons.

FREIGHT FROM THE ORIENT.

Seven Special C.P.R. Trains En Route From Vancouver to New York.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 2.—R. P. Angers of Montreal has resigned the position of trustee of the C.P.R. town sites in Manitoba and Western Territories. L. A. Hamilton, C.P.R. Land Commissioner, assumes the trusteeship in addition to his present duties. There are over 50 town sites along the main line of the railway included in the trust.

The figure the Canadian trans-continental railway cuts in Oriental traffic is shown by the fact that seven special trains are en route from Vancouver to New York, carrying the cargo brought by the steamer Empress of India on her last trip.

Accidentally Shot Himself.

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 1.—Byron G. Taylor, son of Harbormaster Taylor, removed from St. John to London about two years ago. He returned lately, and came to this city and started on a shooting expedition with H. B. Ramsford and two guides. To-day news came to the city that Taylor accidentally shot himself about 15 miles from this city. His wife is in London.

MORE OUTRAGES IN CHINA.

Christians Attacked and Wounded Their Houses Looted and Cattle Stolen.

San Francisco, Oct. 2.—Advices from Tokio, dated Sept. 17, received by the steamer City of Pekin, state that another anti-Christian outrage is reported in China. On the 23rd of August as service was proceeding in one of the chapels of the American Board of Missions in Canton, a number of roughs entered the building, vilified the native Christians, declared that the Black Flags had beaten the Japanese and said that a reward of $2 would be given to a Chinaman that killed a foreigner. Owing to the tumult the minister had to discontinue service, after which the mob proceeded to destroy the furniture.

News also comes from Foochow that at Hoo-Chong, near Hing-Hua, an attack has been made on the native Christians. Several of the latter were wounded, one fatally; eight houses were looted and destroyed and the cattle of the Christians were stolen. The riot is said to have resulted from a proclamation with a double meaning issued by the magistrate on the subject of the Kucheng massacre. The report adds that five appeals made to the magistrate for protection were unsuccessful.

Li Hung Chang has been appointed Manager of the Imperial Chancery or Prime Minister of China. He will henceforth reside in Pekin. Opinions differ as to the significance of this step, but there seem sto be little doubt that it means the great Viceroy's political extinction.

ATTEMPTED MURDER AT CORNER.

During a Fight Between Two Youths One Draws a Revolver and Fires at His Assailant.

Comber, Ont., Oct. 2.—Fred Lamarsh and George Taylor, two boys about 17 years of age, got into a fistic encounter this afternoon, when the former drew a revolver and fired two shots at the latter. The shots, however, did not take effect.

Lamarsh left the village, but Constable Lindsay caught him three miles from here, hiding in a shock of corn.

Four Days at the Pumps.

St. Joseph, Mich., Oct. 1.—The schooner Capt. George W. Naughton, which rode out the gale at anchor three miles south of here, was towed into port to-day. The crew had been kept at the pumps since Saturday.

Wrecked Off Newfoundland.

Lapoile, Nfld., Oct. 1.—The French schooner Marie Blanch, from St. Pierre for Bay of Islands, with a general cargo, went ashore here last night. The vessel and cargo will be a total loss. The captain and one man were saved out of a crew of five.

Spanish Cruiser and Three Lives Lost

Havana, Oct. 1.—The Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon ran aground on Sept. 29 on the Bajos Los Colorados, off Mantau. All of the crew were saved except three sailors, who are not accounted for. The vessel is a total loss.

German Mail Steamer Lost

Rio Janeiro, Oct. 1.—The German mail steamer Uruguay has been wrecked off Cape Frio, 80 miles east of this port. Her passengers and crew were landed here.

To Answer for Damaging the Alert

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Oct. 1.—The British steamer Condor has quitted this port, leaving here its captain, who is to answer for the damages done to the United States gunboat Alert by a collision in the river. These damages are estimated at $20,000 gold.

WHEAT STANDARDS OBJECTED TO.

Winnipeg Grain Exchange Rejects the Standards Recently Fixed and Opposes Salaried Inspectors

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 2.—At a special meeting of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange these resolutions were unanimously passed:

"That the standards as made by the last Standards Board, other than commercial grades, No. 3 hard and frosted, be rejected, and that the inspectors be instructed to grade according to the wording of the act, and that this recommendation be forwarded to the Department of Inland Revenue."

"That regular grades of wheat from interior points, containing an admixture of scoured wheat, be binned at Fort William separate from other grain."

"That in the opinion of this Exchange the Standards Board, as at present constituted, is altogether too cumbersome, and the Exchange recommends to the Dominion Government that the Grain Inspectors at Fort William and Winnipeg and the chairman of the Western Board of Examiners and Arbitrators be constituted a permanent board to select such standards as the Department may deem necessary."

The Exchange is opposed to paying inspectors by salary unless the Government is prepared to assume full responsibility for inspection, including all loss arising from misgrades. At present the inspectors are under heavy bonds to make good all loss caused by misgrading.

The Manitoba wheat market has been somewhat nervous and irregular during the past week. Lack of interest manifested by Liverpool buyers is said here to be due to exaggerated reports sent abroad as to America's spring wheat crop. It is expected when the real truth becomes known that an improvement will take place. Though weather recently has been unfavorable for threshing there was nevertheless been a considerable quantity of wheat marketed. Receipts at Fort William the past week are as large as in the same period last year. The bulk of the wheat marketed is of the highest grade, as no buyers are looking for inferior stuff. Prices range from 44 to 48 cents per bushel.

CANDY
FOR CHILDREN.

The Popular Health Magazine says the desire in a child for candy and sweets is a natural one and should not be stifled. Good candy and sweets in moderation, not only do no harm, but are actually beneficial. Too much sweet upsets the stomach and spoils the appetite, but candy in moderation if it is not taken before a meal, is food which children crave naturally, and among the purest and most wholesome is that manufactured by

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from the prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story :—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	PerCent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.63	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 23, Annual Premium $177.

Total Cost for 6 years.....1,062 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy .....1,250 Dollars
Nearly 200 Dollars more than Insurance Cost.

A. E's Life Policy for $5,000, issued April, 1886, Age 22, Annual Premium $86.

Total Cost for 9 years..... 774 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy .....1,000 Dollars

October Strawberries.

Mr. Frederick Heubach, cabinet maker, has left on the sanctum table samples of well-ripened strawberries, plucked on Oct. 2nd. We Must Have Freedom

Years ago a man once told the famous Horace Greeley that he had stopped his subscription to the Tribune because he did not like one of its leading articles. Greeley's answer is worth recalling, and it may not be wholly without application to the world of religious journalism: "If you think to find any newspaper worth reading that will never express convictions that disagree with your own, you are doomed to disappointment. The Tribune would not be deserving of respect if it could be coerced by the threat of loss of subscribers to refrain from telling the truth as he he sees it. This a free country, and the man who does not give freedom of opinion to others does not deserve it himself."—Evangelical Churchman.

SOUTH WARD MISSION TEA AND CONCERT.

Both were Most Successfully Carried Out—The Ladies Deserving of Congratulations.

A most enjoyable dual entertainment was held last evening in the Sons of England Hall, under the auspices of the St. John's South Ward Mission. A harvest home supper was served at six o'clock, and it is no exaggeration to say that the ladies of the Mission can give the rest of the parish pointers on how to serve a tea. Those who partook of supper in the Hall were unanimous in praising it as one of the most toothsome repasts ever served in Peterborough, and if the Harvest Home Supper is made an annual affair it has insured for itself a large patronage next year by the success which attended it last evening.

The supper was followed by a concert at eight o'clock and it also was greatly appreciated. Its chief feature was a fan drill by a dozen prettily costumed Sunday School girls. The evolutions which they performed were most graceful and reflected great credit on their instructor, Mr. Geo. S. Innes.

Miss Lillie Jackson sang a number of very sweet solos, and well deserved the enthusiastic encores which she received.

Mr. C. N. Brown's reading of several Irish selections were greatly appreciated, as were well executed songs by Mr. Taylor and Miss Mabel Rickey. Mr. Armstrong's piano solos were brilliantly executed and well received, and altogether the whole entertainment passed off most enjoyably.

ST. JOHN'S NEW CURATE.

Rev. Carl Smith Presented With a Number of Theological Works.

The Lindsay Post says,—"Last evening the congregation of St. Paul's church took advantage of the presence of Rev. Carl Smith at the temperance society entertainment in the school room to present him with a number of theological works as a slight token of their regard and regret at his impending departure to another field. The presentation was made by Mr. J. H. Knight, who with much feeling voiced the general regret of all at the approaching severance of the pleasant ties that have existed for the past two years between Mr. Smith and every member of the congregation. That Mr. Smith regrets leaving the good people of St. Paul's was amply borne out in his reply. At the close of the entertainment the people flocked about Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and the latter was made to feel that she also occupied a warm place in the hearts of St. Paul's congregation."

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will arrive in town to-night from Lindsay and will take up their residence on Rubidge street.

WEDDED TO-MORROW.

Celebrating of the Gilmour-Burnham Nuptials in Toronto.

Rev. J. L. Gilmour's many friends in town will be pleased to learn that he is about to be wedded to-morrow. The Brockville Times, in referring to the event, says:—"This afternoon Rev. J. L. Gilmour, pastor of the Baptist church, left for Toronto, where he will be married on Thursday next to Miss Burnham. In view of this important step in his career, his Brockville friends could not allow the occasion to pass without testifying in some slight degree to their high regard for him. On arriving in Toronto he will find awaiting him an elegant gold watch, suitably inscribed, with a heavy gold chain and ivory pencil attached. Numerous other presents, to mark the happy event, have been despatched to Mr. Gilmour's Toronto address from his many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour will take up their residence in Brockville after a three weeks' wedding journey." The bride is a sister of Mr. Hampden Burnham, town.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders, and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

Grand Trunk Annual Western Excursions.

The Grand Trunk Railway will run its annual western excursion to Chicago, Detroit and points west on October 3rd, 4th and 5th, 1895. Return fares from Peterborough, to travel by all regular trains, are as under:

From Peterborough to Port Huron and Detroit, $6.
To Saginaw and Bay City, $9.
To Cleveland, $8.50.
To Grand Rapids, $10.
To Cincinnati and Chicago, $12.
To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (all rail) $35.
To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (via lake route between Sarnia and Sault Ste. Marie), $36.50. All tickets good to return on or before Oct. 21st.

The great attraction of this excursion is that passengers will have the opportunity of passing through the celebrated St. Clair Tunnel, the greatest submarine tunnel in the world. Its total length with approaches is over three miles. Its cost was over three millions of dollars. For tickets and reservations of berths apply to J. P. Hurley, city ticket agent, or Wm. Hayden, station agent. 5d76

MASON VS. PETERBOROUGH.

The Appeal Dismissed [With Costs to the Town—Is This the End of the Matter?—A Short History of the Case.

The report of yesterday's legal proceedings at Osgoode Hall contains the following:—

Mason vs. Town of Peterborough.—Moss, Q.C., and E. B. Edwards, Peterborough) for defendants, appealed from judgment of Ferguson, J., at the trial in favour of plaintiff for $750 damages and costs, sustained by plaintiff owing to alleged breach by defendants of their statutory duty to keep in repair the sidewalk on Murray street, in the town of Peterborough. Watson, Q.C., for plaintiff, opposed appeal. Not concluded.

LATER.—A telegram received this afternoon states that the appeal has been dismissed with costs against the town. This is the end of this tedious case of litigation unless the town decides to carry the matter to the Supreme Court.

It will be remembered that this case has been in active litigation since the year 1892. At three successive assize courts the presiding judges have refused to give effect to Mr. Edward's objection on behalf of the town, that there was no case to go to the jury, and have on each occasion ruled that the case must go to the jury. The court in Toronto on appeal from the judge of assize sustained the judges ruling that it was a case to be submitted to a jury, and dismissed the appeal with costs. The judgment of this court being appealed against and brought to the Court of Appeal, that court dismissed the appeal with costs and held that it was a proper case to be heard by a jury. The case then going down to trial for the third time last fall, the counsel on both sides decided to dispense with a jury and submit the trial to the presiding Judge, Justice Ferguson. After an exhaustive trial, Judge Ferguson found that the sidewalk was out of repair; that it was dangerous; that the corporation had notice of this condition and that their failure to repair was negligence for which they were responsible and he gave judgment for the plaintiff for $750 and costs. From this judgment Mr. Edwards appealed direct to the Court of Appeal and the case came up for hearing yesterday at 3 o'clock, Mr. Moss Q.C., and Mr. Edwards, appearing for the town; Mr. Watson, Q.C., and Mr. Dumble for the plaintiff. The hearing lasted till the court rose. Mr. Edwards resumed the argument this morning, and was followed by Mr. Watson, Q.C. After a full argument the court dismissed the appeal on the spot, with costs.

The result of all this is, that as the case stands now, the town will have to pay the judgment ($750 and interest), the cost of every trial and of three motions before the courts. The town will also have to pay the costs of its own solicitor, and the whole of the costs will be in the neighbourhood of $2,500.

The lesson to be learned in this case is that the exercise of a little prudence on the part of the council such as individuals would exercise in their private affairs would have saved the town the larger part of this useless expenditure. Capital will, no doubt, be sought to be made against Mr. Edwards, but as after every event he reported to the council, and got fresh instructions, the responsibility rests with our civic representatives.

ANOTHER PRESENTATION.

Further Particulars Concerning the Pleasant Affair on Friday Evening Last.

On Friday evening, Sept. 27th, the teachers, officers and friends of the Auburn Sunday School gathered at the home of Mr. Adam Turner, who will leave for a few days to make his home in the greatest of western cities, Chicago, where his brother now resides. After spending a pleasant evening with the family, Mr. Simpson, on behalf of the School, read an address, and Miss A. Ellis presented Mr. and Mrs. Turner with a beautiful Bible and hymn book used in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Turner has been for some time treasurer of the Auburn school.

The address was couched in the following terms:

AUBURN, Sept. 27th, 1895.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Turner:

DEAR AND ESTEEMED FRIENDS:—We, the teachers and adherents of the Auburn Sabbath school, having learned that you are about to leave this community, we desire to express our sorrow at the prospect of having to say farewell to those we have learned to love and respect, for your many good and helpful qualities, especially your Christian example of regular attendance and general usefulness in the Sunday school. When you and your family have moved away there will be a vacancy both in our school and hearts, and one that will not be easily filled up. We can scarcely think how we will feel when we look at your empty chairs in the class room.

Dear friends although our loss will be great, yet our best wishes and prayers shall go with you, and may those things which make life happy attend you wherever you go.

We thank you for your hearty co-operation in our Sabbath school work, and hope that in another place you may be as useful in encouraging others as you have us for so many years. And now dear friends be pleased to accept these small tokens of our love and respect for you, and as you ponder over them may God grant that you may do so aright.

Signed on behalf of the teachers and scholars by

G. W. POWELL, SUPT.,	MISS A. ELLIS, SEC.
J. SIMPSON,	MISS J. SPENCELY,
J. DOWNING,	MISS HYSLOP,
W. LANG,	MISS J. GODFREY.

An Equal Surprise and Pleasure.

The poet has sung—"Oh, for a beaker of the warm south, the true, the blushful Hippocrene," and the people have sighed for a good wine too, for the price forbade. For it is not everybody can pay $8 and $10, a dozen for wine, and the masses had to go without. But this is a democratic day, and it is the whole people who are catered for now and not a section of the people. Accordingly, when the Bordeaux Claret Co., introduced their light, pleasant, and thoroughly wholesome wines at the incredible figure of $3 and $4 per doz. quarts there was equal surprise and pleasure among the people. The demand is enormous and orders cannot be filled quick enough. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal.

A PETERBOROUGH YOUNG LADY WINS THE PRIZE.

Miss Edith Robinson Takes First Place in the Bandaging Competition.

The bandaging competition in the final examination of the graduating classes of the Nicholls Hospital Training School for Nurses is always a most interesting exercise to witness, and the result of the contest, which took place last evening, in the Operating Room, has been awaited with unusual interest, as the members of the class have many friends in town.

This year the prize was won by a Peterborough young lady, Miss Edith Robinson being successful in winning the hypodermic syringe. The other competitors were Mrs. Finney, Miss Barnett and Miss Bolster, and the result showed all were well nigh perfect in the difficult art of neatly and firmly adjusting the bandages, and the question of deciding the winner of the prize was not an easy one for Drs. Halliday and Boucher to decide.

On one subject the leg was perfectly bandaged, whilst on another the arm, hand or fingers would display such excellent work that it was difficult to compute the averages. Miss Robinson, however, was finally declared the winner, and as the decision was a most popular one, she received the warm congratulations of all present. On account of being temporarily unwell Mr. Richard Hall was not present at the competition, probably for the first time.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Bay of Quinte Conference Branch in Session at Oshawa.

The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, Bay of Quinte Conference branch, was opened in Oshawa yesterday morning, with Mrs. J. C. Wilson in the chair. After the opening exercises, the roll was called and 98 delegates answered to their names, those from Peterborough being Mrs. James Kendry, Mrs. Meharry and Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Carman, President, took the chair and gave feeling expression to the delight she felt at seeing so many present.

The testimony and memorial service was conducted by Mrs. A. K. Campbell, and proved to be appropriate and impressive. Twenty deceased members were affectionately and touchingly remembered. The Memorial Committee was appointed and several memorials were received. In the afternoon the report of the Executive was given, and the President delivered her annual address which was full of sympathy and encouragement. A unanimous request was made that it be published. The report of the Corresponding Secretary shows an increase, which fixes the total membership at 2,618. The Treasurer reported the income for the year to be $5,137.68, an increase of $196.58. The latter officer received a standing vote of approval, and a consecrating prayer was offered by Mrs. Campbell.

A very pleasing feature was the hearty reception by Mrs. S. H. Eastman of the Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Fowke in behalf of the Presbyterian church.

The Memorial Committee reported on several memorials, some of which elicited considerable discussion.

A clever paper was read by Mrs. Stinson, Wellington, on the "Relation of Literature to Mission Work," and a motion was passed asking for its publication.

At the close of the session quite a number availed themselves of the opportunity offered by Mrs. Demill of visiting Demill College and having tea there.

The evening meeting was well attended by the public. Rev. Mr. Kines, the pastor, presided. The programme consisted of an address of welcome by the chairman, which was suitably acknowledged by one of the delegates. The reading of papers and reports, singing by the choir and by Misses Bingle and Rice, and a reading by the Misses Lick made up the evening's programme.

THE RANGERS WILL WORSHIP IN ST. ANDREW'S.

The Annual Church Parade to be Held Next Sunday Afternoon.

The Rangers marched out last night with both the bugle and military bands in attendance. The route was along Murray street to George, to Charlotte, to Stewart, to Simcoe, to George to Murray, and into the drill shed. The boys marched well, and the turnout was a large one and very creditable to the Rangers. On returning to the armory the following orders were read:

HEADQUARTERS,
Peterborough, Oct. 1st, 1895.

Orders by Lt.-Col. R. W. Bell, commanding the 57th Battalion of Infantry, Peterborough Rangers:

1. The Battalion will parade with both bands, pioneer and ambulance corps, on Sunday, the 6th of October at 3 p.m., and march to St. Andrew's church for Divine service.

2. The Battalion will parade until further notice on Tuesday nights, and companies will drill on such nights as captains of companies order.

3. Every rifle must be returned to their armories on or before the 12th of October in order that they may be cleaned before inspection.

By order,
E. F. MASON, Capt.,
Adj. 57th Battalion.

The dates of the inspection have been altered to the 21st, 22nd and 23rd of the month, and Col. Otter, D.A.G. has written to say that on the occasion of his visit here he will in all probability be accompanied by General Gascoigne, the new Commander-in-Chief of the Canadian forces.

Maltine with Coca Wine Feeds the Nerves.

Are you all run down? Are you tired in body? weary in mind? Does lassitude burden and unfit you for mental or physical labour? Does sleeplessness rob you of mental force? make your days a weariness and night a torment? In brief, is life rapidly becoming a burden to you? Thousands are living in this miserable condition while relief from this worst of mental and physical conditions may be speedily obtained by the use of Maltine with Coca Wine. It is a real tonic, for it builds up the body, gives strength and vigor to the nerves, supplies pure rich blood, restores appetite, and adds wonderfully to the digestive power of the stomach. Maltine with Coca Wine is a builder—builds nerve, builds muscle, builds bone. It gives vim and nerve. It braces, not as a stimulating agent; it braces because it cures. That is what you need. All druggists sell it.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE'S report, as submitted by the chairman, Mr. Ferguson, was adopted, as follows:—

Peterborough EXAMINER	$35 00
A H Stratton & Co	40 65

THE SUPERVISION COMMITTEE

reported through its chairman, Mr. John McKee, in reference to the matters referred to them as follows:

In regard to the letter of Mr. Sutton, your committee met Mr. Sutton and Principal Smith of the Central School, and we have pleasure in stating that the matter has been amicably settled. Your committee after carefully considering the question of establishing a second kindergarten in the South Ward cannot recommend them to do so at the present time.

Your committee would recommend that hereafter the fee for all pupils attending the kindergarten be 25 cents a month, payable in advance from January 1, 1896.

Mr. Hamilton thought the recommendation verged on the edge of something which should be opposed. The fundamental principle of the kindergarten was to have the fees placed at such a small sum that every person, no matter how poor they were, should be able to avail themselves of the system. It was a point which should be considered very carefully. He had watched the progress of the kindergarten classes with interest. At first he was opposed to the system, regarding it merely as a fad, but when he noticed the advancement made by his own younger children after passing through this grade, his interest was aroused. The system of allowing them the liberties of older pupils and not trying to thrash their lessons into them had an effect which showed to advantage in later years. The benefits at present so apparent amongst those who had passed through the Kindergarten would be greatly reduced, he thought, if the fees were raised to an extent to debar the very class which needed the benefits the most. An untidy, careless child was taught neatness, and the change was a beneficial one indeed. Toronto was more in favour of Kindergarten schools every day, and the fees were kept low. He advised that this portion of the report be laid over for further consideration.

On motion of Dr. Boucher the amount of the fee to be charged was compromised and fixed at fifty cents per quarter.

Messrs. Law, Denne ann McKee all thought that if the fees were abolished entirely it would be more advantageous, but they agreed that at present the arrangements settled upon was the best.

THE PROPERTY COMMITTEE reported as follows:

That agreeable to instructions received from the Board during the holidays they had the different schools repaired where necessary.

The girls' lunch room in the Collegiate Institute was whitewashed and some other repairs necessary, also the blackboards re-slated. The other schools received very little repairs which was attended to, with the exception of the North Ward school. The floor in the boys' end of the basement had to be fixed. This was effected with a wood floor and has made great improvement on that part of the school.

The addition to the South Ward school appears to be progressing rapidly and judging from the present appearances is going to add very much to the appearance of the school as well as give us the much desired school accommodation.

In connection with this matter we think it necessary to suggest to your Board that it will be advisable to instruct the Property Committee to ask for prices and authorize us to purchase desks for the scholars and teachers for three or more rooms, as may be considered necessary, and to have them in readiness for the opening of the school. We have to congratulate the Board that at present all the schools are in excellent condition and furnished with the latest modern system of ventilation, except the West Ward extension, and feel that we should expect from the teachers and pupils the very best results.

The report was adopted on motion of the chairman of the committee, Mr. Peter Hamilton.

INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN,—Having visited all the divisions of the Public Schools during the month just ended, I beg leave to submit for your consideration the following report of their condition and progress:

Except the first hour of each day, which has been occupied with office work, my time has been employed in examining the classes and buildings, in teaching lessons, and in making suggestions to the teachers in cases where I thought improvement might be made in the methods or the management.

Though the time has not been sufficient in which to gain a thorough insight into the character of teaching, still I have gathered sufficient knowledge to enable me to form a fairly accurate estimate of the condition of the schools, and the style of the work being done, and I am happy to report that the schools, in many respects, rank among the best I have known, and that the teachers seem, on the whole, earnest and capable. In three of the rooms, however, I found the order and discipline not good, while in two others the character of the teaching was inferior, the methods employed being antiquated, and ill-adapted to secure the progress of the pupils in their studies. In most of the cases, I attribute the defects to want of knowledge rather than to intentional neglect, and hope to be able to report decided improvement at the end of the year. I have met with but one teacher whose heart did not seem to be in the work, and it is not impossible, that my judgment in this case is premature, and that later, the interest in the work will be found entirely satisfactory.

The pupils have attained special skill in drawing and in writing. Indeed most of the work in these subjects is really excellent, and will compare favourably with that of pupils in other schools, who are much further advanced. With the exception of the Divisions mentioned the order and discipline in the rooms are excellent, and the relations between the teachers and pupils, kindly and sympathetic. In many subjects, however, the teaching is not equally good, and in a few the pupils fall below the average in efficiency when compared with other schools similarly situated. Oral reading seems not to have received sufficient attention; at least the pupils lack both in the ability to gather the thoughts in an ordinary passage, and in the power to express themselves naturally and intelligently. In the fundamental rules of arithmetic, even a greater deficiency prevails; and it is a startling fact that the great majority of the pupils, even in the higher forms, cannot add, multiply or divide accurately. The defect is, no doubt, owing to the undue importance which has been attached to the solution of problems in the primary classes. I have drawn the attention of the teachers to the matter, and hope for steady improvement.

So far as I am able to judge from my observations—necessarily somewhat hurried and incomplete—a tendency towards want of thoroughness prevails in the teaching; and the pupils, though naturally quick and intelligent, have not been trained to observe, think and judge for themselves. This training can be had only when the pupils are required to see and examine for themselves, and to form their own conclusions from the facts thus gathered. A practical illustration of the truth of this is to be found in the fact that the pupils who previously attended the kindergarten are far superior in these respects, to pupils who have not had that advantage. Hitherto a lack of apparatus has prevented the teachers from adopting proper methods, and I am convinced the defect is due mainly to this cause. The tables lately furnished for the primary rooms will do much toward removing the difficulty. Some additional supplies are still needed to place these rooms on an efficient footing. For similar reasons, it is very desirable that the pupils in the more advanced classes, be trained to obtain information from the customary source—books.

Indeed such training is one of the chief ends of education. But, as libraries or works of reference are necessary to the carrying out of such plan, little can be done until these are provided. A good encyclopedia, all things considered, is best adapted to meet the wants of a school. I would respectfully suggest that one be supplied to each of the four schools, for use of teachers and pupils. Good works of the kind may now be purchased for twenty-five dollars or less, and I am sure that in no way could one hundred dollars be better expended in the interests of the children.

Now that the building in the South Ward is nearing completion, some changes in the arrangements of the boundaries of the districts will be necessary to be meet the case. I have in preparation a list of the pupils of school age living in the town together with their addresses and hope to submit a plan of arrangement for your consideration at the next meeting. I would beg to suggest, in this connection, that the new school, when completed, be put on a footing equal in all respects to that of the "Central," that is with the full quota of grades from the Kindergarten to the Entrance class, and that the name be changed to "The South Central School." A further extension of the same arrangement might be made by constituting the West Ward school a feeder to the South Central, while the North Ward school performs a like office toward the "Central." I am convinced that such a distribution of the classes and teachers would, by arousing a spirit of friendly emulation, lead to more energetic work and better results. One undoubted advantage which the plan would possess would be the ease with which the boundaries could be adjusted, and the children placed in their proper classes. Should the suggestion meet with your approval, some readjustment of the teachers will be necessary, and under your direction I will make such changes as seem advisable in the interests of all the schools.

The number of truants during the month has not been large, the practice being confined to some half dozen boys; but these are so persistent in their attempts that they have become an actual nuisance, and a menace to the welfare of the schools. They have been taken before the Magistrate and reprimanded, brought back to school and punished by the teacher, all to no purpose. Since there seems no practical provision in the law to meet such cases, I would suggest that two or three of the worst be expelled and the schools thus relieved from the contamination of their example.

In a few instances teachers were absent from duty owing to illness. In these cases I have provided substitutes as promptly as possible, but as I propose to report in detail at the end of the year upon the length of absence and its cause in each division, I need not here refer further to the matter.

Owing to some defects in the courses of study for the various grades, it was found necessary to raise them. The head masters and myself accordingly took the matter in hand, making such temporary alterations and additions as were most urgently demanded, and leaving their final revision to a later time, when more leisure will insure care and accuracy in their arrangement. I hope to have them completed and in readiness by the new year. As the changes already made will entail new and additional work on the part of the pupils and teachers, fewer promotions than usual will follow at the next examination. The shortness of the present term will tend to lessen the number still further, and beside, the state of the classes indicate that more thoroughness is demanded in the nature of the examination questions as well as more care and stringency in the marking of the answers. As all these causes will combine to reduce the number who will pass to a minimum, I will crave the patience of the parents and the Board of Education, until time and opportunity have been given for putting the classes upon a more efficient basis.

The attendance for the month of September is given below, and, all things considered, seems quite satisfactory. It comparing it with that of other months it should be borne in mind that many pupils did not return from their vacations until the end of the second week, and since that time the work has been broken by the Exhibition.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ALEX. WHERRY,
Public School Inspector.

RESOLUTIONS.

On motion of Mr. W. H. Hill, Miss Bacon was re-appointed on the staff of the South Ward Kindergarten.

On motion of Mr. Peter Hamilton and Dr. Boucher, it was resolved:

"That this Board, while they appreciate the benefits to the pupils in the Collegiate Institute of gymnastics and athletics, for which they have made ample provision in the complete gymnasium in connection with the Institute, and while they enter heartily into the fullest use of the same, and are ever pleased to find the pupils emulate and compete with each other in contests of skill in the different games with each other, wish to impress upon the Collegiate Institute staff their disapproval of all contests with other Collegiate Institutes or clubs in other places, and ask them in no case to encourage or aid by their countenance or assistance the occurrence of such contests."

Mr. Hamilton explained that while he by no means discountenanced the holding of the annual school sports, yet he strongly objected to the boys leaving their studies and going to other towns to play hockey. It was not conducive to advancement in study.

Dr. Boucher agreed with Mr. Hamilton in his remarks pointing out that a scholar who was absent from school one day playing hockey and did not get home until far into the night was in no condition to compete in his studies next day with the other scholars. Another serious objection, he stated, to allowing the hockey club to play games in other towns was the expense entailed, which had often to be borne by parents who could ill afford the outlay.

The motion was carried without a dissenting voice.

On motion of Messrs. Hamilton and Law it was resolved,—"That the Property Committee be instructed to get prices and make arrangement for the supplying of the desks needed for the rooms in the south ward school requiring them, as soon as they are ready."

The Board then adjourned.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections.

MICKS & COX, Hunter St., Nearly Opposite Post Office.

WHEN they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. His enjoyment of life is limited. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. He is alive to be sure, but life doesn't possess very many advantages.

Are not all these things equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor as much of it as he would like. If he transgresses any of the rules of his diet, he is punished for it. He suffers much, gets little sympathy.

Dyspepsia starts with indigestion, and may lead to almost anything. Indigestion means a variety of things—it shows itself in many ways. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn. Headaches begin to come pretty soon after that, and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and it is probably the most serious trouble that ever takes hold of a man. Its seeming simplicity is the thing that makes it most dangerous, because it leads to neglect. Constipation means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being re-absorbed into the blood and the whole body is being filled with it. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. There is no telling what may come of it. Constipation is the start of it all. And yet people are careless about it. It is the most serious thing in the world, and the easiest to cure if you go about it right. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Cure it positively, certainly, infallibly. Cure it so it stays cured. Cure it so you can stop taking medicine.

And that is something that no other remedy in the world will do.

THEIR WEDDING DAY IS FIXED

Marlborough to Have a Duchess on November 14th.

New York, Oct. 1.—Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt and the Duke of Marlborough will be married on Nov. 14 in Grace Church. Right Rev. Henry C. Potter, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of New York, will perform the ceremony, assisted by the rector, Rev. Dr. Huntington.

Mr. William K. Vanderbilt will give his daughter away at the altar, but whether or not he will appear at the reception, which is to follow the ceremony at the residence of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Madison-avenue and Seventy-Second-street, is a question nobody seems able to answer. In deference to British custom, the marriage will be celebrated at noon, and will be followed by an elaborate breakfast, thoroughly English in all its details. The Prince of Wales, it is said, will send a representative to this country to attend the wedding. The Duke's mother, the Marchioness of Blandford, will also be present, likewise a number of his relatives. His best man will be one of his relatives.

That Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt or any of Mr. William K. Vanderbilt's family will go to the wedding is considered quite improbable. Society is asking itself whether Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt will present his niece with the silver dinner service purchased by him years ago of the Duke's father. It was formerly used at Blenheim and each piece bears the arms of the house of Churchill.

The young people will make the trip in regular fashion, quite by themselves, aboard Mr. Vanderbilt's yacht Valiant, which he will place at their disposal. On their arrival on the other side the Duke and Duchess will proceed to Saxony, where, through the hospitality of the Emperor of Germany, they will spend a few weeks in some picturesque out-of-the-way castle. Their visit to Germany over, they will go to Blenheim by way of Paris, where they will be joined by Mrs. Vanderbilt. Blenheim is one of the finest estates in England, or in the world. It is situated in Oxfordshire and contains about 2700 acres.

When Mrs. Louis Hammersley married the present Duke's father Blenheim had suffered greatly from the want of money to keep it up. She at once set about restoring it as much as possible to some of its old-time splendor, although it could never be fully restored at any price, for many of its superb art treasures went under the hammer at the Marlborough art sale in 1886.

In addition to the dowry of $10,000,000 to go with Miss Vanderbilt upon her marriage with the Duke, another settlement of $5,000,000 has been made by Mr. Vanderbilt. This last sum, it is understood, will be entirely expended on Blenheim, and will enable the Duke and his young Duchess to keep it up in regal state. The future Duchess of Marlborough will be presented to the Queen by the Marchioness of Blandford at one of the spring drawing-rooms.

Mrs. Vanderbilt and Miss Vanderbilt have come to New York. Besides the splendid settlement Mr. Vanderbilt has made upon his daughter, it is understood that he will give her some superb jewels, among other things a long string of pierced diamonds like the one he presented her mother some years ago. It is two yards long and consists of large matched gems. The Duke's mother will bring the Churchill jewels over with her for her son's bride.

THE GREAT DIAMOND.

At First the Koh-i-noor Was Set in a Tombstone.

The Mogul emperors were wise enough to realize that if they did not build their own mausoleums they stood but little chance of being buried with fitting magnificence, and took a serious pleasure in rearing these stately sepulchers. That at Secundra is like a city in itself, placed at the end of a vast park-like garden, and there is nothing funeral in its character or surroundings, for these monarchs had the pleasant Eastern fashion of looking cheerfully forward to the inevitable, and made use of their mausoleums, while they lived, as pleasure houses, and the surrounding gardens as appropriate places for al fresco entertainments. It was a poetic inspiration on the part of Akbar to have placed his tomb out in the sunshine and in the middle of the wide marble court, with only the blue vault of heaven over it, and the Koh-i-noor flashing like a star from the top of the little marble column at the head. Ferguson does not mention the Koh-i-noor, nor the little column 4 feet high, said to have been covered with gold, but it still stands there, with the empty socket on the top, and it was, at all events, a unique and pleasing idea. Few deserted cities are more impressive than Futtipoor Sikri, and the splendid gateway of the mosque which towers to the height of 150 feet above the ground, dwarfing every structure within the walls, is a landmark for all the neighboring country. Every building which has in any measure escaped the ravages of time is of the same red sandstone, and the only exception is the white marble tomb of Selim Chisti, which stands in the courtyard of the mosque. Such miracles of delicate tracery and such fantastically twisted brackets were surely never before wrought in unyielding marble, and as the sculptured cells in the temples of Mount Abut represent the highest attainment of Hindoo art in this direction, so the tomb of Selim Chisti may stand as an example of what ingenious Mussulman architects may accomplish within the range of purely geometric design, circumscribed as they are by the limitations of their creed

The most unique of all the little structures standing in the neighborhood, or on the near margin of the tank in the vast court inclosed by the palace walls is the one commonly called the Sultana's kiosk, and lovingly designed as the boudoir of an imperial favorite. We know little to-day of the jewel which it sheltered, but one may at least hope that it was worthy of such a casket. The red stone is peculiarly deep and rich in quality of color, and as every inch of it is carved and fretted, it resembles closely a Japanese bibelot of vermillion lacquer.

The "House of Beerbul's Daughter" and all the others, of which no two are alike, show a similar exuberance of fancy, so that no one of these fortunate Sultanas had reason to be jealous of a rival's installation, since all were equally well lodged. Nothing at Futtipoor Sikri is more impressive than the view of the walls, and the strange court-lines of the structures towering above them, when one leaves, at sunset, the gateway on the north, where stand two great elephants of stone with interlinked trunks, and descending the steep pathway, encumbered with fallen fragments, he reaches the isolated tower bristling with elephants' tusks. Here he may look back to the deserted capital, or forward to the western glow, beyond the crumbling ruins of the last and outermost wall, where the great vultures and adjutant storks balance themselves on the broken battlements.

A Dream and Its Sequel.

One night I dreamed that I happened to have a serious accident. I don't know how, but my limbs were nearly severed from my body, and I sank down while the blood gushed through my muslin gown. So intense were my sensations that I awoke and shuddered; furthermore, I had the conviction that my dream was ominous and prophetic. It happened, notwithstanding the night's experience, that I was particularly lively and well next day. Nevertheless the dream would recur, and each time I wondered, "What will it be?" When I nearly cut my hand in halving a lime, I thought, "Was it merely this?" Later, when the horsekeeper was thrown while exercising my mare, I asked myself the same, but knew immediately it was neither of these.

When my husband came home, we went with our little fox terrier, Nello (my companion and pet), for a walk, and as it grew dark I said with a sigh of relief, "The day is nearly over, and nothing bad has happened." Strange, "such dreams with me are always true." After turning homeward we heard the Columbo train approaching, and, as usual, called, "Nello." Galloping in answer the little dog got in the rays of light from the engine and apparently bewildered halted on the rails right in front of the train. Too late! I felt the shock, the sensations, just as in my dream, and with a cry sank on the grass. It was as though my limbs were severed from my body, and my hands instinctively felt down my dress, though of course there was actually no blood on me. My little Nello was killed, mangled before my very eyes.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

A Beet Sugar Corner in France.

London, Oct. 1.—The United Press, through interviews with leading members of London's sugar houses, learns that three weeks ago a French syndicate was formed for the purpose of buying up beet sugar and cornering the market for that commodity. The operations covered a total purchase of 400,000 tons and have resulted in the present rise in sugar of 6 pence per hundred weight. The syndicate has been buying in London to sell in France, in which country alone the trade is likely to be affected. The London firms agree in expression of opinion that the operations of the syndicate will not seriously affect the British and American markets, but they are equally unanimous in the belief that as the French syndicate is strongly backed financially, the corner in France is likely to be successful.

THEORY.

ROYAL SCALP FOOD destroys the diseased germs of the scalp and a healthy action is set up.

It contains the principal properties of the hair that are necessary to its life without which it will not grow. It fertilizes the scalp the same as you do a field of corn and growth is certain. It invigorates the sluggish scalp, cleanses it and thoroughly eradicates all dandruff, which is the forerunner of baldness.

It is the ONLY remedy ever discovered that will restore the Life, Beauty and Natural Color to the hair without harm. MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

EYES TO SEE AND SEE NOT.

That is the case with many people. They need spectacles, and the strange part of it is that some folks never know how bad their eyes are until they have them tested. Have been going through life without seeing as much as they ought to see—perhaps suffering from headaches and tired eyes.

If you will call at Sanderson's Jewellery Store, George street, your eyes will be examined free of charge. If you need Glasses they will be supplied at a reasonable price. Do not neglect this matter and so be like those who have EARS TO HEAR AND HEAR NOT.

Ayer's Pills

'I was troubled a long time with sick headache. It was usually accompanied with severe pains in the temples, a sense of fullness and tenderness in one eye, a bad taste in my mouth, tongue coated, hands and feet cold, and sickness at the stomach. I tried a good many remedies recommended for this complaint; but it was not until I

CONSUMPTION IN COWS.

PRACTICAL MEANS FOR PREVENTING THE SPREAD OF THE DISEASE.

A Constant Supply of Cool, Fresh Air and Lots of Sunlight is Death to Tuberculosis—Each Animal Should be Separated From the Rest by a Wooden Partition.

Introduce a consumptive cow into a herd, and the animal on each side of her in the common stanchions, shown in Fig. 1, will be infected from her breath and spit. Put a board partition on each side of the diseased cow, extending well out in front, and it will be long before she contaminates her neighbor, if she ever does. Exhaustive tests in Denmark, extending over two years, with 208 head, show that "it is possible to rear a healthy herd on a farm where there is an infected herd if the two are separated by a wooden partition, and this will prove successful, even when the calves from diseased cows are raised." G. N. Kinnell, a Pittsfield veterinarian, therefore advocates individual stalls for each cow, by simply running a partition between the stanchions, boarded up in front, with a ventilating shaft 18 inches square over each cow's head, four or six of them to join in a common shaft running through the roof. (Fig. 2 shows such partition not boarded up in front, the advisability of which we question.) He mentions a herd that escaped infection from two badly diseased cows because the sick cows were kept in stanchions boarded up in front, with a tight partition between each stanchion. Dr. Kinnell wisely considers some such method of separating cows the most important, simplest and cheapest means of avoiding infection. He would allow at least 500 cubic feet of air per stall. Besides the 18-inch overhead shaft to carry off the heated foul air he would admit cold, pure air from below. For a stable of 15 cows, he would run under it and back of the stalls a fresh air box three feet square, open at both ends outside the building, with four upright pipes two feet square at regular intervals running up through and a few inches above the floor, all openings to be covered with wire netting. This insures a constant supply of fresh, cool air, and does away with the danger of the much-dreaded draft. The germ of tuberculosis dies in sunlight, hence a stable cannot be too light and airy. It should be constructed so as to be easily and thoroughly cleaned and disinfected. The modern idea is to have cows in an ell or stable separate from the barn, well-lighted on both sides, cement floors, manure wheeled out and spread on land daily; a row of cows on each side, so as to be fed from the middle floor. A partition between the cows' heads is certainly a desirable improvement even to such a cow tinter.—American Agriculturist.

FIG. 2.—STABLE TO PREVENT SPREADING CONTAGION.

Sure Method of Attracting a Man's Attention to Some Other Woman.

The blonde in the hammock seemed to be annoyed.

"I wish you would give me a little advice," she said to the brunette in the reclining chair.

"Certainly. What about?"

"About young Brown, who annoys me fearfully."

"What's the matter with him?"

"I can't get rid of him. He seems to be desperately smitten, and follows me around like a dog."

"Can't you giveh im a hint?"

"Oh, yes, I can give him plenty, but he can't take them. He doesn't know one when he sees it."

"Have you tried?"

"I haven't done anything else for the last two weeks. Why, I have been absolutely brutal to him. I wish you could suggest some other plan that I might try."

"Why not try cutting him dead on the street when you meet him?"

"I have, but it does me no good. He rushes up to me the next time he sees me, and in a most ingenious way tells me how I inadvertently slighted him, as he expresses it. I want to get rid of him absolutely and entirely. I want him to let me alone and keep out of my way. He couldn't please me better than by ignoring me. Now, how can I do it?"

"Well, if he won't take a hint and won't understand the cut direct, I only know of one other thing that might bring about the conditions you desire."

"What's that?"

"You might try matrimony."

"With whom?"

"With him, of course. That's about the only way to get him to neglect you."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Why Not Women Chemists.

A prominent physician, a man, wondered recently that more women do not undertake his profession. Chemistry, he says, is especially a woman's occupation. There is little or no manual labor, and what there is can usually be done by an assistant of scant knowledge. On the other hand, the pursuit of the science in a practical way calls for the keen eye, delicate perceptive faculties, and fine manipulation we are accustomed to accord to women. Much, for example, is determined by shades of color, different phases of the work's progress being thus indicated. Women are proverbially skilled in color-reading, and in the detection of slight degrees of hue-differentiation.

The work is profitable, and the field comparatively bare of woman tillers. Moreover, it does not seem to call for an especial leaning toward or talent for it—at least in any marked degree. One of the first women to invade the laboratory of the University of Pennsylvania was a Philadelphia girl who, finding occupation needful a year or two after leaving school, had the suggestion made to her in a casual way to take up chemistry. With no more knowledge of the science than that obtained in the average educational course, and with no consciousness of special adaptation for the work, she began its mastery. A preparatory course made her ready to go higher, and with one young woman companion pursuing the same study, she knocked at the conservative portals of the university. There was a demur, but quiet persistence finally won, and to the zeal and discretion of these two pioneers is undoubtedly due the fact that to-day a large class of women is at work among the crucibles and retorts of the fine old institution in West Philadelphia.

The persevering first one has held for some time the position of assayer in one of the largest watch factories in the country, and so valuable are her services that while she is away, as at present, on a brief, but much-needed vacation, her work can be done by no one in the great establishment, but accumulates daily against her return.

A Father's Neglect.

It is told of the son of a very eminent lawyer, while awaiting sentence in the felon's dock, that he was asked by the Judge: "So you remember your father?" "Perfectly," said the youth; "whenever I entered his presence he said 'run away, my lad, and don't trouble me.'" The great lawyer was thus enabled to complete his great work on "The Law of Trusts," and his son in due time furnished a practical commentary on the way in which his father had honored that most sacred of trusts committed to him in the person of his child.

Toronto Fair Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

"SUN" LIFE Assurance Co'y of Canada.

The Rev. J. L. Murray, of Kincardine, Ontario, assured in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, in December, 1874, under Policy No. 1406, on the Twenty Year Endowment plan, paying an annual premium of $69.90 for ten years. He paid into the Company in all $699. In December, 1894, his Endowment matured, and he received a cheque from the Company for $1,364.70, being a return of all the premiums paid, and in addition, $665.70. That is to say Mr. Murray got back all the money he invested, with about 4½ PER CENT. COMPOUND INTEREST, and had his life assured for $1,000 for twenty years free of charge.

It is needless to say that Mr. Murray was much pleased. You may gather that fact from the persual of his letter hereto appended. QUERY:—How many of the people of Peterborough invests their money to better advantage?

N. B.—This is an example of profits paid under our Five Year Distribution plan. The results under our Reserve Dividend (or Semi-Tontine) policies may reasonably be expected to greatly exceed that realized under the above plan.

KINCARDINE, JAN. 6th, 1895.

The Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, Montreal.

GENTLEMEN:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your cheque in full settlement of claim under my Ten Payment Twenty Year Endowment policy, No. 1406, and I desire to express my satisfaction with the result of my investment. I paid to the Company an annual premium of $69.90 for ten years, making a total of $699, for which I now receive a cheque for $1,364.70, being a return of all I have paid the Company, and in addition, $665.70, besides having had my life assured for $1,000 during the twenty years. This I consider very good indeed, and I have pleasure in giving my testimonial to that effect.

Yours sincerely,

COMMITTEE CONFERENCES.

On Monday evening in St. Paul's school room a very successful Local Union meeting was held. The president, Mr. H. P. Kennedy, conducted the meeting in such a prompt manner that the whole programme was concluded in an hour. Mr. Mulligan as leader, and Miss Coulter, as organist, put life and spirit into the singing. Altogether the meeting was a success in every way. After the opening exercises the members divided according to the committees they were on, into the various class rooms, over which placards had been placed to save confusion. The conference lasted fifteen minutes, discussing the work of the respective committees, as follows: First, What work is being done in each society? Second, Suggested work for the future. At the close of the conference, after singing a hymn, Five Minute reports from the conferences were read as follows:

SOCIAL COMMITTEE.

As there were only three societies, viz., St. Andrew's, Mark street and St. Paul's reported at the conference, a full account of the work of the Social Committee cannot be presented. St. Andrew's held three socials during the year, St. Paul's had held during the year about four socials, besides half hours of social chat at close of prayer meeting. One very successful social was an old-fashioned one, in which everything was done in the style of fifty years ago. They also reported a new feature most worthy of imitation by the other societies, viz., the giving of a treat to the Junior Society, a round trip on a street car, followed by tea and games, which was a great success. Other socials that are being planned for were topic, conundrum and fruit. In each society represented socials were free and refreshments were considered indispensable. Members of social committee welcomed strangers to meetings, and each considered the social feeling good. None of the societies had so far the use of private homes, nor was any attempt made to bring the older and younger members of the congregations together. It was thought desirable that this should be attempted; also to enlist the sympathy of ladies of the congregation so they should offer the use of their homes for an occasional social, and also entertain individual strangers. The results of work had been blessed by winning new members and enlisting them in the service of Christ and the church. M. Quinn, convenor.

TEMPERANCE AND GOOD CITIZENSHIP COMMITTEES.

Mr. J. H. Beer, convenor.

We consider the Temperance and Good Citizenship Committee to be one of the most important committees in connection with Christian Endeavour work and it should be composed of the best talent and most energetic workers in the societies.

All the Temperance and Good Citizenship Committees in town have been at work and some good has been accomplished, but as the scope for work in this line is almost boundless and there is still a great deal to be done for the cause of temperance and good citizenship in our town.

The following is actual work done by the different societies:—Several societies had pledge cards printed and distributed for signing.

All the societies had held special temperance meetings. Some had programmes of their meetings printed and distributed through the town. These meetings generally consisted of special papers on temperance and good citizenship work, debates, music, etc. One society at its temperance meeting had a standing vote of those who had kept the pledge.

Temperance and Good Citizenship literature had been distributed through the town by several societies. One had secured 500 copies of J.G. Wooley's magnificent temperance address at the Cleveland convention and scattered them through the town. Another had given collection cards to each member for the purpose of raising money to buy temperance literature.

A plan that worked well where it had been tried was to have the pastor of the church preach several special temperance sermons.

Time would not permit the suggestion of many new plans, but the following are the suggestions that were given:

Let the committee be active in seeing that the Sabbath is not desecrated, and that all laws are enforced, especially the law regarding the sale of liquors and tobacco to minors. Also let the committee take up again the work that was dropped last winter, regarding the early closing of the saloons.

Let the societies unite and have a course of lectures on temperance and good citizenship. These lectures should be well advertised so as to reach the persons desired. We should at once prepare for our next municipal elections.

Let us find out those for municipal honours who are temperance men and who will do all in their power for the cause of temperance in our town, and let us make a house to house canvass for these men.

The different committees should each take some one particular person who is being dragged down to destruction by strong drink and work and pray for his salvation.

If we had more faith in prayer we would accomplish more. Let us remember John, 14, 13, "Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do."

MISSIONARY.

(Mr. E. A. Stanley, convenor.)

Work being done:—

Park Street.—Have a missionary meeting once a month, on the second Wednesday. It is of an educational nature in connection with the Missionary Conquest Course of the Baptist Church C.C.C. course, taken up in their Young People's societies—topic and leader chosen three weeks in advance. They do not raise money for young people's work, but give their missionary contributions through the regular channels of the church.

Murray street report is somewhat similar, taking up the same line of work.

St. Andrew's.—The Fulton plan of systematic giving is here adopted—a stated sum given weekly for missions. They support a native teacher in the New Hebrides, and any money left over is given to Home Missions.

St. Paul's.—Their plan of raising money is somewhat similar to St. Andrew's, it being devoted entirely to Home Missions in the Northwest. They hold missionary meetings at stated intervals and try to cultivate a missionary spirit.

Suggested for future work:—Have a definite aim in your work, a special field to look after if possible.

THE LOOKOUT COMMITTEE.

Mr. T. H. Martin, Convenor.

Work being done:

Two societies used a monthly ticket. This ticket is given to each member of the society, the members to invite persons to meetings, place name of person invited and address upon ticket, the ticket to be handed in at the end of month to the secretary of Lookout Committee, who enters names of persons invited in a record book kept for the purpose. One society had 120 invitations given by 20 members in this way; 30 of those attended the meetings. The other society gave 45 invitations; 22 accepted invitations and attended meeting.

One committee gave texts to associate members, and by this means got them to take part in the prayer meeting, some for the first time.

Another committee gave personal invitations by calling upon strangers and inviting them to meeting.

Written invitations given to strangers coming out of church proved an effectual means of reaching strangers.

Standing at the door, receiving strangers, get them introduced, have them seated, give them hymn book—this a praiseworthy work done by another.

A committee which met for prayer before each meeting, praying for those in whom they were interested and also for the welfare of their society, were much blessed.

New Schemes Presented.—Give names of absentees to active members; have them hunt them up and reclaim them, if possible. Call on pastor, get him to give you work to do—a very timely suggestion. The scheme of appointing committees of seven, they to increase their number to ten or more—an idea that will get the whole society together in Lookout work.

CALLING AND FLOWER COMMITTEES.

Miss Mann, Convenor.

Five societies reported. Work being done in each society. One society supplies church with flowers for Sunday services. Afterwards attaching a verse of Scripture, they are taken to any who are sick. If there are no sick, they are taken to the hospital or Protestant Home. Also flowers are taken to homes where death has entered. The bereaved families are visited and a letter of sympathy taken.

Another Society reports that the Flower Committee works with the Look-out; also suppy the church with flowers and take flowers to the sick.

The Sick Visiting Committee of another society read a portion of Scripture, sing and pray with the sick one. The Calling Committee find out if there are any strangers and call on them, inviting them to attend church and society. They also call on absent members.

One committee has found it helpful during the winter months to take a few flowers from a plant or in cases where sickness is prolonged, to take a plant in bloom and leave it with the sick one.

Work suggested for the future. If there are any in connection with your congregation who are too old to attend church, let some two or more go and read the Scripture, sing and pray with them. How much the bright faces full of life can bring comfort and peace to those who are shut in from contact with the world?

GOOD LITERATURE COMMITTEE.

(Miss Finlay, convener.)

The work being done:

Good literature is placed in G.T.R. and C.P.R. waiting rooms, and has been circulated in parks and sent to lumber camps. One society is forming a library, the books being contributed by individual members, and this society is busy making scrap books for public institutions. To promote study of good literature the following plans were proposed:—Spend an evening with an author once a month, or have some standard work read by society, for which a month's time is given. Then, at a social meeting, let the book read be discussed for fifteen or twenty minutes in groups, with a leader, or in open meeting have three or four give an opinion of the work. Another suggestion is that this committee canvass members for the purpose of getting subscribers to the society and church papers.

INFORMATION COMMITTEE.

Let five minutes of each meeting be given to this committee, the members of which shall then give special items gleaned from any paper, or offer any new or original plan of work for any committee. This committee could also include members laid aside by sickness, but who were able to cut out items of interest to be read, and thus maintain an active interest in the weekly meetings.

S. S. AND CHRISTIAN WORK COMMITTEES.

Mr. A. J. Johnston, Convenor.

George Street Christian Work Committee has a prayer meeting every Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock, open to members of league and church members. It is led by members of this committee. They invite members to league meetings as well as to above meeting. They also try to increase the membership in the Sunday school. The members are ready to speak to others of spiritual things as opportunity offers.

Coldsprings Sunday school committee gets names of absent scholars and with the teachers help look them up during the week. The committee acts as supply teachers when regular teachers are absent, also try to get new members into the school.

St. Paul's S. S. Committee try to get members of Bible class to attend more regularly. They also try to get the senior scholars in the school to join the senior C. E. Society. At the close of the reports there was a season of short prayers, taken part in by many. Rev. Dr. Torrance pronounced the benediction. Thus bring to a close a highly successful meeting.

BETHEL, KEENE CIRCUIT.

Our last meeting was both interesting and instructive. The topic, "The Pledge, its joys, its requirements" was taken up by Susie Patterson in a very able manner, after which we had a brief prayer meeting led by Will Foster.

Not having much business to do our business meeting was short, but no doubt will be remembered after hearing the reports of the work done by different committees.

PRAYER MEETING COMMITTEE.

Miss Stevens, Convenor.

Five societies were represented.

One society chose two members to take charge of a meeting, an old member and a new one; thus the more experienced member helps the one who is unaccustomed to lead.

Most societies have speakers assigned for the topics a month in advance, but all agreed that it would be well to have this arranged at the beginning of the term, and the names printed and announced, thus giving ample time for preparation.

Any unable to be present should provide a substitute, or at least notify the convenor of the prayer meeting committee.

Those who have tried this plan have found it to work well.

Some societies appoint members of the Prayer Meeting Committee to act as a Pause Committee, whose duty it is to start a hymn, or otherwise fill up any pauses that may occur in the meeting.

One society holds a cottage prayer meeting every Friday evening during the fall and winter, which has been well attended and proved very helpful.

All agreed that the Prayer Meeting Committee should meet together to pray for the success of their work and the weekly meetings, either before the church service, as one or two committees do, or at some other convenient time.

FALL and WINTER CLOTHING

The experience of the past two seasons has taught us that there are many men who expect Ready-made Clothing to be as good as clothes made to order, and who are willing to pay a fair price when they get what they want. The Winter Suits and Overcoats are here in abundance, taking up every inch of space on our two floors.

$11.00 buys an Overcoat that is away up in every respect, except price. The colours are light tan, dark brown, black and navy blue. $6 or $8 will buy an All-wool Frieze Ulster that would require an expert to tell it from the genuine Irish Frieze. Colours are the same as our other Ulsters. Our suits comprise everything to be found in a first-class store from $5 up. Be sure and give us a call.

CUSTOM WORK.—Our very large assortment of Cloths for Suits and Overcoats, made to measure, gives you a splendid selection.

PROPHET CHAPLEAU.

His Reasons For Declining a Portfolio.

FORESEES THE TORY DOWNFALL

He Knows the Government is Doomed, and Will Not Give it His Support Unless He Gets His Price. the Railway-Canals Portfolio.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 2.—Hon. J. A. Chapleau and party arrived in the city late last evening. His Honor refused to speak to the press when he reached the Windsor, pleading fatigue, but to-day the Lieut.-Governor gave out for publication a tremendously long recital of his trip across the continent, but the following is about all there is of interest: "I may tell you that there is no possible political significance in the fact that I remained over at Ottawa, where I enjoyed the well-known hospitality of Sir A. P. Caron. As a witty English Prime Minister has said, 'I had to breakfast somewhere,' and I do not know a better place than with my old friend, the Postmaster-General."

As a matter of fact, Mr. Chapleau has said nothing, but your correspondent learns from an intimate friend of the Governor that His Honor has no idea of re-entering public life at the present time, although the same gentleman adds, "one cannot tell what the future has in reserve." Another gentleman who ought to know almost everything that passes in the mind of the Lieut.-Governor says that "nothing less than the portfolio of Railways and Canals would tempt Mr. Chapleau to enter the Cabinet.

to enter the Cabinet. There is no mistaking the fact that the great French-Canadian orator believes the present Ottawa Government doomed, and he is too old a politician to risk being a partner in the defeat. When Sir Mackenzie Bowell, whom His Honor does not love, will have disappeared, then Mr. Chapleau will try to form an alliance with Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, and bring back the policy of the party to what it was when Sir John Macdonald and Sir George Cartier were at the helm."

The above remarks were made in good faith by a man who knows what he is talking about, and although they may not be a welcome gospel to some, yet they undoubtedly reflect the sentiments of Quebec's Lieut.-Governor.

As an item of news it should be said that the universal opinion in Montreal is that at the present time Sir A. P. Caron would like to see Chapleau return to public life, but that Hon. J. A. Ouimet is strongly opposed to Mr. Chapleau's revival.

The total value of business in real estate for the month of September here shows a smaller volume than for the preceding month of August, and that even counting in a heavy sale amounting to $25,000, which was repeated at once, as well as some smaller ones that were immediately re-sold. The total number of sales for Montreal, the Annex, Junction, St. Henri, St. Cunegonde and West Mount was 103, and the total recorded value was $400,-775.80, as against $460,904.84 last month. Two blocks of land amounting to nearly 25 arpents, changed hands in St. Denis Ward and were immediately re-sold in one block, the price being $250,-000. Only one other sale ran over $20,-000, it being a cut-stone house on Mountain-street, sold by the estate of Geo. Wait. Two houses on Davidson-street on lots measuring 48 x 91, were sold by the Sheriff for the ridiculous price of $[illegible]. A lot in West Mount was sold at $1.10 per foot, and the next record showed the same lot sold for $2.76 per foot. Loans have been about unchanged, namely, from 5 to 7 per cent.

The Board of Directors of La Banque du Peuple had a conference to-day with the Advisory Committee of Depositors and Shareholders, when the statement of the bank was presented. The committee expressed themselves as much pleased [illegible] and all now feel satisfied that a plan will be devised whereby the bank will again open its doors. It is said to be the intention of the directors to ask the depositors to take deposit receipts bearing interest at 4 per cent., payable at six, 12, 18 and 24 months. This, of course, will refer to the large depositors, the smaller ones getting their money at once. The largest depositors have already expressed themselves as satisfied with this scheme and are ready to endorse the same.

Mr. St. Jean, counsel for Gauthier, the murderer of Celina Consigny, will ask to-morrow to have the trial postponed to the next term, and it is understood that the Crown, owing to the crowded state of the present docket, will not object to the postponement.

HIS BODY TORN TO PIECES.

Frightful Accident to a Grand Trunk Brakeman.

Toronto, Ontario, Oct. 3.—John Cameron of 135 Tecumseh-street a brakeman on the G.T.R., was struck at Unionville yesterday evening by No. 1 express from the east. The accident occurred at 8.10.

Cameron was breaking on a freight train which slowed up at the switch to allow the express to pass. He is supposed to have jumped off his train backwards while unaware of the closeness of the coming train. He went under the wheels of the engine and five cars had passed over him before the train stopped.

His left arm and left leg were cut off, his body badly lacerated and the flesh torn from his right leg from knee to ankle.

CHINA AHEAD OF BRITAIN.

Degradation of the Viceroy Decided Upon Before Demanded.

London, Oct. 2.—Sir Halliday MacArtney, counsellor of the Chinese Legation to Great Britain, gave out the information to-day that the punishment of the Viceroy of Sze-Chuen for neglecting to protect the missionaries in his district had been decided upon by China before the British ultimatum was issued. R. K. Douglas, a professor of the Chinese language and literateur who is accepted as high authority in the affairs of China, has written a letter for publication, in which he says the Viceroy was degraded a year ago for incompetency and ordered to give up his post and return to Pekin. Mr. Douglas thinks that China has met the demands of Great Britain at small cost, adding that the fact that the Viceroy had already withdrawn from his post, accounts for the alacrity of the Pekin authorities in responding to the ultimatum.

The St. James Gazette says: "It is an uncomfortable suggestion that the wily Chinaman has to some extent done us; but our demands upon Pekin do not end at this point."

ROBBED OF $610 BY FOOTPADS.

Ogdensburg Horse Buyer Held Up Near Gananoque.

Gananoque, Oct. 2.—About midnight Carl Herman, Ogdensburg, N.Y., who is over here buying horses, was attacked by three men on the road between here and Lansdowne and robbed of $620 and a gold watch. He was attacked from behind by a man jumping up at the back of the buggy, seizing him and throwing him to the ground, while another held the horse. Mr. Herman was jumped upon and rendered unconscious.

Upon regaining consciousness he returned to the house of a man whom he had called upon respecting the purchase of a horse, only 500 yards from the place where he was attacked.

Stolen Mail Bag Found After 8 Years.

Guelph, Ont., Oct. 2.—A mail bag which was lost eight years ago in transit from the station to the post-office was found yesterday in an unused chimney flue in the City Hotel, where the thief had secreted it. The lock was intact and the bottom of the bag was cut out. A cheque for $100 from a Kingston firm was found in it.

British Steamer Impounded at Hayti.

Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 25.—Advices received from Cape Haytien state that Capt. James Williams of the British schooner Lady Blake has been impounded at that place for an alleged breach of the Haytien revenue laws. It is only a year ago that a similar case occurred at the same place, when the whole crew of the British schooner May Read, on a trumped up charge of smuggling, were arrested and thrown into prison, where they suffered unspeakable tortures for the space of six months. There is no Consul at Cape Haytien, but the British subjects in Turk's Island are, since the last outrage, formulating a petition to have one appointed.

Caught in the Belting.

Comber, Ont., Sept. 28.—Herman Pellit, proprietor of a stone mill located near here, was caught in the machinery yesterday. His scalp was torn and he received internal injuries.

His Hand Cut Off in Slices.

Hespler, Sept. 27.—Mr. Hetherington was operating an ensilage cutter, when his hand was caught between the rollers and drawn through the machine and cut into slices till above the wrist.

Deep Waterway Enthusiast Dead.

Detroit, Oct. 3.—Brigadier-General O. M. Poe, Colonel of Engineers of the Northwest District, died this morning, aged 63. The immediate cause of death was erysipelas. General Poe had been confined to his home since his return from Sault Ste. Marie ten days ago, where he had gone to inspect a break which had occurred in the mitre sill under the upper guard gates of the new American lock, while they were being tested. While making the inspection, General Poe sustained a severe fall, which brought on the attack of the malady which proved fatal.

General Poe would have been retired next March, but there was a movement on foot on the part of the Lake Carriers' Association and other vessel owners to have him retained in active service until the new American canal at the Soo and the 20-foot channel project through the chain of the great lakes, of which the general had supervision, and in which he was deeply interested, was completed.

JURORS PREJUDICED.

Trouble Securing a Jury to Try Shortis.

BLUNT DECLARATIONS BY SOME.

Out of Sixty Summoned Forty-Nine Declare Their Belief That the Prisoner Was Not Insane and Should be Hanged For His Crimes—New Panel Called by Word of Mouth.

Beauharnois, Que., Oct. 3. — That many are called, but few are chosen, was fully exemplified to-day during the process of selecting 12 eligible jurors to serve at the Shortis trial From 11 a.m. till 4.30 p.m., the time was taken up in challenging, examining and swearing, until the whole list of 60 names had been exhausted. Of these 49 had been weighed in the legal balance and found wanting in impartiality. All of them had preconceived opinions of the prisoner's guilt. Many were very outspoken when questioned, and bluntly declared that Shortis was not insane when he slew Loy and Leboeuf. One said he should be hanged, while another thought he should be shot.

Of the 11 jurors selected, six are French, and five Englishmen. One more Englishman was still wanted to complete the panel, and Mr. Macmaster, Crown prosecutor, moved that, according to section 672 Criminal Code, the court order the sheriff to summon a number of other residents of this judicial district by word of mouth, to appear at the court to-morrow morning in order to procure a twelfth juror. This Judge Mathieu acted upon, and the sheriff was called in and given orders to summon 15 Englishmen to answer to their names at 10 a.m. to-morrow. The court then adjourned.

The cool and unconcerned demeanor of the prisoner astonishes everybody. All day to-day he stood up in the dock paying not the slightest heed to the wrangling of the counsel, and scarcely once looked upon the men who were to try him for his life. His parents sat with the counsel for the defence throughout both sittings.

GALES OFF THE BRITISH COAST.

A Number of Disasters Reported From the South and East.

London, Oct. 2.—Terrific gales prevailing along the British coast are causing a number of disasters. The Russian barque Lettonia is ashore three miles from the Southport pierhead, and the life-saving boat had the greatest difficulty getting alongside of her and rescuing her crew, owing to the tremendous sea. The large steamer Goodwin and a lugger have gone to the assistance of the barque.

The ketch Arabella went ashore at Ilfracombe, and her crew were taken off by two boatmen. The boat, containing the rescuers and the rescued, disappeared afterward, and it is believed that all have been drowned.

The schooner Cousins foundered near Holyhead, but her crew were saved.

The schooner Helen was also wrecked near Bude, and the steam trawler Teal Duck was wrecked near Blyth. In both cases the crews reached land safely.

A number of tugs and other small craft have foundered or been wrecked along the Somerset coast, but no loss of life is reported.

SIR PAUNCEFOTE IN MONTREAL.

His Visit to Ottawa, He Declares, Is Not On Official Business—Simply on a Pleasure Trip.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 3.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Minister at Washington, arrived here to-day, accompanied by the Earl of Westmeath, also of the British Embassy. Sir Julian told your correspondent that he was simply making a pleasure trip through Canada. He has met Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Sir C. Hibbert Tupper and would be glad to see those gentlemen in Ottawa, although the Minister had no official business in this country. Sir Julian regretted that Lord Aberdeen was away, but all the stories about an arranged meeting between the British Minister and His Excellency were unfounded.

DESTITUTE IN NEW YORK.

An Immigrant Woman Ill-Treated in Hamilton Wants to Return Home.

New York, Oct. 3.—There arrived on the steamship St. Louis from Southampton last July Mrs. Jane York, the wife of a Welsh miner. She was accompanied by her son, 12 years of age, and two little girls. The woman had a ticket to Hamilton, Ont., where she was going to visit her married daughter. Being in transit and bound for a Canadian point she was allowed to land. All the money she had was $10.

A week ago she returned to this city and went to Ellis Island. Dr. Senner, commissioner of immigration learned that her return was the result of brutality on the part of her son-in-law in Hamilton. She was destitute and wanted to return to Wales and is now subsisting on charity here.

An Equal Surprise and Pleasure.

The poet has sung—"Oh, for a beaker of the warm south, the true, the blushful Hippocrene," and the people have sighed for a good wine too, for the price forbade. For it is not everybody can pay $1 and $1b, a dozen for wine, and the masses had to go without. But this is a democratic day, and it is the whole people who are catered for now and not a section of the people. Accordingly, when the Bordeaux Claret Co., introduced their light, pleasant, and thoroughly wholesome wines at the incredible figure of $3 and $4 per doz. quarts there was equal surprise and pleasure among the people. The demand is enormous and orders cannot be filled quick enough. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal.

Catarrh in the Head

Is a dangerous disease because it is liable to result in loss of hearing or smell, or develop into consumption. Read the following:

"My wife has been a sufferer from catarrh for the past four years and the disease had gone so far that her eyesight was affected so that for nearly a year she was unable to read for more than five minutes at a time. She suffered severe pains in the head and at times was almost distracted. About Christmas, she commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and since that time has steadily improved. She has taken six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and is on the road to a complete cure. I cannot speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully recommend it." W. H. THE PORTFOLIO OF AGRICULTURE.

There are several politicians making a grab for the plough handles of the Ministry of Agriculture in the Dominion Cabinet. The most prominent aspirants are Mr. Smith, M.P., South Ontario, a farmer; Mr. Sam Hughes, the editor of the Victoria Warder, Lindsay, and a major of the 45th Battalion, who is said to be willing to beat his sword into a plowshare, and Dr. Thomas Sproule, of East Gray, whose claims to the office largely consist in the qualifications he has acquired by dosing the farmers of his constituency with pills. Mr. Smith's case is settled at once. He is not eligible for the position of Minister of Agriculture—he is a farmer, and it's contrary to the principles of the Dominion Cabinet to appoint a farmer to the position—it must be a lawyer, and, according to a recent remark of Premier Bowell, that lawyer must be a Frenchman. No farmer need apply.

THE rumour has not been confirmed that Premier Bowell is attending fall fairs to gain knowledge of farming to fit him Minister of Agriculture when he shall have resigned the premiership in favour of Sir Adolphe Caron, who is at present acting-premier.

Miss Lillie Montgomery, Prize and Diploma.
Miss Jennie Charlton, Certificate.

PRESENTATION.

On Wednesday evening last, the Methodist church was the scene of an interesting affair, when Miss M. White, who, for a number of years, has very efficiently presided at the organ of that church, was presented with a purse and an address by the congregation, in recognition of her valued services. Following is the address:

LAKEFIELD, Sept. 25th, 1895.

To Miss White:

DEAR MISS WHITE,—At the last meeting of the Official Board, a committee was appointed to make some provision for the help of the choir.

One object of the appointment of said committee was that an opportunity might be given the members of the congregation of the Methodist church to express their appreciation of the services of our organist.

We are therefore called upon, in behalf of the congregation, to perform the pleasant task of presenting to you this envelope, containing $36, hoping you will accept, not by way of remuneration for services as such but, as a small token of appreciation of faithful services gratuitously rendered.

We realize the important place the service of song occupies in all our worship and entertainments, and we know how much the service of song falls labouriously upon the shoulders of the organist.

You have been faithful in your endeavour to make all our church services interesting and entertaining in that department.

We earnestly pray that you may long be spared to use the superior talents God has given you for His glory and the welfare of the church.

Signed on behalf of the Methodist congregation,

JOHN HULL,
W. HARPER,
LEVI PAYNE,
R. HIGGINS,
W. LIMBERT, Pastor.

Miss White replied to the address in suitable terms.

COUNCIL MEETING.

On Monday evening of last week a special meeting was held for the purpose of striking the rate.

The reeve and members present were councillors Hull, Burgess, Lillicrap and Hilliard.

On motion of Mr. Burgess the insurance on school building was renewed.

The finance report from Mr. Hull was adopted.

Your finance committee examined the following bills and would recommend payment of the same:

Pay sheet, No 7	$ 8 00

W Leonard	5 65
M McIlwain	50
Dr Bell, postage etc	3 34
Madill Bros., electric light	65 82
Wm Doidge	3 50
	$215 44

The committee brought in their report fixing the rate of taxation at 13 mills on the dollar this year, and a bylaw to levy the rate was adopted.

The council adjourned.

It's Not the Money nor The Name

It's the Clothing itself that does the business.

If it were like any other Clothing, buyers would'nt be asked to name it, nor would they be so anxious to get it.

There's a Character

In Oak Hall Clothing which distinguishes it from all other Clothing. It very often happens that the good qualities of an Overcoat, like beauty, are but skin deep. But Oak Hall's goes further—we take care that the inside and through-and-through is as satisfactory as the outside.

There was a time when it was necessary for the man who wanted a perfect fitting Suit or Overcoat to go to the Merchant Tailor and leave his measure, and after waiting several days get it home, only to be dissatisfied at finding that he had paid a high price for what he has not received.

But, since our advent into Peterborough, he finds that he can come to us, and for a small part of the former price, get as good a Garment and be satisfied with the material and fit BEFORE HE PAYS OUT A CENT.

Oak Hall Clothing

Has no execrable hump to disfigure the form or annoy the wearer. It is uniquely put together, made up and trimmed from good material

Therefore, it is not a matter of Dollars—only Sense. Other things being equal, a Suit that will last twice as long as another, is worth twice as much. If one stove would heat a room comfortably no one would think of using two, and the same logic holds in the case of Oak Hall Suits and Overcoats. One Oak Hall Suit or Overcoat will give more satisfactory wear and warmth than two of any other make.

The proof of the pudding is the eating of it.

POLITICAL GUESSING.

The Cabinet Vacancy Creates Much Gossip.

MANY NAMES ARE MENTIONED.

Captain "Gat Howard Tells of the Seizures Off the Labrador Coast Rumored Superannuation of Deputy Minister Smith—Alleged Offer to Judge Taschereau.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The presence in the city to-day of Sir Hector Langevin, the former Minister of Public Works, has again led to the mention of his name in connection with the vacant Quebec portfolio. The genial Archie Miller was also in town all day with Harry Corby, and when the popular West Hastings man was asked his business he replied, "To advocate the appointment of Archie as a Cabinet Minister, as the special representative of the fruit men of Ontario." At which Archie smiled a big smile and said, "Don't you believe him."

Apropos of the present Cabinet vacancy, it is said that Provincial Secretary Pelletier of Quebec would have been offered the position had he not opened his mouth too quickly in reference to the Government's action on the school question. He is alleged to have said that "no man from Quebec should take Mr. Angers' place until the school question had been settled," clearly an untenable attitude.

Thinking politicians admit that in the present temper of the Province of Quebec it may be difficult to secure a first-class man for the position.

A prominent politician said to your correspondent to-night that Sir Hector Langevin was out of the question. As for the story that Mr. Joncas, M.P., had been offered the portfolio of Secretary of State and that he had declined it, that was simply ridiculous. Joncas, he remarked, would jump at the position if he got the chance. "My own impression," he continued, "is that Judge Loranger is the best man available; failing him, Judge Routhier would be a good man. L. H. Beaubien's name is also mentioned, but I do not think he is in it."

The Premier has received a telegram from Lindsay stating that North and South Victoria demand the portfolio of Agriculture for Sam Hughes, M.P.

The Department of Agriculture to-day received an enquiry from Sydney from a broker who is anxious to do business with Canada in wool, sheepskins, hides, tallow, bark, hair, horns, bones, beeswax, marsupial skins, wheat, flour, preserved meats, leather, coal, etc. The writer of this letter also asks for a list of houses with whom to communicate, and who are likely to do business in this connection. Enquiries like the above are an evidence of interest being awakened in the Antipodes for trade with the Dominion.

Reports are again rife of the prospective superannuation of Mr. Smith, Deputy Minister of Marine. The name of Michael Adams, M.P., is mentioned in connection with the Deputy Ministership. Mr. Costigan says, however, there is no truth in this report.

The Department of Public Works, in furtherance of the idea of encouraging Canadian art, an appropriation for which is annually voted by Parliament, has decided to purchase two pictures for the National Gallery at Ottawa, one being "The Death of Nelson," by Rylett, and the other "A Venetian Bather," by Paul Peel.

The Hon. James Turner, Premier of British Columbia, arrived in the city to-day. He saw Sir Mackenzie Bowell in reference to several British Columbia matters.

The Free Press, which is not very reliable authority on such matters, says that Judge Taschereau has been offered a Senatorship, and his pension as an ex-judge, in order to induce him to make a new vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench.

Captain "Gat" Howard arrived here to-day and had an interview with the Controller of Customs and the Acting Commissioner, in reference to his recent action towards Newfoundland fishing schooners off Labrador coast. Your correspondent asked Howard for his version of the recent seizures and he talked pretty freely.

"About these stories of my having acted in a high-handed manner," he remarked, "to begin at the beginning, they had their origin in this fact: On my way down to Gaspe in the spring on board the Steamer Admiral, I was approached by a man who evidently knew all about my business, and who made the remark that I would not and could not do my duty as a customs officer on the coast, as they'd be too many for me. He as much as hinted that if I tried it, I'd not come back alive. Now, that annoyed me, and I just answered back that I would do my duty fearlessly, and that the first man who attempted to interfere would be dealt with in summary fashion. I put it pretty strong. Well, that expression was conveyed to the people of the North Shore before I got there and was the sole foundation for all the stories about my threatening to shoot people and all the rest of it.

"This same fellow afterwards chartered a schooner at Gaspe and sent her to Blanc Sablon, Labrador, to a firm who had imported a large consignment of goods from Jersey and traded them off for fish along the Quebec shore, and that, mind you, without entering them at the customs. On my arrival on the north shore I found upwards of 140 sail of Newfoundland fishing vessels, as many as 50 of them in a harbor, several of them without so much as a register, with no clearance papers or any shipping certificates whatever. I simply ordered them off the Canadian coast, although they were all liable to seizure, even upon the high seas, and by cruisers of any nation. The remainder, without exception, had only fishing certificates, granted by the Newfoundland Government."

Here Howard produced one of their certificates. It merely permits the vessel to engage in fishing on the coasts of Newfoundland and its dependencies the vessel to carry nothing but her fishing outfit, and at the end of the season, and before engaging in any other business, to surrender the license and get out a regular merchant marine clearance. A heavy penalty of $500 is imposed for landing of the ship's stores without permission of the customs.

"Now," continued Howard, "all these schooners had provisions on board upon which the Newfoundland customs had collected duty, but which were being used on the Canadian coast when the vessels were fishing, and which should have been taken out of bond and duties paid in Canada. I explained to them their position and ordered them off the coast to the Newfoundland port from which they had been cleared and at which, according to their license, they were bound to report first thing. They departed, but I suppose many came back. However, there was not the least incivility passed on either side. Indeed, many of them thanked me for explaining how they should have their papers made out."

Then Capt. Howard explained about the seizures. The schooner Telegram of St. John's, Nfld., Soper, master, had an illegal clearance. It read from Carbonnear to Bradore, Labrador. Bradore is in the Province of Quebec and besides is not a port of entry, so that no clearance should have been given to that place. Capt. Howard found her landing provisions illegally there for one Udell, who had squatted on a fishing berth at Bradore, and this for the third time during the season. Capt. Howard was pretty outspoken in his censure of Skipper Soper. He described him as a sort of sea-parson who kept his smuggling accounts on blank pages of the book in which he wrote his sermons.

"Isn't this the person who complained in the St. John's papers about your profanity?"

"The same. And talking about profanity, this same precious preacher fellow, who, as we passed in our team launch, sang that he hoped the boiler would blow up and send us all to ——."

Capt. Howard used a plain term that at least denoted the preaching sailor's orthodoxy. He said he had at the outset offered to treat the skipper "as a gentleman," provided he behaved decently. But instead, it seems he laid for Howard with a loaded gun, and even refused at first to give any orders to his crew while that officer was on board. "I admit," added Howard, "that I did talk to that skipper as I thought he deserved."

Upon the morning I released his vessel on the Government's order, he began insulting me by twitting me about my lost authority. However, I fixed him for that by insisting upon getting his bond and he gave it."

"Now, as to the seizure of the Crawford, W. F. Penny, master," continued Capt. Howard, "there she was at the piet at Bradore, P.Q., fitting out for the West India trade, clearly against the law." Penny had been carrying on a fishing business, furnishing fishermen with prohibited goods, while in the store he found smuggled goods. Howard got on smoothly enough with Penny, and was surprised to hear that the latter had accused him of unofficial behavior. He, however, had proof of all proceedings and held Penny's bond as well. Capt. Howard next showed the papers of the seized schooner Annie, of Hunt's Harbor, Nfld. They showed the loose manner in which such things are done in the Ancient Colony. It purports to be a domestic fishing license, but is made out on a foreign clearance form. Moreover, there she was landing Newfoundland goods at her owner's, Capt. Phil Smith's, fishing stand at Snuff Box, P. Q., as had been her practice for years. With regard to the seizure of Foaming Billow, of Halifax, Capt. Howard says she cleared for Esquimalt Point, P. Q., but never reported there. On boarding her he found goods which did not tally with her manifest.

WINNIPEGGERS PROTEST.

Against the Proposal to Remove Lieut. Scott, Collector of Customs.

Winnipeg, Oct. 3.—The business men of this city and St. Boniface do not take kindly to the proposal that Lt.-Colonel Scott, Collector of Customs, should be superannuated to make room for A. W. Ross, M.P., for Lisgar, who has been seeking a Government situation for a long time past. To-day a petition signed by 900 citizens of Winnipeg, and another signed by 60 business men of St. Boniface, protesting against the proposed shuffle, was mailed to Ottawa. Another petition signed by about 800 Winnipeggers goes forward to-morrow. In addition to these, private letters from many prominent Conservatives, making strong objections to the removal of Scott, have been sent to Ottawa. It is only fair to state that such strong and united action on this question is due to the popularity o Scott.

Beresford Greathead of Hampshire, Eng., who is reported by Eastern newspapers as traveling from Vancouver to Montreal on foot along the C.P.R. line, with the avowed purpose of preparing a lecture for delivery in the Old Country, is regarded here as somewhat of a fakir and fraud. As any rate a man of that name lived on charity in this city last winter, after serving a term of imprisonment. Greathead left Winnipeg in May last much to the regret of his landlord and other creditors.

"For several months, I was troubled with a persistent humor on my head which gave me considerable annoyance, until it occurred to me to try Ayer's Hair Vigor. Before using one bottle, the humor was healed." T. T. Adams, General Merchant, Turbeville, Va.

SCHOOL ORDINANCES RESERVED.

Action by Lieut.-Governor McIntosh That Causes Comment

Regina, N. W. T., Oct. 3.—One notable incident of the prorogation of the Northwest Assembly was the reservation by Lieut.-Gov. MacIntosh of the amendments to the School Ordinance just passed. One of the amendments was the provision for electing Separate School trustees by ballot. Another was a change in the mode of distributing school funds on the basis of inspection by Government officials, rather than, as heretofore, on examination and report from trustees and teachers. There is considerable comment on the Governor's action and much speculation as to its purpose.

Honest] Help.

Thousands of men are suffering because they lack the courage to make known their early errors and to endeavour to remedy them. Nervous weakness, loss of manhood and the many ills due to early discretions, excesses or overwork can be quickly, successfully and permanently cured if you will only let the right people know what ails you. Write to me in confidence and I will tell you free of charge how to get cured. I have nothing to sell, but am desirous of honestly helping you. Perfect secrecy assured. Describe your case and address with stamp:—L. A. Edwards, P. O. Box 55, Jarvis Ont.

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from the prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	PerCent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.68	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 23, Annual Premium $177.

Total Cost for 6 years.....1,062 Dollars

Nearly 200 Dollars more than Insurance Cost.

A. E's Life Policy for $5,000, issued April, 1886, Age 22, Annual Premium $86.

Total Cost for 9 years.....774 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy.....1,000 Dollars
More than 200 Dollars over Cost of Insurance.

A Cadet Corps.

A movement is on foot to establish a cadet corps in Peterborough. This is a capital idea, and when the scheme is fully under way the promoters will be surprised to see the number of names that will be enrolled. At Sarnia, a town no larger than Peterborough, they have a very large boy's brigade, with fine drill rooms, gymnasium, swimming baths, etc., and there is no reason why Peterborough should not form one even in a modest way. These brigades are a benefit to youths in many ways—improves them physically and morally and makes men of them. Where is the lad whose breast doesn't heave under his jacket at the thought of even playing soldier and donning military togs. Sergt.-Major Peters is, we understand, interesting himself in the movement, and it is hoped that by spring the Peterborough cadet corps will be fully organized.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders, and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

BURGLARY AT LAKEFIELD.

Madill Bros. Store Entered Last Night and Burlarised.

(Special despatch to the Examiner.)

LAKEFIELD, Oct. 3rd.—The village was thrown into a great state of excitement this morning, when it was learned that burglars had been at work during the night and had broken into Madill Bros. store and looted it.

Some time during the night an entrance into Mr. J. G. Brown's shop was effected and the nocturnal visitors after securing such tools as they needed, crossed over to Madill Bros. store, where they bored holes in the rear door in such a manner as to make an aperture sufficiently large to admit a hand, evidently with the object of unlocking the door. Their object, however, was frustrated at this point, as the door was secured by an iron bar, firmly locked in position.

The burglars were apparently in no wise daunted by being baulked in their first attempt to obtain an entrance, but actually had the temerity to go around to the front door and force it in by main strength, breaking the lock.

Admittance once gained, the rest was easy. Valuable goods lay on every side, and after ransacking the place the burglars picked such stuffs as caught their fancy and carted their spoil away, as evidenced by the wheel tracks at the door.

Just at present it is impossible to estimate the loss, as the stock was a large one. The tills were broken open and the silver contained therein all confiscated.

The affair is one which has considerably alarmed the residents of the village, as the bold effrontery with which the burglary was evidently planned and carried out shows that the depredators would stop at nothing to attain their ends.

Mrs. Reid is at present visiting her parents in Western Ontario, and her husband and sister are supposed to have left town to join her there. Mr. Reid's creditors are uneasy. Mr. Reid came to Port Hope first as secretary of the Y.M.C.A." If Mr. Reid turns up all right, he will doubtless make it hot for the Times.

Foreign Missions.

A note was received yesterday by the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Secretary, Rev. R. P. McKay, from Rev. Mr. Mitchell, who, with Miss Mackenzie, left a few weeks ago for Honan, China, stating that they had arrived safely at Shanghai. A letter was also received from Rev. W. Harvey Grant, who is stationed at Honan, in which he says that the mission is still quiet and the work particularly hopeful. Last Saturday the Rev. J. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, Rev. E. J. Jamieson, Mrs. and Miss Jamieson, Rev. A. P. Ledingham and Mrs. Ledingham, who are all missionaries of the Presbyterian church in Canada, sailed from New York to the mission field in Central India. These missionaries have all been in foreign lands before, except Mr. and Mrs. Ledingham. It is expected that three others will sail in the latter part of this month.

Wedding of Mr. Harry J. Roper.

The many friends of Mr. Harry J. Roper, of Montreal, formerly of Peterborough, and son of Mr. J. H. Roper, town, will be interested in learning of his marriage, on Monday evening last, to Miss Florence Alice Hasley, third daughter of Mr. George Hasley, of Montreal. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, and was performed by Rev. W. A. Warriner, D.D. Mr. Roper is with the firm of G. S. Pelton & Co., commission merchants, Montreal, and was formerly with Messrs. McKee & Davidson, in the hardware business, here, but left Peterborough some eight or nine years ago, since when he has resided in Montreal. He was very popular in town prior to his departure, and was a great favourite in all circles.

The Trent Valley Canal.

The work on the Peterborough-Lakefield division of the Trent Valley Canal has been divided into five sections—one for every lock. The numbering begins at Lakefield and therefore the division at Nassau is known as section No. 5. Both sections four and five have been cleared of trees and stumps and the ground cleared away down to the stone in order to allow the work of blasting to go on in the winter. The rock at the different locks will have to be removed to a depth of twenty feet entailing a great deal of labour, as the cuts will be about 170 or 180 feet long. In the other portions of the canal the rock has only to be blasted to a depth of four feet. At present the contractor is undecided as to whether the work on section three shall be carried forward at present or left over until spring. Just now there are about 65 teams and 170 or 180 men employed altogether.

MARRIED AMID A PROFUSION OF FLOWERS.

Celebration of the Spiers-Hall Nuptials at River View Last Night.

An interesting event in society circles occurred at River View, the beautiful residence of Mr. Richard Hall, last evening at eight o'clock, when his only daughter, Miss Annie Hall, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Spiers, M. D., of Montreal.

The ceremony was performed in the spacious south drawing room by Rev. Dr. Torrance, of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, in the presence of about fifty invited guests. The bride was most attractively costumed in a rich gown of white poplin, trimmed with chiffon and pearls, with chiffon bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a most magnificent shower bouquet of cream Marechal Neil roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Laura Davidson, cousin of the bride. She was prettily gowned in cream crepe silk with lace trimmings, and carried a most fragrant bouquet of pink La France roses.

Mr. E. Gregory, of Lindsay, acted in the capacity of groomsman.

At the conclusion of the ceremony Miss Kate Hurley, who was present, played the Lohengrin wedding march on the piano, and those present were invited to repair to the dining room, where a most inviting dejeuner had been prepared by caterer Harry Long. Afterwards an informal reception was held until Dr. and Mrs. Spiers left on the midnight train for the East.

The different rooms at River View were brilliantly illuminated and most beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. Stately palms abounded on all sides, and roses were in most profusive evidence. Altogether the affair was probably the most brilliant of its nature which has occurred in Peterborough for many years.

Amongst the guests from a distance, who were in attendance, were Senator and Mrs. Ogilvie, uncle and aunt of the groom, of Montreal; the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spiers, of Lindsay, and his two sisters, Misses Maggie and Edith, from the same town; Mrs. John Ogilvie, of Montreal; Mrs. Playfair, of Midland, and Mrs. Carlisle, of Montreal.

The presents received were most costly and beautiful, including amongst them a handsome piano, being the wedding gift of Mr. Richard Hall to his daughter.

After a wedding trip of several weeks in the East Dr. and Mrs. Spiers will take up their residence in Montreal, where the groom enjoys a large and lucrative practice.

MASON VS. PETERBOROUGH.

The Finding of the Court and the Reasons For the Finding.

The following is an extract from a letter from Mr. G. H. Watson, Q. C., to his principal in the cause of Mason vs. Peterborough. Mr. Dumble:—In giving judgement in this case the Judges of the Court of appeal stated that they could not disagree or differ from the finding of the trial judge, Justice Ferguson, on the evidence. They also stated that having determined by their judgment in the same case reported in 20 appeal report that the evidence then was sufficient to submit to the jury and that a non-suit could not have been directed thereupon, they felt precluded from again considering the question of non-suit or the question of sufficiency of the plaintiff's evidence to make a prima facia case, and that point being out of consideration by reason of the judgment, the point now for consideration was whether the verdict was manifestly against the weight of evidence, and upon that the opinion was expressed as above indicated.

DOURO'S BIG CATTLE FAIR.

100 Head of Prime Three-year old Steers to be Sold.

Here is a chance for buyers who wish to purchase, either en bloc or in lots, 100 splendid three year old steers. The long talked of cattle fair in connection with St. Joseph's church, Douro, will be held in the grounds adjoining St. Joseph's church, on Thursday, Oct. 17th, 1895. On this occasion Mr. John Haggart, auctioneer, will sell by public auction 100 head of choice 3-year-old steers. This is a chance which farmers and buyers should not neglect, and, as many farmers are provided with abundance of feed, this is a splendid opportunity of securing stock at reasonable figures. This stock has been especially bred and fed for this great sale and farmers, as well as stock buyers, should not miss this splendid chance. Sale begins at one o'clock sharp and is without reserve. Terms, cash.

FALSE REPORT CONTRADICTED

Proof That Mr. George Mather's Milk is Pure.

Having heard that there was a rumour in the neighbourhood of Otonabee Union cheese factory to the effect that I was one of the persons accused of sending deteriorated milk to the Keene factory, I now take this means of correcting the same, and subjoin the following proof:—

GEORGE MATHER.

INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

Peterborough, Sept. 27th, 1895.

Having understood that there is a rumour that Mr. Geo. Mather was accused of being one of the persons who sent deteriorated milk to the Keene cheese factory on Sept. 9, 1895, I, as the Inspector, certify that the rumour is false.

(Signed), W. W. GRANT.

Keene, Sept. 29th, 1895.

This is to testify that I was present when Prof. Grant was at my factory, and saw Mr. Mather's milk tested, which tested 3-5 per cent. of butter fat, which I think a good test.

(Signed), THOS BORLAND, Keene Cheesemaker.

Grand Trunk Annual Western Excursions.

The Grand Trunk Railway will run its annual western excursion to Chicago, Detroit and points west on October 3rd, 4th and 5th, 1895. Return fares from Peterborough, to travel by all regular trains, are as under:

From Peterborough to Port Huron and Detroit, $6.

To Saginaw and Bay City, $9.

To Cleveland, $8.50.

To Grand Rapids, $10.

To Cincinnati and Chicago, $12.

To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (all rail) $35.

To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (via lake route between Sarnia and Sault Ste. Marie), $26.50. All tickets good to return on or before Oct. 21st.

The great attraction of this excursion is that passengers will have the opportunity of passing through the celebrated St. Clair Tunnel, the greatest submarine tunnel in the world. Its total length with approaches is over three miles. Its cost was over three millions of dollars. For tickets and reservations of berths apply to J. P. Hurley, city ticket agent, or Wm. Hayden, station agent. 5d76

VALUE OF A MECHANICAL EDUCATION.

Mr. A. C. McCallum's Instructive Address on the Subject.

The Engineering Classes in connection with the Public Library or, as it is best known, the Mechanics' Institute, began on Tuesday evening with an address by Mr. A. C. McCallum, Mr. R. B. Williamson, one of the directors being present. Mr. McCallum's text was practically the proverb, "To earn more we must learn more." The speaker pointed out that the value of a mechanical education was greatly underrated, and the opportunites for attaining it therefore neglected. Many of the most eminent men had reached their height by hard work that involved much self denial. Engineering was an exact science, yet there was a great lack of mechanical knowledge. The student of mechanics was a life-long student. There were two sides to a mechanic's life, the manual and mental, and the best results came from combining the two. The value of technical education was admitted by all those who know best. A man who combined a knowledge of the theory of his trade or business with intelligent practice was sure to succeed. A knowledge of elementary principles was essential to success in any branch. Mr. McCallum concluded a brief, practical, sensible address by urging his hearers the necessity of work at home and the value of taking and reading one or two mechanical journals connected with their respective callings.

There was a good attendance of pupils and this member's classes promise to be unusually successful. The classes will begin next Monday evening, at 7.30 p. m. and all intending students should be present at the opening.

It is hoped that all young men who can will avail themselves of the splendid chances offered for self-improvement, presented by these classes.

BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE.

Second Day's Session of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary Society at Oshawa.

After devotional exercises at the Women's Missionary Society convention at Oshawa, conducted by Mrs. T. M. Campbell, the organizer reported for the different auxiliaries in their district.

Mrs. Carman introduced the ladies representing Whitby district to the convention, and they were received by a standing vote. Mrs. H. A. Crosby organizer of the Uxbridge district, which district has again returned to the Toronto branch, was lovingly remembered, and the corresponding secretary was requested to write a letter to her intimating this.

The secretary was instructed to write a letter of sympathy to Mrs. Stephen Gibson of Napanee. The following organizers were elected : Belleville, Mrs. Massey ; Brighton, Mrs Watt; Bowmanville, Mrs. Tourgis ; Cannington, Mrs. Hassard ; Cobourg, Mrs. M. T. Wilson ; Campbellford, Mrs. A. K. Campbell ; Lindsay, Mrs. Weldon ; Napanee, Mrs. Gibson ; Madoc, Mrs. J. C. Wilson ; Tamworth, Mrs. Grange ; Picton, Mrs. Platt ; Peterborough, Mrs. Sherin ; Whitby, Mrs. G. Brown. Mr. Demill dismissed with the benediction.

Mrs. Hassard led the afternoon devotional exercises. The workers' conference conducted by Mrs. Platt, Corresponding Secretary, on the practical work of the society, was largely entered into by all the delegates. Many very salient points along the lines of their work were presented and turned to good account by the ladies taking part in the discussion. Mrs. Grange's paper was order to be published. This paper dealt with the all-important question, "How shall we increase the attendance at our weekly meetings?" The work of the Industrial School, Japan, was brought before the members, and their cooperation was asked in disposing of the fancy work of this institution. A message of greeting was sent to the Toronto branch now in session. In the evening Dr. Stephens delivered a lecture on China, which was replete with interesting information from beginning to end. For his effort he was tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

GRAFTON & CO'S SPECIAL PRIZES

How This Firm Shows its Gratitude for the Liberal Patronage of the Farmers.

The live clothing firm of Grafton & Co. possesses the virtue of gratitude to a large degree. In order to show their appreciation of the liberal patronage of the farmers, who are such large purchasers of Grafton & Co's superior clothing, the firm offered a series of special prizes for competition at the Central Exhibition. These special prizes, which were offered to the 3 best teams of agricultural horses, were won as follows :

First prize, Grafton & Co's best tweed suit, value $10—Levi S. Bowles.

Second prize, best worsted pants, value $5.00—Reid Bros.

Third prize, best made tweed pants, value $3.00—J. B. Fowler.

This enterprising firm since its establisement in Peterborough has by virtue of offering first class clothing at moderate prices, placed itself high in the favour of the farming community, and the liberal prizes they offer for competition at the several fairs of the district, show that they are grateful for liberal patronage, and that they take practical interest in promoting the farmer's welfare. 1d1w

PERSONAL.

Miss Fowler is visiting friends in Lindsay.

Mr. G. S. Schaffer is in Belleville on a business trip.

Miss Finlayson of Ashburnham, left today for Chicago, for a fortnight's visit.

Mr. E. B. Stone is defending the Murphy family at the Lindsay Assizes to-day.

Mr. D. A. Shaw was at Keene yesterday judging the fine arts. He will be at Millbrook fair to-morrow.

Mr. Harry Moore, of the Canadian General Electric Works, has been ordered to report at the Toronto branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Quinn have returned from their wedding trip and have taken apartments at the Grand Central.

The Tweed News says,—Mr. Wm. Wray spent a few days last week visiting his son, Mr. J. G. Wray, Peterborough.

Mr. Blanchard, formerly proprietor of the Peterborough Business College, is now connected with a similar institution in Kingston.

The Port Hope Guide says : Mr. W. S. Merrill, of Gough Bros., went out to Peterborough Monday. Will has made many friends during his two weeks stay, who regret his removal.

This morning Mr. Robert Walton left for Chicago, on a visit to relatives in that city. En route he will spend ten days in Detroit, and on his return he will visit relatives in Norwalk, Ohio, for a few days.

The Omemee Mirror says : Mrs. David Cooley is leaving Fowler's Corners this week, and going to Peterborough, where she has purchased a house on Aylmer street. We join with the many friends of Mrs. Cooley in wishing her long life and happiness in her new home.

The Tweed News says,—Mrs. (Rev.) Wilson left on Monday to spend a few days in Peterborough. On Oct. 1, 2 and 3 she will attend a meeting of the Bay of Quinte branch of the Women's Missionary Society, of which society she has the honour to be vice-president. Mrs. W. F. Campbell will also attend the session as the official delegate from Tweed.

The South Dummer correspondent of the Norwood Register says : "It is with deep regret we have to chronicle the removal of Geo. Garlick of this place to the town of Peterborough. Mr. Garlick has been here amongst us for the past four years, and has occupied the prominent position of postmaster, and will be greatly missed by all. We wish him and his family every happiness in their new home."

—The squirrels are laying in their supply of nuts, and the hunters are laying in their supply of squirrels.

—The Ladies' Aid of the Charlotte street church will give a Thanksgiving Dinner, Nov. 21st, in the lecture room of the church. Further particulars later on. It

—Two or three unfurnished rooms, or small cottage, wanted by Nov. 1st ; within ten minutes walk of EXAMINER office. Address, D. E. D., Box 141, Post Office. 3d —Beech nuts are reported to be very plentiful this season. Several large parties have been out to Welsh's grove already and have secured large quantities. The squirrels and swine are also reaping a rich harvest.

—A lawyer in a court room may call a man a liar, scoundrel, villain or a thief and no one makes a complaint. If a newspaper prints such a reflection on a man's character there is a libel suit or a dead editor. This must be owing to the fact that a people believe what an editor says and what a lawyer says cuts no figure.

—For weeks past the name of Lord Dunraven's yacht has been on every lip and its pronounciation almost as varied as the lips which speak it. The name is pronounced Val-ky-ree, with the accent on the second syllable. The word signifies 'chooser of the slain.' It comes from the Icelandic Valkyria, more familiar in the German form, Walkure. In the Norse mythology it means one of the virgin attendants of Odin, who carry to Valhalla heroes slain in battle.

FALL HOUSE-CLEANING SALE OF

WALL PAPERS

Equinoctial gales remind us that fall is upon us and winter near. We have already had severe enough days so far as weather is concerned to remind us that summer is gone, that fall will soon reach its end and that then winter and its snows will be upon us.

In anticipation of the annual season for House-Cleaning and Re-Decorating of the home, we started to-day an October Wall Paper Sale on a greater scale than ever before. The more we sell the cheaper we sell. Our store is loaded with new styles and designs of this season's importations—no store in Ontario carries a larger stock and no store will or can sell cheaper. Now is the best time to buy Wall Papers ; now is the best time to put them on and the best place to procure them is at the most elaborate and most finely appointed Paper Warerooms of THE PETERBOROUGH BOOKSTORE

Make things bright
For Winter Nights.

Picture Framing.

This is a timely hint. If the thoughtful housekeeper wants any pictures framed in time for the Fall house-cleaning and decorating, we would be pleased to have their orders now, before the rush of orders start.

In anticipation of these early orders, we have just placed in stock an elegant line of Mouldings, which we will be pleased to show to all who wish to have their pictures framed in some of the newest of high-class designs.

In every line we carry, we lead,
We carry every line you need.

NOW, BOYS, THIS IS YOUR CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY. An hour each evening pushing the EVENING EXAMINER will make you money enough during the year to clothe yourself and give you spending money besides.

ADVERTISERS

Is There Anything In This For You?

"THE EXAMINER" is read every day by thousands of people who buy and pay cash for their goods.

The DAILY EXAMINER is the Popular Peterborough Evening Paper, and we are bound to place it in every home in the Town, thereby covering the whole ground for the advertiser. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The old story of Prometheus is a parable, an allegory. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire, and gave it to men. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again as fast as it was pecked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined? Yes, and realized.

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is no cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischief lies. The stomach is overtasked, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then come the vultures. The sufferings from an outside, visible hurt, are a mere pin-scratch to the torments of a diseased liver.

But, moderns are ahead of the ancients. There is a sequel to the old story. Dr. Pierce is the author. His "Golden Medical Discovery" is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. Every atom of the "Discovery" is an active agent against disease. It flies like a ferret, wherever it is sent. It is as sure as the needle of the compass. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self.

Mr. W. Rogers, of 507 Grayson St., Louisville, Ky. has this to say for himself and the "Golden Medical Discovery": "I was a dyspeptic. I had not had a comfortable night in six years. I have taken three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I am now fifty years old. I feel thirty years younger." Yours truly.

Willie Rogers

Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and get, customs paid, Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser a book of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. It will give you complete knowledge of the human system in plain words.

RIOT IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

Cavalry Charges Upon the Crowd - Several Killed and Wounded.

London, Oct. 1.—The Daily News prints a despatch from Constantinople giving the following version of the riot which occurred there yesterday. Several Armenians had started on their way to the gate of the Sultan's palace, where justice is usually administered, with the intention of presenting to the Grand Vizier a petition against the Government. Warning had been given to the officials and at their orders all the approaches to the palace were blocked with police. While the crowds were waiting the Minister of Interior arrived at a point near the gate, whereupon a rush was made toward him from all the surrounding streets. The police attempted to drive the people back, battering many of them severely and finally firing upon them. A detachment of cavalry was ordered to assist the officers, and charging upon the crowd cleared the roadways. The persons killed or wounded in the fight included Turks as well as Armenians. According to the despatch it is reported also a mob attacked the residence of the Minister of Police and fired several volleys at the house, wounding the Minister. Intense excitement prevails throughout the city.

NO DIVORCE FROM ANY CAUSE.

South Carolina Decides That the State Shall Never See a Divorce.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 1.—After a debate continuing all through last night's session and through nearly all of to-day's, the Constitutional Convention has decided there shall never be a divorce granted in South Carolina for any cause. The vote was 86 to 49. Senator Tillman did his best to have the divorces of other States recognized in this State, but for once his appeals were heard with a deaf ear and he was voted down. The Bible was quoted from very freely during the debate. The Parliamentary clincher was put on after the matter was adopted. At 2 o'clock the long-looked-for and all-important article on the suffrage made its appearance.

Solid Improvement in British Trade.

London, Oct. 2.—The revenue returns for the United Kingdom show a net increase for the six months ending with yesterday of £4,063,000, of which £3,659,000 accrued within the last quarter. The bulk of the increase, £2,698,000 arises from the sale of revenue stamps, chiefly arising from the extraordinary development of stock exchange business and the promotion of new companies. Every department of the revenue service shows an increase, proving the existence of a solid improvement in trade. The Conservative newspapers are jubilant over this showing and are in expectation of an enormous budget surplus in consequence.

British Markets.

ORILLIA OR GEORGETOWN?

Wiarton Beaten in the Semi-Final at Brampton by 4 Goals to 2.

Brampton, Oct. 2.—The first match for the intermediate championship, C.L.A. finals, was played here yesterday between Orillia and Wiarton. The local interest was confined to a few of the most pronounced lacrosse enthusiasts. The visiting teams, however, each brought quite a contingent of their respective admirers. There were, perhaps, all told, 300 spectators present. Dr. Roberts, president C.L.A., acted as referee, while W. J. Peaker, president, and Dr. D. Heggie, captain, of the Excelsiors, acted as umpires. The referee blew his whistle at 3 o'clock.

First game—Orillia captured the ball on the draw, and sent it on Wiarton's goal, but it was quickly returned. Then, after a brief scuffle, the ball passed to Hearn, who scored in two minutes.

Second game—Orillia won the draw. Wiarton failed to score, although three swift and straight shots were thrown on Orillia's goal. Finally the game was scored by Newton for Orillia. time, 10 min. In this game Robert Went of Orillia was severely hurt by being sandwiched between two Wiarton players on the bicycle track. Time was called, and Went was taken to his hotel in a cab, bleeding from nose, ears and mouth.

Third and fourth games—Wiarton wakened up, and did some very effective work, scoring both in 2½ and 1 minute, respectively, Bryan scoring in both cases.

Fifth game—Wiarton appeared to have the best of the Orillias, but played in hard luck. The ball was finally dropped in front of Wiarton's goal and scooped through by Newton in 9 minutes.

The sixth game also went to Orillia, in 8 minutes, Kearns scoring; thus Orillia won by 4 to 2.

Georgetown plays Orillia at 2 o'clock to-morrow. This will decide the championship. The G.N.W. Telegraph Company had a special wire on the grounds, and wired a summary of the match to Wiarton and Orillia as the game progressed.

OBJECTS TO A BIG LEGACY.

Edward Dwyer Wants More of His Wife's Money.

New York, Oct. 1.—Edward L. Dwyer, the fourth and last husband of the Duchesse de Castelucia, who died in July last, has filed objections to the probate of her will, in which he was cut off with a $10 bill. The Duchesse left an estate valued at about $300,000 in real and $20,000 in personal property. When she was 17 years old she married Horace A. Beals, a wealthy man, who owned valuable quarries in Maine. On his death she married William G. Mitchell, and upon his death she went to Italy, where she met and married the Duke of Castelucia. The Duke died in April, 1893, and within a year the widow married Dwyer, who was many years her junior. The Duchesse grew cold toward her last spouse and in her will stated that she had provided for him during her lifetime. The testatrix owned the Burlington Apartment House and other valuable property. She gave one-half of the income from the Burlington to her son Frederick Beals and the other half to her daughter Evelyn I. Hudnut. To her granddaughter, Jennie Calderazo, she left an annuity of $2000 a year. Dwyer claims that the will which was dated July 16, 1895, did not express the last wishes or desires of the testatrix and that she was not of sound mind when it was drawn.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

WILL SAVE THE MARIPOSA CARGO

Reports That Piracy Was Attempted are Denied.

St. John's Nfld., Oct. 2.—The commander of the British flagship Cleopatra telegraphs from Boone Bay that the wreck of the steamer Mariposa is still holding together and it is likely that the salvers will do well. Schooners that have arrived here report that considerable cargo is being taken from the wreck. Much indignation is manifested at the charges which are freely made in Canadian newspapers that piracy is practised by fishermen near the wreck. The officers of the warship Buzzard, which reached the scene within a few hours of the stranding of the steamer, deny positively that there is any truth in such stories.

A Constantly Growing Force.

Every Day Gives Momentum to the Success of South American Nervine.

Canadian Citizens from Every Quarter Tell of the Extraordinary Results Following the Use of This Wonderful Remedy.

MR. C. G. CHAPIN, OF BURK'S FALLS, ONT.

There is encouragement in the knowledge that even after the skill of eminent physicians has failed, and many medicines have been used, a certain cure for the diseases of life is to be found in South American Nervine. This is a remarkable medicine, especially when the trouble is nervous debility, indigestion, dyspepsia, sick headache, or a general breaking-up of the system. It has made thousands of cures of Canadian citizens all over this beautiful Dominion, and they have not been slow to sing its praises.

The strength of South American Nervine rests in its being something more than a mere tonic. A tonic will give temporary benefit, but if disease is in the system something more is needed to remove it. South American Nervine possesses all the virtues of a tonic, but more than that, it is a disease-healer. It has been discovered that certain nerves have entire control over the stomach, liver, heart, lungs and indeed all internal organs. When disease comes upon the individual, if a careful analysis is made of the trouble, and things are not gone about in haphazard fashion, it will be shown that the disease has its origin in a derangement of these nerve centers. South American Nervine goes at once to the nerve centers and removes the disease. Then strong, rich, pure blood runs through the veins and gives health and exhilaration to all parts of the system. This is one secret of the power of South American Nervine. But it does not stop here. There is no medicine that is so great a nerve-builder, nor flesh-producer as Nervine. It purifies the system. It imparts to it health and vigor, and builds up the constitution.

Now, this is exactly what was done in the case of Mr. C. G. Chapin, a well-known jeweller, of Burk's Falls, Ont. He says: For years I had been much troubled with nervous debility, and believe I had tried all proprietary medicines, but none seemed to relieve me, until I used South American Nervine. To my surprise the first bottle gave me great relief. I am still taking this great remedy and must say I have not felt so well in years. I highly recommend it to all suffering from nervous disease, for it has made a great change in me."

A DUCHESS WITH A SECRET.

Possesses a Beauty Wash Which She Has Used for Forty Years.

Mrs. Crawford writes from Paris to London Truth: "Not long ago I was asked to meet at lunch a very great lady, who was once Duchess and Marshaless, and had filled a station higher than belongs to either title. During the lunch the hostess, a member of the British Peerage, turned the converstaion on beauty culture, and adroitly called attention to the child-like skin and complexion of the Duchess, notwithstanding the 72 years to which her Grace owned. Certainly there was a satin texture and a complexion in which the roses and lilies were blended. Taking the ball on the hop, I remarked that these particular charms were the sign of a marvelous constitution. The Peeress admited that her illustrious guest enjoyed the best health, but said that so did many other ladies of her age, who were none the less wrinkled. The persistent beauty of the Duchess was mainly due to a wash she had used for more than 40 years, and which she alone knew how to compound. She had bought the recipe from an old German botanist, who in the forest of Brazil had discovered the effects of certain plants on the complexion. Bottles of the wash had found their way to the Court of Denmark when the Empress of Russia and other illustrious ladies were staying there, and would have won through their patronage a world-wide fame had the Duchess consented to bring it into the market. She had been urged to trade on her skin-renovating fluid, but could never make up her mind to do so, until widowhood and pecuniary losses made her desirious of setting up anonymously in business. It would be out of the question to let her name figure publicly as a trade mark. I reminded her Grace that "Qui veut la fin, veut les moyens." A Duchess of her rank and perennial charms, stepping down into the market, wash in hand, and calling on the public to gaze on her, if only for a moment, must carry all before her. The advice was not followed, and so no fortune has been made with the recipe of the old German botanist.

Noble Tradesman.

A telegram announces that the Viscountess Clifden has opened a bonnet shop in her house in London. English aristocracy fled to trade many years ago, thereby the better to place itself in the list of possible champions of commerce, the new field of tourney. In the English Bankruptcy Courts can be found the names of peers and other titled persons who willy-nilly have come to financial grief. Wisdom teaches that it is pleasant to keep out of bankruptcy, even though it is done by means of trade. Lord Burton, Lord Hindlip, Lord Iveagh and Lord Ardilaun sit in the House of Peers by grace of their brewings. Sir John Gladstone, nephew of the Grand Old Man, derives a big revenue from a whisky distillery. Lord Londonderry and Lord Dudley retail coal, Lord Rayleigh, Arthur Balfour's brother-in-law, and the Marquis of Abergavenny, peddle milk about the streets of London—that is, their wagons do, marked with their historic crests. Lord Portsmouth not only is an enormously wealthy green grocer, but he is a respectable one; so respectable in fact, that he might have calling acquaintances in Fifth avenue. Lord Masham is a wool spinner and Lord Armstrong makes excellent cannon. Lady Colin Campbell, daughter-in-law of the Duke of Argyll, depends upon a weekly society paper for her income, and the Earl of Dysart does not disdain to be its editor for a consideration. So the list might be spun the length of Lord Masham's weavings.

The Art of Conversing.

The power of originating and taking part in pleasant and intellectual conversation is a most useful and valuable gift, which is worthy of cultivation, and should by no means be neglected by persons possessing education and culture. Agreeable conversation is really one of the pleasantest pleasures we have, and the man or woman who talks well on a variety of subjects and is not only possessed of opinions, but also the power to express them in well-chosen language, without either affectation or pedantry, is sure to be a welcome guest in any society.

The power of conversation gives confidence to its owner, who is therefore at ease, and is admired by being bright and clever, even in the company of those of much higher rank than he, or she, is accustomed to associate with.

"Reading makes a full man, writing an exact man, and conversation a ready man," says Bacon. To qualify oneself for enjoyment of the society of the cultured and refined it is necessary to have some knowledge of the arts and sciences, of standard authors, and of current literature and events. Persons who question intelligently and who listen carefully will learn much.

Talking of oneself and gossip of all sorts should be avoided for the general effect is to bore the company and make oneself unpopular. A golden rule as to the subject of conversation is to choose one which will interest your hearer. You may have an all-absorbing hobby, but do not air it unless you think it is equally interesting to your companion, or, no matter how cleverly you talk, you will utterly fail to give pleasure.—Home Notes.

Swedish Politeness.

A Stockholm correspondent says: Old men, workmen, porters, meet in the street and lift their hats in kindly recognition, with the grace of a courtier. Time and again when we have asked the way to a certain street, we have been escorted part of the way, and clear directions given, and then an informal shake of hand at parting, as if a favor had been shown him. The etiquette of the city is puzzling to an American, and carried to a high extent. So we have to be very careful or appear boorish.

A Fine Point.

A man has been fined $3 for throwing a kiss at a woman who did not care for it. It would be a nice question in law if she really got it, and if she did not get it why should the man pay for it? And if $3 is the price of a thrown kiss, what is one worth at short range, with the usual squeeze added?

The Help That Comes Too Late.

'Tis a wearisome world, this world of ours,
With its tangles small and great,
Its weeds that smother the springing flowers,
And its hapless strifes with fate,
But the darkest day of its desolate days
Sees the help that comes too late.

Ah! woe for the word that is never said
Till the ear is deaf to hear,
And woe for the lack to the fainting head
Of the ringing shout of cheer;
Ah! woe for the laggard feet that tread
In the mournful wake of the bier.

What booteth help when the heart is numb?
What booteth a broken spar
Of love thrown out when the lips are dumb,
And life's barque drifteth far
Oh! far and fast from the alien past,
Over the moaning bar?

A pitiful thing the gift to-day
That is dross and nothing worth
Though if it had come but yesterday,
It had brimmed with sweet the earth,
A fading rose in a death-cold hand,
That perished in want and dearth.

Who fain would help in this world of ours,
Where sorrowful steps must fall,
Bring help in time to the waning powers
Ere the bier is spread with the pall;
Nor send reserves when the flags are furled
And the dead beyond your call.

For baffling most in this dreary world
With its tangles small and great,
Its lonesome nights and its weary days
And its struggles forlorn with fate,
Is that bitterest grief, too deep for tears,
Of that help that comes too late.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

FREIGHT WRECK AT BURLINGTON.

Palmer's Shortage Will Reach $50,000 Clubbing a Man for Stealing Melons is Not Justifiable.

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 2.—Before Judge Snider at the County Court this morning several important cases were tried. The assault case of F. P. Franey against Ezra Jacques was dismissed. On September 4, Jacques went into Franey's garden and was stealing watermelons. Franey came along and knocked him down with a club, and Jacques then pummelled Franey's face. Judge Snider held that the owner of the melon patch exceeded his rights in clubbing Jacques.

Alex. McLelland was sent down for two months for theft.

A freight train coming from Toronto was partly wrecked about 4.45 this morning near Burlington, and caused traffic to be obstructed. The axle on one of the cars broke and six cars were wrecked. Most of the regular trains came via Georgetown.

The members of the Independent Order of Foresters, who were entertained in Toronto last evening, had several unpleasant experiences in getting home, and did not arrive in this city till nearly 5 o'clock. They missed the special and were brought home in a coach attached to a freight train.

300 SISTERS SHOT DOWN.

Details of the Massacre Attack on the Armenians.

London, Oct. 2.—The Post publishes a despatch from Constantinople saying it is believed that 10 persons were killed and 40 wounded in the streets during the riot which occurred Monday. Five hundred persons have been arrestd on the charge of participating in the rioting. Among the prisoners are a number of Armenians. These, when arrested, were thrown down, disarmed, beaten and then bound. One Armenian was struck with a bludgeon and afterwards shot and killed.

Two non-commissioned gendarmes officers were about to seize an Armenian near the gates of the Sultan's palace, where the trouble originated, when shots were fired from a crowd of students and both officers were killed. several other gendarmes were wounded.

It is stated that eight Armenians were killed within the Ministry of Police, which was attacked by the rioters. A crowd of armed Softas assembled later and threatened to massacre the Armenians. The police, however, dispersed them. The Porte and the palace officials are greatly alarmed. The Ministers have held a meeting to consider the situation, which is threatening. A dinner which had been arranged at the palace in honor of Prince Albert of Schleswig has been cancelled.

The French dispatch boat, Petrel, which was about to sail for Toulon, has been ordered to remain.

The demonstration of the Aremnians has long been prearranged. Copies of the petition against the Government, to present which to the Grand Vizier was the object of the visit of the Armenians to the gate of the palace, were sent to some of the embassies with an intimation that the petition would be forwarded to the Grand Vizier. The police, hearing of this, orders were immediately given to prevent the petition from being presented. About 2000 persons assembled in the Koumakapon Cathedral to attend the celebration of the Cross.

After the service, 20 Armenian ladies presented to the Patriarch a petition begging him to summon the faithful to go to the Porte to pray that it promptly enforce reforms in Armenia. The Patriarch addressed the assemblage and exhorted them to make no demonstration inasmuch as it would be contrary to law. He begged them to rely upon himself to do everything possible to secure the desired reforms. Thereupon the crowd shouted: "We have had enough; we want liberty or death." The Patriarch then withdrew and the Armenians tried to form a procession, but in this they were prevented by the police, who dispersed the crowd into various streets.

Later, however, they gathered again at an arranged point. There Major Serwet Bey, aide to the Ministry of Police, addressed them, directing them to leave the petition with him. Some reports say that he insulted the Armenians. At any rate, the latter became incensed and began shooting. Then shots were fired and Serwet Bey was killed and several gendarmes were wounded. A hand-to-hand fight followed.

The disturbances were renewed on Tuesday, but the details cannot be obtained. It is known, however, that some people were killed.

The streets are patrolled by troops and the guards at the Government forts have been increased.

It is stated that the Armenians broke into the law courts and killed two judges.

During the rioting Monday bullets pierced the carriages of the Minister of the Interior, the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Minister of Police.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily News says that an eye-witness of to-day's troubles declares that he saw a cartload of corpses removed from the Koumkapon district last night.

The Standard has a Constantinople dispatch saying that the number of killed is variously estimated at from 30 to 200. The exact number will probably never be known. Many hundreds of persons have been arrested, and the entire Ministry of Justice has been turned into a jail.

Maltine with Coca Wine Feeds the Nerves.

Are you all run down? Are you tired in body? weary in mind? Does lassitude burden and unfit you for mental or physical labour? Does sleeplessness rob you of mental force? make your days a weariness and night a torment? In brief, is life rapidly becoming a burden to you? Thousands are living in this miserable condition while relief from this worst of mental and physical conditions may be speedily obtained by the use of Maltine with Coca Wine. It is a real tonic, for it builds up the body, gives strength and vigor to the nerves, supplies pure rich blood, restores appetite, and adds wonderfully to the digestive power of the stomach. Maltine with Coca Wine is a builder—builds nerve, builds muscle, builds bone. It gives vim and nerve. It braces, not as a stimulating agent; it braces because it cures. That is what you need. All druggists sell it.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Items of Interest to Local Sportsmen —Aquatic and Field Sports.

EXIT OF THE SUMMER SPORTS.

The crisp, cool atmosphere of the fall is upon us, and with it comes several changes in local branches of sport. The cricketers have closed their season, and regretfully packee up their togs till the spring; the tennis players, who have done such good work, must now consign nets and racquets to the house till spring, and the lacrosse and baseball boys will have to lay aside lacrosse stick and bat, and the catchers mask will be turned into a work basket for the winter. But meanwhile devotees of fall sport are making early and eager preparations. Guns are taken down, oiled and cleaned and a special supply of ammunition taken in; rollicking football is taking possession of the crease, and devotees of summer sports in general are preparing to resign gracefully and make way for the curlers and hockey players of the winter. Everything, in fact, promises citizens of Peterborough an ideal programme of fall and winter sport.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

At a meeting of the Rugby Football Club, last night, in the rooms over the Palace Restaurant, Mr. "Pop" Moore, to the regret of all, tendered his resignation of the captaincy of the team, on account of being transferred by the Electric Co'y to Toronto. Moore's presence will be greatly missed from the football field this year, as the memory of his brilliant work of last season is still alive. No successor to him has as yet been appointed. The club last night considered the advisability of entering the football league, as an opportunity of so doing will doubtless occur in a few days, when the series will be rearranged to admit St. Catharines. The only difficulty seems to lay in the fact that the local men might be unable to get away from business on the scheduled day for matches. The team is practising this afternoon on the P.A.A.A. grounds, and there will, consequently, be no practice at the rink tonight.

For Those Who Go Away or Those Who Stay.

Toilet articles for those who go away as well as for those who stay at home. You'll find the best of toilet belongings, carefully arranged for easy picking, at moderate prices, at John McKee's drug store, George street. Prescriptions carefully dispensed

A Narrow Escape.

Tuesday morning Mr. W. Davey and Mr. M. McConnell, of Bobcaygeon, drove out to the old depot in Galway to shoot partridge. They had shot a few as they went along the road, and were nearing the depot, McConnell sitting on the left, with his gun on his lap, on the alert for birds, and Mr. Davy driving, having his gun resting on the bottom of his buggy, with the muzzle against the upper watch pocket. Suddenly they were both startled by the explosion of Mr. Davey's gun, which toppled out of the buggy with the recoil, and each man exclaimed "you're shot!" The charge tore a piece out of Mr. Davey's waistcoat, blackened his watch and ploughed a few inches in width out of the fleshy part of his left arm. Mr. McConnel received several grains of powder in his whiskers near his ear. The wound in his left arm did not bleed much, and they at once drove home and received medical attendance. The injury is not serious, but it was a mighty narrow escape. The slightest variation in the slant of the gun would have severed the artery in Mr. Davey's arm, who would have probably bled to death, while McConnell would have been instantly killed by the charge entering his head.—Independent.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections.

Send 31 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.

FALL and WINTER CLOTHING

The experience of the past two seasons has taught us that there are many men who expect Ready-made Clothing to be as good as clothes made to order, and who are willing to pay a fair price when they get what they want. The Winter Suits and Overcoats are here in abundance, taking up every inch of space on our two floors.

$11.00 buys an Overcoat that is away up in every respect, except price. The colours are light tan, dark brown, black and navy blue. $6 or $8 will buy an All-wool Frieze Ulster that would require an expert to tell it from the genuine Irish Frieze. Colours are the same as our other Ulsters. Our suits comprise everything to be found in a first-class store from $5 up. Be sure and give us a call.

GRAND Re-opening

Of his New Premises and Semi-Annual Display of

Millinery and Mantles

WILL BE ON

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY,

OCTOBER 9th and 10th.

When the entire store will be thrown open to the public for inspection.

After many months of building operations our new premises are at last completed and we think you will say they are one of the finest in the province.

It has been planned with a view for the convenience and a shopping place for the masses and is now packed with choice goods from all the leading Canadian and foreign markets, and after 27 years in the Dry Goods business you will pardon us for saying we know the wants of the people and how and where to buy right and we intend this to be an introduction of a Grand Opening Sale.

Our Millinery Opening is later than usual, waiting for the completion of the premises, but it has given our Milliners more time to make an Extra Display of Trimmed Goods. Please remember that our Millinery Opening Days are Wednesday and Thursday, but on Thursday Evening we intend giving an Old-fashioned House-warming to the Buying Public, when you are cordially invited to look through and have some Coffee and Cake with us.

GALE OFF BRITAIN.

Numerous Wrecks the Result of the Blow.

MANY LIVES REPORTED LOST.

Several Fishing Schooners With Their Crews Lost Off Lancashire—A Steamer Goes to Pieces in the English Channel—The Hurricane Severely Felt All Over.

London, Oct. 4.—A violent hurricane is raging off Lundy Isle, at the entrance to the Bristol channel and is increasing in intensity. Several casualties have been reported.

A great deal of damage has been done by the gale, which has prevailed and is still blowing off Blackwood, Fleetwood, Lytham and other places along the British coasts.

The fishing smack Daisy, has foundered off Blackpool and it is believed that the crew of four persons have been drowned.

The fishing boat Jane and Alice with her crew is reported lost, and other boats engaged in the fishing industry are missing.

The schooner Lanisley has foundered in the British channel, and all on board were lost

The Russian bark Lettonia, from Apalachicola, Aug. 2, for Preston, previously reported ashore at Southport, has been broken up, and her cargo washed upon the beach. A number of other small wrecks and minor casualties have been reported.

The British steamer Sicilia, Captain Silly, abandoned, came ashore at North Queenneay this morning. A boat containing 16 of her crew in an exhausted condition arrived at Padistow, Cornwall, prior to the coming ashore of the steamer. The Sicilia is 1350 tons register. Subsequent to the arrival of the first of the Sicilia's boats at Padistow, the boat containing 26 other members of the crew, concerning the safety of which some fears were entertained, also arrived. The Sicilia was bound for Barcelona. She experienced severe weather, during which her cargo shifted and she was thrown on her beam ends, shipping much water.

The British steamer Etolia, Captain Lugg, from Montreal, which arrived at Bristol yesterday, lost four bullocks and twelve sheep on the passage.

The British barque J. H. Marsters, Captain McNeill, from Philadelphia, which arrived at Liverpool October 1, reports that on Sept. 19, in lat. 47 N., long. 25 W., she sighted a raft 20 feet long and 10 feet wide.

The Norwegian barque Erling Skjalgson, Captain Olsen, from Dalhousie, Aug. 29, for Whitehaven, is ashore at the North wharf, Fleetwood, Lancaster. Two tugs finally floated and towed her to a dock near the jetty in a water-logged condition.

Coal Barque Dismasted at Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 4.—The barque Tuba, coal laden, from Sydney to Montreal, is dismasted off Long Point, and was set on fire before the crew left. A boat with seven men has not landed. Another boat, with the captain, wife and child, and the rest of the crew has not landed yet.

Damaged But Kept Afloat

London, Oct. 3.—The British ship, Blairgowrie, from Vancouver, June 28, for Cape Town, has arrived at Conception with her bulwarks, stanchions and rail gone and her deck load lost.

Captain of the Iona Guilty of Negligence

London, Oct. 4.—The investigation into the circumstances of the fire on board of the London and Edinburgh's Steamship Company's steamer Iona, on Sept. 16, while on her way from Leith to this port, by which six women and one child lost their lives, resulted today in a verdict, in which the officers of the steamer are blamed for their failure to rescue the women and children passengers when the fire broke out. The verdict finds the captain guilty of negligence also in failing to ring the alarm bell when the flames were discovered.

WANTED HIS SALOON ON THE LINE.

A Malone, N.Y., Hotelkeeper Moves a Boundary Landmark.

Washingto, Oct. 4.—An extraordinary case of "removing a neighbor's landmarks" has been brought to the attention of Attorney-General Harmon. The landmark in question is, in fact, the boundary line between the United States and Canada at Malone, N.Y. The facts, as reported to the Attorney-General by F. G. Paddock, District Attorney for Franklin County, N.Y., are these: He states that a man owning a saloon near the boundary line in Malone has taken up and removed ten feet into the United States, an iron post which has heretofore designated the boundary line between Canada and the United States. The object sought to be gained by this move is to bring a building owned by the offender partly within the boundaries of Canada and partly in the United States. The ulterior purpose, Mr. Paddock suggests, was to enable the trespasser to escape the penalties of the customs laws and other restrictions on the sale of liquors in his saloon by making it doubtful whether this offence was committed within the United States or Canada. Attorney-General Harmon has called the attention of the State Department to the matter and has also directed United States District Attorney Poucher for the Northern District of New York to investigate the affair.

NEWFOUNDLAND'S REVENUE.

A Falling Off of 30 Per Cent. Indicates More Financial Difficulties.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 3.—The Government admits the revenue for three months ending Sept. 30, is very disappointing. The receipts for the month of September were considerably below last year. Calculations on the basis of the quarter just ended indicate that the revenue for the fiscal year will fall 30 per cent. below the estimate, which will result in the colony being in financial difficulties again in December or in June next at the far-

MOSLEM RIOTS RENEWED.

Seventy Armenians Killed. The Churches Full of Refugees.

London, Oct. 4.—A despatch from Constantinople under the date of Oct. 3, says: The rioting which prevailed here on Monday was renewed last evening, when the Softas chased and attacked every Armenian they met in the streets of the Stamboul quarter of the city, killing 50 of them during the night. The Softas also attacked a cafe in which there were 20 Armenians and killed every one of them. The fugitive Armenians are taking refuge in the churches. The clergy are untiring in their efforts to reassure them, and address the frightened Armenians almost continuously.

The conduct of the Armenians in going armed to take part in the demonstration in front of the palace gates on Monday is generally condemned and no doubt is now entertained that the rioting originated in an organized movement on the part of the Armenian Revolutionary Committee. The revolvers and knives taken from dead or living Armenians by the police were all of the same pattern.

The Armenians in the employ of the Porte, as soon as they realized the gravity of the situate of their countrymen, fled from the city, being afraid that the Government would treat them scurvily. They all returned to-day, however, with the exception of Artym Pasha, secretary of the Foreign Ministry, who is accused of being in sympathy with the Armenian conspirators

Powers Differ as to the Blame

London, Oct. 4.—The Graphic says: "It is impossible in face of this serious state of affairs for the powers to proceed immediately with the scheme of Armenian reforms. The criminal folly of the Armenians has tied the hands of the authors of the scheme."

The Post says: "It is all very well after the event to arraign the vehemence with which the Mohammendans retaliated against the Armenians, but all the circumstances show that a crisis affecting the peace of Europe had arisen. It is not surprising that the Sultan's guards should not have shown the discretion that would have been expected of police controlling ordinary European crowds."

The Daily News denounces what it terms the disgraceful attempt of one or two English journals to represent the Turk as a lamb and the Armenian as a wolf in this butchery, "which was a mere massacre, promising to rank with some of the historic crimes of the Turkish capital."

The Standard will publish a despatch from Constantinople saying that on Wednesday a large number of shops were closed and the streets were patrolled by the police. The whole city is virtually in a state of siege. The despatch adds that a witness of the occurrence states a respectable-looking Armenian was arrested by two gendarmes on Tuesday while walking in the Galata quarter. When he protested against being arrested the gendarmes immediately ripped his body open with their swords.

The Armenian Patriarch received a letter on Tuesday inviting him to call upon the Government. The letter stated that none of his followers would be permitted to accompany him. The Patriarch therefore declined to accept the invitation and remains at the Patriarchate, where he is shut in with several hundred Armenians fully armed. The officials visited the Patriarchate and summoned its occupants to surrender, giving them until 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to comply, after which time if they did not surrender, the building would be stormed. The despatch further says that at the time mentioned the police surrounded the building and prepared to carry out their threat to storm it Reviewing the incident it appears that the police generally were not supplied with ball cartridges. They were instructed to use the flats of their swords and the butts of their rifles. Such provocation as they gave in the first instance was verbal. The Armenians fired first. With the exception of the massacre of the prisoners the most violence was committed by the Softas and the lowest class of Moslems, none of whom, however, appears to have been arrested or otherwise checked. Doubtless the Armenians will be made to pay dearly for the outburst, but having provoked reprisals it will be difficult for the powers to intervene.

Great consternation prevails at the palace. The Sultan has not been in bed since Monday. It is felt that a crisis has arrived. No such terror has prevailed since the Greek revolution.

A later despatch to The Standard says that the threat to storm the Patriarchate has not yet been carried out. The church officials declare that they are not able to compel the refugees to leave the building and the latter decline to leave their shelter. It is hoped that the police will not resort to force, as in that event a fearful massacre would inevitably result. The refugees are huddled together in the building with hardly standing room. They depend for food on such scraps as are brought to them. Seven corpses have been delivered from the patriarchate for burial.

COST $300 TO TALK TO A JURYMAN.

An Expensive Joke by a Man Who Wanted Durrant Hanged.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—A monotonous morning session in the Durrant trial to-day was relieved by the contempt of court proceedings in the case of Secretary H. J. McCoy of the Y.M.C.A., who last Thursday remarked to a juror in the case that he would be hanged if he did not vote to convict Durrant.

McCoy admitted making the remark but said that it was made in jest and to a juryman, who was an old friend of his. He regretted the remark the moment it was uttered and had regretted it ever since. He said he had nothing against Durrant and his remark had had no significance. Judge Sanderson of the Superior Court, who overheard the remark and reported it to Judge Murphy, said that McCoy did not deliver the utterance in the manner of a man who really contemplated violence to a juryman.

The court said he was satisfied McCoy meant nothing by the remark, but fined him $250, with an alternative of five days in jail.

The attempt of the defense to sustain the roll call for Dr. Chonay's lecture on the afternoon of April 3, on which Durrant's name appeared, failed in an important particular to-day. The roll showed that Student C. L. Garvin was absent from the lecture. Garvin testified that he was present.

Durrant's counsel claim that on April 3 Durrant, accompanied by F. K. Ross, another student, left the college at 12.30 and took a walk, from which they did not return until 1.30, when Durrant went to the college and remained until the close of the lecture at 4.30. Ross was put on the stand this afternoon, but he could not positively say on what day the walk was taken. He was not certain that it was in April. R. H. Carter, another student, who met Durrant and Ross while on the walk, could not fix the date.

Several more of the students of Durrant's class were called to-day, but none could say whether he was at the lecture on the afternoon of April 3 or not.

The proceedings of the day closed with contempt proceedings against Miss Carrie Cunningham, a reporter, who refused to divulge the name of the person from whom she got the information that Mrs. Leak saw Durrant enter the Emanuel Church with a young lady, when he was thought to have gone thither with Blanche Lamont. Miss Cunningham was given until to-morrow morning to answer, with an alternative of imprisonment.

MANITOBA FARMERS HOLDING WHEAT.

Many Will Feed It to Stock If They Cannot Get 50 Cents a Bushel

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 3.—Milling companies continue to do all the wheat buying. They take only No. 1 hard, and are paying 46 cents at Brandon, and 48 cents at Morden. Men who buy wheat as a speculation are doing practically nothing yet, as the farmers are holding for better prices and buyers cannot give it until there is a rise in the Liverpool market. Farmers are getting a strong suspicion that they have been systematically fleeced by speculators in the past few years, through the grading and mixing methods therefore there is a disposition to hold and feed to stock rather than sell at less than 50 cents.

The Conservative clubs have sent a remonstrance to Ottawa against the superannuation of Lieut.-Col. Street, collector of customs.

"MY GOD, IT IS MY SON."

A Father Finds His Son Killed Under a Train.

Levis, Que., Oct. 4.—"My God, it is my son," were the words Mail Clerk Dorion exclaimed to-day at Harlaka Junction, as he got down from the postal car of the intercolonial train to look at a young man run over in attempting to board the Halifax express, which passed there at the rate of eight miles per hour. The young man had fallen between the cars. His skull was crushed and leg mangled and torn. He was visiting relatives at the place of the accident, and tried to board the train to proceed home to Quebec when the accident took place. He will die.

SKINNED ALIVE BY POWDER.

Three Men Killed by the Careless Act of a Smoker.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—At Lemont yesterday three men were eating dinner in the shade of a powder box on section five of the Drainage Camp. One man lighted a match, and exploded sixty pounds of powder. The men were blown 20 feet away and frightfully burned. One man whose back was a shield to the flame, was thrown into a pool of water. When drawn out the flesh from his back remained in the water. The ribs of another man were bared. None of the men can recover.

IMPALED ON AN IRON PICKET.

A Boy Bleeds to Death From Injuries Received Climbing a Fence.

Williamsport, Oct. 4.—William Kelly, aged 14, of Hughesville, while attempting to scale a picket fence surrounding a coal yard this morning, slipped and fell, alighting on an iron picket. The boy's left leg was caught between the hip and knee, inflicting a wound from which he bled to death an hour after the accident.

An Equal Surprise and Pleasure.

The poet has sung—"Oh, for a beaker of the warm south, the true, the blushful Hippocrene," and the people have sighed for a good wine too, for the price forbade. For it is not everybody can pay $8 and $10, a dozen for wine, and the masses had to go without. But this is a democratic day, and it is the whole people who are catered for now and not a section of the people. Accordingly, when the Bordeaux Claret Co., introduced their light, pleasant, and thoroughly wholesome wines at the incredible figure of $3 and $4 per doz. quarts there was equal surprise and pleasure among the people. The demand is enormous and orders cannot be filled quick enough. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal.

Purified Blood

Saved an operation in the following case. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all others fail. It makes pure blood.

"A year ago my father, William Thompson, was taken suddenly ill with inflammation of the bladder. He suffered a great deal and was very low for some time. At last the doctor said he would not get well unless an operation was performed. At this time we read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to try it. Before he used half a bottle his appetite had come back to him, whereas before he could eat but little. When he had taken three bottles of the medicine he was as well as ever." FRANCIS J. From Our Own Correspondent.

The harvest home social held under the auspices of the E. L. of C. E. of the Methodist church last Friday evening was quite a success. The proceeds were towards paying off the debt on the parsonage.

The Misses McNall, of Port Hope, are visiting Mrs. A. Ferguson.

Mrs. Griffin and daughter Mabel, of Dacota, are visiting at R. W. Clarke's.

Miss Maggie Woods is visiting friends in Port Hope.

Miss Edith Thorndyke has been visiting friends in Reaboro.

Mr. Geo. Lock, who has been seriously ill for some time past, is now recovering.

Flower Sunday was held in the Methodist church last Sunday. The church was profusely decorated with flowers, and the services were largely attended. The interior of the church was photographed on Monday morning before the flowers were removed.

Mr. E. J. Guy, of Oshawa, is here again buying grain.

The Misses Parkins, of Lindsay, who have installed an electric light plant here, leave this week for Port Hope to commence operations there.

Miss Mina Bateson and Master Harry Duncan leave on Thursday for a visit to friends in Cleveland.

Miss Mabel Pritchard of Toronto, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wright.

Mr. H. M. Wood, B. A., has been appointed Division Court Clerk, in place of John Hunter, resigned.

Mrs. Bert O'Brien of North Bay is visiting friends in town.

The East Durham and Cavan Fall Show takes place on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Miss S. Craig of Bradford, is visiting her uncle, Mr. J. Craig.

Large numbers of our citizens attended the Peterborough and Lindsay shows and consider the latter the most attractive in all respects.

Great interest was shown here over the Gray trial last week, many having remembered the circumstance of a fire which occurred here, resulting in the loss of life of the late Jno. McGowan, whose head was separated from the trunk on finding the burnt remains. No foul play suspected.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

Mr. Tarte Comes Out Flatfooted Against Them.

FAVORS PURE SECULAR TEACHING

"I Do Not in Any Way See the Practical Utility of Separate Schools in Ontario or Even in the Dominion"—Mishap to Mr Donald Smith Banque du Peuple's Affairs.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—There is a great deal of talk in political circles over the sudden somersault of Mr. J. Israel Tarte, M.P., on the question of religious instruction in the public schools. This is what the member for L'Iconoclaste writes: "It is in the bosom of the family and the church where the child learns its religious duties and is fortified in its particular faith. To delegate this important mission to the school teacher is, to say the least, risky, and in order to justify what I have said, I have only to appeal to all those who read these lines, praying them to look back to the time when they attended the village school. What kind of explanations did they receive regarding the smaller catechism."

The above is surprising, but that which follows is still more astounding and places Mr. Tarte in a new role altogether. Here is what he writes in black and white: "Allow me to say, in all sincerity, that I do not in any way see the practical utility of Separate Schools in the Province of Ontario or even in the Dominion, if it is only to permit the teaching of French on a large scale."

To-day the affairs of the Banque du Peuple reached a most interesting stage, and it is now evident that the large depositors hold the key to the situation. A circular has been prepared and will be sent to the depositors asking them to allow their deposits to remain on conditions stated in this column yesterday. In plain English, if the gentlemen who have the larger portion of the $4,000,000 now deposited in the bank will leave it there and accept deposit receipts, payable in six, twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months, and bearing interest at 4 per cent., the bank will, with the aid of $1,000,000, now in the vaults, be able in a week or two to open its doors and resume business. If the majority refuse to act upon this suggestion, nothing can prevent the Banque du Peuple from going into liquidation.

All sorts of fakes are being set afloat in connection with the Demers case. Mr. Desmarais, who is defending the accused, received a letter from an unknown lady, stating that if Demers is found guilty, the writer will give the name of the real culprit.

Neither La Patrie nor L'Electeur has explained why both so gleefully reported Hon. Mr. Laurier's alleged words, "Thank God there are no Orangemen in the Liberal party."

A cablegram received here to-day states that Sir Donald Smith broke his left arm while traveling in the Scotch Highlands, but his general health is good.

Alderman R. Wilson Smith has the sympathy of his many friends to-day in the death of his second daughter, who has been ill for a long time.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks of News From the Whirling Wheels—Interesting Cinders for the Eye.

Conductor Jobbit is at present relieving Conductor Greaves on the Coboconk mixed.

Conductor Pym, of the Haliburton mixed, is again on the sick list, and his place is being filled by Conductor Russell.

It is reported that Jas. Carruthers, Walter Chester and Jack Jobbit, all ex-Grand Trunk employees who reside at Norway, East Toronto, intend leaving Canada next month to seek their fortunes in South Africa.

On Saturday Brakeman Ramsey met with a rather painful accident in the G. T. R. yards in Lindsay. He was in the act of coupling cars when he got his hand caught in the coupler. Dr. Kempt was called and it was found that the first finger was broken and the second one badly smashed. He will not be able to attend to his duties for some time.

Local C.P.R. officials were considerably alarmed when fire broke out in the Bridge Works last week, as they had four cars there being loaded.

Mr. Richard Purser, the popular and affable conductor, on the Peterborough and Ashburnham Electric Railway, has been given the Charlotte Street run permanently for the winter season.

FRASERVILLE.

On Sunday morning a fire broke out in the blacksmith shop of Mr. John Bothwell and the barn near at hand, both being seen at about the same time. The buildings were entirely destroyed, as well as the adjacent barns and sheds attached to Jos. Bullied's hotel. By the efforts of neighbours the hotel was saved. Mr. Bothwell's loss is $1,000, with an insurance of $275. Mr. Bullied's loss of $500 is covered by an insurance of $100. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

It's Not the Money nor The Name

It's the Clothing itself that does the business.

If it were like any other Clothing, buyers would'nt be asked to name it, nor would they be so anxious to get it.

There's a Character

In Oak Hall Clothing which distinguishes it from all other Clothing. It very often happens that the good qualities of an Overcoat, like beauty, are but skin deep. But Oak Hall's goes further—we take care that the inside and through-and-through is as satisfactory as the outside.

There was a time when it was necessary for the man who wanted a perfect fitting Suit or Overcoat to go to the Merchant Tailor and leave his measure, and after waiting several days get it home, only to be dissatisfied at finding that he had paid a high price for what he has not received.

But, since our advent into Peterborough, he finds that he can come to us, and for a small part of the former price, get as good a Garment and be satisfied with the material and fit BEFORE HE PAYS OUT A CENT.

Oak Hall Clothing

Has no execrable hump to disfigure the form or annoy the wearer. It is uniquely put together, made up and trimmed from good material

Therefore, it is not a matter of Dollars—only Sense. Other things being equal, a Suit that will last twice as long as another, is worth twice as much. If one stove would heat a room comfortably no one would think of using two, and the same logic holds in the case of Oak Hall Suits and Overcoats. One Oak Hall Suit or Overcoat will give more satisfactory wear and warmth than two of any other make.

The proof of the pudding is the eating of it.

IMPORTING REPRINTS

It is Said Canada Cannot Now Do So.

RESULT OF ABOLISHING ROYALTY

Sir Julian Pauncefote at Ottawa—Dr. Dawson Estimates That One-Third of Canada is Unexplored—Shortage in the Chaudiere Lumber Cut.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 4.—The decision having been rendered that the author's royalty of 12 1-2 per cent. on foreign reprints of British copyright works can no longer be legally collected by our collectors of customs, the position that Canada now stands in with regard to the Mother Country on the copyright question has been under consideration. The Imperial Parliament in 1842, for the express purpose of protecting the British authors, passed an Act prohibiting the importation into its possessions of foreign reprints of British copyright works. This gave great dissatisfaction in the North American provinces, which was overcome by the Imperial Parliament, in 1847, passing an Act authorizing the Queen-in-council to suspend the objectionable portion of the Act of 1842, on condition that an author's royalty of 12 1-2 per cent. was collected as a substitute. Since that period this regulation has been in force and the prohibition of importation of foreign reprints has been suspended. It is now held that the abolition of the collection of royalty has brought Canada back to the precise position she was in in 1842, and the impression prevails that foreign reprints of British copyright works cannot now be imported into Canada. Whether the Home Government will insist upon the law being carried out in this regard remains to be seen. If these works are prohibited it will be a serious loss to Canadian readers who rely on the cheap reprints from the United States of all the new works.

The Minister of Railways and Canals has received a report from the superintendent of the St. Mary's canal stating that 414 vessels passed through the Canadian Soo from the 9th to the 30th Sept. The aggregate registered tonnage of these vessels was 316,132.

Under instructions from the Department of Railways and Canals and at the request of a delegation of the Canadian Marine Association, which was here last week, the mitre sill of the guard lock at the upper entrance to the new lock at Galops is now being taken out, while the channel of entrance to the new lock at Cardinal is being dredged out. During the winter both shoals at the entrance of the Beauharnois canal, which are causing trouble, will be removed, while the work of lowering the mitre sill of the lock at Melochville will be done at a time when the canal is unwatered.

Sir Julian Pauncefote and the Earl of Westmeath arrived here to-night. The British ambassador denies that his visit has any political or official significance, but it is pretty well understood that he will discuss with the Premier and Sir Charles Tupper the personnel of the proposed commission to determine the amount of damages to which Canadian sealers are entitled under the Paris award.

Major-General Gascoigne has received an invitation from the commanding officer of a Montreal corps inviting him to assist at a church parade of that regiment to be held shortly. The general is of opinion that a better way of gaining knowledge of the militia under his control would be secured by brigade church parades, in the larger cities, where all local corps could join together for the occasion. This is the course which he prefers to carry out during the present fall. If it can be arranged satisfactorily he will visit most of the larger cities and make the personal acquaintance of the officers. The General had thought of starting out upon an immediate tour, as soon as his household was established in Ottawa, but has reconsidered this decision and will attend to departmental business for the present.

Representatives of 25 daily papers visited the Experimental Farm to-day an invitation of Professor Saunders and Mr Craig, the horticulturist, and were shown through the graperies and had the different varieties and their various qualities explained. There were no less than 175 different varieties. This year has been an unusually favorable one in this district for the growth of grapes, so the crop was an exceptionally fine one. Many of the larger bunches weighed a pound and a half. A striking object lesson was observable in regard to certain varieties which had been sprayed with Bordeaux mixture, while other vines of the same variety were unsprayed. Grape growers, whose fruit is liable to mildew, should emulate the Experimental Farm action and spray.

This year's cut of lumber at the Ottawa mills will total about 265,000,000 feet and will be divided as follows: J. R. Booth, 1,000,000 feet; Buell, Orr & Co., 50,000,000 feet; Bronson & Weston, 50,000,000 feet; Gilmour & Hughson, 40,000,000 feet, and W. C. Edwards, 25,000,000 feet. The output this season will be at least 75,000,000 feet behind that of last year. Many reasons are given for this shortage. The delay of some firms in beginning the season's sawing on account of replacing old machinery with that of a new modern type and a scarcity of logs are largely responsible.

Dr. Dawson, director of the Geological Survey, computes that there are more than a million and a quarter square miles of unexplored lands in Canada. The entire area of the Dominion is placed at 3,470,257 square miles, consequently nearly one-third of this country has yet been untraveled by the explorer. Exclusive of inhospitable detached Arctic portions, 954,000 square miles are for all practical purposes entirely unknown.

MY MIND IS ALL GONE NOW.

E. W. Blackhall of Toronto Commits Suicide by Shooting.

Toronto, Oct. 4.—"My mind is all gone, now; I must have softening of the brain; I can't think, write, or do anything."

These were the words of Edward Wakefield Blackhall, addressed to his daughter on Tuesday last. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the unfortunate man shot himself through the head in the bathroom of his residence, No. 93 Wood-street.

Mr. Blackhall was 53 years of age and a dealer in bookbinders' machinery. He was known as an inventor, and carried on business in Lombard-street, also conducting an establishment in Buffalo. In the early spring he paid a long business visit to Chicago and while there so overworked himself that his health was seriously affected.

His illness, however, did not assume an acute form until the middle of August, when he suddenly formed the resolution to abandon smoking, to which he had for years been inveterately addicted. Extreme nervous prostration following, for which the deceased was treated by Dr. John Caven of Carlton-street, without apparent benefit.

Yesterday morning, Miss Blackhall, noticing that her father appeared more despondent than usual, persuaded him to remain in the house. He went upstairs at 9.30, saying he was going to lie down, but his daughter found him in the bathroom shortly afterwards and induced him to descend with her. Then Miss Blackhall became alarmed and her mother hurried off to summon Dr. Caven, despite her husband's objections.

Deceased returned to the bathroom, and in a few moments Miss Maud Blackhall, a younger daughter, heard the report of a pistol. Entrance was effected to the room, where Mr. Blackhall was found lying on the floor with a wound behind the right ear. Death had been instantaneous, the bullet having penetrated the brain. By the dead man's side was found a 32 calibre revolver, one chamber empty. In the meantime Dr. Caven arrived, but his services could do no good.

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from the prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	PerCent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.63	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 23, Annual Premium $177.

Total Cost for 6 years ..... 1,062 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy ..... 1,250 Dollars
Nearly 200 Dollars more than Insurance Cost.

A. E's Life Policy for $5,000, issued April, 1886, Age 22, Annual Premium $86.

Total Cost for 9 years ..... 774 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy ..... 1,000 Dollars
More than 200 Dollars over Cost of Insurance.

Messrs. Dickson Jewett, Harold Snowden and John Johnston have returned from camping at Pigeon Lake, where they report 'lunge and bass to be biting freely. The party secured 30 ducks, of which Dickson Jewett shot eleven pair. The birds are not nearly as plentiful this year at Pigeon Lake as they were last season.

A New Site.

Coon's saw mill, situated alongside the travelled road, about half a mile from "Alley's," or Rush Point post office, four miles north of Havelock, has been pulled down, and its contents—engine, boiler, saws, etc., have been removed to Round Lake. It is now and has been for some time past run by Mr. E. Williams. The old site has been occupied for a saw mill for many years. The new site is more convenient to timber producing lands.

Sawmill Burned.

The old and well-known Taylor's sawmill, situate on the north shore of Belmont Lake, in the township of Belmont, was destroyed by fire last week. It was owned and operated by Mr. Jessie Whitney, who took possession of it over a year ago. The bush fire of the neighbourhood found its way to the building and was the cause of its destruction. We understand Mr. Whitney will erect another mill and resume operations, perhaps, this fall.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders, and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

A Meritorious Concert.

The band concert given at the S. A. barracks last night was a success in every way. Over 500 people were in attendance. Some of the numbers on the programme were of such a character as would have done credit to a more pretentious concert. The euphonium solos by Master Carlos Green were wonder for a boy of his tender years, while the music by an orchestra of ten was good. A number of violin solos and duets were creditable, as was also some special music played by the brass band.

A BRITISH COLUMBIA BRIDAL.

Marriage of Miss Armstrong, Niece of Mrs. J. Stratton, Peterborough.

The News-Advertiser, New Westminster, B. C., of Sept. 5th, contains the following which will be of local interest:—"A morning bright with sunshine greeted one of Westminster's fairest daughters, when yesterday the time had arrived for one much loved in the home circle and held in affectionate regard and very high esteem by a very large number of friends, to leave the sheltering care of her parents and home and to entrust her happiness to one with whom she had consented to throw in her lot "for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer" while life shall last. Small wonder that a crowded church met the eyes of Miss Rosa Selina Armstrong, youngest daughter of Mr. W. J. Armstrong, ex-sheriff of New Westminster, as, leaning on her father's arm, she entered Holy Trinity Cathedral, New Westminster, there to find her betrothed husband, Dr. Osborne Morris, of Vernon, waiting to claim her as his bride. The chancel and choir stalls of the Cathedral were beautifully decorated. The bride, was attended by her sister and Miss Morris, sister of the groom, was dressed in rich white faille silk, with court train. After the ceremony a party of twenty attended the wedding breakfast at "Rosekestel", the residence of the bride's father. The high social standing of the parties is shown by the fact that the News-Advertiser devotes a column and a half to a report of the wedding.

THE GILMOUR-BURNHAM NUPTIALS.

Marriage of Rev. J. L. Gilmour, Brockville, and Miss Georgina Burnham, Peterborough.

Yesterday afternoon the residence of Dr. Burnham, 214 John street, Toronto, was the scene of a pretty wedding of special interest to Peterborough people. Rev. O. C. Wallace, Chancellor of McMaster University, united in marriage Rev. J. L. Gilmour, pastor of the Baptist church, Brockville and Miss Georgina Burnham, youngest daughter of the late Dr. Burnham, of Peterborough. The bride was assisted by her three little nieces, who were prettily gowned and carried bouquets of roses. Both of the principals are well known in Peterborough. After the ceremony a reception was held. Several of the relatives from Peterborough were present on the occasion. The bridal pair left for the east on a wedding journey, and will reside in Brockville.

He is Said to Have Bitten a Boy.

James Finn was before the Magistrate, this morning, charged with assaulting Willie Gammie, a messenger boy who was delivering a parcel for Mr. C. B. Routley. A great deal of evidence was taken, in which a great many witnesses testified to their belief that the prisoner was a dangerous man to be at large. When Gammie was put in the witness box he stated that he called at Finn's to deliver a parcel, and that the prisoner had seized him and thrown him over the fence, afterwards catching him and biting him severely in the arm. The lad was chased up and down the street and had great difficulty in getting into his delivery wagon and driving off. The case has been enlarged until to-morrow. Mr. W. H. Moore is appearing for the prisoner.

Obituary.

James Ovens, whose death occurred recently at Norwood, was a native of Fermanagh, Ireland, and was one of the pioneer school teachers of this country. Coming to Canada when a young man he engaged in that profession and as far back as some of the old residents of this section can remember he taught in Belmont about forty-five years ago in what is known as the north school house, and subsequently in other parts of the county. About twenty years ago he retired and has since been receiving an allowance from the Superannuated Teachers' Fund. He was never married, and his only near relative in this country, a brother, was killed on the Grand Junction Railway some years ago. He resided in Westwood until about two years ago, when he moved to Norwood. In his early life he was not unmindful of the future, and laid aside sufficient means, along with his superannuation allowance, to provide for himself in later years. At his death he leaves $50 to the Methodist church, Hastings; $30 to the Superannuation Fund of the Methodist church, and after some other small bequests, the balance of his estate to the Missionary Society of the Methodist church.

Fruit Social and Entertainment.

Last evening a happy company of about seventy-five, mostly young people, assembled in Unity Hall at the I.O.G.T. fruit social and entertainment. Mr Jas. Stubbs, Chief Templar of the lodge, presided, and in a happy manner welcomed those present and invited them to become members of the order, after which he called upon the Roberts family to open the programme. They responded with an excellently rendered selection to which a hearty encore was given. A solo by Mr. Walter Squires was given in good voice and received wish applause. Miss Edna Neild also favoured the audience with two very touching and appropriate recitations. She is a young elocutionist of rare ability, and was loudly applauded for the manner in which she rendered her two difficult selections. Mr. G. K. Munro gave a comic "lettie Dutchman's" recitation which earned him a recall. Solos were given by Miss Lillie Miller and Miss Ethel Strain, which were received with favour by those present. Another selection by the Roberts family drew to a close this part of the entertainment. No sooner had the applause died away than the ladies took possession of the hall, with well-laden trays of tempting fruit. After this had been partaken of and "they had gathered up the fragments that remained," the singing of the National Anthem brought to a close one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season. City Lodge is in a most flourishing condition, there being about 70 members in good standing, and about 50 present at each meeting. Nearly a dozen names were handed in last night to be initiated next Thursday, and now that the summer is well over we may expect the society to prosper during the winter. The best of good feeling prevails at each meeting, and all who join are guaranteed a hearty reception by a throng of enthusiastic workers.—COM.

A DARING ROBBERY AT MYRTLE STATION.

Operator Cameron Was Sandbagged.

OVER $2,000 STOLEN FROM THE C. P. R. STATION.

The Dominion Express Company Owned the Money Which was Being Sent From Whitby or Oshawa to Toronto—A Daring Robbery Indeed.

Early this morning, sometime between the hours of one and three o'clock, a most daring robbery was committed, which for effrontery is almost unparalled in the annals of crime committed in the province.

Many of the details concerning the affair are impossible to get, but from the particulars received from the trainmen on the noon express, it would appear that Night Operator Courtney at the C.P.R. station at Myrtle was out in the yard taking down a semaphore, when he was suddenly by a blow with a sandbag from behind. He had no idea there was anyone in the vicinity and never suspected an attack of any nature.

When Conductor Carson steamed into Myrtle station at about four o'clock this morning with his freight, he was surprised to find everything so quiet. A glance into the office revealed nothing, but when he looked into the baggage room he was very much startled to find Night Operator Cameron gagged and bound hand and foot and lying on his face. The ropes were quickly severed, but the operator had been too severely maltreated to recover immediately and so Conductor Carson aroused the agent and acquainting him with the state of affairs, left Mr. Cameron in his hands.

An investigation showed that the safe had been belonging to the Dominion Express Company. Some $32.00 belonging to the C. P. R. had been removed from the till and a gold watch and $40.00 from the pockets of the unfortunate operator.

LOOTED OF $2,000

Conductor Carson then came on through with his train and Detective Jamieson, of the C. P. R., receiving information of the affair, went up to Myrtle early this morning. He passed through to Smith's Falls at noon and from him fuller particulars concerning the robbery were obtained. It seems the money was consigned to Toronto from either Whitby or Oshawa, from which points the Dominion Express Company operates a stage line to Myrtle and as the crime of sandbagging the operator would never have been committed unless there was a great incentive, it can easily be supposed that the desperadoes of the fact that a large sum of money would be committed to the agent's keeping on the date upon which the robbery took place. This will furnish an important clue to the detectives, and there is every reason to suppose that the perpetrators of the deed will be speedily run to earth. The C.P.R. has some clever detectives on its force and it is safe to predict that so daring a robbery will not be permitted to go unpunished without every possible effort being made to arrest the guilty parties.

When Detective Jameson left Myrtle Mr. Courtney had recovered consciousness but was unable to give the slightest clue as to his assailants, having been struck down from behind when totally unaware of their presence, they being able to approach him easily as the noise occasioned by the adjusting of the semaphore effectually drowned the sound of their stealthy footsteps. At present the night operator is confined to his bed from the effects of the terrible blow he received over the left ear, but it is not thought that any permanent injuries will result.

To St. Paul or Minneapolis, (via lake route between Sarnia and Sault Ste. Marie), $36.50. All tickets good to return on or before Oct. 21st.

The great attraction of this excursion is that passengers will have the opportunity of passing through the celebrated St. Clair Tunnel, the greatest submarine tunnel in the world. Its total length with approaches is over three miles. Its cost was over three millions of dollars. For tickets and reservations of berths apply to J. P. Hurley, city ticket agent, or Wm. Hayden, station agent. 5d76

AN IMPORTANT ACTION FOR DAMAGES.

Mrs. A. B. Appleby Sues Miss Abbie Dugan for $10,000—As an Equivalent for Alienating the Affections of Mrs. Appleby's Husband.

On Wednesday Messrs. Dumble & Johnston, solicitors for Mrs. A. B. Appleby, issued a writ against Miss Abigail (Abbie) Dugan of this town, claiming damages to the amount of $10,000 for the alientation by Miss Dugan of the affections of Mrs. Appleby's husband, who resided in Peterborough, and carried on a business in hides, having his warerooms and office at the corner of Simcoe and Bethune streets.

The plaintiff claims that on account of the alleged alienation of her husband's affections by the defendant, the plaintiff has suffered much at the hands of her husband. Among the results was the following: About two years ago A. B. Appleby went to Wahpeton, North Dakota, and instituted an action for divorce from his wife. The grounds on which he sought a divorce were alleged to be abusive language, cruelty and finally adultery. In this case he was defeated on the trial of the charge.

He then removed to another county of North Dakota, and at Fargo instituted another action for divorce, and the case is still pending.

Mr. and Mrs. Appleby were married at Cancord, New Hampshire seven years ago and three children were born to them. They resided some years in Peterborough.

When Mrs. Appleby's trouble came about on account of the conduct of her husband, the shock completely prostrated her, and it is said her husband took her to New Hampshire, where he left her with her father. During her absence from Peterborough Appleby put a man in the house, and when Mrs. Appleby recovered and returned to town the man in charge refused her admission to the house, and she alleges that the household goods were removed, and among them a considerable quantity that belonged to herself before and at the time of her marriage. Since that time Mrs. Appleby has resided in town and has supported herself and family by doing needlework.

On interviewing Miss Dugan's solicitors they refused to say anything, except that their client denies that there is any truth to the story of the plaintiff, and asserts her innocence of any conduct that would justify Mrs. Appleby's action, a denial upon which Miss Dugan's numerous friends in the highest social circles of the town will place great weight. They also expressed regret that there was no way of preventing so great publicity of an action which in its ultimate result would probably vindicate their client's position.

The case will take the usual legal course, and very probably—if it is urged—will come up for trial at the next assizes in March or April.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

A High Price to Pay for a few Apples An Example Made of Young Green.

The magistrate this morning made an example of Ephraim Green, who was charged with trespassing on the premises of Mrs. James H. Dixon. Green pleaded guilty to stealing apples from the orchard, and as Mr. Fred Dixon testified that almost the entire crop of fruit has been stolen by boys coming out from town, the magistrate imposed the extreme penalty of a fine of $10 or 30 days in gaol. Green has been given ten days in which to pay the fire. When pronouncing sentence His Honour stated that he was resolved to put a stop to this fruit stealing, if severe punishment could do it. He, himself, had been forced to dig up his grape vines on account of the boys flocking to his premises at night as soon as the fruit began to ripen.

A Prominent Lawyer says:

"I have eight children, every one in good health, not one of whom but has taken Scott's Emulsion, in which my wife has boundless confidence."

OTONABEE EXHIBITION.

THE USUAL ANNUAL SUCCESS.

Beautiful Weather — A Very Large Attendance of Visitors — Excellent Exhibits of Stock — Fine Special Exhibits.

The annual exhibition of the Otonabee Agricultural Society, held at the beautiful village of Keene, on Wednesday and Thursday, was favoured with magnificent weather, and in consequence there was an unusually large attendance of visitors from all parts of the township. There was a considerable number present from Peterborough, and the steamers North Star and Beaver brought large excursions from Harwood and Gore's Landing.

In many departments the exhibits was well worthy of the liberal patronage the exhibition received. But the inside exhibition was hardly up to the standard of former years. In the town hall there was a somewhat sparing show of domestic manufactures, quilts, flannels, etc. There was a very creditable display of ladies work, though it was not large. A small but excellent show of fruit was made, and a big display of cut flowers and flowers in pots. The fine arts department contained a considerable collection of oil paintings in landscapes, figures and portraits, among which was a speaking likeness of Mr. Geo. Read by his granddaughter, Miss Powell.

The skating rink was devoted to the exhibits of grains, roots, etc, which were both excellent. The roots were monstrous in their size, and a collection of grains of excellent quality elicted admiration. In domestic culinary articles, home-made bread, etc., and also butter there was a good exhibit.

THE LIVE STOCK EXHIBIT.

This was in some respects of unusual merit. The largest exhibitors were Messrs. Birdsall & Son, who showed both cattle and sheep. In cattle they had a fine herd of thoroughbred Jerseys, consisting of a specially fine bull calf, two milch cows and a calf, as well as a grade Jersey calf. They also showed a fine herd of thoroughbred Durhams, nearly all of which were prize winners at Belleville, Peterborough and Keene. These consisted of a beautiful two-year-old bull, a splendid milch cow, two bull calves, two yearling heifers and heifer calf.

Here may be a proper place to note some corrections in the prize list of the Central, made necessary through inaccuracies in the judging books. Messrs. Birdsall & Son took second on a herd for which they were not credited in the prize list. They also took second for Jersey heifer and bull calf, and second for aged cow. The also took second in Oxford Down sheep.)

In Holsteins, Mr. Andrew Cameron exhibited thoroughbred pedigreed cow and bull calf. The admirers of this herd, of which the above were excellent specimens, claim that they are fast making a first-class record, not only as fine milkers, but for milk rich in butter fat.

Mr. W. J. Miller showed some really splendid Durhams, bred by himself from a thoroughbred sire. For 20 years he has used pure Durham sires with good grades and the resulting stock is surpassingly excellent. Though compelled by the requirements of the herd book to rank as grades,—and they are a very high grade—they can, so the best judges say, in all the points that distinguish the purest strains of Durhams, give points to the thoroughbreds recognized by the herd book. Mr. Miller showed three milch cows and a calf, which the best critics would find it from "orthodox" thoroughbreds.

DIFFICULT TO DISTINGUISH

In Ayrshires, Messrs. Israel and Henry Humphries exhibited a fine herd of thoroughbreds, consisting of three milch cows, two bulls, bull calf and two yearling heifers.

Mr. Joseph Taylor showed a creditable herd of well-bred grades—several milch cows and heifers.

The exhibit of sheep was a large one, especially in long wools.

Mr. Jas. Hanlan had a pen of nine fine Leicesters.

Mr. Andrew Cameron showed a flock of ten excellent Leicesters.

Mr. Robert Wood had a pen of three Leicesters, and Mr. Alex. Wood six sheep in the same class, Mr. Andrew Nelson five fine Leicesters, Mr. Adam Humphries three Cotswolds, Mr. Wm. Forsyth, Dummer, a pen of nine Leicesters.

There was also a very creditable collection of short wool sheep.

Mr. W. J. Willer exhibited a flock of a dozen Shropshires, whose quality was shown by the prize cards that adorned them. Messrs. Birdsall & Son had a pen of a dozen fine Oxford Downs.

In swine John Breckenridge and Jas. Howson exhibited an aged Berkshire boars, Mr. J. Smithson was also an exhibitor in this class, a Berkshire boar of the immense weight of 619 pounds. Mr. Jas. Taylor showed two Yorkshire white sows and a Chester white sow. Mr. Hugh Nelson exhibited a fine aged Yorkshire boar.

The poultry exhibit was a good one, not very large, but many fine birds were shown.

HORSES.

There was a fair exhibit of horses, some excellent animals being shown. Of course the competition events were the chief centre of attraction. In the speeding events Messrs. Geo. W. Fitzgerald and Charles Stapleton were judges.

There was a lively competition for the special prizes contributed by town merchants.

Gough Bros., the Wonderful Cheap Clothiers, gave a prize of the value of $10 to the best team of heavy draught horses, to the second a prize of $2 in cash and to the third a prize of $1 in cash. The first was won by Read Bros., the second by Jas. Kylie and the third by Mr. Edwin Howson.

Messrs. Grafton & Co., manufacturers of fine tailor-made clothing, offered a prize of a pair of $4 pants for the fastest walking team. This was won by Mr. Thomas Thompson, Hiawatha.

The results of the speeding events which were hotly contested wear as follows :

GREEN RACE.

The novelty race was won by D. Moore's black.

NOTES.

The press is indebted to Mr. J. Smithson and others of the directors for special favours and assistance.

The racing track was rather too dusty for comfort.

The village in honour of the exhibit was at several points gay with streaming flags.

During the novelty race two or three of the horses bolted simultaneously at one point on the track and dashed into the crowd, Singular to relate no one was seriously hurt. However, Rev. Jas. Ross, Presbyterian minister at Harwood, in a brave attempt to rescue a boy, which he did successfully, was struck by one of the horses and dashed with the back of his head against a carriage wheel, making a severe contussion. Dr. Shaw, who was on the grounds, discovered that no bones were broken, but that the reverend gentleman received a severe shaking up—an unfortunate reward of his solicitude for the safety of another.

One regrettable feature of the show was the presence of several fakirs who were on the grounds with their "skin games" and secured several victims. Such persons do not add to the respectability which is a characteristic of a purely agricultural exhibition.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

KEENE CARRIAGE WORKS.

Among the conspicuous exhibits in the skating rink was the splendid display of the Keene Carriage Works, at the head of which is Mr. Samuel Mather, who has associated with him Messrs. T. Wedlock and H. Cruikshank. This display consisted of three buggies, one double sleigh, one single cutter, lumber wagon and road cart. All these vehicles are constructed of the very best materials, and combine the very latest styles. The finishing of the vehicles is unusually excellent. The trimmings are of stylish and excellent material and the painting and finish generally cannot be surpassed. Elegance, solidity, honest workmanship and stylish appearance are characteristics of the the work turned out by the Keene Carriage works, and in these respects their work is fully equal to that of the best city carriage shops, and the prices are no higher—say $80 to $85 for a first-class buggy. Any one wishing a first-class vehicle of any kind can get the best of value at the Keene Carriage Works, and have the satisfaction of dealing with local men who are reliable, instead of buying buggies, etc., from outsiders whose responsibility ceases when the vehicle is delivered. The Keene Carriage Works, by the excellent style and superior finish of their work, are deserving of a very large patronage.

GRAFTON & CO., CLOTHIERS.

Grafton & Co., the enterprising clothing firm, manufacturers of fine tailor made clothing of the best quality and the lowest prices, were on hand with their gorgeous advertising van, which occupied a prominent place on the grounds; and on the judges' stand, and at every conceivable point of vantage, Mr. W. E. Conway, the live local manager had bright hued placards distributed indicating to the public that the best clothing could be got at Grafton & Co's. Besides, Mr. Conway had planted a large tent which contained a most tastefully arranged exhibit of all sorts of clothing for men, youths and boys, overcoats, etc. These goods were brightened with cards and placards, and an employee was kept busy distributing the picturesque illuminated cards of the firm to the crowds that their splendid exhibition of clothing attracted. By such means the name of Grafton & Co., associated with the best quality of clothing at the lowest prices, has become a household word, and the public find by patronizing their establishment, 387 George street, that all the promises made by Grafton & Co., are kept to the letter.

GOUGH, BROS.

This tireless firm of hustlers, whose title of "Wonderful Cheap Clothiers" fits like a glove, made a TALL exhibit on the grounds. While the elongated lady, whose extreme height is a type of the high quality of Gough Bros. clothing, was distributing the beautiful souvenirs of the firm among the spectators and attracting more attention than the novelty race, Walter Stocker was outside making the dead walls of the village blaze with the beautiful and artistic lithographs of Gough Bros., announcing them as the kings of clothiers. Between the stilt-stalker and the bill Stocker the firm of Gough Bros., was widely celebrated in Keene yesterday. The tall lady was a type of the tall bargains that are, "Always good at Goughs," while the bill sticker was a type of the way the customers stick to Gough Bros. when once the have purchased the best of clothing at the lowest prices in Canada.

THE THISTLES ELECT OFFICERS

The Curlers Beginning to Enthuse over the Season's Prospects.

At an enthusiastic and largely attended meeting of the Thistle Curling Club last evening in the rink parlours, the following officers were elected for the year :

Patron and Patroness—Mr. and Mrs. C. McGill.
President—Mr. R. B. McKee.
Vice-President—Mr. H. LeBrun.
Representative Members — Messrs. W. G. Ferguson and C. McGill.
Chaplain—Rev. J. J. Rae.
Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. J. S. Knapman.
Managing and Joint Committee—Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, R. H. Kells and T. E. Bradburn.
Skips—Messrs. T. Rutherford, W. G. Ferguson, R. S. Davidson, S. Ray, Adam Hall, J. B. Pentland, R. H. Kells, T. E. Bradburn and Jas. Connal.

Mr. Robt. Innes was elected an honorary member.

After discussing the arrangements for the Tankard Competition the meeting adjourned.

WHYTE'S DAM TO REMAIN.

The Board of Health will not Interfere With the Pond.

At a meeting of the Board of Health last night there were present Mr. J. J. Hartley, chairman, and Messrs. Henry Denne, Adam Hall, C. Stapleton, R. Innes, B. Shortly and Mayor Kendry.

The Board carefully reviewed the testimony received for over an hour, excluding the press from their deliberations. The following resolution, which was passed, allows the pond and dam to remain in the condition in which they are at present :—"Resolved, that this Board having considered the evidence submitted regarding the complaint in the petition respecting the dam, known as Whyte's dam, cannot take any action in the matter, as the evidence is not sufficient in the opinion of the Board to sustain the complaint." It is understood that the medical testimony was the clincher in the arguments of the defense, those who were trying to have the dam done away with not having submitted any expert evidence.

Corns! Corns! Corns!

Why should you go limping round when Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor will remove your corns in a few days. It will give almost instant relief and a guaranteed cure in the end. Be sure you get the genuine Putnam's Corn Exaractor, made by Polson & Co., Kingston, for many substitutes are being offered, and it is always better to get the best. Safe, sure, painless.

FALL HOUSE-CLEANING SALE OF

WALL PAPERS

Equinoctial gales remind us that fall is upon us and winter near. We have already had severe enough days so far as weather is concerned to remind us that summer is gone, that fall will soon reach its end and that then winter and its snows will be upon us.

In anticipation of the annual season for House-Cleaning and Re-Decorating of the home, we started to-day an October Wall Paper Sale on a greater scale than ever before. The more we sell the cheaper we sell. Our store is loaded with new styles and designs of this season's importations—no store in Ontario carries a larger stock and no store will or can sell cheaper. Now is the best time to buy Wall Papers; now is the best time to put them on and the best place to procure them is at the most elaborate and most finely appointed Paper Warerooms of THE PETERBOROUGH BOOKSTORE

Make things bright
For Winter Nights.

Picture Framing.

This is a timely hint. If the thoughtful housekeeper wants any pictures framed in time for the Fall house-cleaning and decorating, we would be pleased to have their orders now, before the rush of orders start.

In anticipation of these early orders, we have just placed in stock an elegant line of Mouldings, which we will be pleased to show to all who wish to have their pictures framed in some of the newest of high-class designs.

In every line we carry, we lead,
We carry every line you need.

12th Prize—A SUIT OF WARM UNDERWEAR to the Boy who sells the Twelfth largest number.

CONSOLATION PRIZES.

Every boy who sells an average of 10 DAILY EXAMINERS per day during the competition, ending December 31st, will receive a BOY'S GOOD WINTER CAP.

Winners of the first 10 prizes above mentioned are excluded from the Consolation Prizes.

These Consolation Prizes give each boy an opportunity of securing a good Winter Cap.

NOW, BOYS, GET YOUR SKATES ON!

The Competition will commence Saturday Evening, Oct. 5th, and end on Saturday Evening, December 30th.

All Boys who intend to be "in it" are required to muster at 4 p.m. sharp, Saturday afternoon, at the Chambers Street entrance to the office, when they will be supplied with numbered tickets, the object of which will be explained to them.

Any competitior for the above Prizes will not be permitted to dispose of tickets or papers to other news boys for the purpose of increasing his sales, nor will he be allowed to take any other unfair advantage, as the awarding of these prizes is for the purpose of stimulating each newsboy to greater activity in increasing the number of his sales.

$200 in Prizes for New Subscribers.

The Publishers of the DAILY EXAMINER will pay the undermentioned PRIZES IN GOLD to the Person who secures the number of New Subscribers to the DAILY EXAMINER mentioned below, and who has paid one year's subscription of $4.00 each before the 1st January, next.

NOW, BOYS, THIS IS YOUR CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY. An hour each evening pushing the EVENING EXAMINER will make you money enough during the year to clothe yourself and give you spending money besides.

ADVERTISERS

Is There Anything In This For You?

"THE EXAMINER" is read every day by thousands of people who buy and pay cash for their goods.

The DAILY EXAMINER is the Popular Peterborough Evening Paper, and we are bound to place it in every home in the Town, thereby covering the whole ground for the advertiser. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? But there is a cause. It is to be found by the intelligent physician in some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs of generation. The woman who half understands herself, feels that she cannot always be complaining; she cannot always have the doctor in the house. The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. The trouble usually comes so gradually it is attributed to some outside cause. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. All these symptoms are simply protests of the silent, long-suffering nerves. The trouble shows in dark circles below the eyes, a downward curve of the mouth, a sallow, brownish-yellow neck.

Unregarded, the trouble grows. A few years of tortured invalidism, probably insanity, before merciful death comes. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the fruit of years of study. It is the product of an investigating mind united with a generous nature. When an intelligent person gives years of study to a subject there must be some good result. The "Favorite Prescription" is a compound of extracts of herbs that makes a strengthening, soothing medicine. It acts directly upon the distinctly feminine organs. It stops drains from lining membranes by healing diseased parts, thereby curing also the inflammation that is always present.

"I was in a critical condition. Often I was in despair. I experienced a great improvement by taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have taken six bottles, and I am sure that it will not only cure ulceration but all diseases of females." Yours truly,

(Mrs.) R. T. Rudd
Neapolis, Virginia.

A BIT OF OLD LONDON.

It Exists Practically as in the Days of Elizabeth—No Change for 150 Years.

There is a little patch upon the map of London which is, I believe, the best known bit upon the whole of that huge atlas. It is so little known that none of the maps, except the Ordnance Survey, give all its streets and courts. First of all, it occupies the site of an ancient monastery; the roads and streets which are its boundaries were once field paths and country lanes; their course is still unaltered; also if you consult the map of Rocques, which was published in the year 1745, you will find that no change has been made in the place for 150 years at least; and, since it escaped the fire, very little change has been made, except for houses falling down which have been rebuilt, since the days of Elizabeth. Here are many ancient houses with overhanging fronts and gables; here are shops with the old-fashioned windows; here are houses of wood—did you think there were any wooden houses at all left in London? Here the disposition of the streets suggests the courts of the close and the cloister; the memory of the monastic garden still lingers in a little row of cottages with front gardens and green wooden palings; the narrow streets show one what a great part of London was like before the fire; it also shows how plague and pestilence would run from house to house in streets so narrow that one could shake hands across; in them the air is so close and heavy; the children are pale and unhealthy; women with pale faces look out of the windows; the leading industry is bookbinding, which is a pallid trade; there are never any vehicles in the place; and in the midst stands one of the noblest churches that London has to show. Gentle reader, go and find this quarter.—Walter Besant, in London Queen.

The Devil's Pump.

One of the greatest combinations of natural and artificial curiosities on the coast of California is called the Devil's pump. The pholas or shell miners, a species of mollusk which excavates immense caverns in the very hardest stone, have tunneled the entire coast in the vicinity of the pump. Water rushes into these caverns with each succeeding tide flow, and, in this particular case, finds vent through a cylindrical opening some distance from the water's edge. It is estimated that this hole, which connects with the sea-cavern, is 75 to 100 feet in depth. Every time the tide rushes into the cavern beneath, the "pump" throws water to the height of a full 100 feet above the mouth of the opening. The Indians formerly called it by a name which signified "fairy water gun," but the irreverent white men have given it the title of the "Devil's Pump," and by that name it will probably be known to future generations.

There is a similar curiosity near Horn Head, County Donegal, Ireland, where a hole in the rocks is called "McSwiney's Gun." Like the California oddity, it is on the sea coast, and has connection with a submarine cavern. When the north wind blows and the sea is at "half flood," the wild mad waves enter the cavern and send up immense columns of water through the "gun." Travelers who have visited Horn Head and vicinity say that each charge of water sent from the "gun" is accompanied by an explosion that can be heard for miles.—St. Louis Republic.

The universal prevalence of scrofula is a fact well known to physicians. The only medicine that has hitherto proved a specific for this dreadful complaint is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which expels every germ of poison from the blood. You cannot begin to use it too soon.

Shiloh's Cure, the great Cough and Croup Cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25c. Children love it. Sold by John Nugent, 399 George Street.

CHAMPIONS OF THE C. L. A.

Georgetown Defeats Orillia by 3 to 2.

Brampton, Ont., Oct. 3.—The intermediate championship for this season goes to Georgetown, who defeated Orillia here to-day, 3 goals to 2.

First game—Orillia secured on the draw. Pretty even play followed. The game was scored at 2.23 by Sutton for Georgetown. Time, 4 minutes.

Second game started with a rush, Georgetown playing like tigers, Orillia playing wild and evidently rattled. Tudhope of Orillia deliberately struck Guthrie over the head, but Roberts did not fail to notice this little irregularity and warned the offender, and Guthrie got a free throw. The game was won by Georgetown in 13 minutes, scored by Bradley.

Third game—Honors about even. Face-offs and wild throwing by both teams were the chief features. Orillia won in 26 minutes, scored by Newton.

Fourth game—Won by Georgetown in 1 minute.

Fifth game—Short and rough, in which a Georgetown man was hurt and a rest of seven minutes taken, when play was resumed. Robins scored for Orillia in 4 minutes.

Sixth game—The score stood 3 to 2 in favor of Georgetown, and Orillia started in to make it a draw at least, but after many face-offs and lost time, neither team scored. Time was called and the match given to Georgetown.

THREE KILLED AT A M.C.R. CROSSING.

Of Six Essex People in a Wagon Three Were Killed and One Seriously Injured.

Essex, Ont., Oct. 3.—William and Thomas Mooney, aged 19 and 17 years, respectively, and Dennis Burke, 21 years old, were instantly killed, and Miss Addie Jones and Ed. Mooney, the boys' father, were badly injured at the Michigan Central crossing here this afternon. The party were in a wagon driving to the fair grounds. They drove on the tracks before they saw the approaching express and the wagon was struck before they got across. Burke was carried 400 yards on the cow catcher. The Mooney boys were struck on the head, and were badly mangled and cut. Ed. Mooney and Miss Jones were thrown to one side. Miss Jones is seriously injured, but Mooney's injuries are comparatively slight.

SLEEPING FOR EIGHT MONTHS.

Remarkable Case of an Injured Man at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—Peter Crawford, 22 years old, a former mail messenger of New York, has been asleep, with the exception of a few hours, for the last seven or eight months. His case is the most remarkable one that has ever come under the observation of physicians. A little over a year ago Mr Crawford was thrown from a mail wagon in New York, sustaining injuries to his spine. Every device employed to awaken the man has proved futile.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

Running Sores Cured.

Dear Sirs,—I was troubled with running sores on my face which nothing could cure up to the time I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, but after taking two bottles my face was completely cured and it left my flesh clear and sound. A. Heathers, 27 Woolsley St., Toronto.

Catarrh Relieved in 10 to 60 Minutes

One short puff of the breath through the Blower, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves instantly and permanently cures catarrh, hay fever, colds, headache, sore throat, tonsilitis and deafness. 60 cents. At H. S. McDonald's.

Murder by Footpads.

Olean, N.Y., Sept. 30.—Lew Youngs, a rag pedlar, aged 22 years, came here to-day from Bradford, Pa. While passing through a dark alley to-night he was knocked down by footpads. While attempting to regain his feet one of his assailants shot him twice, one bullet lodging in his leg, the other near the heart. He will die. The police have arrested two Italians on suspicion. Youngs' parents live in Buffalo.

Coal Steamer Sunk in Collision.

London, Oct. 1.—The British steamer Albireo came into collision with the coal steamer Christian three miles off Blyth, Northumberland, to-day, and sank her. The Albireo's bows were badly damaged, but she took on board the crew of the Christian and landed them at Blyth.

Sick Headache

CURED PERMANENTLY

BY TAKING

Ayer's Pills

"I was troubled a long time with sick headache. It was usually accompanied with severe pains in the temples, a sense of fullness and tenderness in one eye, a bad taste in my mouth, tongue coated, hands and feet cold, and sickness at the stomach. I tried a good many remedies recommended for this complaint; but it was not until I

Began Taking Ayer's Pills

that I received anything like permanent benefit. A single box of these pills did the work for me, and I am now free from headaches, and a well man."—C. H. HUTCHINGS, East Auburn, Me

TO SERVE MELONS.

ÆSTHETIC WAYS OF DISHING UP A MIGHTY GOOD THING.

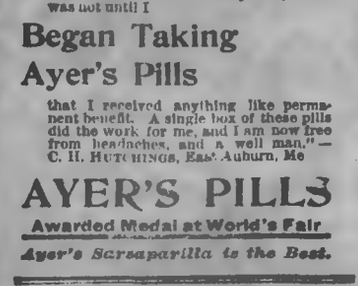
One of Barnhart's Fancies—She Takes Out the Seeds and Fills the Hollow With Sweet Wine and Thus Produces a Delectable Dish.

In France, where the melon grows luxuriantly, the several varieties are divided into three types—the melon brode au galeaux, the cantaloupe and the melon of Malta.

The first type is so named for its grayish network, which covers the surface like embroidery, and comprises many varieties. The cantaloupe is recognized by its very prominent slices, and, having a very uneven and knotty surface, and the cantaloupe of Holland, Portugal and Germany is most highly estimated. It was originally produced at Cantalupo, the garden of the Popes, near Rome.

Lastly, the melon of Malta is recognized by its fine, thin, smooth skin.

The melon is a side dish in France, but, says the New York Recorder, it is also prepared as a compote; again,



READY TO SERVE.

it is served as a dessert with sugar. In the Orient it is mixed with tobacco or opium; also with cinnamon, vinegar, cloves, etc.

Here is a nice way of serving the melon as a side dish which is shown in the sketch. It is cut into slices and the interior removed, filled with chopped ice and put together again in its original form, being tied together with a string. It is then placed on a glass dish or compotiere and surrounded with any flowering vines which may be available. It makes a handsome ornament for the table. When so arranged the string may easily be cut and a slice served to each person. As our melons are seldom very large, several dishes may be arranged in this way, one at either end, or at each corner of the table.

A compote of melon is delicious. The seeds are removed, the meat sliced from the skin, cut into small pieces, laid on chopped ice, sugared and over all is poured a glass full of kirsch.

One excellent manner of preparing a melon is that of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt. Empty the melon of the seeds from a hole cut in the top without slicing it. Pour into it a good sweet wine, catawba, muscatel or malaga; after standing 24 hours in the ice box the melon is a most succulent viand and an incomparable relish. Before serving be sure that the wine is absorbed by the melon, then cut into slices as usual.

With us the melon is a preferred breakfast dish, and is generally eaten with salt and a dash of pepper. Many prefer sugar, but to sugar a ripe, richly flavored melon is quite like painting the lily.

Use

Another Craze.

Banting, or whatever other word may be used describing an artificial thinning down process, is another craze of the moment. Both men and women devote much time and thought to the subject, and those physicians who make a specialty of reducing weight have reaped a golden harvest. Of the various "systems" in vogue, the most efficacious seems to be that pursued and recommended by French doctors—the fish regime. The patient lives entirely on various kinds of fish, a small slice of whole-meal bread being permitted with each meal. British specialists advise this drastic meanness; roast meat and apples, in a word, no food containing either sugar or starch, may be touched. Anti-fat dishes have largely entered into the menu of all well-ordered establishments, and toast has taken the place of bread. As is well-known in Germany, Dr. Zwiningen, Bismarck's physician, simply orders his patients to entirely forego any kind of liquid with their meals. By these means he claims to make the stoutest man become normal in size.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Don't Snub the Boy.

Don't snub a boy because he wears shabby clothes. When Edison, the inventor, first entered Boston he wore a pair of yellow linen breeches in the depth of winter.

Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name.

Don't snub a boy because his home is plain and unpretending. Abraham Lincoln's early home was a log cabin.

Don't snub a boy because he chooses an humble trade. The author of the "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker.

Don't snub a boy because of dullness in his lessons. Hogarth, the celebrated painter and engraver, was a stupid boy at his books.

Don't snub a boy because he stutters. Demosthenes, the great orator of Greece, overcame a harsh and stammering voice.

Don't snub him for any reason. Not only because he may some day outstrip you in the race of life, but because it is neither kind nor right nor Christian.—Good Housekeeping.

A Timeless Village.

From the notebook of a recent traveler in Alsace: "On my return from Belchen I looked upon the beautiful villages of the Lewen Valley, and, being a tourist who likes to poke his nose into everything, I turned by chance into the church at Kirchberg. On coming out I took out my watch to regulate it by the clock in the church tower. But there was no clock to be seen. Hence I went into the village inn, and there asked the time. But mine host could not oblige me. 'You see,' he said, 'we have no use for clocks. In the morning we go by the smoke rising from the chimney at the parsonage up on the hill. The parsonage people are very regular. We dine when dinner is ready. At 4 p. m. the whistle of the train coming from Massmunster tells us that the time has come for another meal, and at night we know that it is time to go to bed when it is dark. On Sundays we go to church when the bell rings. Our parson is a very easy-going man; he doesn't mind beginning half an hour sooner or later.'"

The flying mouse is a recent discovery in the Cameroon country. [illegible] think between the bat and the true mouse, has a tail like a mouse and heavy gray fur, while its wings are not so well developed as those of the bat.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair—Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

was a living skeleton; the doctor said he was dying of Marasmus and Indigestion. At 13 months he weighed only seven pounds. Nothing strengthened or fattened him. HASTINGS' FIRST FALL FAIR.

A GRATIFYING SUCCESS TO ALL CONCERNED.

Over 1600 Entries to Start With—Splendid Character of the Exhibits—Large Attendance—A Dog Show—Other Local Items.

The pretty village of Hastings held its first agricultural exhibition on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 2nd and 3rd, under the auspices of the new Hastings Exhibition Association. It was a gratifying success to all concerned, more especially to the active officers and members of the local association who have worked hard and untiringly to institute an annual agricultural fair in the interests of their village and surrounding country.

The weather was much in favour of their first exhibition. Both days were ushered in with royal fair weather, and the encouragement this good luck gave the official board of management, exhibitors and the general public, increased interest in this most important local event of the year.

The entries in the various departments were unexpectedly large, and the character of the exhibits developed the fact that exhibitors had taken a lively interest in making preparations for their first show. In horses, the entries were so numerous that the judges had their hands full until six o'clock the last day, extra judges having to be secured to help forward the awards.

The cattle show was a strong attraction to the farmers. The criticisms on the conditions of the animals were interesting and instructive, and no better proof was needed of the enthusiasm which can be evoked among the rural community at the country fair, than the lively competition at this show.

The grain was of extra fine quality. Several perfect samples were shown, some of the judges stating that they never saw finer samples of wheat than were shown in some of the varieties.

Sheep and swine were above the average in quality. Quite a number of those shown were of a high grade, and will doubtless lead to even better exhibits next year.

The dog show was quite a novel attraction. Nearly 150 dogs were shown, including some handsome specimens and well bred animals. The first prize in the mastiff class was won by Mr. A. Spellman's splendid dog.

The great number of farmers in the village during the Fair showed the interest taken by the rural population, and the fact that the exhibits in stock, etc., rolled up to so high a number at their first show augurs well for the future success of the Hastings Fair.

The directors, though nearly run off their feet with business, all wore a pleasant look, indicative of the great success they scored. Credit is specially due to Mr. Harry Fowlds, the hustling Secretary-Treasurer of the Association, who exerted himself everywhere his services could be made useful, and never tired exercising an influence with the other directors to make everything pass off harmoniously and well. The president, Mr. Jno. Welsh, had his hands full, and while he did his best to oversee the exhibition, realized that the important duties he had assumed was no "child's play." The management was in good hands, and the officers were seconded by enterprising men, such as Mr. A. Spellman, of the Clarendon House, Mr. A. Wilson, Mr. Wright, Mr. English, Mr. Coughlin, Mr. Fowlds and other gentlemen who compose the members of the Association.

The new track on the Association's grounds was in good condition, and gave general satisfaction to all. The "Crystal Palace" filled the bill, and was filled to the ceiling with exhibits. The ladies monopolized a large portion of the space with their ornamental and useful needlework. The fair sex loaned their assistance in helping on the affair, and their presence as usual, attracted the attendance of a large class of young visitors which nothing else could attract.

Hartley & Byrnes merry-go-round did a good business during the second day, as did a number of the ring-and-cane men and wheel of fortune pushers, who cast in their lot with the crowd to make an honest dollar in their own peculiar way.

HASTINGS NEW ELECTRIC LIGHT SYSTEM.

Hastings can now boast of one of the best electric light plants in the province. Travellers frequently remark the unusual brilliancy and steadiness of the light and cleanness of the lamps. The new power house, built by Messrs. Fowlds, is a fire proof building, situated alongside the saw mill and is specially designed and fitted up for the purpose. The water power is an exceptionally good one, always powerful and steady. The service is giving general satisfaction to the municipal council and business men, and complaints are few, notwithstanding it has only been in operation for a few months. The Light Company is treating their customers generously and if, during the short days and dark mornings of the fall and winter, they should have to "turn on the button" a little earlier in the evening and for a few hours in the early morning to accommodate the public and save the trouble of lighting coal oil lamps again, it will be a boon to the business men.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Harry McClelland, formerly of Peterborough, has opened up a new jewelry store next to the Clarendon House, and reports doing a good business. He has placed in stock a general assortment of watches, clocks, jewellry, fancy goods, etc., and has a good stand in a central part of the village.

Mr. W. Bunting is now one of Hastings most energetic grain buyers. What the farmers have to sell in this line will find in Mr. Bunting an eager, but fair buyer.

The "Outlet Queen," from Idyl Wyld summer resort, arrived in the village Thursday, having on board Mr. Terry Spellman, manager, who came up to purchase supplies for the hunting season and to take on a load of coal. Mr. Spellman reports ducks plentiful, and will have everything in readiness for the crack shots when they come down to pick out the ducks among the rice beds and marshes in the neighbourhood of Idyl Wyld.

The Clarendon House and other hotels in the village were crowded with visitors during the fair, and report business unusually good.

Mr. Scriver, of the Star, is revelling in the enjoyment of an increasing subscription list and an active demand for advertising. He has added a new press and other improvements to his plant, and generally is making things "hum."

Maltine with Coca Wine Feeds the Nerves.

Are you all run down? Are you tired in body? weary in mind? Does lassitude burden and unfit you for mental or physical labour? Does sleeplessness rob you of mental force? make your days a weariness and night a torment? In brief, is life rapidly becoming a burden to you? Thousands are living in this miserable condition while relief from this worst of mental and physical conditions may be speedily obtained by the use of Maltine with Coca Wine. It is a real tonic, for it builds up the body, gives strength and vigor to the nerves, supplies pure rich blood, restores appetite, and adds wonderfully to the digestive power of the stomach. Maltine with Coca Wine is a builder—builds nerve, builds muscle, builds bone. It gives vim and nerve. It braces, not as a stimulating agent; it braces because it cures. That is what you need. All druggists sell it.

THE WHEEL.

Only a month or so more and wheeling will be at an end, but when the wheelman has put his machine away for the season is a good time to con a few choice rules for taking care of it. A desirable illuminating oil is rare, as most riders find out by a varied experience. A correspondent of the L. A. W. Bulletin advises, after numerous experiments, that cotton seed oil, in the proportion of 40 per cent. to 60 per cent. of kerosene, produces as nearly perfect light as is possible. Cotton seed oil, as its name implies, is obtained by expression from the seed of the cotton plant, and is consequently very cheap, its wholesale price being about 50 cents per gallon. The only objectionable feature found is that the cottonseed oil, being very rich in carbonaceous matter, is apt to deposit a crust or carbon on the top of the wick. This slight difficulty can, however, be easily obviated by rubbing the end of the match over the wick while lighting the lamp.

Besides a thorough brushing after every ride, the chain should be taken off the machine at least every two months and given a thorough over hauling. A good scrubbing with bensine or kerosene should be given until every foreign particle is removed from the joints. After thoroughly drying, the chain may be inserted in boiling tallow for several minutes with advantage. A brisk rubbing should then be given, and bicycle oil or chain lubricant rubbed well into every link.

It seems such a simple task to join a chain after replacing it on a wheel that any instruction regarding the task would be superfluous. Nevertheless, nine out of every ten will grow desperate in a vain endeavour to bring both ends of the chain together and insert the bolt midway between the chain wheels, a difficult thing to do even when the chain is abnormally slack. It is surprising with what ease the ends of the chain can be united over one of the chain wheels, the cogs of which will hold it in place while the bolt is being inserted.

When, owing to broken spokes, the rim of a front wheel is bent so much as to touch the fork, it is generally possible to make it ridable by loosening two or three spokes on the opposite side to the broken ones and tightening a couple of spokes on the same side. In case of a buckled wheel, if the rim is sound it may often be sprung back into its place by two men griping the wheel, one on each side, and pushing the wheel straight.

The present lightweight craze has caused many riders to even dispense with the tool-bag as an unnecessary part of the equipment. A rider who goes to that extreme should be classed as a fit victim for the fool killer. There is no telling at what moment a drop of oil might be found advantageous, the tightening of a nut necessary or the inflation of the tire advisable, and you cannot always depend on some other cyclist for relief.

Very few wheelmen ever think it necessary to pay any attention whatever to the pedal, thinking that as long as it revolves it is all right. There is where they are mistaken. The pedal bearings are more liable than any other part of the machine to become filled with dust, as, besides catching the dust while riding, it is generally the custom to lay the bicyle on its side with one pedal burrowing deep in the ground. On a long journey the hard running of the pedal impresses itself on the rider forcibly, although in many instances the chain or wheel is wrongfully blamed for the trouble. A pedal should be oiled before every ride and taken apart every fortnight for good cleaning. Care should be taken that none of the balls be lost when the bearings of the pedals are taken apart to be cleansed, as their diminutiveness makes escape an easy matter. The cores and balls should be soaked in kerosene and polished before being put together again.

Honest Help.

Thousands of men are suffering because they lack the courage to make known their early errors and to endeavour to remedy them. Nervous weakness, loss of manhood and the many ills due to early discretions, excesses or overwork can be quickly, successfully and permanently cured if you will only let the right people know what ails you. Write to me in confidence and I will tell you free of charge how to get cured. I have nothing to sell, but am desirous of honestly helping you. Perfect secrecy assured. Overcoats, Ulsters and Suits

WE HAVE GIVEN MORE THAN ORDINARY ATTENTION TO THE SELECTION OF OUR .

FALL and WINTER CLOTHING

The experience of the past two seasons has taught us that there are many men who expect Ready-made Clothing to be as good as clothes made to order, and who are willing to pay a fair price when they get what they want. The Winter Suits and Overcoats are here in abundance, taking up every inch of space on our two floors.

$11.00 buys an Overcoat that is away up in every respect, except price. The colours are light tan, dark brown, black and navy blue. $6 or $8 will buy an All-wool Frieze Ulster that would require an expert to tell it from the genuine Irish Frieze. Colours are the same as our other Ulsters. Our suits comprise everything to be found in a first-class store from $5 up. Be sure and give us a call.

CUSTOM WORK.—Our very large assortment of Cloths for Suits and Overcoats, made to measure, gives you a splendid selection.

WILL BE ON

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY,

OCTOBER 9th and 10th.

When the entire store will be thrown open to the public for inspection.

After many months of building operations our new premises are at last completed and we think you will say they are one of the finest in the province.

It has been planned with a view for the convenience and a shopping place for the masses and is now packed with choice goods from all the leading Canadian and foreign markets, and after 27 years in the Dry Goods business you will pardon us for saying we know the wants of the people and how and where to buy right and we intend this to be an introduction of a Grand Opening Sale.

Our Millinery Opening is later than usual, waiting for the completion of the premises, but it has given our Milliners more time to make an Extra Display of Trimmed Goods. Please remember that our Millinery Opening Days are Wednesday and Thursday, but on Thursday Evening we intend giving an Old-fashioned House-warming to the Buying Public, when you are cordially invited to look through and have some Coffee and Cake with us.

Books for the Fiscal Year Closed—Early Proclamation That the French Treaty Goes into Effect — Sir Julian Pauncefote at the Capital Manitoba's Advertisement.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 5.—The visit of Sir Julian Pauncefote to Ottawa has naturally awakened renewed interest in the settlement of the Behring Sea question. According to advices received here from British Columbia the sealers of that province who have been waiting for a long time for the amount of damages to which they are entitled under the Paris award by reason of the Behring Sea seizures are delighted at the prospect of a settlement in the not very far distant future. Their request that the commission shall sit at Victoria will be carried out, and the Government will endeavor to secure the assent of the authorities at Washington to the speedy appointment of the two commissioners, one representing Great Britain and Canada, the other the United States, in order that they may commence the work of taking evidence without delay.

So far as the work of the commissioners is concerned, their decision, if unanimous, will be final. Upon points in which they disagree they will report to their respective Governments, when, if a settlement cannot be reached through the usual diplomatic channels, the services of an umpire in the person of a representative of a neutral power will be invoked.

Sir Julian Pauncefote's present visit to Ottawa is to discuss with the Government certain points of procedure in reference to the commission and to learn fully the views which the Dominion Government hold. On the part of authorities here there is every disposition to push matters as energetically as possible, but there is no telling what objections the United States Government may conjure up. Certainly that Government so far has not manifested any disposition to expedite a settlement of the dispute

Sir Julian has been kept very busy to-day. He and Lord Westmeath were entertained at lunch by the Premier this afternoon at which all the Ministers in town were present. Afterwards the British Ambassador made a formal call on different Ministers and then visited the Supreme Court. By invitation of the Chief Justice, Sir Julian occupied a seat on the Bench and remained until the Court adjourned, listening to the argument of Mr. Trenholme, Q.C., in a case before the Court, namely, North British and Mercantile Insurance Company vs. Tourville.

Sir Julian was asked if he could give any information regarding the ultimatum that the United States Government is reported to have forwarded to Great Britain in the Venezuelan question.

"I know nothing about it," he replied. "It has not passed through my hands."

"Then there may be no truth in the report?"

"I can't say that. It may have gone through the United States Ambassador in London."

After leaving Ottawa, Sir Julian intends to go to Quebec, then to Toronto and Niagara Falls, whence he will return home.

The account books of the Dominion for the fiscal year ending June 30th last have been closed at the Finance Department. The total revenue on account of consolidated fund was $33,929,809 and expenditure $38,009,341, leaving a deficit of $4,079,532, compared with the previous year. The figures are as follows: Revenue $36,374,693; expenditure, $37,585,025; deficit that year being $1,210,332. In his Budget speech last session the Finance Minister estimated the deficit for the fiscal year shortly to close would be four millions and a half. This deficit is less than was anticipated.

The total net debt on the 30th June was $252,999,472, or an increase in the year of $6,816,443. During the quarter ending 30th September there has been a decrease of the debt amounting to $2,330,617.

Moreover, the financial statement for the three months is of a decidedly encouraging character. The revenue amounts to $8,610,563 and the expenditure to $5,537,627, leaving a surplus of over three millions. As compared with corresponding period last year the revenue shows an increase of nearly $600,000, while the expenditure is decreased by $230,000.

Upon the urgent representations of Mr. Northrup, M.P., the Minister of Marine and Fisheries has decided to allow Bay of Quinte fishermen to use seines until the commencement of the close season on the 1st of November. This will enable them to use up their old nets, as it is in contemplation to abolish the use of seines.

A militia general order announces that Major-General Gascoigne has assumed command of the Canadian militia from the 1st of October. Regulations for entrance examinations to Royal Military College in June next are also published. An important change is made by which matriculants of six Canadian Universities—Toronto and Queen's in Ontario, McGill and Laval in Quebec, the University of New Brunswick and Dalhousie University, N.S.—will be allowed to enter as cadets on their matriculation certificates, provided they come within the age limit, that is from 15 to 19 years. his is an innovation upon which Mr. Dickey is to be congratulated, and will doubtless lead to a large accession of candidates for admission to the college.

The Marine Department was notified to-day by Anderson, Mackenzie & Co., Montreal, that their barque, Yuba, 879 tons register, was wrecked near Mingan, North Shore, but that the crew was saved. They asked the Government to defray the expense of bringing the crew up to Montreal. The reply sent was that the owners must care for the seamen, as when a Dominion registered vessel is wrecked in Canadian waters the sailors have no claim on the Government for assistance.

A proclamation will be issued in a few days announcing that the provisions of the commercial treaty with France have gone into effect. The Department of Trade and Commerce received cable advices to-day that the ratification negotiations were nearly completed.

The Manitoba Government is evidently going to utilize to its utmost limit the advantage as an advertising medium which the province possesses in its bountiful harvest this year. Private advices from Winnipeg to-night state that A. J. McMillan has been reappointed emigration agent of the province in Great Britain, with headquarters at Liverpool.

The Supreme Court of Independent Foresters gives notice of application to Parliament for an Act amending its charter of incorporation in the following particulars: 1. To increase the amount of maximum mortuary benefit from three thousand to five thousand dollars. 2. To enable it to invest in United States bonds, or in similar securities in Great Britain, or in any other country in which it may desire to carry on its business, such amount of the surplus as may be necessary to meet the requirements of such country with regard to the deposit of security by insurance companies doing business in such country, the total amount of such investments not, however, at any time to exceed one-fourth of its total available surplus or accumulated funds. 3. To strike out of the Act of Incorporation the provision exempting its policies from Government inspection. So as further to provide as follows: That a sworn statement shall be made annually to the Government of the assets and liabilities of the court and of its income and expenditure in respect of mortuary benefit and of sick and funeral benefit departments. That the superintendent of insurance may from time to time examine the books and vouchers so as to verify the anual statement. That a deposit of $250,000 shall be maintained with the Government, with power to increase the amount as may be deemed necessary; that no member shall be liable for any assessments, dues or fines to order, or for any debt or liabilities of the order, but all such payments shall be voluntary, but no member or his beneficiary, shall be entitled to any pecuniary benefit of the order during the time that he is in default of any such payment.

Engineer Rubidge telegraphed the Department of Railways and Canals to-day that both mitre sills of the guard lock of the Galop canal had been removed and that the new guard-lock was completed.

The traffic through the Rideau canal at this port during the season just closing has been somewhat better than in 1894. The total number of steamers and barges that passed through the canal was 811, as against 776 last year.

WILL SCARTH SUCCEED LOWE?

Winnipegers Assert Confidently That the Appointment is Made.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Friends of Mr. W B Scarth, positively assert, despite despatches to contrary published in The Free Press, that he has been appointed Deputy Minister of Agriculture to succeed Mr. John Lowe, and what lends color to their assertion is the fact that Mr. Scarth has tendered his resignation as president of the Manitoba Club, and apparently is preparing to leave the city.

BAD FOR SHORTIS.

One of the Victims of His Bullets Testifies.

HE WAS SHOT AT FIVE TIMES.

Witnesses Rehearse the Story of the Cotton Mills Murder "Shoot Me, Shoot Me," Said Shortis. When Arrested, "I Don't Know Why I Killed These Men."

Beauharnois, Que., Oct. 5.—John Lowe, cashier of the cotton mills, was the first witness called for the Crown in the trial of Shortis for the Valleyfield murders. He told the story of the manner in which the hands are paid in the mill, and also all about the time and manner in which the money is received from Montreal. He then told the story of the night of the murder in detail. The Crown then filed exhibit, which was a map of the mill, showing all the details of office and mill, and also showing the course which Wilson traveled in endeavoring to escape from Shortis. This map Mr. Lowe explained to the judge and jury in both languages. Lowe pointed out the different apartments and began relating in detail what occurred on the fateful night of last March.

During his story the prisoner kept his eyes steadfastly fixed on him.

The witness was requested to step down when midway in his evidence, and Mr. Elie Poirier, chief of police, Valleyfield, was called. He appeared with all the exhibits, including two revolvers, cartridges, bullets, a bamboo cane, the broken telephone, the clothes of the victims, etc., which were left in the possession of the court.

Mr. Lowe was then recalled, and completed his narrative. The witness was afterwards put through a rigid cross-examination.

Hugh A. Wilson, a youthful-looking person, testified that he was in the mill offices on the night of the tragedy. He was at work when he was shot by Shortis. He screamed and fell, but while Shortis was shooting Loy he crawled into the corridor.

Shortis followed and fired and again struck him. He fired again and missed. He got on his feet and hurried forward, but fell from weakness. He rallied sufficiently to proceed a short distance further, and managed to get under a bench.

Shortis reappeared with a lantern and discovering him, fired at him again, the ball again taking effect. He was left for dead. When alone once more he crawled to the boiler room, and reaching a bench, sank on it exhausted. He was found subsequently by Dr. Sutherland and Watchman Delisle, and told them who had done the deed.

The recital of Wilson's evidence was listened to intently by the vast audience.

Dr. Sutherland was next sworn. His testimony dealt with the finding of Wilson, dangerously wounded, and as to how he and Delisle had armed themselves with gas pipe and went in search of the murderer. Hearing Lowe's warning from the vault that Shortis was armed, he and Delisle sprang to opposite sides of the hall. He ordered Shortis to throw up his hands, and told of the surrender of the prisoner, who remarked, "Shoot me, shoot me, I don't know why I killed these men."

Napoleon Delisle, the night watchman, gave evidence which coincided with the doctor's.

Arthur Leboeuf came next. His evidence was corroborative of that given by Lowe.

David Smith, secretary and treasurer of the Valleyfield mill, was examined. His story dealt with his summons to the scene of the murder, the unlocking of the vault and liberation of the imprisoned men. Shortis, he said, had also requested him to shoot him, but he replied that he deserved something more severe, and that he would get it.

COUNTERFEITERS SENTENCED.

The Murphys Found Guilty at Lindsay Assizes Receive Good Round Terms in Kingston.

Lindsay, Oct. 5.—At the Assizes here before Chief Justice Meredith, the Murphy, counterfeiting cases were tried.

Allan Murphy was found guilty on three charges of uttering and was sentenced to five, three and five years.

Fred Murphy, 15, found guilty on two charges of uttering. He was sent to the Penetanguishene Reformatory for three years.

Richard Murphy, guilty of one charge of uttering, and was sent to Kingston for five years.

William, Wellington and old man Murphy, were found guilty of having moulds for making and also counterfeit coin in their possession. The old man was recommended to mercy and discharged. William was sentenced to seven and three years. Wellington Murphy received five years on the first charge and three on the second. The sentences run concurrently.

An Equal Surprise and Pleasure.

The poet has sung—"Oh, for a beaker of the warm south, the true, the blushful Hippocrene," and the people have sighed for a good wine too, for the price forbade. For it is not everybody can pay $8 and $10, a dozen for wine, and the masses had to go without. But this is a democratic day, and it is the whole people who are catered for now and not a section of the people. Accordingly, when the Bordeaux Claret Co., introduced their light, pleasant, and thoroughly wholesome wines at the incredible figure of $3 and $4 per doz. quarts there was equal surprise and pleasure among the people. The demand is enormous and orders cannot be filled quick enough. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 20 Hospital Street, Montreal.

THE MATTER OF PERMANENT PAVEMENTS.

The cost of the walks of Peterborough is a serious matter, and the short life of plank walks makes the question of material one that is deserving of the special attention of the administrators of our finances. What is wanted is not the cheapest material for the moment, but the material that is cheapest in the end. Our streets in the past have cost out of all proportion to effectiveness, through the policy of placing unsuitable material—gravel—upon the natural soil, which absorbs it in wet weather, permitting the mud to reassert itself. Since we have begun to go properly at work in the construction of permanent roadways a great improvement has been effected. Our sidewalks are also costing out of all proportion to the use and comfort our citizens get out of them, and the question of plank or granolithic pavements is worth considering. The life of a plank walk in good condition is only about five years, while well laid granolithic pavement is practically indistructible. The chairman of the Stratford Board of works said the other day that Stratford used to lay 20,000 feet of plank walks annually, but this has been reduced 50 per cent., and granolithic walks are now in high favour. To say nothing of comfort and looks, there can be no question of economy as between the two systems. He also stated that the committee used to do their work by contract, but now it does it by the city's own employees and under the eye of the chairman of the board of works. While this work under contract used to cost about 25 cents per foot, it is now being done at 13 cents, an important saving on a large contract. One essential in laying these walks is to secure thorough drainage, and unless this is properly attended to lasting results cannot be expected. Ald. Woods, of Hamilton, has been gathering facts and figures relative to pavement laying in other cities, and is of opinion that Guelph's plan is the cheapest and best he has yet seen. There the city takes out ten inches of earth and puts in a concrete sidewalk of five inches of coarse gravel, three and a half inches of sand and concrete in proportion of 4 to 1, and an inch and a half of a finer mixture of concrete, and the total cost is only 13 cents a foot on residential streets and 15 cents, where more work is required, on the business streets. The city knows the cost of the sidewalks and can give work to old men who are not able to do a full nine-hour day's work at a rate by the piece.

While our city fathers may not, on account of the expense, care to entertain the idea of granolithic pavements, they might consider the question of cedar block versus plank walks. The late Street Inspector Pope is authority for the statement that the cost of laying cedar block is about the same as that of an equal area of well laid plank walk. Why not then lay more cedar block pavements which, if Mr. Pope's estimate is correct, will last many times as long and are much more comfortable for pedestrians, and they do not, when out of repair, furnish the excellent man-traps, and consequent actions for damages that plank walks do. Would it be a bad idea, when any considerable portion of plank walk requires renewing, to have the town try to see how cheaply a good cedar block pavement can be put down by contract?

A YOUNG GIRL'S TRIALS.

HER PARENTS HAD ALMOST GIVEN UP HOPE OF HER RECOVERY.

Pale and Emaciated, Subject to Severe Headaches, She Was Thought to be Going Into a Decline—Now the Picture of Health and Beauty.

From the Richibucto, N.B., Review.

There are very few people, especially among the agriculturists of Kent County, N.B., who do not know Mr. H. H. Warman, the popular agent for agricultural machinery, of Molus River. A Review representative was in conversation with Mr. Warman recently, when the subject of Dr. Williams Pink Pills was incidently touched upon. Mr. Warman said he was a staunch believer in their curative properties, and to justify his opinion he related the cure of his sister, Miss Jessie Warman, aged 15, who he said had been "almost wrested from the grave Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." Miss Warman had been suffering for nearly a year with troubles incident to girlhood. She suffered from severe and almost constant headaches, dizziness, heart palpitation, was pale and bloodless, and eventually become so weak and emaciated that her parents thought that she was in consumption, and had all but given up hope of her recovery. Her father, Mr. Richard Warman, who is a well-to-do farmer, spared no expense to procure relief for the poor sufferer. The best available medical advice was employed, but no relief came, and although the parents were almost in despair, they still strove to find the means of restoring their loved one to health. Mr. Warman, like everbody else who reads the newspapers, had read of the many marvellous cures effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but like some others, looked upon these stories as "mere patent medicine advertisements." However, as everything else had failed, he determined that Pink Pills should be given a trial, with a result no no less marvellous than that of many other cases related through the press. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have completely cured the young lady, so that in a few months, from a helpless and supposedly dying girl, she has become a picture of health and activity. The Warman family is so well known in this part of the country that no one would think of disputing any statement made by any of its members. Mr. H. H. Warman, on account of his business as salesman for agricultural machinery, is personally acquainted with nearly everybody in the county, and we feel assured that any enquiries made of him concerning the statements made above will be readily answered.

The gratifying results following the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in the case of Miss Warman, prove that they are unequalled as a blood builder and nerve tonic. In the case of young girls who are pale or sallow, listless, troubled with a fluttering or palpitation of the heart, weak and easily tired, no time should be lost in taking a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which will speedily enrich the blood and bring a glow of health to the cheeks. They are a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are manufactured by the Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and Schnectady, N. Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. at either address.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections.

Send 31 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.

Shiloh's Cure, the great Cough and Croup Cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25c. Children love it. Sold by John Nugent, 389 George Street.

Thought it was Consumption.

DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with a nasty cough and I really thought I was going into consumption. I took two bottles of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and can say that it not only cured me at once but I never had a cough since. It is the best remedy in the world. Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders, and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

It's Not the Money nor The Name

It's the Clothing itself that does the business.

If it were like any other Clothing, buyers would'nt be asked to name it, nor would they be so anxious to get it.

There's a Character

In Oak Hall Clothing which distinguishes it from all other Clothing. It very often happens that the good qualities of an Overcoat, like beauty, are but skin deep. But Oak Hall's goes further—we take care that the inside and through-and-through is as satisfactory as the outside.

There was a time when it was necessary for the man who wanted a perfect fitting Suit or Overcoat to go to the Merchant Tailor and leave his measure, and after waiting several days get it home, only to be dissatisfied at finding that he had paid a high price for what he has not received.

But, since our advent into Peterborough, he finds that he can come to us, and for a small part of the former price, get as good a Garment and be satisfied with the material and fit BEFORE HE PAYS OUT A CENT.

Oak Hall Clothing

Has no execrable hump to disfigure the form or annoy the wearer. It is uniquely put together, made up and trimmed from good material

Therefore, it is not a matter of Dollars—only Sense. Other things being equal, a Suit that will last twice as long as another, is worth twice as much. If one stove would heat a room comfortably no one would think of using two, and the same logic holds in the case of Oak Hall Suits and Overcoats. One Oak Hall Suit or Overcoat will give more satisfactory wear and warmth than two of any other make.

The proof of the pudding is the eating of it.

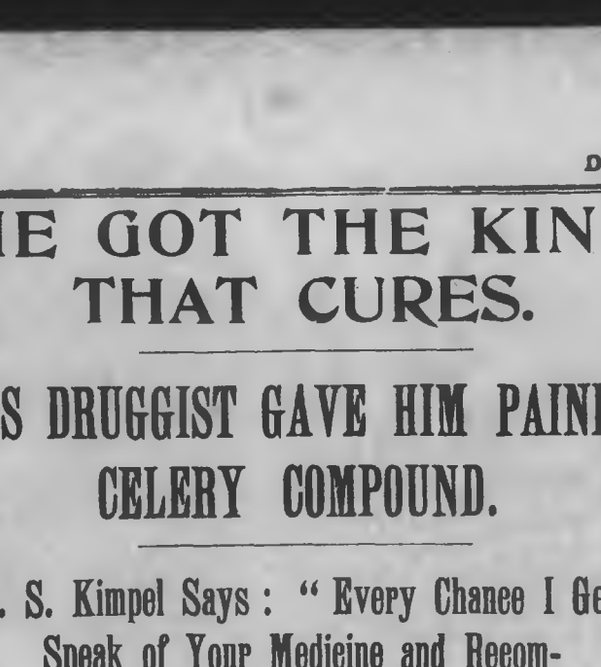
HE GOT THE KIND THAT CURES.

HIS DRUGGIST GAVE HIM PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Mr. S. Kimpel Says: "Every Chance I Get I Speak of Your Medicine and Recommend it to Others."



While hundreds of dyspeptics are made well and strong every week through the use of Paine's Celery Compound, we are aware of the fact that there are thousands who have the terrible disease in various forms, and who are vainly seeking a cure through the use of antiquated and worthless medicines. These sufferers are losing precious time, getting deeper into the mire of agony and disease, and many are almost stepping into the grave.

Long experience has proved that there is but one reliable, honest and speedy-curing medicine. Thousands of our Canadian people have given the clearest testimony in favour of Paine's Celery Compound, and solemnly declared it saved them after failures with doctors and patent medicines. One of the many thousands, Mr. S. Kimpel, of Listowel, Ont., makes the following declaration:—

"Your Paine's Celery Compound is a most wonderful medicine, and I wish all dyspeptic sufferers to know the good it has done for me. I suffered so badly for one year from the worst form of dyspepsia that I had almost to give up work. I doctored, and used many kinds of medicines and patent remedies, but found no relief or cure until I got hold of Paine's Celery Compound.

"Let me say, your medicine possesses such great curing powers, that in my case, two bottles that I bought from Mr. J. Livingston, here, set me all right, so that I can work as well as ever, sleep well, and I always enjoy my food. I feel deeply grateful for such a medicine, and every chance I get, I recommend it to others. I am sure no doctor can cure as quickly as your Paine's Celery Compound."

DEMERS' FATE TO BE KNOWN TO-DAY.

The Trial Has Lasted 28 Days—C. B. Mignault Resigns the Assistant Law Clerkship of the Commons.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—C. B. Mignault, Q.C., of this city, has resigned his position of assistant law clerk of the House of Commons, to which he was appointed in March, 1894. His position required his residence in Ottawa and he did not desire to break off his professional connection in Montreal.

F. W. Hitby, formerly an officer of the Montreal Garrison Artillery, who retired from the service with the rank of lieutenant, has been asked to accept the command of No. 1 troop of the Duke of Connaught's Own Canadian Hussars, which organization was deprived of its only commissioned officer by the death of Captain Alton F. Clerk.

The Demers murder trial, which has been in progress for 28 days, is expected to close to-morrow. The addresses for the defence occupied this afternoon and evening. The prevailing feeling is that there will be a disagreement.

SHOT AT A HOTELKEEPER.

John Hardman of Stratford Sent Down for Three Year

Stratford, Ont., Oct. 4.—The case of John Hardman, accused of shooting Mr. Cameron, proprietor of the Albion Hotel here, in December last, with intent to kill, was tried to-day.

On Dec. 26 Hardman entered the hotel, and without any warning except to say, "Sam, I'm going to kill you," fired a revolver at Cameron, the bullet being afterwards found in a bundle of letters in the breast pocket of his coat

Hardman was sentenced to three years and two months in Kingston Penitentiary.

GLADSTONE ON LIQUOR.

The Liquor Question Makes the Grand Old Man

London, Oct. 4.—Mr. Gladstone has written a letter to the Temperance Congress, in which he says: "While profoundly sensible of the immense importance of the liquor question, I cannot pretend that I have mastered its difficulties. I see it clearly in certain of its aspects, but as a whole it baffles me. I have no doubt that the local option principle is sound, but they must be of very sanguine temperament who believe that it is sufficient to dispose of the entire question. The method of the sale of liquor for public account which exists in parts of Scandinavia presents great advantages, and if adopted here ought to be adopted in its best form. The plan of free trade with strict police supervision and adequate taxation was unfortunately refused a fair trial in Great Britain. Of the scheme of mere limitation by reducing the number of licenses I have a poor opinion."

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from certain prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	Per Cent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.68	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 28, Annual Premium $177.
Total Cost for 6 years.....1,062 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy.....1,250 Dollars
Nearly 200 Dollars more than Insurance Cost.

A. E's Life Policy for $5,000, issued April, 1886, Age 22, Annual Premium $86.
Total Cost for 9 years.....774 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy.....1,000 Dollars
More than 200 Dollars over Cost of Insurance.

St. John's Church Notes.

At St. John's, to-morrow, the rector will preach the sermon in the morning and Rev. E. V. Stephenson in the evening.

Rev. Carl Smith, Lindsay, has arrived in town. He was met and welcomed at at the station by the rector and several prominent members of St. John's and the Mission. He will enter on his duties to-morrow. His residence is at Mrs. Archer's, Rubidge street, nearly opposite the mission building.

Guaranteed Cure for Tobacco.

The Uncle Sam Tobacco Cure will stop the tobacco habit—that's a certainty. So confident are the manufacturers that it will do all it claims, they will refund the money in every case where the tobacco user has strictly followed directions for 30 days without being cured. Money talks, and merit wins—they mean what they say. The medicine is for sale at Lynch's drug store, Hunter street, where the guarantee is good.

Still Another Proof.

The firm of J. J. Turner & Son, this morning received from Toronto an acknowledgement of the receipt of a tent shipped to Mr. L. M. Young of that place. Mr. Young states that the tent reached him O. K. and was satisfactory in every particular. This is but one more proof of the good quality of the work turned out by this firm.

Islands to be Incorporated.

A meeting of the owners of the islands in Stony and Clear Lakes is to be held very shortly for the purpose of taking definite and united action to secure the incorporation of islands in these waters into a separate municipality. Mr. C. J. Blomfield, of Lakefield, is interesting himself in the matter and legislation will be asked at the next session of the Legislature.

New Place of Worship.

The hall lately occupied by the Peterborough Business College, Water street, is undergoing a complete renovation as the Bethany Mission and Christian Alliance has leased the premises, and will make their formal opening next Sunday. Rev. R. J. Zimmerman, pastor of the Bethany Mission, will conduct both services. The hall will be lighted by 6-36 candle power lights put in by Greer and Bradburn.

Runaway Accidents.

This afternoon Mrs. Andrew Fawcett, of Ashburnham, while driving was thrown out by the horses running away, and severely injured. She had to be carried on a couch from the scene of the accident to her home. Dr. Yelland is in attendance.

This morning while Mr. Jonathan Smith of Millbrook was driving to town the whiffletrees became loosened, and he was dragged over the dashboard, and holding on to the horses, was severely bruised and shaken up.

How to get 'Sunlight" Books.

Guy's Minstrels.

Mr. W. H. Bradburn, manager of the Opera House, received the following letter to-day from Mr. W. C. Martin, manager of the Kingston Opera House:—

KINGSTON, Oct. 3rd.

DEAR BRADBURN,—Guy's Minstrels played here to-night to the second largest house of the season. You can safely recommend them to your patrons as an up to date Minstrel Company. Everybody to-night was pleased.

Yours truly,
W. C. MARTIN,
Manager Opera House.

Examiner Special Fall Edition.

THE EXAMINER has issued a splendid special quarto double royal 20-page Fall edition. It is handsomely printed on fine paper, with toned cover, and contains a grand array of the advertisements of our leading merchants and business men, who will derive special advantage from their attractive displays, being distributed in every home in the county. The distribution in town and Ashburnham began to-day, and is being so carefully done that no numbers will be scattered promiciously over the streets, and the remainder of the edition will be sent by mail to every householder in the country.

Gilmour's Drives.

The second of Gilmour's big drive of logs passed through Lakefield this week, and consisted of 40,000 splendid logs. The foreman, Mr. Ed. Cassibeau, reports a good run so far, considering the low water, but it will be some time yet before the logs reach their destination. The steam alligator loaded itself on the car at Lakefield and again entered the water at the Little Lake. Three more drives will follow this one, one of which is at Young's Point, one at Stony Lake, and the other at Burleigh. The season will be pretty well advanced before all the drives can be run over, and perhaps one of them may have to lay over at Lakefield until next spring.

Town Hall Notes.

The collector has not as yet returned the roll to the town clerk, showing the collected and unpaid taxes for the past year. The new roll will not be handed over until the old roll has been returned.

The town treasurer to-day handed the the treasurer of the School Board the proceeds of the recent sale of school debentures, $6,500. The debentures were taken up by the Town Trust Commissioners at par.

The Finance Committee met last evening and passed a number of accounts.

The contract will be let to-night for the construction of the sewer from Townsend to King streets.

The regular meeting of the council will be held on Monday evening.

A Memorable Date.

For the people of Peterborough will be Tuesday, Oct. 29th, which is the date fixed for the Jehin Prume and Harold Jarvis concert. Mons. Jehin Prume won great successes while on concert tour with Patti and Theo Ritter, and an opportunity of of hearing such an artist in Peterborough may never occur again. Of Mr. Jarvis the Globe says: "Mr. Harold Jarvis, tenor, First Presbyterian church, Detroit, made an impression not soon erased from the minds of the vast audience of 10,000 who were assembled in the rink." Referring to the same event Moderato, one of the most capable critics in Canada, says in Saturday Night. "Quite a sensation was created by the charming singing of Miss Agnes Dunlop, a young contralo, whose remarkably rich and musical voice was used to excellent advantage in her several solos." The above artists will render a programme that no one should miss hearing on Tuesday, Oct. 29th, in Bradburn's opera house.

WILL THE LOCK WORKS BE EXEMPTED?

THE BOARD OF TRADE WILL URGE THE COUNCIL TO CONCEDE.

The Route of the Trent Valley Canal May be Again Changed so That the Bed of the River May be Utilized.

The Board of Trade was called together last evening for the first time since the summer holidays, when the Board adjourned for three months. There was a large and representative meeting of the members, who were welcomed back into session by the President, Mr. B. Shortly, who was in the chair.

The first business undertaken was the election of a secretary por tem. In the absence of Mr. T. A. Hay, Mr. J. S. Knapman was appointed to fill the position for the present. The President stated that Mr. Hay entirely from the duties appertaining to the secretaryship as he had not time to attend to them, but the matter of appointing a permanent secretary was left over for the present.

The members in attendance at the meeting were B. Shortly, president, and Messrs. W. H. Meldrum, Robt. Fair, J. S. Knapman, R. Neill, H. S. Macdonald, A. L. Davis, A. Mercer, Peter Campbell, F. H. Dobbin and B. F. Ackerman.

Mr. Fair, Chairman of the Manufacturers' Committee, reported that at a meeting of that committee last week, to consider the Lock Works matter, Mr. Carnegie and Mr. Brooks had addressed the members on the matter, explaining that inducements had been held out by other councils for the removal of the works to their towns. Both gentlemen signified the willingness of the stockholders to keep the works in town, provided certain conditions were acceded to. The present premises were not suitable, and the company wished to move to a site where water power was available. The company was not in a position to state just what was wanted to induce them to remain in town, but were waiting for an offer. The committee reported as follows:

"Having heard explanations from representatives of the Peterborough Lock Manufacturing Company regarding the question of the exemption from taxes, the Manufacturing Committee beg leave to report to the Board of Trade and recommend that the Board take action towards inducing the Town Council to grant the company exemption from taxes on building and machinery for a period often years."

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT

was supplied by the committee of the Lock Works, showing that last year some $40,000 was expended in the town:

Numbers of heads of families employed	36
Average number of hands employed	100
Wages and salaries	$40,000
Peterborough EXAMINER and Review accounts	1,200
Wood cases	800
Cartage	200
Wood	1,384
Peterborough Carbon Co.	2,500
	$46,220

It was resolved on the representations of Messrs. Fair, H. S. Macdonald, R. Neill, and W. H. Meldrum, that the report be adopted and that the following delegation wait on the town council on Monday night and urge on that body the necessity of making overtures to the Lock Works Company: Messrs. R. Mulholland, H. Burnham, D. W. Dumble, W. H. Meldrum, W. H. Hill, R. Fair, B. F. Ackerman, H. S. Macdonald, R. D. Gough, H. LeBrun, R. B. McKee, J. M. Irwin, R. D. Hamilton, A. Mercer, B. Shortly, R. Neill, J. S. Knapman and W. H. Manson.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum then brought up the question of endeavouring to arrange with the Government to change the course of the Trent Valley Canal in order that the bed of the river might be used from Nassau to the Little Lake. If the canal was carried along through Douro very little advantage would be derived from it by Peterborough as compared with the advantages secured by having it pass through the town along the river bed. Mr. Meldrum also stated that the cost of changing the route would be little more, he understood, while the advantages to the town would be a thousand per cent. enhanced by passing over the route suggested.

On motion, the Railways and Canals Committee were instructed to look into the matter, and report to the Board on its feasibility. The following names were added to the committee to consider the matter, namely, Messrs. W. H. Meldrum, D. W. Dumble, John Carnegie, F. Dobbin and Peter Campbell.

The board adjourned.

CUSTOMS REPORTS.

Peterborough's Prosperity Evidently Still on the Increase.

The customs returns of Peterborough for the past month of September, compared as follows with those for the same month of 1894, showing a substantial increase, indicative of the prosperity of the town:

IMPORTS.

	Value.	Duty.
1894	$22,930	$4,027 60
1895	30,973	6,082 89
Increase	$17,043	$2,055 29

EXPORTS.

1894	$23,699
1895	31,313
Increase	$ 7,614

As compared with the Peterborough imports, the value of those entered at Belleville is $10,000 less. Belleville's exports have fallen off to the extent of almost $2,000 during the past year.

RESULTS OF EXAMS.

Graduates From the Nicholls Hospital Training School for Nurses.

The examinations of the graduating class at the Nicholls Hospital Training School for Nurses were concluded during the week, and it is gratifying to learn that the members were all successful in securing their diplomas. The following standing was taken:—Miss Flora Bolster, Miss Edith Robinson, Mrs. Finney, Miss Susie Barrett.

The graduating exercise will, in all probability be held on the evening of October 15th, in the Oddfellows' Hall.

PHILP NOW HOLDS THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

The Collegiate Institute's Annual Sports.

CARLETON WINS THE JUNIOR TROPHY EASILY.

The Weather Could not Have Been Better, and Lots of the School Records Were Broken During the Afternoon—The Crowd not Large but Very Enthusiastic.

The Collegiate Institute annual sports were held yesterday afternoon at the Driving Park, and as the result thereof the Collegiate championship cup this year falls to H. Philp. Many of the school records were broken during the afternoon, and the new marks established were such as to reflect great credit on the contestants.

The time was caught on the races by Messrs. G. J. Hopkins and Alex. Gibson, Dr. Burnham and Mr. Hopkins looked after the measurements, while Mr. W. J. Drope acted as referee. The starters were Messrs. O'Brien and Kenner of the staff.

Garnet Bell, the winner of the championship last year, was unable to again compete owing to the fact that he had the misfortune to break his arm a couple of weeks ago. He was present, however, during the afternoon and evinced the keenest interest in the results.

The afternoon was an ideal one for the carrying out of a programme of sports, and those present would have been hard to please indeed if they were not satisfied with the vim of the contestants. The bicycle races were fought out from the start, and the exertions put forth by each contestant in the respective races was very plainly apparent.

The results were as follows:

100 yards race, under 15—H Carleton, 1; J Fessenden, 2; time, 12 2-5. Previous record equalled. 1st prize, baseball; 2nd, pair of suspenders.

Running hop, step and jump, 15 years and over—C Cragg, 1; H Philp, 2; distance, 38 feet, 2 in. Previous record, 36 feet 2 in. 1st prize, handkerchief; 2nd, necktie.

Running hop, step and jump, under 15—H Carleton, 1; J Angleyc, 2; 30 feet 3 in. Previous record, 32 feet 2½ in. 1st prize, pair of braces; 2nd, necktie.

100 yards race, 15 and over—H Philp, 1; H Lewis 2; time, 11 2-5. Previous record, 11 3-5. 1st prize, dozen photos; 2nd, pair of lacrosse shoes.

Running long jump, under 15—J Angleyc, 1; H Carleton, 2. Distance, 13 feet 1¼ in. Previous record 14 feet ½ in. 1st prize, pair of snow shoes; 2nd, Japanese paper knife.

Half mile bicycle race—J Hamilton, 1st, R Watt, 2; time, 1.18. 1st prize, pair of paddles; 2nd basket of fruit. The second prize goes to M Hamilton for pacing.

220 yards race, under 15—H Carleton, 1; J Fessenden, 2. Time, 28 2-5. 1st prize, pair lacrosse shoes; 2nd, necktie.

Running long jump—C Cragg, 1; H Philp, 2; distance, 16 feet 11 in. Previous record, 15 feet 11 in. 1st prize, ink stand; 2nd, photo holder.

Boot race—W Roseborough, 1; S McDonald, 2. 1st prize, box chocolates; 2nd, bottle of pickles.

220 yard race, 15 and over—H Philp, 1; F. McPherson, 2. Time, 26 seconds. Previous record, 25 3-5. 1st prize, fountain pen; 2nd, camp chair.

Teachers' race—W J Drope, 1; H R H Kenner, 2. Time 12 1-5. 1st prize, cuff links; 2nd, house plant.

Vaulting with pole—E Mollmoyl, 1; R Watt, 2; distance, 8 feet. Previous record 8 feet, 1 inch. 1st prize, picture; 2nd, silk handkerchief.

Girls' race—M O'Connell, 1; T Primeau, 2; H Kane, 3. First prize, confectionery $1; 2nd, ladies' ruffle; 3rd, box of chocolates.

Quarter mile race—S Hall, 1; E Mollmoyl, 2; time, 1 min. 2 2-5 sec. Previous record, 1 min. 1st prize, DAILY EXAMINER 6 months; 2nd, hammock.

One mile bicycle race—J Hamilton, 1; M Miller, 2; time, 2.49 1-5. 1st prize, bicycle locket; 2nd, bicycle stockings. M Hamilton takes the second prize for pacing.

Half-mile race—P Clark, 1; E Simpson, 2. Time, 2.37 1-5. Previous record, 2.27. 1st prize, doz. photos; 2nd, tie pin.

Consolation race—P Kelly, 1; J Black, 2. 1st prize, pair lacrosse shoes; 2nd, cap.

The committee extends thanks to the merchants and others for the donation of the prizes, and to the Driving Park Association for the free use of the grounds.

The cup presented for the junior championship by Mr. H. S. Macdonald, was won by Mr. H. Carleton.

Putting 17 lb shot—Best previous record, 36 ft. 3 silk scarf pin, H. Philip, 36 ft 5 in; 2 W Milburn.

Standing jump, under 15 years—Best previous record, 7 ft 10 in. 1 necktie, Frank Wood; 2 pair of braces, H Carleton.

Throwing baseball—Best previous record, 94 ft. 7 in. H Philip, 93 ft 2 inches; 2 C Cragg.

Standing jump, 15 and over—Best previous record, 9 ft. H Philip, 8 ft 10 in; 2 C Cragg.

Standing hop, step and jump—Over 15 years of age—No previous record. 1, C Cragg, 36 ft 2 in; 2, H Philp.

Standing hop, step and jump, 15 years and under. No previous record—H Carleton, 21 ft 5 in.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

The running hop, step and jump event was very closely contested between the boys over fifteen. Craig finally won it by one inch from Philp, covering 38 ft. 2 in., and breaking the school record of 36 ft. 2 inches.

The hundred yards dash was a close finish between Philp and Lewis, but as several false starts were made the time was not as good as that of last year. The race went to Philp by about a foot.

Jim Hamilton had an easy thing of it in the bicycle races, taking his time and staying with the bunch until the last eighth, when he drew away easily and came in past the grand stand like a streak, being twenty or thirty yards ahead of the nearest man. His time, 2.49½, as will be seen, was exceptionally good.

Angleyc was the easiest jumper on the ground, apparently making no great effort to win his victories.

Many of the boys who showed up so well last year in the junior sports, entered with the seniors this year, and consequently were so severely handicapped that their names do not appear so conspicuously in the list of winners as they did last year.

The teachers' race evoked the greatest interest, as it was known that more than one of the staff had been secretly training for the event. At daybreak one morning Mr. O'Brien had been caught in the act of coaching Mr. Drope around the track at the Nicholls Park, and Mr. Alex. Gibson had also been seen bringing Mr. Kenner home from the Driving Park swathed in flannels on more than one occasion. Mr. Jeffreys, the third contestant in yesterday's race, had not trained at all, relying for victory on the fact that he had been a sprinter in his youth. Mr. Jeffreys consequently was "out of it," but it was a great race between Messrs. Drope and Kenner. The latter had the length of limb, but Drope had the necessary amount of wind to make him a good stayer. Kenner threw open the throttle too wide at the start. In a couple of bounds he was almost twenty feet ahead, but it was soon apparent that his bolt was shot and that he had been trained too fine for Drope, who, in the pink of condition, slowly overhauled his "leggy" opponent, and forging ahead on the final spurt won by a couple of feet. It was a great race and will pass down in the school annals as a contest in which more interest was taken than any other event in the Collegiate athletic circles for years. Mr. O'Brien, by carefully worded innuendo, dropped now and again, had continued to work his confreres up into quite a fever heat. It is probable that some evening there will be another dash to settle definitely which of the staff is the speediest of foot.

Sandford Hall was an easy winner in the quarter mile race, and Percy Clarke jogged home victorious in the half with lots of strength to spare, making a good race.

Several young lady bicyclists were on the grounds but could not be induced to enter for a race.

CURLERS ELECT OFFICERS.

APSLEY.

Address amd Presentation to Mr. Duncan Anderson.

On Monday evening last the town hall, Apsley, was the scene of a pleasant event, which was not without its regrettable features, as the occasion signalized the departure of a citizen who has been an honoured and useful resident of the township for a quarter of a century.

Mr. Duncan Anderson being about to remove to Toronto to become a citizen of that place, a large gathering, representative of the best men of the three townships, assembled in the town Hall, Apsley to show their appreciation of his services to the townships in his dual capacities of citizen and official. Mr. P. W. C. Shewen, township clerk, occupied the chair. Among those present were the reeves, Messrs. Brown and Hales. Rev. Canon Harding read a complimentary address to Mr. Anderson, paying a warm tribute to his excellent qualities as a citizen and official, and expressing regret at his removal from the community, where his presence would be greatly missed. The address was accompanied by the present of a beautiful gold headed cane, suitably inscribed. Mr. Anderson made a feeling reply, and a number of those present made complimentary remarks endorsing the sentiments of the address.

Mr. Anderson has been a resident of this section for 25 years, for 24 years having acted as Crown Land's Agent. During thirteen years of this time he has held the position of township treasurer, and for the same time has been secretary-treasurer of the Agricultural Society and secretary-treasurer of School Section No. 1, Anstruther. He has also been for 19 years a Justice of the Peace, and in a score of ways has made himself a citizen who will be greatly missed in the townships.

THE AGED WORSHIPPER.

Oft in the corner of the pew he sits
The leanness of old age on his spare frame;
The grisly snows of years fast stealing from his hoary head
The remnant of its former glossy hue.

The weather stains
Of many summer suns and wintry winds
Deep on his brown and wrinkled skin;
His palsied hand, dim eye, and falling lip
Speaking all eloquently of the pristine strength,
Of earlier days when his now unelastic limbs
Were the proud signs of noble upright ease.

Why should we heedless glance upon the aged man,
Or lightly think because the comeliness of youth is past
That naught attractive now remains to him?
There speaks a plaintive pathos in his time-worn frame
And too the lingering days of him,
Whose years are numb'ring swiftly to an end,
Ask from us all tender courtesy of thought and speech.

For if it be
That length of days is ours, so surely must ourselves
Bear all those limnings of our dimming powers,
Yet for sweet comfort, all may truly know,—
There is a ruling love that never o'erlooks
One feeble soul, but in the fulness
Of his own good time puts forth a gentle hand
And safely leads unto a "Welcome Home."

THE TURF.

The fall race meet at Dongegan Park, Cobourg, will be held on Saturday, Oct. 12th, when some novel races will be put up, including a Hunter's Handicap Steeplechase and flat running races. A large detachment of the Toronto Hunt Club will take part. There will be a big day's sport, and as the farmers are not very busy just now, the races will no doubt be largely attended.

Two Peterborough horses took first and second money in the running race at the Millbrook fair yesterday. Fred Jones' "Nettle Wood" came under the wire ahead closely followed by Mr. Mike Dwyer's (!) "Jessie B." in both heats.

THE WHEEL.

Fred Hawley is getting up a bicycle tournament to be held at Donegan Park, Cobourg, on Friday, Oct 11th, and to take the form of relay race of 20 miles in relays of 5 miles each. All the clubs between Toronto and Kingston will be invited to compete for the $25 silver trophy. Five or six clubs are expected to enter a team of four each, which will make an interesting afternoon's sport. Peterborough will go after that trophy hot foot.

The relay bicycle race between the Campbellford and Cobourg clubs has been arranged for Monday next, the start to be made at Campbellford and Cobourg simultaneously at 10 o'clock a.m. The Campbellfords have claimed the race of last week, which was not finished by the Cobourgs owing to Stevens getting off the track. If everything goes well on Monday the race will be a fair test of the riding powers of the respective cyclists.

The road race between Hastings and Norwood on Thursday next promises to be interesting to Peterboroughians, as ten of the local riders will compete. There are a dozen good prizes offered amongst them being two gold watches.

Trent Valley Canal.

Mr. Shirley Onderdonk, son of the famous Chicago contractor of that name, who is constructing six miles of the Trent Valley canal between Balsam Lake and Lake Simcoe, was in Toronto the other day. Mr. Onderdonk, jr., is on his way from the scene of operations to Chicago. He stated that the construction of the section for which his father holds the contract is proceeding very satisfactorily, and it will be completed next year. The contract is the most difficult on the whole route, consisting almost entirely of rock-cutting at a depth of 33 feet. Six derricks of 45 horse-power each are being used for this work, and a full complement of 450 men is employed. At the point of the intersection with the Talbot river, a huge basin and a lift lock are being constructed. The latter will have a fifty-feet drop. Beyond this, the Talbot river will be utilised as far as practible in the direction of Lake Simcoe. In regard to the charge made that Italian workmen were being employed to the detriment of Canadian workmen, Mr. Onderdonk stated that a few Italian were employed on bog work, where no other men would venture, but on the rest of the contract Canadians were engaged entirely.

FALL HOUSE-CLEANING SALE OF

WALL PAPERS

Equinoctial gales remind us that fall is upon us and winter near. We have already had severe enough days so far as weather is concerned to remind us that summer is gone, that fall will soon reach its end and that then winter and its snows will be upon us.

In anticipation of the annual season for House-Cleaning and Re-Decorating of the home, we started to-day an October Wall Paper Sale on a greater scale than ever before. The more we sell the cheaper we sell. Our store is loaded with new styles and designs of this season's importations—no store in Ontario carries a larger stock and no store will or can sell cheaper. Now is the best time to buy Wall Papers; now is the best time to put them on and the best place to procure them is at the most elaborate and most finely appointed Paper Warerooms of THE PETERBOROUGH BOOKSTORE

Make things bright
For Winter Nights.

Picture Framing.

This is a timely hint. If the thoughtful housekeeper wants any pictures framed in time for the Fall house-cleaning and decorating, we would be pleased to have their orders now, before the rush of orders start.

In anticipation of these early orders, we have just placed in stock an elegant line of Mouldings, which we will be pleased to show to all who wish to have their pictures framed in some of the newest of high-class designs.

In every line we carry, we lead.
We carry every line you need.

MICKS & COX, Hunter St., Nearly Opposite Post Office

SEEMS sometimes as if the world were all wrong. Seems as if all the things we like disagree with us, and all the things we don't like, agree with us. Dyspepsia lurks in most of the good things we eat, and indigestion follows the gratification of appetite. Of course, it isn't Nature's fault. Nature does the best she can, and if a man will only help her a little bit at the right time, he may eat what he likes and as much as he likes. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for people who are troubled with indigestion. Particularly for those in whom it manifests itself in the form of constipation. The "Pellets" are quick and easy in their action. They are in perfect harmony with Nature. They effect a permanent cure. You need take them regularly only a little while. After that, use them occasionally when you need them—when you have eaten something that disagrees with you. They are not violent in their effect, do not derange the system at all, and may be taken just as freely as you would take water or any other necessity of life. Once used they are always in favor. You can get the "Pellets" at any drug store. If you are careless enough to let an unscrupulous druggist sell you something on which he makes more money, it is your own fault if you do not get well.

A GREAT BOOK —ABSOLUTELY— GIVEN AWAY!

Few books [illegible]ted in the English language have reached so great a sale as has Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is a book of 1008 large pages and contains over 300 illustrations—some of them in colors. It is a complete family doctor book. It is written simply and concisely, and is indexed so that reference to it is made easily and quickly. Over 680,000 copies have been sold at the regular price of $1.50. The profits on this enormous sale enable the publishers to distribute 500,000 copies absolutely FREE. A copy bound in strong paper covers, will, therefore be sent FREE to any one who will send 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only. THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Woodvine Beats the 2-Year-Olds and Pepper the 3-Year-Olds.

Gravesend Race Track, Oct. 3.—Although the weather was perfect for racing purposes and an attractive card was presented, the attendance was small. There were two stake races down for decision, the Seashore Stakes, of the value of $1,500, for two-year-olds, and the Carnarsie Stakes, same value, for three-year-olds. The former event was captured by Woodvine, the odds on favorite. The other stake race was won by Pepper, at odds of 5 to 1, after a ding-dong finish with Peacemaker. Summaries:

First race, 1 mile—Monaco, 117, Hamilton, 4 to 5, 1; Owlet, 114, Sims, 8 to 1, 2; Manchester, 114, Taral, 6 to 1, 3. Time 1.44 3-4.

Second race, 3 1-2 furlongs—King of Bohemia, Doggett, 3 to 1, 1; Sagamore, 107, Griffin, 15 to 1, 2; Runover, 107, Perkins, 4 to 5, 3. Time 1.02 1-2. Mr. Reel, Sir Peter II., Medica, Peggoty, San Marco also ran.

Third race, the Seashore Stakes; 5 1-2 furlongs—Woodvine, 103, Griffin, 7 to 10, 1; Frontier, 107, Doggett, 8 to 1, 2; Tom Cromwell, 107, Simms, 2 to 1, 3. Time 1.08 1-4. Cassette also ran.

SHORTIS JURY COMPLETE.

"I'd Swing Him, Anyway," One of the Panel Said When Challenged

Beauharnois, Que., Oct. 3.—After a long night's journey over hill and dale, on foot and sometimes on horseback, Sheriff Legarge turned up bright and smiling in the crowded court-room this morning. All night he had spent in personally visiting the homes of men in different parts of the country who were eligible to sit on the jury. It required only one man to complete it, but to get this one it was deemed advisable to summon at least 15, and these were hard to find. After a panel of 50 had already been exhausted, they were found, however, and some happy, some sullen, some cursing, they turned up at 10 this morning and the clerk proceeded to the drawing.

David Elliott was the first man called, and as it was understood that he was a professed Christian and prepared to deal out justice, it was thought that the jury would at once be made complete. In answer to a question, Elliott exclaimed, "If he was insane or sane, I'd swing him anyway." "Step down, sir," sternly said the judge, and Elliott got out of sight quickly. Six others were then sworn and questioned, but none were accepted until John Cunningham of Howick declared his willingness to fairly and honestly try the prisoner. He took the oath and then, after two days' anxious labor the jury was completed.

Mr. St. Pierre immediately asked that all witnesses should be put out of court and to this Mr. Macmaster took exception. It was not customary, he argued, to put the witnesses out of court before the opening addresses. A long argument followed, His Honor deciding in favor of the application. Mr. Macmaster commenced his address at 11.45.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

88 Mariposa Still Holds Together

St. John's Nfld., Oct. 3.—Steamer Kite, Capt. Bartlett, returned to-day from the wrecked steamship Mariposa, which she left Tuesday forenoon. The Mariposa is holding together very well. Nearly all of her valuable cargo has been taken out. What remains aboard consists of flour, grain, etc., which is nearly valueless, being badly soaked with salt water. The Kite arrived too late to get any share of the salvage. Steamer Nimrod has saved $50,000 worth of the ship's cargo, of which she gets one-third.

CANDY

FOR CHILDREN.

The Popular Health Magazine says the desire in a child for candy and sweets is a natural one and should not be stifled. Good candy and sweets in moderation, not only do no harm, but are actually beneficial. Too much sweet upsets the stomach and spoils the appetite, but candy in moderation if it is not taken before a meal, is food which children crave naturally, and among the purest and most wholesome is that manufactured by

CONSULS PROTEST TO THE PORTE.

Armenians Afraid to Leave Shelter for Fear of Being Massacred.

Constantinople, Oct. 4.—The result of the conference held by the foreign diplomats here to consider the situation arising from the rioting on Monday and Tuesday was that the Dragomans of the several Embassies and legations were directed to protest to the Foreign Minister against the excesses of the police and equally against the barbarity of the Mussulmen mob in regard to the arrested and wounded Armenians, several of whom were beaten to death with bludgeons, while others were cruelly mutilated. The Dragomans were also directed to call the Porte's serios attention to the whole affair, and to beg the Foreign Minister to see that measures were adopted to prevent foreigners from suffering and to restore order.

The city is quiet. It is evident that the Government has taken every precaution to prevent any further disorder and to quell any rioting should it occur in spite of the measures adopted to prevent it. One of the precautions taken was the posting of guards around the Turkish quarters to prevent the inhabitants from leaving them in order to go to those parts of the city occupied by Armenians. Armenian refugees, fearing that they are marked for massacre, still crowd the churches, evidently hoping to find a sanctuary there.

The police have not carried out their threat to storm the Armenian Patriarchate if the refugees seeking safety there did not surrender. In the Pera Church alone there are 500 Armenian refugees. The Armenian College at Galata has been closed, owing to the threats of Mahommedan theological students to attack it. These students have taken a very prominent part in the disturbances, and it is the general opinion of the foreign residents that the Government needs to keep a close watch upon them or they will make further trouble. The spirit of fanaticism among them has been deeply aroused, and they indulge in many threats of what they will do to the enemies of their faith.

A deputation of forty Armenians visited the British Embassy in order to appeal to Sir Philip Currie, the British Ambassador. Upon being informed that he had gone to Thorapia, the deputation withdrew, expressing an intention to visit him at that place.

It is learned from a reliable source that more than 1000 Armenians have been arrested and cast into prison on the charge of having been actively concerned in the rioting or having instigated the trouble.

Although there have been no further overt acts of disorder, there is a deep-seated feeling of unrest and anxiety everywhere displayed. One significant fact is that the Turks are purchasing revolvers and cartridges. An English dealer in firearms here says he has refused to sell revolvers to at least 50 would-be purchasers. During the rioting on Tuesday crowds of Mahommedans took advantage of the great excitement to loot many Armenian shops and offices. Their spoil is reported to have been quite valuable.

ARMENIAN ATROCITIES.

The Reports Sent Out Said to be Greatly Overdrawn.

London, Oct. 5.—The correspondent of The Pall Mall Gazette in Constantinople sends an interview with a European delegate attached to the Commission of Inquiry which had been conducting an examination at Sassoon into the alleged atrocities committed in that part of Armenia.

The delegate declares that the statements of the press corespondents in regard to the atrocities, especially those of Mr. Dillon in The Daily Telegraph, of London, and his English contemporaries, are gross exaggerations. When the report of the commission is published, he says, it will be found that the number of killed in the fighting attending the capture of the villages of Semal, Shemak, Gheligusan and in the fighting elsewhere, did not exceed from 300 to 500.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

There is no evidence, says the delegate, that numbers of persons were killed in cold blood or that there was any mutilation of women and children. The finding of 40 bodies buried in a pit at Gheligusan, out of which the correspondents made so much capital, as well as the story of women throwing themselves over a cliff to escape dishonor, was absolutely false. The report of the commissioners, the delegate asserts, will also disprove all of the stories of wholesale massacres and violations of women, and show that only a flying column of Turkish regulars operated against the Armenians, who were well supplied with fire-arms.

The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, at Constantinople, wires that the report of the Commission of Inquiry, sitting at Sassoon, will entirely discredit the sensational stories of massacres, violations, etc., which have been so persistently circulated.

Instead of 30,000 Christians having been driven into exile, as alleged, the report will show that the entire number of inhabitants of the disturbed district, Moslem and Christian, did not exceed 4000. It will also be shown that the Armenians, instead of being remorselessly butchered while in a condition of helplessness, being unarmed, were well armed and made a most spirited stand against the troops.

The stories of the depredations and horrible cruelties of the Kurds in the conflicts are pure fiction, as there were no Kurds engaged in any of the battles. In short, the correspondent says, the whole affair has been most grossly exaggerated. The absolutely baseless stories of horrible butcheries have been invented by Armenians and inspired by political motives.

TYRELL'S SPECIMENS FOUND.

Valuable Belongings of the Geological Department Recovered by Esquimaux.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—When Mr. J. B. Tyrrell of Weston, Ont., was returning some two years ago from an exploratory trip through the Barren Lands, he was compelled to abandon his specimens and instruments, and cached them upon the shore of the Hudson Bay at a point considerably to the north of Churchill. The following year Mr. Tyrrell again returned to Churchill, but was unable to recover this valuable property, which, it was feared, had fallen into the hands of the Esquimaux and had probably been destroyed.

Dr. G. M. Dawson, the director of the Geological Survey, requested the aid of the Hudson's Bay Company in this important search, and the Minister of the Interior also interested himself in the matter.

A party of Esquimaux were engaged and the missing property located. A few of the articles had been damaged by wolves, but everything of special value is intact. The property has been shipped to the Geological Department at Ottawa.

$5000 FOR A BROKEN HEART.

Perfidious James James Must Pay for Jilting Elizabeth Selles.

Stratford, Ont., Oct. 4.—Miss Elizabeth Selles was awarded $5000 damages in a breach of promise case against James James, who formerly kept an hotel in London. Plaintiff was in his employ as cook for some years and James promised to marry her, but lately he had married a young woman in London, hence the suit. No one appeared for the defence.

Gold Production of the World

Washington, Oct. 4.—United States Mint Director Preston to-day received unofficial information from Russia to the effect that the gold production of Siberia this year would exceed the output of last year, when Russia produced $25,000,000 of gold. Mr. Preston estimates the gold production of the world this year at more than $200,000,000 and that of the United States at $46,000,000, being an increase over last year of about $6,000,000.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

Toronto Fair—Visitors Hoped to See the Manufacture of a Well-Known Product.

Toronto, (Special) Sept. 23—Many regrets were expressed by visitors to the Industrial Fair that Dodd's Medicine Company of this city did not have a display of their well-known Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy which has by this time become so widely and favourably known for the absolute cure of all complaints of the kidneys, even in the most acute stages. A rumour was current that a public exhibition of the manufacture of the remedy would be given, but the restricted space this year prevented the possibility of such a scheme. Those who went away disappointed at not seeing the manufacture of their favourite remedy will have to wait till next year.

That Tired Feeling

Is a common complaint and it is a dangerous symptom. It means that the system is debilitated because of impure blood, and in this condition it is especially liable to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for this condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the bowels and liver. 25c.

Yellow Oil used internally relieves and cures croup, sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, and similar complaints. Used externally it cures rheumatism, lumbago, sprains, bruises, galls, chilblains, frost bites, cuts, wounds, insect bites, lame back, neuralgia, etc.

Physicians

prescribe Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites because they find their patients can tolerate it for a long time, as it does not upset the stomach nor derange the digestion like the plain oil.

Scott's Emulsion is as much easier to digest than the plain oil as milk is easier to digest than butter. Besides, the fish-fat taste is taken out of the oil, and it is almost palatable. The way sickly children, emaciated, anæmic and consumptive adults, gain flesh on Scott's Emulsion is very remarkable.

A LADY OF WATERFORD COMPLETELY CURED.

Suffered for Two Years from Indigestion and General Debility.

Unable at Times to Attend to Her Household Duties.

Treated by Nearly All the Doctors in the Town Without Relief

"Six Bottles of South American Nervine Cured Me," Says Mrs. D. A. Gray, of Waterford, Ont., Over Her Own Signature.

MRS. D. A. GRAY, OF WATERFORD, ONT.

Certain dates are epoch making. They mark transitions in the individual life that are never forgotten. Their impress may be pleasant or sad, or both. As Mrs. D. A. Gray, of Waterford, Ont., an estimable and highly respected resident of that community, goes back in memory to the year 1893, her recollections are not of the most roseate character. Can there be anything rosy to one who is a victim of indigestion? All is sombre and sadness. But there was a silver lining to the cloud, as we shall see. Previous to 1893 Mrs. Gray tells us she had been troubled very much with indigestion and general debility for a period of nearly two years. Hers was no ordinary case. At times she was prevented altogether from attending to her household duties. Waterford has a number of skilled physicians in its midst and their services were called in, but in her own language, "I cannot say that they relieved me in any way." An era of joy was ushered in when her mother read the story of a cure by South American Nervine in a case where the symptoms, as Mrs. Gray says, "seemed to be exactly like her own. I bought a bottle and found much relief. After taking six bottles I was cured." The date was an epoch making date in this lady's life.

What the symptoms of Indigestion are, too many know. What the trouble is in its worst forms thousands know. People lament the spread of insanity in the present day. How far removed from loss of reason is a case of aggravated indigestion? The world to every such victim is blue enough, black enough, so uninviting and depressing that no wonder they are beside themselves. And yet the remedy is within the reach of all. That great discovery, Nervine, will cure the most desperate case of indigestion, debility or nervousness. You ask for evidence. A cloud of witnesses in the Dominion of Canada are saying amen, and amen, to the testimony of Mrs. Gray. Why suffer, fellow-citizens, friends and brethren?

The Poetry of Tennyson.

II.—LOCKSLEY HALL AND SIXTY YEARS AFTER.

In Locksley Hall we pass on into one of those graver phases of love which Tennyson now treated. The hero's love suffers a mean disillusion, and he is angry like a boy.—Stopford Brooke.

Any of his ("Wordsworth's) women are of more reality than the women of Tennyson. It seems—and it is a fault in a fact—as if at the bottom of his mind, and in spite of his Princess, he tended to the view of woman which his angry boy expresses in Locksley Hall:

Woman is the lesser man, and all thy passions matched with mine
Are as moonlight unto sunlight, and as water unto wine.

—Ibid.

There is another class which can scarcely be called tragedy or comedy, the speaker in which reviews the whole of his life or one event in it, and with a certain social or ethical direction. Of these "Locksley Hall," or Sixty Years After," is one example.—Ibid.

We can scarcely call it ("Locksley Hall' or "Sixty Years After") a dramatic monologue, but it held this form of poetry within it and went to its verge. We might even say that a dramatic movement is played in the hero's soul in which three or four aspects of his nature take personality one after another, the lover, the betrayed lover, the curser of his time, the man who resets with anger from his disillusion and his cursing, and the man who is looking back on all the phases through which he has passed. * * * youth ashamed of its bluster and emerging from it into resolution * * * flinging love to the winds * * * and finally going fiercely into the sea of manhood—with the roaring wind."—Ibid.

The passionate heart of the poet is whirled into folly and vice,
I would not marvel at either, but keep a temperate brain;
For not to desire or admire, if a man could learn it were more
Than to walk all day like the Sultan of old in a garden of spice.

Stanza VII. of MAUD

And she turned, her bosom shaken with a sudden storm of sighs,
All the spirit deeply dawning in the dark of hazel eyes,
Saying, "I have hid my feelings, fearing they should do me wrong;"
Saying, "Dost thou love me cousin?" weeping, "I have loved thee long."

* * *

Falser than all fancy fathoms, falser than all songs have sung,
Puppet to a father's threat, and servile to a shrewdish tongue!

LOCKSLEY HALL.

Cast the poison from your your bosom, oust the madness from your brain,
Let the trampled serpent show you that you have not lived in vain.

LOCKSLEY HALL, SIXTY YEARS AFTER.

What a noble looking man Tennyson was! The exalted beauty of his countenance prepares us to see in him what he was above all others, the poet of purity. With purity is almost irresistibly associated coldness, and this in Tennyson accounts for his proneness to conventionalism. His own poetic ideal was largely realized in himself. This with poets is not always so. Genius is often beyond control. Yet with all the erratic ways of some of the greatest poets we find them journeying to a destination though the path be sinuous as lightning in the midnight sky. Without a destination, without an aim to their ambition, without the enthusiasm of a lofty purpose, men become not great but mean, not men, but the mere offspring of nature in her wanton moods. The glory of Tennyson is the purity of his mind. Such a poet we should expect to find the poet of the chivalry of England. And no man has seen with surer eye the farther march of men. Scientists delight to illumine their facts with the splendour of his prophecy.

Tennyson pourtrays in "Locksley Hall" the individualism of which he himself was so fine a type. Yet, strange to say, though he thundered against the wrong of men and against the treatment accorded the individual by society, he failed to see that his own indignation was the pervading spirit of that modern socialism which he held so much in fear. Modern socialism seeks to raise men in the mass to a higher plane. That which seeks to bind them in chains together is not Christian socialism, but misguided ignorance.

In "Locksley Hall" Tennyson displays his admiration of science and its useful application of scientific principles to commerce. We are inclined to think, however, that in this, as in the "Princess," his poetry is laid aside while he discourses upon science. He does not seem to rise in these poems to the high attitude of "In Memoriam," in which he assumes a commanding and, therefore, truly poetic relation to the forces of nature. It is this frequent tendency in Tennyson which gives rise to our opinion that the ideal poet is less formal than he, and his art at all times more thoroughly concealed. The "angry boy" of Shelley, or of Keats, would have been less selfish, less earthy, less conventional. His smooth melliguous verse and poetic elegance delight us, but even in its most splendid parts it is splendid rather than natural. We do not say that he is not sometimes unaffected and natural, for nothing can excel the tender loveliness of such lines as these:

"She is coming, my own, my sweet:
Were it ever so airy a tread,
My heart would hear her and beat,
Were it earth in an earthly bed."

But his genius is too well under control, and too well disciplined by the hand of man where it should rise on unrestrained pinion. Man, like woman, is, speaking generally, angel and devil combined. Goethe's Faust depicts the devil in man. Othello is a devil too, "damned in a fair wife." It is because of this lack of dramatic passion that the dramas of Tennyson are merely paper ones.

IF RUSSIA GETS PORT ARTHUR

The Situation in the East Would Become West Toronto-ing.

London, Oct. 5.—With the reported cession of Port Arthur to Russia, which, however, has since been semi-officially denied from St. Petersburg, the eastern question has suddenly come to the front again, and is now the leading subject of discussion in London's political circles and chief organs of the press.

The prevalent opinion is that the re-adjustment of European influence in the East and China's future are matters the settlement of which cannot further be delayed.

The English papers are anticipating that Japan will not be induced to evacuate the Liao-Tung peninsula without the possibility of friction with Russia.

On this point Mr. Kato, the Japanese Minister to England, says: "There need be no mystery as to our delay in evacuating the peninsula. The Japanese are simply waiting for the first payments stipulated by the treaty of Simoneseki. When these payments are made the Japanese troops will be withdrawn." Mr. Kato said he did not believe the report that Port Arthur had been ceded to Russia.

He continues: "Japan was forced to yield Port Arthur on the plea that her persevering in the occupation of it would harm Eastern trade. Therefore, I cannot see how Russia could take possession of the place and avoid the application of the same argument to her pretension."

"If this cession to Russia were confirmed," was asked, "what would be the Japanese outlook in Corea?"

"Very threatening," was His Excellency's reply; "with Russian troops at Vladivostock on the one hand, and Port Arthur on the other. But if this would be threatening to Japan, it would, in my opinion, be even more so to China."

Overcoats, Ulsters and Suits

WE HAVE GIVEN MORE THAN ORDINARY ATTENTION TO THE SELECTION OF OUR

FALL and WINTER CLOTHING

The experience of the past two seasons has taught us that there are many men who expect Ready-made Clothing to be as good as clothes made to order, and who are willing to pay a fair price when they get what they want. The Winter Suits and Overcoats are here in abundance, taking up every inch of space on our two floors.

$11.00 buys an Overcoat that is away up in every respect, except price. The colours are light tan, dark brown, black and navy blue. $6 or $8 will buy an All-wool Frieze Ulster that would require an expert to tell it from the genuine Irish Frieze. Colours are the same as our other Ulsters. Our suits comprise everything to be found in a first-class store from $5 up. Be sure and give us a call.

CUSTOM WORK.—Our very large assortment of Cloths for Suits and Overcoats, made to measure, gives you a splendid selection.

KILLED BY A STAB.

Alleged Murder Case at Severn Bridge.

RESULT OF AN OLD QUARREL.

John McKenzie Alleged to Have Stabbed Scott in the Groin in a Barroom Row —The Injured Man Brought to Toronto, Where He Died.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—As a result of a wound received in a stabbing affray in a bar-room at Severn Bridge last Friday afternoon John Scott died at the Toronto General Hospital at 11 o'clock on Saturday night. John McKenzie of Severn Bridge, the alleged murderer, is in charge of Constable Sloan of that place.

The tragedy is the outcome of a feud which has existed between the two men since last spring. They had a bitter quarrel two weeks ago, and met again at Severn Bridge Fair on Friday afternoon.

Scott went into Cleland's Hotel, and there met McKenzie, and it is alleged the stabbing occurred two or three minutes afterwards. Constable Sloan was present and immediately arrested McKenzie. Scott was attended by Dr. Shaw of Orillia, who was at Severn Bridge for the Fair, and found the wounded man's injuries of so serious a nature that he ordered his removal to the Toronto Hospital with all possible haste.

Scott was brought by his brother to this city on Saturday. He was admitted to the Hospital at 5.30 p.m., and was shortly afterwards attacked with fits of vomiting. When Scott arrived at the Hospital he was perfectly conscious, but was suffering terrible pain. At 7.45 he became unconscious, and died at 11 o'clock.

The wound that caused his death was about an inch wide in the left side of the groin, and had been caused by a large pocket-knife.

Scott's brother, wife and 4-year-old child accompanied him to the city, and are staying with friends at 436 Markham-street. Deceased was 26 years of age. He was a saw mill employe and had a good reputation.

McKenzie is a man of about 50 years of age and is said to be of rather dissolute habits and of a quarrelsome disposition.

Coroner Johnson took charge of the body, and has ordered a post-mortem examination to be made by Dr. John Caven. A warrant has been issued for an inquest at Young's mortuary to-night at 8 o'clock, when preliminary evidence will be taken, and the remains viewed by the jury. An adjournment will be necessary to obtain the evidence of witnesses living in Severn Bridge.

The body will be taken to Severn Bridge for interment to-morrow morning.

SHORTIS ON HIS DEFENCE.

The Crown's Case Closed Evidence of the Irish Commission as to Insanity

Beauharnois, Que., Oct. 5.—The case for the crown in the Shortis murder trial was concluded at noon on Saturday.

When the proceedings opened the room contained its usual throng. Shortis, still cool and sprightly, resumed his customary attitude and apparently took no notice of anything but the frescoing on the south-west wall. For the first time it was necessary to heat the court room.

Dr. Lussier was recalled and continued his evidence regarding the antemortem examination and the result of the autopsy performed on Maxime Leboeuf's body. His examination was made to determine what state the vital organs were in at the time of the murder. He found all the vital organs in a sound and healthy condition, and the conclusion he arrived at was that Leboeuf's death was caused by the bullets which entered the body. He was not cross-examined.

Evidence was adduced to-day to show that Shortis had proposed to one McVicar of Valleyfield, to rob the cotton mill several times before the awful tragedy. The trial, it is expected, will be finished by Wednesday next.

The defence opened with the commission taken in Ireland regarding the prisoner's early life and his alleged insanity.

The contents of this show that Shortis, if not insane, was an eccentric character. His shooting at people on the streets of Waterford and his cruelty to animals going to show that he was full of deviltment from childhood.

John A. Ryan of Waterford testified to the commission that he was a schoolmate of Shortis. He says Shortis was unlike other young fellows at school, having few associates and always acted in an odd manner. He had a penchant for driving headlong over country roads, making everything get out of his way. Other evidence taken up to recess was in the same strain. All thought the prisoner was foolhardy to a degree bordering on madness.

The prisoner still maintains his sang froid. Mrs. Shortis, who is continually in court is broken down. The Irish priest sat with her through the proceedings. The excitement is intense. Boarding accommodation is all taken up. Hundreds of people are flocking to the town, and to-day it is estimated that there are fully 2,000 visitors here.

The contention that the prisoner Shortis, who stands in the Beauharnois dock impassive alike to the damning evidence produced against him and the long, yearning glances of his heart-broken mother, is in rapid consumption is ridiculed by Dr. G. O. Villeneuve of this city, the expert summoned by the Crown. Needless to say, the Doctor also scoffs at the attitude taken by the defence with regard to the mental condition of the accused. In conversation with a reporter, the Doctor stated that he considered the claim made by the friends of the prisoner would not be borne out by the veidence.

IN MEMORY OF PARNELL.

Glasnevan Cemetery Visited by Hundreds of the Late Leader's Adherents.

Dublin, Oct. 7.—The anniversary of the death of Charles Stewart Parnell, the Irish leader, was observed here to-day in the customary manner. The Lord Mayor, most of the municipal authorities and Messrs. John and William Redmond, Harrington, Field, O'Kelly, John H. Parnell, brother of Charles Stewart Parnell, Hayden, Clancy, P. O'Brien and Kenny, all members of the House of Commons, delegates from the National League, a large number of political bodies and others, marched in procession to Glasneven cemetery, where Mr. Parnell is buried, and placed wreaths upon his grave. The procession was two miles long.

FATALITY AT INGERSOLL.

George Forbes Run Down on the C.P.R. Crossing.

Ingersoll, Oct. 5.—Mr. George Forbes, an old gentleman of 80 years, was crossing the Canadian Pacific Railway track this morning, driving his cow to pasture. The cow hesitated on the track and the old gentleman went forward to urge her on. An approaching train struck and instantly killed both man and cow.

BUSY TIMES IN BRITAIN.

Every Branch of Trade Shows Unwonted Activity Assurance of Budget Surplus.

London, Oct. 6.—Englishmen are never willing to admit that times are good until the revenue returns prove it. They now have the final authority for accepting without reserve all rumors of their prosperity. There are increases in the customs and excise receipts which offer assurance of a large surplus for the next budget. Trade is improving in every direction, especially with America, Australia, Argentina and South Africa. Treasury reports, board of trade returns, railway traffic, stock exchange operations, all tell the same story of restored confidence and unwonted business activity. The ship-building trade on the Clyde and at Newcastle has improved greatly during the last month, with orders from several lines for new steamships and contracts for foreign naval work. The shipments of coal from Scotland and Wales are also increasing largely. The cotton and woollen trades were seldom in better condition, with the demand exceeding the supply, and the price rising. The consumption of cotton is growing steadily with improved trade.

Doctor Suicides With Chloroform.

Binghamton, N.Y., Oct. 2.—The dead body of Dr. Charles W. Tiffany was found lying on a couch in his apartments at the Kenmore this morning. A two-ounce bottle, which had contained chloroform and a sponge saturated with the drug were found at the head of the couch.

2,497 Divorces in Ohio in One Year

Columbus, O., Oct. 6.—Statistics completed for the annual report of the Secretary of State show that 6,546 suits for divorce were brought during the year. Of these petitions 970 were refused and 2,497 divorces were granted, the additional number of cases still being in the courts.

Verdict in the Demers Case To-Night.

Montreal, Oct. 6.—The Demers murder case was not concluded Saturday night as expected, and will be continued Monday, when Mr. Guerin will address the jury for the Crown, and Judge Wurtele will charge. A verdict is expected Monday night.

A MANITOBA MOVE

Which Indicates Delay in Replying to Ottawa

AND AN EARLY GENERAL ELECTION

Preparations Being Made To Hold the Provincial Elections Early in the Year—Hardy Not To Have a Walk-Over in Kingston.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 7.—The Provincial Government has appointed registration clerks and revising officers to prepare and revise the voters' lists. The enumeration must be completed on or before Nov. 4, and the final revision before Jan. 1. It would appear that Mr. Greenway's intention is to absolutely refuse to modify the present school law and spring a general election before the Federal Parliament passes remedial legislation.

Wheat is beginning to move more freely, Saturday's deliveries being about a quarter of a million bushels and shipments equally as large.

No Walk-Over for Mr. Harty.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 6.—The Conservatives say another candidate will be named to oppose Mr. Harty. It is also announced that those guilty of bribery in the last election will be prosecuted.

NOTES FROM OTTAWA.

That Judge Rose Will Go to the Supreme Court Generally Credited

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 7.—The apointment of Judge Girouard to the Supreme Court bench is gazetted. The general impression here is that Judge Rose of the Ontario Supreme Court will succeed Justice Gwynne, who will likely retire at the end of the present court term.

Parliament is prorogued pro forma until Tuesday, Nov. 19.

The Imperial Parliament having passed an act confirming the power of the Senate to appoint a deputy-speaker, a proclamation was issued Saturday declaring the Senate Act now in force.

Sir Julian Pauncefote had a lengthy conference with Messrs. Bowell, Tupper and Costigan yesterday in reference to the proposed Behring Sea commission.

The Minister of Militia visited the new rifle range at Merivale yesterday. It lies about a mile beyond the experimental farm, and will be readily accessible, as the electric railway is being extended in that direction.

The announcement that General Gascoigne would select a Canadian officer as his aide-de-camp has led to a number of applications for the position.

Enquiries at the different city banks show that paper was well met on Friday.

A large number of friends called upon Mr. Courtney, Deputy Minister of Finance, and lady yesterday to congratulate them on the occasion of the anniversary of their silver wedding.

SIR OLIVER MOWAT'S RETURN,

He Expects a Decision in the Prohibition Appeal Next Month Ontario's Premier a Picture of Health.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—Sir Oliver Mowat, who has been absent from Canada since May, arrived in Montreal Sunday afternoon by the Dominion Line Vancouver, and as contradictory reports had been flying about relating to the state of the Ontario Premier's health, he was eagerly sought after by friends, political and otherwise. The steamer arrived at 5 o'clock, and at 6 Sir Oliver Mowat accorded an interview to your correspondent at the Windsor Hotel, where the honorable gentleman is staying with his daughter. Sir Oliver is the very picture of good health, and he evidently takes pleasure in downing once for all the alarming reports that have ben set afloat.

"You see for yourself," he said, "whether I am in a dying condition or not. Of course, a man of 75 generally has more ailments than one of 30, but, as you see, I am in good health, and you may also say that, although we have had an exceedingly pleasant trip abroad, I am glad to return to Canada."

Sir Oliver belongs to a long-lived race, as it came out during the conversation, as he has aunts and uncles enjoying good health in Scotland whose ages are from 92 to 98 years.

Referring to the chief object of his visit to the other side, the Liberal leader said that a decision would be given in the prohibition case some time next month.

"Would you care to say anything as to the probable result?"

"No, I would not. I can say, however, that the case was ably argued on both sides, although, no doubt, you have had the details by cable."

The correspondent, having referred to Canadian affairs in England, Sir Oliver drily remarked that they were thinking more about politics just now. He was not in London at the time of the crisis, yet it was not probable that Canadians could give many pointers to Britons regarding the machinery of elections. Sir Oliver added that the general impression there was that the Tories would come into power, but not with so large a majority, and the little Premier added, "I think they have a pretty strong Government."

"I do not think I can say anything more that would be of interest. I leave Montreal to-morrow morning and hope to reach Toronto in the evening."

CHIEF, CHIEFLY IN NAME.

In the case of Premier Bowell and his cabinet colleagues, the tail wags the dog, that is we have a head of the cabinet who is manipulated like warm wax by his colleagues and his authority even openly flouted. The Brantford Expositor calls attention to the fact that last session Mr. Haggart openly and deliberately insulted Sir Mackenzie Bowell by introducing into the House of Commons a government bill about which the Premier had not even been consulted. The titular Premier very angry, of course, but equally of course he swallowed his leek and allowed his boisterous and discourteous colleague to have his way. According to the Montreal correspondent of the World, and we believe to be well informed, a similar case of flouting the aged leader has taken place in connection with the appointment of a judge of the Supreme Court. The place was offered to Mr. Girouard by Sir Hibbert Tupper, Mr. Ouimet, and Sir Adolph Caron, while Sir Mackenzie Bowell was actually offering it to Senator Angers. Luckily for the premier Mr. Angers did not want it, or both would have been shamefully humiliated.

When is this farce of an administration without cohesion, a Cabinet without solidarity, to end? In former times Canadians would have scorned to submit to such indignity, and we believe they will do so now, whenever they get a chance to speak their minds. Wouldn't there be some mighty sudden shuffling in the cabinet if any one had tried the same game on Sir John Macdonald or Sir John Thompson, or even Sir John Abbott? Sir Mackenzie Bowell is entitled to veneration on account of his years, but as a ruler who does not rule, as a premier without backbone, he fails to command even the respect of his colleagues, or rather subordinates.

MORE PAVEMENT POINTERS.

Here is another pavement pointer for our city fathers. The Hamilton Herald says: "Fancy a city of 50,000 inhabitants, a city that is known as the Ambitious City, putting down a plank walk on King street east, between Mary and Ferguson Avenue, while a little place like Brantford, with 16,000 inhabitants, is putting down mile upon mile of durable cement walks just as quickly as the old wooden ones are worn out, not only upon the principal streets, but upon the back streets as well Brantford has found out that it pays, and the work is all done by corporation labour." Peterborough should have as much go as even a city like Brantford. We have as fine buildings and as good streets as Brantford with the exception of pavement. Peterborough should go ahead all along the line.

The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, promotes regularity of the functions, allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of womankind are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says, "Shiloh's Vitalizer 'saved my life,' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75 cts. Sold by John Nugent, 389 George street.

INSPECTING HASTINGS COUNTY ROADS.

A Deputation From Peterborough County Council Delighted With Them.

(Belleville Intelligencer.)

A deputation from the County Council of the County of Peterborough has been inspecting the county roads of Hastings and the system adopted by our county council in keeping them in such excellent shape The gentlemen stayed in the city over night and left this morning on a further their inspection.

The deputation is headed by J. B. Pearce, Reeve of Norwood and Warden of Peterborough county, and with him are the following gentlemen:—Mr. Anderson, reeve of the township of Otonabee; Mr. Forster, reeve of Monaghan township; Mr. Middleton, reeve of Smith township; Mr. Hamilton, reeve of Dummer township; and Mr. Moloney, reeve of Douro township. The latter gentleman has the distinction of having been reeve of the municipality which he represents for fifteen years without opposition.

Mr. Pearce, who is a brother of the reeve of Marmora, is an old friend of D. B. Robertson, our genial city clerk, and he called upon him Friday morning.

In conversation with an Intelligencer reporter, Mr. Pearce said the object of their visit was to inspect the roads and the system of managing them and to make a report to their council at its next session, with a view of adopting a similar system in Peterborough county. At present they have no county roads in that county, but do all their work by statute labour. He said he and his colleagues were delighted with the roads they had seen in Hastings county and he was satisfied that the system was as near perfect as it could be. Mr. Pearce has travelled over the whole province during the present year, and he says our county roads are the best he has encountered.

The above is certainly very gratifying, coming as it does from a gentleman of such wide experience as Mr. Pearce.

On Thursday last Fraserville was the scene of great excitement. While Mr. John Finlay was attending the Epworth League on Wednesday night his horse and buggy were taken from the sheds. After much trouble and a continuous search all night, Mr. Finlay went to Millbrook and telegraphed to all the principal points to be on the lookout for a horse thief. Meanwhile Mr. Finlay's father came to Fraserville, and found the horse and buggy in possession of Mr. Abe Clarke. Word was at once telegraphed to Millbrook. "I don't know what I did it for," said Mr. Clarke, "but I thought it was quite a practical joke," which, however, cost him about $10 for telegraphing expenses.

Don't You Remember Long Ago!

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past, School days with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamour and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now looked up in the eternity of the past. In a similar way we recall the the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now.

HORSE MEAT MUST BE BRANDED.

All Meat From the U. S. From Jan 1 Must be Inspected

Washington, Oct. 6.—Secretary Morton has issued the following order under the Act of March 2, 1895:

"It is ordered that all beef offered for exportation, whether fresh, salted, canned, corned or packed shall be accompanied by a certificate of an inspector of this department showing that the cattle from which it was produced were free from disease and that the meat was sound and wholesome. And in order that it may be determined whether all beef exported has been so inspected and found free from disease and wholesome, it is further ordered that meat of all other species of animals which is packed in barrels, cases or other packages shall be legibly marked in such manner as to clearly indicate the species of animals from which the meat was produced. Meat which is not so marked and which is not accompanied by a certificate of inspection, will be subject to unpacking and examination in order to ascertain if it is uninspected beef.

"Notice is hereby given to exporters of beef, whether said beef is fresh, salted, canned, corned, packed or otherwise prepared, and to owners and agents of vessels upon which said beef is exported, that no clearance can be given to any vessel having on board said beef until the provisions of this order are complied with. This order takes effect Jan. 1."

Beheaded on the Rail.

Brampton, Ont., Oct. 6.—Saturday evening about 5 o'clock Edward Fletcher, a farmer living on the first line west, was run over by a down passenger train on the C.P.R., and had his head entirely severed from his body, and was found several yards away. It is supposed that he stumbled on the ties and striking his head, was rendered insensible, when the train came along, with the above fatal results. The train did not stop.

NOT YET DONE WITH CHINA.

Vice Admiral Buller to Enforce Further Demands

London, Oct. 5.—Though the Foreign Office professes to be satisfied with the full and prompt acceptance by the Pekin Government of the ultimatum forwarded to it by the British Government demanding the degradation of Liu Ping Chang, Viceroy of Szechun, for his connection with the Szechuen riots, the trouble growing out of the overture hostilities of the Chinese to British subjects is not over. The movements of the British squadron in the Yang-Tse-Klang show that the tension of the relations between Great Britain and China has hardly been lessened by the punishment of Liu Ping Chang. Vice-Admiral Buller, instead of ceasing to demonstrate the the pressure that is being brought to bear on the Pekin Government, keeps under orders the British warships at every point where they were stationed before the Tsung-Li-Yamen apparently conceded the British demands.

The warship Aeolus has gone to Wu-Chang, where Vice-Admiral Buller is charged to present to Chang-Cheh-Tung, th eViceroy, the demands relative to the inquiry into Ku-Cheng massacre. Chang-Cheh-Tung is a notorious hater of foreigners.

Wu-Chang is the centre of the production of the pamphlets and placards inciting the populace to the murder of Europeans. No overture of hostility that would justify Great Britain in demanding his dismissal from office can be traced to him, despite his known antipathy for foreigners. The exact nature of the demands that will be presented to him has not transpired. A strong feature of Vice-Admiral Buller's mission is that he is directed to deliver the British dispatches directly to Chang-Cheh-Tung instead of negotiating through Pekin. It is expected by the Foreign Office that the Viceroy will concede the demands.

Prime Minister Salisbury has directed Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British Minister to China, to expedite his return to London. Sir Nicholas will go to St. Petersburg as ambassador in room of Sir F. C. Lascelles. He will be in London in November, when a new Minister to China will be appointed.

It is evident that Great Britain is determined to conserve and expand her trade and other interests in China. In order to effect this end, important changes wil be made in the duties of the members of the Legation at Pekin. Besides the Secretary of Legation, a special commercial attache will be obliged to make an annual tour of the treaty ports. The secretary will visit the chief consulates, and the commercial attache will receive the British residents, learning their grievances and watching the course of trade. As Sir Nicholas O'Connor suggested these changes, nothing will be done in the matter until Lord Salisbury personally confers with Sir Nicholas.

It is rumored in diplomatic circles that Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Ambassador to the United States, will succeed Lord Dufferin as Ambassador to France. Sir Julian's preference for Washington over some of the better paid European posts is not concealed, but if he should be offered the blue ribbon of the British diplomatic service, he would, it is said, be certain to accept it.

A clique of old time Liberals, mostly members of the Reform club, are resenting the proposed transference of the control of the party to more democratic hands. The National Liberals, backed by interested wirepullers, are trying to squash the projected conference on party re-organization. The political committee of the National Liberal club is desirous of avoiding internal squabbles and is inclined to abandon the conference, but in the face of the demands of every Liberal and Radical association in the country, it will be obliged to proceed. The conference will be held at the end of October. It will concern itself solely with plans for party re-organization.

The agricultural papers are raising an outcry against the free admission into Great Britain of American sheep. A recent consignment of sheep was found to be suffering with scab, the spread of which disease in the United Kingdom is due, according to the Live Stock Journal, to the importation of sheep from the United States. Many of these sheep were dispersed over the country for grazing and they spread the disease. The paper says that the Board of Agriculture therefore be asked to issue an edict, similar to that applied to cattle, providing that American and Canadian sheep shall be killed at the port of landing.

A doubtful rumor has gained currency that the Queen will make a visit to Ireland next summer. Though Her Majesty is enjoying good health, she has an increasing dislike for noise of any kind. During her railway journeys, all the stations at which she is obliged to stop, are cleared of people, as far as possible.

Lord Salisbury has sold the Chalet Cecil, his property at London Eppe, France, to the Duc D'Aumale.

Countess Clancarty, better known as Belle Bilton, who was some years ago a decidedly well-known concert hall singer, proposes to return to the stage. She is negotiating with the manager of a Liverpool theatre.

SIR JULIAN SPEAKS FRANKLY.

Of the Chicago Gathering and the Venezuela Dispute.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 6.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador to Washington, speaking of the recent convention of Irishmen at Chicago, at which resolutions were adopted calling on the Irish to form armies for the destruction of England, said:

"I do not attach much importance to the matter. I think this is something like another organization which was started some years ago on similar lines. The convention does not represent the whole of the Irish in America; only a section. Certainly the American people do not attach much importance to the organization, and I do not think it need be seriously regarded."

Asked whether his attention had been drawn to the purchase by Americans from the Venezuelan Government of some territory to which Great Britain lays claim, Sir Julian said:

"I have heard of the matter; though I have no official connection with it at present. No action has been taken in the premises.

"I do not like to speak on this subject, because there is liable to be misconception and consequent irritation. Great Britain has certain well-defined territory there which has been occupied for generations, about which there can be no successful dispute, and which, of course, would not be submitted to arbitration, as the case does not admit of it, our title being perfectly clear. On the other hand, outside the line at Maroomond, there is a territory about which there might possibly be a dispute, as the title there is not so clearly defined. This, I apprehend, would be a matter for arbitration, and doubtless if the question arises it will be so submitted.

"But with respect to territory already occupied and to which a clear title can be shown, of course no nation would think of submitting such a question to arbitration. It is a portion of the British territory, and that is all there is about it."

FORGOT HER OWN NAME.

Peculiar Case of Sudden Loss of Memory

London, Oct. 7.—A notable loss of memory case, involving a confusion of personality, is engaging the attention of scientists. A lady who was sitting on the promenade at Brighton found herself unable to tell her own name, address or anything of her life. She said she had felt something break inside of her head. The authorities, not being able to find out anything about her, had her sent to the workhouse. There was nothing on her person that would lead to her identification. She conversed as an educated woman on the things around her, but her mind was perfectly blank as far as the past was concerned. Her husband, who is a civil engineer in London, turned up last night and was recognized by the woman. She had no idea how she got to Brighton. The doctors say that while she was struggling to remember her name she often said it was Trilby.

HOME RULE THE ONE PLANK.

Lord Playfair Says the Liberals Will Stick to It—A Warm Advocate of Colonial Union.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—Speaking of the Liberal party in England, Lord Playfair, who is here on a visit, said today: "We are as resolute as ever, though we do not see the possibility of getting back to power for another five or six years. The majority is overwhelmingly against us, but this not because the people are against Liberal principles, but because we went to the country with too many questions. We should have had one or two well defined measures which we could have offered to the people, who, on the contrary, were mystified by a long and indefinite program. e had Local Option, Dissestablishment, Home Rule, Registration and other matters which bred confusion and uncertainty in the mind. e needed definiteness, and not having it, lost. But it is the general experience that coalition governments do not last long. They never have in England. At present all is peace and content."

"Will the Liberal party now drop Home Rule from their platform, or will they still be faithful to it?"

"Assuredly they will be faithful to it. It is their foremost question. They are pledged to it, and they will re-introduce it at the first opportunity."

"Is it your opinion that the Conservative Government will give a modified Home Rule measure to Ireland?"

"I should not be surprised if they would. They certainly ought. England and Scotland have a home rule government in the shape of county councils. Why should Ireland not have the same?"

Lord Playfair, who is an ancient Imperial Federationist, stated also that, although the Imperial Federation League had gone out of existence, the sentiment in favor of Colonial Union was stronger than ever. It was felt in the Old Country that the colonies should contribute to the maintenance of the navy, and if the colonies did contribute they would be given a voice in the administration of the empire, which would be a step towards the realization of the hope of a greater Britain so fondly entertained by many.

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from the six prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	Per Cent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.68	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 23, Annual Premium $177.

Total Cost for 6 years.....1,062 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy.....1,250 Dollars
Nearly 200 Dollars more than Insurance Cost.

A. E's Life Policy for $5,000, issued April, 1886, Age 22, Annual Premium $86.

Total Cost for 9 years.....774 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy.....1,000 Dollars
More than 200 Dollars over Cost of Insurance.

Work in the Timber Limits.

An enormous quantity of timber will be out in the backwoods this year. Mr. Timothy Cavanagh has just returned from Wahnapitæ, after taking back a gang of men, and reports that already 700 shantymen are at work. If sufficient snow falls to allow the timber to be gotten out, it is probable that a big cut will be made this season.

The Ashburnham Scales.

Messrs. Scott & Hogg, of Ashburnham, have purchased the Ashburnham weigh scales, and are having them put in perfect order, are prepared to do public weighing of any nature. A practical scale maker from Belleville has been in the village for the last couple of days testing the scales, and has adjusted them to the perfect satfaction of the Inspector of Weights and Measures.

The New Addition.

The south ward school addition is rapidly approaching completion. The roof is now on and the shingles all in place. The ceilings which are of wood are up and the wires in position for electric lighting. The lathing of the walls is now in progress and from appearances the work is being rushed along in such a manner as to make the new wing ready for occupation in a very few weeks.

Guaranteed Cure for Tobacco.

The Uncle Sam Tobacco Cure will stop the tobacco habit—that's a certainty. So confident are the manufacturers that it will do all it claims, they will refund the money in every case where the tobacco user has strictly followed directions for 30 days without being cured. Money talks, and merit wins—they mean what they say. The medicine is for sale at Lynch's drug store, Hunter street, where the guarantee is good.

Infractions of the Liquor License Act.

William Cardwell, of the Victoria Park Hotel, was summoned before the county magistrate this morning, on a charge of selling liquor without a license. A number of others were also summoned for obtaining liquor from him, but as Mr. Cardwell did not appear the case has been enlarged for a week. License Inspector Crowe, of East Peterborough, is the complainant.

The Saturday Market.

An enormous quantity of vegetables were marketed on Saturday. Waggon loads of gorgeously coloured tomatoes were brought in and found a ready sale, as the housewife is now preparing her chow-chow and catsup for the winter use. Cabbage and cauliflower were also marketed in huge quantities. The former sold at three heads for ten cents and cauliflower at ten cents a head or three for a quarter.

Out After Beech Nuts.

The woods for miles around were visited yesterday by crowds of people from town out for an afternoon's stroll. Incidentally those woods in which beech trees were abundant were the most popular points to which the strollers turned their footsteps. Many from town went as far away as Centreville, the nuts in that direction being particularly large, for some reason, this year.

George Street Methodist Sunday School.

Under the able management of the officials of the George street Methodist church Sunday school the attendance has reached the highest average in the history of the school and the interest is ever on the increase. A question of grave importance to the officials of the church, is to provide adequate accommodation for the flourishing organization. Owing to the architectural design of the church it is a matter involving a heavy expenditure to make any additions to the present building, hence the plan of erecting a mission school has been practically accepted. In August a committee was appointed to look into the matter and report as to site, etc. It is expected within a few days a suitable site will be selected and possibly the work of building commenced at once.

A Quick Shuffle.

The men in the bottom of Messrs. Rutherford & Bogue's big ditch, on their sewer contract, got quite a scare on Saturday afternoon last, when the earth behind the boarded sides began to slip and come out at the bottom. There was a quick scramble for safety amongst the men, who were under the impression that a "cave in," with all its horrible accessories, was imminent.

On examination, however, it was found that the cause of the minature landslide was the fact that a small drain had been dug to run the water from the sewer into the river at this point, and had afterwards been filled in, consequently, when the sewer was dug to a lower point than the small trench, the "made" earth slipped into it. A few shingles effectually remedied the evil until the more substantial bricks could be placed in position.

The Michael Young Concert.

A grand concert will be given in Bradburn's Opera House on Thursday, October 10th. The following artists will appear:—Michael Young, the gifted boy soprano; Mr. Ernest Wood, basso; Mr. Allan Fairweather, tenor, and Mr. Lincoln Carlisle, comic. Master Young is indeed a wonderful singer—absolutely, and without reference to his age. His singularly sweet voice has a very large compass, and his singing is artistic to a degree. He has met with great success wherever he has appeared. Of his first appearance in Toronto, the Mail says: "The young debutant is gifted with a voice of singular purity, and has received very careful training. Moreover, he sings with feeling and expression that are remarkable." Opera House, Oct. 10th. Prices, 25c. and 50c. 1d

Guy Bros.' Minstrels.

The Kingston British Whig of Friday, Oct. 4th, has the following reference to the Guy Brothers' appearance in that city:—"That the love of good old-fashioned minstrelsy, with its singing and dancing and tom-foolery and fun-making, is still strong in Kingston, is evident from the attendance at Guy Bros.' minstrels last night. The house was crowded. The show is in some respects better than ever, although the familiar face of old Mr. Guy is no longer to be seen, except on the lithographs. They have a very good first part, and this, to many, is the whole of the minstrel show. The songs are all fresh and well sung, and the jokes and gags not too bad. The orchestra is fully up to the requirements of the programme. The specialities are numerous and generally good, as minstrel specialities go. A new feature was the living statuary of Charles, Albert and Edwin Guy. The show on the whole is good, clean and funny." Guy Bros. appear at the Opera House here on Friday next, 11th inst. 1d

WORK ON THE OUTFALL SEWER.

Probability of Its Being the Fall-out Sewer in Some Respects.

At a meeting of the sewer committee on Saturday evening tenders for the section of the outfall sewer between Townsend and King streets, were opened. It is understood that the figures are pretty close. No contract was awarded, the members being very vigourously divided on the subject, some wishing to give the contract to a local firm, while others are in favour of awarding it to an outsider, whose figures are some $150 lower.

On Saturday Mr. Grant practically completed his contract from the river to Lake street, and to-day Rutherford & Bogue's section is being connected with the Grant section. Work is being vigorously pushed on the Townsend street section, the bricklayers being at work on the first hundred feet of the Rutherford & Bogue contract. It is interesting to notice the difficulty of the work. The trench, some seventeen feet deep—the depth of an ordinary well—with its crumbling sandy sides, has to be shored up every inch of the length.

Just here a

is likely to arise between the contractors and the town. The specifications supplied by the town, at the curve from Lock street, to Perry street, it is said, call for 14 feet 11 inches of excavation. As a matter of fact the excavation at this point, and for some distance on each side of it, has to go down 17 feet 9 inches. And any person looking down the well like excavation would conclude that these extra 2 feet 10 inches at the bottom of the trench are more difficult to take out than 6 or 8 feet from the surface down. This is especially the case since at the depth the specifications call for, there is no water, while the extra depth reaches abundance of water, requiring almost constant pumping. This, as well as the extra digging and shoring, adds considerably to the expense of the work. Naturally, the contractors will look to the town for compensation, and as a consequence there will be a nice little bill of extras in connection with this contract in the regard mentioned. The contract price will not, certainly, cover the cost of this section.

Mr. Grant's section.—As mentioned, the first section of the outfall sewer is practically completed, and it is understood that his work is entirely satisfactory, but a percentage (5 per cent.) of the contract price will be held back to ascertain if the sewer will stand the wear and tear of a year.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks of News From the Whirling Wheels—Interesting Cinders for the Eye.

The G. T. R. have under course of construction a new water tank at Hallburton, and are also putting in a new Worthington pump there.

The G. T. R. station at Orillia has been remodelled and modernized as far as such an old building could be. The room formerly used as a freight office has been turned into a ladies' waiting room, and the freight office placed in the rear of the ticket office. The building has also been painted throughout.

Now that the rush is over perhaps Stationmaster Roper will be able to wake up the Northerners to play that cricket match with the Midland team for the silver cup.

Early one morning last week Mr. W. J. Dunford, section foreman on the G.T.R. at Uthoff, captured a partridge which flew through an open door into the kitchen of his house while breakfast was being prepared. The bird flew to the top shelf of the dresser and was caught after a lively scrimmage. It was in fine condition and made a toothsome addition to a subsequent meal. It was probably being chased by a hawk when it sought refuge, which, however, proved to be delusive.

PETERBOROUGH TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Convention Will be Held on November 22nd.

At a meeting of the Peterborough Teachers' Association on Friday afternoon last a committee was appointed to arrange for an evening entertainment in connection with the convention which will be held on November 22nd. The Separate School teachers and the Ashburnham teachers have signified their willingness to connect themselves with this Association; which is distinct from that of the county. The reason for the withdrawal of local teachers from the county organization was on account of being obliged to leave town in order to attend many of the meetings. The new arrangement obviates all this.

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; the loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibited. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to that of repose—sleep, with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid to the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regains his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

Church Improvements.

Rev. Father McClosky, the recently appointed pastor of the Roman Catholic church in Campbellford, is fully alive to the best interests of his congregation, an evidence of which may be seen in the work he has undertaken. Soon after going there he noticed that the church was too small to accommodate all who sought to worship under his ministry, as it sometimes occurred that a large number were compelled to stand at the doors. To meet this emergency to some extent, and without incurring any great expense he has planned some internal improvements which are now in progress. A portion of the rear wall of the church and the wall of the vestry have been removed, and an arch formed, thus connecting the vestry with the auditorium. The altar has been placed back into the vestry, about twenty feet from where it formerly stood, which will afford space for twenty additional seats, and giving seating accommodation to eighty more of the congregation. A wall will be erected at the rear of the altar, and then sufficient room will remain for a small vestry. Father McClosky states that he intends also to calsomine the walls and ceilings of the church, which have become grim and uninviting, and secure additional light.

REV. DR. SEXTON IS AGAIN WITH US.

HE DELIVERED TWO POWERFUL SERMONS YESTERDAY.

In the Morning he was in St. Andrew's and in the Evening at St. Paul's—Large Congregations Listen to the Words of Wisdom.

Rev. Dr. Sexton, whom the people of Peterborough have had the pleasure of listening to on more than one occasion, is again in town and delivered two sermons yesterday. In the morning he occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's church, and in the evening that of St. Paul's.

Of course the congregations which assembled to hear this learned speaker were exceptionally large and his most scholarly addresses were listened to with the most intense interest.

In the morning the doctor took his text from John xvi, 32, and dealt with the subject of "Soul Solitariness." All men, he said, had a domain in their nature in which they were perfectly alone. He did not mean bodily, but the most intense solitude was experienced in a great crowd, where all were strangers to each other As a rule we only saw each other on the surface whilst the deep recesses of the heart were hidden from our nearest friends. Passing through life we come into contact with some to whom we were drawn by some spiritual force of attraction, the nature of which no one knows, but the gulf between soul and soul was never quite closed up. This loneliness was intended to bring us into closer

COMMUNION WITH GOD.

If we could share all our griefs and sorrows with our fellowmen there would be none left to share with God. To be dependent on others made us weak. Independence was a madman's dream, and self-dependence a delusion, but to depend on God made man strong. We were often subject to temptations which we dare not tell to the purest minded among our friends and acquaintances. We were sometimes guilty of sins of the heart, which despite the fact that our external acts and words conformed to the highest ethical code, would torment us with shame long after they had passed away. The practice of confession to man was futile and no created being could forgive sin, for only Omniscence could know its real nature and the temptations which led to it. The power to pardon sin could not be delegated to any so-called priest on earth, nor in fact to the highest angel in heaven. This loneliness taught us not to envy others for we could not know what they had to contend with. It also taught us charity towards the fallen. Perhaps the man who fell into some heinous sin had resisted a hundred temptations which others never had to endure. It showed also the utter loneliness of the soul that was without God.

The sermon abounded in lofty thoughts and brilliant passages, and was illustrated by numerous quotations in poetry and prose from the best English writers.

EVENING DISCOURSE.

In the evening the learned doctor preached from the words, "I will give you rest."—Matthew xi, 28. He said that in these words Christ had professed to solve the greatest problem that had confronted man in all the ages of the world. All social schemes, whether ancient or modern, sought in some way or other to procure rest for man. It was not always called by this name, but the idea of rest was always involved. The Buddhist sought it in Nirvana, to attain to which he was content to undergo fearful sufferings in reincarnation, extending through millions of ages. The Epicurean sought it in pleasure and the Stoic in indifference. In modern times it was identified by some with wealth, by others with fame or power or learning. And all these failed because the appetite did but grow with what it fed on. The unrest to-day was perhaps greater than it had ever been known to be before in

THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD.

This was an age of high pressure. Men were always in a hurry, leaving no time for spiritual meditation or for serious thought. In this world anxiety could not be avoided because the future was unknown. No state of happiness was so perfect as to exclude hope. Then there was death, which brought pain by separating loving hearts. In all this Christ promised rest. His method, too was new. He did not give instruction as to how the promised rest was to be obtained, but simply said, "I will give it." This rest differed from the rest of Nirvana, which was a state of inactivity, for in God's universe there was perpetual activity, and especially there must be so in

THE SOUL OF MAN.

Nor did this rest depend upon external circumstances in man's environment, for these often were very unfavourable to the Christian life. It was a rest of the soul. People often spoke of rest in the grave. There was no rest in the grave, for the real man was not there. And certainly the body was not at rest, for no sooner did death grasp it in its leaden embrace than the great forces of nature would tear it shred from shred, scattering its component parts to the four winds to enter into new combinations in other forms. The rest promised by Christ was freedom from toil, not from labour—from that which made labour painful. It was a calm amidst the disappointments of life, for disappointment was the distinguishing characteristic of human existence. It was a rest from the power of sin and the pangs of conscience. And it was that alone which could give peace and consolation in death. The sermon abounded in noble thoughts and was abundantly illustrated by quotations from great writers.

On Tuesday evening the Doctor will lecture in St. Andrew's church on "The Folly of Atheism and the "Fallacy of Agnosticism" and it may easily be predicted that there will be a large attendance.

—The Josephine Kid Glove Cleaner is unlike any other—that's the good of it. Ladies will not do without it at twice the cost once they use it. Sold by Robt. Fair, sign of the Golden Lion, headquarters for Perrin Freres' celebrated Kid Gloves in newest styles for all occasions.

RANGERS ATTENDED DIVINE WORSHIP.

REV. A. MACWILLIAMS' APPROPRIATE DISCOURSE.

The Essentials to Victory in Battle with Men or Sin are Courage Begotten by the Righteousness of the Cause, and the Confidence that God is Fighting for You.

The Rangers turned out strong yesterday afternoon, with Lieut.-Col. Bell in command, to attend Divine worship in St. Andrew's church, and looked very neat and soldierly indeed as they passed down George street, headed by the bugle band, drum corps and military band.

Rev. Mr. MacWillams preached a most timely and appropriate sermon, taking as his text the words:

Exodus xvii. 9—"Moses said unto Joshua, choose us out men and go out fight with Amalek, to-morrow, I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand."

To Arms! To Arms! Without even the necessary introduction we plunge into our subject at once, as to-day our words must be few. Our next suggests a few important thoughts for our consideration.

First, Israel's Enemy. Israel's enemy was Amalek. Of this enemy we know little. Amalek was the son of Eliphez (Gen. 36: 12) and also grandson of Esau. His we also learn from Numbers 24:20 and Deu. 25:17, 19. From these passages we see that the Amalekites did not at first openly engage in battle with Israel, but rather lay in ambush and made unexpected attacks. "He laid in wait for him by the way." Then again the Amalekites assailed Israel's rear, the weak and feeble ones that were unable to keep pace with the stronger. "He smote the hindermost of them, even all that were feeble behind them, when thou wert faint and weary, etc." This method of attack, from ambush, and this cruel destruction of weak, defenceless ones reveals something of the cowardice of the Amalekites. Only a base coward would smite down the weak, defenceless ones. For such heartless murder God is enraged against Amalek and so instructs Israel that when they find rest in Canaan that they must return and blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven," Dan. 25, 18 19. By and bye Israel finds rest, so God instructs Saul to execute his will regarding Amalek. Therefore Saul gathers together an army of 210,000 men, proceeds against Amalek, and so wipes them from the face of the earth.

METHOD OF WARFARE

Such was Israel's enemy, such their method of warfare, and such their doom. To-day, gentlemen, no foreign enemy invades our shores, nor does any domestic foe disturb our tranquility. Peace reigns from shore to shore. For this give God thanks. But how long this blessing may continue

NO MAN CAN SAY.

Forming, as we do, an integral part of the greatest of earthly empires, whose territory and interests are in every continent, it may soon be broken. How often, indeed, within the last few years has the sword seemed to be suspended by a very slender thread. A single rash act might have brought the clash of arms and the roar of cannon. Ay, gentlemen, is it not thus suspended at this present moment? Are there not things transpiring in Europe and Asia at present that may set nation against nation? Britain is forced to make powerful demonstrations in the East at this moment. The issue will be watched with intense interest by every thoughtful citizen of the British Empire. Two powerful nations, France and Russia, are thus united in their efforts to destroy British influence in the Celestial Kingdom. What shall the issue be? It may mean war. Let us pray that peace may reign.

Brethren, there is no use concealing the fact that Great Britain is the most noted of all nations, not because of any sin, but

BECAUSE OF HER SUCCESS.

Because she rules the waves, because of her success, because she has been preeminently successful in colonization, etc. Thus the hatred is conceived and brought forth jealousy. But hated she is, and being hated, every possible effort will be made to embroil her with some powerful combination that she may be crippled. That this is the design of some is evident from the words lately spoken and deeds lately done. Therefore, gentlemen, while peace reigns to-day it may not to-morrow. Before the year 1895 passes into history the bugle may sound to the farthest nook and corner of the Empire. To arms! to arms! the enemy has arisen in its strength and is at the door. The time, while dawning, has not yet fully come when all international disputes may be settled by arbitration, when swords may be beaten into ploughshares, spears into pruning hooks—when nation shall not lift up sword against nation nor learn war any more. Would to God this time had come, according to prophecy, through the benign influence of the gospel of peace. But until it does come, it behooves us to be ready for every emergency, that should the cry "To arms! to arms!" sound through the empire we may be found ready to battle for country, home and God. This leads to my second thought.

Israel's victory. Next morning after Moses' instructions to Joshua the battle appears to have begun. It was certainly a long, uncertain,

STUBBORN, BLOODY BATTLE.

Begun in the morning it lasted until evening. It was uncertain, for at times when Moses' hands went down the Amalekites prevailed, and being a hand to hand conflict with swords it must have been bloody indeed. But when evening dawned Israel prevailed. The Amalekites reeled, turned and fled, leaving Israel in possession of the battlefield. "Joshua discomfitted Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword" (Os. 13). Then, no doubt, Israel's banner was exalted while their huzzahs rent the air, and echoed and re-echoed along the mountain sides, victory! victory! victory for Israel. Israel's victory over the Amalekites was due first to their courage. Courage is to the soldier what the mainspring is to the watch; it impels to deeds of daring and terrible battle, hence God's repeated injunction to Israel after reaching the promised land: "Be strong and of good courage." That courage in the commander begets courage in the soldier is clearly seen from the history of such leaders as Napoleon, Wellington, etc. Their courage and daring were transmitted to their armies. But once again Israel's courage was produced by the consciousness that while they stood with the enemy Moses was over yonder on the hill top entreating God to give victory to Israel.

This belief begat in their souls strong courage. Israel's courage that impelled them to do strong battle was thus produced by confidence in their arms and in their skill to use them successfully against the enemy. By the righteousness of their cause—by their strong confidence in their commander—by the perfect courage of their leader—yes, by the knowledge that Moses was on the hill top pleading with God for victory. These facts produced a courage that impelled them to daring deeds and desperate, to battle that no foe could withstand. The charge was irresistible, the enemy was routed and Israel was the victory. So is it to-day. Gentlemen, courage—not reckless daring, is one of the great secrets of victory, courage produced by confidence in your arms and skill to employ successfully. Courage begotten by the righteousness of your cause, by confidence in your leaders, by the bravery of your commanders, but especially by the consciousness that while you engage the enemy, God's children that prevail with Him, are yonder in the mountain top beseeching God to give you victory. Courage, gentlemen, thus begotten is irresistible. It dares and battles until the victory is won and the banner is planted high on the parapet amid the huzzahs of the conquering army.

It is false, it is a slander to say "that God always fights with the heavy artillery." Past history—religious and secular—shows that often God was with the weak and gave the victory to the few. Then gentlemen, if ever it be yours to march into the battlefield to defend our beloved Canada and of which we are an integral part against any enemy that would try to rob us of any part of our great heritage, I appeal to you, take the God of Israel with you, Let Him fight for you. If you do not, as surely as there is a God in Heaven, you shall suffer defeat, but if you do you shall be the victor. Then you shall raise high your banner amid the huzzahs of a conquering army. Yes, gentlemen, like Moses, conscious that your victory is of the Lord you too shall erect an altar on the battlefield to God and shall inscribe thereon, "Jehovah nissi." The Lord is my banner. Victory! victory! victory through Jehovah Jesus, the captain of the hosts of Israel.

Courage is necessary—courage begotten by implicit confidence in our weapons—the sword of the Spirit, and in our skill to successfully employ them against the enemy. Courage begotten by the righteousness of your cause—by absolute confidence in our great Commander—the Lord Jesus Christ—yes, by the assurance that while we fight the church of the Living God is on top of the mount, struggling with God in prayer for our victory. Courage based upon such facts impels the Christian soldier into the fray, makes him irresistible and even secures the victory. Therefore be strong and of good courage. But again, that the victory may be ours there must also be Divine assistance. "Apart from Me ye can do nothing," says Christ. The Holy Spirit, the Invisible God, must be present in the battlefield fighting for us, else ours shall be defeat.

Don't you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla will overcome that tired feeling and give you renewed vigor and vitality.

CHURCH CHIMES.

The rite of Holy Communion was observed in St. Paul's church yesterday morning.

The Young People's Association of St. John's church meets on Thursday evening next for re-organization.

Rev. Mr. Pady was down from Toronto yesterday conducting the services in the Park street Baptist church.

Miss Hendren sang "Eternal Rest" in a most effective manner in the Charlotte street church last night.

The choir of the Park street Baptist church sang the anthem "Whosoever believeth," last evening, very sweetly, the solo being taken by Rev. Mr. Pady.

"Come Holy Spirit" was the title of an anthem rendered in the Charlotte street church last night. Miss Florence Hall and Mr. A. L. Davis took the solos most effectively.

The anthem "How Beautiful" was most harmoniously sung in the Charlotte street church yesterday morning. During the offertory Mr. John Miller and Miss Martha Stevens sang a duet which was greatly appreciated.

Rev. Carl Smith conducted the services at the South Ward Mission, yesterday, and large congregations were in attendance both morning and evening. Mr. Smith and his family are residing at No. 208 Rubidge street.

The evening anthem in St. Paul's was Shelly's "Saviour, when night involves the skies," the solo being taken by the male voice in unison. The rendering was very effective and the shading and piano passages all that could be desired.

Rev. Dr. Torrance conducted the evening service in the Charlotte street Methodist church yesterday, the morning service being delivered by Rev. H. Lewis. Rev. J. J. Rae, the pastor, was absent, being engaged in conducting Harvest Home Festival services at Atherley Junction.

Next Sunday evening a special service will be held in St. John's church in the interests of the Nicholls Hospital, in connection with the graduating exercises of that institution, which takes place on the following Tuesday. The board of management, medical staff and staff of officers and nurses are all expected to be in attendance.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

Last Monday, Dunlop Bros. in 4 hours and 45 minutes threshed for Mr. James McIndoo 604 bushels of oats. This speaks well for the threshers and their machines, and well for Mr. McIndoo's excellent farming. Mr. McIndoo's yield on fifty acres of crop is altogether 1,400 bushels. The yield of grain in Monaghan, with the exception of high dry lands, is good this year, and if the prices were good the farmers of the township would be well satisfied.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM.

Quality Before Quantity.

The Guardian, of Boston, is one of the most reliable authorities on life insurance matters in America. In its last issue it refers to the P.P.I. as follows:

"The Provincial Provident Institution, of St. Thomas, Ont., the head and front of the "assessment system," is maintaining a proud position in the respect of the insuring public of the Old Dominion. And well it may, for with safe and liberal plans its affairs have been administered with energy and care along safe lines and to the complete satisfaction of all with whom it has been brought in contact. The continued low mortality rate experienced, proves the conservatism with which the Medical Department is supervised and puts some meaning into the motto, "Quality before Quantity." Nevertheless quantity is not lacking; the new business thus far written averages $60,000 per month more than that obtained a year ago, and the year will close with over $3,000,000 in carefully selected new business, surpassing all previous new records. The agency force of this Company has been greatly extended, and has never been in better condition, while the public more than ever are recognizing the Company's worth and rewarding it with deserved patronage. The Reserve Fund is keeping adequate pace with the increase in size. At this writing, more than $500,000 has been distributed by the Provincial Provident Institution in settlement of its death-losses, which large sum has been paid with promptness and an absence of quibbling in keeping with its honourable business methods."

The P.P.I. wants a bright, business man to represent it in Peterborough district and to the right party who will give his whole time and attention to it, they will give a liberal contract.

APSLEY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

An interesting and well-attended meeting was held in the town hall, on Monday, Sept. 30th, to present D. Anderson, Esq., J. P., with a farewell address from his many friends. Mr. Brown, reeve of Burleigh, requested Mr. P. H. Shewen, township clerk, to take the chair.

The chairman stated the object of the meeting, alluding to the long residence of Mr. Anderson among us; the various offices which he has held to the advantage of the community, and the general esteem which he had won on all sides. The chairman said that he had headed a subscription list with the object of presenting to Mr. Anderson some slight token of our regard. He then called on Rev. Canon Harding, R. D., to read an address which had been prepared.

Mr. Harding said that as soon as he knew that Mr. Anderson had resolved to give up his residence here he thought some public mark of approbation should be presented to him. And it is evident that others thought so also, for on returning from the agricultural show, last week, there was handed to him a note containing a sum of money with a request that it be used to make a gift to Mr. Anderson. There was no signature, other than the words, "yours truly, Some Friends." Acting upon this it was thought best to bring it before the public, and the reeve kindly agreed to give the use of the town hall and to be present. Mr. Harding then read the following address:

D. Anderson, Esq., J.P.:

DEAR SIR,—In view of your departure from among us a few friends have asked you to meet them in order that they may present to you an address, expressive of their great sorrow and disappointment because of the circumstances which have led you to break the connection which has for so long existed between us. At the same time we are not disposed to accept it as a final separation, for we look forward to the time when you shall be connected with us in a more important official character. Some of us have known you for more than twenty years, and all have known you long enough to esteem very highly your character in every aspect in which it has been presented to us.

For 25 years you have been Crown Lands Agent, and as such have treated all with kindness, consideration and suitable advice.

For nearly as long as you have been officially connected with the council of the municipality, to the duties and interests of which you have attended in a very satisfactory manner.

As Justice of the Peace for several years we believe that you have acted wisely and impartially in the interest of justice and mercy.

As to your general relation to, and dealings with, the people in all matters of right and wrong, in any case of want, or of those who have asked advice and counsel of you, we are satisfied that you have the full confidence of the very great majority, and the general impression is that your removal is unlooked for. And we earnestly hope that you will find, if you wish it, some occupation where you will be as highly appreciated as among us.

Signed on behalf of this vicinity by
P. W. C. SHEWEN, Chairman,
ALEX. BROWN, Reeve,
W. HALES, Reeve of Chandos,
P. HARDING, Canon and Rural Dean.

It was moved by the reeve that the address be approved and that it be presented to Mr. Anderson. This was seconded and carried unanimously, every hand in the hall appeared to be up in favour. It was then by the chairman presented to Mr. Anderson, who was evidently much moved. He said that he had lived nearly 25 years here—a happy part of his life; the back country was endeared to him. That he had striven rightly to do his duty to every office to which he had been appointed. He certainly was hurt on the very sudden way in which he was dismissed as Crown Lands Agent, and wrote to the Department. He read the reply, which stated that he was not dismissed, but that the office had been closed in the public interest, as it was found that the duties could be fulfilled by two adjoining agents, and that there was no fault whatever against him. Mr. Anderson had no complaint against the Government; no no doubt they were acting for the public good, but he thought he ought to have had three months' notice, and been allowed to send in his resignation. He begged all to be assured how very highly he valued this proof of their confidence, their esteem and their affection.

The chairman then declared the meeting closed. Many shook hand with Mr. Anderson and said they were very glad such a meeting had been held.

FALL HOUSE-CLEANING SALE OF

WALL PAPERS

Equinoctial gales remind us that fall is upon us and winter near. We have already had severe enough days so far as weather is concerned to remind us that summer is gone, that fall will soon reach its end and that then winter and its snows will be upon us.

In anticipation of the annual season for House-Cleaning and Re-Decorating of the home, we started to-day an October Wall Paper Sale on a greater scale than ever before. The more we sell the cheaper we sell. Our store is loaded with new styles and designs of this season's importations—no store in Ontario carries a larger stock and no store will or can sell cheaper. Now is the best time to buy Wall Papers; now is the best time to put them on and the best place to procure them is at the most elaborate and most finely appointed Paper Warerooms of THE PETERBOROUGH BOOKSTORE

WOMEN are not the only ones who are sensitive about their ages. A man doesn't like to be told that he is getting old. A man doesn't like to get old at all. But worse than getting old, is the appearance of age. Health keeps a man young. It doesn't make any difference if he has lived eighty years. If they have been healthy years, he will be hale and hearty and won't look within twenty years as old as he is. Good digestion and rich, red blood make people look youthful. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich, red blood. It makes health in the right way. It works according to the right theory, and in 30 years of practice, it has proved that the theory is absolutely correct. It begins at the beginning—begins by putting the stomach, liver and bowels into perfect order, but it begins its good work on the blood before it finishes with the digestive system. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be and forces them out of the body. It promotes the copious secretion of the digestive fluids, and assists in throwing off refuse matter. It makes the appetite good and the digestion strong. It isn't a violent medicine. It isn't strong medicine. It does nothing but good to every portion of the body. It doesn't do harm in one place while it is helping another place. It is meant to help the whole body and it does help it. Whenever a man feels himself failing in health, when he feels that he is getting old too fast, that his vitality is low, and that he is losing flesh, he should waste no time in getting the "Golden Medical Discovery." It will build up quicker than anything else in the world. It will give him rich blood and solid flesh. It will make him feel half as old and twice as strong. Druggists sell it.

Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," in Plain Language, tells all about the "Golden Medical Discovery," and is a complete family doctor book, profusely illustrated. It will be sent free on receipt of thirty-one (31) one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

STICK TO ONE THING.

An Abrupt Change to Secure High Prices For Some Particular Farm Product is Dangerous.

The American Cultivator says very truthfully that stead farming, with a good rotation of crops pesistently followed, is the surest way to success for farmers. Abrupt changes in order to meet high prices for some farm product are dangerous proctices. It is within the remembrance of every farmer when hay was so low that it hardly paid to raise it for market, but since then farmers have been making more profit off hay than almost any other crop. To suit the change a great many dropped hay from their lists of farm crops, and tried to get along without it. The steady farmers continued to give a place in their crop rotation, turning it under when it would not pay to cut and sell it as hay, and when prices went up again for hay, they were the only ones who had good crops to sell. Besides enriching their soil with grass, they found themselves prepared to reap a good harvest when prices came round again to their normal condition.

Just now sheep are at a discount, and thousands have been selling them off to raise something else more profitable. But sheep, both for wool and mutton, will be profitable in the future. Several times in the past the sheep industry has been at its lowest ebb, but it revived in time. Steam and electricity are said to be driving horses out of the market, and it will no longer pay to raise fine colts. There never was a time, and probably never will be, when it did not pay to raise good horses. Underbred stock is too plentiful, and will be at a greater discount in the future than now; but fine driving road horses or heavy draught horses will never lose their value permanently. It is within the remembrance of the writer when many farmers paid $5 and $6 per head for ordinary sheep, because a boom in that line was sending everything upward. There are too many farmers engaged in this industry who wait for high prices, and then they rush into that particular line of work. If corn is the leading farm product that pays well, then turn their farms into enormous corn fields, unmindful of the fact often that they do not understand its culture, nor the expense attached to it. Frequently they have to make an initial outloy to adapt themselves to the abrupt change, which alone will take away all profits.

Just now more farmers are preparing for abrupt changes than ever before. It has been a disastrous year with most of us. Many have lost money, and are generally dissatisfied with their conditions. Each one is looking around at those who seem to be raising something more profitable. Very often these profitable products are only temporarily so, and by the time the change is made they will no longer pay good prices. Good, steady farming, with a fair rotation of crops is the only sure way for any farmer to make farming a sure thing. Grass, hay, oats, wheat, potatoes, corn, sheep, cows and horses cannot always be unprofitable. A proper system of diversified farming will make profits a certainty on some of the crops. It is, at any rate good farming. The pigs, chickens, cows and sheep will all yield some incidental profit, while the main farm crops may fluctuate from year to year, but not more than manufactured articles. Fluctuation is characteristic of every business and farmers have no more than their share. The shoe manufacturer does not take up pin making because shoes happen to be unprofitable for a season or two.

EARLY AUTUMN BONNETS.

The Shapes and Garniture—Flowers and Feathers.

WRITING in the Ladies' Home Journal, Isabel A. Mallon says: The dark shades are trope and all the den brown, heliogray, a delicate golbut in weight. Pate rot only in color, light felts—light, are those in the bonnets to appear first of the autumn that incline to small pokes. These bonnets fit the head with the comfort of a capote, but have the slightly flaring brim that permits the placing of delicate face trimming, and really gives but that suggestion of a brim that is always pretty in a bonnet. The capote shapes, which are always in fashion, are developed in velvet and satin, the material being laid softly over the frame, and, while sufficiently full, still the air of heavy draping is avoided. Capotes of golden brown satin are liked for early autumn wear, decorated with butterfly wings of butter-colored lace and having a rather high but full bunch of velvet black-eyed Susans.

French milliners invariably put ties in their bonnets, in many instances they are removed, but women of good taste realize that a smart air is given by these ties, as they invariably, if one is skillful in arranging them, add to any virtues and toned own any imperfection of the face.

Flowers, as well as feathers, appear on the winter bonnet, but in making a choice one must consider exactly what wear will be given to the bonnet, and whether bright-hued blossoms will harmonize with the hour and the toilet. The style of coiffure has much to do with the arrangement of the bonnet on the head. If the hair is parted the bonnet is placed a little farther back than it is if either a pompadour or a bang is worn.

Flower rosettes are made of tiny rosebuds and of violets, but the good form of the violet rosette is lost if any other than velvet violets are used. Frills of lace, arranged after the fashion of curtains, are seen on the backs of some of the small bonnets that come from Paris, but I doubt if this style of decoration will be popular here. Black and white is liked in quiet, stylish chapeaux, and as black velvet will be greatly in vogue, both for wraps and costumes, the popularity of this contrast is certain, and its adoption by well-bred women assured.

A Curious Custom in Alaska.

A fact remarkable to our civilized women is the one that Alaska squaws make their ages public. They wear a piece of wood or bone in the lower lip, the size of the ornament indicating the age of the owner. When a girl marries her lower lip is pierced and a peg of wood, or a piece of bone the size of a pea inserted. As she grows older this is increased in size until it is almost as wide as her chin, and one-fourth of an inch high. The result is naturally most unsightly. There is an interesting family at Fort Wrangle, which illustrates perfectly this peculiar custom. It includes four generations. A young girl may be seen sitting at one side of the one-roomed square house, while her mother, grandmother and great-grandmother are squatted on the earthen floor near the door, offering mats and baskets to the ship's passengers who come on shore. There is no disfiguring ornament on the girl's chin, but there is a big one on the lip of the great-grandmother.—Chicago Tribune.

OF THE SUN'S SUCCESS.

The Press is now the principal medium by which the MERITS of the various Life Assurance Companies are made known to the public.

The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, allots its profits to policies according to age and in proportion to premiums paid.

Mr. James W., of this agency, age 68, holds a policy (No. 28,038), for $1000 on the ALL LIFE PLAN in the SUN. On the First of April last he had been insured for 5 years and received results as follows:—

1 —A Bonus Addition to the Sum Assured of $189 or, 2nd—A Reduction for the Next 5 years of $35.80 Yearly. or, 3rd.—A single cash payment of $138.25.

The undersigned would like to see an example of profits approaching the above given by ANY OTHER LIFE COMPANY under similar conditions. The profit earning powers of the SUN are unexcelled.

Sick Headache CURED PERMANENTLY BY TAKING Ayer's Pills

"I was troubled a long time with sick headache. It was usually accompanied with severe pains in the temples, a sense of fullness and tenderness in one eye, a bad taste in my mouth, tongue coated, hands and feet cold, and sickness at the stomach. I tried a good many remedies recommended for this complaint; but it was not until I

Began Taking Ayer's Pills

that I received anything like permanent benefit. A single box of these pills did the work for me, and I am now free from headaches, and a well man."—C. H. HUTCHINGS, East Auburn, Me

RAIDED A [illegible] ON STORE.

Vigorous Resistance to the Police by the Marauders. A Bank Cashier Suspended General Miscellaneous City News.

Hamilton, Oct. 5.—Mayor Stewart this morning expressed the opinion that a census should be taken, providing the work will not be too expensive and it is altogether probable one will be taken before long. In connection with the small increase during the year, the fact that about 50 families in the north end moved to Wallaceburg to work in the glass factory is responsible to some extent for the poor showing. But with the addition of two new schools this year, school accommodation now is at a premium, and the assessors themselves admit that their figures cannot be relied upon.

The police were advised to-night that John Barclay, with two other notorious characters from Corktown, had entered the store of Mrs. Bloominstell, John-street south, and carried off a quantity of clothing. A squad of policemen were sent to search the south end for the marauders, and P. C. Timson finally located Barclay hidden in Corktown with a quantity of stolen goods with him. When the officer arrested him he put up a big fight, kicking and biting freely. P. C. Halliday ran to Timson's assistance, but was kicked in the breast and knocked down. There was a lively time before the prisoner could be taken to jail.

Mrs. Carrie Faulknor, widow of the late Thomas Faulknor, who died from injuries received while at work in the Hunter-street tunnel on Aug. 31, has begun an action through her solicitors, Teetzel, Harrison & McBrayne, against P. C. Clifford & Sons and Andrew Onderdonk for $10,000 damages. The names of four infant Faulknor children are mentioned in the writ as plaintiffs, the action being brought on their behalf by their mother.

The plaintiffs claim that Thomas Faulknor's death was caused by the defendants negligence in not having the bank shored up so as to prevent accident.

The ledger keeper in the Bank of Commerce has been suspended. No suspicion of dishonesty rests against him, but the bank authorities think it was carelessness on his part that Palmer got away with the amount he did. The authorities deny the defalcation amounted to $50,000, and $15,000 is now set down as the amount.

The inquest on the death of Isabella Marshall's child that died yesterday in Mrs. Pinkett's baby farm, Hunter-street west, resulted in a verdict being brought in that the child came to its death from natural causes, but a doctor should have been called in before it died.

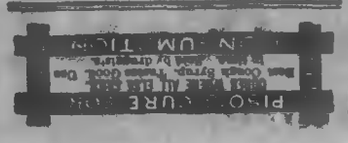
TOPOGRAPHY OF BEHRING SEA.

Report of the Commander of the U.S. Steamer Albatross.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The report of Lieutenant-Commander Drake of the Fish Commission steamer Albatross of his summer's cruise in Behring Sea, containing the result of the investigations made on the Siberian coast of Behring Sea that it is marked on the charts about 150 miles further east than it ought to be, has been received in Washington. Commander Drake's errand was two-fold, to watch for violators of the sealing regulations and to determine by careful and extensive soundings the general submarine topography of Behring Sea.

The soundings developed the fact that the Behring Sea basin is a vast sunken plain, which is characteristic of all the great bodies of water.

Commander Drake made a careful examination of the rookeries in Pribiloff Islands and also of the extensive rookeries on Behring Island. Of the American position he says: "I am convinced that the rookeries are fast being depleted and that the virtual extinction of the seals is a question of only a few years, if their slaughter is permitted to continue as at present. The catch this year will not vary much from that of last year. I discovered no violation of the law, and believe that the sealers are generally inclined to respect its provisions."



In discussing Commander Drake's assertion regarding the location of the Siberian coast, officials of the Coast and Geological Survey say they are not surprised at the statement. Considering the character of the appliances and the general conditions that obtained when the surveys of the Siberian coast, to which Commander Drake refers, were made, the coast survey officials say it would be a matter of surprise if there were not more serious errors than the location of a line 15 miles out of place, committed.

Ride With Your Head to the Engine.

"In riding on a Pullman car," said a colored porter more than usually observant, "sleep with you head toward the engine. There are not so many head-on collisions on the railroads, experience has shown, and besides the danger is less from a rear-end collision. The reason for this is that every passenger train has its own right of way and runs regularly, and is looked for by the trains running ahead of it. The greatest danger is from a train behind which doesn't know when we have stopped or broken something and been forced to stop. This is the chief reason for sleeping this way, but there are others.

"You get the draft in the right place," the porter continued, "with your head toward the engine. Your head feels cool without being exposed to the flood of air you would get if you were pointing the other way. But the most important reason for traveling this way is the matter of the circulation of your blood. The motion of the train is so strong and steady that it sends all the blood toward the end that is furthest from the engine. Put your feet to the engine and all your blood rushes to your head and gives you a restless night. Put your head to the engine and the blood goes away from your head, leaving it cool and easy, so you can rest like a child. When you have got yourself fixed this way, and, moreover, have got in the middle of the car, because it is the safest, then you are ready for a good night's sleep."—Chicago Tribune.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

RUGBY MEETING.

Owing to the poor attendonce at the Rugby practices, so far, this season, a special meeting of all those interested in Rugby football has been called for Wednesday evening next, at eight o'clock, in the club rooms, over the Palace Restaurant. Those desiring the game continued will do well to attend, as unless the meeting warrants it, and the members will all promise faithfully to turn out for practices, Rugby will be a thing of the past for this season.

THE WHEEL.

The poor Class B man is evidently doomed. The C.A.A.A. on Saturday adopted a resolution which effectually shows in what opinion they hold that class of riders. If the C.W.A. does not at the annual meeting next Good Friday take the initiative and come out boldly for amateur and professional classes, the Canadian Amateur Association will take a hand in the game.

The roads yesterday were in great shape for wheeling, and as the weather could not have been improved upon, the combination was too strong for the great majority of the active riders to resist, and nearly all day the roads were kept hot by the "scorchers."

At Toronto Island on Saturday Angus McLeod, paced by Gordon and Brown rode a quarter in 26 flat.

Jack Anderson, the R.C.B.C. speedy road rider will make an endeavour to break the 15-mile record over the Kingston road course, paced by Greatrix and a couple of other riders.

T. B. McCarthy reduced the 20-mile record of 59.40 that he made in the R.Q.T. race at Stratford, in a handicap local race on Saturday to 57.20. There were twelve starters and he finished third.

BASEBALL.

Cleveland, Oct. 5.—Cleveland administered the most severe drubbing to Baltimore to-day that the Temple Cup series has seen. Young was a complete puzzle to Hanlon's men, and they faced him like defeated men from the first innings. The only chance the pennant-winners had to score was in the eighth innings, when they bunched three singles and Keeler crossed the plate. Tebeau's men hit McMahon about when they pleased. Six of their seven runs were earned.

Both teams put up great games in the field. McKean and Kelley made the only errors, and they were both excusable. Kelley's was a bad throw to the plate from centre field, on which Young scored. McKean fumbled a hot grounder. The crowd numbered 15,000, the largest in the history of the game here. There were more people on the grounds than in the stands, and a two-base hit ground rule was made. This robbed Blake of a home run hit in the seventh. The ball went to the centre-field fence.

A. W. Smith Finished Third.

Newport, R.I., Oct. 5.—The national golf tournament came to a close last night on the Newport links. It was medal day in the championship tournament over a course of 36 holes. Most of the professionals were old and tried men, who had won laurels in the Old Country before coming to America, and have made excellent records in this country, but all these, including Dunn, Campbell, Davis and Foulis, who had been named as probable champions for this year, were defeated by young Harry Rawlins, an assistant at the Newport links, who won the tournament, and is therefore the professional champion of the United States.

Rawlins is only 19 years of age, and two years and a half ago was employed on the links at Benbridge, on the Isle of Wight. The summaries:

Yale Athletes Defeat Cambridge.

New York, Oct. 5.—The last international event of importance in the year of sport, 1895, was decided to-day at Manhattan Field, when the sons of Old Eli triumphed over the crack athletes from the English Varsity, on the banks of the Cam, and the blue Y of Yale was placed above the light-blue banner of Cambridge in eight of the 11 events decided.

Between 8000 and 9000 persons paid for admission to Manhattan Field, and fully as many more availed themselves of places of vantage overlooking the field. Summaries:

100 yard dash—W. M. Richards, Yale, 1; R. W. Burnett, Yale, 2; H. Lewin, Cambridge, 3. Time 10 1-5 sec.

120 yard hurdle race, American style—E. H. Cady, Yale, 1; G. B. Hatch, Yale, 2; L. E. Pilkington, Cambridge, 3. Time 16 sec.

300 yard run—W. M. Richards, Yale, 1; C. H. Lewin, Cambridge, 2; W. Fitzherbert, Cambridge, 3. Time 32 2-5 sec.

Half-mile run—F. S. Horan, Cambridge, 1; P. W. Crane, Yale, 2. Time 2m. 2-5s. Each college started only one representative. The race was a gift for the Cambridge president, who made the running from the start.

1 mile run—W. E. Lutyens, Cambridge, 1; J. E. Morgan, Yale, 2; H. J. Davenport, Cambridge, 3. Time 4m. 35 3-5s.

440 yard run—E. H. Lewin, Cambridge, 1; W. M. Richards, Yale, 2; W. Fitzherbert, Cambridge, 3. Time 49 4-5s.

120 yard hurdle, English style, on grass, with fixed hurdles—G. B. Hatch, Yale, 1; W. M. Fletcher, Cambridge, 2; E. H. Cady, Yale, 3. Time 16s.

Running high jump—J. H. Thompson, jr., Yale, 5 feet 8¼ inches, 1; F. M. Jennings, Cambridge, and L. P. Sheldon, Yale, tied for second place at 5 feet 7¼ inches. Johnston was the first to go out, at 5 feet 6¼ inches. The others all failed at 5 feet 9¼ inches, and after a lot of tedious trials Thompson won the tie, clearing 5 feet 8¾ inches. Jennings and Sheldon tied for second, but did not jump off.

Running broad jump—L. P. Sheldon, Yale, 21 feet 4¼ inches, 1; F. M. Jennings, Cambridge, 21 feet, 2; R. Mitchell, Yale, 20 feet 9¾ inches, 3.

Putting 16 lb. shot—W. O. Hickok, Yale, 42 feet 2 inches, 1; A. Brown, Yale, 40 feet 3 inches, 2; E. J. Watson, Cambridge, 37 feet 2½ inches, 3.

Throwing 16-lb. hammer—W. O. Hickok, Yale, 130 feet 7 inches, 1; H. P. Cross, Yale, 117 feet 6 inches, 2; A. B. Johnston, Cambridge, 107 feet 8 inches, 3.

THE MANITOBA HARVEST.

The Farmers of the North West Will Have Plenty of Money to Spend.

Winnipeg, (Special) Oct. 7.—The prospects of a good year for the Manitoba farmers are now assured, thanks to the abundant harvest. One of the causes for the sickness prevalent last year will now be obviated, as the farmers will have more money to spare for the purchase of the necessities for health. One of the straws which shows which way the wind is blowing is the fact that druggists are ordering the well-known remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, in unusually large quantities. The inhabitants of the province are well aware of the value of the medicine, and only the financial stringency has hitherto prevented its universal use.

We are positive, that we sell the best class of Ready-to-wear Clothing. Grafton & Co.

is the increasing demand for Osh-k-Osh Tea. This is the best forty cent tea on the Canadian market. This is no idle talk boast. It stays at the head of the head of its class, and is being sold at the low figure of twenty-five cents. Like our thirty-five cent tea, it is a leader; but unlike it in this respect—you can always buy our thirty-five cent tea for thirty-five cents, but shortly you will have to pay forty cents for Osh-k-Osh. SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.

Britain's Live Topic is a School Question.

SHALL THEY RECEIVE STATE AID?

Demand Made That Sectarian Schools, if Efficient, Receive Government Aid—Supporters of Such Schools Differ and a Vigorous Opposition is Being Waged.

New York, Oct. 6.—Mr. Isaac N. Ford cables from London to The Tribune: Sir John Tenniel hits off the chief topic of the week in a cartoon for Punch. The voluntary school system is personified as poor, neglected Smike with a Cardinal, a Church vicar and a Wesleyan preacher at the door quarrelling over his fate, while Mrs. Nickleby Balfour rattles on to John Bull without saying anything more definite than "If it could be settled in a friendly manner and some fair arrangement was come to, I do think it might be very satisfactory and pleasant to all parties." That is a pictorial presentment of what is rapidly becoming a burning question in England. Great momentum has been imparted to the discussion of the question of State aid for voluntary or sectarian schools by the appearance of Cardinal Vaughan's leter in The Times. He has proposed a basis of common action on the part of the Churchmen, Roman Catholics and Wesleyans interested in preserving these schools. He holds that any school offering efficient facilities for elemental education ought to be maintained at the expense of the State. His proposal is not definite, but apparently he favors assistance in the form of a fixed sum for every pupil trained in religious schools. The Archbishop of Canterbury has called a private conference of Churchmen identified with voluntary schools; it will meet next week, and discuss the subject.

Scores of letters have appeared in The Times on this question from all sources. One of the most curious facts brought out is by Dr. Aubre, who shows that Mr. Gladstone, twenty-five years ago, forecast the present controversy and favored education entirely secular in public hours, with the largest facilities for religious teaching outside those hours, but was compelled by the non-conformist agitation to alter his policy. The Rev. Jospeh Parker has made an adroit reply to the Cardinal's letter, asserting that the only way out of the difficulty in rate-supported schools is to withdraw religion from the control of the State. If we cannot agree upon a common religion, he asks, how can we agree to levy a common rate in support of any and every kind of religious teaching? The Congregational Union at Brighton has taken a similar view, and recommends the formation of a national committee to resist any further endowment of sectarian schools. London Non-Conformist and other religious bodies have declared their hostility to State aid for voluntary schools, and have demanded the extension of board schools.

This controversy has grown out of the dual system created by Mr. Forster's Education Act. Board schools were organized with ample sources of financial supply in local taxation; voluntary schools were allowed to draw an inadequate degree of support from the State if subjected to the inspection of the local board and operated under the conscience clause. The board schools, with increasing rates, have flourished, while the voluntary schools have cost ten shillings less per pupil and have barely held their own. In fact, they have often declined, and sometimes been closed altogether. Some local boards have gone out of their way to harass these schools, and Mr. Acland, while Minister of Education, enforced the sanitary rules against them most rigorously and appeared anxious to compel many of them to close their doors, so that the board schools could be opened in their places. In the last election the friends of Church, Wesleyan and Roman Catholic schools strongly opposed the Liberal candidates, and are now demanding that the Unionist Government shall come to their rescue with a new Act of Parliament.

Lord Salisbury and Mr. Balfour have apparently warned the leaders of the movement that they cannot expect the Ministry to act unless they can agree in advance among themselves on what they want. Probably the Ministry would prefer to have these rivals continue to disagree, for that would justify the Government's inaction. The largest majority in Parliament would be unsafe if this question of paying for the support of sectarian schools outright from the State Treasury or by local rates were brought forward, especially when neither Roman Catholics nor Churchmen are willing to surrender control of them to the district boards.

To remove the constipated habit, the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

Re-opening

Of his New Premises and Semi-Annual Display of

Millinery and Mantles

WILL BE ON

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY,

OCTOBER 9th and 10th.

When the entire store will be thrown open to the public for inspection.

After many months of building operations our new premises are at last completed and we think you will say they are one of the finest in the province.

It has been planned with a view for the convenience and a shopping place for the masses and is now packed with choice goods from all the leading Canadian and foreign markets, and after 27 years in the Dry Goods business you will pardon us for saying we know the wants of the people and how and where to buy right and we intend this to be an introduction of a Grand Opening Sale.

Our Millinery Opening is later than usual, waiting for the completion of the premises, but it has given our Milliners more time to make an Extra Display of Trimmed Goods. Please remember that our Millinery Opening Days are Wednesday and Thursday, but on Thursday Evening we intend giving an Old-fashioned House-warming to the Buying Public, when you are cordially invited to look through and have some Coffee and Cake with us.

Progress of the Boring for Oil at Athabasca Landing Rumor That Pelletier of Quebec Will Obtain the Vacant Portfolio—Farwell Dinner to Mr. Patterson.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 7.—A farewell dinner was given to Hon. Manitoba, at the Rideau Club to-night About 50 gentlemen were present.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell presided. The toast of the guest of the evening was enthusiastically received. The Hon. Mr. Patterson, in the course of his reply, said: Circumstances have so ordered it and I find myself to-night at the parting of the ways with my face to the setting sun, bound for that great west with which the future of the Dominion is so intimately intertwined. The importance to Canada of these fertile plains was long since recognised. Some 30 years ago Macdonald and Brown labored in concert for their acquisition. Later on, Cartier and Macdougall completed the work, and since then some of the most stirring events in Canadian history have been closely associated with their acquirement and development. The labors of our statesmen have borne fruit and now at the portals of our great west stands a Province destined to have a glorious future. All who have visited Manitoba bear unanimous witness to its capacity to be the home of millions. Many regret the slowness of its growth in population, but that, it may confidently be predicted, will soon be remedied. It is questionable whether the slowness of its growth hitherto has not had its advantages. Upwards of 90 per cent. of the present population of Manitoba are natives of older provinces of the Dominion or children of natives of these provinces. They have taken with them to Manitoba that sturdy capacity for self-government which characterizes the provinces from which they came, and are in the new home with which they have identified themselves building up a community imbued with all the best characteristics of our northern race, self-controlled, law-abiding, industrious and inspired with faith in themselves and hope for their country. The growth of Winnipeg has been remarkable and we all rejoice in its restored prosperity. "Winnipeg," said Sir John Macdonald, in the early 80's, "in 50 years will be the capital of Canada." That prophecy, which sounded at the time as a mere bit of pleasantry—one of the old man's jokes—has grown less visionary each succeeding year. But one decade has passed since it was uttered, four have yet to run, and I venture to think that ere two more have rolled by the fulfilment of Sir John's prediction will be seriously discussed. The people of Winnipeg have great faith in themselves, and where their interests are concerned they have a knack of making themselves heard. Already has the Prairie Province laid aside its swaddling clothes and taken its place, full grown and of age, among the provinces of our Confederation.

No one who has recently visited Manitoba can fail to have been struck with, I will not say maturity, but with evidences of permanent growth on every hand. Reclaimed as it were but yesterday from the wild and woolly west, it has definitely entered upon its great career with a full sense of its responsibility as an intergral portion of the Dominion and Empire. To aid in watching over this new and lusty community, to associate myself with its fortunes, to assist its progress and development is my office and my aspiration during the next few years, and I can assure you, sir, if there is one thing more than another reconciles me to even temporarily leaving Ontario, it is a call to duty at once so aggreable as this. I am, if I may express it, the constitutional link between the rovincial and Federal Governments. This evening, as you are all aware, I am at a considerable distance from my constitutional advisers. Only able to speak through them and not having been furnished with a speech for this occasion, can but indulge in expressions of grateful and friendly sentiments, which, however, do not express one-half I feel, or in some glittering generalities which naturally occur to one's mind in connection with the mention of Manitoba.

But, sir, if my advisers were here to speak for themselves, I can surmise some of the things they might probably say. Among other things they would tell us that Manitoba has been of age for some time; that she has shown a capacity for self-government; that her representatives in the Legislature are men who have given hostages to fortune; who are of such substance and standing and ability in their own province as will compare favorably with representatives in various legislatures of older provinces; that they are quite competent to be entrusted with the task of managing the affairs of Manitoba. These things my advisers would tell you, and no doubt would urge relief of the province from incapacities and disabilities of her nonage, and give her her estate to be controlled by herself, just as are other provinces of the Dominion. No one can retard her progress, but by such action it can be considerably accelerated, and her more rapid development and enhanced prosperity promoted by such a course would tend proportionately to increase the prosperity of the Dominion as a while. Of course, sir, and some o those who hear me to-night, might think my advisers were asking a good deal, but in this world you sometimes have to ask a god deal to get a little.

THE SHORTIS FAMILY INSANE.

Four of the Alleged Murder's Relatives Have Been Insane

Beauharnois, Que., Oct. 8.—The Shortis murder trial reopened at 11 a.m., all the counsel engaged in the case being present. Mr. Shortis, sr., accompanied by Father Dunn, of Waterford, Ireland, occupied his usual seat in the court room. The prisoner walked briskly into the dock, took one quick look around the room, then assumed his customary statuesque attitude. Interpreter Cotte resumed the reading of the report of the Irish commission.

John Collins, aged 46, a constable of Waterford, lived opposite the residence of Shortis. Knew prisoner from boyhood. Shortis often talked with him. He always ranted on his revolver, horses, etc. Was also janitor of the Theatre Royal, and Shortis often gained access to the actors' room with revolvers and bowie knives. "I ordered him out once and he fired a shot through the scenery I always considered him dangerous. I thought it a shame for his parents to send him to America, as I thought he should be put under some restraint."

Cross-examined, he said he also fired a shot through the town clock. I ordered him out of the theatre because he was always flourishing his pistols and offering actors the use of them. Prisoner moved in the best society. I thought he should be locked up, but the intimacy with the family kept me from saying so.

Dr. Sheaf, governor of the Clonmel Lunatic Asylum, swore that four of Shortis' relatives died of insanity. His grandfather also died of softening of the brain.

Thomas Cream testified: "I am a physician in Clonmel and knew the prisoner. Prisoner's grandfather died of softening of the brain; was insane for months before and up to the time of his death, suffering from complete imbecility and had hallucinations that some of his deceased relatives were about him. Towards the end he lost all reasoning power, also his sight, from cerebral disease. Thomas Shortis was 65 years old when he died." This evidence was an important disclosure, and created quite a flutter in he court room. Another witness, Dr. Gardner, Clonmel, Ireland, was also aware that several of Shortis' relatives had died in Clonmel Lunatic Asylum, all of whom were dangerous lunatics.

Gold Dust Used as Track Ballast.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 6.—The gold fever is raging in this section over a startling discovery of placer treasure in Seward County, about 25 miles west of this city. Three miles from Milford a small pleasure resort on Blue River, an old gravel pit, out of which the Burlington Railway has for years been ballasting its tracks, has been found to be rich in gold dust. Sand and gravel from several adjacent farms have given equally rich promise.

ONTARIO'S PREMIER

Back From His Trip and Again at Work.

HIS VIEWS ON PERTINENT TOPICS

The Fate of the Prohibition Appeal Doubtful—The Proposal to Appoint a Colonial Representative on the Supreme Court Bench.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—Sir Oliver Mowat arrived on the C.P.R. train from Montreal at 7.25 last evening. Among the party who met him at the station were Sheriff Mowat, his son; Mr. C. R. W. Biggar, his son-in-law; Mr. Robert Jaffray and a number of ladies. The train arrived ahead of time and Sir Oliver's ministerial colleagues, his private secretary and other friends arrived in time to see their revered chief bowling up to St. George-street in a hack. The "little Premier" was the picture of health, of vigor, when later in the evening he accorded an interview.

Asked as to the probable result of the Prohibition Appeal before the Privy Council, Sir Oliver responded that should the members of the Judicial Committee take the same view as did those who sat on the Scott Act appeal some years ago, it followed that the Province had no jurisdiction in the matter. The Dominion Act had been valid and if the Province had no right to legislate on the question of local option it had no right to do so on one of total prohibition. The present Judicial Committee is, however, differently constituted from the former one and from the observations of some members of it the views taken by them seemed different also. This was not to say that the judgment on the Scott Act appeal had been a wrong one, but the judgment will turn on some different questions of jurisdiction. Just what view they would take he would not attempt to say. He had watched the case and consulted with counsel for the Province, having been in attendance for four days in all.

"This was not your first appearanace before the Privy Council," said the reporter.

"Oh, no," said the Premier. "I have appeared before it before, notably in the Boundary Case and in the case relating to Indian Titles."

"As to the proposition to appoint a Colonial representative on the Privy Council, I should say that as at present provided the change would not be of much service. The proposal is to appoint a Superior Colonial Judge from one of the colonies who will not sever his own court but act from time to time at a nominal salary. By this means an Australian judge might sit on a Canadian case. If cases are well argued, the decision of the present court is as reliable as that of any court could be, however constituted."

Sir Oliver said also that in public as well as private cases, he thought that the case should be argued by an able Canadian lawyer or by an able English lawyer acting in consultation with the colonial barrister. Sir Oliver lays great stress on the "able" and takes the view that however judicial the minds of English counsel questions may arise which are not analogous to anything in the experience of the legal minds of the Mother Country. He says, however, that the prestn judicial committee is made up of able and learned men.

During his stay in London he took a deep interest in the appeal of the Legislature of Nova Scotia against the decision of the courts declaring that the Legislature has no right to vote itself and its individual members the same privileges enjoyed by the House of Commons. In this case it was on the right of the Nova Scotia Assembly to commit for contempt of court a Halifax editor who refused to appear before it and receive the censure of the House on an alleged libel he had published. The editor contested the Legislature's privileges in the courts and has been successful so far. Mr. Blake appeared for him before the Privy Council and Nova Scotia's case was argued by Mr. Cohen, an eminent English barrister, and by Attorney-General Longley. As the rights of every Provincial Legislature in the Dominion are at stake, Sir Oliver took a deep interest in the case and was in consultation with counsel during its progress. The decision has not yet been reached.

The British elections absorbed so much of public atention during the remier's visit that he did not hear Canadian affairs much talked of. Ask his opinion on the causes which led to Rosebery's defeat he said that, in his opinion, the weightiest was the opposition of the combined liquor interest in both parties to the local option measure proposed by Sir William Harcourt. The Liberal party lost supporters in its own ranks also by the nature and extent of its program. Some Liberals were opposed to the war on the House of Lords, some to church disestablishment and some to Irish Home Rule.

Sir Oliver will resume his duties today.

The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, promotes regularity of the functions allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of womankind are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

SIR OLIVER AND HIS OPPONENTS.

The Premier of Ontario, Sir Oliver Mowat, in his high office, gives his opponents so few opportunities for fair criticism, that the most fallacious fault finding is indulged in, and the London Free Press has the effrontery to disparage Sir Oliver's ability as a constitutional lawyer, and speaks of Sir Oliver's reference to the courts of the question of the right of the province to enforce prohibition as a means of shirking the plebiscite. The facts are few and simple. In order to create a little political capital for themselves and with the hope of embarrassing the Government, the Opposition in the Ontario Legislature argued that the province had the power to prohibit the sale of intoxicating drinks by retail. On the other hand Sir Oliver contended that the province had no power to prohibit—only to restrict. Mr. Marter introduced his now notorious prohibition bill, and by this time many began to entertain the suspicion that perhaps the province had the power to prohibit. Sir Oliver maintained his contention in face of the temporary unpopularity his position might engender. Mr. Marter's bill was voted down by the Legislature and Sir Oliver showed his faith in the correctness of his position by submitting a test case to the Supreme Court, which decided that the Province had not the right to prohibit. Thereupon a case was agreed upon by the Dominion and Ontario governments for submission to the final court of appeal, the Judicial committee of the Privy Council. In connection with this case Sir Oliver's visit to England was chiefly made. Although the decision in the case argued before the Privy Council will not be known for some time, it is pretty certain from the remarks made by the judges during the argument that the decision will be that the Province has not the right to prohibit, and that another will be added to Sir Oliver's score of constitutional victories that have so often covered his enemies with confusion.

THE KINGSTON BYE-ELECTION.

Dr. Smythe, who was nominated at a recent Conservative convention to oppose Hon. Mr. Harty in the bye-election in Kingston, has refused the candidature. He is evidently afraid to face the music, and leaves his Conservative friends in the lurch. Seeing that to-morrow is nomination day and that it will be difficult to secure a candidate to take Dr. Smythe's place, it is very probable that Hon. Mr. Harty will be elected by acclammation.

HAMILTON has downed Toronto for once. The Ambitious City has a grand Gymkhana to crow over, while Toronto's only boast is a 500-hundred-dollars-a-day sewer expert.

THE report of the superintendent of the new Soo canal shows that from the opening of the lock, Sept. 9th, to the end of the month, 414 vessels passed through, an aggregate capacity of 316,132 tons, which shows that the Canadian waterway is being used by the largest class of lake vessels.

OTTAWA city is flourishing. Its population is now 49,000, making it the second largest city in Ontario, and the assessment has increased $400,000. The Capital's prosperity is not to be wondered at—there are so many leaks in the public chest that it would be surprising if the city was not absorbing a good deal of this waste of good money.

Biliousness and Liver Complaint, headache, etc., are cured by Burdock Pills.

LE TEMPS, Conservative, and so one of the inspired Tory papers, declares solemnly, that "there is a prime minister, but no chief of the Cabinet, Sir Mackenzie Bowell reigning, but not governing. His colleagues trouble themselves no more about him than if he did not exist." A nice way to treat a prime minister, surely! Who is the dictator of the Cabinet? Is it Ouimet, or Caron or Haggart? It is quite evident that the present Premier, whose advanced years are about his only claim to respect, does not possess the confidence or political respect of his party. One proof of that is the character of his recent reception in Peterborough.

THE financial returns for the year show the revenue to have been $33,929,809, and the expenditure $38,009,341, leaving a deficit of $4,079,532. This is alleged to greatly exceed Mr. Foster's expectations. It exceeds them, it appears, by nearly half a million. Mr. Foster is thankful for small mercies, apparently. No jugglery with figures, or mutual admiration and congratulations, will alter the fact that the national finances are in a most deplorable condition. The results of sixteen years of abuse are now being seen in all their grim reality. It was wise on the part of the Finance Minister to avoid any reference to the N. P. in his budget speech. Mr. Foster's brilliant failure as a Finance Minister is one of the most conspicuous features of his career. He spends with no sparing hand when others supply the funds. When his income was represented by a stray $10 a night for a temperance lecture he was doubtless a little more prudent in scattering cash.

ONE of the promises of that political Ananias, the N. P., was that it would give constant employment and high wages. As to the high wages some startling facts were brought to light in the report of the Labour Bureau and of various delegates concerning the rate of wages paid in Montreal, at the Trades and Labour meeting held the other evening. The pay envelope of a man who worked for a civic sewer contractor was produced, showing that he had received only $3.60 for 4½ day's work or 80c per day. It was also stated that the same contractor paid some of his men only 75 cents a day. In dry goods stores men are paid $3 a week for 72 hours' work, and women receive as little as 50 cents a week for the same working hours. The council passed a resolution calling upon the city council to have civic work done by day's work at a minimum wage of 15 cents per hour. A resolution was also adopted calling upon the Legislature to completely abolish the seizure of wages. "Protection," it seems, does not protect the workingman.

KEENE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Our sidewalks are in bad repair in all parts of the village. Loose planks may be found which make it very dangerous to the citizens, especially after night. If the council don't look after it and get them repaired some one will be getting injured and they will have damages to pay.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

DOUBLE DECEPTION.

The Public Often Imposed On.

Proprietary Medicines and Pills That are Utterly Worthless.

When You Ask For Paine's Celery Compound do not Allow Your Dealer to Recommend Something Else.

Yes, there is a vast amount of double deception practised in the country. The double deception imposed on a too-confiding people just means the making of worthless liquid medicines and pills, and putting them into the stores of dealers, who often recommend them when Paine's Celery Compound is asked for, because they pay larger and handsomer profits.

This work of falsely recommending and substituting, is fraught with many evils. It encourages deception and falsehood; it brings the public to the position of slaves to the will of the grasping dealer; it tends to prolong sufferings and agonies when the sick are forced to buy what they do not ask for; and lastly, the vile work of substituting assists the spread and circulation of preparations that should be prohibited by law.

This work of recommending poor and trashy medicines when Paine's Celery Compound is asked for, is meeting with its just reward in many places. The substituting and deceptive dealers are being shunned and the money for Paine's Celery Compound goes into the hands of upright and honest business men, contented with moderate profits, and who are anxious to give men, women and children just what they ask for.

The great desire of sick and diseased people is a new life, which means, health strength and bodily vigour. This condition is surely and speedily realized when Paine's Celery Compound is used. This fact is proved every day by the number of testimonials received from cured people. The clergy, medical men, bankers merchants and the everyday people testify in favour of Paine's Celery Compound; such letters cannot be shown by the proprietors of the medicines you are asked to avoid.

SKIPPED TO CANADA.

Pension Examiner Jordan of Grand Rapids Levants.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 7.—United States Pension Examiner James A. Jordan, who has been a trusted employe of the United States Government for years and who was a well-known society man, is said to be in Canada. Jordan left here Sept. 21, but little was thought of his absence until an indictment was handed down on Saturday by the United States court charging him with making false returns to the Government as to expenses. Irregularities in Jordan's books have been discovered dating as far back as 1892. He is supposed to be in Kingston, Ont.

No British-Uruguay Trouble.

London, Oct. 8.—The Pall Mall Gazette says it is authorized to state that Dr. Nien, the Uruguayan Minister here, has heard nothing from his Government in regard to the report that his recall has been demanded by Mr. Baring, British Minister to Uruguay, or the British consul at Montevideo, nor has he been instructed by his Government, as alleged, to protest against Mr. Baring's report upon the condition of Uruguayan finances.

Omnium Wins the Prix Du Conseil.

TARTE IS COMING.

He Will Accompany Mr. Laurier on His Tour.

INVITED BY THE ONTARIO LIBERALS

The Member for L'Islet Will Make His First Speech in Kingston Oct. 17 — McKenzie Writing the Article Condemning Ontario Separate Schools.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—The announcement that Mr. J. Israel Tarte has been invited to accompany Hon. Wilfrid Laurier to the Province of Ontario and that the member for L'Islet has accepted causes a good deal of surprise in Liberal circles here when it is remembered that Mr. Tarte had to forego the pleasure of accompanying his leader to the sister province.

"Mr. Tarte," so the notice reads, "member for L'Islet, has been invited by the Liberal leaders of Ontario to speak in English to the English in several of the counties to be visited by Hon. Mr. Laurier. Mr. Tarte has accepted with pleasure and on the 17th of October will join the Liberal chieftain in Kingston and on the 18th he will speak at Sydenham, on the 19th at Markham, and on the 22nd at Galt." This appears quite authentic and the proposed march of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Tarte across the premier province will soon be begun.

Mr. Tarte, M.P., is far from repudiating the article in favor of public schools, which was reproduced in these columns. The member for L'Islet states in a letter published today that although he did not write the article himself it came from a gentleman of great experience in matters of public instruction and one who is thoroughly conversant with the school system of Ontario.

The directors of the Banque du Peuple, and several of the largest shareholders, held a meeting to-day, when the circular which is to be sent to each depositor was read and approved of. The net assets after paying all obligations and allowing for bad and doubtful debts will be a trifle over $400,000, showing that the loss sustained out of a capital of $1,200,000, and a reserve of $500,000, is in the neighborhood of $1,400,000. The following is the statement of liabilities and assets which will be issued to the depositors and stockholders of the liabilities: Balance of circulation, $145,326; due to Governments, $247,739; due to the public, $4,245,432; other liabilities, $195,454.

Assets: Cash on hand and due from banks, $804,697; debts due bank, $5,152,843; real estate and other assets, $639,787.

Some days ago the Quebec Government entered a claim against the city for $500,000, being the alleged amount due the crown from the fines of the Recorder's Court. There was found today, however, a copy of an Act by which the Mercier Government engaged to abandon all claim against the city up to April 9th, 1887, providing $125,000 was forthcoming. This amount was subsequently paid.

MANITOBA'S CATTLE TRADE.

30,000 Head Shipped by One Firm This Season.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 8.—The Provincial Government has despatched W. D. Scott to Toronto as Ontario immigration agent. Mr. Scott will visit agricultural districts during the winter, delivering lectures, showing Manitoba products and giving general information to intending settlers. He expects to organize several parties of colonists.

Although Sir John Schults is administrator during the absence of Lieut.-Governor Patterson, the Provincial Government have sent all orders-in-council recently passed to Ottawa for Mr. Patterson's signature.

Premier Greenway estimates that there are fully twenty million bushels of high grade wheat in Manitoba besides ten million bushels of low grade merchantable wheat and five million bushels of feed wheat. The Premier places the yield of oats at nearly thirty million bushels and barley at six millions. These figures are based on observations of threshing returns.

To show how rapidly the stock raising industry is developing in Manitoba, it is only necessary to state that with six weeks of the season yet ahead, one firm of cattle exporters has shipped thirty thousand head, while last year's total was twenty-two thousand.

J. Austin Smith, of Toronto, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was arraigned in the Police Court to-day and remanded for a week. It is understood that Smith's parents are settling the young man's affairs.

Wheat at Fort William

Fort William, Oct. 8.—Wheat receipts at elevators here during the past week aggregate 635,544 bushels; shipments, 199,976 bushels; in store, 1,322,754 bushels.

JOSIE BENNETT'S MURDER.

The Accused Hackman's Trial Commences in the Buffalo Courts.

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 8.—The trial of Hackman James Towe for the murder of Josie Bennett was called in the Superior Court this morning. Josie Bennett, a fast woman, was found dead in her room on the morning of June 13, 1894, with her face and body terribly beaten and her neck bearing marks of strangulation. Suspicion pointed to Towe, as the guilty man, he having been seen quarreling with the woman about midnight and being known to have been her lover. He was arrested and indicted for murder in the first degree. The Bennett woman was about 30 years of age, and came here from Rochester, Monroe County.

"I was troubled for a long time with an itching humor on the scalp," says Mr. D. P. Davis, Neal's Landing, Fla., "but at last, being recommended Ayer's Hair Vigor, I tried it, and a complete cure was effected. Everyone who has used it speaks well of this dressing.

Scott's Sarsaparilla

A CURE for Inflammatory Rheumatism is produced by an excess of uric acid in the blood. Paralysis is merely a dead circulation produced by impure and impoverished blood. So-called neuralgia of the thigh is seldom rheumatism; constitutional rheumatism is hereditary; syphilitic results from syphilis; gout is caused by high living; sluggish circulation affects the heart.

"THE KIND THAT CURES"

Thus the whole line of rheumatic diseases owe their being to an affected circulation of impure blood. No person can suffer a rheumatic pain that has a free and equal circulation of pure blood, and this accounts for Scott's Sarsaparilla curing the supposed incurable cases. It eradicates all rheumatic poisons and adds from the blood and equalizes the circulation.

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from [illegible] prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CAANDA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	Per Cent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.68	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 23, Annual Premium $177.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CATHOLIC ASSOCIATION.

The Members Assemble and Nominate New Officers—The Election Next Monday Night.

Mr. Wm. Rudkins, president of the Catholic Association, occupied the chair at a large and enthusiastic gathering of the members of that organization last night. The occasion was the annual meeting for the purpose of the submission of reports and the nomination of officers.

The financial statement was most satisfactory to the members, showing the Association to be on a good footing for the ensuing year.

Nominations for the different offices were then made with the following results:

President—W. Rudkins, J. Daly, J. L. O'Brien, M. O'Brien.

First Vice President—J. L. O'Brien, P. J. Doris, G. W. Riley, T. J. Doris.

Second Vice-President—Angus McPherson, James Lynch.

The Ven. Archdeacon Casey and Rev. Father Fitzpatrick were elected by the members as two of the directors, and the remaining thirteen will be elected at a meeting called for Monday evening the 14th inst., when the balloting for the offices will take place. It is urgently requested that everyone interested in the progress of the Association be present at the meeting on Monday evening next.

A committee of ladies was also named to assist in arranging the entertainments which it is proposed to hold during the coming season.

Obituary.

The death of Mr. John Brown occurred on Saturday last at the Nicholls Hospital. The deceased was the victim of that dread disease consumption, and had been in the hospital only about four weeks. His body was taken to Mr. John Easton's, in Otonabee, on Sunday, he having resided with Mr. Easton for several years. Mr. Brown was 72 years of age at the time of his death and had lived in Otonabee since 1837, and being married to a Miss Parker, of Dummer, who, together with one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Anderson, of Dummer, survives him.

A Very Sad Case.

The many friends of Mr. Will McIntosh, of the Canadian General Electric Works, will regret to learn that he is not recovering as fast as might be wished from the recent accident which befel him in Guelph, when he broke his leg. He is still an inmate of the hospital there, and it is feared that partial paralysis of his lower limbs is setting in. During the time Mr. McIntosh has been a student at the Electric Works, he has made himself a great favourite in town, and is greatly missed from amongst his large circle of friends. His home is in Woodstock.

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; the loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibited. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to that of repose—sleep, with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid to the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regains his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

The Michael Young Concert.

The music-loving people of Peterborough are again reminded of the excellent concert which will be given in Bradburn's Opera House on Oct. 10th. Those contributing to the programme are vocalists of more than ordinary merit, while Master Young is a veritable phenomenon. He has won golden opinions wherever he has sung. The Brantford Expositor says:—"Master Young has a clear cultivated soprano voice of surpassing sweetness and marvellous range. His enunciation was quite distinct, even in the rear portion of the edifice. * * It was somewhat difficult to reconcile the great burst of melody with the diminutive figure of the youthful singer. Master Young soon proved himself a well trained soloist and never lost his complete control over his voice." Concert, Thursday, Oct. 10th. Admission, 25 and 50 cents.

—The Josephine Kid Glove Cleaner is unlike any other—that's the good of it. Ladies will not do without it at twice the cost once they use it. Sold by Robt. Fair, sign of the Golden Lion, headquarters for Perrin Frères' celebrated Kid Gloves in newest styles for all occasions.

THE VILLAGE COUNCIL IN REGULAR MONTHLY SESSION.

The Village Wants an Account from the Town Concerning the Fire Protection.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ashburnham Council last night there were present the Reeve, in the chair, and Messrs. Calcutt, Craig, Smith and Rutherford.

Thos. Mitchell submitted an account of $105.60 for drawing gravel and stone for the corporation. Members of the council claimed that Mr. Mitchell had charged 45c a load for gravel instead of 40c as agreed upon and that he had also drawn more material than was authorised. The matter was finally settled by the payment being ordered of all the material drawn, the rate for the gravel being fixed at 40 cents.

On motion of Councillors Smith and Rutherford it was resolved that the clerk acknowledge the receipt of the town clerk's communication re fire protection and request a copy of the account regarding the same.

The council then adjourned.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH NOTES.

The Widows and Orphans' Fund collection will be made in St. Luke's church on Sunday next.

The Archbishop of Canterberry has recently issued a pastoral letter to English Churchmen on church unity. The rector will give a special address on this letter on Friday evening next at the usual service. The public is invited to attend.

The Visiting Chapter of St. Luke's Guild held their annual meeting at Mrs. Warde's house on Thursday last. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Warde's resignation was reluctantly received. Mrs. Meade was elected to be her successor and Miss Calcutt was re-elected secretary. After the transaction of business, Mrs. Warde entertained the chapter at tea.

The rector has been invited to preach the the harvest thanksgiving sermon at Christ church, Belleville.

There will be divine service at Auburn on Thursday evening next, at 7.30, and on every alternate Thursday until further notice.

PERSONAL.

Miss Maggie E Morgan, after an extended visit with friends in town, has returned to Detroit.

Mrs. John Coats, of Midland, is visiting in town, the guest of Mrs. John Frame, 89 Gilmour street.

Messrs. Thos. Boddy, Wm. Snowdon, Will Brine and A. Garlick are off to the back lakes on a duck shooting expedition.

Rev. C. B. Kenrick, rector of St. Mark's church, Port Hope, is in town until Thursday looking up a few of his old friends. The lake air of Port Hope seems to agree with the former Curate of St. John's, who is looking exceptionally well, although working very hard to raise a sufficient sum for the renovation and improvement of St. Mark's. His many friends in Peterborough were delighted, indeed, by his unexpected visit.

Mr. Sise, President of the Bell Telephone Company, recently visited Vancouver and inspected the system in that city. Of his visit the News-Advertiser says: "Mr. Sise praised the telephone system in this city, remarking that the line of poles on which the wires are carried here was wonderful. Mr. H. W. Kent, manager of the local company, was at one time manager of the Bell Telephone Company's office in Peterborough, Ont. Mr. Sise speaks in high terms of his ability in this line of business." Mr. Kent has evidently earned the holiday he is about to take in California.

—In Kingston meetings of council committees are not of the star chamber variety. Newspaper reporters get reports of what is done.

—Queen Victoria is said to pointedly ignore the salutes of ladies—even those well known to her—who happen to pass her carriage on bicycles.

—Health Brand Underwear—soft as down, comforting the most delicate and sensitive skin—for sale by R. H. Kells, at about the price of other good brands. dw —Cobourg farmers are disgusted with the rise in prices of the toll roads, and threaten to build a new road from Cobourg to Port Hope to follow the windings of the lake shore. To the great natural beauties of this route is added the beauty of escaping payment for the privilege of driving over roads that, it is claimed, are not kept in the best of repair.

—Duck hunters are getting their utensils and camping outfits in readiness for their annual fall hunt, quite a number going to the back lakes, while the majority go to Rice lake. The Harry Neil party, which comprises several crack shots, will leave for Rice lake the latter part of the month, and will no doubt as usual give a good account of itself.

October 21st, 22nd, 24th and 25th the Days Selected.

Major Bell this afternoon received a telegram from Deputy Adjutant General Cotton, Kingston, informing him that the date of the inspection of the 57th Rangers would be on October 21st, 22nd, 24th and 25th. On the first three days the inspection of the companies will take place and the inspection of the battalion on the afternoon of the 25th.

It is absolutely essential that every member of the battalion, officer, non-com and private, turn out at parade this evening. It is to be hoped that the Rangers will put the best foot forward and win the trophy again this year. Rangers, the eyes of ten thousand citizens are upon you.

THE NEW BENSFORT BRIDGE.

To be Formally Opened on Wednesday, October 23rd.

The commissioners in charge of the construction announce the completion and formal opening of the new steel highway bridge, which represents the "short cut" from North Monaghan to Peterborough, for Wednesday, Oct. 23rd.

The ceremony of the formal opening will take place at 2.30 o'clock p.m. The programme which has not yet been completely arranged will include addresses by gentlemen, representative of the several interests concerned. The bridge is about completed, and fuller particulars as to the opening on Oct. 23rd, will be made known before that date.

Don't You Remember Long Ago!

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past. School days with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamour and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now locked up in the eternity of the past. In a similar way we recall the the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now.

THE OUTFALL SEWER CONTRACT AWARDED.

MESSRS. WINCH AND GRANT RECEIVE THE CONTRACT FOR SECTION 2.

A Large and Interested Audience—Animated Discussion on the Contract Question—Ex-Councillor Clinkscale Appointed Street Inspector—Communications and Accounts—Other Business Done.

The Council Chamber was crowded, last evening, and by the many whispered consultations amongst the councillors before the session was opened, it would have been apparent to even a stranger that something out of the ordinary was in the wind. The rumour that a very stormy meeting had been held by the Sewerage Committee on Saturday evening was responsible for the crowd which was anxious to ascertain what would be the result when the question of awarding the sewer tenders came up for discussion.

The mayor was in the chair and the following councillors were present, viz.,—Messrs. Cahill, Best, Denne, Mills, Phelan, Dawson, Clinkscale, Sawers, Stone and Mason.

After the reading of the minutes, the following were disposed of as chronicled below:

COMMUNICATIONS

From J. H. Yelland, Sec. of the Peterborough Fire Brigade, petitioning on behalf of the brigade for suitable clothing to be worn at fires.

Referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

From Wm. Metcalfe asking for more time in which to pay his taxes.

Councillor Stone pointed out that it would be impossible to refer this matter to the Court of Revision, as the Collector should have had the new roll in her hands by the first of the month, and that she could not receive the new roll until the old one had been returned. He asked the council to adopt some measure to relieve the collector.

Councillors Dawson and Mills moved that Mr. Metcalfe be given until Friday at noon to pay his taxes.

The Mayor advised referring the matter to the Court of Revision, as once the matter was in their hands the collector would not press for the payment.

Mr. Stone pointed out that of a necessity the collector would return the roll in two weeks, and that after being once returned there was no way of collecting the taxes unless the corporation brought suit in the Division Court.

The Mayor said that some poor people found it impossible to pay their taxes just now, and that he advised extending the time for the return of the roll, as had been done in other years. As it was, there was was only $1,400 outstanding on the roll.

Mr. Dawson's motion, after some discussion, was changed to read that the collector be given until Friday to return her roll, and was then carried.

From D. J. Ruttan, asking for an extension of time in which to pay his taxes.

Mr. Ruttan's communication came under the same head as that of Mr. Metcalf.

From E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, re Mason vs. Peterborough, stating "This case came on for hearing in the Court of Appeal on Oct. 1 and 2, Mr. Moss, Q.C., and myself appearing for the town, and Mr. Watson, Q.C., for the plaintiff, and as you are already aware the appeal was dismissed with costs. The ground of the judgment of the court was that as the case had been before the same court two years ago on the motion for non suit, the court could not now pronounce a different judgment from that which it had then given—could not in effect reverse its former decision and that the town must go to the Supreme Court to obtain any relief. Two of the judges, Mr. Justice Burton and Mr. Justice Maclennan expressed themselves clearly as of the opinion that on the merits, the town was not liable for damages in a case such as this and they concurred in dismissing the appeal solely on the ground that the court could not reverse its former decision, and that the only remedy was to go to the Supreme Court. The other two judges, Chief Justice Hagarty and Mr. Justice Osler, in addition to stating that the only remedy, if any, that could be given was through the Supreme Court, also submitted that they would not disturb the finding of fact of the trial judge. On the merits, therefore, the court was equally divided in opinion, but upon the other branch of the case they all so fully agreed that they did not even call upon counsel upon the other side to argue the merits of the case.—Received.

From R. Clinkscale, tendering his resignation as councillor for No. 3 Ward.

Mr. Cahill in regard to this communication, stated that it was no secret that Mr. Clinkscale was seeking the appointment of Street Inspector, but that as Mr. Martin had not officially sent in his resignation, it would be well to defer any action until this was received.

Mr. Dawson replied that Mr. Martin had told him on four or five occasions that he would not accept the position of Street Inspector, permanently, if it were offered to him.

On motion of Councillors Stone and Mills, the resignation of Mr. Clinkscale was then accepted.

From F. Bartlett, tendering his services as superintendent on behalf of the town of that portion of the sewer now being tendered for, and stating that if appointed he would devote his whole attention to the work.

Referred to the Committee on Appointments.

From a manufacturing industry, seeking a location.

Referred to the Manufacturers' Committee.

THE SEWERAGE COMMITTEE

through its chairman, Mr. Best, reported that as authorized they had advertised for tenders for the construction of a brick sewer on George street from Townsend to King street and received the following tenders:

H C Winch and Robert Grant	$4,637 00
J J Hartley & W L Innis	4,787 45
Wm Breckenridge	5,199 00
W Langford and R Sheehy	5,300 00
C H Clarke & Co	5,549 00
T Rutherford and Jas Bogue	5,598 00
J H McKnight	6,041 00

Messrs. Best and Denne moved that the contract be awarded Messrs. Winch and Grant, theirs being the lowest tender.

Messrs. Mason and Cahill moved that Messrs. Hartley and Innis be awarded the contract.

Councillor Sawers asked where the money was to come from for the sewer.

Councillor Cahill stated that this was a question which should be settled before anything further was done. The money raised for the outfall sewer was simply to construct the sewer to Townsend street. For any further monies required a bylaw would have to be submitted to the ratepayers for the to cover the cost. He was not objecting to the construction of a sewer, and was in fact in favour of it, as if the work stopped now, the money spent was simply thrown into a sink hole, but the question in regard to the payment of the contractors should be settled before any of the tenders were accepted.

Councillor Dawson was surprised at the remarks of the previous speaker. He wanted to know how it was no mention of such a matter had been made when the scheme was discussed at first. He thought every councillor in the room knew that it was proposed to levy by frontage tax for the cost of constructing the sewer, with the exception of the amount which the town had to pay as its share.

On motion the town solicitor was asked his opinion on the subject.

Mr. Edwards stated that a council could borrow money for the construction of a sewer until it was completed, when the necessary sum to defray the cost could be raised by debentures. If the people interested objected to the work, their remedy lay in petitioning the council to desist. If no petition against the work was received the contract could be let, the money borrowed from a bank and the work commenced. After the completion of the sewer the relative indebtedness of the various properties could be ascertained and the amount assessed as a frontage taxation. Mr. Edwards quoted the enactments affecting the question.

Councillors Cahill and Sawers expressed themselves with the explanation, which they desired merely to be on the safe side, and not to hinder the work on the sewer in any way.

AS PERFECTLY SATISFIED

Mr. McNamara was heard, on motion of Councillor Dawson. He urged the council to award the contract for the sewer from Townsend to King streets to Mr. Hartley, instead of to outsiders. He stated that Mr. Hartley employed local labour at a dollar and a half a day of nine hours, whilst the outsider only paid a dollar and a quarter a day of ten hours.

As the Mayor was about to put the question, Councillor Stone rose to urge that the matter be postponed for a special meeting of the council, as there were two members absent. If there was any material difference between the two lowest tenders he would say give the contract to the lowest tenderer, but when it was only a matter of $150 he would say give it to the man who had paid hundreds of dollars in taxes into the town treasury. Mr. Hartley could be relied upon, whereas Mr. Grant had been continually trying to corner the council through his lawyer, and endeavouring to take them by the throat on every occasion. Mr. Grant had also displayed bad feeling by stopping up the end of the sewer. If he thought Mr. Winch was connected with Mr. Grant's tender, other than merely by name, he would be inclined to favour this tender.

Mr. Winch, on motion, was heard. He said that if the contract was awarded to him and Mr. Grant, he was in it by the contract. He was in it for keeps. As far as giving the contract to a local man went, he thought he was as old a citizen as any of them. If Hartley & Innes' tender had been the lowest, he would not have been heard from if they got the contract, but when Mr. Grant and he had put in the lowest figures he claimed that they should be treated with fairness in the matter. He had paid as much in taxes into the treasury as Mr. Hartley, and assured the council that in this contract he bore his fair share of the responsibility.

Councillor Best, in regard to Mr. Stone's statement relative to Mr. Grant's stopping up one end of the sewer so that it could not be used, replied that a screen had been placed across the end of the sewer, adjoining section No. 2, but that water could pass through it easily, though not pieces of brick, etc., from other portions of the sewer.

Councillor Stone understood that Councillor Best was misinformed on the subject. He had heard that the manhole was filled with gravel and rubbish of all descriptions.

Councillor Cahill rose to state that he intended to vote on the question without fear or favour. H understood that a written report by the engineer and inspector regarding section No. 1 of the sewer had not, as yet, been PUBLISHED, AS PROMISED.

He would like to have this before awarding Mr. Grant another contract. Mr. Grant could not complain of his treatment by the town. The Council had changed the contract from an invert sewer to a flat-bottomed one to suit him, and had allowed him to withdraw his offer of not drawing any payments on the work for twelve months after the completion of the work. He was in favour of giving the contract to a local man. A man who lived in the town and bought his produce here, and who would employ only home labour on the job. He earnestly pressed the Council at some length to coincide with his views on the subject. There had been $170,000 sunk, he said, in a concern by patriotic citizens, not from any wish for gain, but merely to see the town prosper. Was the Council to say to such men as these: "You are all wrong in your theory, you should let the town look after itself. No! not by any means." Even such villages as Warsaw or Lakefield would set an example to Peterborough in patronising home talent and encouraging our home contractors to remain with us and help in building up our town.

Mr. Best pointed out that the Toronto men who had been working with Mr. Grant were now in the employ of Bogue & Rutherford, and also that they were working ten hours a day, as they did on section No. 1. Mr. Grant and other Toronto contractors had been asked to tender, and if their tenders were not to be accepted it was not the right thing to bring them here at considerable expense to themselves to figure on the contract. Home contractors, as he had just proven, did not necessarily have to employ home labour or pay any more than $1.25 a day. If Mr. Hartley was present and proposed to work his men only nine hours a day and yet pay a dollar and a half, he would like to hear him say so, himself.

Mr. Dawson thought with Mr. Best that Mr. Grant should get the contract. His tender had been even below the others. He was a practical man and knew his business and he in partnership with him. What more

FALL HOUSE-CLEANING SALE OF

WALL PAPERS

Equinoctial gales remind us that fall is upon us and winter near. We have already had severe enough days so far as weather is concerned to remind us that summer is gone, that fall will soon reach its end and that then winter and its snows will be upon us.

In anticipation of the annual season for House-Cleaning and Re-Decorating of the home, we started to-day an October Wall Paper Sale on a greater scale than ever before. The more we sell the cheaper we sell. Our store is loaded with new styles and designs of this season's importations—no store in Ontario carries a larger stock and no store will or can sell cheaper. Now is the best time to buy Wall Papers; now is the best time to put them on and the best place to procure them is at the most elaborate and most finely appointed Paper Warerooms of THE PETERBOROUGH BOOKSTORE

CONSOLATION PRIZES.

Every boy who sells an average of 10 DAILY EXAMINERS per day during the competition, ending December 31st, will receive a BOY'S GOOD WINTER CAP.

Winners of the first 10 prizes above mentioned are excluded from the Consolation Prizes.

These Consolation Prizes give each boy an opportunity of securing a good Winter Cap.

NOW, BOYS, GET YOUR SKATES ON!

The Competition will commence Saturday Evening, Oct. 5th, and end on Saturday Evening, December 30th.

All Boys who intend to be "in it" are required to muster at 4 p.m. sharp, Saturday afternoon, at the Chambers Street entrance to the office, when they will be supplied with numbered tickets, the object of which will be explained to them.

Any competitior for the above Prizes will not be permitted to dispose of tickets or papers to other news boys for the purpose of increasing his sales, nor will he be allowed to take any other unfair advantage, as the awarding of these prizes is for the purpose of stimulating each newsboy to greater activity in increasing the number of his sales.

$200 in Prizes for New Subscribers.

The Publishers of the DAILY EXAMINER will pay the undermentioned PRIZES IN GOLD to the Person who secures the number of New Subscribers to the DAILY EXAMINER mentioned below, and who has paid one year's subscription of $4.00 each before the 1st January, next.

Scott's Emulsion is Cod-liver Oil emulsified, or made easy of digestion and assimilation. To this is added the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, which aid in the digestion of the Oil and increase materially the potency of both. It is a remarkable flesh-producer. Emaciated, anæmic and consumptive persons gain flesh upon it very rapidly. The combination is a most happy one.

Physicians recognize its superior merit in all conditions of wasting. It has had the endorsement of the medical profession for 20 years.

FINE MANNERS.

The Elegant Accomplishments Which Once Prevailed.

In the days of our grandmothers, William of Wykeham's motto, "Manners maketh Manne," was held to apply to the making of woman. In those days the imperative law of a lady's inner life and outer habits was expressed by one word, "decorum." That musical word ruled every movement of her body, and dictated the training each girl should receive to qualify her for what Miss Cobbe calls "the great Art of Society."

It did not beget, says Youth's Companion, the abrupt-speaking, courtesy-neglecting, slouching, slangy, young "damosel," who is never called "blessed." But it did not produce women gifted with old-fashioned suavity, and with the tact which made everybody in a company, even the humblest, happy and at ease. Miss Cobbe, in her "Life," describes a trivial incident which illustrates the kind of influence exercised by women of the old school of decorum.

A hale, genial young fellow, named Warburton, was a guest at the house of Mrs. Cobbe's father. One rainy day he was prompted by a silly young lady guest to sing several comic songs in the drawing-room, the point of the jokes being the advances of women to men.

Miss Cobbe's mother, old and feeble, after listening quietly for a time, slowly rose from her sofa, walked painfully across the room and leaning over the piano said in a gentle way a few strong words of remonstrance.

She could not bear, she said, that men should ridicule women. Respect and chivalrous feeling for them, even when they were foolish and ill-advised, were the part, she thought, of a generous man. She would beg Mr. Warburton to choose some other songs for his fine voice.

All this was done so gently, with her sweet, kind smile, that no one could take offense. Mr. Warburton was far from doing so. He was touched with tender reverence for his aged monitress, and rising hastily from the piano, made the frankest apologies, which were instantly accepted.

The incident illustrates the kind of influence exercised by the fine manners of women of the old school. But it is also an illustration of Emerson's aphoristic sentence: "Fine manners need the support of fine manners in others." If Mr. Warburton had been an ill-mannered "cad" he would have left the piano in a huff; but being a gentleman of the old school, he received the merited rebuke with reverential humility.

A Millionaire Laundress.

Mme. Boucicault was first a laundress, and the daughter-in-law of a laundress, who married a hatter at Montaigne, in Normandy. She was engaged in the laundering department at the Petit St. Thomas Mart, and found her opportunity in lot sales of damaged silks and odds and ends of machine made lace. She used at night to make up what she bought at these sales into cravats, jackets and children's frocks, according to patterns she studied at the Petit St. Thomas. On her way in the morning to her work she sold them in a market. She did so well that she had soon to get help, and then took a poky shop in the Rue du Bac, where the west entrance to the Bon Marche now stands. The rule was cheapness. Nobody was ever taken in. In the tentative struggles she and her husband learned business without heavy risk. She could not be called an old woman when she died. After giving away nearly $3,000,000 in acts of justice, friendship and benevolence, she left a fortune valued at over $7,000,000.

THE MANITOBA HARVEST.

The Farmers of the North West Will Have Plenty of Money to Spend.

Winnipeg, (Special) Oct. 7.—The prospects of a good year for the Manitoba farmers are now assured, thanks to the abundant harvest. One of the causes for the sickness prevalent last year will now be obviated, as the farmers will have more money to spare for the purchase of the necessities for health. One of the straws which shows which way the wind is blowing is the fact that druggists are ordering the well-known remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, in unusually large quantities. The inhabitants of the province are well aware of the value of the medicine, and only the financial stringency has hitherto prevented its universal use.

Not a Scar Left.

In scrofulous cases under ordinary treatment scars are left when the sores are healed. The action of Burdock Blood Bitters is assisted by applying it externally as well as internally There is no cutting no knife, just a natural healing power over abscesses, ulcers, sores, etc., that leaves the flesh as clean and sound as a babe's.

EIGHTEEN KILLED, 100 INJURED.

Collision of a Freight With a Crowded Passenger Train Near Brussels 25 More Will Die.

Brussels, Oct. 8.—By a collision on the railway near here this morning 18 persons were killed and at least 100 injured. The list of fatally wounded is also likely to be increased, as at least 25 of the injured are dangerously hurt.

The collision was between a freight and a passenger train. The engine of the freight train struck the passenger's cars, two of which were crowded with men and women. These cars were telescoped, and a third was thrown on top of them.

A rescuing party worked throughout the night, taking out the dead and injured from the debris.

The accident is attributed to the absence of the regular signal man at Ottignies, who had been replaced by a man having an imperfect knowledge of the service.

ESSEX CROSSING ACCIDENT.

The Jury Find The Railway Company Guilty of Gross Negligence.

Essex, Oct. 8.—The inquest concerning the fatal accident of last Wednesday at the M.C.R. crossing at Main-street, in which William and Thomas Mooney and Dennis Burke were instantly killed, was held here to-day. The relatives of the victims and the railway company were represented by counsel. The jury, after a debate of three hours, returned a verdict that the M.C.R. Company are guilty of gross negligence in not having the crossing properly guarded, and having no gates at the crossing, resulting in the death of these three men, and also for compelling their trains to go over 40 miles an hour through the street in order to make schedule time.

FOUND DEAD IN A WELL.

Fatal Jump of a Hunter on a Dark Night.

Cornwall, Oct. 8.—Jack Tinkess, a hunter, of Lunenburg, was found dead in an old well, after being missing for several days. It is believed that the young man was coon hunting, and that he jumped over a fence and right into the well. He was stunned by the fall and then drowned.

Britain May Buy Delagoa Bay

London, Oct. 8.—The King of Portugal will arrive in London on Oct. 31, seemingly on a state visit. He will be received by the Prince of Wales. Later he will visit the Queen at Balmoral. On his return to London a banquet in his honor will be given, and afterwards he will visit Manchester and Glasgow, where receptions will be tendered him. Besides public, he has serious private business to call him to London. He wants to negotiate a large loan, and it is understood that he will discuss with Prime Minister Salisbury and the Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, the purchase by Great Britain of Delagoa Bay, on the east coast of Africa. It is known that Mr. Chamberlain especially desires to mark his regime in the Colonial Office by a Delagoa coup.

CANDY

FOR CHILDREN.

The Popular Health Magazine says the desire in a child for candy and sweets is a natural one and should not be stifled. Good candy and sweets in moderation, not only do no harm, but are actually beneficial. Too much sweet upsets the stomach and spoils the appetite, but candy in moderation if it is not taken before a meal, is food which children crave naturally, and among the purest and most wholesome is that manufactured by

SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE

The Great Health Restorer of the Century.

Sickness Cannot Cope With It—Has Cured the Worst Cases on Record—Cures at the Nerve Centers, and Thus Cures Permanently—A Wonderful Specific in All Cases of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Nervousness and General Debility—Has No Equal as a Spring Medicine.

There is a great deal of uncertainty in the methods adopted to remove disease. Doctors are not free from this kind of thing themselves. The poor patient has to put up with a good deal of experimenting. The discoverer of South American Nervine takes too serious a view of life to play pranks of this kind. He does not think that these human bodies of ours should be fooled with. He has recognized that they are subject to disease, but by scientific methods he has learned that just as the watch is to be put in perfect repair only when the main spring is kept in running order, so with the individual, he remains in perfect health, only when the nerve centers are kept healthful and strong.

What disease is more distressing than indigestion or dyspepsia? Some simple remedy may be given to cause relief for the moment. Nervine is an indisputably successful remedy for the worst cases of indigestion, because it reaches the source of all stomach troubles—the nerve centers. Indigestion exists because the vital forces have become diseased and are weakened. Nervine builds up the nerve centers, from which comes these forces, removes the causes of indigestion, and then builds up the health completely.

How many systems are run down through nervousness. A stimulant may give ease, but it will not cure nervous troubles. Nervine has cured more desperate cases of nervousness than any other medicine anywhere. And it does so for the same reason that it cures indigestion. The nerve centers are deranged, or there would be no victims of nervousness. Nervine rebuilds and strengthens the nerve tissues, and hence its marvellous powers in diseases of this kind.

In the spring of the year the strongest suffer from general debility. The blood, through neglect, has become impoverished and the whole system gets out of order. We speak of it as a spring medicine. Nervine restores the exhausted vital forces that have led to this tired, don't-care, played-out, miserable condition. No one can take a bottle of Nervine at this season of the year without disease quickly giving way to abounding health.

The moral is plain, simple and readily understood. If you would not trifle with disease, then you will take South American Nervine, which will not trifle with you.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

A MEDICINE

WITHOUT AN EQUAL.

Statement of a Well Known Doctor

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is without an equal as a blood-purifier and Spring medicine, and cannot have praise enough. I have watched its effects in chronic cases, where other treatment was of no avail, and have been astonished at the results. No other blood medicine that I have ever used, and I have tried them all, is so thorough in its action, and effects so many permanent cures as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Dr. H. F. MERRILL, Augusta, Me.

Ayer's Pills for liver and bowels.

A HANDFUL OF LACONICS.

To be a good listener is to possess as great an art as to be a good talker.

The girl who is the close confidante of her father makes, in nine cases out of ten, the best kind of a wife.

A pretty woman, with nothing but her fairness to offer, invariably attracts men. But she seldom holds them.

It is singular and yet a fact that what we are most loath to believe possessed by others is what we are incapable of ourselves.

It is a habit with some people when they wish their own virtues to look the whitest always to use the faults of others as a background.

The lover, women complain, does not always survive in the husband. But is it not equally true that the sweetheart does not always survive in the wife?

The most difficult woman to understand is she who deals out spiritual food in a frivolous capsule. You never know which you have swallowed. And the doctor, like the dose, remains an enigma.

The friendship which begins with a passionate fervor is rarely one of long standing. It burns out too soon. True and lasting friendships generally begin with moderate likings and grow with time.—Edward W. Bok in The Ladies' Home Journal.

The Charm of Grouse-Shooting.

What, then, is the charm of grouse shooting over dogs on a mountain or moor where there is plenty of cover? There is, first, the charm of watching the working of the dogs, the intelligence, the interest in the sport which makes skilled canine co-operation so fascinating to a lover of animals, as every sportsman must be. Then there is the pleasure of using one's knowledge of the habits of birds of the grounds they will frequent, deep heather or bracken cover in the hot middle of the August day, short heather, on which they feed, in the early morning or in the evening; of using one's knowledge of the moor in order that the ground may be so worked as to force the birds from all directions into strong holding cover, where they will be likely to lie well; the pleasure, in short, of using the stored-up experience that makes up what may, perhaps, be called moorcraft.

Then there is the walking which soon gets into hard condition the man who shoots over dogs and perseveres resolutely when, for the first two or three days, he feels the weakening effects of the sedentary life of the towns. It is only by the sportsman who does the necessary hard walking that the exhilarating effects of the mountain air are felt in full. This exhilaration has been compared to that of champagne but it is more like the new sense of the mere joy of living that comes from a plunge in the sea after a long hot walk when sea comes out light, alert, vigorous, and feeling as though by some magic the tireless activity of youth has been regained. The result of a few days' hard mountain walking after grouse is felt not only in lungs renewed and limbs made hard and vigorous, but in a brighter and healthier attitude of the mind towards life which makes it possible to draw into the inmost being the joy of the broad earth, and is as invigorating to the moral and mental as to the physical nature. The charm of the mountain is always there, but the marksman who keeps to the butts has not gained, as the fixed price of hard exercise, the state of body and mind in which to feel it. The keenness of the eye to see, the freshness and strength of the nerves to receive and enjoy, can be got only from active exercise, made possible by the excitement of sport which stimulates a man to exert himself, as he never do without it.—Saturday Review.

Deserters From Ships.

Jack Tar has an irresistible longing for the shore at times; and gratifies it if he can, even at the price of desertion. On a dark night, when the good ship to which he belongs is anchored in a home port, he climbs into the chains and slips out into the waves, determined to risk drowning for a few gills of fire-water. The guard sometimes give the alarm too late and the culprits get away and have a long carouse, at the end of which they are put in chains and spend a few days 'tween decks, lying on a cold, hard floor. At the New York Navy Yard the other night two suspicious splashes were heard on the out-bound side of the New York, recently returned from the Kiel festivities. A boat was lowered and sent in pursuit of the escaping men, one of whom would have been drowned if an officer had not risked his life to save him. Desertions are fortunately becoming more rare of late, but there are always one or two adventurous ones, who will have shore liberty without asking for it, and who apparently cannot be deterred by the terrors of the regulations.—Once a Week.

Counteracts Snake Bites.

The latest application of the serum therapy is in the use of the blood serum of animals that have been immunized against snake bites. Dr. Thomas R. Fraser of Edinburgh publishes an article in the British Medical Journal of June 15 on this subject. Taking the venom of the cobra of India and of the rattlesnake (Crotalus horridus) of America, he injected these in gradually increasing doses into rabbits, cats and kittens until they were able to take injections of ten, twenty, or even fifty times the ordinary lethal doses. Having made certain that these animals were relatively immune against the poison, he took the blood serum and used it in protective innoculations upon other animals. He established that the blood serum, or, as he calls it "anti-venene," of animals protected against large lethal doses of venom is able perfectly to prevent lethal doses of the venom of the most poisonous of serpents from producing death. The application of this method to man has not yet been made, but Dr. Fraser looks forward to it being utilised in India, where the annual deaths from snakebites amount to 20,000.—Medical Record.

Materfamilias—I've only the advertising part, my dear. That's all I ever get a chance to see.

Paterfamilias—Well, where's the rest of it?

Materfamilias—Willie has the last two pages containing the baseball news, Flossie is interested in a divorce case on pages 11 and 12, Daisy is reading the latest murder case——

Paterfamilias—Which one is that?

Materfamilias—The one that occurred at half past three this morning. Jack has the part relating to the murders that occurred at 2 o'clock and at midnight. Poor dear boy, ever since he has been sick he has had no chance whatever with the other children.

Paterfamilias—Were's the part containing the account of that swell wedding? I've got to have something to read.

Materfamilias—Hush, John, don't say such things! The cook is reading that, and if I did not let her have that privilege she wouldn't stay with me a minute. O, dear, you men are so unreasonable.

Paterfamilias—Well, there's another part of the paper, isn't there? Let me have that.

Materfamilias—There was only the woman's page, my dear, and we lit the fire with that.—Truth.

Don't Kiss on the Mouth.

Children can be trained with the greatest ease to offer the cheek or the forehead for the proffered caress, and to allude the attempt to contaminate the lips. The incubation period of any disease may or may not be infected in the ordinary acceptation of the term. Upon this matter our knowledge, so far, is by no means certain, while on the other hand, recent investigations would seem to indicate that the infection of zymotic diseases in patients is of very much longer duration than used formerly to be supposed, enduring, indeed, long after convalescence has been established.

Running Sores Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with running sores on my face which nothing could cure up to the time I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, but after taking two bottles my face was completely cured and it left my flesh clear and sound. A. HEATHERS, 27 Woolsley St., Toronto.

One reason why women are so generally troubled with some derangement of the distinctly feminine organism is that as girls they learn nothing about their own physical make up. Parents are waking up to the importance of education of this kind, and young women are becoming more and more able to take care of their health.

Carelessness in girlhood causes the greatest suffering and unhappiness in after life. Little irregularities and weaknesses in girls should be looked after promptly and treatment given at once. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription promotes regularity of all feminine functions, mak s strength and builds up a sturdy health with which to meet the trials to come. The "Favorite Prescription" is not a universal panacea. It is good for but one thing. It is directed solely at one set of organs.

"I have been a sufferer from 'female weakness' for six years. I grew worse; had severe cutting pains in left ovary, also in left side and stomach. The pain in left side was constant. I would have light spasms previous to monthly period and when the spasm would cease I would suffer from severe soreness all over and could bear nothing to touch me. I also suffered from severe headaches; burning pressure on brain which almost caused me to be insane. I could not lay my head down without smothering. My face was poor; eyes looked dead; wasted in flesh. I was constipated and suffered severe pain when bowels would act. I could not eat for the fullness in region of stomach. I had tried three of the best doctors here but they only gave me temporary relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well again. At last I concluded to give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a trial. I have taken two bottles, one of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of 'Pellets.' I have not felt any signs of my old disease; headache all gone; menses regular without ache or pain. Indeed I feel like a new person." Yours truly,

Lillie M. Parris

THE OUTFALL SEWER CONTRACT AWARDED.

could be desired. In voting to give the contract to this firm he was positive that he was voting in the best interests of the ratepayers of the town.

Mr. Stone contradicted Mr. Best's statement that Rutherford and Bogue were employing Toronto men. He said this was not the case and that the men had only worked ten hours per day for three days in order to have a half holiday to go to the Fair.

Mr. Best cited the Engineer as his authority for the statement he had made in this respect.

Mr. Dawson expressed his surprise that Messrs. Rutherford and Bogue should work their men ten hours a day at a dollar and a quarter a day. He had asked them if they were willing to have a clause inserted in their contract to only work nine hours and they had assured him there was no need of it—that they never worked longer. He would like Mr. Bogue, who was present, to contradict this.

Mr. Cahill stated that it was not a question of losing of $150 on the price of the tenders, for, if this was saved, over a thousand dollars would be lost, as this money would go to Toronto and never be seen again, whereas if Hartley and Innis got the contract the money paid in wages would be spent here.

Mr. Best replied that Mr. Grant bought all the materials he used in the construction of his section in the town.

Mr. Bogue was invited to speak and stated that the nine hour system did not

APPLY TO WORKINGMEN

but to mechanics only. He acknowledged taking on several Toronto men on Saturday after they left Contractor Grant. They asked him for a job and as he had work he gave it to them. He would expect to be treated in a like manner if he ever left Peterborough.

Mr. Cahill asked if Mr. Best had carefully looked into the schedule of prices attached to the tenders, and was prepared to say that Mr. Grant's tender was in accordance with these figures.

Mr. Sawers answered that Mr. Belcher had assured him there was no difference in the figures. He had done this on Saturday evening in the presence of Mr. Cahill himself.

In reply to the point raised by Mr. Cahill as to why the report of Section No. 1 of the sewer had not been published by the engineer, Mr. Dawson pointed ont that the work had only been completed on Saturday last. The report, he had no doubt, would be published in good time.

The amendment, awarding the contract to Messrs. Hartley and Innes was then put and lost on

THE FOLLOWING DIVISION :

Yeas—Councillors Cahill, Phelan, Stone and Mason.

Nays—Councillors Best, Denne, Mills, Dawson and Sawers.

The resolution awarding the contract to Messrs. Grant & Winch was then carried.

Councillors Cahill and Stone pressed the Mayor to record his vote on the question, but he declined to do so, stating, at the same time that when there was a tie vote he had never been known to refuse to cast his deciding ballot. For the information, however, of the Council, he stated that his vote would simply have made a tie, and so no business would have been accomplished.

The crowd of citizens who had been an interested audience now dispersed, as the momentuous question drawing them together had been decided. During the evening as the discussion progressed the crowd, at various times, showed its approval of the sentiments expressed by the respective champions of the two firms of contractors.

THE COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS, through Councillor Stone, its chairman, recommended :

1. That if the third contract for the sewer construction be let and proceeded with, T. M. McFadden be appointed inspector for that section, at a salary of $2.50 per day, and that he be paid, on the certificate of the town engineer, as to the time employed.

2. That as the Street Inspector pro tem., Mr. Martin, does not wish to hold that position, Robert Clinkscale be appointed Street inspector, at a salary of $650.00 a year, to take effect on Nov. 1st, next.

Mr. Mason and Mr. Dawson moved the adoption of the report.

Mr. Best cautioned against too much haste in supplanting Mr. Martin as Street Inspector, as his resignation had not as yet been received.

Mr. Dawson again reiterated his statement that Mr. Martin had told him he would resign as soon as a substitute for him could be procured.

Councillors Phelan and Stone moved in amendment to the first clause that Mr. Sheehy be appointed in place of Mr. McFadden as street inspector.

The amendment was lost and the report was adopted as submitted.

The Commissioners of the Town Trust placed to the credit of the corporation in the Ontario Bank the sum of $6,500, being the proceeds of the Public School Debentures at par. This sum has been handed over by cheque to the Board of Education.

Adopted, on motion of Councillor Cahill, the Chairman of the Committee.

THE PRINTING COMMITTEE, through its chairman, Councillor Joseph Mills, recommended the purchase of one copy of Vernon's Directory for $2.

The report was adopted, on motion of Councillors Mills and Denne.

BY-LAWS.

The bylaw appointing Mr. Clinkscale to the position of Street Inspector, was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Cahill congratulated Mr. Clinkscale on the compliment that the council had paid his ability by appointing him to the position of Street Inspector, where he would have the control of the streets and the handling of large sums of money. Mr. Dawson, the Mayor and Mr. Phelan added their congratulations to those of Mr. Cahill.

Mr. Clinkscale thanked the councillors for their kind expressions, and promised to faithfully perform the duties assinged to him.

The by-law awarding the contract for the construction of the sewer between Townsend and King streets to Messrs. Winch & Grant, passed through its various readings and was signed and sealed.

SOME RESOLUTIONS.

Councillor Dawson rose to remind the Council that as yet the important question was undecided, as to whether the sewer be constructed in the centre or along the side of the street. He was in favour of having it in the centre from Townsend street, and moved in accordance with his views, seconded by Mr. Denne.

Carried.

Councillors Phelan and Stone moved that a hydrant be changed from the corner of Homewood avenue and Walton street to the corner of Weller and Walton streets.

Carried.

The Council then adjourned.

ASHBURNHAM SCHOOL BOARD.

Regular Meeting Last Night—A Comprehensive Report From Mr. W. M. Matchett on the State of the School

At a meeting of the Ashburnham village School Board last evening the following members were present : Mr. F. Adams, chairman, and Messrs. J. A. McWilliams, Craig, Fowler and Pollock.

Mr. W. M. Matchett submitted the REPORT OF THE SCHOOL

for month of September as follows :

	On Roll.	Avg.	Ave.
Miss Allen's	54	815	41
" Wood's	42	740	37
" Pratt's	45	774	37
" Stevenson's	49	694	35
Mr Matchett's	31	506	25
Totals	228	3529	175

The average attendance for August was 190, and for September 175. The decrease was caused chiefly by the outbreak of scarlet fever, necessitating the staying at home of many pupils, and others stayed away for fear of the epidemic. The attendance for October promises to be larger than for September.

The fees for September were 50 cents. The change which had been suggested for the two junior rooms has been made, viz., take one class out of Miss Allen's room and place it in Miss Wood's room. As you will notice the attendance in the two rooms is now about equal. So far as I can judge by visiting the various rooms the work has been progressing in a satisfactory manner. In the matter of discipline, the assistant teachers appear to have very little trouble; no pupil has been reported to me by them for bad conduct since vacation. Some panes of glass in Miss Pratt's room require to be renewed. The supplies we need at present are some blackboard brushes. Some of the paper in Miss Allen's room is coming off the blackboard; it can easily be repaired if done at once.

In accordance with the suggestion of Mr. Matchett, the Secretary was instructed to secure the necessary brushes and have Mr. Doupe repair the blackboard at once.

The Board adjourned.

HARVEY AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION.

A Most Successful Event—Large Exhibits and Large Attendance.

The annual exhibition of the Harvey Agricultural Society was held at Lakehurst on Wednesday, Oct. 2. It was in every respect a great success, and the outcome should be most encouraging to the promotors and directors. The attendance was very large, the residents of the township turning out almost in a body, and everybody was enthusiastic and gave what assistance they could towards the great success that resulted. Among the outside visitors, were Messrs. John Lang, ex-M.P., Geo. E. Elliott, president of the Central Exhibition, Dr. Bonnell, of Bobcaygeon, and many others from that village, Lakefield and Peterborough. The stock exhibit was held in a field belonging to Mr. Andrew Shearer, which had been admirably fitted up for the occasion. There was a good exhibit of horses, every class being represented and all the prizes competed for. The speeding events were keenly contested and were very exciting. There was a large display of horned cattle, and sheep and swine were well represented. The ladies made a very creditable display of their handiwork. There was a splendid show of grains and vegetables and roots. The roots were especially fine and were equal to any shown at the Toronto Industrial. The directors were energetic, and the members heartily co-operated with them in making the show a success. Messrs. Grafton & Co., clothiers, Peterborough, had their usual fine advertising exhibit on the grounds, in charge of the tireless W. E Conway, local manager.

During the day the ladies of the local Methodist church, laid out a bounteous and excellent dinner and tea in the cheese factory. They were well patronized, and have every reason to be gratified with the success of their very fine exhibition of culinary skill. Altogether the Harvey exhibition for 1895 was a starter and everybody concerned is to be congratulated upon the highly successful outcome.

LAURIER EN TOUR.

His First Ontario Meeting Held at Morrisburg.

ROUSING RECEPTION GIVEN HIM

Three Thousand People Listen For Two Hours to Mr. Laurier and Sir Richard Cartwright—The Latter Deals With Finance and the Former With the School Question.

Morrisburg, Oct. 8—Mr. Laurier commenced his Ontario tour with an open meeting at the Fair grounds here today. The weather was very cold, which rendered it far from pleasant for the gathering. Nevertheless about 3000 people sat in the cold for over two hours and a half and listened with much attention to the remarks made by the Liberal leader and his colleague, Sir Richard Cartwright.

Mr. Laurier reached here by the 12.30 train, accompanied by Mr. Alexander Smith, the Liberal organizer. They were met at the station by a large and enthusiastic crowd, headed by a brass band. Amongst those in waiting were Sir Richard Cartwright, who had arrived from Kingston by an earlier train. Reeve Meikle, on behalf of the Council, presented Mr. Laurier with an address, to which the Liberal leader made an appropriate reply.

The afternoon meeting began at 2.30; Mr. Laurier and Sir Richard Cartwright being escorted to the grounds by the band. A. J. Laflamme, president of the Dundas Liberal Association, occupied the chair.

After a few introductory remarks by the chairman, Mr. Johnston, Liberal candidate for the County of Dundas, addressed the meeting. He led off by devoting himself to eulogy of Sir Richard Cartwright, who, he said, had been abused by his opponents and not appreciated by his own friends, as he ought to have been. However, Sir Richard Cartwright was able to stand up for himself, and he believed the time was coming when his services would be properly appreciated by the people of Canada. (Applause.)

Sir Richard Cartwright followed, and dealt first with financial matters. He assured his audience that during the last 16 years the four townships of the riding had contributed $1,250,000 to the Federal treasury, or the protected manufacturers, more than they ought to have done—that every family in the riding had to pay $1000 to the protected manufacturers, or in unnecessary taxation. The object of the present Administratoin on all occasions had been to keep the people in ignorance of the facts it was most important they should know. One of the most notable methods for bringing this about was that subsidizing of a very large percentage of their press, in order that the people who were in the habit of looking to the general press for information and instruction upon these subjects might be, so far as the circulation of the papers was concerned, kept in ignorance of the true state of affairs. This was one reason why he had so gladly embraced the opportunity of laying before them a plain statement of the facts, which every man ought to know. He then went on to show the difference in expenditure between the Mackenzie Government and the present Administration. During the period of the Mackenzie Administration the average expenditure of the country increased $40,000 a year. These men, who condemned Mr. Mackenzie for extravagance, found when they came into office that the expenditure was twenty-three and a half millions, and, according to the last financial statement in The Canada Gazette it amounted to over $38,000,000. In other words, during the 16 years the present Government had been in power, they had added nearly 14 and a half millions to the annual expenditure, being nearly a million dollars a year of the 16, as against the average of $40,000 which Mr. Mackenzie added during the period of his Administration.

At this juncture Dr. Chamberlain Inspector of Prisons and Asylums, stepped forward and read a telegram to the effect that the Hon. Mr. Harty had been elected by acclamation, which was greeted by prolonged cheering.

Sir Richard concluded by entreating the people to stand by the Liberal policy and honest Government.

The chairman then presented Mr. Laurier with an address from the Liberal Association of the county of Dundas.

The leader of the Opposition made a very appropriate reply and then launched into the Manitoba school question, saying, "I am not here to solve this question, because it is not in my province to solve it, but I understand that the ministerial press of this country has been very anxious to know what was the policy of Mr. Laurier in regard to it. I would not be worthy of the position I occupy, and the trust that has been placed in me by my colleagues of the House of Commons, if I were afraid to speak on this question. I intend to do so, though I am sure I shall not satisfy the Ministerial press. I do not hope for that, but I intend to satisfy as far as I can every sensible man. I have been accused by the Conservative press of having expressed no opinion upon this question. I have expressed an opinion more than once upon it, but I have not yet expressed the opinion which the Ministerial press would like me to express. (Laughter.) I am not responsible for that question, but I do not want to shirk it. I would give you my views, but remember that war has been waged in a certain way. When the Duke of Wellington was in Portugal, as those of you will remember who have read English history, he withdrew at one time within the lines of Torres Vedras, and there for months he remained watching the enemy. The French at that time were commanded by Marshal Massena, who said, 'I want that man to come out from his lines. Let him come down on the plain and I will thrash him, but I cannot assail him within his lines.' Gentlemen, I am within the lines of Torres Vedras; I will get out when it suits me, and not before. (Applause and laughter.) I do not care, but I have to speak the same language here as I spoke elsewhere. I have the same language, whether I speak in this or the other province. I would not be worthy of the position I occupy if I did not, as far as I could, educate the Liberal party to the views which I think are the sound views upon that question, which is a most important one. There is a question to be settled and the present Administration do not appear to want to settle it."

The meeting then broke up amid cheers for Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Richard Cartwright.

The party, headed by the band, marched to the residence of Dr. Chamberlain, where the party dined, and then retired to the Music Hall, where they again addressed a large audience. Afterwards a reception was tendered to Mr. Laurier by the Liberals of Morrisburg.

DEMERS JURY DISAGREE.

Stood Right for Conviction and Four for Acquittal.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 8—The Demers trial, which has been the longest in the history of Montreal criminal courts, terminated this evening, as every one expected, by the jury failing to agree, and they were subsequently discharged. It is understood that eight were for conviction and four for acquittal. The prisoner seemed to be satisfied with the result, and his counsel asked that Demers be liberated on bail. Judge Curtele replied that he would decide the question on Thursday.

A member of any other Stock Exchange in Canada is not eligible for membership on the Montreal Exchange. This motion was introduced this morning by Mr. G. R. Marter, and was carried by 27 to 6. It took the form of an amendment to the original by-laws. The motion was made for the protection of the brokers upon the exchange. As the matter stood before, a member living in Toronto, for instance, and a member of the Toronto Stock Exchange, could become a member of the Montreal exchange and still not become amenable to their by-laws. This would give the Toronto member the option of doing business on the Montreal exchange without subjecting himself to the by-laws wherein a certain commission is charged for brokerage, which by-law is strictly enforced by the local exchange. A quarter of one per cent. is the figure which the local broker has to charge in buying or selling stocks and if the Toronto broker was taken in he could fill orders at one-sixteenth, or, in fact, any figure he saw fit to give to the customer.

THE SULTAN COMES DOWN.

A Threat From the Foreign Diplomats Brings Him to Time.

London, Oct. 8.—The Daily News tomorrow will print a despatch from Constantinople saying it is reported there that the foreign diplomats on Oct. 6 sent to the Porte a collective note demanding that the program of reform in Armenia submitted by the powers be accepted within 24 hours, otherwise the powers would have to consider what further steps would be taken in the matter. To this note the Sultan, it is alleged, replied that he would do all that was necessary to satisfy the powers.

Advance in Coal.

"GO WITH ME OR DIE"

A Furious Lover's Attempt to Kill His Sweetheart.

THE MAN AFTERWARDS SUICIDES

After Fearfully Slashing the Girl He Bade His Parents Good-Bye, Then Went Out and Killed Himself—The Young Woman Will Recover.

Lucan, Ont., Oct. 9.—A tragic affair occurred near Denfield on Monday evening. Miss Mabel Robinson, daughter of Mr. Beverley Robinson, was in her father's yard milking a cow, when John Lang drove by. Seeing Miss Robinson, he stopped his horse and without getting out of his rig he urged the young lady to go with him and be married. This she refused to do. He then jumped from the buggy and said, "You will go with me or die." He held a razor in his hand, and grasping the young lady, he endeavored to throw her to the ground. In the struggle Miss Robinson's hands and arms were cut in a terrible manner. He finally succeeded in throwing her, and placing his knee on her chest he slashed the razor across her face and neck until he thought her dead. He called her twice, saying, "Mabel, are you dead?" The girl, although still conscious, lay perfectly still with her eyes closed. Her muscles twitched some, and with the remark, "I'll cut your head off," he half turned her over and gave her a slash on the back of the neck. He then left her and going to his own home he bade his father and mother good-bye, saying he was going to Michigan the next day. He went behind the house and cut his throat from ear to ear, dying immediately. Miss Robinson is 17 years old and weighs in the neighborhood of 210 pounds. She has an exceedingly pretty face and is quite an accomplished young lady. She never encouraged the attentions of Lang and was in perfect dread of him, he having threatened her last summer. John Lang was 33 years old and lived with his father on the next farm to Robinson's. The young lady will recover.

PALMER PLEADS GUILTY.

The Hamilton Bank Clerk Chooses Summary Trial.

Hamilton, Oct. 9.—Yesterday W. B. Palmer, the defaulting teller of the Bank of Commerce, appeared before Judge Jelfs and pleaded guilty, but declined to elect as to his mode of trial. He was charged with stealing $1950 on September 25. Judge Jelfs committed the prisoner for trial, and he was taken to the Court House to elect before Judge Snider. He elected to be tried by His Honor without a jury and pleaded guilty. J. W. Nesbitt, Q.C., his counsel, asked for sentence to be deferred for a day, but His Honor deferred sentence for one week. The bank officials refuse to state the amount of Palmer's deficiency.

Henry Lester, the firebug, appeared before Judge Snider for sentence this morning, having pleaded guilty yesterday to attempting to swindle an insurance company by setting fire to a number of books. The extreme penalty for the offence is 14 years, but His Honor said he would send the prisoner to Kingston for five years.

This afternoon a pretty but quiet wedding took place at Christ Church Cathedral, when Miss Jessie MacInnes was married to Archibald Hamilton Campbell, son of A. H. Campbell of Toronto. Miss MacInnes is a daughter of Senator MacInnes, and is exceedingly popular in this city. Bishop Hamilton officiated, and was assisted by Rev. George Forneret.

The bridesmaids were: Miss Amy Campbell, sister of the groom, and Miss A. MacInnes, cousin of the bride. Captain Evans of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, Winnipeg, was best man.

ANTANANARIVO FALLS.

French Troops Capture the Madagascar Capital—The Queen Flees.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The Government has received information that the French forces in Madagascar captured Antananarivo, the capital, on Sept. 27. The Queen, with the members of her household and Ministers of State, made her escape and fled to Ambositra. The news of the fall of the Malagasy capital reached Vatomaudry on Sept. 30.

The Queen Takes Flight.

Port Louis, Mauritius, Oct. 8.—A report has reached here that the Queen of Madagascar, with her husband, Rainilairivony, Prime Minister, has taken refuge in Amboslstra, in the district of Betsileos, the capital, Anatananarivo, having been captured by the French.

Rumored [illegible] Disasters.

Paris, Oct. 9.—Advices received here from Tamatave state that the French troops bombarded the Hova position at Farafatra on Oct. 3, and captured it on Oct. 4.

A despatch to The Figaro says Gen. Duchesne left Angatia on Sept. 21, with 2500 troops.

The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine promotes regularity of the functions allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of womankind are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

Nervous Prostration

It is now a well established fact in medical science that nervousness is due to impure blood. Therefore the true way to cure nervousness is by purifying and enriching the blood. The great blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this letter:

"For the last two years I have been a great sufferer with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. I was weak in my limbs and had smothered sensations. At last my physician advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did, and I am happy to say that I am now strong and well. I am still using Hood's Sarsaparilla and would not be without it. I recommend it to all who are suffering with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart." MRS. DALTON, 33 Alice St., Toronto, Ontario. Get Hood's, because

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1895.

THE KINGSTON BY-ELECTION.

As predicted in yesterday's issue, Hon. Mr. Harty, Minister of Public Works, was on Tuesday elected by acclamation for the city of Kingston. His political opponents talked very loudly and confidently of putting an oppanent in the field in opposition to Mr. Harty, but Dr. Smythe, his old-time antagonist, who was all along regarded as the candidate of the Conservatives, and was even nominated by the party, declined the doubtful honour of certain defeat. At the last moment his courage failed him and the result is Hon. Mr. Harty's election by acclamation. This result indicates how firmly the Mowat government is entrenched in popular favour. Good government wins friends and keeps them. It must be very gratifying to Sir Oliver that on the very day he re-enters upon the duties of his office, after his return from England, he is presented by the city of Kingston with his Commissioner of Public Works, and Hon. Mr. Harty's many friends in Peterborough and in the Province will heartily congratulate him.

SIR OLIVER MOWAT'S RETURN.

Sir Oliver Mowat has returned from his lengthened visit to England, where he was in the interests of the test case, argued before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to decide the question of the right of the Province to prohibit the retail sale of intoxicating liquors. During his absence he visited Scotland and the Continent.

The veteran Premier returns in excellent health, and contrary to what his solicitous opponents have hinted, he has no intention of resigning the Premiership of Ontario. He says he will only retire from the leadership of the Liberal party when the Province wishes him to do so, and it will be very difficult to persuade the Province to express such a desire. All lovers of good, honest and economical government hope that Sir Oliver will be spared many years to guide, as ably as he has done in the past, the political destinies of the Province of Ontario.

LUMBERMEN VS. MOSSOM BOYD & CO.

A Dispute as to the Right to Levy and Collect Timber Tolls at Little Bob.

A case of importance and interest to lumbermen has been tried during the past two weeks before His Honour Judge Dean, and is now pending judgment. It is an application by Messrs. Mossom Boyd & Co. under the Rivers and Streams Act, to compel all lumbermen running saw logs down the Little Bob river and over the slide there to pay tolls. The other lumbermen contend that the ownership of the Little Bob channel is in the Dominion Government, and that the stream is therefore not one of those affected by the Rivers and Streams Act, which is a provincial statute; also that the dam of Messrs. Mossom Boyd & Co. is a mill dam built for milling purposes, and is within the Mill Dam Act, which allows no tolls; also that the Rivers and Streams Act applies only to dams built by lumbermen in the course of their river driving exclusively for the purpose of floating logs, so that all using such dams for the same purpose should contribute ratably, and that this dam was not so built, but was built for an ulterior purpose, namely, a mill dam, and for which the applicants hold their consideration the power to drive their mill. The lumbermen contend further that the stream was floatable with the government dam before the Boyd dam was built, and also that the Boyd dam did not improve the floatability of the stream, but rather by reason of this dam being built in the wrong place for saw-log driving, the long stretch of dead water, the slide being too narrow, and the Boyd mills occupying the greater portion of the stream—the dam is an obstruction rather than a benefit. The lumbermen contend also that the stream was floatable during freshets in a state of nature, and that now, with the stored freshets which are brought down with the drives, the stream could be run by all their drives, and in any case there being no doubt they could run the Big Bob channel, that now whereas the Government has turned them into Little Bob to keep the big river clear for navigation, they are entitled to a free right of way down the Little Bob. The lumbermen say that any dams and locks which the government has built on the main highway of these waters, while a benefit to steamboat navigation, are no benefit to saw-log driving. The trial occupied five days; a great deal of evidence was given by men expert at saw-log driving and men who had driven logs down the stream, some of them as long as forty years ago. Mr. A. J. Wickham appeared for Messrs. Mossom Boyd & Co., Mr. Walter Cassels, Q.C., and Mr. Thomas Stewart appeared for Messrs. Gilmour & Co. and the Rathbun Co., the lumbermen chiefly interested.—Post.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. W. E. Roxburgh is having the lot between the stores of E. Gear and R. J. Stuart cleared up, preparatory to building a new block.

There is some talk of a skating rink being built here this year. We think a large rink, well managed, would pay.

The most of the students attending the Model School here, left on Tuesday for their respective homes, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday being holidays.

Mrs. Duncan, Honorary Secretary of the Provincial Sunday School Institute, visited Norwood this week. Sunday afternoon the Sunday schools congregated in the Presbyterian church. The meeting was addressed by Mrs. Duncan and Dr. Harrison, of Keene. In the evening the Methodist church was packed to the doors. Addresses were delivered by Mrs. Duncan and Dr. Harrison.

School Board next Monday evening.

Tuesday afternoon while Mrs. Wm. Griffiths was driving under the railway bridge on Mill street, her horse was frightened. The buggy was upset and the lady thrown out on the road. She was severely shaken up, but as far as known was not seriously injured.

The regular meeting of the council was held on Monday evening, Reeve Pearce and Councillors Buck and Drain being the only members present. Minutes of last meeting were read and signed. The clerk was instructed to have glass put in town hall windows, and to have all old plank on town hall lot cut up and stored in the basement. Orders were passed for the payment of quarter's electric light and R. Scriver's salary. Councillor Buck was authorised to have sidewalk and bridges repaired. Messrs. A. R. Anderson, J. Pengally, R. Nicoll, D. Booth and J. McClelland appeared as a deputation from the Norwood Public Library and asked for the usual grant of $25. The request was granted.

ROSENEATH FAIR.

The Annual Agricultural Fair at Roseneath was Held on Sept. 27th.

The directors and patrons united in their efforts to make this fair the best in its history, and it was the unanimous opinion that the exhibit last Friday, both in quantity and quality, places completely in the shade those of other years previous. It has been the fate of many of the smaller township fairs to dwindle into insignificance and in some cases they have ceased to be an annual occurrence altogether. Roseneath, on the other hand, seems to be doing more than merely holding its own, and in proof of this it may be said that there were nearly 1,500 people on the grounds. The gate receipts alone totalled nearly $200. The exhibit of horses was considered unusually good, and the same may be truthfully said concerning most of the other departments. Professor Crowe's band provided their usual abundance of good music.

SOUTH MONAGHAN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The Presbyterian church held their annual tea here on Thursday last. It was a success as usual. A large number gathered to partake of the good things provided. After tea addresses were given in the church by the Rev. J. J. Rae and Rev. A. MacWilliams, Peterborough; also Rev. T. S. McKee, Fraserville, and Rev. —. Banton, Baillieboro. The proceeds amounted to $71.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

An American Will Make Arrangements With a Canadian Firm.

Ottawa, (Special) Sept. 30—An American who has been here interviewing the members of the government on private business, has left for Toronto, where it is understood he will try and make an arrangement with the Dodd's Medicine Company of that city for the establishment of a manufactory of Dodd's Kidney Pills in New York State. He declined to specify the locality. During his stay in Ottawa he has been investigating the now celebrated case of G. H. Kent, who was saved by this remedy when in the last stages of Bright's disease, and has satisfied himself of the genuine nature of the case. He asserts that the medicine is now universally used throughout the state.

Coming Events

Cast their shadows before. The rattling of the coal wagon, the dropping of the tears and the disappearance of the summer girl, make us realize that the fall is here and forces the question; How am I off for Clothes? If your answer is in the negative then we can satisfy you in price, quality and style, better than any other clothing firm in this neck of woods. If you want

THE C.P.R. BLOCKED.

The Rush of Manitoba Wheat Too Heavy.

STOCK SHIPMENTS ALSO LARGE.

Ten Million Bushels of Wheat to Be Housed at Fort William Before the Close of Navigation—Business Shows a General Improvement in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—The capabilities of the C.P.R. are already found inadequate for the enormous traffic which has sprung up since wheat began to move. Engines are kept constantly on the go and yet they cannot haul away the grain, stock and other freight cars, as fast as loaded. Three hundred cars were loaded with wheat in the province to-day, which is the largest number ever yet loaded in one day. It is expected this record will be broken before the end of the week. Prominent C.P.R. officials to-day stated that they expected to get ten million bushels of wheat to Fort William before navigation closed. In cattle shipments it is calculated that the total for the season will be 40 thousand head, against 30 thousand last year.

A general improvement in trade is being manifested in many ways, in spite of Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Hon. Mr. Daly's refusal to promise improved Red River navigation. Those in the lumber, fishing, fuel and other industries of Lake Winnipeg are preparing for increased business. The latest addition to the fish business is Charles Noble of Killarney, Ont., who is already preparing for next season's work. Several new American firms are also entering the field. The attention of Americans has also been attracted to the lumber business here, owing to logs being admitted free of duty. It is proposed to build large rafts in the city and float the logs down Red River and its tributaries on the United States side of the boundary and convert them into lumber there.

Captain T. Desmond of Cape Breton passed through the city to-day en route home from Behring Sea sealing operations. He says the small catch this season was due to unfavorable weather and prohibition of firearms. Speaking of seizures, the captain says United States commanders certainly acted illegally this season. He says he has a claim of $59,940.10, against the United States for illegal seizures a few years ago.

J. B. Tyrrell of the Dominion Geological Department arrived from the north to-day and departs for Ottawa to-morrow. Mr. Tyrrell spent the summer in the regions on the east side of Lake Winnipeg. He did not find very promising indications of minerals, but, contrary to general belief, there are large tracts of arable land, partly wooded and partly prairie.

There has been political strife in the ranks of the temperance people of this city for many months back. Discord arose over the Provincial Prohibition League casting in its lot with the Patrons of Industry, when the latter adopted prohibition as a plank in their platform. The Dominion Alliance held aloof from all political parties, but was supposed to be too favorable to the Liberals. At the annual meeting of the alliance this evening a determined effort was made to commit the organization to the support of the Patron candidates in the coming election. There was wrangling from beginning to end of the meeting. It was decided, however, to preserve the political independence of the organization. A test vote was taken on the election of President. Rev. Prof. Dedeice being re-elected over Joseph Hogg.

WILL PROBABLY DIE.

A Serious Case of Stabbing Which Took Place at New Germany—Accident or Crime, Which?

Ridgeway, Oct. 9.—As the result of a stab wound a young man named Bowers of New Germany, a settlement five miles north of Ridgeway, is in a fair way to die. The circumstances leading up to the injury are hard to obtain. One of the stories states that two lads, named House and Bowers, while skinning a rabbit they had caught and killed, became involved in a playful altercation for the possession of a knife which House was using. In the struggle the sharp-pointed instrument penetrated Bowers' stomach, inflicting a terrible gash.

Bowers was promptly removed to his home and a doctor was sent for. When the physician arrived he found the young man in a terrible condition. From the gaping aperture in the lad's stomach his intestines protruded. The local physician advised the immediate calling in of the best surgical aid that Buffalo could furnish. This was done, but it is understood there are practically no hopes of young Bowers' recovery.

"I was troubled for a long time with an itching humor on the scalp," says Mr. D. P. Davis, Neal's Landing, Fla., "but at last, being recommended Ayer's Hair Vigor, I tried it, and a complete cure was effected. Everyone who has used it speaks well of this dressing.

WEDDING PARTY POISONED.

An Iowa Town Thrown Into a Panic—Two Dead, 100 Sick.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 8.—The State Board of Health has received an appeal from Sabula, where a large part of the population is suffering from poisoning which occurred at a wedding three weeks ago. Two persons died yesterday, making four dead. D. C. Gage, the groom at the wedding, will die, and, it is feared, others cannot recover. The wails of the victims can be heard all over the town day and night. Over 100 are sick. The doctors believe the people are suffering from trichinosis, but the symptoms reported to the State Board, which sent a representative to Sabula, are those of cholera morbus. The doctors there are exhausted, and the town is in a condition of panic.

THE SECRET OUT

THE secret is out. The Government Insurance Blue Books have revealed it. The facts of the case will prove of real value to all those seeking a company where permanent satisfaction can be secured under a Policy of Life Insurance. The telescope has been turned upon those who withdrew from six prominent companies in 1894.

It is obvious to any one that the proportion of persons who lapse or surrender their policies in any company is a fairly good test of the satisfaction or dissatisfaction existing therein. If policy-holders are receiving satisfactory profit results, if they are being honestly and honourably dealt with, if they cannot do better elsewhere, then it is plain these facts will show themselves in the small number who surrender their policies or allow them to lapse.

To test these conditions, and to discover the company that is giving greatest satisfaction to its policy-holders, as evidenced by their determination to continue their policies, we have made an analysis of the facts, as reported in the blue books containing the business for 1894 of the leading Canadian Companies. We have calculated the ratio per cent. of assurances surrendered to the average business in force in 1894 also the ratio per cent. of assurance lapsed to the average business in force. Intending assurers have here an inside view of Life Assurance that is full of significance. When a company stands out so prominently as does the CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY in this test, it means that its merits are known and recognized by those who become connected with it.

This is but another of those numerous tests in which the CANADA LIFE shows its superiority.

The following table tells the whole story:—

COMPANY.	Per Cent. Surrendered.	Per Cent. Lapsed.	Per Cent. Lapsed and Surrendered.
CANADA LIFE	.70	2.10	2.80
Confederation Life	2.33	4.65	6.98
North American	1.73	6.97	8.70
Ontario Mutual	2.51	6.59	9.10
Sun Life	2.63	8.54	11.17

The above figures are compiled from the Dominion Insurance report, issued by the Superintendent of Insurance, at Ottawa.

Once more, and as usual, the CANADA LIFE COMPANY comes out on top.

COMPARE

The following two Peterborough results with anything else of the kind in existence in the town. Other companies promise, we perform. That is the great difference.

W. H's Life Policy for $10,000, issued April, 1889, Age 28, Annual Premium $177.

Total Cost for 6 years.....1,062 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy.....1,250 Dollars

A. E's Life Policy for $5,000, issued April, 1886, Age 22, Annual Premium $86.

Total Cost for 9 years.....774 Dollars
Profits Added to Policy.....1,000 Dollars

More than 200 Dollars over Cost of Insurance.

A Tony Barber Shop.

The new Oriental barber shop, splendidly furnished and fitted up, has been opened out by Mr. J. Mongraw, a practical barber well known in town. It is now the toniest tonsorial parlour in town, good taste and skill being used in the furnishings. The three new patent chairs are nobby and worth trying. Everything first-class.

Bears Abroad.

On Wednesday last Mr. Thos. Mason, of Boskung, Stanhope, had five sheep killed by bears in broad daylight; one had been killed the night previously and bruin had returned to satisfy his appetite for mutton the next day. The bear was seen chasing the sheep by a cattle buyer who was driving past the place at the time. We expect to hear of a big bear hunt in that locality soon, as if the bears are not either killed or driven from the locality we will hear of more such depredations on the flocks of the Stanhope settlers.—Minden Echo.

To Morrow Night's Concert.

Thursday evening is the date of the Michael Young concert. To the fine array of talent represented by Mr. Ernest Wood, basso; Allan Fairweather, tenor, and Lincoln Carlisle, comic, is to be added the remarkable singer, Master Michael Young, who will delight the audience by his artistic singing. Of him the Guelph Daily Herald says:—"He is an interesting personality, is a natural musician, and evidently feels all that he pours forth in song. He possesses a voice of silvery quality and of remarkable compass. His lower notes are very sweet, the more especially when his natural high range of voice is considered." Don't fail to hear the fine programme at the Opera House, Thursday night. Admission 25c. and 50c. 1d

WANT THAT MONEY.

City Battalions Will Urge Their Claims for 12 Days Pay.

Lt.-Col. Bell left last night for Ottawa, where he will join the deputations sent from other city battalions to wait on the Minister of Militia, and urge the claims of the men for twelve days pay instead of only eight.

The battalions drilled all season in expectation of receiving their usual allowance, and some of them expended money in various ways in the full belief that they would be reimbursed when the department distributed the usual grant. The deduction of four days pay, therefore, is naturally resented by the volunteer militia, and their claim upon it will not be relinquished without a struggle, which will have more far reaching results.

The Rangers is one of the battalions which made a large expenditure in the expectation of receiving the usual 12 days pay. The men took their usual outing on the First of July, and if four days pay is knocked off, it will make a big hole in the local military chest, the inside of which is not too well lined with gold pieces.

THE RANGERS PREPARING FOR INSPECTION.

Lt.-Col. Cotton, D.A.G., Will be the Inspecting Officer—The Orders.

The Rangers turned out for their regular weekly drill for inspection last evening very strong, and after spending an hour in company drill, afterwards drilled as a battalion until about a quarter to ten. The men are getting into fine shape as evidenced by the splendid form in which they marched on Sunday last, when they attended Divine worship in St. Andrew's church. Before dismissal last night the following orders were read:

HEADQUARTERS,
Peterborough, Oct. 1st, 1895.

Orders by Lt. Col. R. W. Bell, commanding the 57th Battalion of Infantry, Peterborough Rangers:

1. As the dates for inspection have been fixed for 21st, 22nd, 24th and 25th, October, the order of inspection will be as follows:

Monday evening, 21st, at 7.30, "C" and "D" Companies.

Tuesday evening, 22nd, at 7.30, "E" and "F" Companies.

Thursday evening, 24th, at 7.30, "A" and "B" Companies.

Friday afternoon, 25th, at 2.00, Battalion Inspection.

2. Leave or absence from parade has been granted Maj. Edwards, Capt. Hayes and Lieut. Mills.

By order,
E. F. MASON, Capt.,
Adjt. 57th Batt.

High Class Minstrels.

On Friday evening next Guy Brothers' Minstrels will give a performance at the opera house. The Guy Brothers have been here every season for several years past and they have always given a first class show, one which was attended by ladies as well as gentlemen and a good laugh enjoyed by all alike. They maintain their reputation for a high class minstrel show by shunning anything of an objectionable character. See them on Friday evening, and get your seats marked at once if good ones are desired, for there will be a large sale. Plans at Street Railway office. Prices, 50c, 35c and 25c

MASONIC EVENT IN HAVELOCK LAST EVENING.

A New Masonic Lodge Formally Instituted in This Progressive Village.

The hustling village of Havelock was alive with members of the Masonic fraternity on Tuesday evening, the occasion being the formal organization of Havelock Lodge, and the investing of the officers and members with the official authority from Grand Lodge for the transaction of business. Members of the craft residing in Havelock have for some years evinced a strong desire to establish a lodge of their own in the village, but difficulties had been encountered which delayed its formation. During the past summer negotiations were renewed and carried on with determined zeal and has resulted in the formation of this lodge under the most gratifying and successful auspices.

In answer to the prayer of the petitioners for a dispensation, R. W. Bro. R. E. Wood, of Peterborough, District Deputy Grand Master of the 12th Masonic District of Ontario, proceeded to Havelock on Tuesday for the purpose of instituting the new lodge.

He was followed in the evening by some twenty-five members of Corinthan Lodge, No. 101, and Peterborough Lodge, No. 155, who kindly volunteered to assist in organizing. Along with these came several contingents of visiting brethren representing fraternal lodges in Toronto Junction, Campbellford, Keene Lakefield, Stirling, Marmora, Smith's Falls and other places. The number of visiting brethren and members of Havelock lodge who registered during the evening were 85, constituting one of the largest and most representative Masonic gatherings present at the formal opening ceremonies of any new lodge known to some of the oldest Masons in Ontario.

At the appointed hour the D. D. G. M. called the craft to order and assisted by W. Bro. R. M. Dennistoun, I.P.M. of Corinthan Lodge, No. 101, and a number of other well skilled Past Masters from visiting lodges, proceeded with the interesting ceremonies of instituting the new lodge. On the completion of these ceremonies the D. D. G. M. addressed the brethren, congratulating them on the very successful formation of their new lodge, and gave them some practical and useful advice and words of counsel for their future guidance.

After the exemplification of some of the work in the various degrees, the brethren adjourned, to partake of a banquet which had been prepared for the occasion.

The new Hall, which is situated in Philips' new block, is a credit to the Havelock brethren. The furnishings and fittings are entirely new, and on a scale that surprised the visiting brethren. The floor is covered with a beautiful Brussels carpet of a Masonic pattern, representing different emblems of the order. The officers' chairs and pedestals are all in oak finish, covered with Masonic designs, emblematic of the symbols of their various offices. The walls were decorated with Masonic charts and pictures, and the ceilings and walls were tastefully festooned with flags and bunting for the special occasion.

The following are the names of the first roll of officers off Havelock Lodge, which starts of with an active membership of thirty members:—

W H Port	W.M
H McQuade	S.W
Alex McAuley	J.W
Rev Dr McClelland	Chap
W Dodds	Sec
Dr W H Toff	Treas
Thos Milne	S.D
Fred Drewitt	J.D
W Ritchie	S.S
J Barlow	J.S
J Doricott	M. of C
F Williams	I.G
W Code	Tyler

The regular meetings of the Lodge will be held on the first Friday of the month on or before the full of the moon.

THE BANQUET.

The banquet was held in Drain's hall, which was gaily decorated for the occasion. Three long tables were spread for the guests, and the excellence of the menu was favourably commented upon by all. The admirable catering was entrusted to Mr. Jas. Graham of the Graham House, and the toothsome viands with which the tables were abundantly loaded, reflected credit upon all concerned. The tables were profusely decorated with palms, flowering plants and ornamental shrubs, the set out being the best ever put on in Havelock.

The chair was occupied by R. W. Bro. Wood, D.D.G.M., who proposed the first toast of the evening, "The Queen and the craft" which received an appropriate Masonic reception. Song, "God Save the Queen."

Bro. Dr. Jeffs proposed "The Grand Master and the Grand Lodge of Canada," responded to by R. W. Bro. Wood, and W. Bro. Dennistoun.

Song by Bro. Shipman, "English, you Know," loudly encored.

The chairman gave "Canada, our Home," Song, "The Maple Leaf Forever." Responded to by Rev. Bro. A. M. McClelland. The rev. gentleman spoke in glowing terms of the grand future in store for Canada. Canadians came of a noble ancestry, who had proved themselves in the past eras of the world to be noble and heroic men, and the same blood that ran in their veins runs in ours to-day. He hoped Canada would long remain under the sovereignty of Great Britain. (Cheers.) Song, "Red, White and Blue."

The vice chairman, Bro. W. S. Dodds, proposed the toast of "The Visiting Brethren." Responded to by a number of visiting brethren from sister lodges.

A number of volunteer toasts and songs followed, when the company broke up at an early hour.

Sleeplessness, Mental and Physical Fatigue

Go hand in hand. The waste of the body that ought to be restored by rest and sleep suffers increasing diminution; the loss of strength and vigor of body and mind follows. It is in this class of diseases that the marvellous properties of Maltine with Coca Wine are most markedly exhibited. It penetrates to the very sources of vital action, inasmuch as the nerve centres are impressed by its medicinal power and the digestive functions stimulated to increased and more efficient action. This imparts to the whole system the much needed impetus, the nerves are soothed from a state of irritability to that of repose—sleep, with all its beneficent influences, comes back to lend its aid to the process of restoration. Digestion keeps pace with the improvement of appetite, and in a short time the nervous, miserable sufferer regains his old-time vigor and the capability to enjoy life and all it affords. Maltine with Coca Wine is sold by all druggists.

—The Josephine Kid Glove Cleaner is unlike any other—that's the good of it. Ladies will not do without it at twice the cost once they use it. Sold by Robt. Fair, sign of the Golden Lion, headquarters for Perrin Freres' celebrated Kid Gloves in newest styles for all occasions.

THE KINGSTON BY ELECTION.

Hon. Wm. Harty Re-Elected by Acclamation—The Conservatives Fail to Find a Candidate.

KINGSTON, Oct. 8th.—Sharp at noon today Mr. J. P. Gildersleeve read the writ giving him authority to receive nominations for candidates desiring to contest this riding in the approaching by-election. Geo. Mills immediately stepped to the front of the platform and nominated the Hon. Wm. Harty, saying that while he regretted the cause of the meeting, he had full confidence in his nominee being again returned to administer the affairs of the people of this constituency in the cabinet of the Legislative Assembly. Ex. Ald. J.C. Hardy seconded the nomination.

HON. WM. HARTY.

The audience was large and fully represented the electors of the city. After waiting for a full hour the crowd became impatient and demanded the returning officer to do his duty and declare Hon. Mr. Harty elected. He told them the law could not be hurried. At six minutes after one the returning officer arose and declared that Hon. William Harty, Commissioner of Public Works for Ontario, was the member for Kingston by acclamation. The announcement was received with much applause. Mr. Harty's many friends in Peterborough congratulate him on his re-election.

INFRACTION OF THE GAME LAWS.

Americans Trying to Have Their Fines Remitted for Shooting Without Permits.

A number of citizens have within the last week received marked copies of the Rochester Democrat, severely criticising the action of the Canadian authorities in fining three Rochester gentlemen $50 for hunting without permits back at Burleigh.

An effort is being made through Mr. Dodds, the local U. S. Consular agent, to have the fine remitted, proceedings being grounded on an Order-in-Council passed in the Dominion House in August, '94, and in which the Fishery Regulations are amended by the following clause: "Foreigners, when temporarily domiciled in Canada, and employing Canadian boats and boatmen, will be exempted from the regulations requiring permits."

Mr. Dodds points out that the party in question were temporarily domiciled with Mr. John Holmes at Burleigh, and rented boats from him. So far so good, but the amendment is one passed in the Dominion House, and refers to the Fishery Regulations only. It does not in any way affect the Provincial Game Laws, as carried out in this instance by Game Warden Smith.

A WORD OF EXPLANATION.

The letter below will explain and substantiate our statements in reference to Health Brand Underwear. We have made the announcements that we are the only house in Peterborough who have these goods direct from the mill this season, consequently placing us in a position to undersell any house who has to buy through any outside source.

To prove to the public that what we announced was perfectly truthful, notwithstanding that others would try to lead you to believe different, we have the following letter from the Montreal Silk Mills Co, which we will allow to speak for itself.

THE LETTER.

MONTREAL, SEPT. 7th, 1895.

Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co., Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—We have kept faith with arrangements entered into with you in every respect, and have not shipped one dollar's worth of "Health Brand" goods to any other house in your city this season, nor shall we do so.

You are at liberty to use this letter if necessary, in support of anything you may say, or advertise, in this connection. Yours Truly,

THE MONTREAL SILK MILLS CO., L'td.

REV. DR. SEXTON SPEAKS ON ATHEISM.

THE CHAIR IS TAKEN BY REV. DR. TORRANCE.

St. Andrew's Lecture Room Well Filled by Those Anxious for Enlightment on This Question—The Learned Doctor's Instructive Discourse.

The Rev. Dr. Sexton gave his lecture on "The Folly of Atheism," last evening, in St. Andrew's church. The Rev. Dr. Torrance occupied the chair. There was a moderately good attendance.

After a few introductory remarks, the Doctor said:—The question of God's existence lies at the root of all religion, and is its foundation and support. If there be no God then it is clear that every system of theology in the world must be false, and all worship idle and delusive. The large majority of the hopes and fears that have agitated men's minds from the dawn of humanity until now have been simply the mad dreams of millions of disordered brains, baseless as the visions of the night, and unsubstantial as the hallucinations of a maniac. Certain it is that if Atheism be the true philosophy, the whole world with a few exceptional instances, hardly worth naming, has been labouring under a huge delusion ever since the time when the earliest records give us the faintest knowledge of the sayings and doings of our race. And even to-day upon this supposition, the truth is not known to one man in a million—the rest are still in the darkness of old errors, and misled by the superstition of their fathers. To say the least of it, this is not a pleasant state of things to contemplate, when we take into consideration the that religion has in all times brought to the suffering, the friendless and the distressed, the persecuted and the afflicted, the sick and the dying. Not easily will men give up their faith in God until something higher, nobler and better adapted to human needs and human wants be offered in its place. Show us that God is not, and the loss is incalculable.

Theism asserts that there is a God, and as far as I am concerned I do this in the most positive manner. I do not say I think there is a God, or believe there is a God, but, there is a God, or in other words God exists. The Atheist says there is no God. And do not let me be told here that Atheists do not deny the existence of God, for I can show you if necessary that many of them have done so in the most dogmatic fashion. The more moderate form of unbelief, however, is content to say that there may be a God, but that sufficient evidence of His existence is not to be had. This is in reality not Atheism, but Agnosticism. Nevertheless it will answer equally well for my purpose on this occasion. Theism is as I will show you capable of furnishing a rational theory of the universe, harmonious and complete as a whole and therefore satisfactory from and we demand of Atheism that it shall do the same, and if it fail, as it most assuredly will, then we must pronounce it unphilosophic and false. You will find as a rule that the Atheist will take refuge behind a negation, saying that as he affirms nothing he cannot be expected to prove a negative, and hence by this means he seeks to avoid all argument, save that of mere denial, which of course is a very easy process, whatever may be the truth that is set forth or affirmed. Mr. Holyoake, an authority on the Atheistic side—himself an Atheist—has well said of the mere Negationist, "His stock in trade is the simplest possible. He has only to deny what somebody else holds and he is set up in the art of controversy." This is very true. Denials are of course simple enough. Pulling down or destroying is very easy work. An idot may spoil a painting in five minutes which it took a man of genius a life time to produce. But we cannot allow the Atheist to take this position. For he often affirms very much indeed and his affirmations require proof equally with those of the Theist. And besides in philosophy the human mind cannot rest in a mere negation. Thus, if Atheism be the true philosophy of the universe, it must prove itself to be so, by boldly facing all the facts of existence, and giving us such an explanation of them as it is able to furnish. Unless it can do this, it can never satisfy a thinking, enquiring mind. The position taken by a certain modern school, that we should rest content with the facts of nature, and make no attempt from them, is absurd, and the task which it enjoins impossible. No sane man can long be content to contract his thoughts within the narrow boundaries of the region of sense, and to rest in the confines of the visible. Facts are valueless, except as far as they shadow forth a philosophy relating to that which lies behind them, and the business of which is to explain them and to trace their causes. Any attempt to drive back the human mind from this inquiry must inevitably fail, as it has always failed in the history of the past. As Professor Huxley has well said, "The term positive, as implying a sense of thought, which assumes nothing beyond the content of observed facts, implies that which never did exist, and never will."

A PHILOSOPHIC STANDPOINT,

TO DRAW INFERENCES

The Doctor then proceeded to lay down a series of philosophical propositions and to maintain that no one of these could be disputed by any rational mind. These, he shewed, led as certainly to the existence of God by the Baconian system of induction, as the phenomena of nature to the laws by which they are governed.

To describe these at length would take up much more space than we can devote to the subject. But one or two important passages we may quote from the lecture. The following has a reference to the manifestation of thought in the universe:

The distinguishing characteristic of the physical universe is that the laws by which it is governed are mathematical relations. Gravitation is a numerical law, and under its influence the curves described by the heavenly bodies are the ellipse, circle, parabola and hyperbola—that is, they all belong to the class of curves called conic sections, the properties of which occupied the great mind of Plato thousands of years before Newton demonstrated that whatever was true of them might be transferred to the heavenly bodies. Many of the geometer's a priori laws were first suggested by natural forms; and others,

AS EUCLID'S DIVISION,

in extreme and mean ratio, were afterwards discovered to be embodied in the universe. I have no time here, nor is it necessary, to explain these laws. They are known to every mathematician. Suffice it to say that natural symmetry leads us to investigate, first, the mathematical law which it embodies and then the mechanical law which embodies it. Thus all the benefits that the race has derived from the pursuit and discovery of physical science have come to us through the suggestions of geometrical thoughts in the universe. Now, all regularity of form is as truly an expression of thought as a geometrical diagram can be. The particles of matter take their form in obedience to a force which is acting according to an intellectual law, imposing conditions on its exercise. It does not alter the reality of this ultimate dependence of symmetry upon thought, simply to introduce a chain of secondary causes, between the original thinking and the final expression of the thought. A geometrical figure, whether drawn by a piece of chalk upon a blackboard, or engraved on a block of wood and printed in a book, or making itself apparent in natural phenomena, presents in the one case as in the other incontrovertible evidence that a geometer has by this means expressed a geometrical thought.

All natural forms conform more or less closely to geometrical ideals. This is the case alike in animals and plants. Nature, therefore, may be looked upon as made up of a series of drawings and models by which the science of mathematics may be taught in the school of life.

IN PLANETS AND CRYSTALS,

With regard to another phrase of the argument, the Doctor said: The fact that man everywhere has some sort of idea of God has been considered a complete proof of the existence of such a Being by many of the greatest men that have ever lived—such men as Anselm, Spinoza, Descartes, Leibnitz, etc. Their argument took the following form: "We have the idea of a perfect Being in our minds. But existence is part of this idea, and a necessary part; for an imaginary being is less perfect than a real being. Therefore we are so made as necessarily to believe in the existence of a perfect Being. Whenever we think of God we are obliged to think of Him as existing. And we can have no higher proof of any reality than that we necessarily believe in its existence so soon as the idea of it arises in our mind." Whether this argument be conclusive or not, that which springs from it most certainly is—viz., that religious worship, in some form or other, has been engaged in in every age and in every land. If this practice be

BASED UPON AN ILLUSION,

how can we know that anything is true? For what is there that is more universal? If religions are false, then universal humanity is in error. And that being so, we can have no possible guarantee for truth on any subject. Our most patent instincts may be delusions, and our most cherished ideas hallucinations. But even then we require to be told how this tremendous delusion called religion arose. What are the causes that gave it birth? What the circumstances that called it into being? This is what the Atheist must explain if he wishes to recommend his philosophy. But he has no explanation to give, and none is possible upon his theory. The only solution of the problem will be found in the fact that "God-consciousness" is deeply implanted in the soul; and the aspiration after the Infinite, the All-Perfect, the Absolute One, is a characteristic of universal humanity. Professor Tyndall has well said: "No Atheistical reasoning can dislodge religion from the heart of man. Logic cannot deprive us of life, and religion is life to the religious. As an experience of consciousness, it is perfectly beyond the assaults of logic. This is so; and hence Atheism can never take firm hold of the mind of man. Man is a religious being, and can no more change his nature in this respect than his physical form. Atheism is foreign to human nature, and can never, under any circumstance become general. The human soul finds its resting place only in God and nothing else can satisfy its deepest wants.

The lecture on the whole was a very profound one, and must have been the result of much deep thought and very extensive reading. It lasted about an hour and a quarter, and was listened to with the greatest attention.

At the close a vote of thanks was given to the learned lecturer.

WEDDING BELLS.

Celebration of the Green-McBurney Nuptials Last Evening.

A very pleasant event took place last evening at the residence of Mr. H. P. Lindsay, George street, when Miss Annie McBurney and Mr. Garnet G. Green were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., tied the nuptial knot in the presence of about twenty of the intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The winsome bride was assisted by Miss M. Patton, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Frank Green. At the conclusion of the ceremony the guests were invited to partake of the bountiful repast which had been prepared, after which a pleasant evening was spent, until Mr. and Mrs. Green drove to their residence on Hunter street.

Both bride and groom are well known in Peterborough, and have earned the respect and esteem of those who know them, and all will join in wishing them a happy and prosperous married life.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—No Police Court this morning.

FALL HOUSE-CLEANING SALE OF

WALL PAPERS

Equinoctial gales remind us that fall is upon us and winter near. We have already had severe enough days so far as weather is concerned to remind us that summer is gone, that fall will soon reach its end and that then winter and its snows will be upon us.

In anticipation of the annual season for House-Cleaning and Re-Decorating of the home, we started to-day an October Wall Paper Sale on a greater scale than ever before. The more we sell the cheaper we sell. Our store is loaded with new styles and designs of this season's importations—no store in Ontario carries a larger stock and no store will or can sell cheaper. Now is the best time to buy Wall Papers; now is the best time to put them on and the best place to procure them is at the most elaborate and most finely appointed Paper Warerooms of THE PETERBOROUGH BOOKSTORE

Make things bright
For Winter Nights.

Picture Framing.

This is a timely hint. If the thoughtful housekeeper wants any pictures framed in time for the Fall house-cleaning and decorating, we would be pleased to have their orders now, before the rush of orders start.

In anticipation of these early orders, we have just placed in stock an elegant line of Mouldings, which we will be pleased to show to all who wish to have their pictures framed in some of the newest of high-class designs.

In every line we carry, we lead.
We carry every line you need.

ADVERTISERS

Is There Anything In This For You?

"THE EXAMINER" is read every day by thousands of people who buy and pay cash for their goods.

The DAILY EXAMINER is the Popular Peterborough Evening Paper, and we are bound to place it in every home in the Town, thereby covering the whole ground for the advertiser. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Just spend his Four Quarters for a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters as all sensible people do; because it cures Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Bad Blood, and all Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels and Blood from a common Pimple to the worst Scrofulous Sore.

INSPECTOR McGRATH KILLED.

Thrown From a Buggy and Has His Neck Broken.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Mr. Bolton McGrath was thrown from a buggy Sunday and had his neck broken. Deceased was one of the best known men around Ottawa. He was a land surveyor by profession, but for 30 years was school inspector for the County of Carleton, and took a prominent part in educational matters in Eastern Ontario. Mr. McGrath was 70 years old. A son of the deceased is a member in the Legislature for the Northwest Teritories.

CONSULS DEMAND PROTECTION.

Violence Feared by British and German Consuls at Bogota

Colon, Oct. 8.—The British and German Ministers at Bogota, Mr. Jenner and Mr. Luhren, have demanded the protection of the authorities against popular violence and their respective legations are being guarded by the police. The trouble has grown from the attitude of the Government towards the English and German railway contractors.

Germany Wants Our Leather.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Consul H. F. Merritt, stationed at Barmen, Germany, in a report on the use of American leather in Germany, says its importation is increasing. Shoe manufacturers who, three years ago, would not look at American glazed kid are now importing hundreds of dozens at a time. Prices of German leather have advanced very much, which makes it the easier to obtain the increased prices for the American article.

Admiral Drummond Dead.

London, Oct. 8.—Admiral Sir James Robert Drummond of her Majesty's Navy, retired, died to-day. He was 83 years of age.

Madame Patti is Ill.

London, Oct. 8.—Mme. Adelina Patti was seized with a sudden illness at Birmingham to-day. She had arranged to sing in that town to-night, but was unable to fulfil her engagement.

French Treaty Ratified

London, Oct. 7.—The commercial treaty between France and Great Britain relating to trade between France and the Dominion of Canada, was ratified on Saturday.

Held Up a Train for 85 Cents.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—A special to The Star from Fort Smith says: Six men held up the northbound train on the St. Louis and Francisco Railroad last night near Casto, I.T. The robbers secured but 85 cents.

Italy's Abyssinian Campaign.

Rome, Oct. 8.—A despatch from Massowah says Gen. Baratiere learning that King Menelek of Abyssinia had begun to move his troops, commenced to march his forces from Adigrat today. This movement inaugurates an active campaign against the enemy.

Three Probable Cardinals.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The Figaro publishes a despatch from its correspondtnt in Rome, which asserts that Archbishop Satolli, Papal delegate to the United States, together with Mgr. Agliardi, Papal Nuncio at Vienna, and Mgr. Ferratta, Papal Nuncio at Paris, will be elevated to the cardinalate at the next consistory.

MURDERED WHILE ASLEEP.

A Daughter's Crime Caused by Objection to a Lover.

Summerfield, Kas., Oct. 4.—Julia Finnerty, aged 30, has broken down under close examination and confessed that she murdered her mother, Mrs. Mary Finnerty, aged 67. She committed the crime, she said, because of her objection to the suit of James McGeeney, a young farmer, for her hand. The crime was committed with a hatchet while the victim was asleep.

THE MANITOBA HARVEST.

The Farmers of the North West Will Have Plenty of Money to Spend.

Winnipeg, (Special) Oct. 7.—The prospects of a good year for the Manitoba farmers are now assured, thanks to the abundant harvest. One of the causes for the sickness prevalent last year will now be obviated, as the farmers will have more money to spare for the purchase of the necessities for health. One of the straws which shows which way the wind is blowing is the fact that druggists are ordering the well-known remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, in unusually large quantities. The inhabitants of the province are well aware of the value of the medicine, and only the financial stringency has hitherto prevented its universal use.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says, "Shiloh's Vitalizer 'saved my life,' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75 cts. Sold by John Nugent, 389 George street.

Not a Scar Left.

In scrofulous cases under ordinary treatment scars are left when the sores are healed. The action of Burdock Blood Bitters is assisted by applying it externally as well as internally There is no cutting, no knife, just a natural healing power over abscesses, ulcers, sores, etc., that leaves the flesh as clean and sound as a babe's.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

Cleveland Captures the Cup

Baltimore, Oct. 8.—The fifth game of the Temple Cup series was played here to-day and won by Cleveland by 5 to 2. Cleveland having won four games is the winner of the cup.

The failures of the Baltimore Club in the Temple Cup series of games are among the strange occurrences in baseball. This team has won the National League championship two years in succession, and thus far has only been able to win a single one of the Temple Cup series that have followed the end of each championship season. Last year the New York Club did up Hanlon's men four straight games—three of them being played in Baltimore. This year Cleveland took three straight games, and on Monday Baltimore broke the spell by shutting out the Spiders.

Up to the end of the sixth innings to-day there had been but three hits made off Hoffer. Young was the first man up in the seventh. He cracked out a double, Burkett singled, and McKeen sacrificed. Young, however, was held on third.

Kelley's error in dropping a ball from Childs' bat allowed Young to score. Singles by McAleer and Tebeau and two dumb exhibitions by Gleason and Carey gave the Cleveland's two more runs. Three singles and an error netted them two in the succeeding innings. Baltimore earned one in the seventh. In this innings an incipient riot followed Tebeau's attempt to spike Hoffer as he ran past first. Returning to the base, Hoffer vigorously punched Tebeau, felling him to the ground. Excitement ran high, as the players rushed in from the field, while yells and imprecations filled the air. The champions added another tally to their score in the ninth, and at one time had a chance of winning the game. With two out, McGraw and Keeler drew bases on balls, and Jennings was hit by the pitcher. With the bases full, Kelley was brought to bring the needed runs in. The best he could do was to single, scoring McGraw. Brodie sought to punch out a triple or homer, but he failed miserably. The Cleveland players were escorted to their hotel by the police. The chilly weather had a bad effect on the attendance, which was a little less than 5000. Score:

Baltimore	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1—2
Cleveland	0 0 0 0 0 0 3 2 0—5

Batteries—Hoffer and Clarke, Young and Zimmer. Umpires—Keefe and Hurst.

Opening at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—The 23rd annual fall meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse-Breeders' Association opened here to-day. The weather was delightful. A small shower of rain last night put the track in excellent condition. The chief event of the day was the Kentucky Futurity for 3-year-olds.

Harness Races at Windsor.

Windsor, Oct. 8.—The harness races here drew a large crowd to-day, although the weather was cold and a keen wind blew. Nutwood Wilkes won the matched race, distancing Gladstone. The Wilkes horse sold 3 to 10, Gladstone 3 to 2. Edgar H., the 2.28 pace winner, was no better than 8 and 10 to 2 in the first two heats, but sold 6 to 5 and 4 to 5 in the last two. The judges replaced Simmons behind Kathleen by Marcon after the second heat. The races were carded for four days, but will last fully six. The summaries:

First race, 2.28 class, pacing; purse, $500:

TRADES UNIONS ATTACKED.

Their Tyranny Denounced as a Disgrace to the Cause of Labor.

London, Oct. 8.—The Free Labor Congress opened its session at Newcastle to-day according to program, with 80 delegates in attendance. A letter was read from Mr. Thomas Burt, M.P., in which he expressed hope that the efforts of the Congress to obtain the creation of boards of arbitration to act in the settlement of disputes between employers and employes will be successful.

President Chandler, in his opening address, made an attack upon trades unions, which, he declared, were maintained by self-seekers whose tyranny disgraced the cause of labor and struck a heavy blow at the trade of the nation. The Free Labor Association, he said, was cultivating better relations between employers and employed, and aimed at the prevention of senseless strikes.

CANDY FOR CHILDREN.

The Popular Health Magazine says the desire in a child for candy and sweets is a natural one and should not be stifled. Good candy and sweets in moderation, not only do no harm, but are actually beneficial. Too much sweet upsets the stomach and spoils the appetite, but candy in moderation if it is not taken before a meal, is food which children crave naturally, and among the purest and most wholesome is that manufactured by

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

A MEDICINE

WITHOUT AN EQUAL.

Statement of a Well Known Doctor

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is without an equal as a blood-purifier and Spring medicine, and cannot have praise enough. I have watched its effects in chronic cases, where other treatment was of no avail, and have been astonished at the results. No other blood medicine that I have ever used, and I have tried them all, is so thorough in its action, and effects so many permanent cures as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Dr. H. F. MERRILL, Augusta, Me.

RAINED ROCKS AT NIAGARA.

Canadians Compelled to Leave Their Houses Owing to Heavy Blasts of Rock.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Oct. 8.—Mayor Cutler to-day received a telegram from Governor Morton requesting him to repress reckless blasting in the gorge railway works, rocks from which did considerable damage across the river, Saturday night. The Governor says if the blasting is not remedied at once measures will be taken by him. The Mayor has notified the contractors to stop entirely or use smaller charges. A dozen terrific explosions occurred Saturday afternoon. Large pieces of rock, weighing 40 to 50 pounds, were thrown a distance of over 300 feet and descended on the railway Suspension bridge and over the passenger yards of the G.T.R., and the tracks of the Niagara Falls Park and River Railway. Residents along the Canadian bank have been compelled to move out of their homes. As many as 40 to 50 pianos have been ruined in houses on both sides of the river.

THE MADAGASCAR CAMPAIGN.

Two Armies Now in Sight of the Capital—Outrages by Mobs.

London, Oct. 8.—A despatch to The Pall Mall Gazette from Antananarivo says that on Sept. 25 a native mob made a raid upon the British cemetery at the Hova capital and broke open a number of coffins, mutilating the bodies contained therein. The mob also made an attack upon the French observatory, which they destroyed, and for a time menaced the destruction of the house of the French resident. The two armies are now in sight of the capital and the firing incident to their skirmishes can be plainly heard. Native soldiers are flocking into the town and reinforcements are being rapidly sent to the front. A number of prominent Hovas have left the city upon what is supposed to be a diplomatic mission, and it is the general supposition that their object is to treat with the French representatives with a view of arranging a cessation of hostilities.

PARNELLITE DEMANDS

Home Rule, Amnesty, Evicted Tenants Bill and an Irish Reform Bill.

Dublin, Oct. 8.—The annual convention of the Parnellite Parliamentary party was held here to-day, Mr. John E. Redmond, M.P., presiding. Resolutions were passed demanding that the Irish Parliamentary party make the question of the legislative independence of Ireland a paramount issue in politics, that the Government release all political prisoners; that the party in power introduce a bill in the House of Commons restraining their holdings to Irish evicted tenants; that the Government give to the municipalities in Ireland rights similar to those enjoyed by like communities in England, and that a Reform Bill be passed, including a provision for compulsory sale.

DOUBLE MURDER.

Father and Son Killed in a Riot at Tonawanda

North Tonawanda, N.Y., Oct. 8.—A double murder was committed on P.W. Scribner's lumber docks at an early hour Monday morning, and up to the present time 14 men have been arrested and search is being made for others.

Shortly after midnight Capt. Phillips of the canal boat Jenny Craft, and his son, of the boat May, began loading up with lumber. Other boatmen who had refused to take loads at the prices Scribner offered marched down in a body to the dock and interfered.

Phillips drew a revolver and fired over the heads of the crowd, probably seeking to intimidate them. Some one fired three shots at Phillips, who fell to the deck of his boat dead. The younger Phillips, who had taken a hand in the melee was struck down with a club and horribly beaten. He managed to crawl into the cabin, where he died at 8.15 this morning.

The police arrested the following boatmen, who are known to have participated in the melee: Nick Wendell, Eddie Done, James Riley, E. Morgan, C. Hyde, J. Dixon, J. Stevens, M. Cohen, A. Wheeler, J. D. Dixon, A. Lane, B. Warren, E. Lawrence.

Capt. Phillips was about 50 years of age, and his son about 19. Their homes were in Berton's Bay.

Uncle Sam's Boycott of the Bruisers.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Attorney-General Harmon reiterated his statement made last week that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight will not come off on any ground over which the United States has jurisdiction. The talk that the Six Nations or other Indian tribes have exclusive jurisdiction over their reservations or country, and by adopting the prize fighters as members of their tribe and thus putting them outside the pale of Federal jurisdiction, is regarded in Federal legal circles here as simply nonsense, without basis of fact. The further contention that there is any ground within the boundaries of the United States over which some state or the United States has not police jurisdiction, is regarded as equally absurd. "Sluggers' Island," in the Missouri River, which is classed as neutral ground, is under the police jurisdiction of Missouri.

Before the Anti-Pug Wave.

New York, Oct. 7.—The 15-round contest between Young Griffo and Kid Lavigne, which was to have been decided at the new Active Athletic Association club house at Constable Hook, N.J., to-night, was postponed, owing to the action of the authorities, who refused to let the fight go on. Fully 2500 persons went down by boat to see the fight, but were met at the dock at Bayonne and informed of the decision of the police and sheriff, and the boats returned to the city without landing anywhere.

Ives' Great Run at Billiards.

New York, Oct. 7.—Frank Ives one night last week gave a wonderful exhibition of skill at balk-line billiards. In one run he scored between 700 and 800 points. Unfortunately, an exact count was not made, and the total of the break can only be approximated. One spectator counted 434 and then lost the count because he was impelled to ask a friend if anybody had ever before seen such marvellous billiards.

About 20 minutes later it was discovered that nobody knew how many points had been made, although every person present was ready to make an affidavit that he had witnessed over 600 carems without a miss. Then a count was kept, until 164 more points had been executed, when an effort to make an extremely difficult single-cushion shot resulted in a miss. Ives said it was undoubtedly the largest run he had ever made at the balk-line.

British Trade Revival.

London, Oct. 8.—The returns issued by the Board of Trade for September show an increase in imports of £378,000, and an increase in exports of £1,363,000, as compared with those of the corresponding month last year.

The camel is a beast of great strength and endurance. Nothing hurts it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a camel. You can impose on it to a wonderful degree. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand before it breaks down. "The last straw" doesn't break it down, but it makes it stop work. Continually put the wrong things into your stomach, and digestion will get weaker and weaker. Before long, something worse than usual will be eaten, and will go through the stomach into the bowels, and there it will stick—that's constipation. Let it continue, and there is nothing bad that it will not lead to. Nine-tenths of all human sickness is due to constipation. Some of the simplest symptoms are coated tongue and foul breath, dizziness, heartburn, flatulence, sallowness, distress after eating, headaches and lassitude. A little thing will cause constipation, and a little thing will relieve it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a certain cure for constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, mild and natural in their action. There is nothing injurious about them. You can take them just as freely as you take your food. There is no danger that you will become a slave to their use. They will cure you and then you can stop taking them. Send for free sample package of from 4 to 7 doses. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

A GREAT BOOK FREE.

Over 680,000 copies of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser have been sold at the regular price, $1.50. EYES TO SEE AND SEE NOT.

That is the case with many people. They need spectacles, and the strange part of it is that some folks never know how bad their eyes are until they have them tested. Have been going through life without seeing as much as they ought to see—perhaps suffering from headaches and tired eyes.

If you will call at Sanderson's Jewellery Store, George street, your eyes will be examined free of charge. If you need Glasses they will be supplied at a reasonable price. Do not neglect this matter and so be like those who have EARS TO HEAR AND HEAR NOT.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. F. B. Knowles has returned from Toronto, after a residence there of some months.

Mrs. R. L. Brennan, Ashburnham, leaves to-morrow on a visit to friends in Gravenhurst.

Chief Engineer Hannaford, of the Grand Trunk, passed through yesterday in his private car.

Mrs. Andrew Mercer and family are visiting Mrs. Mercer's parents at Hespler for a few weeks.

Mr. R. T. Hartley left this morning for Jubilee Point, where he will remain until the close of the duck season.

Miss Annie Sproule has returned home after a pleasant visit of some weeks' duration with friends out of town.

Miss Lenore Walkar, of Belleville, is spending a week in town as the guest of Miss Mabel Roy, Stewart street.

Mrs. Roy, of Belleville, is at present making a visit to her grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. R. Maitland Roy, Stewart street.

The Minden Echo says: Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Leary, Peterborough, are at present visiting with their parents in Anson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Hannaford, of Montreal, who have been spending the last few days in town visiting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Roy, Stewart street, have returned home.

Mr. Will Dixon, who for the past year has been in Madill's drug store, left the other day to accept a similar position with Stott & Jury, in Bowmanville. Will's absence will be generally missed from amongst his large number of friends.

Councillor Brady has been for some time under medical attendance and it has been necessary for him to avoid much exertion and exposure, consequently he has not been present at several meetings of the council. He is improving and expects to be able to attend the next meeting of the council.

T. Dodds returned on Monday evening from his mission field in the eastern townships of Parry Sound, where he has laboured during the past summer, and reports a very successful summer's work. He states the crops were above the average. Although the hay was light the grain was good. Some fields of oats would average six feet in height and a good yield per acre. The roots were a grand crop, even surpassing those exhibited at the Toronto fair. Mr. Dodds has with him a sample of potatoes from the farm of Mrs. Angus Kennedy, Berrydale, a former resident of North Monaghan, five of which weighed seven pounds, and two 1 lb 10½ oz. and 1 lb 8¾ oz. respectively, and the size of potatoes grown on new ground being much above this. Mr. Dodd will return to his studies at Toronto University this week, after spending a few days at his home in South Monaghan.
